Cabinet May Discuss Egyptian Crisis At Its Next Meeting

TEL AVIV, Israel, Jan. 3—(AP)—A foreign office spokesman said today the British government appears to be manoeuvring its "sulky boycott" of Israel toward actual war.

(The phrase "sulky boycott" was coined by Winston Churchill, who demanded in the House of Commons Dec. 10 that Britain accord recognition to Israel.)

"When the security council meets again," the spokesman declared, "it must regard Britain as now completely out of court as an impartial member of the U.N. interested in peace and stability in the Middle East. She is becoming an active ally of the Arab states."

He referred gravely to reports from the British press and foreign office which he said showed Britain now is bringing "heavy pressure on the United States to help save the Egyptians from the results of the folly of their own aggression."

Warn Israel

LONDON, Jan. 3 (AP) — A responsible source said today the United States has warned Israel that American diplomatic recognition of the Jewish State may be withdrawn if she attacks neighboring Arab states.

The source refused to be identified even by nationality.

A United States Embassy spokesman said he could not comment officially on the report.

The British cabinet may discuss the Israeli-Egyptian situation at its next meeting, diplomatic observers here believed today.

The foreign office was studying a report from Sir Oliver Franks, British Ambassador in Washington, on his interview on Palestine with Robert Lovett, United States Undersecretary of State, last week and reports of the invasion of Egyptian territory by Israeli forces.

A foreign office spokesman who described the Palestine-Egyptian frontier situation as "thoroughly confused" denied that Foreign Secretary Bevin had sent a note to the United States government through Sir Oliver.

It had been reported that Bevin in a note warned the United States that Israeli invasion of Egyptian territory might compel Britain to take action under the Anglo-Egyptian treaty.

Wants To Leave Post

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3 — (AP)—Walter Bedell Smith today asked President Truman to relieve him of his post of Ambassador to Russia. No decision apparently has been revoked by Truman on Smith's request. Smith has said previously that he wanted to be relieved from the Moscow post. Smith said today that if the President insists upon his retaining the post, he will have no choice but to return to Moscow.

Missed Ferry 2 Canadian Nurses Fired

HAMILTON, Bermuda, Jan. 3 (CP)—Two attractive nurses who left here for their Canadian homes after being dismissed when they missed a ferry home after going to a naval dockyard party said they planned to take their cases before the Canadian Nurses' Association.

The two nurses — Miss Vlama Stewart of Galt and Miss Rita Sylvester of Ponoka, Alta.—left for their homes late in December.

Before leaving here Miss Stewart said: "We don't feel we have had a fair hearing." Their dismissal was upheld by the hospital trustees despite a petition of protest from all the nurses, most of whom are Canadians, employed at the King Edward VII Memorial Hospital.

The nurses made a detailed statement so that Bermuda should know the facts behind the case and the "amazing attitude taken by the hospital authorities."

Given No Notice

The statement said the girls were not guilty of misconduct and were dismissed without notice and told to leave the colony as soon as possible."

The statement continued: "We went to a dance at the canteen at His Majesty's dockyard and missed the last ferry back to Hamilton. We tried to telephone the hospital and let them know of our predicament but we could not get through. We kept trying to get a taxi or to telephone the hospital but had no luck. We stayed in the dockyard canteen and eventually caught the early morning ferry.

"On arrival at Hamilton, we got a taxi to the hospital, which we reached at 8.30 a.m. We reported to the assistant matron. Next morning we were called to the matron's office and the matron told us 'the Board of Trustees has decided you must return to Canada.'

"The matron also told us that no self-respecting girls would have done what we had done."

The nurses added that they asked to see the Hospital Board and explain the circumstances but were told by the matron that the Board had decided to stand by its first decision.

Need For New Industries Stressed By Mayor In Address To Council

Suggests Purchasing Some Of Properties For New City Hall

The need and quest of new industries was one of the subjects to which Mayor M. J. Swanston referred in his address to the council this morning at its organization and ceremonial meeting.

Peterborough is investing large sums in new schools and hospitals, "and new industries will be helpful in sharing the payment of these civic improvements."

Industrial expansion during the last five years had been chiefly through the progressive enlargement of some of the long established factories, Mayor Swanston said.

"It was this extension of our existing industries which was responsible for the marked increase in our population and the resulting commercial improvements including new stores, offices, theatres, etc.... I consider it would be a mistake if the council was disposed to rest on its oars and not be actively interested in encouraging the location in the city of new industries."

"May I take this opportunity to welcome the new members of the City Council, James Gillespie and Arthur B. Burrows. I am confident they will make a real contribution in solving the problems which will arise during the year. I also desire to welcome the return to Council of Aldermen Hurrell Dodds, Herbert Young and Adam Sands."

Suggests Property Purchase

Mayor Swanston suggested that the council consider buying immediately some of the properties

Instal 100th Council Swanston 36th Mayor At Inaugural Session

Peterborough's 100th municipal Council was installed in office this morning with Maxwell J. Swanston the 36th Mayor.

Local civic history enhanced the customary formality of inauguration with an endowment of deeper dignity in the realization that this Council of 1949 was entering upon the final year of the first century of Peterborough's corporate establishment.

The accumulations of time, its stream of years and generations, the people who were electors, the men they elected, the collective spirits of the past, seemed to be nearer than usual to the simple ceremony of pledging fidelity in the public trust and service.

The oath of office was administered by City Clerk E. A. Outram to Mayor Swanston, and then to the five members of the Council recently elected for two-year terms. They are Alderman Hurrell Dodds, James E. Gillespie, Herbert N. Young, MD, Arthur B. Burrows, and Adam B. Sands.

The other members of the Council whose terms continue through this year are: Aldermen Hugh Waddell, Dick Raine, T. Douglas Miller, W. Grant Miller, and P. J. Anglesey.

The Council meets in business session to-night. As Mayor Swanston assumed for the first time the chair of the presiding officer, he had, by invitation, on his left his immediate predecessor, William G. Ovens, who had just completed three years as Mayor, completed three years as Mayor, and on his right Most Rev. Gerald Berry, Bishop of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Peterborough who invoked the blessing of God on the work of the Council.

About 75 citizens attended the inaugural meeting. Incidentally considerably more women than usual were noticed in the public section of the city hall. Among those present were a former mayor, Mr. A. A. McIntyre, and aldermen of other years, Malcolm McIntyre, Herbert Bradburn and John E. Sullivan; Mr. G. W. Craw

Plane Loaded With Students Crashes, 14 Die

SEATTLE, Jan. 3 — (AP). — chartered plane carrying vacationing Yale students back to school crashed and burned Sunday night, killing 11 students and three crew members.

The two-engined DC-3 piled into a hangar revetment at Boeing Field a few seconds after its take-off—a take-off a Civil Aeronautics Administration official said was made against control tower orders.

R. D. Bedinger, regional administrator of the CAA, said the pilot, William Chavers of Seattle, was warned twice that the conditions were "below minimums" required for a take-off. Witnesses said the field was glazed with ice and there was a light fog.

William J. Leland, head of the charter service which owned the plane, was among those who lost their lives.

Twenty-seven Yale students from Washington and Oregon had chartered the DC-3 from Seattle for Charter, a non-scheduled operator, to take them back to New Haven, Conn., after the holidays. Many of them were sons of prominent northwest people. The other three aboard were crew members.

The plane roared down an icy runway just at 10 p.m. Ten feet off the ground it faltered, the ground and crashed into the end of a Boeing Airplane Company experimental hangar.

Lynn Brown, a Boeing field employee, estimated the plane was going 80 to 100 miles an hour when it struck the hangar revetment and burst into flames.

"I ran over to the burning plane and helped some of the fellows who were on the ground there," Brown said. "Others from the crashed plane were running around crazily and I helped quiet them."

Shanghai Asks Separate Peace

SHANGHAI, Jan. 3—(CP).—The Shanghai City Council today went over the Nationalist Government's head and asked the Chinese Communists for a cease-fire order and the beginning of peace talks. The appeal was sent in a radio message to the Communist capital at Yenan for relay to all Communist leaders.

The text of the message as approved by the City Council on Sunday evening and announced today said:

"On behalf of the 6,000,000 people of Shanghai Communist leaders are asked to order an immediate cease fire and leave everything to discussions between your representatives and those of the government."

The message was addressed to "Mister" Mao Tse-Tung, No. 1 Chinese Communist. Use of the formal "Mister" was the first time an official body in Nationalist China had addressed the Chinese Communists by anything other than "bandit" since the war started.

The Shanghai Council asked that the message be relayed to other Communist leaders, Chou En-Lai, Chu Teh and Gen. Chen Yi.

Brought Into Open

NANKING, Jan. 3 — (AP) — Peace talk, sweeping all China like wildfire, was brought into the open tonight at a dinner given by Gen. Chang Chin-Chung, cabinet member, for several hundred educationists and public officials.

Associates of Gen. Chang, minister without portfolio, said the dinner was "in celebration of his efforts toward peace."

Chang declined to discuss politics at the dinner but urged his guests to "forget this situation and enjoy the food and drink."

Seated with Chang was Shao Li-tze, former ambassador to Moscow, who has been linked with Chang in the group which is urging immediate peace in China.

Frankford Man Will Lose 200 Million On Czech Plant

LONDON, Jan. 3—(CP). — Thomas J. Bata of Frankford, Ont., head of the shoe-manufacturing western Bata organization, has lost a three-year battle against the Communist Czechoslovakian government which now has expropriated the Bata plants at Zlin.

Bata, 34, stands to lose £50,000,000 ($200,000,000), the value of the seized works as estimated by an independent assessment. The Czech government recently decreed he is not entitled to compensation but he claims a "moral" victory.

"Fifty-million pounds is a lot of money," he said. "So far we have not received one penny of compensation but we have been able to force the Communists to give up use of our name and to stop misleading the public of the Western world."

The Czech government also changed the name of Zlin to Gottwaldov after Klement Gottwald, Czech president, shoe products of the Bata factories in Czechoslovakia now will carry the trademark "Svit."

Propaganda Minister Vaclev Kopecky, commenting on the decree, said that to Communists the name "Bata" has lost its value "because our greatest customer, the Soviet Union, no longer insists on the Bata name in shoes delivered to Russia"

Bata, who served in the Canadian Army during the Second World War, set up a Canadian Bata plant in 1938. He is the only son of Thomas Bata, who founded the Zlin business 54 years ago.

Attlee 66 Today

LONDON, Jan. 3 (Reuters). — Clement R. Attlee, Britain's Prime Minister since the Labor Government came into power in 1945, is 66 to-day. Except for the short period between the dissolution of the Coalition Government and the general election in 1945 he has been in office continuously since 1940.

Russ Theory Helps Canada Develop Unique A-Smasher

OTTAWA, Jan. 3 (CP).—Canada has just developed a unique type of atom-smasher, smaller and simpler than other cyclotrons, on the basis of a theory that came—of all places—from post-war Russia.

The development links possibly for the first time the scientific golden boys of radium and atomic energy in its course and mechanism. It also represents one of the extremely few scientific advances the western world has made as a partial result of the anaemic flow of information from behind the iron curtain.

The National Research Council at a cost estimated roughly at $50,000, has brought the atom-smasher to the stage where it is ready to join the search for new knowledge in the realm of nuclear physics.

It does not replace other cyclotrons—there probably are less than a total of 25 in the western world—such as Canada's original at McGill University. It complements them by doing work they could do only with difficulty.

The development exploits the pulse technique of radar and sends its radio waves of power through a high-power generator tube in spurts of 500,000 watts that last two-millionths of a second 300 times a second. They accelerate electrons, also children of a dissected atom but much lighter than protons.

The new cyclotron is capable of mounting 5,000,000 volts and one of its unusual advantages is that its power potential is tremendous. It just depends on how much the user wants to spend to get the extra voltage.

The original idea came from a scientific paper published in 1946 by a Russian named Veksler. The work has gone on in the radiology section of the NRC's physics section, under Dr. W. J. Henderson, chiefly by Paul Redhead, an emigrant English physicist.

Five-Year-Old Boy Performs Marriage

LONG BEACH, Calif., Jan. 3—(AP) — Marjoe Gortner, five-year-old boy evangelist, Sunday performed his first marriage, assisted by his brother Pat, two. The youngster married Raymond Miller, 23, a sailor, and Alma Brown, 21. The boy's father says Marjoe has been preaching since he was three and was ordained last October by the Old Time Faith Church.

Several Superior Court judges have taken opposite views on the legality of the marriage. One points out that State law provides that any judge, magistrate or ordained minister can officiate at a wedding.

Another jurist held that a marriage is a contract and that a minor cannot make a contract.

Frost Damages Florida Crop

CHICAGO, Jan. 3 (AP)—Truck growers in the Florida Everglades surveyed the frost-wrought damage to their crops today as a whistling blizzard harassed livestock producers over most of the high Great Plains region of the United States.

With reports still incomplete on the extent of the frost and freezing temperatures in Florida Saturday night, it is known to have been heavy in many sections.

Warren O. Johnson, chief of the federal-state frost warning service, said some crops of corn, sweet potatoes, squash and new beans were killed and that lettuce, cabbage and other crops were damaged, some extensively. Temperatures had climbed back into the 50s throughout the south and southeast today.

The blizzard which came out of the Rocky Mountains into Western Kansas, Western Nebraska and Western Oklahoma Sunday night is of the solid variety which might carry with diminishing effect into the citrus fruit belt of the Rio Grande Valley and Texas Gulf Coast, said W. M. Percy, federal forecaster at Chicago.

No Knowledge Of Meet

TORONTO, Jan. 3 — (CP). — R. H. Carlin, Eastern Canadian director of the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers (CIO), said to-day he had "no knowledge whatsoever" of a meeting of CIO and Canadian Congress of Labor officials which the United Steelworkers recently announced would be held this month in Washington to discuss affairs of the Mine-Mill Union. "Such a meeting was requested by Pat Conroy, CCL secretary, and that is as far as it has gone," he said.

Save 11 People From Gas Fumes

OSHAWA, Jan. 3—(CP)—Seven adults and four children narrowly escaped asphyxiation from coal gas fumes in two homes today.

Waken by the alarm clock at 7.30 a.m., J. M. Lee felt dizzy, and realizing the cause rushed to a window before trying to wake the other unconscious occupants of the house. He called the fire department and inhalators were used to revive Mrs. Lee, their four-year-old daughter, Mrs. Margaret Anderson and her children Frances, 16, Ivan, 13, and Helen 8.

"In another few minutes it would have been too bad for them," a fire department official said.

At Thornton's Corners, three miles west of here, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hodgson and their two sons, Newton, 32, and Elmer, 34, were treated after the elder son and the mother both collapsed when they tried to get up. The elderly couple were taken to hospital.

Frost Sees Good Year

LINDSAY, Jan. 3—(CP)—Provincial Treasurer Leslie Frost predicted Friday night that 1949 will be "another good year" for citizens of Ontario. He made his forecast in a New Year's message which he issued as acting premier in the absence of Premier T. L. Kennedy, who is on vacation in Texas.

Will Continue Rent Controls

OTTAWA, Jan. 3—(CP)—An authoritative source said Friday the government will ask parliament to extend rental controls through 1949 and into the early party of 1950.

Coupled with these controls will be another laying down continued government supervision of steel imports from the United States, the source said.

Extension of the rental controls will result from provincial decision not to take up the offer of Finance Minister Abbott to take take over rental controls with the government paying for the costs during the first year of administration.

The steel controls, undertaken in the latter part of 1948, when the United States embarked on her huge defence program, will continue on a voluntary basis.

Giant Ocean Liner Damaged When Run Aground Off Harbor At Cherbourg

Repairing Damaged Hull From Inside Ship Work Said Of Minor Nature; 300 Technicians Sent Aboard After Accident

SOUTHAMPTON, England, Jan. 3—(CP)—The sailing of the Queen Mary for New York, scheduled for today, has been delayed until tomorrow because of damage done to the giant liner when she ran aground off Cherbourg Saturday. The Cunard-White Star Line announced repairs to the damaged hull were being made from inside the vessel.

Although the repairs are of a "minor nature," the officials said they couldn't be completed in time for the vessel's scheduled departure with today's noon tide.

Officials said damage to the 81,235-ton vessel was superficial. But some workers told reporters the world's second largest ship had sprung six plates amidships in her mud-sitting experience at the French port. There was no confirmation of this report.

As soon as the liner docked, 300 technicians streamed aboard. Eighteen officials of the Cunard White Star Line, the ministry of transport and the insurers, Lloyds of London, also went aboard.

Must Get Certificate

The vessel must get a clearance certificate from insurance underwriters before proceeding. There are 1,740 passengers aboard.

The liner went aground at the height of a gale that had been sweeping the French Atlantic coast for 48 hours.

In the face of a rising wind and violent squalls from the southwest, the Cherbourg harbor pilot lifted anchor and manoeuvred in order to back away from the sea wall at the harbor entrance. He feared the gale would fling the ship against the Querqueville breakwater.

The Queen Mary was driven backward until her stern settled lightly on the sand bottom.

First efforts to refloat her Saturday night failed because the raging sea did not begin to calm until early Sunday.

13-Year-Old Neighbor Saves Four Children

OSHAWA, Jan. 3 — (CP) — A 13-year-old neighbor girl saved her own brother and sister and two children of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Rozell from the blazing Rozell home, two miles east of here.

The four-room house was gutted while the Rozell parents were in Oshawa.

Merna Manual—the oldest of the five—rushed her brother, Harold, 6, and sister Brenda, 7, and the two Rozell children—Clifford, 4, and Eileen, 7—over to another neighbor's while firemen made a futile attempt to bring the flames under control.

The fire started when young Clifford struck a match and dropped it into cotton batting which surrounded the base of the Rozell Christmas tree.

Farmer-Senator Sutherland Dies

INGERSOLL, Jan. 3—(CP)—Senator Donald Sutherland, 85, Progressive Conservative farmer-politician, who rose from township councillor to Federal Minister before his appointment to the Senate, died New Year's Day at his farm home in North Oxford county.

Senator Sutherland was Minister without portfolio in the short-lived government formed by Arthur Meighen in July 19, 1926, which lasted until Sept. 26, 1926. He was appointed to the Senate in 1935 following an unsuccessful attempt to regain his Commons seat in a 1934 by-election.

A farmer who began his legislative career on the councils of his native West Zorra township and Oxford county, he was elected to the Ontario Legislature from Oxford riding in 1902. It was the first Conservative victory in that riding since Confederation.

He held the Provincial seat until 1908 and during the next three years the man whose forefathers came from Scotland served as Provincial director of immigration and colonization.

He resigned that position in 1911 to seek a Federal seat, and during the special war session of the Commons in August, 1914, he moved the Address in Reply to the Speech from the Throne. He won successive re-elections in the general elections of 1917, 1921 and 1925.

2 Indian States End 14 Months Shooting Feud

NEW DELHI, Jan. 3—(CP)—Hindu India and Moslem Pakistan Saturday night called an immediate cease-fire in their 14 months' shooting feud in the neighboring princely State of Kashmir.

The sister Dominions announced a truce agreement calling for an end of fighting one minute before midnight Dec. 31 as a New Year's harbinger of peace.

They said they agreed that the major issue — whether Kashmir shall belong to India or Pakistan—would be settled by a United Nations-supervised plebiscite.

The defense ministry said today fighting has stopped.

Recent despatches from Pakistan said both countries had agreed to withdraw their armed forces from the field there, and to divide the state into two zones, each having its own interim government.

Heads Government

Sheikh Mohammed Abdullah, a Mohammedan who is close to the predominantly Hindu Indian Government, would head the interim government in the Indian-occupied sector, these dispatches said. Leaders of the so-called Azad (free) Kashmir Government, who have worked closely with Pakistan, would administer the Pakistan-occupied zone.

A UN administrator would be designated over both zones, according to this information, to establish machinery for a fair test of the people's will in a plebiscite.

Kashmir is predominantly Moslem in population but its ruler is Hindu.

However, Sardar Mohammed Ibrahim Khan, President of the Acad Kashmir Government, said in Lehore there had been absolutely no suggestion from any quarter, of a division of Jammu and Kashmir.

Pakistan finally admitted Kashmir's Maharajah, Sir Hart Singh, has acceded the state to the Indian Union. What will happen to him under the terms of truce and plebiscite has not yet been made clear.

Leonard Henderson Heads Plowmen

MILLBROOK, Jan. 3 (ENS)—Durham County Plowmen's Association annual meeting on Wednesday, with the retiring president, Edwin Wilson, of Garden Hill, in the chair. Emphasis was laid on the need to interest the young men in plowing and on encouraging them to compete in local and other matches.

Reports showed a successful year, with sufficient funds to meet all financial obligations and interest in the New Year's plans and activities at a high pak.

The new slate of officers is:

President, Leonard Henderson, Millbrook; vice-president, William Allen, of Newcastle; secretary-treasurer, John Pickard, of Newcastle. It was decided to make the boys of 16 and under, who had competed at the provincial plowing match, junior directors of the county organization. Names included on the list were Roy Seney, Ida, Allen Thompson, Millbrook, Trevor Fallis, Millbrook, Earl Brown, Newcastle.

A new feature of the 1949 county match also considered was the introduction of a special speaker to address the gathering in the afternoon, while the several plowing classes are in progress, and also to have the guest speaker at the concluding banquet when prizes are presented.

Tentative date set for county competition this year was October 20, the match to be on the Henderson farm, home of the president at Fallis Line.

Prices Slip Lower On Toronto Exchange

TORONTO, Jan. 3 — (CP) — Prices slipped lower in quiet action here today. Industrials dipped into lower ground on small losses. Base metals and golds were almost at a standstill in the dull activity.

A comparatively wide list of industrials slipped fractionally into lower ground to start the new year on a downward note. Papers and utilities were easier and a few stocks that opened strongly, sagged towards noon. Federal Grain Pfd., added $2.

Golds moved sluggishly with Nicholson a lone active trader for a small loss. McIntyre, Teck-Hughes, Kerr Addison and Dome dipped in the senior issues.

Consolidated Smelters led a weaker base metals list on a decline of 1¾. International Nickel lost a fraction and Sherritt, Base Metals, New Calumet and Golden Manitou were penny losers.

299 US Fatalities

CHICAGO, Jan. 3 (AP)—Accidents turned many American families from happy New Year welcomers to mourners. At least 299 Americans were killed during the week-end. Of these 161 died in traffic accidents and 68 died violently from other types of mishaps.

30 Marooned By Drifts Sleep On Restaurant Cots

TORONTO, Jan. 3—(CP)—Snowdrifts closed highways in some Southern Ontario sections during the New Year's week-end but by today all main roads were open. A mild spell Sunday after the winds stopped blowing enabled snowblowers and plows to smash through the drifts near Owen Sound, in the Niagara Peninsula and in the Agincourt-Newmarket section north of Toronto.

The storm blocked miles of country roads in the Lindsay area. Farms were isolated. A hockey game between Lindsay and Peterborough was cancelled when the visiting team could not get through the drifts.

The snow rode a 25-mile-an-hour wind into St. Catharines and forced abandonment of hundreds of automobiles on city streets. Many revellers, stranded after the celebration, slept in downtown hotels or in private homes.

Cars Under Drifts

Several hundred cars were buried under drifts after 14-inch snowfall settled over Welland. Tow trucks rescued others.

Milkmen abandoned their trucks and switched to sleighs at Renfrew as residents started to dig themselves out from under nine inches of snow.

More than 30 persons were marooned in Aurora, north of Toronto, after drifts plugged the roads from Toronto to Aurora and Newmarket. Cots were set up in a restaurant after hotel accommodation was filled but less fortunate travellers slept on the floor.

Near Dundalk, two buses carrying 40 passengers to Owen Sound were stuck overnight in the drifts.

George Summerhays, 25, was found unconscious in a snowbank near Fort Erie. Police said he might have been struck by a car.

Traffic continued to flow with little difficulty, however, over the highways linking Toronto and Hamilton. Drifting was reported in some areas of southwestern Ontario.

One farm town in the Aurora district remained isolated after the storm, with streets almost impassable and roads in all directions solidly blocked. Its name: Snowball.

of the Board of Education; Wilson Gemmell, James Fraser and other representatives of the Chamber of Commerce, and among the friends of Mayor Swanston were Mr. A. L. Elliott, KC, and Mr. Vernon Dawson, general manager of the Peterborough-Brinton Carpet Company, an associate of the days when he was prominent in the sponsorship of the Peterborough Baseball Club, of which Mayor Swanston was for years behind the bat.

City Clerk Outram announced the results of the civic elections and the affirmative vote on the bylaw increasing the funding of the construction of the new Civic Hospital, whose governors were represented this morning by Mr. John R. Marshall.

The text of the prayer offered by Bishop Berry was:

"O God to whom it belongs to govern as it does to create, plan and stimulate and Who dost confer Thy authority in temporal matters in this jurisdiction on those designated by the electors, we pray that these Thy servants, the Mayor and the Councillors of this city of Peterborough, with the help of Thy grace, legislate in the spirit of divine justice and charity, may govern with the moderation of true wisdom, may exercise vigilance over the health, the safety, the general welfare of all our citizens and protect them from danger in all such spheres;

"To the end that these and all Thy servants may be accounted worthy to receive Thy powerful blessing now and Thine eternal reward hereafter. Through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen."

Close Connection

In addressing the council and the assembled citizens, Bishop Berry said it required only a moment of reflection to bring home to one's mind the close connection between the ceremony of inauguration and the province of the Christian religion.

"Your Worship and the newly-elected aldermen have taken an oath of office," His Excellency said. "That would be a meaningless form of words if the oath did not rest on one of God's commandments: 'Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain.'

"Over the centuries there has grown up in the laws of the lands of Europe and America the translation into the statutes of the duties of civil government—the Mayor and councillors in the municipal arena—but always the guarantee of fidelity has been sought in the oath pledged by such officials.

"Fortunately there has been by far the greater number of conscientious effort to fulfill their pledges with earnestness and credit to themselves. It is one of the glories of the Anglo-Saxon tradition that the various and often onerous duties imposed on its officers by local government have been met with appropriate devotion that speaks volumes for the sense of civic duty, and as well for the process of democracy itself.

"The votes of the people have bestowed their burdens of office upon you, and these in turn are to be discharged in your own city—the form of government that is closest to the electors—where the wishes of the people may be known directly, where your neighbors are your electors, and your own interests as citizens are closely identified with the public welfare you serve.

"The citizens have commissioned you to attend to that public welfare, to exercise your judgment on the policies that will guide the city on the 12 months to come, and to conduct the affairs of nearly the largest corporation operating here.

"Politics is an art that is concerned with the doing of things, rather than with the spinning of theories, and yet the theories must not be lost sight of. You gentlemen are to make decisions at the point where theory and practice of government cross."

Bishop Berry, concluding his preface, said it was his privilege to offer prayer to Almighty God for His guidance in the work of the council throughout the year.

Mayor Swanston expressed his personal thanks to Bishop Berry and Mr. Ovens for their presence.

"I am glad ex-Mayor Ovens is with us to lend us his support as he has done for years," Mayor Swanston said and proceeded with his address to the council.

Dutch Order Fighting Halted

BATAVIA, Java, Jan. 3 (AP)—The Netherlands commander in Indonesia has issued an order of the day to his troops on Java which is interpreted here as a semi-official cease-fire.

Lt.-Gen. Simon Spoor told his men their only remaining job is "operations against roaming groups or individuals trying to cause disorder."

The order of the day was made available today by the official Netherlands military spokesman here. The spokesman refused, however, all information concerning the issuance of the order. He declined to say when it actually was given to the troops and when a slimilar order might be issued on Sumatra.

The spokesman indicated there had been attempts to transmit the order to representatives of the Indonesian Republic.

He declared that "in the first place there is no more regular enemy in Java."

Asked whether the Republican commander on Sumatra might be exercising authority over forces on Java, he replied:

"Operations in Java stopped long before Dec. 31. In Java there are no regular Republican troops under a responsible commander."

Snow Paralyses Taxi Service

Taxi operators of the city had a rough time over the holiday week-end. New Year's always means a rush and the big snow did not ease things a bit for them. Many gave up the fight entirely in the first few hours of 1949, simply ignoring the jangling telephones in their offices.

"Pooling" of passengers as much as possible became necessary as the driving conditions grew worse. Bucking snowdrifts, blinding snow and slippery roads, the cabbies had many a sad tale to tell today of their woes as they attempted to transport the city's revellers from dances, and private parties.

Most irritating of the types they encountered, all agreed, were the blissfully happy citizens who regarded the taxi trip as all part of the fun. Dangerous swerves to avoid other cars, near-crashes with poles, wheels churning furiously in loose snow, the cabs narrowly averting a slip into a ditch: all were thrills and greeted with shouts of "Whoopee!" "Hooray for our side!" "Let's race 'em!"

As is customary on New Year's Eve calls, said veteran drivers, the driver often had to assist happy customers through snow drifts to their homes, to the accompanying chatter of complaints about the courtesy of cab drivers.

One despatcher said: "The calls were all bunched up, of course, and at about the same time of night. We kept all our cars going until it was actually impossible to move. We were immobilized—literally—shortly after 2 a.m.

Many taxis were off the road from their shut-down time Saturday morning until well into the afternoon, when they were able to get around this city again.

Voters Ban 2-Year Term For Toronto

Re-Elect McCallum Mayor For 1949; Return 2 Communists

TORONTO, Jan. 3 —(CP)— A contentious proposal for a two-year city council term was snowed under Saturday as Toronto voters re-elected Mayor Hiram McCallum as mayor for 1949.

Electors voted 73,638 to 46,791 to defeat the two-year term proposal which had provided the biggest issue in the civic election campaign.

Mayor McCallum polled 97,715 votes to defeat his only opponent, Ross Dowson, a member of the Trotskyite Revolutionary Workers party, who had polled slightly more than 15,000 votes in an unsuccessful mayoralty bid last year.

Voters in wards four and five re-elected two Communist aldermen who have represented the two west-central wards since 1944. Two other Communist candidates for city council were defeated but two Communists were elected to the Board of Education—one of them by acclamation.

Small Vote

Only some 121,000 voters—less than 35 per cent of the approximately 390,000 eligible electors—turned out to cast their ballots in blustery weather. Some 39 per cent voted last year.

John Innes, a contractor with 10 years on city council, led the polls for the Board of Control and, through precedent, will become vice-chairman of the Board of Control. Toronto controllers receive $5,000 for their year's work and aldermen get $1,200.

Also elected to the Board of Control were Controller David A. Balfour, re-elected for the sixth straight year, and two aldermen, Leslie Saunders and Allan Lamport.

The two Communists—Norman Freed in Ward Four and Charles Sims in Ward Five—headed their polls. Mr. Freed got 5,827 votes and Mr. Sims 8,429.

Alderman Nathan Phillips was re-elected for the 26th consecutive time in Ward Four and his son, Howard, was elected in Ward Three in his first try. They become the first father-son combination to sit on council in the city's history.

Acclamations filled Board of Education seats in four wards. One of those elected was Mrs. Edna Ryerson, a Communist and sister-in-law of Stanley Ryerson, the director of education for the Labor-Progressive Party. Another Communist, Sam Walsh, was elected to the Board of Education in Ward Four.

Republicans Ready With Blocking Tactics

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3 (AP)—The Truman administration bids for "push button" control of the House of Representatives today as the 81st Congress swings open its doors under Democratic direction.

Hustled back into a minority role, Republicans tried their hand again at the blocking tactics they learned in the lean Republican years from 1931 to 1946.

Representative Joe Martin of Massachusetts, picking up again as minority leader after two years as Speaker of the House in the Republican-dominated 80th Congress, called the House Republican Steering Committee together to discuss a possible coalition with anti-administration Democrats.

in the proposed city hall site, opposite Confederation Park, for the accommodation of several of the municipal departments which are beginning to need elbow room.

"This condition is particularly true in the Department of Health, Assessment Office and Engineer's Department. One of the properties could temporarily serve as quarters for our health department? Its removal from the city hall would give the space required by several of the other departments."

Peterborough, in its housing problem, is no different from all other growing communities in Ontario, His Worship said.

"Frankly, I feel that much credit is deserved by past councils for their work in securing the erection of hundreds of new homes in the city. Councils had to sacrifice much in municipal taxes which are required to pay for the services given to the families occupying the houses."

"With the 225 rental houses now being constructed by Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation, under agreement with the Council, and the several hundred houses being constructed for sale—also through the co-operation extended by the City Council—and those being constructed by individuals for their own occupancy, it may be expected that by the summer of this year a marked improvement in the housing situation will exist. When these houses become occupied there should be better accommodation available for those who need it and seek it out. However, the City Council should keep closely in touch with the situation and be prepared to take every necessary step to encourage the erection of more housing accommodation.

We are glad many ex-servicemen, previously tenants of government houses, have become the purchasers of these houses and are making real efforts to convert them to permanent houses, which are a credit to their owners and to the city.

Mentions Expropriation

Mayor Swanston touched upon the action of last year's council in deciding to expropriate the properties on the proposed city hall site, and the prospect of obtaining plans and specifications for the municipal building which was munificently endowed by a former Mayor, the late W. G. Morrow.

He also mentioned the progress with preliminaries for the sewage disposal plant enlargement and the connection of the Ashburnham sewerage system with the main trunk line on George St. by a proposed crossing at Burnham's Point.

Another work demanding the council's action was the filling of the ditch on Park St., west side, south of Lansdowne St.

In supplying new houses with municipal services, such as roads, sewers, sidewalks, etc., improvements last year included 7,942 feet of sidewalk and more than 15,500 feet of sewers were laid.

"The activity of the board of works must be continued this year because these services often result in building houses which would not be otherwise undertaken."

Fallen Behind

I feel that we have fallen behind in the laying of paved roadways. Many roads which a few years ago were secondary are now heavily travelled and these should have proper paved surfaces. Last year the council was able to secure the approval of the Municipal Board to such a program without waiting for petitions from the owners of properties fronting on the roads paved. This now leaves the way open for the council to take early action in commencing a new programme of road paving."

"With the approval of the ratepayers, as so strongly expressed in their voting on the money by-law submitted at the civic elections, considerable progress has been made in the past few weeks in arranging for the completion of the new Civic hospital buildings. The necessary additional contracts with the architect and the building contractors have been assigned. The city council's special hospital committee is in a much stronger and happier position at this time, and is receiving the full co-operation of the board of governors. Much of the remaining work on the hospital should be completed by the end of this year."

"The question of a new market was given considerable thought a few years ago, under the direction of Mr. James Dutton, I feel that this subject might be re-opened with profit again. It has been suggested that the present space occupied by the market could be used to much greater advantage both financially and for the commercial development of the downtown section."

"Last year the city adopted the practice of staggering the tax payments and also having business taxes paid in one instalment before the payment of property taxes. This procedure worked most successfully, being not only of financial advantage to the city but also a definite convenience for the public, and it should be continued."

five persons were injured in the first, when three bombs were dropped on a densely-populated Jewish quarter.

Another raid came three hours later. No details were available but two explosions were heard.

An Israeli spokesman said in Tel Aviv that if the bomber proved to be Egyptian, the raid would be sufficient reason for the Jewish air force to strike at Cairo.

A Jewish spokesman said Saturday that if the Egyptians attacked Tel Aviv again, either by sea or air, the Jews would attack the Egyptian capitol.

An Egyptian war ministry communique issued Sunday night in Cairo said Egyptian planes carried out long-range reconnaissance raids over Jewish position Sunday. He said all planes returned to their bases. The communique said Israeli planes raided Palestine Arab refugee camps and dropped bombs, causing casualties.

Property Damage Heavy In Car Accidents But No Injuries Reported

The grim toll of death and heavy property loss customary to the New Year's holiday missed Peterborough and district this year. Less than a dozen traffic collisions were reported to city and provincial police, and there were no injuries. Damage in all the accidents will probably exceed $2,000 — a small proportion of the province's crash bill during the festivities.

Total damage of more than $500 was caused to a city bus and a car in collision at Charlotte and Maitland Sts. in the early afternoon of New Year's Day. The bus, driven by Lawrence Gibson, 483 Parnell St., had about $125 damage to its rear end, and there was about $400 damage to the car of John Clarke, 494 McKellar St. PC E. Nizioi investigated.

First Of Year

Dubious honor of having the first recorded accident of 1949 came at 1.20 a.m. Jan. 1 to two city motorists.

When a car driven by Paul Robb, King St., made a left turn on George St. to enter London St. early on New Year's Day, it collided with another car going south on George St., driven by Delbert Whatman, Ford Ave. Damage to Whatman's car was estimated at $75, and to Robb's $100. PC's G. Gillespie and Leo Murphy who investigated reported that it was snowing hard at the time.

Provincial Constable Earl Berwick investigated an accident just north of Lakefield on No. 28 Highway about 7.30 New Year's Eve. Cars of Douglas J. Jones of Bancroft and Melvyn Leal, King George St., were involved. The Leal car was temporarily stopped on the highway and the southbound Jones car struck the rear. Damage to the Jones car is estimated at $150. There was slight damage to the Leal vehicle. There were no injuries in the collision.

Considerable Damage

A taxi and a car were damaged in collision at Reid and Stewart Sts. about 8.45 p.m. Jan. 1. There was considerable damage to the car of Gordon McGregor of RR 1, Peterborough. Fender damage and slight body damage was received by the taxi, which was driven by Cameron Bennett, 396 Dobbin Ave. PC E. McDonald investigated.

Damage estimated at $150 was caused to the car of G. H. Montgomery, Aylmer St. early Saturday evening when it collided at George and King Sts. with another car driven by A. Godfrey, Young's Point. Montgomery was driving north on George St. and Godfrey was crossing to the east at King St. when the accident happened.

The northbound vehicle received a damaged left front fender, left front headlight and front bumper as well as a smashed grill. Both the right door and panel of Godfrey's car were bent. Godfrey told PCs Douglas Farthing and John Morrow that he was unable to get a clear view of northbound traffic because of a parked truck.

A collision between a bread truck and a car at King and George Sts. early Friday evening resulted in a broken front bumper to the car driven by Arthur Kelly, RR 6, Peterborough, and damaged rear fender to the truck, driven by William Duncan, 383 Dobbin Ave. Kelly told PC Andre Dalton who investigated the accident, that as he entered the intersection he saw the truck coming north on George St. He was of the opinion that he had ample time to drive across but the icy road surface and generally poor traction slowed his progress.

Collision in Hastings

The front right wheel and axle of a car being driven by Bernard Towns, Hastings, was snapped off on Friday shortly before midnight when it collided with another car being driven by Dr. Bell Smith, Hastings.

Town's vehicle was going south through Hastings when it met the northbound car of Dr. Smith. Dr. Smith's car was also badly damaged. Neither man was injured.

Slight damagew as caused in the early hours of New Year's Day when a car driven by Mrs. Louise McCartney, 664 Brown St., collided with a car owned by Harold Kidd, RR 3, Lakefield. Both cars were being driven north on George St. in the driving snow when they collided, south of Westcott St.

Kidd's car had the radiator grill broken and both front fenders dented while the other car had the rear bumper bent. PC Claire McGillent investigated.

The car of Michael Doherty, RR 1, Indian River, was damaged at two doors at McDonnel and Aylmer Sts. on Friday. It was in collision with another vehicle which was not identified.

TWO PERSONS WERE KILLED when their car crashed into a Pennsylvania commuter train at a grade crossing near Morton, Pa. Here a railroad trainman looks over wreckage following the collision. Both bodies were mangled when thrown from the auto.

Minstrel Show Has Capacity Crowd

GORE'S LANDING, Jan. 3 — (ENS)—The Merrie Minstrels, a group of young people, put on a variety concernt in the U.C. Hall on Wednesday evening to a capacity audience. Mrs. Clare Harris was director and Mrs. R. J. Meggs pianist.

The first part of the program was a minstrel show with nine blackface comedians. Miss Alice Harris was an attractive interlocutor in a long white evening gown. A group of minstrels sang "Carry me back to ole Virginny". This was followed by pokes and a duet "Barnacle Bill" sung by Miss Joan Harris and Bill Meggs, in costume. Miss Marlene Cowling recited "The Old Sailor"; Bob Gilpin sang "Shortenin' Bread"; Eric Harris sang "The Riff Song"; Miss Myrna Larke sang "By the light of the silvery Moon" with a very realistic moon effect and the minstrels joining in the chorus.

In the second part of the program, a broadcasting sequence was enacted with Bob Gilpin as the announcer for a "Soap Opera". After giving a newscast, the skit was put on by Miss Myrna Larke, Miss Gene Thompson, Kenneth Harris and Bud Waldon.

In between acts Rev. A. E. Larke lead in community singing and the young ladies of the cast sold home-made candy. The last act was entitled "A pair of lunatics" with Bill Meggs and Miss Joan Harris as the characters. The entire cast then assembled on the stage and sang Christmas carols with Myrna Larke singing an Indian carol as a solo. At this time, Mrs. Clare Harris and Mrs. Meggs were called to the platform and presented with lovely nosegays from the cast in appreciation of their help.

Mr. and Mrs. Clare Harris entertained the entire cast at their home after the concert.

Rioting In Denver

DENVER, Jan. 3—(AP).—Rioting broke out as Denver welcomed the New Year Friday night. A mob formed in the downtown theatre district as midnight shows ended. Women were assaulted and one stripped nude. Shop windows were broken, traffic was snarled and at least one auto overturned.

Police said the rioting started when a gang of teen-age boys began grabbing girls and forcing them into store doorways to kiss and molest them. Escorts immediately began fighting.

Dies Of Natural Causes

TORONTO, Jan. 3. —(CP). — Mildred Eve McMulkin Collins, 53, prominent in the Ontario Progressive Conservative Association, died in hospital here Sunday after a long illness.

Harwood Has Community Hall

HARWOOD, Dec. 3 —(ENS)— The new community hall at Harwood was officially opened to the public on New Year's Eve. Major R. E. Drope, M.P., presided and the Park Committee, consisting of R. E. Drope, Glen Hogg, W. O. Harvie, John Young, Jack Robson, Walter Johnston, Albert Thorold, Wallace Young, Wm. Baker and Jack Mitchell, assembled on the platform for the opening ceremony. Two member E. T. Shearer, and Alex Young were unable to be present owing to illness.

Despite the storm, there were more than two hundred present for the opening. One minute silence was observed in honor of the late George Rogers, a former member of the committee and a man who was vitally interested in building a new hall.

In his address, R. E. Drope, chairman of the Park Commission, said that in addition to collections and donations from the citizens and outside residents, much of the funds were collected from annual field days. He expressed the appreciation of the committee to all the citizens for their co-operation as every person in the community had contributed in some way in erecting the building. The contractor, Joe Wilson, and electrician, Bert Adams also deserved praise, he said and Alex Johnston, one of the eldest residents and a native of Harwood, had remained at the hall during the construction and had kept the fires going. The men of the community had worked voluntarily and the kitchen cupboards were constructed by Harold Zufelt, with the Women's Institute providing the furnishings.

Mrs. Arthur Lawton, president and life member of the Women's Institute assured the Park Commission of further help from the Institute. Deputy-Reeve Hilton Harris, of Gore's Landing, congratulated the community on behalf of Hamilton Township Council.

Reeve Orrie Robins of Roseneath spoke on behalf of Alnwick Township and extended greetings from Roseneath district. The Honourable W. A. Goodfellow, M.P.P., was unable to be present on account of snow-bound roads.

Minifie's Orchestra provided music for dancing. Several novelty dances added to the enjoyment of the evening. The balloon dance was won by Mr. and Mrs. G. U. Isaac of Harwood. The lucky spot dance was won by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Walker of Orono. Mrs. Lloyd Hall of Harwood held the ladies' lucky number for the door prize and the gentleman's prize went to Mr. Cecil Robins of Roseneath. The hall was decorated in purple and gold.

At midnight a grand march took place with everyone singing Auld Lang Syne. Confetti, streamers and balloons added to the merriment of the first few moments of 1949.

Record 20 Violent Deaths On Holiday Across Canada

By The Canadian Press

With a list of 20 violent deaths during the New Year holiday week-end, Canadians looked back today on a holiday safely spent—in comparison with the toll of 55 killed in the Christmas festival days of the previous week-end.

Safety campaigns in communities across the country kept traffic fatalities to 11, eight of which were pedestrian deaths.

A Canadian Press compilation found only one highway crash that resulted in deaths. Three Vancouver residents died in a collision between an automobile and a streetcar. They were Mr. and Mrs. Al Howard and William Coundley.

British Columbia's only other fatal accident occurred last Thursday when Harold Reid, employee of the greater Vancouver waterworks commission, was crushed under a snowslide while patrolling the Capilano Watershed. His body was recovered during the week-end.

10 Violent Deaths

Ontario led the provinces with 10 violent deaths, Quebec's toll was five and New Brunswick had one fatal accident.

Four persons died of burns in Ontario. Archie Bourgeois, 65, and Archie Burgeron, 60, died in an apartment house fire in Sudbury. Mrs. Mary Mills, 82, suffered fatal burns from a flaming dressing gown in Hamilton, and a Toronto furnace tender, Edward Hurst, 46, died following an oil-furnace explosion.

Fire at Place Laval, north of Montreal, took the life of Ernest St. Hilare, 27, of Montreal.

An apparent drowning victim, the body of an unidentified man was taken from the Saint John River at Saint John, NB.

Investigate Death

Police are probing the death of Robert Joseph, 40, whose body was found at Aldershot near Hamilton, in a snowbank near the house where he attended a New Year's party. His skull was fractured.

Police said injuries suffered in a brawl at his mother's home caused the death of William Oneschuk, 29, of Windsor.

Four pedestrians were killed on Ontario roads. Charles Millet, 50, became Sudbury's first fatality of 1949 when he was struck by a skidding taxi. Mrs. Charlotte Stanton, 60, year-old Toronto woman, died after being hit by a streetcar; John Janssens, 31, of Camlachie, was knocked down by a passing car as he changed a tire, and William McElroy, 57, of Windsor, was hit by an automobile in Windsor New Year's eve.

Of Quebec's four pedestrians killed, Charles Roberts, 89, died on a Montreal street and a Chinese identified as Ow Chung Tong of Welland or Cochrane was killed by an automobile in Montreal. A Chicoutimi, Que., taxi struck down Michael Gauthier, 20, and Alfred Stanhope, 59, was killed on a highway near Stanby, Que.

Warkworth Woman In Iron Lung

TORONTO, Jan. 31—(CP)—An iron lung, a hospital bed and a sort of mechanized cradle are home for three poliomyelitis victims in the Isolation Hospital here.

But New Year might mean great things for the three, Mrs. Annie Skinkie of Workworth, 18-year-old Mary Chamberlain of Lloydtown, and Lila Swanson, 12, of Fenelon Falls.

Lila, most active of the three, can sit up in bed and wiggle her hands and toes, but she hopes that during 1949 she'll regain use of her legs.

Mrs. Skinkle, in a specially contrived bed which is turned up and tilts back and forth to ease breathing, hopes to be able to move more than the fingers of her left hand.

Mary is confined to an iron lung, but she can already move the thumb of one hand and looks toward improvement.

Warn Zoot-Suiters To Find Jobs

LINDSAY, Jan. 3.—(CP).— A trio of long-haired, zoot-suited Toronto youths were warned by Magistrate E. A. Gee to get back to the city and get some work, when they appeared on vagrancy charges in local police court on Friday.

The three — Alex Currie, 18, John M. O'Hearn, 19, and Jim Pickat, 18 — all from Toronto's west-end, were picked up by Lindsay police in a cafe following a complaint from a department store that one of the youths had molested a young salesgirl.

A charge of vagrancy was dismissed against Currie, who admitted telling the girl about the beanery gang and bothering her for a date. O'Hearn and Pickett were placed on on year's suspended sentence.

The trio who also mentioned the junction boys, claimed they at first had been looking for a job in the department store, after being stranded in Lindsay.

MONDAY, JANUARY 3, 1949

The Council Old And New

This morning the 1948 City Council was bowed out and the 1949 version ushered in. We wish the new Council success, wit, wisdom and loads of energy in the year which has just begun. It will need the wit, wisdom and energy for there is much unfinished business and more new business to attend; we pray that it merits and secures success in dealing with these matters.

* * *

When we mention the old council we feel that we are talking behind the back of the new one, for but two familiar faces are missing: ex-Mayor Ovens and ex-Alderman Armstrong. We said our piece about Mr. Ovens last Friday; of ex-Alderman Armstrong, who served but a two-year term, we can say with equal sincerity that he served well. We regret that the press of private business prevents his taking office again. Both Mr. Ovens and Mr. Armstrong will be missed by the councillors with whom they have worked.

* * *

The two new members are Alderman James Gillespie and Alderman A. B. Burrows. We have a good expectation that they will contribute harmoniously and well to the work of the Council. The leader of the band, our new Mayor Swanston, begins his presiding task with a seasoned group, with long experience of municipal affairs and a confident approach to them. If Peterborough is ever to fall flat on its face, it should not be in this year. Its directors are in fine fettle, its finances in sound condition and its people in reasonably good humour.

Peterborough's Royal School Names

Peterborough's schools ooze royalty from every crack in their mortar. The children and teachers inside have nothing to do with the regality; indeed we would be surprised if even one chubby fellow could be found in any of the grades whose blood was royal purple. Nor are the buildings themselves majestic, though the Prince of Wales school has imposing pillars. It is all in the names: King Edward, Queen Alexandra, King George, Queen Mary, Prince of Wales. There is, of course, Central School, but that dates from before the days when Peterborough's pedagogical institutions had kingly aspirations. It is perhaps significant, too, that we have no Queen Victoria school. The mother of Europe's kings was just a bit too impressive and exalted for nineteenth century lowly Peterborough.

This matter of the schools' names crossed our mind when we were reading a report of the Recreation Committee. There was reference to The Grove School. We were perplexed for a moment—why should Peterborough be recreating Lakefield school-boys? Is not The Grove a Lakefield school? Then we remembered that the newest, and smallest school in town is also called the Grove school. It is rather confusing and we feel that the Board of Education should ponder the advisability of changing the name and bringing it into the royal family.

The practice of naming schools after members of the Royal Family has much to commend it. The pupils must feel a vicarious elevation. The teachers within a King George school cannot help but teach in a grander manner than if they were at Central School. Further, the names are of historical interest and the schools are easy to identify by age. King Edward school must have been built between 1901 and 1910. Queen Elizabeth school is obviously modern.

There is now available a royal name for the tiny and junior Grove school—Prince Charles school. Perhaps the school is not big enough and important enough to support such a splendid name. Even though the baby Prince Charles is small now, he will grow into a Prince of Wales and a King one day. Perhaps, on second thought, the Board of Education had better reserve the name for a monumental establishment like a new Collegiate, regrettable as it might be to let slip the opportunity of commemorating the birth of Princess Elizabeth's first son in Peterborough's Grove school. We must think on this matter further.

Success Guaranteed To Any Author

A recent issue of an American weekly magazine called the New Republic has an article about a Mr. Albert E. Sindlinger. Mr. Sindlinger is a former associate of Dr. Gallup, but after galluping along for several years as a public-opinion analyst, Sindlinger saw new fields to graph, devised new gadgets to take the public pulse, perfected new systems to mechanically synchronize the creators of heart-throbs with the throbbing heart of the masses. As Thomas Whiteside, the author of the New Republic article says:

> "Operating on the theory that the people's word is law, Sindlinger has achieved a new and scientific system of producing best-sellers. He harnesses willing authors to an electro-mechanical editor which rejects all passages unpalatable to the public at large. So successful has been this remarkable robot in two years of electrical criticism that Sindlinger has established a book-writing factory of his own. Now, with slide-rule in hand, he is rapidly closing in on radio, movies and records".

The chief cog in the Sindlinger system of ensuring best-sellers and writing them is a patented machine called "Teldox". When an author appears with a manuscript, Sindlinger sets a battery of laboratory assistants at work to make a digest of the book. The bones of the story are then read into a recording machine and a recording is made. With the record and a Teldox unit, the Sindlinger agents pop into various homes across the country, connect their "average" citizens to Teldox while they, the guinea-pigs, listen to the recording. The persons wired to Teldox press buttons to indicate their flicks of emotion, and their likes or dislikes of each paragraph, incident and character of the story. Thus the book is boiled down to a tape. It is literally taped.

The tapes are brought back to the workshop, the mass opinion revealed on them is studied, and the willing, sensible author cuts out of his book whatever Teldox says is not liked by the Teldoxed people. Through the agency of Sindlinger, a 1,200 page book by Henry J. Coylton called "Flame of the Franks" lost most of its pages fifty at a time, acquired the title "Sir Pagan", was selected by the Fiction Book Club and sold to the movies. A book called "Midnight and Jermiah" by Sterling North was submitted to Teldox judgement, adapted to the "collective wisdom of the American people" thus revealed, and under the title "So Dear To My Heart" became a best-seller and was bought by Disney for screening.

American ingenuity is amazing, but this manifestation—Sindlinger and his Teldox — is positively stunning. We have long realized that the best authors are not always those whose eyes roll in a frenzy. We have known that the elder Dumas wrote novels with the assistance of hacks to whom he gave the bones of his chapters. But until Sindlinger we had not believed that a machine could write a successful book. We are a little afraid of this Frankenstein of the arts. It is remarkable that it was not the Soviet Union, but the U.S.A., the temple of free enterprise and individual, unrestricted initiative, which produced this first real robot writer. Is it better for an author to be dictated to by Teledox than by Stalin?

Marshall Dollars In Canada

The Canadian economy is receiving substantial support from American dollars flowing into it from countries receiving them as Marshall Plan aid. For instance, on December 22nd, more than $9,200,000 worth of Canadian commodities were assigned by the Economic Co-operation Administration (U.S.A.) to France, French possessions and Eire. They included railway equipment, vessels, vehicles, industrial chemicals, office machines, pulp and paper.

Canada can perhaps count on receiving large orders from European countries, and the pay for them in American dollars, until the summer of 1952. Then Marshall Aid will come to an end. Britain is planning for that end: ten days ago its Government issued a White Paper setting forth a four-year plan by which it hopes to be in a position to stand on its own feet when E.R.P. ends. It is Britain's economic and industrial chart. Canada, so recently on the verge of a financial chasm because it (like Britain and Europe) lacked American dollars, will have to take careful thought about its trade and economic position when E.R.P. ends. It might be well if we had our own four-year plan. Certainly some chart is necessary among all the sign-posts now going up.

"Of Cabbages And Kings"

By PETER ELIOT

THE chief happiness of Johnson's later years, and therefore of his whole life, came from his friendship with Mrs. Thrale", writes Louis Kronenberger, who has edited the new Portable Johnson And Boswell, a vast anthology of solid selections and anecdotes. There is almost as much by Johnson as about him, and an appendix contains some of Mrs. Thrale's famous anecdotes of Johnson and bits concerning him from Fanny Burney's Diary. Johnson was not happy in his earlier years, which were lean and hungry ones, but he made up for the lonely years after he found Mrs. Thrale.

The good lady's good humoured forbearance with him and his roughness of manner with her that concealed deep affection is well illustrated by a story told by a mutual friend, Miss Reynolds, who was once their hostess. During dinner, Johnson spoke to Mrs. Thrale with such rudeness that guests were surprised that she should bear it so placidly. Expressing astonishment later, one of them said that such rudeness should not be tolerated. "Oh! Dear good man!" was Mrs. Thrale's only comment. Touched by her generosity, the lady reported to Johnson both her own criticism of him and Mrs. Thrale's reply. "He seemed much delighted with this intelligence," says Miss Reynolds, "and sometime after, as he was lying back in his chair seeming to be half-asleep, but more evidently musing on this pleasing incident, he repeated in a loud whisper, "Oh! Dear good man!"

OF his father, who figures prominently in his autobiography Happy Days, H. L. Mencken says:

"He had a very tolerant view of all other torts and malfeasances. He believed that political corruption was inevitable under democracy, and even argued, out of his own experience, that it had. One of his favourite anecdotes was about a huge swinging sign that used to hang outside his place of business in Paca street. When the building was built in 1885, he simply hung out the sign, sent for the city councilman of the district, and gave him $20. This was in full settlement forevermore of all permit and privilege fees, easement taxes, and other cost and imposts. The city councilman pocketed the money, and in return was supposed to stave off any cops, building inspectors or other functionaries who had any lawful interest in the matter or tried to horn in for private profit. Being an honourable man according to his light, he kept his bargain, and the sign flapped and squeaked in the breeze for ten years. But then, in 1895, Baltimore had a reform wave, the councilman was voted out of office, and the idealists in the City Hall sent word that a license to maintain the sign would cost $62.75 a year. It came down next day.

POETS have contrived to earn their bread and butter by various devices — many bizarre, some pathetic, and a few even funny.

A small number had private means, or were maintained by their families. Three Lords,—Byron, Tennyson and Alfred Douglas — may be included in this group. One might also include Shelley, Swinburne, Alice Meynell, Robert Bridges and Siegfried Sassoon.

Some have held professional post. Chaucer was a member of the Excise Department; Matthew Arnold was a Government inspector of schools. T. E. Brown, headmaster of Clifton, was the Isle of Man's contribution to Poetry; Elroy Flecker worked in the Consular Service; and Richard Church and the late Humbert Wolfe were Civil Servants.

Another group was in the Church. There were Anglicans Herrick, Herbert and more recently Andrew Young; others were Catholics, like G. M. Hopkins, the Jesuit, and Cardinal Newman.

NOT a few have been dons—A. E. Housman was professor of Latin and Rupert Brooke lecturer in English at Cambridge. In Oxford, the late Edward Thompson was a fellow of Oriel, and Edmund Blunden a tutor at Merton. Louis MacNeice taught classics at other British universities. Both Cecil Day Lewis and W. H. Auden—whose latest collection is aptly called The Age Of Anxiety—have been schoolmasters.

Alex Comfort, who is still living, is a doctor. Bridges, too, was a doctor but retired, after a short time, to write in the country. Oliver Goldsmith's practice is rated as one of the briefest and most exclusive in history since he treated only one patient. She was a Mrs. Sidebotham, and his prescription was so deadly that the apothecary declined to dispense it. A panel of surgeons was called into arbitrate. They decided against Goldsmith and Oliver retired from the medical profession in great rage, never again to enter it.

BRIDGES once told Sir John Squire that "if he took to editing, his poetry would go to rot!" Even literary journalism is considered bad for the poet, for compulsive writing does not help poetry. Yet some poets have taken to journalism, Lionel Johnson, William Morris, G. K. Chesterton, Hilaire Belloc, W. F. Henley, and Edward Shanks.

John Masefield, the poet laureate, earned a living as a tramp, a seaman, a New York bartender, a mill hand and a journalist. W. H. Davies spent years as a hobo (read his Autobiography Of A Super Tramp) pedlar, and seaman. Incidentally he lost a leg while "riding the rod" through Renfrew just north of Ottawa at the turn of the century. With great difficulty was a pension on the civil list secured for Davies, who also did time in a succession of English poorhouses.

Two British poets have been publishers: Sir Walter Scott, and T. S. Eliot, a director of Faber and Faber.

But....no poet has been known to live on the royalties from his poems.

A very old judge, known for the speed with which he disposed of cases, was asked by a friend to explain.

"I always listen to plaintiff, and then I make my decision."

"You never listen to the defendant?"

"Well, I did at first but I found that it confused me."

Churchill Letter To Stalin

(WINNIPEG FREE PRESS)

IN a foreign policy address in the House of Commons at Westminster on November 10, Mr. Churchill revealed the existence of a letter written by himself to Mr. Stalin on April 29, 1945.

The European war was at an end, or virtually so. Mr. Churchill was prime minister of the United Kingdom. The letter is historic for two reasons. It reveals two acts of deepest significance: First, the depth and the sincerity of the desire of Mr. Churchill and the British people to co-operate fully with Russia in the years following victory and, Second, a sure knowledge on Mr. Churchill's part of the consequences of failure to co-operate. Writing in 1945, Mr. Churchill saw into the future with a clarity we all can now appreciate.

THE letter, as read by Mr. Churchill, is reported in The Times, as follows: Mr. Churchill said that it had always been his earnest desire that we should not abandon the thought of a peaceful settlement with Russia. It was not his fault since he had left office, nor was it the fault of the Government, that this friendly atmosphere had not been maintained, or that a happy, amicable settlement had not been reached. He wished to quote from a private personal communication which he had sent to Mr. Stalin on April 29, 1945. In this letter he wrote:—

"Side by side with our strong sentiment for the rights of Poland, which I believe is shared in at least as strong a degree throughout the United States, there has grown up throughout the English-speaking world a very warm, deep desire to be friends on equal and honourable terms with the mighty Russian, Soviet Republic, and to work with you, making allowances for our different systems and thought and government in long and bright years for all the world, which we three Powers alone can make together. I, who in my years of great responsibility, have worked faithfully for this unity, will certainly continue to do so with every means in my power, and, in particular, I can assure you that we in Great Britain would not work for, or tolerate, a Polish Government unfriendly to Russia. Neither could we recognize a Polish Government that did not truly correspond to the description in our joint declaration at Yalta, with proper regard for the right of the individual as we understand these matters in the western world."

"With regard to Greece, Mr. Churchill went on, he had said:—

"In Greece we seek nothing but her friendship, which is of long duration, and desire only her independence and integrity, but we have no intention to try to decide whether she is to be a monarchy or a republic. Our only policy is to restore matters to the normal as quickly as possible, and to hold fair and free elections, I hope within the next four or five months. These elections will decide the regime and later the constitution. The will of the people expressed under conditions of freedom and universal franchise must prevail. That is our root principle. If the Greeks were to decide for a republic it would not affect our relations with them. We will use our influence with the Greek Government to invite Russian representatives to come to see freely what is going on in Greece, and at the elections I hope that there will be Russian, American, and British commissioners at large in the country to make sure there is no intimidation or other frustration to the free choice of the people between the parties contending."

LOOKING at the other side, Mr. Churchill continued, he wrote:—

"There is not much comfort in looking into a future where you and the countries you dominate, plus the Communist parties in many other States, are all drawn up on one side, and those who rally to the English-speaking nations with their associates and dominions are on the other. It is quite obvious that their quarrel would tear the world to pieces, and all of us leading men on either side, who had anything to do with that would be shamed before history. Even embarking on long periods of suspicion, of abuse and counter-abuse, and of opposing policies, would be a disaster, hampering great development of world prosperity for the masses, which are attainable only by our trinity.

"I hope there is no word or phrase in this outpouring of my heart to you which unwittingly gives offence. If there is let me know. But do not, I beg of you, my friend Stalin, underrate the divergences which are opening up about matters, which you may think small but which are symbolic of the way the English-speaking democracies look at life."

A Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

Observe the month of Abib, and keep the passover unto the Lord thy God: for in the month of Abib the Lord thy God brought thee forth out of Egypt by night. Thou shalt therefore sacrifice the passover unto the Lord thy God, of the flock and the herd, in the place which the Lord shall choose to place his name there.

Thou shalt eat no leavened bread with it; seven days shalt thou eat unleavened bread therewith, even the bread of affliction; for thou camest forth out of the land of Egypt in haste: that thou mayest remember the day when thou camest forth out of he land of Egypt all the days of thy life. (Deut. 16: 1-3.)

Now the first day of the feast of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover? And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him. The Master saith, My time is at hand; I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples. And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them; and they made ready the passover.

Now when the even was come, he sat down with the twelve.... And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it; for this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins. But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom. (Matt. 26: 17-20, 27-29.)

Unconsidered Trifles

Father: "So you love my daughter?"

Suitor: "Love her? Why I would die for her. For one soft glance from her sweet eyes I would hurl myself off a lofty cliff—glad of the chance to sacrifice myself in her name."

Father: "Well, I forbid the marriage. I'm something of a liar myself and one is enough in a small family like ours."

He was explaining, for his wife's instruction, exactly why the bank rate stood at its present figure, why the economic recessions existed, and how it could be cured.

"It seems wonderful," she said at last, "that anyone could know as much about money as you do and have so little."

A man fishing from the river bank landed a pike about two feet long, but threw it back. Later he caught a large trout. This he also threw back.

Five minutes later he caught a small perch and put it into his bag. A fellow fisherman asked him why he had thrown two such beautiful fish back and kept a small one.

"Well," he replied, "my frying pan is only nine inches across."

A man had an attack of pneumonia and a doctor was called in. After an examination the doctor said: "You are a musician, I think, and play a wind instrument?"

"Yes."

"That explains everything. There's a distinct straining of the lungs, and the larynx is inflamed as though by some abnormal pressure. What instrument do you play?"

"The concertina."

Air Liner Guides Lost Plane To Safe Landing

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 3 (AP) — Lieut. G. E. Ridler, 27-year-old United States Air Force pilot who flew 100 missions in Europe without a scratch, was guided to safety Sunday night by a United Air Lines plane which sighted his lost plane 4,000 feet above Pennsylvania's mountains.

Fifteen passeigers were aboard the liner. Stewardess Helen Geneva said they watched the entire "rescue."

K. A. Simco, pilot of the airliner, said Ridler was in radio communication with his Pittsburgh airport but was unable to get his bearings. He kept on his landing lights for identification.

Simko turned off his cabin lights for better visibility. Then, flying at 7,000 feet, he spotted a pinpoint of light which he said was "too low for a star and too high for a ground light."

The Pittsburgh control tower asked Ridler to blink his lights. He did so and Simko spotted them. In a few minutes the airline and the air force plane were on the same radio wave length.

Simko instructed Ridler to follow him, led the plane down to 2,000 feet over the Pittsburgh airport, circled to make sure he landed safely and then headed for Washington.

WORKS FAST—Usually within the hour. Does not spoil your day.

GENTLE ACTION—Its formula is balanced to act gently, without discomfort.

TIME-TESTED—Over 300,000,000 packages sold throughout the world.

Give yourself a fresh start to a brighter future by taking Kruschen regularly for a while. You'll soon discover what it is to have that famous "Kruschen Feeling". 25c and 75c at all drug stores.

Medicine Scheme In Britain Under Strain

LONDON, Jan. 3 (AP) — Britain's National Health Service, the world's biggest experiment in socialized medicine, is undergoing a strain.

Health Minister Aneurin Bevan says too many are demanding too much. But he doesn't think now—as he did in October—that the plan may break down because of the exorbitant demands made upon it.

All the bills are paid out of general taxation.

To ease the load, the health ministry announced Saturday that, beginning Feb. 1, each dentist taking part will be paid only half of anything he earns over £4,800 ($19,200) a year.

Bevan said one-fifth of the dentists in the program are now earning money at that rate. S. Donald Cox, assistant secretary of the British Dental Association, said abuses should be proved before any limit is placed.

Charge Overworked

The loudest complaint from many of the doctors under the plan is that they're underpaid and overworked. To that, the ministry replies that the question of the number of patients for each doctor and the question of the fees paid is under review.

The National Health Service started last July 5. It is designed to give the men and women of Britain "free" medical, dental and optical care.

Providing the care—and collecting the fees from the ministry—are 18,165 of the country's 22,900 doctors, 8,753 of the 11,000 dentists, nearly all of the 7,000 opticians and 14,000 of the 16,000 drug stores which fill the prescriptions. All are in the scheme voluntarily. Ultimately, all the Britain's hospitals will be taken over under the plan: already 2,587 have been purchased by the government. Others are to be built.

Raps Hereditary Titles

LONDON, Jan. 3—(AP)—Lord Beaverbrook's Daily Express Saturday urged Britain to abolish her centuries-old tradition of handing down titles of nobility from father to son. Titles are "a personal reward for effort" and should belong only to the man who earns one, the Express editorial said. It said they are "frequently damaging to the young men who inherit them."

Diplomatic Appointments Likely In Next Few Months

OTTAWA, Jan. 3 — (CP). — Appointments to Canada's Diplomatic Service are in prospect for 1949.

Perhaps the most important will be the filling of the post of Under-Secretary of State for External Affairs, left vacant when L. B. Pearson left the Civil Service ranks to enter the Cabinet as External Affairs Minister.

There have been suggestions that A. D. P. Heeney, Clerk of the Privy Council, may be asked to take the post, but this report, like others, is without confirmation. Others mentioned have been Hume Wrong, Canadian Ambassador in Washington, and Norman Robertson, Canadian High Commissioner in London.

A vacancy now exists in Mexico through the recent appointment of S. D. Pierce, the Ambassador there, as Associate Deputy Minister of the Trade Department in charge of defence purchases.

A third appointment is necessary for Eire, W. F. A. Turgeon, the Canadian High Commissioner in Dublin, has been appointed chairman of the Royal Commission on freight rates, a task which is expected to keep him out of the Diplomatic Corps for many months.

One Post to Vanish

One appointment will vanish early this year. That will be the post of Canadian High Commissioner to Newfoundland, which will disappear when that colony enters the Canadian Confederation at the end of March.

There has been no Canadian Ambassador to the Soviet Union since Dana Wilgress has withdrawn from the Russian capital more than a year ago. No appointment is likely unless there is considerable improvement in Canadian Soviet relationships.

One of the big problems sitting on Justice Minister Garson's desk awaiting his return next week from Manitoba, is how the Government will proceed against the alleged Western Canada bakery combine.

The Dominion has offered to handle the prosecution against the breadmaking firms, but still is awaiting official word as to the attitude of the provinces concerned — British Columbia, Alberta and Saskatchewan.

Thus far the Justice Department has received notification only from Saskatchewan—giving its agreement — although Western reports have quoted officials in BC and Alberta as expressing their agreement as well.

Brochu is the first to jump but the last to land because of his weight. As a result all his men salute him as they drift past him earthward-bound.

Accident Toll Very Light For Canadians

By The Canadian Press

The new year came in with safe and sane celebration almost everywhere in Canada and the tool of accidents and lawbreaking was light.

A Canadian Press survey showed that Canadians gave 1949 a well-behaved welcome but a gay one, marked by countless house parties, a few big dances and a spot of nightclubbing.

An icy dip in Vancouver's English Bay was the high point of the celebration for 40 members of the Polar Bear Club. The swim is an annual New Year's Day affair.

And in Middleton, N.S., everyone thought the screaming fire sirens were just part of the festivities. But there really was a fire and Walter Baker's two barns burned to the ground.

Four persons died of burns, compared with 17 who met death in Christmas week-end fires. The traffic accident toll for all Canada was less than 12.

Gusty Holiday

New Year's dawned gustily in Ontario, Quebec and the Maritimes but calmly on the prairies. Snowstorms clogged roads and marooned holiday travellers in some sections of Ontario. But by Sunday night, Canadians from the Great Lakes eastward, except in Northern Ontario, were basking in a January thaw while 40-mile-an-hour gales ripped across Saskatchewan.

Three Ontario cities, Toronto, Owen Sound and St. Catharines, staged their municipal elections New Year's Day. Actress Kay Francis, in Toronto with a play, in an interview termed the custom of voting on a holiday "barbarous."

AIDED BY DRUG—Mrs. Ernest Taplay of Woodstock hopes use of the new drug streptomycin may save amputation of her right leg and possibly her life. Eight years ago, Mrs. Taplay, a former nurse, received a slight wound from a sliver of wood. Infection set in and has been spreading through her body. Last February her left leg was amputated. Word of her plight reached the federal department of health and a free supply of the costly drug was made available in an attempt to halt the infection.

Can Ease Steel Shortage With European Recovery

OTTAWA, Jan. 3 — (CP)—Expansion of steel-scarce Canadian industry will depend in some degree on the success or failure of European and United Kingdom recovery, the government's latest statistical review discloses.

Not only would success of U.K. and European recovery plans mean release of American steel for possible Canadian use. "but it would also enable those areas which formerly shipped considerable steel to Canada to re-enter the Canadian market."

The statistical review adds that if the European countries were again able to ship steel to Canada, it would mean Canada would have to spend less of her dollars in the U.S. "If this should happen, it would of course benefit our foreign exchange position."

In Canada, as throughout the world, there is a great pent-up demand for steel needed in the manufacture of durable goods not produced during the war and for plant expansion, rehabilitation and repair, the review says.

World capacity "has declined in large measure due to the destruction . . . . of German and Japanese plants and to delay in bringing into full production plants in several allied countries, notably, France, Belgium and Luxembourg."

The statistical review predicts there will be "an overall world shortage of steel for several years."

And, despite increased production, Canada "is not immune to the effects of this shortage." Because of it, Canada's only important source of imported steel is the United States which cut its exports in the latter part of 1948 to speed American defence projects.

However, the scarcity of steel on Canada's home front has had the tendency to drive the country to more energetic steel production.

London Free Press Has 100th Birthday

LONDON, Ont., Jan. 3. (CP)—The London Free Press, which celebrates its 100th birthday this year, said Saturday in a newspage story that it considers itself the only Canadian newspaper that has remained under the same family ownership for nearly a century.

The weekly Canadian Free Press, founded in 1849 was bought in 1852 by Josiah Blackburn, who turned it into a daily three years later. President of the company today is Josiah Blackburn's grandson, Walter J. Blackburn.

The editor-in-chief is Arthur R. Ford, a former president of The Canadian Press.

The original weekly had a circulation of 500 in a town of 5,000 population. Now, in a city of some 78,000 surrounded by the prosperous farming district of Middlesex county, its circulation is 71,000.

Red Rule Worse Than Germans

MONTREAL, Jan. 3. (CP)—A 36-year-old Roman Catholic priest enroute to Chatham, where he plans to live, Sunday described life in his native Czechoslovakia as worse under Communist rule than it ever was when it was dominated by the Nazis.

Rev. Vaclav Spacek left Prague in 1946 and has lived in England and France for the last two years.

"During the Nazi occupation food was rationed but obtainable," he stated, "but as long as one did not actually oppose the Nazis, he was permitted to carry on in his own way."

"Under Communism, food is short and liberty non-existent."

Most of the Russians now have left Czechoslovakia and all the party leaders, officials, secret police and informers are all Czechs, Father Spacek said.

He said he himself was threatened with arrest following a visit to the Vatican in 1946. He was accused of plotting against the state and passing information to a foreign power. He left the country to evade the secret police.

He resigned from his position with the Czech government in London because he was forced to write Russian propaganda.

SPORTS SHOW WINDOW

CEC. PERDUE, Sports Editor

A big crowd expected in the Civic Arena—Park St. south—at 8.30 tonight when ex-Mayor Bill Ovens faces off the puck to officially open the new rink at the OHA junior "B" game. Between Toronto Lions and the local Oddfellows. Should be a swell, speedy, scheduled scrap in the new setting before a full house. IOOF-ers have brand new outfits—their pants haven't arrived yet but they won't go pantless tonight — and a lot of new faces. Jack Byers in goal, Kevin O'Reilly (Renfrew), Ken Anderson, Jim Miller and Bill Berwick on defence. One line has Don Pagett flanked by Don Floyd and Ted Collins; another has Joe Whitnell betwixt Chum Fryia (Soo) and John Truss (Soo); and another has Tom Birch (Lakefield) in between Skeeter O'Heron and Bob Wyatt. Coach Archie Weir also has Bart Grainger, Ray Douglass, Mike Crowley and Haley Windsor (latter from British Columbia). Don't pass this opener up.

* * * * * *

Lot of good junior "B" puckists had to be left off that team—there was just too much talent there. Big turnouts at drills and more than enough players of junior "B" calibre. Pity there couldn't be two OHA junior clubs here. As it is, the Triple Link team looks strong and those left off this year will bolster Industrial Loop teams or other circuits. Yeah, we have lots of good youngsters coming up from the PMHA these seasons, and also certain smart juniors drift into the city each year.

Cost Of Junior "A"

Saw an item by Milt Dunnell the other day about the St. Catharines Teepees, the junior "A" club on which George (Red) Sullivan of Peterborough is starring. They have 19 on the payroll (around $40 a week pay and maybe a bonus up to $700). Seven St. Kitts' boys on the Bruin-sponsored squad. An industrialist of the city, G. A. Stauffer, unwinds the bankroll, and 'tis expected to cost about $50,000 this semester. They'll break even if they get about three playoff games, Rex Stimers estimates. Junior "A" hockey is getting to be fairly big business these days.

Five games pry off the 1949 lid in the Trent Valley Hockey League tonight. Like this: Tweed at Stirling, Campbellford at Marmora, Norwood at Frankford, Madoc at Hastings, and Lakefield at Warkworth. Yeah, 10 teams in the loop, playing every Monday, Wednesday and Friday evening till mid-February, and then playoffs. Three new rinks and a lot of new talent, so some robust puck nights are in the offing around the district. The Wednesday games this week are: Warkworth at Campbellford, Hastings at Lakefield, Marmora at Madoc, Stirling at Norwood, and Frankford at Tweed.

More Action In OHA

The week's OHA schedule affecting local teams has the junior "B" tilt here tonight, Petes off to Stouffville this e'en, Toronto Meteors meeting Legion here Wednesday—a nine p.m. touch—and Legion against Petes at Civic Arena on Friday. No games away this week after tonight. Legionnaires practice tomorrow p.m. from six to eight at the Sacred Heart rink (a busy spot the past week or so), and they ran into rough luck—so did the player—over the week-end when Jeff Stock broke his left arm in a practice. He was coming along good with 'em, but will be out probably six weeks now.

Annual open meeting of the Peterborough Lacrosse Club is called for tonight at 7.30 in the Agricultural Office on Hunter St. Just heard about it this a.m. Election of officers, reports, and general plans for the season. There's a strong possibility that the Petes, twice provincial senior "B" champs, will go senior "A" this year. That depends, of course, on what sort of a grouping they can arrange coming on spring. Perhaps Oshawa, Orillia and a Toronto team would also step up, or an interlocking schedule might be worked out. Meantime, the club officials are after several star senior "A" lacrossers and expect to come up with a stronger squad than ever.

Cage Schedule Set

Lakeshore Cage Loop intermediate schedule has been drawn up and will be published tomorrow. Lindsay, Oshawa and Peterborough Marines are entered as "B" teams while Cobourg and Port Hope are "C" entries. All games count and at schedule's end the top "B" squad goes into provincial playdowns in that category while the leading "C" team hits into OABA "C" playdowns. In case of a tie, a sudden-death game will be played on a floor agreed on by both managers. First fixture is tonight with Port Hope at Lindsay. Marines go to Cobourg on Wednesday and have Oshawa here Saturday.

Here and There in Sport

By The Canadian Press

Philip Donnachie of Toronto Saturday won the 28th annual New Year's Day 10-mile road race to Hamilton. He went the distance in 56 minutes and 50 seconds to finish 200 yards in front of Galt's Ab Morton. Whitey Sheridan and Selwyn Jones, both of Hamilton, placed third and fourth, respectively.

In a three-mile race for boys 19 and under, Lou Beda of Galt came first, with Bill Thompson of Hamilton second and Jim McDermott, also of Hamilton, third.

The third annual Nipwan, Sask., automobile bonspiel gets under way Wednesday and the entry list looks like the who's who of curling.

The draw includes such noted stone-tossers as Howard Wood, Jimmy Welsh and Leo Johnson, all former Canadian champions from Winnipeg, and Billy Rose of Sedgewick, Alta., who won the Dominion title at Saskatoon in 1946.

Another artist who will be making an appearance is Grant Watson, who won the cars in last year's 'spiel. Jimmy Guy of Kenora, Ont., the lefthander who acted as Watson's vice-skip last year and who called the shots for the rink, will be skipping his own rink in this year's play.

Opposition has flared up in Thornhill village, north of Toronto, to proposed construction of a harness race track south of the village. A by-law authorizing its construction was approved two weeks ago by Vaughan township council.

The track, to be used for floodlit racing 42 days a year, is backed by a syndicate of race track builders in Chicago.

Ratepayers attending a meeting of Thornhill village trustees said the track would cause traffic congestion, lower property values and bring "undesirable" elements into the village.

Supporting the track are a group of residents whose properties adjoin the proposed track area. Promoters of the track have offered to supply water to their homes.

Yale, Harvard, Princton and Cornell will meet Oxford and Cambridge in a resumption of international intercollegiate track competition.

Bill Bingham, Harvard athletic director, said at Cambridge, Mass., Sunday the combined British team would race against Princeton and Cornell at Princeton June 11 and against Harvard and Yale either at Cambridge or at New Haven, Conn., June 18.

Barking sent a "token force" of only four players on the field against Barnet Saturday to resume their London senior cup soccer game after it had been halted because of a storm. Seven players were too exhausted to carry on.

A full Barnet team reappeared but in the Barking dressing room two players had collapsed. Five others also were unable to carry on. The reason given was that the warmth of the dressing room had caused "a reaction to set in."

Barking was leading 3-2 when the game was stopped and when only four Barking players reappeared play was abandoned.

Teepees Given Salary Of $40 A Week

ST. CATHARINES, Jan. 3 — (CP)—An amateur hockey player—one who plays for love of the game—has things pretty cosy in this Ontario hockey hotbed. St Catharines Teepees players can expect a salary of $40 a week, a $700 bonus, and other minor rewards for neatness.

To operate the Ontario Hockey Association Junior A club, says spokesman Rex Stimers, costs $50,000. "We should break even if we get three games in the playoffs."

The man with the bankroll, Stimers reports, is George A. Stauffer, a former All-American football player and now a St. Catharines industrialist. Says Stimers admiringly: "It cost him $16,500 to cover up last year's deficit."

There are seven homebrews on the club—a large percentage for the nine-team circuit. Porky Douglas plays goal, Tommy Buck and Obey O'Brien are defencemen, Bill Altoft, Connie Switzer, Wayne Brown and Bill Buschlen, forwards.

Imports are: Gerry Toppazzini, Gordie Byers, Ron Telford and Marcel Clements, all of Copper Cliff; Bobby Knowles and Don Campbell, Toronto; Red Sullivan, Peterborough Buddy Evans, of Brandon, Man.; Fred Hildebrand, New Westminster, B.C., and Jack McIntyre, Listowel.

The boys are coached by Art Jackson, former National Leaguer who also holds down the job of personnel director at backer Stauffer's plant.

The club is a Boston farm team.

Dukes Trounce Guelph Biltmores 9-4

By The Canadian Press

Fleet forward Larry Regan sniped five goals Saturday afternoon to send his Toronto Marlboros further up the Junior A Ontario Hockey Association ladder—a possible indication the Dukes are staging a comeback their senior counterparts pulled several weeks ago.

Marlies downed the sixth-place Guelph Biltmores 9-4 and moved into seventh place, ahead of St. Michael's College Majors and Galt Rockets. The senior Dukes drove to the top of the league two weeks ago after failing to gain a victory in their first nine starts.

But the juniors have a long way to go. A string of eight wins, 19 losses and a tie gives them 17 points, 21 points behind the league-leading Barrie Flyers.

Down Generals

As Regan became the third player to garner five goals in one game this season — Danny Lewicki of Stratford Kroehlers and Bert Giesebrecht of Windsor Spitfires ares the others — the Kroehlers downed Oshawa Generals 4-3 in another junior game.

The Dukes forged into a 4-0 lead in the first period, lengthened it to 7-0 in the second and then were outscored 4-2 in the final period. Other Toronto scorers were Neil Krenke with two and Gord McKennell and Bob Galand with one apiece. Don Oberholtzer, Palmer, Shaw and Don Bellringer counted for Guelph.

The Kroehlers strengthened their grip on sixth place as they came from behind in the third period to clinch the game. Oshawa took a 1-0 lead in the first period, led 3-1 at the end of the second and then were forced back with three-goal barrage in the third.

Jimmy Pernfuss, Danny Lewicki, Jimmy French and Bibber O'Hearn counted for Stratford. Dick Gamble, Gerry Scott and Robinson got one goal each for the Generals.

Only one game is slated for O. H.A. action tonight. Owen Sound Mercury meet Stratford Indians in the senior loop.

Hornets Down Providence 8-2

By The Canadian Press

John (Peanuts) O'Flaherty started off the New Year on the right foot Sunday night when he banged home four goals as the Pittsburgh Hornets downed Providence Reds, pace-setters in the eastern division of the American Hockey League, 8-2. It was the Reds' second defeat during the week-end.

St. Louis Flyers, leading the western pack with a six point margin over Pittsburgh, suffered a 6-3 defeat at the hands of Indianapolis Capitals with Calum MacKay turning in a hat-trick performance for the victors.

Cleveland Barons blanked New Haven Ramblers 4-0 to give goalie Johnny Bower his second shutout of the season.

The newly formed line of Len Halderson, Murdo MacKay and George Pargeter accounted for three goals when Buffalo Bisons trounced Philadelphia Rockets 4-2. Harry Pidhirny and Steve Wochy were the Rocket marksmen.

Clocking off a trio of markers in each period, Washington Lions defeated Hershey Bears 9-7.

Subsidize Indians

KITCHENER, Jan. 3 (CP) — A threatened reduction of the Ontario Hockey Association Senior League from five to four teams apparently has been blocked by an arrangement for subsidizing out-of-town trips by Stratford Indians. The Stratford team, hopelessly mired in last place, was set to toss in the sponge. But at a conference here Thursday night, the other teams agreed to pay the Indians $100 a game for the rest of the season for games played in their communities.

Remember When—

By The Canadian Press

Charlie Conacher, then star left-winger of the Maple Leafs in the National Hockey League, injured his knee in practice at Toronto, 10 years ago today. The 28-year-old Bomber, who led the circuit's goal-scorers in 1934 and 1935, retired from the game 16 days later on medical advice but returned the next season to play three more years in the NHL. He is at present coaching Chicago Black Hawks.

Stork Visits Maritimes First

By The Canadian Press

The stork, as usual, touched down first in the Maritime provinces in 1949. Canada's first surviving baby of the New Year was a boy to Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Anderson of Belleisle Creek, NB.

That's because clocks in New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island, in the Atlantic Time Zone, are one hour ahead of the rest of the Dominion. The first baby making an appearance there after midnight and before 1 a.m. AST—before points in the Eastern Time Zone have a chance to catch up—is an automatic winner of the title.

Baby Anderson was born at 12:20 a.m. AST. In Saint John, a boy was born to Mrs. Percy Nelson at 1½ minutes after midnight but it died 10 hours after birth.

A close race developed for the honor of the first baby born in the new year in any time zone. On the stroke of midnight Eastern Standard Time a six-pound, six-ounce daughter was born to Mrs. Robert Barrette in Montreal and a 7½-pound daughter to Mrs. Joseph Duchesne in Charlesbourg, Que., a suburb of Quebec City.

At two seconds past midnight a boy scaling eight pounds, two ounces was born in Montreal to Mr. and Mrs. R. D'Andre. That was 11 seconds before a girl was born to Mrs. James Hartnup in Hamilton.

Baby Hartnup, without an argument, was Ontario's first baby of 1949. She beat out a Toronto newcomer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Trost, by 45 seconds.

Asks Safety Pledge

TORONTO, Jan. 3.—(CP). — Highways Minister Doucett of Ontario Friday called on the province's 1,200,000 motorists to include among their New Year's resolutions the pledge, "I will drive with care and consideration for others." The basic cause of most accidents—in 11 months of 1948 there were 676 deaths from accidents in Ontario—was "lack of care and consideration for others," he said.

Trojan Peewees Set To Begin Schedule

The Trojan Peewee Hockey League begins play tomorrow at nine p.m. in the Turner Park rink. Canadiens open against Leafs. The Canadiens' players, under Coach Jim Carver (aided by Red Conway), are: Ab Curtis, Jim Orr, Peter Heffernan, Jerry O'Keefe, Billy Forrestal, Dan Johnston, George Carver, Don Clarke, Tierney Griffith, Bob Evans, Don Dunn and Ken Dunn. Coach Douglas, assisted by Don Pagett, has these Leafs: Carl Peel, Jim Parker, Bill Douglas, Alex Stewart, Tom Lesurf, Jack Daley, Ron Bell, Henry Quensel, Jim Byers and Jim Johnston.

These players must report to their coaches before game time Tuesday. George Masters, one of the club founders and past president, will be asked to referee. The peewees will likely play games Saturday mornings at 10 a.m. and Tuesday nights at seven p.m. in future.

Boys 10 years of age and over must have their dues paid by Jan. 8 or they will be dropped from this league. More news of the Trojan Club will be published shortly. The bantam league teams have been picked and the schedule will be drawn up shortly. Midget teams are also picked and this information will be published in the near future. Boys may still get into these leagues by applying to the hockey committee and complying with club rules. All members are asked to watch The Examiner sports pages for sports announcements.

Try To Recover Gold

LONDON, Jan. 3 —(CP)—First attempts will be made this summer to recover gold believed to be worth several million pounds from the liner Empress of Britain, flagship of the Canadian Pacific Steamship Lines which was sunk off Ireland's northwest coast in 1940. Divers found the 42,000-ton ship settled 180 feet down at an angle of 55 degrees, deep in mud and covered by seaweed and barnacles.

Powell's Stick Work Brings Kansas Win

By The Canadian Press

Kansas City's Ray Powell raised his scoring leadership in the United States Hockey League a big notch Sunday night with four goals and an assist against Tulsa Oilers.

Powell's flashy stick work was more than a match for the Oilers as Kansas City won 6-1 before a crowd of 4,999, largest of the season at the Pla-Mor rink.

A crowd of 6,234 saw Saint Paul defeat Minneapolis 6-5 Sunday night after the two teams tied 0-0 Saturday in the league's first scoreless kame of the season.

Omaha's 5-2 victory over Fort Worth dropped the Rangers into a tie with Houston for last place in the southern division. It was the fifth loss in a row for Fort Worth.

Houston stopped the fast-climbing Dallas Texans 4-2. Joe Bell, leading scorer for the Texans, was banished from the ice after taking a swing at the referee in the second period.

In Saturday games Dallas beat Fort Worth 7-3 and Tulsa blanked Omaha 5-0.

Leafs Bow To Rangers 4-2 After Whipping Canadiens

By BILL GRAHAM
Canadian Press Staff Writer

The usually-gentlemanly New York Rangers turned ruffians Sunday night and slapped down the rough-and-ready Toronto Maple Leafs to continue their climb from the cellar of the National Hockey League. The result left them one point back of their victims.

It was a week-end of heavy scoring and none of the teams were able to come through with a double victory.

Boston Bruins and Rangers battled to a 2-2 deadlock New Year's Eve and in the holiday tilts, Maple Leafs downed Montreal Canadiens 5-3 in Toronto, Black Hawks trounced Detroit Red Wings 5-3 in Chicago and Bruins whipped Rangers 4-1 in New York.

In Sunday night's engagements, Leafs bowed to Rangers 4-2 in New York and Detroit staged a last period scoring spree to humble Chicago 5-3.

Match Misconducts

Leafs, led by Captain Ted Kennedy with two goals, showed Coach Hap Day they had the proper New Year spirit. It was a rough-and-touch slugfest that saw Cal Gardner of Leafs and Kenny Reardon of the Habitants given match misconducts for swinging at each other with their sticks.

League President Clarence Campbell announced Sunday that Gardner drew a $250 fine and one-game suspension for his part in the fracas. Reardon will go on the mat today for his hearing and is expected to receive the same treatment.

Veteran Don Metz whacked in the first Toronto goal early in the first period and Rip Riopelle tallied for Canadiens a few minutes later. Leafs took a two-goal lead as Kennedy and Harry Watson scored. Montreal came back strong in the second frame on fast goals by defenceman Glen Harmon and centre Billy Reay. Two more goals, by Kennedy and Bill Ezinicki, put the game on ice for the Leafs.

Detroit and Chicago split, in their home-and-home series with identical scores, 5-3. Roy Conacher lead Wings to victory Saturday night as he slammed home two goals. Bep Guidolin, Gus Bodnar and Gaye Stewart were the other Windy City marksmen. Veteran Sid Abel sparked Red Wings with his two tallies. Marty Pavelich notched the third Detroit goal.

Goal Crazy

In the return encounter Detroit came up with a goal-mad third period to rap home five counters and erase Chicago's two-goal lead. Gerry Couture, Bill Quackenbush, Pete Horeck, Sid Abel and Jimmy McFadden all shared scoring honors for Red Wings. Gaye Stewart, Bob Goldham and fleet Bill Mosienko tallied for Hawks.

Boston Bruins, who seem to have trouble making up their minds whether they are hot or cold, were on the beam Saturday night when they trimmed Rangers.

Pat Egan and Fernie Flaman, both rearguards started the ball rolling early with two fast goals. Little Kenny Smith added a third before Rangers got the idea. Buddy O'Connor rapped home the only New York reply but Woody Dumart sewed it up with a clincher in the third period.

In the Toronto-New York game Sunday night, Rangers took a 2-0 lead in the first period on goals by Tony Leswick and Dunc Fisher. Harry Watson, the only Toronto player with his scoring eye functioning, bagged the first of his two markers in the second frame and another in the third. Goals by Don Raleigh and Clint Albright wrapped the game up for Rangers.

The week-end saw a new injury to the already long list rung up this season. Vic Lynn received a dislocated shoulder Saturday night against Canadiens. Kennedy is the sole survivor of the KLM line as Howie Meeker is still sidelined with a fractured shoulder.

Northwestern Captures Rose Bowl Tilt

NEW YORKK, Jan. 3—(AP).—One of the wackiest of all United States college football seasons went to the moth balls during the week-end, doggedly following the upset theme right down to the end.

A multitude of New Year's Day bowl games only brought further and more complete confusion to a year that saw mighty Army and Notre Dame tied by supposedly inferior teams in the final weeks of the campaign.

There was a day when a Bowl game decided football supremacy between Eastern and Western United States and had national championship significance.

But not this time. Michigan, the mythical United States champion, sat out the New Year's festival. So did Notre Dame, No. 2 in the final Associated Press poll of gridiron might.

So what did the Bowl games prove?

Well, for one thing, they proved that the No. 7 team in the country could whip the No. 4 combine. Northwestern did it by humbling California in the Rose Bowl, 20-14.

Reverse Positions

They proved the fifth best team in the country, in the eyes of the experts, would lick No. 3 Oklahoma and did it in the Sugar Bowl at New Oreans, conquering North Carolina, the highest-ranked Bowl performer, 14-6.

They proved 10th - ranked Southern Methodist University was superior to ninth-ranked Oregon, which bowed in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas, Tex., 21-13.

They proved that the most smashing and unbelievable triumph of the day could be achieved by a team that had been labelled a "third rater" on its season's record.

Texas rose out of the trail of three defeats and a tie to smash highly-regarded Georgia, the Southeastern Conference champion and No. 8 in the national rankings, in the Orange Bowl at Miami, 41-28. Texas wasn't even in the first 20 in the final AP poll.

Clemson, the team that hadn't lost a game all year or even allowed itself to be tied, wasn't given much chance against the Missouri eleven that lost twice during the season.

But the South Carolinans finally convinced the boys their season's record was no fluke by measuring the Missiourians in the 'Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla., 24-23.

Free Gets Assist Though Wolves Lost

LONDON, Jan. 3.—(CP).—Sudbury Wolves, speedy but short on co-ordination both in attack and defense, were trounced, 7-1 by Streatham in a hockey game Saturday night.

On Thursday night the Canadian team, which is representing the Dominion in the world championships at Stockholm, were downed, 7-3, by the team which will represent England.

Frequent penalties marked play during the first two periods of the Streatham game, a total of 28 minutes in penalties being handed out against the two sides.

Canada's goal, in the first period, was scored by Jim Russell from Hamilton, on a pass from Doug Free, of Campbellford, Ont. Streatham equalized in the same period when coach Red Stapleford tallied. Streatham scored two in the second stanza and four in the third.

SIR MALCOLM CAMPBELL

Car Speed King, Campbell, Dies In England

By The Canadian Press

Sir Malcolm Campbell, the first man to drive an automobile faster than 200 miles an hour, died Saturday at Reigate, Surrey, England. He was 63.

Sir Malcolm, whose adventurous exploits as an auto and motorboat speed king won him a knighthood, had been in failing health since he underwent an eye operation in June. The cause of his death was not announced.

In 1935 he achieved his greatest speed record—301.1292 miles an hour—on the gleaming sands of Bonneville Salt Flats in Utah. The record has been raised successively since Sir Malcolm climaxed 26 years of effort to drive faster than five miles a minute. The present mark of 394.196 miles an hour was set by his fellow countryman, John Cobb, in 1947.

Sir Malcolm's world record of 141.74 miles an hour in a speed boat, established in 1939 on Lake Coniston, England, never has been bettered.

His knowledge of motors and speed technique gave him a place in the Second World War with Britain's Commandoes as a designer of tough, fast armored fighting vehicles. He had headed the army's motorcycle traffic control unit before the war.

Sees Growing Danger

CHICAGO, Jan. 3—(AP)—The Chicago Sun-Times said Sunday that Sir Oliver Franks, British ambassador in Washington is "understood to have notified the United States of growing danger that Britain may become involved in a war at the side of the Arab nations against the Jews." In a dispatch from its London correspondent, Frederick Kuh, the paper says "this is stated at least to have been the clear inference of the ambassador's message" in a conversation Friday with Robert Lovett, acting secretary of state.

A family of four, living in a third-storey apartment were saved from asphyxiation by the awakening of Mrs. Mary Bennett, who staggered downstairs to rouse other residents.

OTTAWA, Jan. 3—(CP)—More than 1,000 men, ranging from diplomats to laborers, gathered New Year's Day in the House of Commons to attend the annual Governor-General's levee. For more than an hour Viscount Alexander stood on a buffalo rug in the hall of fame and exchanged greetings.

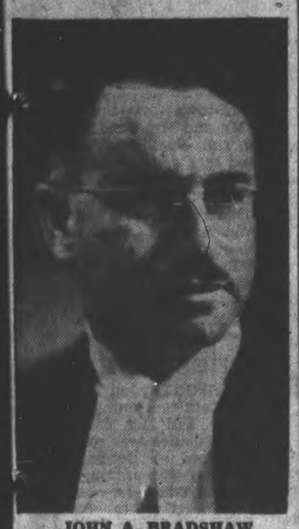
John Bradshaw Appointed Crown Attorney

John A. Bradshaw today assumed the duties of Crown Attorney for Peterborough succeeding V. JJ. McElderry, KC, whose resignation took effect on December 31. On recommendation of Attorney-General Blackwell an order-in-council was passed by the government appointing Mr. Bradshaw.

Mr. McElderry has been Crown Attorney for Peterborough city and county for nearly 20 years and is retiring in order to give all time to his legal practice.

Robert Dennisoun, QC, was the first Crown Attorney for Peterborough and he was followed by Charles A. Weller. These first two Crown Attorneys were named to the bench, both serving as county judges in Peterborough.

Judge Weller was succeeded in the Crown Attorney's position by



JOHN A. BRADSHAW

Robert C. Wood, KC, father of Dr. Ed Wood of Ottawa and Mr. Justice Herbert Wood of Vancouver. George W. Hatton, KC, followed Mr. Wood and on the death of Mr. Hatton, Mr. McElderry was appointed.

Born In Peterborough

John Bradshaw is the elder son of the late Mr. Harry Bradshaw and his wife, Alice Lillian Fraser, with whom he resides. He was born here 37 years ago and received his academic education in Peterborough public schools and Collegiate Institute. He received his legal training at Osgoode Hall, Toronto, from where he graduated as a barrister and solicitor in June, 1939. Mr. Bradshaw as a student-at-law articled to Mr. F. D. Kerr, KC, under whose guidance he read for the Bar in the then firm of Peck, Kerr and McElderry and in the Toronto firm of Mr. J. S. McLaughlin, KC, and Mr. Gordon McLaughlin, KC.

Mr. Bradshaw commenced the practice of law in Peterborough in September, 1939 when he opened his own office and after some eight years he became, shortly after the death of Mr. E. A. Peck, KC, a partner in the firm of Kerr, McElderry, Howell and Bradshaw.

Heads Concert Association

He has been active as a citizen, being a former director of the Chamber of Commerce, a steward of George Street United Church, president of the Peterborough Community Concert Association, vice-president of the Victorian Order of Nurses and a member of the board of the Peterborough Branch of the Canadian Institute for the Blind.

In fraternal circles Mr. Bradshaw is First Principal of Corinthian Chapter Royal Arch Masons, an officer in Royal Arthur Lodge AF and AM, a member of the lodge of Perfection and the Peterborough Chapter of the Rose Croix. He is also a member of the Peterborough Club and the Kiwanis Club.

Foot of Snow Heralds 1949 Highway Traffic Paralyzed

A howling north wind brought with it a record fall of snow in the Peterborough district over the New Year's weekend. In the 16-hour period from Friday, 1 p.m., to Saturday, 9 p.m., 12 inches of snow fell according to James Harrison, weather recorder.

The 40-mile-an-hour blizzard drifted across roads and highways almost completely stalling light motor traffic and causing many New Year's Eve revellers to spend the night where they were visiting.

By early morning on Friday many people realized that they were in for an unusually heavy fall of snow and most of them left their cars safely tucked in the garage at home. The more adventurous took their cars and many were stranded in the early hours of the morning.

The storm began at 1 p.m. New Year's Eve with a 34-40 mph north wind blowing. Five inches of snow fell in that seven-hour period; from 8 p.m. to 8 a.m., Jan. 1, three inches fell; and from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. there was an additional four inches, making 12 inches within 16 hours.

On Saturday morning the wind changed to westerly and died down to about 30 mph. By Sunday it had dropped to about 15 mph, but had swung once again to the northwest

Had 50 Calls

During the rush period Johnny Russelle used his two tow trucks and was able to answer more than 50 calls, he said, and between 30 and 40 more had to remain unanswered.

In reply to a call from a man and woman with their two children who became stuck, about nine miles out on the Warsaw Road, Mr. Russelle set out with his heavy tow truck.

"It was more like 100 miles than nine," he told the Examiner. "I saw no traffic and opened the trail myself. Along that length of roadway I saw nine cars and one truck in the ditch. Next day we came back and pulled six or seven of them out.

From 7 p.m. on New Year's Eve till noon the next day Art O'Hallhoran said he made about 24 calls with his truck to pull out snowed-in cars. Apart from the two dozen in the city, he made several trips into the rural areas. Fifteen of these calls proved false alarms as by the time the tow-truck arrived the stranded vehicles had been extricated by volunteer help.

"We used 34 gallons of gas in the truck, and we've never come near that before. I guess it's a record for us," he said.

Surprisingly enough, Mr. Russelle stated that while it was a record for him over a two-day period, he had more calls between 6 a.m. and 11 p.m. on the Sunday after Christmas.

At the Armouries where the military ball was held, volunteers helped to push their neighbors' cars out of the deep drifts which had piled up. It was reported in the city that the only vehicles that had any chance of making headway against the blizzard were those equipped with chains.

One of the greatest difficulties was the ice underneath the deep snow. Few of the lighter vehicles —even those with snow tires — could overcome this combination.

An early visit by the CGE snowplow aided the 300 guests at Kawartha Golf Club party to get away with a minimum of delay. Taxis could travel the highway and the club driveway without much trouble. As a result all guests had left within a half hour of the party's ending, it was reported.

At the Club Aragon where more than 500 merrymakers had been ushering in the New Year a different story is told. A couple of cars were abandoned where due to mechanical defects, but by a system of mutual aid all the other car owners were able to get away from the premises.

Taxis Scarce

Hardest hit were those depending on taxis to take them home. According to Jack Wineburg, manager and owner of the Club Aragon, a group of about 50 had to wait approximately an hour and a half before they were called for.

"I think it's pretty shameful that a city the size of Peterborough should have its transportation fold up because of a fall of snow," said Mr. Wineburg.

He commented that this was no reflection on the bus service that does not run as far as the Club, but on the taxi service.

Transports Slowed

Beatty Bros.' transport said they were not delayed on their schedule. Their last truck to come through during the storm period arrived at 9 p.m. on New Year's Eve; it was on time but the driver reported heavy going.

Few of the other transport companies were on the road either New Year's Eve or the following day. The men were having a holiday.

Despite the heaviness of the storm, bus and train schedules were kept nearly on time. The CNR claimed it trains were "on the dote," while the C.P.R. conceded that its were "afew minutes late."

Colonial Coach Lines cancelled its New Year's morning trip from Toronto to Oshawa after the west-bound bus was unable to get through Highway 7A near Port Perry, and it took a detous by way of Lindsay.

All the buses of Ferguson's Coach Lines reached their destinations on time, it is believed, although not all of the drivers have yet handed in reports due to the intervening holiday. All Toronto buses went through on the new highway.

HERE THEY ARE, PETERBOROUGH'S NEW YEAR BABIES, six in all. One set of twins were the first to arrive together, with three others at St. Joseph's Hospital. Peterborough Civic made one only single contribution. Shown at Top with mothers in each case are, Left to Right, Garry, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Teevins, weight seven pounds six ounces. Centre, the winners, Fran and Faye, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Haley Windsor, 388 Armstrong Drive. Entry from Civic Hospital, Christiana Phyllis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Peterson, RR 1, Fraserville, was six pounds 15 ounces. Last New Year arrivals, both born at St. Joseph's Hospital, are shown at Bottom with their proud mothers, and are, Left to Right, Kenneth, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Moreau, RR 1, Norwood; he weighed six pounds 13 ounces. The largest of them all and in fourth place was Patrick Edward, Right, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gerrard, 387 Armour Rd., who weighed eight pounds five ounces.

Six Babies Born New Year's Twins First To Arrive

Ushered in with the New Year were twin girls at St. Joseph's Hospital. At 12.45 the first little bundle of sugar and spice and everything nice was brought into a world while a near-blizzard raged out of doors. At 12.55 the second and smaller of the twins was born. Not more than five minutes had elapsed when the first boy of 1949 was born in the same hospital. This was only a beginning for before the day had passed there were three more babies born, two boys and a girl. The honors of delivering the first baby went to St. Joseph's Hospital. Only one of the six babies was born at the Civic Hospital.

Faye and Fran weighed only four pounds and five pounds nine ounces when born. They are the first children of Mr. and Mrs. H. Windsor (Faye Johnson), 338 Armstrong Drive. The proud papa was wishing for a boy but is far from disappointed. In fact he said it was too good to be true. He is a laborer with the Eastwood Construction Co.

With the addition of the two little tots the Johnson family, 709 Lock St., now have five generations in the family. The great-great-grandmother is living in Sweden, the great-grandmother at 709 Lock St. and the grandmother, Mrs. Frank Johnson, 338 Armstrong Drive.

No sooner had the twins been welcomed into the world than the first boy of 1949 was born at 1 o'clock. The proud parents of this bouncing baby are Mr. and Mrs. John Teevans, 288 Romaine. He weighed seven pounds, six ounces. This wasn't the first time for the stork to visit the Teevens household. There are five others, Garry, Tommy, Beverley, Roslyn, and Susan. Mr. Teevens, who works at the CGE, had his wish granted upon the arrival of the boy.

It wasn't until thee hours later that the stork arrived at the Civic Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Chris Peterson are the parents of this child. This is the fourth time the stork has paid a visit to the Peterson household. Already there are three daughters, Marie, eight, Joan, six, and Karen, two and a half. Father isn't disappointed in the least with the arrival of wee Christina although he wanted a boy to help manage the farm near Millbrook.

A boy arrived later in the day at St. Joseph's Hospital for Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gerrard of St. Joseph's Hospital. Patrick Edward, as he is to be called, was the heaviest baby of the day. Vida, the first entry into the Gerrard family, is two and a half years old. The father is the chef at the hospital.

After a considerable lapse the last visit of the stork was to Mr. and Mrs. George Moreau, RR 1, Norwood. It brought a six pound, thirteen ounce boy to the family of five. This is a brother for Ronald, Flora and Mary.

All in all Saturday was a busy day for the stork.

Firemen Called To Five Fires

A total of five fires were reported in the city over the week-end. None of them caused serious damage.

Fire in a pile of mattress stuffing at the Peterborough Mattress and Spring Co., shortly before 3 p.m. on Friday, was quickly extinguished when a booster line was used.

It is believed that a piece of metal which had somehow got into a picking machine was struck by a metal prong of the machine, causing a spark; and the spark set off a blaze in the stuffing.

Workmen noticed the smoke and the fire department was called.

Minor damage is reported.

Earlier a chimney fire was reported at the home of F. Shaw, 35 Lafayette St.

At 4.18 p.m. a flooded oil burner was reported at the home of W. Miller, 109 McDonnel St.

Hotel Room Fire

A small mat beside the bed of a Hunter St. hotel was burned on Friday evening when a lighted cigarette fell on it.

One of the hotel staff noticed the smoke and called the fire department, but the brief blaze was out before it arrived. Damage was said to be limited to the rug.

An efficient sprinkling system is believed to have prevented consirerable damage when a fire broke out on Saturday morning in the basement of the Canadian Canoe Co., Rink St. The fire is believed to have started in some rubbish in the basement, but when the temperature became too hot the sprinkler system came into play, dousing the blaze before firemen arrived.

FATHER WHELAN DIES

The Rev. Father W. E. Whelan, parish priest of Howe Island, Ontario, is dead. He was the brother of Mrs. T. J. Ryan, 364 Brock St.

E. A. Thompson Fuel Dealer Dies

Resident of Peterborough since his birth 75 years ago, Mr. E. Arthur Thompson, 183 Aylmer St., died at Civic Hospital this morning. He was taken ill with a heart condition a week ago last Thursday, and developing complications caused death.

Mr. Thompson was a son of Elias Thompson and his wife, Esther Parnall For the last 25 years he was engaged in the retail fuel business, and had long been interested in lumbering. In that respect he was associated in his youth with his father, who had been prominent in local lumbering years ago.

Arthur Thompson was one of the last survivors of the Peterborough Baseball Club in the days when the late Dan McCabe was pitcher and Mr. Chris. G. Graham catcher.

Other players on that team were Andy Scott, Jack Sheridan, Wm. J. Grady, Wally Parnell, Jack Mulhall, and others.

Mr. Thompson was also interested in standard bred horses and also in harness horse racing. He kept his own horses for many years, and in later days he had retained as a hobby a wide knowledge of the pedigrees of the standard breds.

Mr. Thompson leaves his wife, the former Margaret Oldham, his sons, John C., George H., Arthur R., Frank G., all of Peterborough and Kenneth E. Thompson of Sarnia; and daughters Miss Helen B. Thompson and Mrs. M. Clark of this city.

The body is resting at the Kaye funeral home, 539 George St., until Wednesday afternoon when the funeral service will be conducted there by Rev. Dr. Bruce Gordon of Trinity United Church, assisted by Rev. F. W. Craik, at 3 p.m. Burial will be at Little Lake Cemetery.

HAS RELATIVES HERE.

Henry Kinshella, Detroit, who was fatally injured there in a traffic accident Thursday afternoon, was a brother-in-law of Bart Allen, Lock St., and James Allen, Bolivar St. He was born in Albertaa about 40 years ago. Mr. Kinshella was on his way to a music store, and was walking on a safety strip for pedestrians when he was struck by an automobile. The funeral took place in Detroit Monday morning.

MAIN ST. TOPICS

ADDITION TO FLEET

Newest additions to the large fleet of buses owned by the Peterborough Bus Lines were put on the routes this morning. Only five of the new buses were used. There is considerable more standing room than in the old buses. They appear to be smaller, but are about the same length and a little wider.

SNOW LOADER DAMAGED

There is a good reason why the snowloader did not make its appearance until after 11 a.m. today. While it was being started in the City Garage early today a short circuit burned out some of the engine's wiring, and a call was put into the Fire Department. It was put into serviceable condition as soon as possible by replacing the defective wiring.

HIT-RUN ACCIDENT

Returning from church services at St. John's on Sunday evening, R. G. Groombridge of 253 Murray St., found his car had been struck and damaged by a hit-and-run driver. The accident happened on Hunter St., almost directly in front of the church, between 7 and 8:30 p.m. Fender, trunk, bumper and tail light of the Groombridge car were damaged by the unidentified motorist.

Confiscates Revolver War Souvenir

"I can quite understand how you prize these, but there is nothing else we can do about it," explained Magistrate W. R. Philp to William Livingstone of 218 Perry St., in confiscating a revolver. Livingstone was fined $10 and $2.50 costs in police court today when he pleaded guilty to being in possession of a revolver which was not registered. He told the court the weapon was a war souvenir.

"It is unfortunate," said his worship.

"Many boys have these guns as mementos of the war and it is too bad that you do not take the trouble and time to have them registered to protect yourselves."

Crown Attorney John Bradshaw told the court that the accused had been open in his admission of the possession and suggested the light fine. The usual court order for confiscation of the revolver was made.

Parking Stickers For Commercial Vehicles

Owners of Commercial Vehicles operating in Peterborough may now purchase at the Police Department office, Water Street, windshield stickers granting Parking Privileges at parking meters in accordance with By-law 4675. These stickers are for the year 1949 and cost $5.00 each. These stickers must be obtained on or before January 15th. Officers Entertain 250 At New Year's Eve Dance

In elaborate decorative setting and particularly gay mood, officers of the 50th Heavy Anti-Aircraft Regiment, RCA (Prince of Wales Rangers) and their friends ushered in 1949 at the Peterborough Armory. Preparations for the annual New Year's Eve dance in the Officers' Mess have been going for for several months under direction of mess president, Capt. Howard Hammell, and all went to make the party a really grand occasion this year. As well as the entertainment and scene effect so much enjoyed by the guests, buffets were laden with most excellent fare for hungry after-midnight revellers. Child Marriage Too Often Lacking in Self Control

DEAR MISS DIX: My husband and I married when he was 18 and I was 16. We quarrelled and got a divorce, and both of us married again for spite. Then we found out that we still loved each other and were miserable apart. My present husband is a wonderful man, who is just as good to me as anyone could possibly be, but I pine so for my first husband that I am a nervous wreck.

Dorothy Dix

Do you think there would be any harm if I should see my first mate now and then. He comes to my city every week on business. If I could see him occasionally, maybe it would stop the turmoil in my heart. The last time he called me up I cried so that I couldn't even talk to him.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: There is an old proverb that is warning against tying a knot with your tongue that you can't untie with your teeth, and that is the fatal mistake that so many youngsters make when they are married. They are children who are immature; who do not know what they want in a husband or wife; who have not learned any self-control; who have not acquired any diplomacy in dealing with those with whom they must live; and who never count the cost of their actions.

Like Children

Your case is a perfect example of this. When you and your boy husband married, you squabbled and fought like the kids you were and broke your marriage vows because you had "a mad on," as children say. You even went to the unbelievable folly of marrying somebody you didn't love just for spite. And now you are bemoaning the wreck you made of your child-marriage.

It is a hopeless task. We can't undo the mistake we have made. We can only pay for them with our hearts' blood. But we can meet the trouble we brought on ourselves and others with courage instead of whining. Your mistake is that you are nursing your lost love instead of forgetting it; that you are being unfaithful in soul if not in act to your good husband; and that you are trying to get back another woman's husband whom you threw into the discard in a childish rage.

Many women take a morbid pleasure in thinking that they are still in love with their childhood sweetheart or a divorced husband. The remedy for that is to go and see the lost love. Not many men look like their Dream Boy after 10 years' absence.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: Why do you always insist that wives should try to get along with their husbands' people? You are ruining the lives of many women whose man believe this literally. I contend that a woman is married to her husband only, not to his family, and I refuse to be a slave to my husband's people because he desires me to be on good terms with them.

My advice to wives is never to go out of their way for their in-laws, and if they should accompany their husbands on a visit to their families to keep their mouths shut. In-laws are not worth worrying about. Just get along with your husband. It is enough to be married to one person.

A FEMALE IN-LAW

ANSWER: The reason that I always urge brides to try to get along with their husbands' people is because nothing endears a wife so much to her husband as for her to win the hearts of her in-laws and become, in reality, one of the family. A young wife plays her trump card when she calls her new relatives "Mother" and "Father"; when she goes to them for advice; and when she adapts her ways to theirs.

Furthermore it is good policy, for the wife who has made a friend of her mother-in-law never has husband trouble.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I am a young man 21 years of age, deeply in love with a woman who is 20 years my senior. She also is very well off. I find that young girls do not give me the love and understanding that this older woman gives me. I think she would accept me if I proposed to her. Do you think our marriage would be a success?

JAMES

ANSWER: Nobody knows how a marriage will turn out. It is a gamble even with the high contracting parties. Many men, with the mother complex, are happier with wives who are much older than themselves than they are with young girls. And, on the other hand many middle-aged women really prefer boy husbands to men in their own age class.

So take your choice and, of course, it is always handy for Friend Wife to have plenty of money.

While Near-Blizzard Raged Merrymakers Galore Welcomed 1949 at Gay Spots

Night spots of the city prepared for a gala New Year's Eve celebration and they were not disappointed, in spite of the blizzard. Though driving was difficult and hazardous, and walking just about the same, there was little difference in the size of crowds from other years, and their noise-making was every bit as terrific.

About 2000 jammed the Brock St. Summer Gardens and caused bedlam to break out as the stroke of midnight was reached. Huge balloons over the centre of the floor remained intact for about 15 minutes of the dance, and then the frolickers climbed posts and walls to get at small clusters that were hung there. Favors, prizes and horns were handed out to everyone and with the latter guests did their best to drown Hal MacFarlane's band music as they all took part in one big floor show.

Club Aragon entertained 600 guests at the passing of old 1948, the dancers gave the New Year a loud welcome with their horns and such, looking gay and frivolous in bright paper hats. A most effective "Winter Wonderland" bandstand setting was created using colored lights to highlight the arrangement. Bob Kinsman and his orchestra played and there was also a good floor show with Al Harvey as the genial MC and he led everyone in a sing-song. Miss Mildred Morey, was present and Miss Dorothy Merrell, accordionist. When the jubilant ones had time to sit down there was a grand turkey dinner with all the trimmings served.

Close to 300 people made a big night of it at the Kawartha Golf Club and wouldn't go home until early morning. They had a good turkey supper after dancing to the Senevaires' music until they brought in the New Year in fine style. Floral paintings done by Mr. F. Gray of the CGE decorated the walls and were much admired. Balloons and favors aided in making the party a huge success.

First New Year's Eve celebration in the Empress Hotel ballroom was very successful with about 150 people in attendance. El Jones was master of ceremonies and kept the scene lively while Del Crary and his orchestra provided good music. Two girls did a novelty step dance on roller skates to highlight the program, and a harmonica player entertained with pleasing tunes. Balloons six feet in diameter clung to the ceiling and walls of the Kawartha room and everyone had favors and novelties. Turkey and ham were the main items of a delicious buffet dinner for which the management received many compliments.

6—In Memoriams

LLOYD—In memory of our loving mother, Mrs. Cora Lloyd, who passed away Dec. 31, 1947.
In our hearts your memory lingers
Sweet and tender fond and true,
There is not a day dear mother,
That we do not think of you.
—Remembered by daughter and son-in-law Doris and Joe Kelly.

KIDD—In loving memory of Bruce Kidd, who died January 2, 1946.
He's gone but not forgotten,
As days dawns another year
In our lonely hours of thinking
Thoughts of him are always near.
Days of sadness still come o'er us,
Friends may think the wound is healed
But they still know the sorrow
That lies within the heart concealed.
—Ever remembered by his wife Mary.

6—In Memoriams

KIDD—In loving memory of Bruce Kidd, who died January 2, 1946.
Gone dear father, gone forever,
How we miss your smiling face
But you left us to remember
None on earth can take your place,
A happy home we once enjoyed,
How sweet the memory still
But death has left a loneliness,
The world can never fill.
—Ever remembered by his family

Slap On Back At New Year's Eve Party Caused Man To Swallow Mouthpiece Of Horn

Next time Thomas Kay, Jr., Victory Crescent, blows a paper horn at a party he'll make sure that nobody is behind him. On New Year's Eve he suffered the freak accident of the week-end.

An accomplished piper in the Peterborough Pipe Band, Mr. Kay knows how to take a really deep breath. As he sucked in to deliver a stentorian blast on the gaily-colored horn a fellow reveller thumped him on the back and he swallowed the brass-mouthpiece which lodged in his throat.

While painful, it did not prevent him from breathing and he was able to talk. He went to the Police Stat on where he obtained transportation to St. Joseph's Hospital.

He spent the night in the hospital and late on New Year's Day after an anaesthetic, the brass piece was removed.

15 Bicycles Still Unclaimed Police Say Gathering Dust In City Hall Basement

The police said that there are more than a dozen bicycles included in the lot. Their owners can claim them anytime, as soon as identification is made to the satisfaction of the police.

Chief Constable John Thompson said that his department would be pleased to be rid of the custody of the bikes. At last count there were 15 stacked against the cellar walls.

"They have all been found in the city, so we presume their owners live here. They're welcome to them back.

Provincials Commend Drivers On New Years

District Sergeant Price Morris of the Provincial Police Headquarters said that drivers of the district were "just about perfect" this New Year's. The officer said that motorists gave splendid cooperation and showed good sense in their road manners. Despite the bad snow storm, there were few accidents, no injuries and comparatively little damage.

Provincial police on patrol through the holiday, he said, were pleased with the actions of traffic . . . drivers showed a fine degree of consideration for the others operating under difficult highway travelling.

How did this compare to other years?

"We always have a good New Year's," said the sergeant.

Prime Minister King Chosen Man Of Year

The newsiest personality in Canada in 1948 was former Prime Minister Mackenzie King. Mr. King was chosen by telegraph editors of Canada daily newspapers, voting in a Canadian Press poll. He edged out Barbara Ann Scott— last year's winner — Rt. Hon. Louis St. Laurent, who succeeded him in the prime ministership, and George Drew, leader-elect of the Progressive Conservative Party.

Telephone Traffic Heavy On Holiday

New Year's—an annual rush on the long distance facilities of the Bell Telephone — brought no interruptions in service, reports the local office. The flood of calls was heavy, although an accurate picture cannot be given until figures are compiled.

There were no line cuts due to the snowstorm.

S. C. Pearson of the Peterborough office explained "the storm was not of the type which hits the lines too badly. There was no sleet and little ice-formations." He added that a "couple of small rural lines" have not yet been checked and may have been bothered, but there was no major break through the whole peak period.

Mr. Cochrane's face fell in dismay.

"The other gentleman is Magistrate R. B. Baxter," he said next.

FIRST ONTARIO CITIZEN OF 1949—This eight-pound, three-ounce girl was born in St. Joseph's Hospital, Hamilton, at 15 seconds past midnight on New Year's Day. She is pictured with her mother, Mrs. James Hartnup, 178 Maple Ave., and Nurse Anne Payne. The baby and parents are going to receive numerous gifts from Hamilton merchants in recognition of the fact that, until a baby with a better claim comes along, she is the first citizen of 1949 in Ontario.

Discharged Gun With Toe, Man Found Dead

HASTINGS, Jan. 3 (By Staff Reporter)—Pressing the barrel of a 12-guage shotgun to his stomach and squeezing the trigger by using his bare toe, Keith Alexander Kennedy, 46, a resident of Hastings, on Friday afternoon shot and killed himself. A suicide note was left, contents of which were not revealed.

He was found by his brother, Francis Kennedy, lying across a bed in an upstairs bedroom. The brother had been with him a few minutes before the tragedy and rushed upstairs as soon as he heard the single shot.

Dr. Bell Smith of Hastings was called immediately but the wounded man was dead when he arrived.

Coroner Dr. Ward Baker of Campbelford gave a verdict of death through internal hemorrhage caused by a self-inflicted gunshot wound.

Mr. Kennedy had lived all his life in the Hastings district and was employed at the local tannery. He was a bachelor.

When found by his brother in the upstairs bedroom he was fully clothed except for the right shoe and sock which had been removed, presumably to permit him to release the trigger with his toe. The single-barrelled 12-guage shotgun lay clutched to his stomach as he lay on the bed.

Close friends knew that Mr. Kennedy suffered from mental depression in the summer. Later he had seemed more cheerful but recently he had once again become despondent.

Chief Constable L. W. Potten and Prov. Constable Arthur Kellogg investigated.

Ceylon Finds Economy Much Healthier

By GRAHAM BARROW.

COLOMBO, Ceylon, Jan. 3 — (Reuters). — Ceylon completed her first year as a Dominion of the Commonwealth in a healthier economic position than at the end of 1947.

She closed the year with an adverse trade balance; but this is being steadily eliminated.

Her imports in 1947 were $25,000,000 more than exports. In the first nine months of this year this deficit was cut down to less than $3,300,000, with indications that there would be a further improvement by the end of the year.

Ceylon's main exports are tea, rubber and cocoanut, with the emphasis on tea which represents five-tighths of the island's total erports.

Excellent Rise

In spite of the drop in rubber prices, the value of the other exports has shown a well-sustained rise.

Published trade reports show that in the first nine months of this year, her imports from Commonwealth countries totalled more than $130,000,000, including $2,185,000 frim Canada.

Her imports from other countries during the same period totalled more than $115,000,000. This figure included about $50,000,000 from Burma (in the sterling area) mainly for rice.

Tea Best Export

Tea is by far the largest and best export commodity of this "Island of Dusky Leaves." Its national economy deepnds on it. Nearly a quarter of its revenue is earned by it.

In 1947, Ceylon exported 287,000,000 pounds of tea valued at about $190,000,000, according to customs returns. In the first nine months of this year, she exported 224,000,000 pounds valued at about $155,000,000.

An immediate problem is the drop in the price of rubber, the island's second largest export commodity. From January to September this year, she exported 153,000,000 pounds valued at $36,000,000.

She sold her rubber to Great Britain during the war years at approximately 30 cents a pound. To-day its market price is less than 20 cents.

Bill Robinson's Feet Still Tapping Stage At 70 Years

By GEORGE TUCKER.

NEW YORK, Jan. 3 — (AP)— Bill Robinson's feet at 70 are briskly tapping out the chapters of an endless autobiography.

It is a tale of many guffaws and few sobs.

"Bojangles, the world knows your joys by heart—what about the agony?" we asked.

Our hero, slim as a river pickerel, unbends:

"Well, I sure will be grieved if nobody makes a movie of my life," says Bill Robinson. "Jolson, Pasteur, Moss Hart, Chopin —everybody but me.'

Few would believe the straight facts of Bill's life. They would have to be fictionized. He was born May 25, 1878.

Whn dancing for nickels in the streets of Richmond, Va., he got his first job in a White musical show, "South Before the War."

This took him into vaudeville as one of a team called Cooper and Robinson.

On His Way

When this came apart he went into the Marigold Gardens in Chicago. Booked for a month, he stayed two years. From then on it was new York shows and pictures.

One day in Richmand, between jobs, Bojangles took a job as a hatel waiter. That night at dinner, nervous and excited, he dribbled soup over a fine gentleman in a white suit.

The gentleman got slowly to his feet. "Think nothing of it," he said easily, "I could happen to anybody."

Next morning Robinson was practicing a few steps before a corner crowd. The man whose white suit he had stained stepped forward with a smile. "I am Marty Forkins. Here are a few bucks. Get up to New York. I will join you next week. We will get you a real dancing job.'"

Bojangles sums up the incident: "Mr. Forkins has been my personal manager for over 40 years, with never a contract between us."

Surviving are his widow, one son John Murdock Campbell Jr. and two daughters, Mrs. Louis Stevenson, New York City, and Mrs. John G. Mackenzie, Toronto.

He was released after the pathologist, Dr. J. P. Wyatt, made his report. Police said no charges would be laid.

Discuss Mine Union At Washington Parley

TORONTO, Jan. 3 — (CP). — The position of the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers (CIO) in Canada will be discussed at a January conference in Washington between officials of the Canadian Congress of Labor and CIO representatives.

Eamon Park, Canadian public relations director of the United Steelworkers of America (CIO), said Friday night that the talks arise from a situation at the International Nickel Company plant at Port Colborne. He said a majority of members of the Smelter Workers Union recently decided to secede from that union and form a local of the Steelworkers Union.

Actress Picks Academy Award Winners

By BOB THOMAS.

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 3 (AP).— It's getting along toward Academy Award time, and Barbara Stanwyck is the first to get into the act.

Barbara, herself a contender, selects these winners:

Best performance by an actress — Olivia DeHavilland in "The Snake Pit."

Best performance by an actor—Lew Ayres in "Johnny Belinda."

Barbara undoubtedly will get a nomination for her sustained hysterics in "Sorry, Wrong Number." But she hesitated not at all in predicting Olivia's victory.

What about Sir Laurence Olivier's "Hamlet"?

"Certainly we cannot overlook him, for he is the master of us all. But he has an advantage over us. He is able to select his own scenes, direct them and take as long as he wants.

"I think Olivier should be given a special award. We should keep our awards at hime. After all, the English don't send us any."

Other Awards

Concerning awards and things, the New York critics' selections proved interesting. Not so much for the choices of Olivia and Olivier for the best acting, but for the best picture award. It went to "The Treasure of Sierra Madre," which nosed out "Hamlet."

"Treasure" certainly ranks as the most under-estimated picture of 1948. It was a perfect gem, and yet it was overlooked by many critics and fans — in fact even by Warners.

Strange Story

"Siren of Atlantis" bears one of the strangest histories of any movie. First completed two years ago, it was ready for release when Producer Seymour Nebenzal decided it had to be reshot. By this time stars Maria Montez and Jean Pierre Aumont were in France, the director was on another lot, and one of the main actors was in a Broadway show.

Undaunted, Nebenzal hailed the Aumonts back, got a new director and cut out the part of the Broadway actor. The film was remade at considerable expense. Neither director would take credit far the job, so film editor Gregg Tallas gets the nod.

PS—Tallas has to join the Directors' Guild.

Student Federation Urges Radio School

MONTREAL, Jan. 3—(CP)—The National Federation of Canadian University students at the closing session Friday urged need for a Canadian School of Radio.

A sub-committee report recommended that provincial governments be approached for aid and support for such a scheme.

The course in radio would be started at a "centrally-located" university with a view to helping keep students in Canada who might otherwise go to the United States.

Another resolution called for a special committee to investigate the cost of textbooks. It was suggested publishers should agree to maintain the American list price of texts in Canada.

CANADA TO BUILD TRANSPORT PLANE

Passenger Train Hits Car Two Brothers Killed Fellow Workman Injured

Vehicle Carried 1,265 Feet Before Stopped Three Men Tossed Out; Flyer Close To Car Crossing Tracks

HAMILTON, Jan. 4—(CP).—Two brothers were killed and a fellow-workman critically injured early today when the automobile in which they were driving to work was struck by a passenger train. Dead were George McBride, 24, and Andrew McBride, 19, and injured was Alfred Turgeon, 28, all of Hamilton. Turgeon, taken immediately to hospital, was reported in grave condition but the extent of his injuries were not immediately known. Police, who removed him from the Toronto, Hamilton and Buffalo railroad track-side, said he appeared to have only head injuries. He was bleeding profusely from the back of his head and had a large welt on his forehead. Smaller cuts were on his face.

The accident occurred between 6.45 and 7 a.m. as the trio crossed the private crossing at the entry to the Hamilton Brick Co., Ltd., where they were employed. It was Hamilton's first fatality in 1949.

Police said the New York-to-Toronto Flyer, composed of 12 passenger cars, mostly sleepers, was only a short distance from the auto when it crossed the tracks.

Thrown From Car

The vehicle was carried 1,265 feet before the train was brought to a stop. The three men were thrown from their car and were found lying beside the truck behind the engine.

The bodies of the two McBrides were so badly mutilated they could not be distinquished from one another.

Robert New, manager of the brick company, said he heard the crash from his office and ran to the accident scene.

"The train had stopped and the car was all crumpled and twisted on the cow-catcher," he said. "The train had dragged it about ¼ mile down the track. It was an awful mess."

At the time of the accident it was dark, police reported, and frost on the automobile's windows may have obstructed the motorist's view.

A railway official said a Hamilton by-law forbids trains to sound their whistles within the city limits, except at standard railway crossings. The train had whistled, he said, at the last public crossing, about ¼ mile from the wreck.

The McBride brothers are survived by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. McBride, four sisters and two brothers, all of Hamilton.

$10,000 Blaze Sweeps Army Truck Garage

NORTH BAY, Jan. 4 —(CP)—Damage estimated at more than $10,000 was caused today by fire which broke out at the army motor transport garage at Fort Chippewa barracks. Three army vehicles—two "60 cwts." and a jeep—wooden portions of the garage and some serving equipment was destroyed in the blaze.

No person was injured.

The fire was first noticed by George Slack, fireman in charge of army buildings at the camp.

In the interval before the city brigade arrived, army personnel fought the flames with all available equipment, and were successful in removing a jeep from the garage. Only its canvas top was damaged. Firemen later saved a motorcycle from the blazing building, but were unable to remove the two heavy trucks and a second jeep.

The garage building, built during the war, was constructed of metal sheets over a wooden frame. Accumulated grease on the floor and in pits added impetus to the flames which hurled dense clouds of black smoke into the sharp wintry air.

At noon, firemen were still pouring water on the smoldering structure. It did not collapse.

The building is owned by the Department of National Defence.

Meet In Spring To Wind Up Pact

LONDON, Jan. 4—(AP)—High British sources said today nearly a dozen Western Power foreign ministers will meet in the spring to conclude the North Atlantic defence pact.

One unofficial report was that the ministers might meet on a vessel in the Atlantic to sign the accord.

The United States, Britain, Canada, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxemborug, principals in the negotiations, are expected to invite Denmark, Iceland, Eire and Portugal to join the alliance.

Britain has sent comments on a preliminary draft of the pact to her ambassador, Sir Oliver Franks, in Washington

African Government's Defeat Predicted

JOHANNESBURG, Jan. 4. —(Reuters).—Political circles here see the defeat of the South African government as a possibility due to a threatened split in the Nationalist-Afrikaner party coalition.

The two groups are at odds over the Nationalists' announced intention to abolish native representation in Parliament and the right of natives in the Cape of Good Hope province to vote if they own property and comply with other conditions.

Political circles say indications are that Finance Minister N. C. Havenga, leader of the Afrikaner party, will resign from the cabinet. If he does this and joins forces with Field Marshal Smuts, leader of the United party which now is in opposition, they could defeat the government during the next session of Parliament starting Jan. 31.

Protest Decision

LONDON, Jan. 4 (AP).—Tass today reported that Poland has protested against the decision of United States occupation authorities to turn down her claims for return of Polish property taken to Austria by the Germans. The Russian news agency said the protest was made in a note to the allied commission in Vienna.

Fear Invasion May Involve British Troops

LONDON, Jan. 4—(Reuters).—Foreign Secretary Bevin and British service chiefs Monday reviewed military implications of the presence of Jewish troops on Egyptian territory, it was learned.

The British Government, which has military links with Egypt under the terms of the 1936 Anglo-Egyptian treaty, is trying to avert a situation in which she would be obliged to become involved in military operations on the Palestine frontiers.

Discount Reports

Suggestions that British troops are already standing by in the Suez Canal zone or that a decision to reinforce them has been taken were discounted here, however.

Main outlines of the situation appear to be:

1. Britain has urged the United States, through her Ambassador in Washington, to influence the Israeli government to implement the terms of the United Nations Security Council's cease-fire resolution of Nov. 4 The Ambassador has emphasized that the mutual-aid clauses of Britain's treaties with Egypt and Trans-Jordan, and the dangers of Britain and the United States being drawn into a conflict on opposite sides if Jewish action should lead either of these states to invoke their treaties with Britain.

2. Jewish forces which entered Egyptian territory have either already withdrawn or are in process of withdrawal.

3. Egypt has not yet invoked the military clauses of the 1936 treaty, though she has drawn British attention to the activity of Jewish troops on her soil.

Whereas Britain claims to have suspended all arms deliveries to either side in Palestine, it is common knowledge that Israel has, since the truce period, been receiving considerable supplies through eastern European governments.

Allies Demand Exact Count Of Prisoners In Soviet

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4—(AP)—The western powers have never had any word on the fate of about half of the 890,532 German prisoners of war Russia acknowledged early in 1947 that she was holding.

This was disclosed today when the state department made public the text of a note to Moscow demanding an exact count of the prisoners still held The fact the note had been sent had been announced 24 hours earlier.

In sharp language, the note reminded that Russia agreed with the western powers early in 1947 that all German prisoners of war would be discharged by the end of 1948. It said Soviet failure to comply with the agreement "can only be interpreted by world opinion as a breach of faith."

Statistically, the note set out this picture: Early in 1947, the Soviets said they had 890,532 German war prisoners Between March 1, 1947 and March 1, 1948, they reported 252,395 returned to all four German occupation zones Since the latter date, the western powers know only of 194,972 sent into the three western zones.

Under a four-power agreement, all prisoners-of-war were to have been sent home by the end of 1948. Russia has been claiming that many former German soldiers are being held as so-called "volunteer" workers in the western zones of Germany.

Britain, France and the United States gave their answer to that charge Monday.

The state department here announced that a note had been delivered to Moscow asking (a) how many prisoners-of-war still are in Russia; (b) what the Soviet Union plans to do about returning them to Germany; and (c) how many have died in captivity.

Allied and German sources estimate that more than 200,000 prisoners of war remain in Russian hands.

46 Left Dead As Cyclone Levels Town

Believe 300 Injured In 20 Block Area; Convicts Clear Rubble

WARREN, Ark., Jan. 4 (AP)—This weeping and torn timber town today counted 46 dead and nearly 300 injured in the wake of a tornado which hit with a thundering roar late Monday afternoon.

Two other tornadoes killed four persons and injured more than 60 in northern Louisiana and near El Dorado, Ark.

All through the night dazed survivors at Warren (population 7,500) stumbled through the ruins of a 20-block industrial and residential area, many aimlessly, others in search of relatives. Warren is 100 miles southeast of Little Rock.

Mayor Jim Hurley expressed fear that other bodies would be recovered and predicted the death toll would reach 50, maybe more.

Convicts Clear Debris

Convicts equipped with bulldozers, picks and shovels aided in the task of clearing the debris. Mayor Hurley said damage, conservatively estimated, would reach the $1,000,000 mark.

The storm struck at 5:45 p.m., and lasted only 15 minutes, but its arrival as most of the town prepared for supper was heralded by an ominous roar.

Electric, gas and water lines were broken. Fires broke out adding an eerie glow to the nightmare.

The Red Cross and armed forces sent in mobile kitchens and first aid stations.

So great was the force of the blow that it picked up a heavy bus and bent it around a power pole.

The business district escaped damage, but residential areas and lumber mills in the southern and eastern sections were virtually devastated.

Series of Twisters

The storm climaxed a series of twisters that hop-skipped and dipped through Northwest Louisiana and Arkansas late Monday. None of the others was as violent as the big, black cloud with a red funnel that bore down on Warren.

Two persons perished near Haynesville, La., and a score or more were injured. Two dead and nearly a score injured was the total of two storms near El Dorado, Ark., southwest of here and north of Haynesville.

The storm hit once more after leaving here, striking nearby Dark Corner, Ark., about an hour later. Two persons were hurt.

The tornado caused more casualties than the one which swept the Louisiana-Arkansas area between El Dorado and Shreveport a year ago.

The one which battered Warren apparently was a union of smaller twisters that struck the area southwest of here earlier Monday.

Hurley said, a conservative estimate of property damage would be $1,000,000 but other estimates were larger.

Rescue workers searched debris for casualties. Their only lights were electric torches, lanterns or oil flares.

Say Marriage Invalid Performed By Boy 4

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 4—(AP)—Four-year-old Marjorie Gortner's first marriage service is "voidable," rules Ray Dowds, assistant Los Angeles county counsel.

The question has been debated since Sunday, when the boy minister, who won't be five until Jan. 14, married Raymond Miller, 23, and Alma Brown, 21, in a Long Beach, Calif., chapel.

Dowds, whose opinion was asked by County Clerk W. G. Sharp, said Monday it is certain the California legislature in enacting the marriage law meant an ordained minister to be sufficiently old to carry on the business of a minister.

Can't Decide Jap Reparations, Industry

All Other Problems Have Been Settled By Far Eastern Commission

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—(AP).—All the "more important" questions about Japan's future have been settled except reparations and the size of her industry, the Far Eastern Commission said today.

The Commission issued a report summarizing nearly three years of its work as Allied governing body for the former enemy country. It did not give any reason for the stumbling blocks it apparently has hit on the two remaining issues.

But an official who asked to remain anonymous indicated that Communist successes in the Far East have magnified both the industrial problem and the related reparations puzzle.

"Communist expansion in the Orient has brought further economic deterioration there," he said. "This has rendered Japan unable to develop its foreign trade to the extent planned, and also has curtailed the flow of raw materials to Japanese industries."

He added that the Commission hopes both matters, which have plagued it since it started work in February, 1946, will be settled during the coming year.

Remaining reparations questions, officials said, are (a) What Japanese assets are to be removed; (b) To whom they are to be distributed; and (c) How the distribution is to be made.

Admiral Denies U.S. Marines Will Withdraw

SHANGHAI, Jan. 4 —(AP)—Vice-Admiral Oscar C. Badger today denied that United States forces are being withdrawn from China.

Admiral Badger, commander of the Western Pacific Fleet, said the "rumors were based on reports United States Marines had terminated their lease on the Shantung University campus where they maintained their barracks." The Marines were negotiating the return of the campus to the university.

Badger made his denial in a cabled statement from his Tsingtao base to the Associated Press in Shangai.

The Admiral said he ordered an end of negotiations "upon learning these discussions were being used as a basis for withdrawal rumors."

The statement did not say whether any agreement had been reached before negotiations ended for returning to the university the buildings the Marines have leased since the end of the war.

There were plenty of rumors, but no indication that either side had taken a single step toward actually negotiating an end to the civil war.

Nanking heard rumors that Communists already have representatives in either Nanking or Shanghai.

American naval and diplomatic sources here denied Marines were preparing to leave China. But their denials were half-hearted.

One spokesman, who should be in a position to know, said:

"That report isn't wrong; it's just premature."

The Tsingtao report said "the reason officially given for the surprise move was that since the Chinese government has now decided to negotiate for peace settlement with the Reds, there is a good prospect for peace being restored and the presence of the Marines is no longer needed."

Col. R. I. Moore Lindsay Mayor

LINDSAY, Jan. 4. — Despite heavy walking and wheeling because of deep snow, the ratepayers of Lindsay turned out 50 per cent to vote.

After seven years of continuous service as mayor, Mr. Charles Lamb relinquished office to Col. R. I. Moore, KC, the vote being: Moore 1,641, and Lamb 1,484. The fact that under Mayor Lamb's regime the Old Home Week venture went in the "red" $21,000 was a determining factor in the results. Col. Moore's organization included baby-sitters.

Councillors elected: Richard Butler, Ken Garbig, Bert Wainman, Vincent Cote, Charles Ferguson and Frank Speer.

Others elected were: Reeve, J. C. Kingsborough; Deputy Reeve, Lloyd Burrows. Board of education: South Ward, Dr. R. M. Parker; North Ward, Mrs. C. M. Laidley; East Ward, R. G. Lamb. Hydro commission: C. V. Sleep and L. A. Waddell. Wateworks commission: Maurice Collins.

Ratepayers voted overwhelmingly in favor of the establishment of a bus line in Lindsay, by 2,614 to 233.

Dismissal Referred

TORONTO, Jan. 4—(CP). — Miss Ethel Cryderman, president of the Canadian Nurses' Association, said the dismissal of two Canadian nurses from a hospital in Hamilton, Bermuda, had been brought to the attention of the association. The matter will be referred to an association executive meeting which will be held shortly.

Can't Meet Bacon Order Canada Loses 12 Million Dollar Contract

OTTAWA, Jan. 4—(CP).—Canada lost $12,000,000 in American economic co-operation administration funds by being unable to meet a British request for bacon, a government source discloses. He said Monday night that because of British and Canadian difficulties, the Dominion could not deliver some 220,000,000 pounds of bacon the United Kingdom wanted during 1948. Canada undershot the target by more than 20,000,000 pounds.

As a result a $12,000,000 ECA authorization for Britain to buy Canadian bacon in the fourth quarter of 1948 was cancelled in Washington.

However, the source said Canada did expect to complete her initial 1948 contract to ship 195,000,000 pounds of bacon during the next few weeks. So far more than 180,000,000 pounds had been shipped.

The source gave two main reasons for Canada's failure to reach the larger target:

1. Britain, because of her dollar shortage, was unwilling to take a surplus of bacon when it was available during the early months of 1948.

2. Lifting of the United States cattle embargo in August brought up the price of beef in Canada and consumers turned to bacon and pork. As a result there was little bacon left over for shipment in the latter months of 1948.

However, the source believed Canada would be able to live up to her 1949 commitment to ship 160,000,000 pounds of bacon to Britain in 1949.

Shipment would start soon, he said, Britain paying the same 1948 price of $36 a hundredweight for grade "A" Wiltshire under the new Anglo-Canadian food agreement.

100 Attend Service For Father, Daughter

DURHAM, Jan. 4—(CP)—William Brown and the daughter he shot last Thursday before killing himself were buried her Monday.

Some 100 persons attended the private funeral in this town some 25 miles south of Owen Sound. But Mrs. Brown, a bed-ridden invalid for years, was in hospital unaware of the tragedy which struck her family and it was said she probably would never know.

Brown, 48, killed his 17-year-old daughter Isabel in the presence of her fiance, Stewart Newell, 21, before turning the shotgun on himself.

Rev C. K. Dolby of Durham Baptist Church conducted the funeral.

Egypt Accepts Truce Order

CAIRO, Jan. 4—(A) — Egypt has accepted the United Nations Security Council's Negev cease-fire order of Dec. 29 and asked imposition of sanctions against Israel. She charged that Zionists "systematically obstruct the council's decisions."

Foreign Minister Dessouki Abaze Pasha expressed the Egyptian position in a note to Lake Success, made public here today.

The note said Egypt accepted the cease-fire order in line with "her policy of co-operation with the security council and her desire to help restore peace in Palestine," but that Israel had not obeyed the council's order of Nov. 4 that both parties in the Negev withdraw to positions occupied before Oct. 14. (Israel has gained ground and Egypt has lost ground in the fighting.)

Fighting Resumes

Israeli and Iraqui troops fought for two hours Monday on the potentially explosive Sharon Valley sector. Both sides suffered casualties.

An army spokesman said a Jewish punitive expedition clashed with Iraqi regulars. Jews said the Israeli troops were hunting Arab raiders accused of killing two settlers, kidnapping two women and rustling cattle in the area of Tira, a Jewish village 16 miles northeast of Tel Aviv.

Cut Link With Reds

FRANKFURT, Jan. 4—(AP).—West Germany's Communists announced tonight they were cutting all "organizational" links with the Communists in eastern Germany. American military government officials interpreted the Communist move as a tactical one, possibly preparing the way for direct relations between western Germany's Communist party and the Cominform (Communist International Information Bureau).

Dutch Premier Promises Free Elections In Indies

AMSTERDAM, Jan. 4—(AP)—Prime Minister Willem Drees of The Netherlands left by plane for Indonesia today. He promised eventual free elections and democratic government for the East Indies.

In a prepared statement the prime minister re-emphasized the two-point Dutch plan:

"1. Formation of an Indonesian interim government which will be truly representative for the Indonesians.

"2. Preparation for the formation at an early date of the United States of Indonesia to which we will be able to transfer our sovereignty.

"To this end, free elections will have to be held which will be decisive on several issues."

His plane will touch down in Pakistan and India en route to Batavia. As a protest over Dutch action in Indonesia, the two Dominions stopped Dutch planes from landing, but will make an exception in the case of the prime minister.

Anti-Dutch Government

BATAVIA, Java, Jan. 4—(AP)—A Chinese newspaper reported today the formation of an anti-Dutch "guerrilla government for Java," headed by four members of the Indonesian republic's last cabinet.

The newspaper, Sin Po, said the cabinet ministers are Dr. Soekiman, who directed internal affairs and led the republic's largest party, Masjumni (National Moslem); Dr. Leimena, health minister and a leading figure in Dutch-Indonesian negotiations; Dr. Djuanda, communications minister, and Dr. Kasimo, food supply minister.

The heads of the last Indonesian government, including President Soekarno and Premier Mohamed Hatta, have been in Dutch custody since the beginning of the latest Dutch military action against the republic in Java and Sumatra, now virtually complete.

AirborneMen Will Use It Ottawa Says

Second US Aircraft To Be Manufactured In Dominion Plants

OTTAWA, Jan. 4 — (CP). — A new plan was indicated to-day for what is shaping up as a definite and broad, multi-million dollar rearmament program for the Canadian Forces that will start taking shape this year.

Defence sources said a United States plane, a Fairchild packet aircraft, has been chosen as the one to transport Canada's airborne brigade, the all-arms group of roughly 7,000 men that will be the country's ever-ready standing army force.

Experiments now are going on with tracked landing gear — somewhat like that on tanks — that would increase its abilities to land in the north. It will be used to take heavy equipment such as trucks to northern bases.

Second US Plane

The aircraft will be manufactured here. It is the second US plane whose production has been arranged by Trade Minister Howe. The other is the jet fighter F86.

Defence sources said no American arms could be imported into this country at present because of an old US law. There are indications, however, that this law will be repealed at the new session of Congress.

Meanwhile, it remains quite legal to manufacture their arms here.

Air Vice-Marshal A. L. James, the RCAF technical chief who participated in the deal for production of the F86, left again yesterday for Washington for further negotiations.

The new developments meon that the forces are getting new fighters for the RCAF; new submarine hunting fighters and surface ships for the Navy, and a new transport plane for the Airborne Brigade.

No official estimate has been given of what these purchases will ultimately amount to, but they will certainly tower into the millions. Defence costs generally have risen markedly since the war. The federal defence budget for this fiscal year runs to $350,000,000 and Defence Minister Claxton has said it will increase in the 1949-50 fiscal year.

The new Fairchild transport plane is one which opens at both ends to permit equipment to be rolled in. Segments of the airborne brigade at the joint air centre in Rivers, Man., have been working with the Dakota which has one side entrance.

Walks 70 Miles In Bad Blizzard

EDMONTON, Jan. 4—(CP)—The RCAF reported today a young Eskimo reached safety Monday night after walking 70 miles while lost for four days and four nights in an Arctic blizzard.

The air force said the Eskimo, named Mikinak, trudged into Cambridge Bay, about 1,200 air-miles northeast of Edmonton, in "very weak" condition.

Mikinak and an older companion, Agay, became separated in a blizzard last Thursday. Later Agay reached Cambridge Bay and reported the younger man missing.

Four RCMP dog teams began a search. An air force Dakota was about to begin aerial search when Mikinak reached Cambridge Bay.

Ask Congress Enforce Stronger Security

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4 —(AP)—Defence Secretary James Forrestal today asked Congress to put new and stronger force into laws protecting the secret codes and intelligence activities of the United States.

Forrestal said existing legislation is "far too limited in application to afford protection to certain highly secret government activities."

This assertion was made in a letter to House Speaker Sam Rayburn accompanying a proposed bill to tighten security measures.

Building Costs Levelled Off During 1948

OTTAWA, Jan. 4 (CP)—Soaring costs of building started to level off in Canada during 1948.

Another cheering development for the home-builder was that the average time taken to build a house dropped to seven months, compared with 11 months for 1946.

These improvements are noted in the latest issue of "Housing in Canada," quarterly publication of Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation reviewing major trends in the housing field.

"The most encouraging sign in the construction cost field of 1948," the publication says, "is the levelling-off of the marked price increases of 1946 and 1947."

In the first nine months of last year, the review says, there was a 7-per-cent increase in the combined index of wholesale building material prices and wage rates in the construction trades. For the same period of 1947, the jump was 17 per cent.

During the period surveyed, Canada continued to reach new high levels in house-biulding activity. In municipalities of 5,000 population and over, the first nine months of last year showed a 21-per-cent increase in homes started and an 8-per-cent increase in completions over the same period of 1947.

Campbell Reeve Of Monaghan

BAILIEBORO, Jan. 4 (ENS)—Harry Campbell on Monday defeated John Breekenridge by 64 votes for the reeveship of South Monaghan Township. Jay Whittington, who has been reeve for the past five years did not stand for office this year.

Township Clerk O. B. Johnston said "I've been clerk in South Monaghan for 35 years and this is the biggest and most exciting election that I can remember."

A record vote was polled.

Heating the poll for council was Reginald Atchison, a candidate who has never previously run for office, with 308 votes. Ray Bothwell, about to begin his second term, was second with 289; Charles Barnard, also a new office holder, was third with 281, and Merton Thompson, an ex-serviceman, was fourth with 247 votes.

Defeated candidate was Norman Willan with 208 votes.

Testifying to the interest aroused by the election was the fact that around the township hall more than 100 cars were parked as ratepayers gathered to listen to the post-election addresses of the candidates.

Trustees George Dean, Robert Kelly and Lorne Harris had previously been elected by acclamation.

Golds Move Ahead On Toronto Exchange

TORONTO, Jan. 4 — (CP). — Golds toiled briskly ahead on strong gains on the Toronto Stock Exchange to-day while the rest of the market was quiet. Industrials moved narrowly and base metals showed signs of firming.

Trading was suspended in Home Oil by the Exchange pending clarification of the companies offer to shareholders to purchase a share at $9 for every eight held.

Renewed interest in golds sent the list into higher ground. Senior producers led the advance in moderately active dealings and junior producers were well ahead on gains ranging to 20 cents. A few issues slipped into lower ground. McIntyre was ahead 1¼ in seniors and Hollinger, Lake Shore, Dome and Kerr Addison were strong fractionally.

Industrials were practically ignored. A few refining oils weakened and papers were stronger, International Paper added ½ and Minnesota and Ontario Paper was up ¼. Goodyear sagged $2.

Base Metals showed signs of following the gold advance. Consolidated Smelters recovered an early loss to add ¼ and Noranda, East Sullivan and Sherritt Gordon were better. New Calumet dipped 8 cents.

Have Engine Trouble

TORONTO, Jan. 4 (CP)—Three trains were delayed for about one hour on the main line track west of Toronto late Monday when the locomotive of the second section of the Toronto-Sarnia Canadian National Railways passenger train developed engine trouble.

COMPLETING THE LIVELIEST election battle in years, Norwood ratepayers on Monday returned Rork Ferguson as reeve. He defeated last year's reeve, W. E. Packenham by 143 votes.

Rork Ferguson Norwood Reeve In Record Vote

NORWOOD, Jan. 4 — (ENS). —Rork Ferguson on Monday decisively defeated W. E. Packenham for the Reeveship of Norwood Village. His majority was 143 votes.

The election battle was described as one of the liveliest in the history of the village, with a record 97 per cent vote cast. Mr. Ferguson, a former Warden of Peterborough County and Reeve in 1947, was defeated by Mr. Packenham in 1948. On Monday he turned the tables by getting 310 votes to 167 for his opponent.

Rod Webb, starting his third term as councillor, headed the poll with 322 votes. Dr. A. R. Atkinson, a newcomer, was next with 307; J. G. Nixon, beginning his fifth term as councillor, polled 240, and William Garden, also beginning his third term, was the fourth councillor with 219 votes.

Defeated in their bid for Council were William Kavanagh with 24 votes less than Mr Garden; Perrin Rork with 177, Russell Thompson 158, and G. R. Baker 149.

As only three nominees would stand for the six vacant posts of school trustees, another nomination meeting has to be arranged.

Kenneth Tedford was returned as Hydro Commissioner, defeating Harold Bolton by 150 votes.

Chief issue at stake in the reeveship battle was the new waterworks. This project had been approved by vote more than a year ago, and citizens charged Reeve Pakenham was opposed to the system and was delaying action in starting the project.

Following compilation of the election returns, a crowd estimated at more than 200 enjoyed a merry dance in the town hall, at which Reeve-elect Ferguson spoke, along with the successful councillors. Perrin Rork was the only defeated candidate to speak, and the defeated reeve was not at the party.

Complete returns in the Norwood election:

The Blacksmith Of Bethany Dies With Year

BETHANY, Jan 4—(ENS)—Mr. Herb. Fallis, Bethany blacksmith, died in St. Joseph's Hospital, Peterborough, on Friday in his 71st year. He was the son of William Fallis and Frances Anne Cairns, pioneers of the Franklin district and was born January 24, 1878. His death is a great loss to the village where he has been blacksmith for half a century. He learned his trade as an apprentice with the late Mr. Batten of Peterborough, going there at the age of 16 and returning to Bethany to begin his own business when only 19 years old. He was active in all the life of the village, a faithful member of the early Methodist Church and later the United Church, serving on the Board of Session for many years; a school trustees for a number of terms, on the executive of the Athletic Association and the Ski Club.

The funeral service on Sunday was attended by many from Toronto, Lindsay, Peterborough, Campbellford, Janetville and Millbrook. The Rev W. Crandall addressed the congregation. Burial was in St. Mary's Cemetery.

Mr. Fallis' first wife, Elizabeth Irwin, died 28 years ago leaving five children, all of whom survive. They are William Irwin, Montreal; George, Toronto; Frances (Mrs. Harold Bannon), Omemee; Hazel (Mrs. William Dickson), Toronto; and Dorothy (Mrs. Ross Downie), Raeboro. In 1922 he married Isabel Nelson and in October of this year they celebrated their 26th wedding anniversary. There are six grandchildren: Shirley and Catherine Bannon of Omemee; Mary and Joan Dickson, Toronto; Clarke Fallis, Toronto and Sandra Downie, Raeboro. Of his father's family of eight children there are two sisters living. They are Mrs. Josiah Jones of Bethany and Mrs. Bradburn (Emma) of Campbellford.

Bearing floral tributes were Leslie Chaillee, Vincent Jackson, Carl Smith, Harry Preston, Percy Preston, Norman Lowes, Mervyn Porteous, Robert Kerr, and Gordon Staples.

Pallbearers were William Rowan, Herman McGill, L. H. Staples, Bruce Ryley, Lloyd Kennedy and Walter Price.

Aussies To Sell Royal Tour Autos

SYDNEY, Australia, Jan. 4 — (CP)—Twenty automobiles built specially for use by the Royal Family on their Australian tour are to be sold at Sydney.

The cars will be stripped of all special fittings including blue right-of-way lights, royal standards, and two-way radio sets. Selling price of the cars will range from $4,000 to $6,400.

Cancellation of the tour has left many legal tangles. Window seats along the proposed route that were sold are likely to constitute a headache to both buyers and sellers. Many windows were paid for in full and authorities believe no refund can be claimed legally. On the other hand it is believed no claims can be enforced for the balance of payments on windows where only a deposit was accepted.

Money spent on brightening up cities and towns is not considered lost. Many city councillors express the view that the improvements are permanent and should have been done years ago.

The federal government will invite the King and Queen to make the trip in 1950 if the King's health will stand it.

Magistrate Gets Ticket

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Jan. 4 (CP)—The first parking ticket of 1949 in this city Monday went to Magistrate John B. Hopkins. Police said the magistrate put five cents in a parking meter but stayed too long in the city hall, where he had gone to hold court and to swear in Mayor W. L. Houck and the 1949 council.

THIS IS REPUTED to be the biggest cake in the world, and for those who go for toothsome sweets, and also for those who turn slightly pale at the sight, here are the statistics; 18 feet long, five feet high and 7½ feet wide; 1,650 pounds of sugar, 750 pounds of flour, 4,000 eggs, 100 gallons of milk, 250 pounds of butter and 25 pounds of baking powder. The cake was made in 360 sections, 24 layers four tiers high. Victor Damiano (above) baked it, and is shown as he sampled it. The cake was designed to serve more than 40,000 people on the eve of Miami's King Orange jamboree parade . . . and by this time they should know whether the production was a success. Previous record for a big cake was a 2,300 pound bellyache baked in Indianapolis. Helping him is Mrs. Damiano.

Stars Must Pay Full Tax Rates

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4—(AP). — The capital gains tax-saving bubble which caused so much excitement among radio's big money stars was deflated officially Monday.

Commissioner George Schoeneman of the Internal Revenue Bureau served notice that the stars will not be allowed to get by at the flat 25 per cent. capital gains tax rate on deals involving personal services.

Income tax rates, which range up to 77 per cent. on sums above $1 million, will be imposed where the facts show a "personal services" sale, he said. The bureau will look into each case. The comparatively low capital gains rate applies, under the law, only to the sale of "capital assets," which means property.

The capital gains craze flared up when the bureau ruled a few months ago that the capital gains rate applied to sale of the characters Amos 'n' Andy and their transfer from the NBC radio network to CBS. Being fictional characters, they were held to be property and therefore saleable.

Pre-Election Charge Will Be Investigated

KITCHENER, Jan. 4 (CP) — An investigatioin will be launched into pre-election charges by Arthur F. Holland of interference in the Waterloo assessment department.

Waterloo Council Monday night authorized the office committee to invite Mr. Holland to substantiate his charges.

Mr. Holland, who attended the meeting, did not concur with the plan to appear before the committee but proposed to have the hearing in open council or before the committee of the whole in camera.

He personally favored a hearing before the committee of the whole in camera. He said he did not wish to embarrass anyone.

Action was prompted by former Alderman Jack Beynon, who appealed to council in a letter to have the controversy cleared up.

Wealthy Chinese Refugees Flee To Formosa In Panic

SUN MOON LAKE, Formosa, Jan. 4.—(AP).—Rich Chinese refugees and officials in Chiang Kai - shek's government are streaming into this green island by every steamer and plane as China's crisis deepens.

With them is coming the inflation which has virtually wrecked the economy of mainland China. If the Nationalist government should take refuge here, as has been persistently rumored, anything could happen on this strategic island.

Formosa is a study in current oriental puzzles.

Japan's legacy still is strong here, and 6,000,000 Formosans of Chinese descent who underwent two generations of Japanese totalitarianism are an unpredictable factor in Formosa's future.

These people seem to prefer to speak Japanese, and Japan's stamp also is on the architecture. Nippon's engineers left many concrete bridges and worn out railways.

Japanese police left a Formosa people who appear thoroughly docile, but whose long record of revolt haunts the thoughts of the 100,000 Chinese who took over in 1945.

The outgoing governor, Wei Taoming, former ambassador to Washington, has been busy personally directing the island's recovery attempts. Now his efforts have to battle an inflationary pull from the mainland brought by the rich refugees. Rising prices must affect the Formosan living standard seriously before long.

If harder times hit these people, their reaction cannot be predicted and the Chinese are worried. Formosans have no experience in managing their own affairs. Some particularly the land owners, want Japan to return. But most demand everything from outright independence to United Nations trusteeship.

calls to collect

He has so many customers he can't afford to give credit for he must pay for his papers on fixed dates and counts on his collections to make his payments. Your courteous carrier boy assumes a financial burden he cannot afford to carry when you ask him to wait for his money. He collects on the same day each week — you know which day — and when he has to "call again" to collect from you, delivery of his whole route is delayed on several days. Have the money ready for the boy the day he collects—the correct change, if convenient. Help him to meet his financial obligations promptly, and to make delivery on time every day.

Truman Holds Whip-Hand OverRebelGroup

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4 (CP)—President Truman, on the eve of his state-of-the-Union speech to the 81st United States Congress, appears to hold the whip-hand over "rebel" Southern Democrats.

As the new Congress met Monday, the first move of the House of Representatives was to approve a rules change which cuts drastically the disruptive power of any coalition between Republicans and the Southerners who broke with the Democratic Party over the issue of States' rights.

That combination has in the past pigeon-holed legislation by out-voting administration Democrats in the Rules Committee. The change adopted Monday provides that, after any 21-day period in which the committee has taken no action on a Bill, a majority of the House may decide whether to proceed with it.

The vote was 275 to 142, with some 30 Democrats—most of them from Southern States — joining 111 Republicans in the unsuccessful attempt to block the new rule.

Speedy Action

It apparently paved the way for speedy action on the legislative proposals Truman will unveil to-morrow at a joint session of the House and the Senate. The Southerners who broke with him on the Civil-Rights issue and formed the States-Rights Party which cut his vote in the November election have been deprived of one of their most powerful weapons.

A squabble within Republican ranks highlighted the initial session of the new Senate.

Despite the opposition of a group of young Republican Senators, the post of Senate Republican policy chairman went to Senator Robert A. Taft (O), who has held it for four years. The anti-Taft group has plumped for Senator Henry Cabot Lodge (Mass.).

Undergoes Operation After Mercy Flight

TIMMINS, Jan. 4—(CP)—Mrs. J. B. Tyrer is "resting comfortably" in hospital here following an emergency plane trip through bad weather from Great Whale River on Hudson Bay. She arrived during the week-end and was operated on at once for mastoids.

A radio appeal Christmas eve sent Pilot George Charity of South Porcupine and Engineer Curley Leroy on their mercy flight. Charity said the 1,100-mile round trip took six days instead of one.

Lack of ice at the river forced him to land on a narrow strip of ice beside the river bank and bad weather closed in on the plane for three days at Moose Factory, Ont.

Mrs. Tyrer's husband is the Hudson's Bay Company factor at Great Whale River.

Power Shortage World Wide Ross Strike Tells Rotarians

"People of Ontario must remember the power shortage is world-wide," said W. Ross Strike, 2nd vice-chairman of the Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario, while addressing the Rotarians at their weekly luncheon Monday.

"Reasons for the power shortages are basically the same. They vary on the types of power production. Ontario has one of the cheapest ways of electricity production, power by water. We have a higher average of power resources than any other province with the exception of Quebec."

"This means of electricity production has served us well. It was abundant and cheap. The percentage of appliances in Ontario is the highest in the world. The electricity is at the lowest rate in the world. So when the water power slips we can't complain."

"It is true that steam is beginning to be introduced. We had plans for the development of 2,000,000 kw by steam production. The need for this extra power came on us too quick. We were not prepared. Steam units will be in use by 1951 in Windsor. The earliest delivery we could obtain was 30 months. This equipment is manufactured in England," he explained.

"Electricity by water power although more expensive at first is cheaper in the long run and the lack of enthusiasm on the part of engineers are the two main reasons for the delay in obtaining the materials."

"It was soon realized electricity by steam was essential. This must be added to our program without an increase in rates. Long province-wide transmission lines and the fact that the winter hydro peak is 20 per cent over the summer peak forced the issue before us."

"St. Lawrence power development is something all are looking forward to seeing in operation. This hydraulic engineers' dream would increase Ontario's electricity by 1,000,000 horsepower. Power plants would not vary in their output throughout the year. The plants in the St. Lawrence power development could operate 24 hours a day for 365 days a year. This would allow us to use the storage plants to the best possible service to our customers."

"Our labor trouble has been helped by the arrival of 2000 DP's last spring. The men sent to make the selection did a good job. We have had no difficulties with them. They all seem anxious to become Canadian citizens."

"Our technical staff is now about 8,500 people. The number of men on construction gangs is 12,000. This figure does not include those working on private companies who are doing jobs for us."

"Besides enlarging we have undertaken frequency change-over. This is the largest change-over ever attempted. This change from 25 cycle to 60 cycle is three times larger than the next largest attempt."

"There are no developments coming in this year. In 1950 the first units will be put into use one a month. Also we have been able to get nine units of 5000 kilowatts. These are 60 cycle units. They will be placed in Hamilton and Leaside. There is a 25 cycle unit in the steel plant which was secured in Cape Breton. By next October we hope to have 70,000 kilowatts available for distribution."

"If the people had not co-operated with us, the economy of Ontario would have fallen. Labor shifted their hours to Sundays and nights. Everyone pulled together in this temporary problem. The co-operation of the people and manufacturers with us is inspiring."

Gordon Matthews introduced the speaker and Mr. Strike was thanked by Ross Dobbin.

Guests at the luncheon were R. J. McArthur, Kingston, C. R. Stacey, G. A. MacDonald, T. McKay, Rob Roy, T. J. Allen, Gerald Monkman. They were introduced by R. Cochran.

Canada's 15,000 Blind Can't Use Good Eyes Now Being Offered

TORONTO, Jan. 4 (CP). — Canada's 15,000 blind do not need good eyes. In fact yours would do them no good at all, and without one you might soon join their sightless ranks.

The Canadian National Institute for the Blind said today that blind persons who form their membership are incensed at the stupidity of the many who try to place their good eyes on the market.

There are only a few sightless persons who could benefit from an operation transplanting part of a good eye on to their bad one, Mrs. M. Moeller, the institute's director of prevention explained.

"Of our total membership of 15,644 at the end of last March, fewer than 100 persons could benefit from the operation," she said. Of these even fewer were willing to gamble their sight for complete darkness if the operation failed.

Cannot Be Transferred

Whole eyes cannot be transferred from one person to another. Once the optic nerve, feeding the eye, is cut, sight will never return. Surgery today can, however, transplant part of the cornea—the outer visible portion of the eye's covering — from one person to another and for those few sightless to whom this operation will bring vision, corneas are available from eyes removed because of other diseases.

Every person who joins the CNIB has first a complete medical examination during which doctors try to find available methods of bringing back their sight. If methods are available—and today medical research is continuing to find new ones — and the person is willing, he will be treated whether he has money to pay for treatment or not.

"The supply of eyes now available is more than ample enough to look after all persons who may benefit from transplanting," Mrs. Moeller said.

The many persons who offer their good eyes to blind persons for a large price, only bring upon themselves the rebuke of the blind.

"Leaving aside the more deplorable features of these offers—that anyone would sell part of his body — it is time such people were advised blind people do not need to buy eyes," a recent editorial in the Institute's new bulletin said.

We CAN DO IT... because we're Free

Things go wrong when freedom's flouted;
that's what ails the world today...

Here, in Canada, freedom has a better chance...

Because we're free, each of us has his place in shaping human destiny...

Because we're free, we can speak our minds without fear...
we can worship as we choose...
we can change our jobs for better ones...
or start in business on our own...

Because we're free to elect one party or another,
our government must stand by policies
the majority of us support...

Because we're free to choose one product or another, business keeps improving its wares to serve us better, thereby raising our already high standard of living.

We're free because our economic system is free.

Without economic freedom, all other freedoms die...
civil rights lose their meaning... the standard of living is lowered...
the citizen becomes the puppet of the State.

So long as we nurture and defend our economic freedom, we can safeguard all our freedoms... we can beat off every assault upon our liberties and our individual dignity.

The mature strength of this truth will help us toward clear thinking and courageous living in '49.

There's a tough job ahead this year, but we can do it...

The New Crown Attorney

We are sure that we speak for all our readers in offering congratulations and good wishes to John A. Bradshaw, who succeeds V. J. McElderry, K.C., as Crown Attorney for the County of Peterborough. Mr. McElderry has discharged the duties of this important post with ability and distinction for nearly twenty years, and his decision to relinquish it was not surprising; our regret at the retirement of so able a public servant is tempered by our satisfaction that so worthy a successor has been found.

* * *

Mr. Bradshaw is well known to the people of this district, for his family has been here for several generations, he was educated in Peterborough schools, he was articled to the firm in which he is now a partner and he has been in practice here since 1939. Not only in his professional work, but also in his connection with the Concert Association (of which he is now the President), in Masonic circles, and as a member of the board of the Victorian Order of Nurses and the Canadian Institute for the Blind, he has shown himself one of the ablest and most progressive among the younger men of the city. It is well known also that his advancement has been wholly the result of his own efforts. The courage and self-reliance which he has shown so markedly in the early phase of his career will be of inestimable value to him in the important position which he now holds.

Cease Fire

With the beginning of the new year have come cease-fire reports, or rumours of peace in various battle areas: in the Dutch East Indies, in Palestine, in China, in India. These overtures to peace may mean that 1949 will be less punctuated by gunshot than 1948. They do not mean that the world is showing signs of being more sensible and peaceable. It is the large undercurrents, the actions of the three or four big powers which will determine that. Nevertheless, the weight of the great powers is at the moment on the side of reason and peace.

The cease-fire ordered in Java by the Dutch commander does not indicate that the Dutch have dropped their aggressive tactics in Indonesia. It means that the Dutch have nothing left to fire at in Java. In Sumatra, the other large Indonesian Republican area, the war continues, though the Dutch are hopeful that there will be an end of hostilities there too in a few days. In other words, they expect the Republican forces to be completely routed very shortly.

There is a reassuring report from Tel Aviv that King Abdullah of Trans-Jordan is ready for peace talks with the Israeli government. Egyptian forces are striking back at the Jews, but the Israeli victory in Palestine has been so decisive that the Arabs may be ready to talk peace. If not, peace should be imposed, for Palestine needs it.

The Nationalist Government has been routed in North China. Whether Chiang Kai-Shek determines to continue the war or not, regional commanders are willing to come to terms with the Communists, and the Shanghai council has requested peace negotiations.

The most certain peaceful news is that India and Pakistan have formally accepted a truce agreement in the dispute over Kashmir. All fighting has stopped, and whether the princely state of Kashmir will belong to India or Pakistan will be settled by a U.N. supervised plebiscite.

The 81st U.S. Congress

It is unlikely that history records an instance in which the sessions of an elected legislature of one nation have been of such great importance to many other nations as the sessions of the 81st United States Congress will be. Fortunately for the other interested nations, the return of the Democratic Party to power should mean that there will be less criticism and delay of measures designed to help international recovery. The removal of isolationist Republicans from leadership of important committees of the Senate and the House of Representatives should also mean that there will be more support for the United States program of rearming itself and other free nations as an essential measure of defence. There may, of course, be upsets on these issues, but there is more confidence abroad regarding U.S. international policy than there was when the 80th Congress was in session.

On domestic issues the 81st Congress is likely to show far less unanimity. Although President Truman won a two-year fight against the Republican-dominated 80th Congress on election day in November, he may find its successor another opponent. He has indicated that he will press for passage of his campaign program. That means he will ask Congress for repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act, for increased social security, a curb on the high cost of living, for more housing, for more educational facilities, more social welfare legislation, for civil rights and aid to farmers.

If all these promises are implemented, in addition to Marshall Plan and re-armament expenditures, United States taxpayers generally will be fortunate to escape increased taxation, and many legislators are committed to seeking a reduction in taxes. That may mean opposition to measures involving increased expenditures. That there will be opposition to such controversial proposals as repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act, establishment of price controls or rationing powers, and legislation establishing civil rights is undoubted. These issues, and others, will make the sessions of the 81st U.S. Congress interesting to follow.

Toronto Rejects The Two-Year Term

We are surprised by Toronto's decisive rejection of the proposed two-year term for its municipal government. In Peterborough, as in many other cities in Ontario, the two-year term has been in use for some time, and has never, to our knowledge, given rise to any of the forms of misgovernment which were attributed to it by its Toronto opponents. It seems plain to us that it takes a man at least two years to learn his job as an alderman and to become a useful member of the Council; the system by which half the aldermen are elected in each year prevents a Council from becoming too set in its ways, and at the same time it gives every man who is elected a chance to show his quality. We should have thought that such a system would have appealed to Toronto, but we were mistaken.

The rejection of the two-year plan must be accounted a victory for the Toronto Daily Star, which threatened its readers with every sort of anti-democratic calamity if the system were adopted. In this matter we feel that the Star argued for victory, rather than for truth, in order to give a demonstration of its great influence. A mighty newspaper war is brewing in Toronto, in which the Star will contend with Mr. George McCullagh's papers (the Globe and Mail and the Telegram) to see which political and journalistic power is the greater. We regret that the first broadside should have been so plainly against the interest of the people of Toronto.

NOTE AND COMMENT

A prison in England is reported to have a mirror in every cell. Excellent for those who want to be alone with their reflections.

In Tillsonburg, we read, a small doe crashed through a store window. The big dough, however, still enters by the door.

We observe that Canada's proportion of urban dwellers has increased from 19 per cent. in 1871 to 54 per cent. in 1941. Now that a majority of us are town-dwellers it would be a good idea if a majority of us adopted urban ideas.

The world takes great and generally justifiable pride in the achievements of its scientists, but almost, when exalted by a specially brilliant discovery, some stop thinking as mortals. But being mortal still imposes limitations. It is part of man's wisdom to recognize both his power and his limitations.—Montreal Gazette.

Oxford, The City of Spires

By ROBERT HARTMAN

AN eminent divine, a man steeped in the knowledge both of things temporal and of things spiritual, said, after demolishing a dish of strawberries, "Doubtless God could have made a better berry, but doubtless God never did." The same remark might, with equal justice, be applied to the ancient city of Oxford. Doubtless God could have made a fairer city, but doubtless God never did. Oxford is one of the great architectural treasures of Britain, it is a poem in stone and it stands beside the head-waters of the river Thames in the gateway to the Cotswolds, a country of rich green meadows, sparkling streams and massive brooding elm trees. The setting is worthy of the jewel which it contains.

OXFORD reveals itself best to the visitor who approaches it from London by the road which leads through Royal Windsor, whose proud castle overlooks the silvery Thames and the clustered buildings of Eton College; through Maidenhead and Henley, where the Thames glides between hanging woods of beech and oak or past riverside gardens bright with flowers; over the southern end of the Chiltern Hills, from which the view extends as far as the eye can reach; through Dorchester, once the cathedral city of the bygone kingdom of Wessex, and now no more than a village with a Norman Abbey Church as long as the village itself; and so to Magdalen Bridge, the entrance to the ancient University. This is the right road by which to approach Oxford; it is a prelude proper to so great an occasion as a visit to that historic and lovely city.

Oxford contains 21 colleges — the oldest college being Merton which was founded in 1264, and the youngest being Keble, founded in 1870—and it first became a centre of learning in the 12th century. From this it may be inferred that Oxford has much to show and much to tell.

NO selection, however brief, could omit Magdalen College; it stands at the entrance to the University where Magdalen Bridge spans the river Cherwell, and in all Oxford there is no more beautiful sight than the sweep of the bridge leading to Magdalen Tower, which rises, tall and graceful, on the farther bank. It is worth going to Oxford if only to see this one lovely building. It was designed by Cardinal Wolsey, who, while still in favour with Henry VIII, had much to do with Oxford. At the time of the building of the tower Wolsey was bursar of the College, but was dismissed his post for having appropriated money for the building without having first obtained permission from the college authorities.

On May 1 each year at the early hour of six o'clock, which becomes earlier still when Governmental decrees have tampered with the clock, the college choir ascends to the top of the tower and sings a Latin hymn, "Te Deum Patrem Cadimus". The origin of the custom is not known but it is at least as old as the tower itself, which dates from the opening of the 16th century.

AFTER running over Magdalen Bridge and past the College itself, the roadway leads into the gently curving High Street, known the world over as "the High", which is bordered on either side by a galaxy of architectural masterpieces.

On the right is Queen's College, founded in 1340. Of the medieval buildings no trace remains, and the College owes its present Palladian form to the end of the 17th century. Queen's observes a custom, the origin of which belongs to the time before legends were given a date. A scholar of the College while wandering in the neighbouring forest of Shotover and immersed in the philosophy of Aristotle was attacked by a wild boar. With great presence of mind the scholar pushed his copy of Aristotle down the boar's throat, where it had a lethal and immediate effect, and the scholar made his way safely back to college. Whether this story be true or not the reader must decide for himself, but certain it is that a boar's head has been carried in solemn procession, and with musical honours, to the High Table in College Hall every Christmas Day for many centuries past.

FARTHER up "the High" is Saint Mary's Church, where the three bishops Ridley, Latimer and Cranmer were tried in 1555 for heresy, and sentenced to be burnt. Cranmer recanted but was made to watch the others suffer death, which they did on the spot now marked with a memorial outside Balliol College. Cranmer later repudiated his recantation and was also burnt, thrusting first into the fire the hand which had signed the recantation.

The biggest college in Oxford is Christ Church in Saint Aldate's Street. Here everything is on an imposing scale, and, as though to keep up the general effect of magnificence, the College Chapel becomes the Cathedral of Oxford. The College was founded in 1525 by Cardinal Wolsey, but the Cardinal fell from power and died before Christ Church was completed. It was not until the end of the 17th century and the arrival of the great English architect, Sir Christopher Wren, that the College assumed its present form, and it was he who built Tom Tower over Wolsey's Gateway. In this tower is the bell, Great Tom, which every evening at five minutes past nine gives the signal for the closing of the college gates throughout Oxford—five minutes past the hour because Great Tom does not take its time from Greenwich, but from the meridian on which Christ Church lies.

Of the many famous men who have been members of Christ Church none is held in more universal affection than Charles Dodgson, who, under the pen name of Lewis Carroll, wrote "Alice in Wonderland", which is possibly the most famous children's story ever written. Queen Victoria was so enchanted with the adventures of Alice that she gave orders for copies of all future publications by the author to be sent to her. The next publication to be received by the Queen was "The Condensation of Determinants, a New and Brief Method for computing their Arithmetical Values". Her Majesty had forgotten that the creator of Alice was lecturer on mathematics to the University of Oxford.

DESPITE its name, New College was founded in 1379, and much of the original building still remains. In the College Chapel in some magnificent 14th century glass, and in the west window of the ante-chapel are some windows designed by Sir Joshua Reynolds, Britain's famous portrait painter of the 18th century. These windows were experimental, and were stained with enamels in graduated tones without lead settings. Purists, who are inclined to dislike innovations, maintain that the windows are not in the true tradition and are a failure; others who are also competent to judge think that the windows are lovely.

Before leaving Oxford the visitor should find time to visit the magnificent Bodleian Library which was founded in 1602 by Sir Thomas Bodley. It is the oldest library in the world, as well as one of the most important, and by act of Parliament it enjoys the right to a copy of every book published in the United Kingdom. The library contains many manuscripts and books of great value, a collection of relics and curosities, and some interesting portraits. Paradoxically enough, in the library may be seen "The Necessity of Atheism", a pamphlet for which the poet Shelley was responsible when an undergraduate at University College, and for the publication of which he was expelled from the University.

SUCH, then, are some of the beautiful sights, some of the quaint characters, and some of the historical figures that go to make the City of Oxford and its memories, a city of noble towers and graceful spires, dreaming timelessly in the quiet valley of the river Thames, of things that happened long ago, while in her 21 colleges 6,000 scholars equip themselves to face the world of tomorrow.

Looking At A Virgin Diary

(OTTAWA JOURNAL)

THE person who does this thing every year about this time has just done it again: put a brand new calendar memorandum pad on our desk. Each time she does it she offers to take away the old one, and each time we reach out in alarm to retain it. We like to think she imagines it contains all manner of personal items, telephone numbers and the like, secret notations of what cabinet ministers have told us. Actually most of its pages are as virgin white as they were a year ago, and such marks as are there convey only cautions to get two loaves of brown or staccato messages like "laundry" or "stuff for boat leak".

An office desk calendar memorandum pad is doubtless a splendid thing, serves to keep luncheon dates straight, looks to the timely recognition of anniversaries, reminds one that this is the six-months period at the end of which the boss promised a raise. Or at least we suppose a memo pad could be useful in these ways. But our own particular type of pad cannot be as good as those we hear about; it has nothing to remind you to write things in it, and still less to remind you to read them at the right time. Nothing, they say, is as old as yesterday's newspaper. How about discovery on Thursday that Aunt Effie's birthday was the previous Tuesday?

Still, there's our new pad hulking high with challenge and we're sitting tentatively in front of it. This may be the year we'll rise to its leer, but the manner of filling its yawning pages presents a problem all of its own.

A Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me.... But, behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table. And truly the Son of man goeth, as it was determined: but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed....

Ye are they which have continued with me in my temptations. And I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me; that ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel. (Luke 22: 19, 21, 22, 28-30.)

Letter To The Editor

CITY HALL IN PARKS

Sir: Why waste a quarter of a million dollars of the ratepayers' money expropriating the area bounded by George, Murray, Water and McDonnel Streets for a site for the City Hall when the trend of all business and home building is generally to the south? With Legislative authority, a City Hall could be built in Victoria Park in front of the County buildings, or across the street on George Street east of the Armouries. The site in either of these places would not cost the city a dollar.

Because Dr. Faludi thinks that the site near the Library is a good one does not mean there is not a better one and besides, Dr. Faludi does not pay taxes here.

Mr. J. A. Jebson and his colleagues did a splendid piece of work, for which we should be grateful, when they collected $200,000 approximately, for a Memorial Centre.

There is a very substantial weight of public opinion in favour of accepting the Quaker Oats offer of a site. The objection that parking areas nearby are not available is not a serious one for there is as much parking room as there is in the neighbourhood of the Maple Leaf Gardens.

The public expect the 1949 Council to settle this matter. Difficulties in purchasing steel, concrete and other building materials may have stood in the way of construction but that seems to be past as theatres, dance halls and other places of amusement are being built in considerable numbers.

G. N. GORDON.

Canadian National Exhibition

While the Canadian National Exhibition board reports a surplus of $156,158 after paying operating expenses and certain debt charges, the city's books will show a deficit of probably $45,000 on Exhibition account, as compared with an estimated deficit of $23,605 provided for in this year's tax rate. The C.N.E. board's surplus is more than offset by sums paid by the city for maintaining the buildings, for maintaining the grounds (50 per cent. of this item is charged against the Exhibition) and for additional debt charges. —Toronto Star.

CANADA GETS PAID—Finance Minister Abbott smiles as he receives a cheque for $12,198,006 from French Ambassador Francisque Gay, left, as the first annual payment on Canada's 30-year, $242,500,000 loan to France. The loan is being used to help restore France's economical balance.

Adams Cut Unemployment From 50 to 3 Per Cent

By STUART UNDERHILL

LONDON, Jan. 4 (CP).—J. J. Adams was made a baron in the New Year's Honors List, but before that title was awarded he had one all of his own—"King of West Cumberland."

Those who knew West Cumberland between the wars may remember it as a rugged county whose industrial towns often had 50 per cent or more of the male population unemployed. Now there is less than three per cent unemployment, and Adams gets a big share of the credit for the change.

Jack Adams knows what it is like to come up the hard way. One of 13 children, left fatherless at four, he was down in the mines by the time has was 14 and had made a special of roughing it inn New Zealand before he became secretary of the West Cumberland Development Council in 1935.

New Industries

Adams' job was to help the district free itself from the burden of depression. Coal mines and steel plants were all but idle so he hustled to bring in new industries.

He took over disused breweries, churches and dance halls as factory sites and urged companies to move in where cheap labor was available. War interrupted his work but since 1945 he has had strong government backing for West Cumberland as a "development area" where industry gets special consideration.

Since 1930 more than 50 new industries representing an investment of £5,500,000 ($22,000,000) have moved in. Once iron, steel and coal dominated 86 per cent of the industry. Now they represent only 24 per cent with the balance given to light industries.

Red tape is cut through quickly. True enough, industrialists wishing to establish factories have to consult the secretary of the Development Council, the deputy regional controller of the Board of Trade, and finally the director and general manager of the West Cumberland Industrial Development Company. But it is not as hard as it sounds—Jack Adams is all three.

Robinson Mayor

PORT ARTHUR, Jan. 4 (CP)—Fred O. Robinson, CCF member of the Ontario Legislature for Port Arthur, became Mayor of this Lakehead city Monday by defeating Ald. George Wardrope in a two-way fight. Mr. Robinson succeeds Charles W. Cox, mayor for 15 successive years. Mr. Cox did not run this time. He was recently defeated in a bid to win the mayoralty in the twin city of Port William.

College Head Retires

BALTIMORE, Jan. 4 (AP) — Dr. Isaiah Bowman, Canadian-born president of John Hopkins University, retired Monday after 13 years in the post. The 70-year-old native of Waterloo township will be succeeded by Dr. Detley Bronc, biophysicist and director of the National Research Council.

Poison Gas Complaint

HAIFA, Jan. 4 (Reuters) — Brig. Gen. William E. Riley, United Nations chief of staff in Palestine, told reporters Monday night he had received both an Egyptian complaint and an Israeli denial on the use of poison gas on the Negev front. "I have no comment to make on the complaint," he said, "because the matter is impossible to investigate."

An Interesting Party

NICE, France, Jan. 4 (Reuters) —Winston Churchill, Mrs. Churchill and their daughter Sarah dined Monday night with the Duke and Duchess of Windsor at a Chateau near Antibes. Other guests included King Leopold of Belgium and his wife, the Princess of Rethy, King Michael of Romania and his wife, Princess Anne of Bourbon-Parma and the Duke and Duchess of Westminster.

Break Production Record

LONDON, Jan. 4 (AP)—Britain broke all peacetime industrial production records in October, treasury figures revealed Monday. Britain's industrial production index for the month reached 127, an increase of three points over September. In October, 1947, the figure was 120. The index is based on output in 1946 fixed at 100.

Play opens in the Peterborough Minor Hockey Association this evening at Civic Arena with three tilts. Southend bantams start it off at six against the northenders. Later bunch have over 50 young puckists to pick from but not sufficient ice time up their way. At seven this eve, St. Peter's tackle the midget Trojans. And East City juveniles joust with the Trojans at eight. Arnold Olmstead expects to have several wrinkles, which developed in the PMHA pattern, ironed out shortly and the schedules drawn up. This minor setup is affiliated with the OMHA, and some codg hockey is likely to be seen during the season.

The 10-team CGE Shop Hockey League anxiously awaits ice on the new company rink to start another season. Teams in are: Wire, Power, Punch Press, Machine Shop, Tool Room, Drafting, Industrial Control, Main Office, Refrigerator Cabinet and Refrigerator Shelf. A writer could have a lot of fun with those names in a puck writeup, eh? Loop officers this season are: President, Bob Batley; secretary, Ray Pearson; executive committee, Pat Calladine, Archie Weir and Neil Clark. A number of OHA puckists perform in this circuit and hockey dished up is fast, lively and sometimes right rugged.

Meteors And Legion

Toronto Meteors meet the local Legionnaires at nine tomorrow night in Civic Arena to open their OHA senior "B" schedule. This will be a dandy duel, no doubt, as the same squads battled it out not long ago in a Lindsay exhibition. With Legion edging out a 4-2 win. Led by Bill Thoms, former NHL-er, the Toronto huskies are in fine condition after campaigning for more than a month, and they'll be plenty tough to take all season. Legion, group champs last year, are plenty strong, also, which adds up to a tasty dish to set before a large crowd in the new Peterborough rink. Another senior "B" go lined up for here Friday, Legion vs. the Petes.

* * * * * *

Had to miss the junior opener here last eve—hitting the road to Stouffville—but we saw a good senior "B" tilt. Petes pulled out a 3-1 win and had to hustle against a speedy, young team which fought to the final second. The Clippers had a 1-0 edge in the first but the Creighton crew came back with three in the middle heat. And held off the Stouffville power plays throughout the third. Fast hockey and a bit rugged in spots on good ice. Fred Scates acted as bench manager for the men o' McGillis, who were shy Terry Gordon (he's moved back to Orillia), Ron Horton—out with an injured arm—and Drake Jopling. Newcomers to the club looked promising and the team as a whole clicked well.

Defence Did Battle

They've got a battling defence, the Petes. They drew all seven penalties given the team. Bun Kingdon, veteran smoothie, assisted on their three tallies, while Jack Mortimer scored two and Honey Tompkins one. This trio went best up front. Bun's forechecking being a big help in the final furious frame. Other wingmen worked hard, too, as the Clippers outplayed the visitors in the first and most of the third periods. Home ice is always a help, too. Ray Harding was his usual starry self between the pipes, fast and on his feet and with his hands, completely cool and fearless, and with a great eye in a scramble. He deserved a shutout on his play.

* * * * * *

That must have been a wild junior opener here before more'n a thousand cash customers—a good junior crowd. Toronto Lions had the size and more finish to gain a 10-2 victory in a rough go—marked with 26 penalties, 15 in the middle stanza. Fights galore and oodles of action. Archie Weir's boys will improve but must stay on the ice to win games. At that, they were facing a classy crew in a typical wide-open and exciting junior "B" joust. Bob Wyatt got both their goals, as Don Pagett, John Truss, Skeeter O'Heron, Bill Berwick and Kevin O'Reilly went best for the IOOF-ers, we're told. Sinclair got four as Hunter and Popadink tallied twice each for Toronto. Quite a jamboree as the junior season was officially begun.

Lacrossers Get Set

Annual lacrosse club meeting was held last p.m. with these directors chosen: Bob Pierson, Clyde Cameron, Ken Kingston, Harry Yudin (for a three-year term), Lou Vitarelli, Mick Magee, Red Creighton and Walt Murphy (for two years), and Pete King, Paul Irwin, Harland Bradley and Harry Tudhope for one year. A meeting next Monday will elect officers for 1949 from this slate. Doug Miller, retiring, was thanked muchly for his fine work in the past. Reports were presented and the minor setup dealt with to considerable extent. Jack Foote sent down a written report from Toronto. They're looking for sponsors of minor teams now for the next campaign. It looks like the Petes will go senior "A" in the spring.

Marmora Takes Its Opener In Trent Loop

MARMORA, Jan. 4—(ENS)—Fast and keenly contesting hockey was forthcoming in the opening fixture for the Campbellford and Marmora teams in the latter's new arena Monday evening, the verdict going to Marmora by the score of 9-2. Borland, 16-year-old goalie making his debut, turned in an outstanding game and could not be held accountable for the two shots which beat him. Although hit in the throat by the puck in the second, he played on with a style which won appreciation from the spectators.

President Art Duncan of the Trent Valley League received an ovation as he faced off.

Old-time hockey fans were amazed at the fast speed which characterized play for an opening game. End-to-end rushes proved fruitless until after 14 minutes of play, Ken Trumble beat Nelson on an assist from Lavender who returns to his old team after an absence of a season. Within two minutes in a scramble Blake netted for Campbellford. In the closing minute of the period Cousins finished some nice combination between K. Trumble, Lavender and himself to give his team the lead again.

Within 50 seconds of the opening of the second period Cousins scored again. Campbellford played hard to reduce the lead but Borland was right on. Then unassisted Lavender got one of his old-time counters. Good work by both goalies halted further scoring for a while. The cheers of the home supporters resounded in the rafter again when Ken Trumble put Cousins' pass to good effect. The act was repeated with two minutes of the period to go and then the scorer was given a penalty in company with a Campbellford opponent.

Undismayed in facing a five-goal deficit the Campbellford team rallied for the opening of the third period and were rewarded after three minutes of play with a fine goal by Blake on Hendy's assist. Then the homesters took the aggressive and Nelson, who had played well throughout, was beaten in turn by Cousins, E. Trumble and Cousins. Towards the end of the game Tanner was awarded a penalty, the bell ringing a minute later.

The rink management announced that there were over 1,200 paid admissions, testifying to the successful opening of the season. Short addresses were given over the public address system by President Art Duncan, Reeve V. M. Lynch of Marmora village and Bernard W. Hughes who was master of ceremonies for the occasion.

Teams:

Campbellford — Goal, Nelson; defence, Tanner, Hendy; centre, Robertson; wings, Blake, Peloquin; alternates, Hay, Lambert, Smith, Free, Sheppard, Sunmow, Hoblin.

Marmora—Goal, Borland; defence, G. Leonard, E. Leonard; centre, Cousins; wings, K. Trumble and Goodchild; alternates, E. Trumble, Lavender, McInroy, Kerr, Hegroden, Doyle, Brooks.

Referee, D. Mortimer, Peterborough; linesman, T. Cousins, Marmora.

INTER-CITY GOOD WILL — A fighting Irishman, Kenny Reardon and a red-head, Gal Gardner, produce this scene at Maple Leaf Gardens Saturday night when Montreal Canadiens and Toronto's Leafs met in the first game of 1949. This was the second act to a stick-swinging session which ended when Gardner broke his stick and the two traded punches. The Leafs won 5-3.

Petes Open With 3-1 Victory Over Stouffville In Hot Fray

By CEC PERDUE

The Petes clipped the Stouffville Clippers 3-1 on the latter's ice last night to open their OHA Senior "B" schedule on the right side of the ledger. Nearly 800 fans crowded the small rink and saw a fine, fast fray. It didn't get started till 9.20 but proved an exciting scrap on speedy ice. Fairly rugged in spots, the Petes drew seven of the dozen penalties. Stouffville had a 1-0 lead in the initial inning but the Petes rapped in three next heat.

Goalie Ray Harding turned in a sparkling effort to almost blank the battling and fast-stepping young Clippers. They outplayed the Petes most of the first frame and ganged up almost continuously during the hectic third chukker. Harding was fast and cool as ever and earned the crowd's admiration. The winners' defence worked hard and drew all their side's penalties to prove their pugnacious play. Bun Kingdon, Honey Tompkins and Jack Mortimer sparked the attack, with the other forwards hustling, too. Bun assisted on all three goals, Jack scored two and Honey one. Harper stood out, also, in goal for Stouffville, while Lawrie, Bradbury and the Rumney brothers caught the eye most of the route.

Scored First

Early in the opening stanza, the Clippers went on the prowl and they had most of the play quite a spell. Hochberg went off for interference but Legrow followed for tripping and then Coach Red Creighton for interference. Up two men, the homesters couldn't beat Harding for a time but finally Lawrie bashed one by him from Bradbury in a close-in scramble before Red returned. Kingdon and Floyd Parsons came close with J. Rummey then being thefted. Johnston went off hurt and Honey pulled a fine try. Campbell was cut and then Legrow was gated for interference as play swept up and down fast and fairly even at the end.

G. Rummey got it for elbowing to open the second and the Petes poured in. He got back but Steve Wilson was waved over for tripping and Stouffville turned on the power. When Tom Parsons got the air, they were shy two but nothing happened. Red and Garvey almost notched one and, with the sides at full strength, Jack Mortimer wafted a hot angle drive into the hemp on Kingdon's pass at defence. J. Rummey was chased for high-sticking as it roughed up some. Honey and Bun pretty nearly clicked but J. Rumney got back to break away and give Harding white hairs. Mortimer made it 2-1 when he tipped in Kingdon's neat forward pass at the goal-mouth. J. Rumney was fingerd for hooking and Tompkin's shot from Kingdon was deflected in for the final goal of the game, though another period remained.

Fine Checking

Nifty forechecking and backchecking, plus good work by the defence and sensational efforts by the goalie kept the Clippers off the sheet in the third. They threw power play after power play into the McGillis' men's zone but couldn't flash the light. Tom Parsons went off for interference, got back to see Bill McMaster go for tripping, and later the latter got it once more for tripping. But the Clippers couldn't quite count. Garvey and later Quigley came close for the Petes. With McMaster off and five minutes to go, they pulled their goalie and six stormed in there. But when Red's long clearance shot came close to the empty cage they hurried their net guardian out again. He left once more with 12 seconds remaining but Harding and his helpers held them off in the hot session till the gong went.

The teams:

Petes: Goal, Harding; defence, Legrow and R. Creighton; centre, Kingdon; wings, F. Parsons and Mortimer; alternates, Tompkins, J. Creighton, Garvey, Wilson, Brockley, Quigley, McMaster and T. Parsons.

Stouffville: Goal, Harper; defence, Baker and Campbell; centre, Hockberg; wings, Crewson and J. Rumney; alternates, Lawrie, Jewitt, G. Rumney, Bradburn, Clarke, Sluce, Johnston and Smith.

Referee, J. Heffering of Whitby; linesman, H. Simpson of Stouffville.

Toronto Lions Win, 10 to 2 In Wild Junior OHA Contest

By FRED MAYBEE

Over a thousand enthusiastic fans greeted Archie Weir's Triple Link juniors as they skated out on a fine sheet of ice for the 1949 inaugural of the OHA junior "B" schedule against North Toronto Lions when the Civic Arena opened its hockey doors to the public last evening. Lions emerged victorious 10-2.

Ex-Mayor Ovens greeted both teams cordially and wished the juniors success in Peterborough this season.

The gods of hockey wars were let loose to treat fans to one of the wildest junior games seen in many a day that produced thrills, spills, fights and a goodly measure of skillful puck wizardry. Referee Jim Crombie handed out 26 penalties in all, 16 in the second period, including one match and five majors for fighting. At one point, seven players filled the sin bin.

Got the First

Wyatt scored early in the first for Links as he whipped in a long angle forward relay from Teeter Collins. Lions evened the score seconds later as Ken Sinclair took Alex Hunter's passout to tally from close-in on a scramble. A minute later, Hunter clicked alone on a neat solo effort and Jim Barfield from Doug Dyson made it 4-1 for the visitors. The locals steadied down and held a slight margin in territorial play for the remainder of the period as both teams turned on the heat to battle at a terrific pace from end to end.

Another early period defense lapse cost the local two more in the second as Sinclair tallied twice on passes from Barringham and Lawrence, 22 seconds apart, at the 2.12 mark.

No further scoring occurred in this session but tempers flared as the pace grew withering and Referee Crombie played no favorites as he meted out penalties for roughing, interference, tripping, charging, elbowing and fighting. Lions scored four in the third and Wyatt added one for Links midway in the period to make the final score 10-2.

Went Best

Outstanding for Toronto were Ken Sinclair with four goals, Alex Hunter and Johnny Propadink each with two and Ed Crouch in goal with a fine effort. Cliff Lawrence, Ron Hinde, Jim Barfield and Doug Dyson also looked good.

For the locals, Bob Wyatt played well as did Don Pagett, John Truss, Skeeter O'Heron, Bill Berwick, Joe Whitnell and Kevin O'Reilly. On the play, the margin was not as one-sided as the score would indicate but inability to capitalize on their opportunities cost Triple Links at least a few goals and a little tighter defence work inside the blue line might have saved many more. The boys looked in mighty good condition and with a little temper control should improve rapidly as the season progresses.

Summary:

First Period

Petes—Wyatt (Collins) ... 3:45
Toronto—Sinclair (Hunter) 4:04
Toronto—Hunter 5:05
Toronto—Barfield (Dyson) 6:00
Penalties — Foster, Popadiuk, Birch, Wyatt, Sinclair, Berwick.

Second Period

Toronto—Sinclair (Barringham) 1:50

Roy Conacher Pacesetter In NHL Scoring

MONTREAL, Jan. 4.—(CP).—Roy Conacher, hard-driving Chicago right-winger, last week supplanted line-mate Doug Bentley as pacesetter in the National Hockey League's torrid scoring race, picking up five points to Bentley's three.

Official statistics released today show the youngest member of Hockey's famed Conacher clan has 37 points, one more than Bentley. Conacher leads the league in assists with 25. He has scored 12 goals.

Jim Conacher, another Black Hawk, but unrelated to Roy, lost ground to the top two but managed to hang on to third place. He has 30 points, made up of 15 goals and as many assist.

Syd Abel, Detroit's rugged and durable team captain, vaulted from sixth place to tie Boston's Grant (Nobby) Warwick for fourth, making the best gain of the week on four goals and three assists. Each had 29 points, and Warwick's 17 goals leads the league in that department.

Kennedy, Mosienko Tied

Ted (Tedder) Kennedy of Toronto Maple Leafs and Bill Mosienko of Chicago, round out hockey's big seven with 25 points each.

Bill Durnan, Montreal Canadiens' four-time winner of the Vezina trophy, still leads the netminders with a 2.24 average. He has allowed but 63 goals in 31 games. Detroit's Harry Lumley took over the runner-up chore from Frank (Mr. Zero) Brimsek of Boston. Lumley's average is 2.68, Brimsek's 2.73.

Toronto Stanley Cup champions, whose wild Bill Ezinicki leads the penalty parade with 85 minutes, saw their penalty-total for the season soar above the 400-mark after rough-and-tumble meetings with their arch rivals, Les Habitants, and New York Rangers.

Owen Hendy Coaches Campbellford Team

CAMPBELLFORD, Jan. 4.—(ENS).—Owen Hendy is coaching the Campbellford team in the Trent Valley Hockey League this season. After playing on three championship teams, Owen has hung up his skates as a player and will be coaching his proteges from the sidelines.

Warkworth opens in Campbellford on Wednesday at Davidson's Arena, where extensive alterations have been made by workmen during the past month. A bus of fans accompanied Campbellford players to their opener Monday in Marmora's new Memorial Arena.

Second Arena Campaign

TORONTO, Jan. 4 (CP) —The Lions Club of suburban Weston are now planning a second fund-raising campaign for a $125,000 arena, the first campaign netted only $50,385 when campaigners, unsure whether contributions were deductible from Income Tax were forced to tell householders that they were not. The club has now learned from Ottawa that donors can deduct contributions from their taxable income and have geared up a second campaign.

Curling Notes

By HERB MARTIN

This may be the year 1949, but as far as the curlers are concerned they are playing just the same as they did in 1948, for keeps.

Up till 10 o'clock last night there were about 48 rinks entered for the annual Neill Trophy bonspiel. Play is set to commence at 7 o'clock Thursday evening.

We believe that the boys intend to play the second round of the Tankard playoff series at 9 o'clock Wednesday evening. Also the first round of the District Cup playoff series.

Howard Clegg, who had the misfortune to fall on the ice some time ago and fracture his leg, paid the rink a visit last evening. The boys were sure glad to see him, and he to see the boys.

The next two schedule games played by the ladies may decide the winner of the Gibson Trophy, and then again it may not. Our guess is that the finish is going to be a photo one. And it may involve more than two rinks. The interest is great.

Weird Ice Bowl Game Ends In Scoreless Tie

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, Jan. 4—(AP)—Ladd Field came within a foot-print of whipping University of Alaska Saturday in the Ice Bowl game.

The farthest north—and wierdest—football game of a bowl-crowded day wound up in a scoreless tie when a sharp-eyed official found where Ray Keelin of Wheeler, Tex., had stepped out of bounds on the coal-dusted 10-yard line.

Keelin mushed for 40 yards through the foot-deep snow and 25-below-zero weather after catching a pass.

Chills were bigger than thrills for the 500 fans who stamped the sidelines and squinted at the gridders through the vapor of their own breathing.

Each side substituted entire 11-man teams every five minutes. The players had planned on wearing fur parkas over the regulation jerseys but discarded the idea as "sissy" when the weather warmed up to minus 25.

Marlboros Still Coasting On Top Of OHA

TORONTO, Jan. 4 (CP).—Despite a close-to-deadline shuffle of six players and an unprecedented cash deal by two rival clubs, Toronto Marlboros are still coasting along atop the Senior A Ontario Hockey Association group.

Joe Primeau's club drove into the lead two weeks ago just after the second-place Kitchener-Waterloo Flying Dutchmen dished out four players and $5,000 to Stratford Indians in a return for two forwards — Mickey Roth and Billy Flick.

The trade failed to help the last-place Indians, who have won only four games in 27 starts in games up to Jan. 3, and did little more for the Dutchmen. The deal came 24 hours before the Dec. 15 deadline.

Marlies' 37 points — consisting of 17 wins and six losses — gives them a five-point margin over the Dutchmen who hold a four-point lead over the third-place Owen Sound Mercurys. Hamilton Tigers are in fourth spot with 27 points.

The Tigers showed good form earlier in the season but the veterans of the Mountain City appear to be tiring. They have 13 wins and 12 losses in 25 games. But two of the Bengals—Clare Shillington and Johnny Conick — top the league scorers. They are tied for first place with 37 points each.

Shillington has racked up 16 goals and 21 assists while Conick has 22 goals and 15 assists. Don Bauker of Kitchener is third with 33 points.

Battle It Out

In the nine-team Junior A loop, Barrie Flyers and Windsor Spitfires are battling it out for honors in the standings and individual scoring race.

Barrie's 38 points gives them a one-point margin over the Spitfires. Windsor's Giesbrecht brothers hold a slight margin over Barrie's Paul Meger on the snipers' list.

Big, fair-haired Bert, who relinquished his lead to Meger two weeks ago, regained it by scoring five goals and two assists in one game. He has 58 points from 29 goals and 21 assists. Bruce is in second spot with 52 points, while Meger is one point behind.

Oshawa Generals and St. Catharines Teepees are in third place with 33 points apiece. The Generals have 16 wins and 11 losses in 28 starts while the Teepees have 16 wins and 13 losses in 30 games.

CURRENT ACCOUNT hits the turf head first, throwing Robert Turnell. The fall occurred during the running of the Ashdown Handicap Steeplechase at Surrey, England.

White Sox Release Gebrian To Newark

CHICAGO, Jan. 4 (AP)—Chicago White Sox today released righthanded pitcher Pete Gebrian, 25, to Newark of the International League.

The Sox said the move completed a deal with New York Yankees for pitcher Randy Gumpert last season. Gebrian won 11 and lost 12 for the Sox' Hollywood farm club in the Pacific Coast League last season. In 1947, Gebrian won two and lost three for the Sox.

Hindu Exodus Headache For 2 Dominions

By R. SATAKOPEN

NEW DELHI, Jan. 4 (AP). — The exodus of Hindus in large numbers from East Bengal has become a severe headache to the governments of both India and Pakistan. It topped the subjects for discussion at the inter-dominion conference last month.

The problem at one stage reached such acute dimensions that Sardar Vallabhai Patel, Deputy Prime Minister for India, openly demanded from Pakistan sufficient territory to resettle 13,000,000 Bengalo Hindus "if Pakistan is determined to run them out of her dominions."

"We have to tell Pakistan plainly," he said in a public address, "that this problem should either be solved amicably or it is likely to prove a source of trouble between the two dominions. We are ready for all eventualities. We cannot take things lying down."

Differ On Numbers

India and Pakistan differ on the numbers that have migrated and the reasons that have provoked their movement.

Pakistan says that 400,000 have left East Bengal. Indian figures range between 1,500,000 and 2,000,000.

Dr. B. C. Roy, Prime Minister of West Bengal, claims there are 800,000 Hindu refugees in Calcutta alone, while in the interior of his province an equal number has moved in to live with relatives. In Assam, Roy says, there are at least another 400,000.

However, there still are 11,500,000 Hindus in East Bengal. Pakistan advances two reasons for the Hindu exodus:

1. Higher prices prevailing in East Bengal, especially for rice, cloth and mustard oil, have induced large numbers of Hindus to move to West Bengal.

2. The "inflammatory" speeches of some Indian leaders and tension created by last Fall's police action in Hyderabad contributed to the migration.

A CENTURY OF LIFE ended on Saturday with the death of Mrs. Eliza Ney Johnston of Millbrook, who would have been 101 years old in April. She was born of pioneer Irish stock in Manvers Township and lived all her long life in this area.

Mrs. Johnston Aged 100 Dies On New Year's Day

MILLBROOK, Jan. 4—(ENS) One hundred year old Eliza Ney, widow of the late John M. Johnston, died on Saturday following a brief illness. Born in Manvers Township, with Lotus as the nearest village to the farm homestead, Mrs. Johnston was a daughter of Thomas Ney, and his wife, Agnes Kelly, who came from Ireland to clear the land for their pioneer home.

After her father's death, her mother married Andrew Montgomery and settled in Darlington Township where Mrs. Johnston attended school at Enniskillen. She was the last surviving member of the family of two sisters, three step-sisters, and one step-brother.

All of Mrs. Johnston's married life was spent in Darlington Township and the death of her husband, John M. Johnston, took place in 1903. For several years she has lived with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Rowland, and with Miss Agnes Johnston, another daughter. It was at their home in Millbrook that her death took place on New Year's Day. Her family consisted of four children, the elder son David, having been killed in a car accident several years ago, and a younger son Alexander living on the homestead in Cartwright.

April Centenarian

Last April, Mrs. Johnston celebrated her one hundredth birthday by being At Home with her daughters, to a large number of friends from the village and vicinity, and the following day, April 25, which was the actual birthday date, she received relatives from the village and surrounding area, for a family gathering. On that occasion a cablegram was received from the King and Queen, and there were many other telegrams, cards, flowers and gifts.

Until quite recently, Mrs. Johnston was up and about the house every day, doing little tasks and considering her advanced age, continued in remarkably good health.

Read The Bible

Though her hearing was defective, and her memory not always clear, she could read large print, and her Bible was a constant source of comfort and inspiration. Belonging to a family noted for its industry, Mrs. Johnston had in her possession blankets and sheets made in her home in earlier years, from the wool and flax produced on the home farm.

Only within recent years had it become necessary to curtain the activities of her busy fingers, crocheting, knitting and sewing having been favorite pastimes. The gradually encroaching weakness of advancing years led up to the final brief illness which ended this long, busy and useful life. A private funeral took place from the McPherson Funeral Home, King Street, on Monday, with burial in the family plot at Cadmus cemetery. The Rev. Walter Patterson had charge of the funeral service, assisted by the Rev. G. C. R. McQuade. Mrs. Johnston was a Presbyterian.

Captain Bidwell Promoted To Commodore

Captain Roger E. S. Bidwell, whose name appeared in the New Year's list of promotions in the Royal Canadian Navy as being promoted to the rank of Commodore, was born September 14, 1899, at Peterborough. He attended Bishop's College School at Lennoxville, Que., where his father, later Anglican Archbishop of Ontario from 1913 to 1926, was headmaster. He also attended St. Alban's School, Brockville, and entered the Royal Naval College at Halifax in 1915. Graduating the following year he saw active service in the First World War aboard H.M.S. "Canada."

After the war he served alternately with the Royal Navy and the R.C.N. He commanded two Canadian destroyers, HMCS "Champlain" in 1936 and HMCS "St. Laurent" in 1937. In 1938 he attended the Royal Naval Staff College, at Greenwich, England.

A Staff Officer

At the outbreak of the Second World War he was senior staff officer to the Commander-in-Chief of the Royal Navy's East Indies Division. In June, 1940, he became Director of Operations Division at Ottawa and in 1941 went to Newfoundland as Staff Officer and subsequently as Chief of Staff to the Flag Officer Newfoundland Force. He was promoted to Acting Captain in December, 1941, and was confirmed in this rank on January, 1, 1943.

In 1943 he was appointed as Chief of Staff to the Commander-in-Chief, Canadian Northwest Atlantic, at Halifax.

The escort carrier, HMS "Puncher" which was commissioned in Vancouver in April, 1944, was commanded throughout her entire wartime career by Commodore Bidwell and, when hostilities ended, continued under his command as a troop carrier, returning about 4,000 Canadian servicemen and servicewomen from overseas. "Puncher" was a lease-lend ship and Commodore Bidwell delivered her to United States authorities of Norfolk, Virginia, in January, 1946. One month later he was appointed to Naval Service Headquarters as Director of the Naval Air Division.

Wins U.S. Award

Commodore Bidwell was awarded the United States Legion of Merit, Degree of Officer, in May, 1946. One month later he was awarded the CBS "for continued initiative, zeal, accuracy and understanding."

Early in 1947 he attended the Imperial Defence College in the United Kingdom and on Sept. 1 of the same year was appointed Naval Member of the Directing Staff of the National Defence College, Kingston.

SLIPPERY MOTORING—Traffic crawled across Lions Gate Bridge in Vancouver as the ice coated the traffic lanes on the busy bridge. By using extreme care, all got over without accident. A thaw after a heavy snow and a freeze-up made all BC highways dangerous.

OSHAWA, Jan. 4 (CP)—Municipal Affairs Minister Dunbar said Monday that Ontario has "the finest system of municipal government in the world" as a result of enactment 100 years ago of its Municipal Act. Addressing the Oshawa Rotary Club's annual civic banquet, he said: "Those who framed that Act were very far-sighted. The same legislation, made elastic with room for change and amendment, still serves us well today."

Mennonites Buy Mill To Use As Meat Plant

KITCHENER, Jan. 4.—(CP).—Mennonites in the Floradale district, 15 miles northwest of here, have taken over a cider mill to use as a meat-packing factory to feed the hungry in Europe.

Country churches throughout the district raise the money to buy cattle and hog carcasses. Cutting and canning machines send out cartons of canned meat to the Mennonite Central Relief committee for distribution, mainly to Germany and Hungary.

The factory, opened in the fall, will end operations in about two months. About two head of cattle can be canned in one day and Mennonite workers expect to process about 100 head during the season.

DOROTHY DIX

Look Over Girl's Mother Before Selecting a Wife

DEAR MISS DIX: I am a man of 25 and have been going with a girl for six month. I would appreciate it if you would tell me me how a chap can find out before marriage whether a girl will make a good wife or not.

ABOUT TO BE MARRIED

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: You can't, son. Marriage is one of the things that is not governed by any law of cause and effect and it defies all logic and reason. You can't say "choose this one" or "that one" and you will be happy For to every rule for attaining connubial bliss there are a million exceptions.

Dorothy Dix

However, I think that the most important tip-off that a man can get as the the kind of wife a girl is likely to make is the girl's MOTHER, and wise is the man who gives that lady the once over before he proposes to her daughter. For, nine times out of ten, it is like Mother, like Daughter.

So observe Mother closely. If she is intelligent and broad-minded and tolerant in her views and an interesting companion to spend an evening with, then go on and marry her daughter, for the odds are she will have plenty of sense and will not be an arguer. But if, on the other hand, Mother is narrow and dull and stupid and cocksure that she is always right, then pass her daughter up, as she is almost sure to be a dead ringer for Mom.

Follows in Footsteps

Same way about housekeeping. If Mother is a thrifty manager and a crackerjack housekeeper and cook, then Daughter is pretty sure to follow in her footsteps. But if a girl has been brought up in a slovenly home, she is very likely to keep the same sort of house, because she has never been taught any better.

Then look to the way Mother treats her husband. If she is solicitous of his comfort; if she is companionable with him; if she shows him that she loves him and appreciates him, then rush to the altar with her daughter. But beware of marrying a girl whose father is a meek downtrodden, suppressed man. Mother has tyrannized over her husband and so will her daughter tryannize over you if you marry her.

DEAR MISS DIX: I thought I was a confirmed bachelor. I have never been interested in marriage and having children, but now I have come to the point where I have begun to question my point of view. Practically all of my friends are married and they seem so happy with their wives and youngsters that it makes me feel lonely and jealous when they brag about the achievements of their boys and girls.

Now I know a woman who would make a wonderful wife and mother. Would you advise me to marry? I am 50 years old.

LONESOME

ANSWER: Marry her if she will have you. You are right in thinking that no man gets a greater thrill than he does out of fine children. Also, there is no tribute that comes to him that is quite so precious as to have his youngsters brag of their Dad.

It is only in his children that a man can relive his life and realize the ambitions that have eluded him.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I have been married five years during which time I have worked constantly, coming home at night to do the cooking and the housework. Each week I turn my pay check over to my husband, upon his demand, and he spends the money mostly on drink and women. He didn't have a job when we were married, but he promised to get one. However, he has never done a lick of work during our five years together.

He is always telling me how old and shabby I look and mistreats me in every way possible. What shall I do? Shall I just take the attitude that it is "just life" and let it go at that?

MISERABLE

ANSWER: That isn't "just life." That is just plain unadulterated foolishness. Life doesn't demand that any woman in the world shall work like a slave and turn all of her earnings over to a drunken, lazy, unfaithful husband, and any wife who does so is lacking in even elementary intelligence and has no more backbone than a fishing worm.

I have no tears to shed over you, because no wife has to stand such treatment from her husband. If she does, it is because she has the heart of a dog and licks the hand that beats her.

Order Investigation In Government Funds

PARIS, Jan. 4.—(AP). — The French government today began an investigation of spending by several government ministries after auditors alleged misuse of funds.

The auditors' report for 1946-47 saaid several billion francs were spent to no definite purpose or on furnishings or food.

Some French newspapers said there was a "government scandal" in spending. The government of Premier Henri Queuille was not responsible for the period under review, but several of the present ministers held office during the period.

The investigation was suggested by the National Assembly.

Remember 1948 As Incredible Year For Sports

NEW YORK, Jan. 4 (AP) — American sports in 1948 will be remembered as a year of almost incredible events.

It was a year of singular contrasts. Throughout the year, it was difficult to tell from one moment what was going to happen the next. Army's football team, untied and unbeaten and ranked among the top in the United States, Collegiate world, was held to a tie by Navy, a team that hadn't won a game in more than a year.

Harrison Dillard, world's greatest high hurdler, failed to qualify for the Olympic games in his specialty, Whereupon he won the Olympic 100-metre event.

Leo Durocher packed his belongings at Brooklyn's Ebbets Field and moved to New York's Polo Grounds, not as an enemy invader, but as new manager of the Giants. On the same day, Burt Shotton was called back to pilot the Dodgers, and Ben Chapman was replaced by Dusty Cooke at Philadelphia.

The month of August found no fewer than four clubs tied for first place in the American League's unprecedented pennant race. The last day of the season ended with Cleveland and the Boston Red Sox deadlocked for the No. 1 spot, necessitating a playoff.

Full-Scale Inquiry Launched Into Fire

SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont., Jan. 4 (CP)—A full-scale investigation was under way today into the six-hour fire which Sunday crippled operations at Algoma Ore properties at nearby Wawa. The sink-float and ore-separating plant was almost destroyed.

Four fightfighters narrowly escaped serious injury during the sub-zero battle to control the blaze. Every available man at Wawa was thrown into the fight. The fire broke out in the men's locker room of the plant.

Four other company plants nearby were saved.

The wrecked plant was capable of handling 1,000,000 tons of ore and the damage will cause a close-down for an estimated 60 days. The Algoma ore properties is a subsidiary of Algoma Steel Corporation.

West Indies Agreement Bolster Canadian Trade

OTTAWA, Jan. 4—(CP).—A new trading arrangement aimed at bolstering the dwindling flow of Canadian goods to the West Indies was announced Monday by Trade Minister Howe. Effective Jan. 1, it involves the release by the United Kingdom of additional dollars to enable the West Indian colonies to buy increased quantities of Canadian goods which up to now have faced import barriers.

The colonies concerned are Bahamas, Barbados, Bermuda, British Guiana, British Honduras, Jamaica, Trinidad and the Leeward and Windward Islands while the goods affected range from apples and cooking utensils to lamps and textile products.

The colonies now will permit "limited importation" of the commodities.

Applies to U.S. Too

The relaxation applies to the United States and other "hard" currency areas as well as Canada. It results from negotiations opened following the visit here last September of Sir Stafford Cripps, Britain's Chancellor of the Exchequer.

Mr. Howe said "several hundred" Canadian firms now will be able to resume trade in a market from which many of them have been excluded for several months. They now may get in touch with their agents and customers with some expectation of obtaining an import license.

As a result of the restrictions, Canadian exports to the West Indies slumped in 1948, totalling only $65,384,000 in the 12 months ended Aug. 30 against $79,285,000 in the corresponding period of 1947. In the same period, imports from the B.W.I. rose from $34,985,000 to $39,041,000.

May Recognize Korea

LONDON, Jan. 4.—(AP). — An authoritative source today reported Britain has decided to recognize the American - sponsored Seoul Government as the ruler of divided Korea. Recognition is to be announced within the next two weeks, the informant said. The United States recognized the Seoul authority last week-end.

Checks Out, Bankers In For Father's Spring Suit

Apparently Man — the male branch — has given up any notions he had of becoming a peacock. After flirting for a while with gaudy raiment, men have fled back into the conservatism that used to feature their clothing.

For a while it looked as though Man had decided to imitate the lower animals, and the girds, and to make himself more gorgeous than his womenfolk. He tried out gay patterned fabrics that needed no loud-speakers to make themselves heard; he tried lapel-less coats, and trousers full of pleats; he tried pinched waits, oot pants, noisy plaids.

Now he's returning to normal. For the spring of 1949 he's going conservative. He is asking and getting flannels, medium-weight tweeds, sleek worsteds, all in restrained patterns. He's returning to the vest, maybe because he finds he needs its pocket space, and with it he's swinging toward the single-breasted coat.

The general impression is that everyone wants to look like a banker, or at least like the model of a responsible family man.

The only novelty that is gaining favor is the old reliable patch pocket on spring and summer suits.

Gray and green find their fanciers, but blue, in disfavor for several years, is so popular it's almost becoming a uniform.

The new backs are straight-hanging, with shoulders modestly square and masculine—whatever that may be—and hips what the boys call slender. The chest is full, but not pouter pigeon.

Topcoats for spring follow the same trend. Curvaceously shaped bodies are giving way to loose, easy silhouettes.

In sports clothes shoulders are narrower, coats are longer with either one centre-back or two side vents, and even chaps who wouldn't know a horse from a mule are eyeing the "hacking" coat with favor. Gray flannels are coming back—but a few die-hard young fellows are bucking the trend by plunging into yellows and maroons, in worsteds and cashmere-like woollens.

SPRINGTIME (1949) for the Canadian male has ruled checks out.

Refuse To Pay Indians $100 A Game

By The Canadian Press

Stratford Indians are finding it as tough to get money as goals

Monday night only 100 fans paid their way to see the last-place Indians suffer a 6-2 beating by Owen Sound Mercurys in a Senior A Ontario Hockey Association game. It was their 22nd loss in 28 starts.

And Toronto Marlboros didn't help the situation when they declined to pay the Indians $100 for every game they visited Toronto. Three other teams of the five-club loop have agreed to pay the $100 every time Stratford visited their respective cities.

Stratford, which lost a reported $6,000 for Manager-Coach Dutch Mener who sponsored them last year, were thrown on a co-operative basis before Christmas. Officials then decided to withdraw the club from the league, but Hamilton Tigers, Kitchener-Waterloo Flying Dutchmen and Owen Sound came to their aid.

Marlboros president, Harold Ballard, said Monday "the Marlboro Hockey Club is not subsidizing Stratford or any other club."

Charges Deal Made

Ballard two weeks ago accused Stratford and Kitchener of being "in cahoots" to head off the powerful Dukes from the O.H.A. title when the Dutchmen sent four players and $5,000 to the Indians' camp in return for ace forwards Mickey Roth and Bill Flick.

In their game Monday night the Mercurys took a 3-1 lead in the first period, made it 6-2 in the second and then fought through a scoreless third rame.

A mild feud between Harry Kazarian of Owen Sound and the Indians' Bill Walsh in the second period sent Kazarian to the penalty box for five minutes. Walsh got a minor penalty.

Mike Shabaga led Owen Sound marksmen with two goals. Others went to Bruno Favero, Al Forslund, Bun White and Kazarian. Stratford scorers were Al Singleton and Gil Robertson.

Two games are scheduled in O.H.A. warfare tonight. Hamilton meets Owen Sound in the senior loop while Toronto Marlboros clash with Galt Rockets in the junior division.

Here And There In Sports . . .

Garth Boesch, Toronto Maple Leafs defenceman, Monday night gave his version of how right-winger Maurice Richard of Montreal Canadiens was injured in the National Hockey League game at Toronto Saturday night. Richard claimed he was hit from behind with the butt-end of a stick during a melee back of the Toronto nets.

Boesch sai l in an interview that there was no butt-ending. He said Richard lost his balance just inside the Leaf blue line and fell in front of Boesch. The Montreal player's head struck Boesch but Boesch said he pulled his skates out of the way to avoid injuring Richard.

Alderman Evan D. Brill, a sponsor of Guelph's Ontario Hockey Association Junior A team, tendered his resignation to City Council Monday when unable to sign a declaration stating in part that Aldermen cannot have interest in any contract on behalf of the city. Mr. Brill is one of 10 sponsors of the club. The group will soon sign a contract with the city regarding concessions in the arena. One proposal is that Guelph will receive 25 per cent of the gross receipts of the concessions.

Thomas D. Lockhart, president of the Amateur Hockey Association of the United States, said Monday night at New York the team that will compete for the world championship at Stockholm next month will be chosen after exhibitions this week. Lockhart said the team would sail early next week for Europe to make an exhibition tour before the world amateur hockey championships at Stockholm Feb. 6-13.

Carl Liscombe of Providence Reds, eastern division pace setters, still retains scoring leadership in the American Hockey League with 53 points it was announced at New York Monday night. He is followed by Murdo MacKay of Buffalo Bisons who has 49 markers. Sid Smith of Pittsburgh Hornets, with 48 points is crowded by Roger Bedard of Providence, 47, and Paul Gladu of St. Louis Flyers at 46.

Gladu leads in goal scoring with 30 and Bedard in the playmaking department with 32 assists.

Ray Powell of Kansas City continued last week to pace the leading scorers in the United States Hockey League with 58 points, 31 of them for his circuit leadership in the goal department, it was announced today at Minneapolis. Bert Olmstead, also of Kansas City, resumed his runner-up position after his return to the Pla-Mors after one game with Chicago Black Hawks, by whom he was recalled 10 days ago. Olmstead counted 29 assists, top of the league, in his 52 points.

Expecting Hectic Session As Sports Groups Confer

By H. DENT HODGSON

OTTAWA, Jan. 4.—(CP).—Fur is expected to fly here next Friday and Saturday when representatives of various sports governing bodies in Canada meet under the auspices of the National Council of Physical Fitness to discuss some extremely pro-and-con questions, including the touchy subject of amateurism.

A 10-point agenda for discussion lists a number of difficult questions to be debated at the two-day talkfest, none of which seems likely to cause more argument than "amateurism."

"Should there be a Canadian definition of 'amateur'," is the topic, "and should measure be taken to establish such a standard and to obtain international acceptance of it? Should sports have independent definitions but mutually acceptable?"

Among the interested parties will be the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada, the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, the Canadian Figure Skating Association, and others. The meeting will be opened to the press.

Contentious, too, is the question which heads the agenda:

"Should Canada withdraw from international competition? If not, who should promote, organize and conduct Canada's participation?"

This question is believed to have been prompted by the Dominion's poor showing in the Olympics last year. One question hanging fire is the status of the Canadian Olympic Association and its sponsoring body, the Amateur Athletic Union. The C.A.O. seeks its own charter and bylaws.

This will be the first such meeting of its kind since the National Council on Physical Fitness was established in 1943 by Act of Parliament. It was formed mainly to support the physical fitness of the people of Canada.

Decision to call the meeting was announced last Oct. 27 and some 43 national sports governing bodies were invited. While all have not accepted as yet, it is expected a representative group will attend, officials saaid here

64 Complaints Say Streets Not Snowplowed

LAKEFIELD, Jan. 4 (Staff) — Complaints that streets had not been plowed were received from 64 residents of the village during the New Year's weekend, council was told at its inaugural meeting Monday night. It also received complaints from 16 persons living along the River Road complaining that the village's plows were exposing their water pipelines and causing them to freeze.

As a result of that complaint, council decided to advise 29 home-owners effected by the pipelines complaint to meet with the council on Jan. 11 for discussion.

Reeve William C. Grant commented that in some cases the pipelines were dug too close to the surface.

"We must consider the rights of the villagers as a whole, not only individual's rights," he said.

Council set the limit of the contract for snow removal at $500. The area of removal will extend from the Tedford Funeral Home to the village hall on the main street and for 50 feet in front of other places of business on Highway 28 through the village.

On the question of snow removal over the pipe lines from the river to homes, Councillor Roy Brown said that he felt the snow should not be left over the pipes to prevent them from freezing "if there is a traffic hazard created in that way."

Plan To Open Turner Park On Wednesday

During the past year a vacant field which was overgrown with weeds has been converted into a tidy playground, at the corner of High and Chamberlain Streets. The building of the playground was undertaken by the B'nai B'rith as one of its civic projects, to serve kiddies of the neighborhood.

On Wednesday night at eight o'clock the playground will be officially opened. Those attending will be Mayor M. Swanston, ex-Mayor W. Ovens, Alderman H. Young, A. Butcher and Jack Dane, recreational director of Peterborough. President Harry Judin praises the splendid work Mr. Butcher, Parks superintendent, has done for the B'nai B'rith Club at the playground.

An exhibition of fancy skating will be given by the Peterborough Figure Skating Club. There will be a hockey game between two teams of the Trojan Athletic Association, who are using the rink for their practices and games. There will be music for skaters at the skating rink. There are two rinks, one for hockey and one for skating.

In the spring, summer and fall there will be supervised sports. The field will be levelled for a ball diamond. Swings, teeters and slides will be put there for the smaller children.

President Yudin extends an invitation to all parents to be present for the ceremony.

Big Snowloader Is A Curiosity

Judging from its first appearance of the winter this week, the city's big snow-loader is a good investment—if only from the spectator point-of-view. Now being used again this winter, Peterborough citizens apparently find themselves unable to view the monster with nonchalance.

Crowds gathered and actually followed its progress along the streets Monday. Sidewalk engineers learnedly computed its speed, capacity, gas and oil consumption, relatives merits to the old hand-shovel methods.

"I suppose they have a right to amuse themselves watching it," commented one of the workers on a shovel with the machine... "They paid for it."

Pretty Calendar Adorns Court Wall

The same calendar-girl brunette who beamed upon prisoners' box inmates in police court will continue to grace the court walls this year. Making her re-appearance on the east wall this morning, it appears that the girl has changed her agricultural specialty this year.

In 1948, the calendar portrayedl her demurely wrapping her arms about a pony This year, she is busily engaged in assembling an armfull of pretty little yellow chicks. As befits the dignity of the surroundings, there is nothing startling about her attire, a red patterned blouse, blue slacks and brown shoes.

There is even a calendar pad on the calendar.

NO INTERRUPTIONS

Friday night's storm didn't disturb the rural mail carriers covering their routes. All appeared at the post office. The old saying 'the mail must go through' is still true so far this winter.

THE LEGAL WAY

Good works will find a way, even when there are legal objections. For example, Lakefield Council faced a protesting letter from the Red Cross Monday night. That organization had been charged $12 by the village for use of its hall for a dance, and it felt that such a levy was uncharitable towards a benevolent Red Cross branch. The council was firm: all groups must be treated alike. So it solemnly passed two motions: (1) The bill would stand, and the $12 is to be paid; (2) the village would make a grant of $12 to the Red Cross. —RB.

WAR—NOT HOCKEY

Hockey fans welcoming an opportunity to see their favorite game in a covered rink were jolted Monday night. At the junior tussle, the fans were wondering whether it was hockey or a preview of the Israeli-Arab war. There were seven players in the penalty box at one time, following fist fights, tripping, slashing and high-sticking. Then one player drew a match penalty. Then several customers went home. It wasn't hockey, it was war.

Warm Tribute Paid Retiring Crown Attorney 'Scholar And Gentleman' Magistrate Says

Tribute to a man who for nearly 20 years has brought to the office of Crown Attorney "something greater even than scholarship . . . the essential characteristics of a gentleman" was paid by Magistrate W. R. Philp, KC, in police court today. He spoke on the retirement of Vincent J. McElderry, who has represented the Crown as Crown Attorney and Clerk of the Peace since 1929. Mr. McElderry's long record as an efficient and fair prosecutor was also praised by Emmett Sheehy, for the local bar, and successor to the office, John A. Bradshaw.

"I know of no Crown Attorney in this province, who, for such a period of time in the performance of his duties, has so well embodied the best traditions of that exacting office," said his worship.

Addressing the crown counsel who has appeared in his court on hundreds of cases in his several years as magistrate, Mr. Philp told him:

"You have, sir, at all times been fair . . . have always prosecuted, never persecuted."

"Unfairness to witnesses, inexactitude in thought, verbosity and exaggeration in statement and argument . . . have been entirely foreign to your manner at all times. Your unique ability of performing your duties—day after day, year after year—in constant contact with many of us . . . with dignity, pleasantness, gentlemanliness and entire absence of friction . . . is respected and appreciated. In addition to great technical ability . . . you have been able to add something more than even scholarship, something which is even rarer today, the essential characteristics of a gentleman."

"For myself, and I am sure I speak for all those with whom you have come in contact in this court room, we sincerely regret your decision to lay down the burden of the crown's work. You will be missed in this place and we wish you every success in your future private practise."

Congratulating Mr. Bradshaw on his appointment as Crown Attorney, the magistrate said: "We can wish you no higher or better wish than that when you may retire, you may have the respect, honor and appreciation of those with whom you may come in contact with here, to the extent that Mr McElderry has at this time."

Both retiring and succeeding Crown Attorneys replied to the address from the bench.

Mr. Sheehy expressed the tribute of the city's counsel who have often opposed Mr. McElderry in court cases:

"I have never once felt that one of my clients was being railroaded. The crown has always been fair and honest."

Cars Left On Streets Delays City's Snow Plow Crews

Snow plowing equipment was called into action at ten o'clock New Year's Eve and the crews manning two power graders and three trucks equipped with plows worked through the night and as late as three o'clock New Year's afternoon.

This was the information obtained from City Engineer Ted Chalmers today, when he remarked it would take three days to truck the snow from the downtown shopping section.

Every street in the city was plowed at least once over the week-end, but the grader operators claimed they wasted 50 per cent. of the plowing time, because of parked cars. Two or three cars on streets forced the graders over a zig-zag course, and the operators had to return to some streets several times, only to find the cars still parked.

Most of the west end streets were plowed clean on Saturday, but by late that night several had drifted again, to the point where motorists had trouble.

"If people would only get their cars into laneways, then our work would be much easier," Mr. Chalmers said.

Conditions Different

He explained there is quite a difference between highway plowing and clearing city streets. "On the highway there is a ditch to push the snow into, and the plow does a better job, because the operator can travel at a high rate of speed. In the city there is no ditch and the plow must travel slowly to avoid striking parked cars," he said.

The entire meter parking area on George St. was cleared of snow by the snowloader and trucks on Monday, as well as one side of Water St. The snow is being carted to the Otonabee River and dumped into the swift-flowing river.

"Having a river to dump snow into is a big help," Mr. Chalmers said, pointing out that in some cities the snow must be trucked into the country and piled in fields.

Throughout his story of snow removal ran the thread of annoyance caused by the parked cars and evident lack of co-operation from the motorists. He mentioned that some even parked alongside the special signs on the streets which told them that section was being cleared of snow. "That sort of conduct is inexcusable, and it slows snow removal."

Mr. Chalmers said there is no criticism of motorists who parked cars on New Year's Eve, because they could do nothing else.

City Requires Private Bill

Ald. Adam Sands reminded the Council Monday night, as chairman of the legal committee, that a private bill will have to be submitted to the Legislature at the approaching sessions for authority to raise and spend the $1,500,000 on Civic Hospital.

"We will also have to get authority to pay the $6,000 balance on the Civic Arena," he said. "We can't do anything about rinks except by private bill."

"When the hospital bill was put through in 1945 we thought we were going to get it built for $1,500,000," City Solicitor Huycke said. "Of that amount the Council was given authority, first by the ratepayers, to borrow $600,000. The ratepayers have approved the additional $1,500,000 for the hospital but we have to go to the Legislature again. Otherwise some of the members might be personally liable."

"They'd have a fine time collecting $1,500,000 from some of us," Ald. Richard Raine humorously remarked.

Mr. Huycke said he would get the bill ready before he leaves on a winter vacation trip.

The money for the hospital will be borrowed on debentures for $1,500,000.

Acetylene Leak Causes Explosion

A small split in an acetylene pipe line in the structural steel department of the CGE caused an explosion and small fire Monday morning. The fire was brought under control with hand extinguishers in the plant and there was not extensive damage.

Rumors that two men had been injured in a blast were unconfirmed. J. E. Girven, assistant works manager, said that there haad been no injuries.

Lakefield Family 7 Hours In Snowdrift

Discomforts suffered by motorists marooned by snowdrifts in the Dundalk-Flesherton area were not exaggerated, Mr. and Mrs. Melton Hopkins of Lakefield, said today.

This couple with their three children motored to Flesherton. They left Toronto at 9 o'clock Saturday morning and at Dundalk the car plowed into a snowdrift and stayed there for seven hours. They were en route to visit Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McLean at Flesherton, former residents of Lakefield. When they phoned Mr. McLean he started out in his car, but had to return and obtained a wrecking truck equipped with a snowplow blade. With this plow and three volunteers, they were able to free the car and proceed on the trip. On two other occasions during the journey, Mr Hopkins had to hire farmers to use their teams and untangle the car from snowdrifts.

SERENADE OF THE BELLS

Revival of the recent popular Serenade of the Bells is now at the top of the hit parade of the Peterborough busmen. For in the new buses the old buzzer has been replaced by a little bell. Weak and strong yanks on the cord produce the same sound, just "dink". One Monday customer not hearing the usual buzz pulled the cord until it went off the hooks.

3 Owners Oppose Widening George Street

Opposition to the widening of George St. by the plan of a three-foot setback on each side in future building and major changes was opposed by Schneider-Alexander Limited, William Addyman and National Grocers in written presentments to the Ontario Municipal Board.

"The Board will not approve the bylaw in its present form," city council was informed last night. "If the bylaw is amended to exclude buildings at present in existence on the lands on George St. which are the property of Schneider and Alexander, National Grocers, and Wm. Addyman, it will be given approval. If the amending bylaw is passed the board will consider it without further publication, notice or hearing."

This letter from the Board was passed on to the finance committee.

Council Accepts Civic Arena

City Council, as representative of the ratepayers, formally accepted possession of the Civic Arena on Monday and assumed the outstanding liability of $6,000 on the cost of constructing the building.

The bylaw authorizing acceptance was introduced by Ald. H. Dodds. Board of management is composed of three members of the Council and three resident ratepayers, to be appointed annually. Present deputies of the Council are: Aldermen Dodds and Gillespie and Mayor Swanston. Three other members of the board are: Percy Killingbeck, Geddis Harper and S. A. McBride. After May 1 this year the members may be re-appointed for one year. This provision switches the arena year to begin soon after the ice is out.

The board has authority for fixing and collecting admission fees, determining rules for the conduct of the place and generally to assume full charge of all details. It is in turn responsible to the City Council.

Borrowing Limit Exceeds A Million

Peterborough's current borrowing limit has increased to $1,083,533. This amount represents 75% of the revenues collected last year exclusive of arrears of taxes and borrowings on debentures.

A routine bylaw was passed by the council Monday night authorizing bank credit to meet current expenditure until tax income is received. It is an annual provision but with the new feature that the limit now exceeds one million dollars. Borrowing amounts to only part of that sum to cover the actual needs until taxes build up funds at the bank.

RELATIVES' TWINS ALSO

With the addition of Peterborough's 1949 twins born on New Year's Day there have been four sets of twins in the families of Mr. and Mrs. Haley Windsor. There are two sets of twins born to relatives of Mrs. Windsor and one pair to Mr. Windsor's relatives.

Council Appoints 3 Men To Board of Governors Of Civic Hospital For '49

Ian F. McRae, Thomas T. Rodger and Ald. Hugh Waddell were appointed members of the board of governors of Civic Hospital by the Council Monday night. Ald. Waddell replaces Ald. Adam Sands, who said that in his opinion the chairman of the finance committee should be on the hospital board because of the large expenditure that was involved in its work this year.

"I've been a member of the board of governors three years at the request of the Council," Ald. Sands said. "In so far as a member of the Council being on the board might be considered, I think it should be the chairman of finance. We are going to spend on the hospital a larger sum than on any other project in our history. I'd like to be on the board again, but I would rather see some other members take over, and learn at first hand the workings of the board of governors.

"You get closer to it that way, and have a better understanding. Mr. McRae and Mr. Rodger have spent a great deal of time and effort on the board, and I would like to see them re-appointed."

Ald. Waddell suggested that Ald. Raine as chairman of the Council's hospital board last year should be on the board of governors. Ald. Raine said he could not think of anyone more capable and efficient for appointment than Ald. Waddell.

Ald. Doug. Miller said that probably both Waddell and Raine should be on the board of governors. Council finally accepted the advice of Ald. Sands that Ald. Raine should act on only one of the hospital bodies. He is at present chairman of the hospital committee of the Council. Ald. Sands said the two bodies had separate and distinct responsibilities. In his opinion it would be wiser if the chairman of the hospital committee of the Council remained apart from the board of governors.

"Al. right," said Ald. Dodds. "I'll move that we name Ian McRae, T. T. Rodger and Ald. Waddell.' His motion was seconded by Ald. Herbert Young in the second reading of the appointing by-law.

Charge Garnet Cox With Manslaughter

COBOURG, Jan. 4—(ENS)—Charged with motor manslaughter, Garnet Cox of Peterborough was remanded on $5,000 bail when he appeared in police court Monday. He was remanded to Jan. 26 to appear in Port Hope police court. The charge was laid by Provincial Constable E. E. Crough of Peterborough as a result of an accident which occurred in Cavan township, last Nov. 28. Richard Mercer, passenger in the car driven by the accused, was killed in the accident.

Council Rejects Tourist Booth; Too Expensive

City council has declined to spend "several thousand dollars" on a booth at the Sportsmen's Show in New York City.

Ald. Hugh Waddell reported Monday night that lack of support from the Chamber of Commerce, the Tourist Association and the Business Men's Association prompted the decision prior to the end of the year by Mayor Swanston, ex-Mayor Ovens and himself.

"We decided to let it drop," Ald. Waddell said. "I consulted Ald. Anglesey. The cost appeared to be too large a sum for the city to guarantee."

Ald. Anglesey as chairman of the industrial committee last year was in charge of the city's booth at the Cleveland Sportsmen's Show.

Sentiment of the council was that the New York show and its possibilities were of little value and concern to the average ratepayers. It was briefly expected that the groups directly interested in the tourist business should be ready to bear a substantial part of the cost of the New York booth, but when financial undertaking from those sources was not forthcoming the committee of the council decided not to take any action that would place the entire cost on the city treasury.

DOWNEYVILLE, Jan. 4. — (ENS).—Henry Carroll, a retired farmer, died suddenly of a heart attack in O'Donnell's store here today. Warn Single Men Club's Reputation

Warnings to all single men coming to YWCA 20 Plus Club's social evenings were given in cartoon posters lining the recreation room walls Saturday evening. They were the handiwork of MC Doug Landry who introduced all the engaged couples present. He had also included cards of good wishes for 1949 at the first meeting of the year. More than 100 members were out and it is noticeable that they are coming early, especially the boys, who enjoy games of chess, checkers, cribbage or ping pong before dancing starts. Refreshments served were convened by Miss Winnie Wright.

Flower arrangement was dealt with in detail with a number of bouquets shown to illustrate the points taught.

Mrs. G. Dunford demonstrated the making of one type of fancy sandwich.

Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Harry Shearer, on the evening of Jan. 12, when Mrs. Conn, Home Economist for Peterborough County, will attend the class.

Short Hair Style Is Meeting With Strenuous Opposition

By MARIANNE IZSAK

NEW YORK, Jan. 4 (CP).—The stylists favor a new "short look" in hair-dos, but they're not getting their way 100 per cent. Hollywood has been slow to pick up the latest style. None of the better-known stars have had their hair cut; witness Lana Turner, Hedy Lamarr, June Allyson, Deanna Durbin and Alexis Smith. Ingrid Bergman has—but probably because she had to for her role in Joan of Arc.

Barbara Ann Scott, Ottawa's world champion figure skater, now starting her professional career, still wears a long, page-boy bob. That style appears on the up-trend again.

Few New York business girls have scurried to the hairdresser for a trim.

"I'll wear mine the way it suits me," is a typical reaction in the mid-town district. It's pretty obvious the smooth fitted-to-the-head look becomes best those fortunate creatures with well-shaped heads and even features.

For all that, hair-stylists are unanimous that the short-hair style is here to stay, for this season anyway.

Michael of the Waldorf, who has created hair-dos for the Duchess of Windsor, Duchess of Montoro and Lady Mendl, features in his winter showing the "southbound" coiffure, a throwback to the old wind-blown bob.

His afternoon styles were highlighted by a short fringe of bangs, with the bob smoothed into a neat cap demurely combed back from the face.

For evening he brushed Joan of Arc bangs off the forehead, the short ends combed into a chignon effect which proved quite as glamorous as any "piled-on-the-head" style.

Another evening fashion, called the "Cotillion Bob," was designed with soft, rolled bangs, the back hair drawn to one side and accented with diamond clips.

Hairdressers here prefer the long styles because they require frequent cutting or other attention. Long hair needs little setting and usually looks better hanging straight with a slight curl at the ends.

India's Women Said Up-to-Date

VANCOUVER, Jan. 4 (CP) — The impression held by the western world that India's women are underprivileged is wrong, says Prof. T. S. Paulus of Madras, secretary of the Lutheran Church of India.

Prof. Paulus is making a six-month tour of North America en route home from the World Conference of Churches in Amsterdam.

"Educated women in India are quite up-to-date, though most of them still live in seclusion, which is considered highly respectable," said the professor.

"Mrs. Carojini Naidu is the governor of a province, and Princess Rajakumari Amrit Kaur is minister of public health."

He said the Lutheran Church is very strong in Christian India, with 250,000 members. Altogether there were 8 million Christians in India out of a population of 400 million.

1949 Annie Laurie To Give Promise

GLASGOW, Jan. 4 — (AP). — A descendant of Annie Laurie will "gie her promise true" in a chapel on the historic Maxwellton estate.

She is Rosemary Anne Laurie. She will be married January 11 to Cmdr. Robin H. R. Moodie of the Royal Navy.

Rosemary Anne's romance promises to turn out more happily than that of her forebear whose love story is immortalized in the song.

The original Annie, almost 200 years ago, had promised to marry William Douglas in Maxwellton, where the braes were bonnie, and he wrote the tender song. He is believed to have been killed in Flanders and Annie married some one else.

ENQUIRY COLUMN

By MARY MOORE

QUESTION: I just had to write you and thank you for taking the bother of writing to tell me about the recipe file—it sounds just like something I've wanted.

I have just received a letter from England saying they had received the parcel and that the cake that was enclosed (last year's Christmas cake) was just like a bride's cake, and it made me think how this cake would suit the lady who asked in paper for bride's cake recipe as it is real dark and really economical. I'm sorry to say that I spoiled mine this year as I was tempted to add a little more grape juice, and so made it too moist, but it won't be wasted you may be sure.

Thanks for all of the help you have given me in your column in the past year; God bless you all and a Merry Christmas.

P. S. My husband is a Peter too, and he is like your Peter for eating Mrs. P. R.

ANSWER: Such a home-y letter creates a strong bond between cooks who strive three times a day to bring that well-fed gratified smile to the faces of those they love and cherish. Thanks. And a Happy New Year.

QUESTION: I like your way of using leftover ham making it into that Ham Pie you call Guiche Lorraine. Could you give me a recipe for a Ham Loaf that you could recommend—I mean jellied, not baked. I like to buy a whole ham with the bone in; but it seems to last so long with my rather small family. M. Malone.

ANSWER:

Jellied Ham Loaf

One tablespoon gelatine, ¼ cup cold water, 3 tablespoons sugar, 1 cup boiling water, 2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce, juice 1 lemon, ¼ teaspoon mustard, 2 tablespoons mayonnaise, 1 tablespoon horseradish, ½ teaspoon grated onion or juice, shake of cayenne and clove, and nutmeg, 6 stuffed olives sliced, 2 cups chopped cooked ham. Soak gelatine in cold water, add 3 tablespoons sugar and 1 cup boiling water and stir until gelatine is dissolved. Add all remaining ingredients.

Pour into loaf pan and chill until firm. If loaf is to be done in a hurry you should add 1½ tablespoons gelatine—as a matter of fact I think the loaf slices better if 1½ tablespoons gelatine are used.

Foremost Canadian Women Are Led By Barbara Ann

There's no doubt about it, Barbara Ann Scott was the Woman of the Year, not only in her native Canada but to many other countries. Even lands behind the iron curtain went overboard to put the smiling face of the little Ottawa skating champion on their front pages.

The year that brought international acclaim to the Dominion's best-loved sports figure saw Canadian women win fresh triumphs or renew laurels won in the fields of law, social work and arts.

Prominent among the Canadians who fought for better social conditions and women's rights were Mme. Pierre Casgrain of Montreal, organizer of the Quebec League of Women Voters to inform women on public affairs, and Agnes Macphail, CCF member of the Ontario legislature. It was a busy year for Canada's other women legislators, Mrs. Gladys Strum, CCF member of parliament for Qu'Appelle, Sask., and Senators Cairine Wilson and Iva Fallis.

Dr. Charlotte Wilson of Ottawa became a national figure when she was charged, along with two men, with conspiring to publish a defamatory libel against the Alberta Government. The charges later dropped, arose from the printing of a report on welfare conditions in Alberta, prepared by Dr. Whitton for the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire.

It was a happy year for Mrs. George Drew, wife of the new national leader of the Progressive Conservative Party. She shared in the triumph of her husband's election to the leadership and to a House of Commons seat.

Halifax produced a champion this year, too. Betty Jean Ferguson, 20-year-old singer from the Maritime city, was chosen Miss Canada of 1948 at Hamilton last summer.

Mrs. T. W. Sutherland of Parksville, BC, now serving her second three-year term on the CBC board of governors, was appointed to her second Royal commission this year. A member of the Royal Commission on Prices in 1948, she was in 1943 and 1944 a member of the Royal Commission to inquire into the welfare of Japanese in wartime camps of British Columbia.

A leader in the field of women's organizations was Mrs. R. J. Marshall of Agincourt, Ont., president of the National Council of Women and recently retired president of the Canadian Association of Consumers.

The first woman to be appointed to a senior position on a Canadian newspaper is believed to be Mary Gardiner of Regina, who was made managing editor of the Prince Albert, Sask., Daily Herald.

A Winnipeg girl went south of the border in 1948 to win musical distinction in New York. Donna Grescoe, talented violinist, made her debut and received high praise from some of the toughest reviewers on the continent. Donna returned to Canada and more praise.

Among well-known Canadian women who died last year were two Montrealers, Mrs. Alfred Watt and Mrs. Ethelwyn Hobbes. Mrs. Hobbes was a radio personality whose program dealt with women's news and opinions, Mrs. Watt, internationally known as founder of the Women's Institutes of the United Kingdom and prominent in women's organization work in Canada, had been the recipient of decorations from the governments of Britain, France and Belgium.

Memorial Flag Dedicated At Legion Auxiliary Dinner

Annual banquet of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion, was held in the Legion Hall Monday evening, preceding the monthly meeting. Guests at head table with officers of the Auxiliary were Mrs. E. Evans of Oshawa, zone representative, Mrs. E. Howson and Mrs. J. Mills, honorary members, Mr. Harold Yelland, president of the men's branch, Mr. M. Rea, secretary-treasurer of the men's branch, Mr. A. Wagstaff, zone commander of the men's branch, and the Rev. F. W. Craik.

Toasts to the King was proposed by Mrs. A Parrington and to the men's branch by Mrs. Evans and responded to by Mr. Yelland. Mr. Wagstaff gave a toast to the Ladies' Auxiliary and Mrs. Parrington replied.

Presentation of a flag to Mrs. A. Parrington in memory of her brother who died recently in Sunnybrook Hospital was made by Mrs. R. Ritchie. The Rev. Craik dedicated the flag to the Auxiliary with these words: "This flag, the Union Jack, is dedicated to the glory of God and in loving memory of Amos Austin Roadhouse who served his country with loyalty and devotion. The flag is a symbol of freedom, justice and righteousness throughout the world."

Speaking afterward to the members Mr. Craik expressed pleasure in his first visit with the Ladies' Auxiliary. He remarked on the saying of school children, "I salute the flag, the Empire for which it stands, one nation indivisible with liberty and justice for all."

Regular meeting of the Auxiliary was opened with the formal ritual, Mrs. A. Parrington presiding. Monthly reports were given and annual reports showed a very successful year. Mrs. M. Morrow reported for the visiting committee 190 calls, 41 cards, 20 lots of flowers and 27 lots of fruit sent 1948.

Comrade Evans was in charge of the installation of the following officers: President, Mrs. A. Mason; first vice-president, Mrs. G. Stevens; second vice-president, Mrs. W. Devall; secretary, Mrs. W. Downer; treasurer, Mrs. R. Ritchie; standard bearer, Mrs. J. Gray; pianist, Mrs. E. Woods; social convener, Mrs. H. Johnston; visiting, Mrs. T. Sarginson; telephone, Mrs. C. Porter; welfare, Mrs. A. Mason and Mrs. E. Dormer; sewing, Mrs. A. Wagstaff and Mrs. Windsor, auditors, Mrs. W. Addyman and Mrs. E. Woods.

Mrs. W. Downer made the presentation of a past president's medal to Mrs. Parrington and Mrs. A. Mason gave her a lovely gift from Auxiliary members in appreciation of her leadership.

Look Over Girl's Mother Before Selecting a Wife

DEAR MISS DIX: I am a man of 26 and have been going with a girl for six month. I would appreciate it if you would tell me me how a chap can find out before marriage whether a girl will make a good wife or not.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: You can't, son. Marriage is one of the things that is not governed by any law of cause and effect and it defies all logic and reason. You can't say "choose this one" or "that one" and you will be happy For to every rule for attaining connubial bliss there are a million exceptions.

Dorothy Dix

However, I think that the most important tip-off that a man can get as the the kind of wife a girl is likely to make is the girl's MOTHER, and wise is the man who gives that lady the once over before he proposes to her daughter. For, nine times out of ten, it is like Mother, like Daughter.

So observe Mother closely. If she is intelligent and broad-minded and tolerant in her views and an interesting companion to spend an evening with, then go on and marry her daughter, for the odds are she will have plenty of sense and will not be an arguer. But if, on the other hand, Mother is narrow and dull and stupid and cocksure that she is always right, then pass her daughter up, as she is almost sure to be a dead ringer for Mom.

Follows in Footsteps

Same way about housekeeping. If Mother is a thrifty manager and a crackerjack housekeeper and cook, then Daughter is pretty sure to follow in her footsteps. But if a girl has been brought up in a slovenly home, she is very likely to keep the same sort of house, because she has never been taught any better.

Then look to the way Mother treats her husband. If she is solicitous of his comfort; if she is companionable with him; if she shows him that she loves him and appreciates him, then rush to the altar with her daughter. But beware of marrying a girl whose father is a meek downtrodden, suppressed man. Mother has tyrannized over her husband and so will her daughter tryannize over you if you marry her.

DEAR MISS DIX: I thought I was a confirmed bachelor. I have never been interested in marriage and having children, but now I have come to the point where I have begun to question my point of view. Practically all of my friends are married and they seem so happy with their wives and youngsters that it makes me feel lonely and jealous when they brag about the achievements of their boys and girls.

Now I know a woman who would make a wonderful wife and mother. Would you advise me to marry? I am 50 years old.

ANSWER: Marry her if she will have you. You are right in thinking that no man gets a greater thrill than he does out of fine children. Also, there is no tribute that comes to him that is quite so precious as to have his youngsters brag of their Dad.

It is only in his children that a man can relive his life and realize the ambitions that have eluded him.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I have been married five years during which time I have worked constantly, coming home at night to do the cooking and the housework. Each week I turn my pay check over to my husband, upon his demand, and he spends the money mostly on drink and women. He didn't have a job when we were married, but he promised to get one. However, he has never done a lick of work during our five years together.

He is always telling me how old and shabby I look and mistreats me in every way possible. What shall I do? Shall I just take the attitude that it is "just life" and let it go at that?

ANSWER: That isn't "just life." That is just plain unadulterated foolishness. Life doesn't demand that any woman in the world shall work like a slave and turn all of her earnings over to a drunken, lazy, unfaithful husband, and any wife who does so is lacking in even elementary intelligence and has no more backbone than a fishing worm.

I have no tears to shed over you, because no wife has to stand such treatment from her husband. If she does, it is because she has the heart of a dog and licks the hand that beats her.

Refuse To Pay Indians $100 A Game

By The Canadian Press

Stratford Indians are finding it as tough to get money as goals.

Monday night only 100 fans paid their way to see the last-place Indians suffer a 6-2 beating by Owen Sound Mercurys in a Senior A Ontario Hockey Association game. It was their 22nd loss in 28 starts.

And Toronto Marlboros didn't help the situation when they declined to pay the Indians $100 for every game they visited Toronto. Three other teams of the five-club loop have agreed to pay the $100 every time Stratford visited their respective cities.

Stratford, which lost a reported $6,000 for Manager-Coach Dutch Mener who sponsored them last year, were thrown on a co-operative basis before Christmas. Officials then decided to withdraw the club from the league, but Hamilton Tigers, Kitchener-Waterloo Flying Dutchmen and Owen Sound came to their aid.

Marlboros president, Harold Ballard, said Monday "the Marlboro Hockey Club is not subsidizing Stratford or any other club."

Charges Deal Made

Ballard two weeks ago accused Stratford and Kitchener of being "in cahoots" to head off the powerful Dukes from the O.H.A. title when the Dutchmen sent four players and $5,000 to the Indians' camp in return for ace forwards Mickey Roth and Bill Flick.

In their game Monday night the Mercurys took a 3-1 lead in the first period, made it 6-2 in the second and then fought through a scoreless third rame.

A mild feud between Harry Kazarian of Owen Sound and the Indians' Bill Walsh in the second period sent Kazarian to the penalty box for five minutes. Walsh got a minor penalty.

Mike Shabaga led Owen Sound marksmen with two goals. Others went to Bruno Favero, Al Forslund, Bun White and Kazarian. Stratford scorers were Al Singleton and Gil Robertson.

Two games are scheduled in O.H.A. warfare tonight. Hamilton meets Owen Sound in the senior loop while Toronto Marlboros clash with Galt Rockets in the junior division.

Expecting Hectic Session As Sports Groups Confer

By H. DENT HODGSON

OTTAWA, Jan. 4.—(CP).—Fur is expected to fly here next Friday and Saturday when representatives of various sports governing bodies in Canada meet under the auspices of the National Council of Physical Fitness to discuss some extremely pro-and-con questions, including the touchy subject of amateurism.

A 10-point agenda for discussion lists a number of difficult questions to be debated at the two-day talkfest, none of which seems likely to cause more argument than "amateurism."

"Should there be a Canadian definition of 'amateur'," is the topic, "and should measure be taken to establish such a standard and to obtain international acceptance of it? Should sports have independent definitions but mutually acceptable?"

Among the interested parties will be the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada; the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association; the Canadian Figure Skating Association, and others. The meeting will be opened to the press.

Contentious, too, is the question which heads the agenda:

"Should Canada withdraw from international competition? If not, who should promote, organize and conduct Canada's participation?"

This question is believed to have been prompted by the Dominion's poor showing in the Olympics last year. One question hanging fire is the status of the Canadian Olympic Association and its sponsoring body, the Amateur Athletic Union. The C.A.O. seeks its own charter and bylaws.

This will be the first such meeting of its kind since the National Council on Physical Fitness was established in 1943 by Act of Parliament. It was formed mainly to support the physical fitness of the people of Canada.

Decision to call the meeting was announced last Oct. 27 and some 43 national sports governing bodies were invited. While all have not accepted as yet, it is expected a representative group will attend, officials saaid here

Remember 1948 As Incredible Year For Sports

NEW YORK, Jan. 4 (AP) — American sports in 1948 will be remembered as a year of almost incredible events.

It was a year of singular contrasts. Throughout the year, it was difficult to tell from one moment what was going to happen the next. Army's football team, untied and unbeaten and ranked among the top in the United States Collegiate world, was held to a tie by Navy, a team that hadn't won a game in more than a year.

Harrison Dillard, world's greatest high hurdler, failed to qualify for the Olympic games in his specialty. Whereupon he won the Olympic 100-metre event.

Leo Durocher packed his belongings at Brooklyn's Ebbets Field and moved to New York's Polo Grounds, not as an enemy invader, but as new manager of the Giants. On the same day, Burt Shotton was called back to pilot the Dodgers, and Ben Chapman was replaced by Dusty Cooke at Philadelphia.

The month of August found no fewer than four clubs tied for first place in the American League's unprecedented pennant race. The last day of the season ended with Cleveland and the Boston Red Sox deadlocked for the No. 1 spot, necessitating a playoff.

West Indies Agreement Bolster Canadian Trade

OTTAWA, Jan. 4—(CP).—A new trading arrangement aimed at bolstering the dwindling flow of Canadian goods to the West Indies was announced Monday by Trade Minister Howe. Effective Jan. 1, it involves the release by the United Kingdom of additional dollars to enable the West Indian colonies to buy increased quantities of Canadian goods which up to now have faced import barriers.

The colonies concerned are Bahamas, Barbados, Bermuda, British Guiana, British Honduras, Jamaica, Trinidad and the Leeward and Windward Islands while the goods affected range from apples and cooking utensils to lamps and textile products.

The colonies now will permit "limited importation" of the commodities.

Applies to U.S. Too

The relaxation applies to the United States and other "hard" currency areas as well as Canada. It results from negotiations opened following the visit here last September of Sir Stafford Cripps, Britain's Chancellor of the Exchequer.

Mr. Howe said "several hundred" Canadian firms now will be able to resume trade in a market from which many of them have been excluded for several months. They now may get in touch with their agents and customers with some expectation of obtaining an import license.

As a result of the restrictions, Canadian exports to the West Indies slumped in 1948, totalling only $65,384,000 in the 12 months ended Aug. 30 against $79,285,000 in the corresponding period of 1947. In the same period, imports from the B.W.I. rose from $34,985,000 to $39,041,000.

May Recognize Korea

LONDON, Jan. 4.—(AP). — An authoritative source today reported Britain has decided to recognize the American - sponsored Seoul Government as the ruler of divided Korea. Recognition is to be announced within the next two weeks, the informant said. The United States recognized the Seoul authority last week-end.

Here And There In Sports . . .

By The Canadian Press

Garth Boesch, Toronto Maple Leafs defenceman, Monday night gave his version of how right-winger Maurice Richard of Montreal Canadiens was injured in the National Hockey League game at Toronto Saturday night. Richard claimed he was hit from behind with the butt-end of a stick during a melee back of the Toronto nets.

Boesch said in an interview that there was no butt-ending. He said Richard lost his balance just inside the Leaf blue line and fell in front of Boesch. The Montreal player's head struck Boesch but Boesch said he pulled his skates out of the way to avoid injuring Richard.

Alderman Evan D. Brill, a sponsor of Guelph's Ontario Hockey Association Junior A team, tendered his resignation to City Council Monday when unable to sign a declaration stating in part that Aldermen cannot have interest in any contract on behalf of the city. Mr. Brill is one of 10 sponsors of the club. The group will soon sign a contract with the city regarding concessions in the arena. One proposal is that Guelph will receive 25 per cent of the gross receipts of the concessions.

Thomas D. Lockhart, president of the Amateur Hockey Association of the United States, said Monday night at New York the team that will compete for the world championship at Stockholm next month will be chosen after exhibitions this week. Lockhart said the team would sail early next week for Europe to make an exhibition tour before the world amateur hockey championships at Stockholm Feb. 6-13.

Carl Liscombe of Providence Reds, eastern division pace setters, still retains scoring leadership in the American Hockey League with 53 points it was announced at New York Monday night. He is followed by Murdo MacKay of Buffalo Bisons who has 49 markers. Sid Smith of Pittsburgh Hornets, with 48 points is crowded by Roger Bedard of Providence, 47, and Paul Gladu of St. Louis Flyers at 46.

Gladu leads in goal scoring with 30 and Bedard in the playmaking department with 32 assists.

Ray Powell of Kansas City continued last week to pace the leading scorers in the United States Hockey League with 58 points, 31 of them for his circuit leadership in the goal department, it was announced today at Minneapolis. Bert Olmstead, also of Kansas City, resumed his runner-up position after his return to the Pla-Mors after one game with Chicago Black Hawks, by whom he was recalled 10 days ago. Olmstead counted 29 assists, top of the league, in his 52 points. By The Canadian Press

Checks Out, Bankers In For Father's Spring Suit

Apparently Man — the male branch — has given up any notions he had of becoming a peacock. After flirting for a while with gaudy raiment, men have fled back into the conservatism that used to feature their clothing.

For a while it looked as though Man had decided to imitate the lower animals, and the girds, and to make himself more gorgeous than his womenfolk. He tried out gay patterned fabrics that needed no loud-speakers to make themselves heard; he tried lapel-less coats, and trousers full of pleats; he tried pinched waits, bot pants, noisy plaids.

Now he's returning to normal. For the spring of 1949 he's going conservative. He is asking and getting flannels, medium-weight tweeds, sleek worsteds, all in restrained patterns. He's returning to the vest, maybe because he finds he needs its pocket space, and with it he's swinging toward the single-breasted coat.

The general impression is that everyone wants to look like a banker, or at least like the model of a responsible family man.

The only novelty that is gaining favor is the old reliable patch pocket on spring and summer suits.

Gray and green find their fanciers, but blue, in disfavor for several years, is so popular it's almost becoming a uniform.

The new backs are straight-hanging, with shoulders modestly square and masculine—whatever that may be—and hips what the boys call slender. The chest is full, but not pouter pigeon.

Topcoats for spring follow the same trend. Curvaceously shaped bodies are giving way to loose, easy silhouettes.

In sports clothes shoulders are narrower, coats are longer with either one centre-back or two side vents, and even chaps who wouldn't know a horse from a mule are eyeing the "hacking" coat with favor. Gray flannels are coming back—but a few die-hard young fellows are bucking the trend by plunging into yellows and maroons, in worsteds and cashmere-like woollens.

SPRINGTIME (1949) for the Canadian male has ruled checks out.

Order Investigation In Government Funds

PARIS, Jan. 4.—(AP). — The French government today began an investigation of spending by several government ministries after auditors alleged misuse of funds.

The auditors' report for 1946-47 saaid several billion francs were spent to no definite purpose or on furnishings or food.

Some French newspapers said there was a "government scandal" in spending. The government of Premier Henri Queuille was not responsible for the period under review, but several of the present ministers held office during the period.

The investigation was suggested by the National Assembly.

Full-Scale Inquiry Launched Into Fire

SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont., Jan. 4 (CP)—A full-scale investigation was under way today into the six-hour fire which Sunday crippled operations at Algoma Ore properties at nearby Wawa. The sink-float and ore-separating plant was almost destroyed.

Four fightfighters narrowly escaped serious injury during the sub-zero battle to control the blaze. Every available man at Wawa was thrown into the fight. The fire broke out in the men's locker room of the plant.

Four other company plants nearby were saved.

The wrecked plant was capable of handling 1,000,000 tons of ore and the damage will cause a close-down for an estimated 60 days. The Algoma ore properties is a subsidiary of Algoma Steel Corporation.

Blizzards Leave Britain-U.S. In Bad Shape

CHICAGO, Jan. 4 — (AP)— Storms in all forms, paced by a series of tornadoes and a blizzard, left a broad section of the United States from Wyoming to Louisiana reeling today.

Some 50 persons died, hundreds were innjured, other hundreds were homeless and thousands were marooned inn the blizzard area. Property damage mounted into the millions.

The heaviest toll of lives and property damage was from the tornadoes, which struck in Arkansas, Louisiana and Kansas. The lumber mill town of Warren, Ark., was the target of the most devastating blow. At least 46 were killed and between 250 and 300 injured in the community of 7,500.

An early-January blizzard, centring today in northeast Nebraska, swept across the plains states, dipped into the Texas Panhandle and howled into northwestern Minnesota.

Temperatures plunged to as low as 23 below zero in Butte, Mont. Winds ranging in velocity from 40 to 60 miles an hour swirled heavy, falling snow into huge drifts over the blizzard belt of the Dakotas, western Nebraska, western Kansas, eastern Wyoming, Colorado and northwest Minnesota.

39 Fatalities

LONDON, Jan. 4 (Repters) — Snowstorms and icy road conditions spread Monday night from Scotland and the North of England to the Midlands and Southwest. The storms, which have extended through Western Europe, have resulted in at least 39 fatalities.

In the famous Lakes District beauty spots of Westmoreland and Lancashire, where it was still snowing late Monday night, there was a general covering of six inches of snow. Drifts up to three feet blocked roads in the hill district to the south-east, where conditions were said to be worsening.

Intense frost in the industrial areas of Yorkshire caused a fog which brought visibility down to 50 yards.

Several main roads in Central Wales were impassable and snow began to fall in Devonshire.

Weather experts predicted that the cold spell would continue today.

Dr. Hugh Redmond Dies In Edmonton

He was a member of the board of directors of Misercordia Hospital, practiced his profession in Edmonton 41 years, and retired in 1943.

Clergymen Disgusted

TORONTO, Jan. 4 (CP)—Toronto clergymen Monday registered "amazement" and "disgust" and labelled "ridiculous" a marriage performed Sunday in Long Beach, Calif., by Marjoe Gortner, five-year-old boy evangelist. The boy, an ordained minister of the Old Faith Church married Raymond Miler, 23, and Alma Brown, 21, and then dropped his fee in his piggy bank.

Hospital Expansion Plan Will Cost 30 Million; Peterborough Has 230 Beds

TORONTO, Jan. 4—(CP).—A hospital expansion program under way in Ontario involves capital expenditures exceeding $30,000,000; of which $20,000,000 will be contributed by the communities which the hospitals will serve. The rest of the money will come from Federal and Provincial government grants.

Figures on the program were released Monday night by Ontario Health Minister Kelley.

Since April, 1947, plans have been drawn up by 80 hospitals in 67 municipalities to provide an additional 7,740 beds and 1,220 bassinettes. Fifteen of the projects have been completed and 25 others started. Funds have been voted in other cases.

Projects completed with the aid of municipal grants include those at Chesley, Clinton, Goderich, Parry Sound, St. Thomas, Seaforth, Southampton, Toronto Queen Elizabeth, and Winchester. These have made available 193 active treatment beds, 49 bassinettes and 255 beds for chronic cases.

No Grants Arranged

Brantford General, Cobourg General, Hamilton St. Joseph's, North Bay St. Joseph's, Oshawa General, and Sturgeon Falls St. Jean de Brebeuf have carried out expansions without arranging as yet for capital grants from their respective municipalities. The additional accommodation in these centres has totalled 272 active treatment beds, 19 bassinetes and 53 beds for chronics.

Projects under construction and aided financially by the municipalities are as follows (beds and bassinettes are given in their respective order):

When the work is completed it will add 425 active beds, 169 chronic beds, and 129 bassinettes to their present accommodation.

LONDON, Jan. 4 (AP)—London newspapers said Monday that Britain and Poland are expected to sign a trade agreement to bring about £50,000,000 ($200,000,000) worth of goods to Britain in the next five years. Movie Stars Planning National Tours

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 4 (AP).— Look out, citizens, movie stars are coming your way.

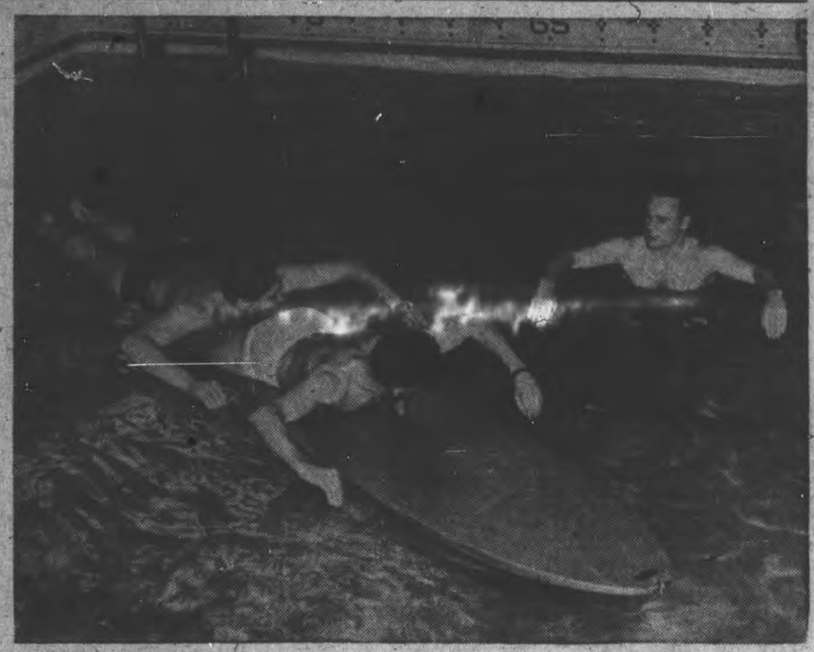
The new year will find more and more Hollywood personalities going out to meet the public. It's a factor that will help improve the film industry's public relations, but there's an important commercial matter, too. One film figure told me it will add $300,000 to $400,000 to a picture's gross if the star will help call attention to it with a national tour.

Awards And Such

Gregory Peck is not in the Academy running for the first time in three years. He didn't have a picture released in 1948. "It's probably just as well," he said. "I'm not ready to take on Olivier—yet!" . . .

Greer Garson's new film, "The Forsyte Saga," has the New Look in movie production. Even with a big cast, it will be filmed in 48 days, came Louis B. Mayer or high water. In other times, it would have taken at least 90. Incidentally, the picture will get a new title: Producer Leon Gordon fears Galsworthy lovers will feel cheated when they see only a sequence of the whole saga . . .

Producer Lester Cowan is off to England, reportedly to scout location for a new Marx Brothers' picture. It's supposed to be a thriller, with Groucho playing a Scotland Yard man.



RCN AND RCAF personnel attending a special course in swimming and water safety arranged by the Red Cross were given practical training in the use of a paddle board, and how it can be used in water rescue. The above picture shows W. R. "Bob" McAdam, Ontario Director of the swimming and water safety branch of the Canadian Red Cross demonstrating the proper stroke to two of his class. The instruction is in line with RCAF policy that each airman and officer be able to swim. (RCAF Photo)

6—In Memoriams

DELAHEY—In loving memory of Frederick J. Delahey, who passed away January 4, 1946.

Three years have passed dear father,
Since you were called away;
How well we do remember
That sad and weary day;
You suffered much, you murmured not,
We watched you day by day,
We prayed that your dear life
Would not be taken away.
—Ever remembered by Harold, Viola and family.

DELAHEY—In loving memory of a dear father, Frederick Delahey, who passed away January 4, 1946.

Gone is the face we loved so dear,
Silent is the voice we loved to hear,
Too far away for sight or speech,
But not too far for thought to reach.
Sweet to remember him who once was here,
And who though absent is just as dear.
—Sadly missed by Helen and Wally.

SERGEANT—In loving memory of Matthew Sergeant, who passed away three years ago today.

We cannot think of them as dead
Who walk with us no more
Along the path of life we tread,
They have but gone before.
—Ever remembered by son, daughter-in-law and grandchildren.

STEWART—In loving memory of William H. Stewart, Keene, who died Jan. 4, 1945.

Gone into that light that shines so fair,
Gone from the earth of sorrows and cares;
Resting those hands that toiled their best—
Gone dear dad, gone to rest.
—Sadly missed by his loving wife and family.

TILLCOCK—In loving memory of W. Tillcock, who died five years ago, January 4, 1944.

We do not forget nor do we intend
We think of you often and will to the end
Gone and forgotten by some you may be
But dear to our memory you ever will be.
—Sadly missed by his wife, Ivy and Len.

YOUMANS—In loving memory of my dear mother, Mrs. Jane Youmans of Havelock, who passed away January 4, 1947.

I cannot say and I will not say
That she is dead. She is just away.
With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand
She has wandered into an unknown land,
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be since she lingers there
And you—oh, you, who the wildest yearn
For the old-time step and the glad return
Think of her faring on, as dear,
In the love of there, as the love of here.
Think of her still as the same, I say
She is not dead—she is just away.
—Sadly missed by daughter Edith (Mrs. William Stevenson).

The pallbearers will be Mr. Ernest N. McDonald, William Baker, Gordon and Evan Calder, Chas. McMillan, and also Mr. Wm. Parker of Peterborough. Burial will be at Norwood cemetery.

Snow Clearance Poor At Lindsay

LINDSAY, Jan. 4.— Lindsay's snow removal operations were the target of much criticism at the week-end, some of it unfavorable. Charges of discrimination against the north and south wards were being levelled at the Board of Works Dept. and tempers were running high in some quarters.

A tour round the town convinced one motorist that the east ward snow plowing job was much superior to that which was carried out in the south and north. He said that the north and south wards were obviously not as well plowed out.

In the south central section of Lindsay Sunday evening there were still only single traffic lanes on most of the streets. The sidewalks plowing job was termed "poor" by pedestrians who found corners well banked up and the sidewalks not very thoroughly plowed. Walking was extremely heavy and the one-way traffic lanes made driving hazardous.

Deputy-reeve Burrows said he had several calls from residents in his zone over the week-end. "They were pretty disturbed about the neglect shown in clearing streets in the south ward," he stated. North ward conditions were said to parallel those in the south.

Muskrats Wiped Out In Water Pollution

WINDSOR, Jan. 4—(CP). — A foreign substance in the waters of Turkey Creek has killed off a teeming colony of muskrat in the nearby Lasalle marshes, and has caused the death of wild ducks and fowl.

Deputy Game Warden C. G. Glover today blamed the Union Gas Company, and said oil and residue from the Grand Marais Road plant of the company has polluted the water.

Officials of the company and Windsor Gas Company said that an overflow of oil there a few days ago was accidental, and steps are being taken to see that it doesn't happen again.

Mr. Glover said it was "the worst case of pollution I have ever seen."

Lasalle residents claim the situation will cause the complete loss of some $4,000 worth of muskrat trapping during the spring months.

Expect Early Agreement

LONDON, Jan4 (CP)— Food Minister John Strachey said today that Britain expects an early agreement with Canada on the price to be paid for 140,000,000 bushels of wheat during the crop year 1949-50. He said both government had agreed to disregard the provision in the long-term wheat agreement that the price should be decided before the close of 1948.

Three Pay Fines

Three minor liquor cases were before police court today.

Clyde Werkman of Lindsay and Harry Hoy, 467 Chamberlain St., were each fined $10 and $2.50 costs on their guilty pleas to being drunk in public.

Jack Dormer, 645 Charlotte St., was fined $10 and $2.50 costs for having liquor in a place other than a residence.

60 Ft. Radio Tower To Be Erected Here

This spring, Peterborough will have Frequency Modulation broadcasting from the local radio station, CHEX. Equipment has been ordered and plans are in readiness for the move. The tower—about 60 feet high—will be on top of The Examiner Building at Hunter and Water Sts. The new F.M. transmitter, which will be operated in addition to the station's present A.M. setup, will be of 250 watts, said Russell Baer, manager of CHEX.

Equipment for the transmitter is built by the CGE, which is also constructing the inner workings for other F.M. stations scheduled to open soon in other parts of the province.

The first F.M. stations in Canada to be operated independent of A.M. stations will go on the air this year in Hamilton and Kitchener, it was announced recently. In the meantime, F.M. installations are continuing to develop in close connection with A.M. stations.

In Ontario, stations have been on the air regularly at Timmins, Windsor and London. Installation is nearing completion in St. Catharines. Plans are well advanced for F.M. at Brantford.

Basic advantage to the listeners of F.M., explained Mr. Baer, is the finer quality of program reception and a high level of technical efficiency.

"Simply speaking, Frequency Modulation is an entirely new type of radio transmission. It eliminates static and other radio interferences—such as machinery in or near the building."

"The reception by F.M. gives a better tonal quality and wider and truer range reception not fully possible through A.M., which cuts off the highest and lowest ranges of notes in music, for example."

Dodges Flames, Keeps Working

TORONTO, Jan. 4—(CP).— A Toronto fireman escaped injury early today when he dodged a sheet of flames from a third-storey window during a blaze which caused $20,000 damage to a downtown office building.

The unidentified fireman was operating a pressure hose from atop an aerial ladder when an explosion in the premises shot flames out the window to engulf him and his equipment. He dodged the hot blast and resumed his work.

Firemen said the fire started when an unattended motor became hot and ignited surrounding materials.

Water and smoke loss was heavy to surrounding dentists, doctors and barristers offices, firemen said. No one was injured.

SKYSCRAPER CITY

Study Cause Of Plane Crash

SEATTLE, Jan. 4 (AP)—Government investigators hoped today to track down the cause of a DC-3 plane crash in which 14 persons died Sunday night.

The "Holiday Special" chartered by 27 western students returning to Yale University became a flaming pyre for 11 of the youths and three crew members.

To find the reason for the crash, crews from the Civil Aeronautics Board and Civil Aeronautics Administration are seeking the answers to these questions:

Who was at the controls of the ill-fated plane? Did the pilot disregard warnings from the control tower? Had proper precautions been taken to clear ice from the wings? Was the plane overloaded? Did the engines fail?

Leon D. Cuddeback, C.A.B. regional director, said his first step will be a study of C.A.A. working records and a wire recording of control power instructions to various planes on the field.

Author Lewis Browne Ends Life With Poison

SANTA MONICA, Calif., Jan. 4 (AP) — Author Lewis Allen Browne ended his life with poison because he preferred death to blindness, police deduced today.

The 52-year-old, London-born former rabbi, writer, lecturer and authority on Jewish history left a note dated Sunday, about 24 hours before his body was found Monday in his home at the nearby Uplifters Club Ranch. A bottle of colorless liquid was found near the body.

The note said "I felt there was no chance of saving my vision.... The possible certainty of months.... Groping in the dark is more than I can resign myself to.

"I have no fear of death. I think it is an endless sleep, so, good night."

Browne was the author of "This Believing World," "Why Jews Are Like That," "How Odd of God," "The Story of the Jews" and other works.

Bombardment Covers Landing Of Gurkhas

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaya, Jan. 4.—(AP).—Under cover of a bombardment from a Royal Navy destroyer, a company of Royal Gurkha Rifles landed on the west coast of Malaya today to attack a concentration of Communist insurgents.

RAF spotter planes also covered the landing, the first of its kind in the present campaign against the insurgents.

Gen. Slim Promoted

LONDON, Jan. 4 (AP)—Gen. William Slim, chief of the Imperial General Staff, was promoted Monday night to Field Marshal. He thus completed, at the age of 57, his rise from private to the highest rank in the British army.

Boost Production

NEW DELHI—(CP) — Bihar Province plans to boost production of the sugar cane industry. Six hundred tube wells to irrigate more than 330,000 acres of land are to be sunk at an estimated cost of more than $6,000,000.

Locals Protest Steelworkers Invading City

Executive Boards of Locals 524 and 527 UE-CIO have sent a joint telegram to Pat Conroy, secretary-treasurer of the Canadian Congress of Labor, charging that the USWA-CIO are openly raiding the UE situation at the Outboard Marine Co.

Text of the telegram signed by Joseph O'Brien, recording secretary of 527, and Philip Doherty, secretary of 524 is as follows:

"To Pat Conroy, secretary-treasurer of the CCL—The United Steel Workers of America, working in conjunction with the company and company union at the Outboard Marine Co., Peterborough, are openly raiding this UE situation. You have been informed by our district office of the prosecution proceedings pending between UE and this company in connections with allegations by the UE of falsification of company losts. We ask that you immediately instruct the United Steelworkers to withdraw from this Peterborough situation and publicly recognize that Outboard Marine belongs in the UE."

Commenting on the leaflet recently distributed to Outboard Marine employees by the USWA, C. R. Sullivan, district UE representative said: "I am astounded to see the USWA-CIO entering into an anti-union fight to assist a company through the use of a company union"

"The UE will take every possible step to see that Outboard workers are represented by the UE and that the Steelworkers refrain from further raiding tactics and attend to the job of all bonafide unions—organizing the unorganized workers. Tactics of raiding a sister CIO union will always result in a set-back to the workers."

Fear Aeroplanes Threat To Wild Life

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4 (AP)—The Wilderness Society of the United States said to-day it has set up a committee to study the "threat of the airplane to wilderness areas.'"

Howard Zahniser, executive secretary of the privately-supported conservation organization, said his first attention will be given to air travel into the Quetico-Superior wilderness of Ontario and Minnesota.

"There are many wilderness regions in other parts of the United States that are threatened by increasing use of airplanes by hunters, fishermen and tourists in general," Zahniser told a reporter.

"Our committee plans to survey the problem in general and to explore the possibilities of reserving the air space over wilderness areas, to protect those areas from intrusion."

World News In Brief

Taken from Wires of Canadian Press.

WASHINGTON — Legislation to authorize the St. Lawrence seaway and power project was introduced in the new Congress by Representative Clarence Kilburn (Rep.-NY). The measure is identical to one introduced last year. It provides for imposition of tolls on shipping to make the project self-liquidating.

QUEBEC— The Quebec Chronicle-Telegraph Monday increased the price of its daily editions from 3 to 5 cents because of increased production costs.

CALGARY — Margarine will go on sale for the first time in Calgary about the end of next week. M. F. Maxwell, manager of a Calgary wholesale firm, said the margarine probably will sell for 49 cents a pound. The present price of Grade A butter in Cagary is 71 cents a pound.

CHICAGO — At least 309 persons died violently during the New Year holiday week-end in the United States. The toll includes 14 killed in a plane crash at Seattle Sunday night. Of the total deaths, 207 were in traffic acidents.

NEW YORK — Two spinster sisters were sentenced to prison for rent gouging by a judge who told them "philosophy and conduct like yours....have made more people dissatisfied with our form of economy than any spy could do. Your victims were the poor," Justice Nathan Perlman said. "You worship the dollar. You will live and die by the dollar...."

NEW YORK — The New York Herald Tribune has published a nine-page supplement devoted to Canadian business and industry. Entitled "The Trend of Canadian Economy," it includes a message from Prime Minister St. Laurent and articles on various phases of Canada's economic development.

Sees No Improvement

PITTSBURGH—Lt.-Gen. Walter Bedell Smith, United States Ambassador to the Soviet Union, told a press conference he expects Russian-American relations "to remain in a state of tension for some time." Soviet Fails To Communize Captured German Officers

BERLIN, Jan. 4—(AP)—Six years ago German Field Marshal Friedrich von Paulus surrendered the remnants of an army of 330,000 men to the Russians at Stalingrad.

For six years the Russians tried to convert approximately 2,500 captured officers to communism so they could return to Germany and carry out the will of Moscow.

They converted exactly 23, says Maj.-Gen. Walter Schreiber, former German surgeon general, one of the 2,500.

Among the captive officers the Russians created a "free Germany committee" dedicated to rid Germany of Hitler, and form a German state "along the lines of the western democracies."

It won many adherents at the start.

The "free Germany committee" was formed with Erich Weinert as president, and Gen. Walter von Seydlitz vice-president. Paulus did not join until 1944, but from the start Russian propagandists called it the "Paulus committee."

In the committee's name, radio appeals were beamed to Germany, and leaflets and newspapers dropped behind German lines urged the troops to quit the war and develop a democratic Germany.

The Russians promised to re-establish the eastern German border as it was in 1935 when the war started.

The committee was gaining strength until more German prisoners came to the camp. Each new batch brought tales of the rape of German women, the murder of civilians, and forced evacuation of non-combatants to Russia.

The Germans became bitter and lost interest in the "free German committee" as an empty promise.

MUST KEEP STRONG ARMY --- TRUMAN

WHEN ALMA BROWN married Seaman Raymond Miller, in Long Beach, Calif., the minister doubled as the "something new". Rev. Marjo Gortner, who united the couple, is only 4 years old. He's ordained as a minister by Old Faith, Inc. He put the fee in his piggy-bank, after conducting a dignified ceremony in his Lord Fauntleroy suit. Authorities are disputing the legality of the marriage ceremony.

Britain Blaming Israel For Violating Frontier

LONDON, Jan. 5—(AP).—Britain said today the situation on the Palestine-Egyptian frontier continues grave, although "the main body of Israeli forces" has been withdrawn from Egyptian territory. A Foreign Office spokesman told a press conference an Israeli withdrawal has given "local relief to a still obscure situation which continues to cause anxiety."

TEL AVIV, Israel—(Reuters).—Israel today officially admitted for the first time that her forces had crossed the Egyptian frontier. A spokesman said one force had withdrawn but did not disclose whether all Israeli troops now had withdrawn from Egypt.

He said he was not prepared to say all Israeli forces have been withdrawn from Egypt. The Israeli government told the United States in a note early this week all its troops had left Egyptian territory.

The spokesman, in an unsolicited statement, made clear that Britain blames Israel for recent United Nations truce violations in southern Palestine.

Territory Violated

He said study of reports received by the Foreign Office of Egyptian frontier incidents "now leave no doubt at all that Egyptian territory was violated."

He added:

"The whole situation arises out of the most flagrant and staggering violation by Israel of the United Nations Security Council resolutions of Nov. 4, 16, and Dec. 29."

These resolutions called for a cease-fire in the Negev Desert and its demilitarization; the opening of armistice negotiations, and yet another cease-fire between Israeli and Egyptian forces.

The spokesman refused comment on Israeli charges in Tel Aviv yesterday that British troops were moving to the Red Sea port of Aqaba; that Britain was reinforcing air strength at Mafrak in Trans-Jordan; and that Britain planned to send an expeditionary force to the Egyptian Palestine border.

Ask To Change Name To Ulster

BELFAST, Northern Ireland, Jan. 5—(AP)—Prime Minister Sir Basil Brooke is leaving for London today with a proposal to change the name of Northern Ireland to Ulster.

He has appointments to see Prime Minister Attlee and other British officials about the change.

Sir Basil also is expected to ask for legislation clearly fixing Northern Ireland's status as a part of the United Kingdom.

Many Northern Ireland political leaders believe that such legislation is necessary to allay fears that the northern counties might be absorbed by Eire.

Taxi Driver Dying Following Attack

VANCOUVER, Jan. 5—(CP)—A 30-year-old Vancouver taxi driver today lay near death in hospital as a result of injuries suffered in a Christmas Eve attack.

Medical authorities said Gerald Burk is a haemophiliac, a person who bleeds to death if an injury is not treated immediately.

Burk was alone in his taxi office when two men, unable to get a cab, struck him in the face with a heavy lunch-bucket, smashing the side of his face. The men fled.

Burk already has received several transfusions but his condition remains critical.

Living Costs Slump, First In Two Years

Drop Minor Amount But Experts Say It's Hopeful Sign

By GEORGE KITCHEN.

OTTAWA, Jan. 5 — (CP). — The Canadian Press learned authoritatively to-day that the government's cost-of-living index, being made public this afternoon, will show a fractional decline — its first break in 23 months.

While the drop is of only minor proportions, government experts are known to regard the decline as one of the most encouraging features of the complex prices fild since the index began its headlong rise nearly two years ago.

At that time—January 1, 1947—the index stood at 127.0. Then, slowly at first but with increasing vigor, it began to skyrocket until it reached an all-time peak of 159.6 at October 1, 1948. It remained unchanged at November 1 and then, apparently, pointed downwards for the fractional drop now being reported.

To-day's report will cover the prices situation as at December 1, little more than a month ago. The progress of prices during December and up to January 1 will be reported next month.

The index is compiled by the Bureau of Statistics and is calculated on the basis that living costs in the pre-war period of 1935-1939 totalled 100.

The Nov. 1 reading of 159.6 was 58.3 points above the last pre-war month of August, 1939.

Follows US Lead

This first drop in the cost-of-living barometer follows a heartening downward trend in prices in the United States. There, at the year-end, government authorities reported declines in almost every official index that they compile, including commodity prices, consumer, wholesale prices, food and cost of living.

The main US Government index has dropped 2½ per cent. since August.

It is expected that lower food costs will emerge as one of the main factors in the Canadian decline. These likely have served to over-balance any increases which may have taken place in rentals, clothing and other groups.

End On Schedule

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5 (AP)—A tow Marshall-plan official said today that the general European recovery program "will end on schedule" in 1952 despite the plea of Western Europe that it cannot stand alone on its economic feet by that time. Richard M. Bissell, deputy assistant administrator of the Economic Co-operation administration, made the forecast at a press conference.

Killed In Palestine

VANCOUVER, Jan. 5 (CP)—Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Moster of Vancouver have been informed of the death Dec. 7 of their son, 24-year-old Major Ralph Moster, in a sky battle over the Negev desert in Palestine. Major Moster was in command of the Tel Aviv air group, defending the Jewish capital.

Dutch Commander Orders Cease-Fire On Sumatra

BATAVIA, Java, Jan 5 (AP)—The formal phase of the Netherlands military campaign to regain control of the Republic of Indonesia ended today.

Lt.-Gen. Simon Spoor, commander of Dutch forces in Indonesia, ordered a cease-fire on Sumatra at noon today.

He told his troops in an order of the day that their task hereafter would "be confined to action against roaming groups and gangs or individuals who try to cause disturbances."

The same terms were used in Spoor's order announcing that formal hostilities on Java had ended at midnight New Year's Eve.

The Netherlands had informed the United Nations Security Council Dec. 29 that it would stop fighting in Java on New Year's Eve and in Sumatra two or three days later.

Several delegates at that time said the Dutch statement represented defiance of the council's order for an immediate cease-fire in Indonesia.

The Sumatra cease-fire meant that, in the 17 days since the Netherlands began what it termed "police action" against the Indonesian Republic, Dutch forces had pentrated all major centres of Java and Sumatra. They hold key outposts on all points of the Islands, many of them linked by Netherlands-held communication lines.

The Netherlands now is faced with the problem of clearing up scattered units of the Republican army and combatting outbreaks of guerrilla activity.

From both Dutch and Republican reports it appears the initial Netherlands campaign on Sumatra met little more than the token resistance offered on Java.

Joins Army For Love

NEW YORK, Jan. 5 (AP).—Rolf Berndt, 33, has joined the army for love. He says he wants to be assigned to occupation duty in Germany, so he can be near his German fiancee, Doris Brigitte von Knobloch. Last October, the pretty, 22-year-old Doris tried to smuggle herself to the United States—and to Berndt—by hiding inside a packing case to be loaded on a plane going to the United States. She was discovered when she opened the lid for air.

Hungry Greeks Given Guns Instead Of Food

ATHENS, Jan. 5—(AP)—A dynamic course of military action to relieve a portion of the nearly 750,000 refugees who get 10 cents a day for subsistence has been recommended by the Greek minister of welfare.

To counter malnutrition and exposure, Constantine Karamanlis wants to give guns and ammunition to peasants driven from their homes by communist guerrillas so they can fight for their farms.

In a strong recommendation to the cabinet council, Karamanlis urged arming of 20,000 refugees at a cost of $800,000. He asked another $200,000 monthly to keep the counter-guerrilla force supplied.

Karamanlis' plan calls for the creation of "security centres" defended by the peasant army. This, he said, would allow 250,000 refugees to return to their homes and produce food for themselves and others. The plight of the refugees has been intensified by a particularly severe winter.

Official government figures disclose that 23,000 children are without shelter of any kind. Scores of deaths from exposure have been reported.

Each head of a family is given a daily allowance of 1,500 drachmai (15 cents), while all others get 1,000 drachmai and approximately one-third of a pound of flour.

Critizes Red Tape

Karamanlis said in his report $14 million was allocated for refugees reconstruction 6 months ago, but only $400,000 had been used. He insisted that welfare work be co-ordinated and red tape eliminated to get help so badly needed into motion.

The minister also pointed out that $26 million would have to be expended to care for the 750,000 refugees, one tenth of Greece's total population, by the end of the fiscal year. Only $6,800,000 was listed in the budget for that purpose.

Karamanlis argued that by arming the peasants a double purpose would be served. They would produce for themselves, he said, and at the same time sharply cut the number of forcible recruits seized by the communists. He estimated 70 per cent of communist replacements came from forcible recruiting by the guerrillas from undefended villages.

Suggest Compromise In Marshall Aid Plan

LONDON, Jan. 5—(Reuters)—British officials feel that by far the most important part of the Paris long-term European recovery program plan, published Tuesday, was its statement of action required to prevent crisis when Marshall-plan aid ends in 1952.

The national programs, as they stand, add up to an impossibility.

They put Western Europe's imports from the rest of the world in 1952-53 at $12,800,000,000 against earnings of $12,000,000,000, leaving an uncovered deficit of $800,000,000.

On present policies, Western Europe's earnings from the rest of the world would be only $9,-800,000,000, leaving an uncovered deficit of $3,000,000,000. Nearly all of this would be a dollar deficit.

The Paris report presents a compromise. It specifies drastic policy changes and suggests they will enable the Marshall-aid countries to afford 85 or 90 per cent of their scheduled imports and achieve a moderately improved standard of living by 1953.

700 Fight Flames, Save Village

Egg-Grading Factory, Three Buildings Lost In Sweeping Fire

WROXETER, Ont., Jan. 5. — (CP).—A huge, co-operative effort by 700 district volunteers and five municipal fire brigades combined early today to extinguished a $100,000 fire that destroyed four buildings and for a time threatened the main street of this village.

The fire-fighters outnumbered the population of 250 as they risked icy roads to attack the fiercely-spreading blaze which destroyed an egg-grading plant, two stores and a home before being contained.

No one in this Huron county centre 30 miles northeast of Goderich was injured. Two families were left homeless.

The hard-working firemen and volunteers saved two other stores, a garage and the telephone exchange, where Mrs. Harold Durst, the local operator, stayed at her post to spread the alarm until ordered out.

Fire trucks from Listowel, Wingham., Brussels, Teeswater and Harriston and an estimated 700 men streamed in from those centre as well as from Gorrie, Fordwich and Clifford, all within a 15-mile radius.

No Power For 2 Days

The blaze cut Hydro lines and officials said Wroxeter would be without power for at least 48 hours.

The blaze was whipped by high winds as it roared through Dobson's egg-grading plant, leaped to the home of Mrs. Bert Martin next door and then spread to Bentley's pool room and Van Velson's grocery store. All these buildings were lost and firemen concentrated on halting the spread to the rest of the block on the main street.

John Colwill and his wife, occupants of the Martin home, and Mrs. Rona Van Velson and her mother, living above the grocery store, were left homeless.

The fire was believed to have started from a short circuit in an electric refrigeration motor in the egg-grading plant.

Three Killed In Plane Crash

RIO DE JANEIRO, Jan. 5. — (Reuters).— Three persons are believed killed after a British York aircraft crash-landed at nearby Caravelos Bay early today.

There is no immediate official confirmation of casualties, but it is believed there are 11 survivors.

It is understood the plane, bound for Rio de Janeiro, carried 14 persons—nine passengers and a crew of five — when it was forced down between Bahia and Victoria.

(A British South American Airways spokesman in London said the plane "Star Venture" was believed to have 17 on board.

(When she left London she carried a crew of six and five passengers but she might have picked up more at stopping places — Lisbon, Dakar and Natal, Brazil. The spokesman added that all the crew, including two hostesses, were known to be safe.)

The National Telegraph reported later that 14 passengers and the crew were injured. The three burned bodies were reported recovered.

Killed By Explosion Inside His Own Body

BIRMINGHAM, England, Jan. 5.—(AP).—The coroner decided Tuesday that John P. Gibbons, 63, was killed by an explosion inside his body during an operation.

Coroner W. H. Davison said anaesthetic gas in the cavity left by removal of one lung was touched off by an electric needle in the hands of the surgeon. The blast which followed killed the patient.

He returned a verdict of "death by misadventure."

MARSHAL LI CHI-SHEN, chief political opponent of Chiang Kai-shek, is on his way to North China, presumably to discuss formation of a coalition government with the Communists. Li had been in Hong Kong, where he took refuge after breaking with Chiang.

Reds Rejecting Nationalist Peace Offers

SHANGHAI, Jan. 5 (AP) — The Communist New China News Agency today termed Chiang Kai-Shek's peace overtures a "nationalist delaying action" and said the Reds would fight on "to the finish."

The broadcast was picked up in Nanking by the newspaper Sin Wan Pao. No other source reported hearing the broadcast, first mention by the Yenan radio of Chiang's peace feeler of a few days ago.

No Communist official or organization was quoted by the news agency, which, presumably, made the statement on its own.

However, competent sources here and elsewhere took the broadcast to mean that both sides now may be entering into a favorite Chinese pastime—bargaining.

Many view Chiang's original terms in his year-end statement to be the government's first price. The Communists, they say, are reacting according to the best Chinese business tradition by showing no interest. They are in a position to do so, for they have the upper hand militarily. If such is the precedure, when Chiang gets down to his last price then a break may come.

Move To Formosa

NANKING, Jan. 5 (AP). — A Chinese source with connections close to the government said today Chiang Kai-Shek had ordered the removal of government records, property and personnel southward to Canton and Formosa.

This was taken as evidence by many that the Chinese President and government leaders did not expect a favorable reaction from his peace-on-his-own-terms proposal to the Communists.

Premier Sun Fo, presiding at a weekly Cabinet meeting, said the government had received no reaction from the Communists to peace proposals and was "quietly awaiting their consideration."

Taft-Hartley U.S. Labor Law Repeal Recommended To Congress By President

Asks More Power To Control Bank Credit And Regulate Speculation; Seeks Approval For St. Lawrence Project

By GEORGE RONALD

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5—(CP).—President Truman warned today that the United States "cannot escape the burden of creating and maintaining armed forces sufficient to deter aggression." That was the only reference in his state-of-the-union address to the 81st Congress to the military aid he is expected to urge for the non-Communist countries of western Europe. Details of his foreign-policy proposals will be revealed in a later message to another joint session of the Senate and the House of Representatives, probably within a week.

But he gave an indication of the seriousness he attaches to aggressive Russian tactics throughout the world:

"We stand at the opening of era which can mean either great achievement or terrible catastrophe for ourselves and all mankind.

"The strength of our nation must continue to be used in the interest of all our people rather than for the privileged few. It must continue to be used unselfishly in the struggle for world peace and the betterment of mankind the world over."

Urges Repeal of Law

As expected, the President urged repeal of the Taft-Hartley labor law and renewed his recommendation that Congress approve the St. Lawrence seaway and power project, a long-standing Canadian-American plan stymied for many years by opposition in the United States Senate.

Other domestic proposals made by Truman:

1. Stand-by authority to impose price ceilings on certain scarce commodities.
2. Extension and strengthening of rent controls.
3. Continuation of government power to control consumer credit and a boost in power to control bank credit.

Find Frozen Body Of Man In Cottage

TORONTO, Jan. 5 (CP) — The frozen body of Miles Redfern, 61-year-old Parks Department employee, was found in his suburban Long Branch home on Tuesday night by his 17-year-old son Jack and two other teenagers.

The boys broke into the four-room cottage, where Redfern lived alone because Jack said he was worried about his father. He hadn't heard from him for some time.

Police said the latest newspaper in the home was dated Dec. 28 and Redfern hadn't been seen by neighbors since that time. It is believed the man died of natural causes.

Expensive Food Subsidies Problem of 1949 Budget

By JAMES McCOOK

LONDON, Jan. 5—(CP)—Food subsidies that will cost the British taxpayer £500,000,000 ($2,000,000,000) in the present fiscal year are giving Sir Stafford Cripps, Chancellor of the Exchequer, a headache as he begins to prepare the 1949 budget.

These outlays to hold down living costs show a tendency—in the opinion of critics of the government—to run wild.

This year their total will be somewhere between £470,000,000 and £500,000,000 compared with £226,000,000 in 1945-46.

Even as subsidy costs rise, so do complaints from working people about high living costs which they say the Labor Government should reduce.

These complaints are not satisfied by the reply that if subsidies were removed, the price of a 3½ pound loaf of bread would rise 5¾d, flour by 13d for each seven pounds and butter by 15½d a pound.

The hope of the government is that the cost of subsidies will be reduced by the lower price of imported foods, but no general decline in these rates has been indicated.

Sir Stafford will face from opposition members a demand for a specific policy on the future use of subsidies. They will ask whether the government is to enjoy forever a blank cheque drawn on the taxpayer to meet the limitless subsidy requirements.

Beyond that he will be faced by growing public doubt, as indicated in letters to newspapers, as to whether subsidies actually are as useful as the government claims.

Norman Bower, Conservative member for Harrow, propounded this idea:

More food for Britain means more subsidies must be paid. This in turn means the hard-pressed British treasury must feel short rations is good economy. Thus unlimited subsidies in the ultimate might mean less food.

Russelle Appeal Being Heard By Judge Smoke

Hearing of an appeal by John Russelle against a conviction for selling gasoline during hours forbidden by a city bylaw opened today before Judge Sheldon L. Smoke. Russelle was fined in city police court after being found guilty by Magistrate W. R. Philp, KC, of violating the controversial Bylaw 4701. Further charges against Russelle and other gas retailers in the city have been adjourned to a later date, pending outcome of the Russelle appeal, regarded as a "test case" by both sides.

First witness today was City Clerk E. A. Outram, who was on the stand for more than two hours under questioning from Special Prosecutor Alex Elliott and Defence Counsel W. J. Arthur Fair.

His evidence, which had not concluded at noon, was a lengthy delving by both counsel into the legal processes by which Bylaw 4701—"a bylaw to regulate the hours of sale in gasoline retail outlets in the city of Peterborough"—came into being.

Petitions from station operators were received by Mr. Outram between May 13 and 28 in 1948, he said, asking that a bylaw regulating the hours of gas sale be passed by council. The petitions followed the form set out by Bylaw 3114, a 1934 regulation governing petitions to council.

Following that procedure, the clerk had a list of retail gas outlets prepared by the Chief Constable. On June 2, a public notice was published advising that the petitions and the list would be available for one week's inspection by the public. Objections were to be submitted within one week, the notice read. Among those examining lists and petitions was the accused Russelle, witness said.

On June 11, the clerk's report to the council was presented. Forty-seven names were listed as the city outlets, seven having been struck from the Chief's original list as not applicable. Signatures on the petition numbered 42, Mr. Outram said.

At a council meeting on June 21, Mr. Outram testified that the accused had addressed council opposing the bylaw and saying that he did not intend to observe its regulations if it were passed.

Food Poisoned At Reception

TORONTO, Jan. 5 (CP) — Toronto Health Department investigation into the food poisoning last week of 200 guests at a wedding reception here indicated today most every item on the menu was infected.

Dr. Gordon P. Jackson, medical officer of health, said today laboratory analysis indicated that every item of food on the wedding menu—catered by a private firm—was infected by staphyloceus aureus.

"This is the usual germ found in food poisoning cases and it is definitely of human origin, coming from an infected sore of the hands of a food handler or from a nose or throat infection."

The wholesale poisoning took place following the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Shapiro.

Dewey Scores Government On Power Ban

ALBANY, N.Y., Jan 5 (AP) — Governor Thomas E. Dewey hit the Truman administration again today for its refusal to permit New York State to build with Ontario the $400,000,000 St. Lawrence river power project.

In his annual prepared message to the state legislature, Dewey said the benefits of the proposed 2,200,000-horsepower hydro-electric development were being denied the people of the state "without valid reason."

Earlier this month, he called President Truman's administration "selfish" and "narrowly political" for rejecting New York's application.

The State sent its request to the United States State Department for transmittal to the International Joint Commission. The Commission must approve water projects affecting both the United States and Canada.

Rejected Application

Truman ordered the department to reject the State's application pending congressional action on the federal government's proposal to create a St. Lawrence project that would include both power and deepening of the river to permit its use by ocean freighters.

Dewey said in his message that "to each new session of Congress there has been presented a bill to make possible the development of the St. Lawrence. Conflicting interests have repeatedly made the passage of such a bill impossible.

The New York-Ontario proposal for power development had been approved by engineers, "yet the unbridled power of this great river still flows wastefully to the sea."

"But, meanwhile, the power can be developed without reference to the seaway and, let me emphasize, without impeding it when and if it is approved by the Congress," Dewey asserted.

Building Boom In 1948 Reaches Billion; $373,055,900 For Houses

TORONTO, Jan. 5—(CP).—Canada's house-hungry population, just becoming unsnarled in their tens of thousands from the groundswell of post-war material and shortages, have helped boom the construction industry to record-shattering levels. One authority last night put the total contracts awarded to the industry during 1948 as close to the billion-dollar mark.

The report followed word from the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation Monday night that soaring levels of building costs had started to level off and that the average time taken to build a house had dropped to seven months, compared with 11 months in 1946.

The cheering news to home builders was reflected in the estimate by MacLean Building Reports Ltd. that $954,082,400 worth of contracts went to the industry during last year. This compared with a total of $718,137,100 in 1947.

Of the 1948 total, the trade publication said that $373,055,900 were for residential construction —$342,000,000 for houses and $30,000,000 for apartments. This compared with residential contracts in 1947, estimated at $197,136,800 and with 1929, peak year of the building boom following the First World War, when they were $128,901,300.

The Central Mortgage report, in the latest issue of "Housing in Canada," a quarterly issued by the Corporation, noted that in the first nine months of last year there was a seven-per-cent increase in the combined index of wholesale building material prices and wake rates in the industry. For the same period of 1947 the jump was 17 per cent.

Johanna McManus Widely Mourned

Many friends from Toronto, Peterborough, Lakefield, Douro and Smith attended the funeral of the late Johanna McManus, wife of James McManus, Lakefield, held from the family residence on Monday, proceeding to St. Paul's church, Lakefield, where solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated by the Rev. Dr. V. J. Masterson.

Mrs. McManus was a highly respected resident of Lakefield and in her early years in the village took great interest in church work, where she was an active member of the Catholic Women's League and Altar Society. In later life, due to rather indifferent health, she lived primarily for her family. She was endowed with a bright, cheerful disposition and will be greatly missed in her own family circle.

The pallbearers were sons, Thomas, John, Leo, a grandson, John McManus, and sons-in-law, L. Picard and R. J. Leonard.

Rev. Ray Garvey of St. Peter's Cathedral, said the graveside prayers and burial was in St. Peter's cemetery.

Besides her husband, Mrs. McManus is survived by four sons, two daughters, eight grandchildren, two sisters and two brothers.

Car Skids On Ice Smashes Into Bridge

Grill, radiator and right front fender of a coupe were badly damager today when the car owned by Alan Spicer of Millbrook, skidded off No. 28 highway. The car came to rest with the radiator through the railing of the small bridge on the highway a half mile south of Kendry station. Icy highway was blamed for the mishap. Sand placed on the hills at this point had been coated with ice by the freezing rain which fell Wednesday morning.

Blame Icy Roads For Three Accidents

Three accidents within two hours early Tuesday evening happened on icy streets in the city.

A car-truck collision at the Water St. entrance to the Market Square took place about 5 p.m. Driver of the car was Charles S. Cummers, 571 Homewood Ave., and the truck driver was G. W. Thorn, RR 2, Millbrook. There was no damage to the truck. A crumpled fender, broken headlight and grill and damaged fender resulted to the Cummers car. PC Allan Edmison investigated.

The car of Harold L. Garner, 651 Weller St., and a taxi driven by Ronald W. Milligan, 696 Victory Crescent, were in collision at Monaghan Rd. and Weller St. shortly after six o'clock. Damage to the Garner car consisted of a crumpled fender, door pushed in and window glass broken. The taxi received a dented fender, broken headlight, bent bumper and grill and a sprung hood. PC Jack Morrow investigated.

About an hour later, three cars received slight damage in a collision at King and George Sts. The cars of J. H. Verner, 320 Boswell Ave., and William McIntyre, RR 8, Peterborough, collided at the intersection and one was pushed by the impact into the car of Frank Lynch, parked on King St. Damage was light to all three. PC M. D. Traynor investigated.

His Honor commented that Mr. McElderry had appeared before him on cases for more than 14 years and that "he is one of the most courteous and fair counsel I have known in my 30 years as a member of the bar and on the bench."

Alex Elliott, for the bar, said that Mr. McElderry "will long be remembered for his graciousness at all times."

To the new officer, Judge Smoke said: "My advice to you would be to follow the same manner with which Mr. McElderry has carried out his duties."

Mr. Bradshaw, who was congratulated by the bench and profession on his appointment, expressed his appreciation. He said that he hoped that he could "live up to the fine example which had been set."

Find Prices Fluctuate On Toronto Exchange

TORONTO, Jan. 5 — (CP). — Prices fluctuated in moderately active dealings here today. The golds slipped under selling pressure from yesterday's strong advances and base metals held firm. Industrials climbed ahead early in the session but showed signs of weakening. Western oils were inactive as the Exchange's suspension in trading of Home Oil shares yesterday, continued to stand.

The Exchange's one o'clock index showed industrials up .25 at 180.85, golds down .62 at 92.31, Base Metals up .04 at 105.05, Western oils down .08 at 56.06. Volume for the first three hours was 468,000 shares, about 27,000 shares more than yesterday's similar period.

Industrials were strong in early trading as key issues advanced fractionally. The group sagged in mid-session and the early activity slowed down. Canadian Locomotive climbed ⅝ to a new high at 34⅜, and a few utilities also brightened. Papers were firmer, while refining oils weakened.

Selling pressure was evident in a wide list of producing golds. Prices moved slightly lower from yesterday's strong gains and activity slowed to a crawl. Hosco attracted some attention in early dealings for a moderate advance following a report from the mine.

International Nickel and Noranda rose fractionally in base metals, and Normetal, Golden Manitou and Dureak were penny gainers. Labrador and Falconbridge dipped 10 cents.

4. Authority to regulate "speculation on the commodity exchanges."

5. Continuation of export control authority and provision of "adequate machinery" for its enforcement.

6. Authority to set priorities and allocations for scarce key materials.

Truman said the economic report he intends to submit to Congress will give detail for these recommendations.

Seeks More Taxes

He advocated tax legislation to add another $4,000,000,000 a year to government revenue.

This, he said, should come principally from additional corporate taxes. A portion should come from revised estate and gift taxes. Consideration also should be given to raising personal income tax rates in the middle and upper brackets.

Truman proposed that the old Wagner Labor Act be re-enacted to take the place of the Taft-Hartley law, bitterly opposed by organized labor. But there should be "certain improvements," he added.

"Jurisdictional strikes and unjustifiable secondary boycotts should be prohibited. The use of economic force to decide issues arising out of the interpretation of existing contracts should be prevented, and the use of economic force to decide issues prevented. Without endangering our democratic freedoms, means should be provided for settling or preventing strikes in vital industries which affect the public interest."

Truman recommended restoration of the reciprocal trade agreements act "to full effectiveness" and urged that it be extended for three years.

(The last Congress, controlled by the Republican party, set restrictions on the trade agreement act by extending it only for one year and stipulating that before the president could conclude a trade agreement with any country the Federal Tariff Commission must set a limit on the amount of tariff reduction permitted).

Worst Blizzard Abates In U.S.

CHICAGO, Jan. 5 — (AP) — The winter season's worst blizzard abated over parts of the western plains of the United States today, indicating some relief from the paralyzing effects of the three-day storm which has left thousands marooned.

The Dakotas and Western Nebraska still battled the storm. In Wyoming, Colorado, Kansas, Utah and Idaho the monumental job of digging out the huge drifts was started.

As the blizzard subsided, forecasters said the storm would blow out of the Dakotas and Nebraska within 24 hours.

Temperatures generally were above the zero mark over the snow- and wind-swept plains States. Forecasters said no severe cold blasts were in prospect immediately. The citrus belts of California and Arizona, meanwhile, had more sub-freezing weather today.

Trains also were stalled over the plains of Nebraska, Wyoming and the Dakotas. Snow plows were sent out to clear the blocked tracks. Travel in many areas was virtually impossible because of blocked highways. Planes were grounded. Schools remained closed in scores of communities and in nearly all rural areas. Many factories were idle and business in some towns was at a standstill. Communications were disrupted and scores of towns and villages were isolated.

Chinese Ambassador Observer At Parley

NANKING, Jan. 5 — (Reuters) —The Chinese government decided today to instruct its ambassador in New Delhi, Lo Chia-Luen, to attend the Indonesia conference called by India as an observer and not as a full representative.

Usually reliable sources said this unexpected decision was due to China's preoccupation with its own internal problems and the wish not to alienate the friendship of any of the four big powers, particularly France, which might eventually mediate in the China settlement.

Truman Renews Bid For Action On Seaway Plan

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5—(CP) —President Truman renewed today his bid for early action on the $950,000,000 combined St. Lawrence seaway and power project.

As he had promised publicly several times, he made that recommendation in his state-of-the-union speech to the 81st Congress.

Truman has made the same proposal before—so did Presidents Coolidge, Hoover and Franklin D. Roosevelt—but the long-standing Canadian-American project was shelved because of opposition in the United States Senate.

The President's reference today was short and to the point—a simple re-affirmation of his belief that Canada and the United States should do something about the gigantic proposal.

Power Shortage

His only other remark related to the seaway and hydro project was the statement that the United States is "acuely short of electric power, although means for developing such power are abundant."

The power phase of the St. Lawrence scheme calls for a 2,200,000-horsepower development at the international rapids near Cornwall, with the two countries sharing electricity energy output equally.

The huge project's chances in the United States Senate are considered improved this year—not so much because of the switch to Democratic control but more because of an apparent change of attitude on the part of business men who called the shots for seaway defeats in the past.

Discovery of high-grade iron ore in Labrador is cited by observers as a main reason for hopes that pro-seaway sentiment now may be predominant.

Canada's share in the cost of full development of the seaway which extends 2,350 miles from the Atlantic Ocean to the head of the Great Lakes, would be an estimated $360,000,000.

As it now stands with a 14-foot waterway long since considered obsolete, it carries more than half of Canada's waterborne commerce and one-quarter of that of the United States. Approximately one-third of the 10,000,000-horsepower Hydro-Electric potential has been harnessed.

"Only Crackpots Write To The Paper"

From time to time we meet people who buttonhole us and pour into our ear a tale of woe, a criticism of city affairs, a constructive suggestion about local politics, a first-rate idea about the Memorial Centre, or something of the sort—usually interesting and provocative of discussion. When this happens we always say, "Why don't you write a letter to The Examiner about it". And time after time we receive the astounding answer, "Oh, only crackpots write to the paper".

* * *

Of course that remark is nonsense. In the year 1948 we published The Examiner on 306 days, and in that time we published 321 letters. Of these we should say that not more than twenty were written by people who could reasonably be described as crackpots; the remainder were written by responsible and intelligent people on a variety of interesting subjects. Some of them were keenly critical of The Examiner. We do not mind. In fact, we rather like it. Tame newspapers and gelded cats are never criticized; if a newspaper has plenty of people angry with it, you may consider that it is in excellent spiritual health. The Examiner offers plenty of criticism of other people; we most certainly do not regard this newspaper as above criticism.

* * *

Canada, Ontario and — to get nearer home — Peterborough, is full of people with fuddy-duddy ideas about public behaviour; such people think that any public expression of a decided opinion is likely to hurt their social standing, or deprive them of a dollar's worth of business; it is such timid, repressed, fearful types as this who say "Only crackpots write to the paper". We suggest that it might be more truthful to say "Only crackpots don't write to the paper when they have something of public interest to say; only crackpots hug and stifle their opinions for fear that the possession of a definite opinion will do them harm; only crackpots are afraid to speak their minds".

* * *

Last year we published 321 letters; some which we received we could not publish, because it is our policy not to publish any letter unless we know the true name of the writer. This year we would like to publish double that number. We feel that our "Letters To The Editor" department offers our readers a forum for the discussion of all matters of public interest, and we should like to see the fullest use made of it.

Keeping Home The Bacon

There is some trepidation because an E.R.P. loan of $12,000,000 to Britain to buy Canadian bacon has been cancelled. It has been cancelled because Canada could not supply the bacon in 1949. We can regret losing the opportunity to lay hands on the twelve million American dollars, and perhaps that we did not have enough bacon left over after our own stomachs were filled. There is not, however, any need to cry havoc.

Canada did not have enough pork to meet all export demands because we ate more than we expected ourselves, and reduced our consumption of beef. It was a matter of an economic, not a digestive system. The American barriers against beef were lowered. The price was high in the U.S.A.; our packers shipped to the U.S. (for American dollars), our people switched to pork when beef prices in Canada responded to the high American price. Therefore, we did not send the extra $25,000,000 worth of bacon to the U.K., where Wiltshire Grade A fetched, according to prices fixed by the British, only 35 cents a pound (by the side).

During the war, and until subsidies and ceilings were discontinued, Canadian packers were given quotas: certain percentages of their products had to go to the export markets. Now there are no quotas. Farmers and packers can sell where the market is best (provided the market is open—it is closed in the U.S. to Canadian pork). The present export market price is about $1.85 a hundredweight lower than the domestic market — or about $2.40 a hog. Therefore, the packers are not feverishly attempting to sell to Britain. It will probably not be until next September that Canada again supplies Britain with vast quantities of bacon. Then our hog supply should be sufficiently large to make export profitable.

Canadians have generally a humanitarian desire to send food to Britain and Europe. There are others who fear that if we do not meet our export orders we shall lose the market. Britain herself is not unusually solicitous about Canada's markets, and her business men and government leaders have an understandable, hard-headed tendency to buy and sell in the best markets. Canadians need not hang their heads if they do the same. Britain is not, for instance, intent on buying her wheat only in Canada. She will buy it in Canada if she can do so on favourable terms. Only the other day British trade commissioners concluded an agreement with Soviet-dominated Poland to buy (on an exchange basis) $600,000,000 of Polish bacon and eggs. Poland is, of course, not a dollar country like Canada.

A Century As A Daily Paper

We offer our warmest congratulations to our contemporary, the Kingston Whig-Standard, which completed one hundred years of daily publication on January 1. The British Whig (which encompassed the Kingston Standard in 1925) was published semi-weekly from its founding in 1834 until January 1, 1849, when it became a daily. Its founder, Dr. Edward Barker, was a man of pugnacious and uncompromising temperament, and his vigorous editing made his paper a power in Upper Canada in his day. His successor, Mr. E. J. B. Pense, was a man of milder disposition, and during his time of guidance The Whig had a period of comparative quiet; under its present publisher the more uproarious days of the paper were recalled, and although The Whig enjoys periods of intermittent calm at present it still occasionally raises a very loud, very well-informed and intimidating voice on public questions. It is such papers that give meaning to that abused, slick phrase "the freedom of the press"; while such papers are published that battle-cry cannot be dishonoured by the news-hucksters and information tycoons.

There is only one older newspaper in Canada—the Montreal Gazette. When The Whig became a daily, conditions in the world were surprisingly like those which alarm us today. The first editorial in the daily Whig dealt with a revolution in Rome; for several years thereafter revolutions shook Europe until its whole political structure had been changed. The American Civil War, the Zulu War, the two Boer wars, two World Wars—these lie within the scope of the Whig's news and editorial columns. It is a proud record for a newspaper to have reported so much, and to have waxed in influence and honour as it did so.

As a comparative youngster among daily newspapers — we are just in our 63rd year — we salute this journalistic ancient, this Old Parr among Canadian newspapers, and wish it another century of golden days.

Ontario On Wheels

We have been reading some statistics which the Canadian Automobile Chamber of Commerce has obligingly provided for us. Of the 1,834,989 motor vehicles registered in Canada (more than one for every eight Canadians), Ontario has nearly half of them—796,947. Peterborough County has 11,732—of these 7,360 belong in the city itself. Of Peterborough city's vehicles, 6,476 are listed as passenger cars and only 884 are set down as "commercial vehicles". Of the 4,372 motor vehicles in the County (exclusive of the city), 809 are listed as commercial.

The city of Peterborough has (1947 figures) 3,815 more motor vehicles than Guelph; 3,718 more than St. Thomas; 2,733 more than Chatham; 1,036 more than Kingston; 355 more than Kitchener, and six more than Brantford. Judging by the number of motor vehicles, Peterborough is a busy place, even without tourist cars of which there were 2,967,148 wheeling around Ontario at some time or another during 1947.

From a government point of view, it is good that cars do not run on air. The Ontario Treasury was enriched by $47,420,015 collected from the eleven-cents-per-gallon tax on gasoline in 1947. The money it got from registration fees in that year has not been reported, but in 1946 it was $13,541,325.

When so many Ontario people can not only own but drive so many cars and pay so much in taxes for the privilege, we cannot help but think that economically Ontario is not a bad corner of the world in which to live.

CANADIAN CAUSERIE

Looking Ahead

By GEOFFREY VIVIEN

IF you find world prospects for 1949 rather depressing here is a good way to make things look brighter. Simply say to yourself: in fifty years' time people will talk about the present as "those good old days". Then ask yourself what they will find that was so good.

◆ ◆ ◆

WHAT are some of the answers? You might find one if you stood for a while on that historic rocky point where the Rideau River runs into the Ottawa. Behind you is the capital of Canada. Below, the river. Beyond, the paper works, church spires and the Gatineau hills. In fifty years' time there will be (if the rest of Canada is generous) a boulevard where the paper mill now stands, and this boulevard will wind along the Quebec river-front as far as the great horse-shoe of the Chaudiere falls, which for the first time in almost a hundred years will be revealed as one of the finest sights in Canada. Why then should the proud Ottawans of 2,000 A.D. be nostalgic about their rather ramshackle city of today? For much the same reasons that a Londoner is nostalgic looking at a print of the city in, say, Elizabethan times. How close the green countryside comes down to the very heart of things! There in the midst of fields the Globe Theatre stands, its gay flag fluttering in the breeze, telling all that Shakespeare and company are playing. It is a drab and battered slum today. Over the river fluffy trees give pleasant shade where now the huge buildings of high finance shut out the daylight. On the left, Hampstead is a grassy height deep in the country.

◆ ◆ ◆

SO in Ottawa today. At Nepean Point, within a stone's throw of the seat of Government, you look out over green fields and multitudes of trees. True, there is no Globe Theatre (the nearest approach to it is the round gasoline tank near the jetty); and maybe there is no Shakespeare in the offing. But the scene is a delightful one, and if I had the money I would commission an artist to do me a series of engravings of Ottawa "in the 50's". Almost I can hear my grandson proudly showing them off: "Yes, quaint old place, wasn't it? Look—green fields where now we have the Ministry of Though-Correction and Alignment. Ah, the good old days!"

◆ ◆ ◆

ANOTHER blessing of today is the comparatively good eyesight we still enjoy. Fifty years of television will have altered the focussing capacity of the human eye to such an extent that there will be few people without glasses. And musicianship, which up till now has been at a premium since the musician is judged by the music he gives to the ear, will go down when he has constantly to remember what kind of picture he is giving to the eye. And what will it do to our politicians when they need grease-paint for their most important appearances? (People will no longer go to meetings, but meetings will come to people.) It would not be so forbidding a prospect if our House of Commons was filled with striking and agreeable profiles. But it is not and is not likely to be. These things do not change. "There is hardly a single person" wrote Oscar Wilde nearly fifty years ago of the English law-makers, "in the House of Commons worth painting, though many of them would be the better for a little whitewashing."

◆ ◆ ◆

THEN, take book-production. It is customary in Canada today to lament the small size of our annual output. But if the next fifty years are going to bring us an expansion on the American pattern now book-lovers will sigh for these days when it is possible (with a little effort) to read everything of note that Canadian publishers put out. Perhaps fifty years is not long enough for the Canadian reading public to bring about such a revolution. Yet it happened in about that time in England. Writing of his early days in English publishing Grant Richards observed: "Every book that was published from September 1, 1888 to December 31st, 1898, passed through my hands and I opened every one." Set against this the enraged cry of an American confronted with the ten thousand books of last year: "Good God, how many dungboats full of fruitless works do they yearly foist upon us!" H'mmm. A slight slip has crept in there; the exclamation comes from the year 1632 when the total of entries at Stationers' Hall in London reached a new high of 109 volumes.

◆ ◆ ◆

SO we have quite a bit to be thankful for. From now on life will become more and more difficult as more ingenious devices are invented to make it easier. Things will move faster and fall to bits sooner. Houses will be lighter, cleaner, more sensible — and much harder to make friends with. Families will be smaller and universities larger. Sport will be more of an industry and industry more of a gamble. For those who like things brand new Tomorrow will be fine. But there's a lot to be said for old things; even the dark old Today.

How To Raise Children

It is no reflection on psychiatry that some of its leading men occasionally question basic precepts of that science. Take the case of the well-known Montreal psychiatrist who had been looking thoughtfully over his own exproved rules. One failing he discovered proved rulues. One failing he discovered was that he was not spending enough time with his children. (Children, of course, gain in security and in mental well-being, from close and friendly association with their parents.—precept 91738KLX).

Seeking to remedy his shortcoming, the psychiatrist made a point, on the first Saturday afternoon, of digging his old skates out of the cupboard, borrowing a hockey stick and taking to the ice with his 11-year-old boy.

The reason he tends to query the value of precept 91738KLX is that his son's first backcheck sent him sprawling, and broke his left ankle.—The Printed Word.

FAIR PRICES FOR HOCKEY GAMES

Sir: I note with disgust the prices to be charged for local hockey games this season.

I understand a meeting was called for the setting of prices, each OHA club of this city had a representative present with the arena committee and it was tentatively agreed that the admission charge would be 75c and $1 for Senior "B" games and 50c and 75c for Junior games. I understand the above was set without too much opposition from any of the clubs present, but when the P.H.C. representative reported back to his club, there was immediate disapproval, the P.H.C. players and executive alike felt the prices should have been 50c and 75c for O.H.A. Senior "B" games. The boys of the P.H.C. felt the working people's donations helped in no small way to put the rink there and they should be allowed to see the games at a fair price.

To the person who asked through your column who was responsible for the high prices of admission, I might say that there are a large number of people feel the same way he does, judging by the number of people that have stopped me on the street and elsewhere, knowing I was a member of the Peterborough Hockey Club and they criticized our club for raising the prices.

It has come out that the "Petes" executive called the rink committee to a special meeting on Dec. 28th or 29th for the sole purpose of presenting our views in regard to the 75c and $1 admission.

Our executive member who was present pressed for the 50c and 75c price and he has since stated that there is only one Senior "B" club responsible for the high prices and it is not the Senior "B" Petes.

In closing I would like to say that having been a player for the "Petes" for 11 or 12 years, I have found our executive members through the years good sound men, who have had some good teams, bringing two championships and (a lot of good will and good publicity for our fair city in our travels to all sections of Southern Ontario).

The feeling of the players on our club is that the fans are paying a good price at 50c and 75c and I think that the club that is so loud in their demands for the high prices, want to get wise to themselves and come back to earth and remember that we have to work and live with our fellow man, and if their good sponsor is getting tired of dipping down to pay the players their ten a game I think they would be wise to cut the ante per player to $5.00 a game and let the public see the games at a fair price. Trusting above will help clear the air. I am,

Sincerely,
ONE OF THE PETES.

WHAT MARGARINE MEANS TO ONE FAMILY

Sir: We have heard the other side of the story. Now I think it is time we heard the working man's side. So here's hoping other papers will copy this and let us get up there in front for a while.

I am a returned soldier with a wife and three small children. We could not find a decent place to live in our wage bracket. We bought a house on a small down payment. We have had a lot of unforeseen expense.

If it had not been for the Peterborough Canadian Legion the last two Christmases would have been blank for us. This year we were passed by. We did not feel hurt as there are others more needy than we.

We buy five of the most needed items of groceries per week, with two dollars worth of cheap meat. Which has to be divided into 35 meals. Just try it!

The point I want to bring out is the week we buy butter we do without our meat ration.

The difference between the price of margarine and butter would buy our meat for the week.

A SOLDIER.

BETTER FIRE INSPECTION NEEDED

Sir: Businessmen are discussing the efficiency of the inspection staff of the Fire Department critically.

The Kresge building caused serious damage. The building, I am informed, did not have a sprinkler system and the basement was packed with inflammable merchandise.

Eye-witnesses of the Windsor Hotel fire say the water trickled through the nozzles because hydrants were frozen. One property-owner suggested that the Council let the firemen go until spring and lock up the Firehall until the spring thaw melts the ice in the hydrants.

What the 1949 Chairman of the Fire, Water and Light Committee should do is to call a meeting of his committee and have an inquiry made into what inspection took place of the Kresge building before the fire, and when the hydrants were tested before the Windsor Hotel fire, and how many hydrants are insulated to prevent freezing.

Reporting to the Fire-Marshal after a fire is not as important as preventive action before the fire. Many of these old buildings in the business section are far from fireproof so if the hydrants in the city are frozen, we had better insure to the limit.

Yours truly,
G. N. GORDON.

ARENA PRICES OUTRAGEOUS

Sir: Just a tip of the hat to M.J.M. for his article on the outrageous admission price for the games at the Civic Arena this season.

The City of Peterborough is humiliated enough to have to call it an arena, after seeing the Memorial Centre that Sault Ste. Marie has built, and other centres in Ontario, mostly smaller than Peterborough. Or do they plan on having that much higher brand of hockey that we used to see at the old Brock Street Rink.

We know the seating capacity is real small, but why take it out on so few.

Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

And he came out, and went, as he was wont, to the mount of Olives: and his disciples also followed him. And when he was at the place, he said unto them, Pray that ye enter not into temptation....

And while he yet spake, behold a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Jesus to kiss him. But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss? (Luke 22: 39, 40, 47, 48.)

And the whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pilate....And they were instant with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified. And the voices of them and of the chief priests prevailed....

And when they were come to the place, which is called Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left. Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them: for they know not what they do. (Luke 23: 1, 23, 33, 34.)

Now when Jesus was risen early the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magadlene, out of whom he had cast seven devils....Afterward he appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen.

And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved. (Mark 16: 9, 14-16.)

Prevention?

Down in Illinois, a man convicted of drunken driving is suing his city's police department for $10,000 damages to his car and his "morale", occasioned by the manner of his arrest.

He claims he was drunk, in a service station, when two policemen came along. But they let him get in his car and drive away, then followed him and cut the squad car in front of him to stop him—a procedure which apparently was effective but untidy in its result.

There is room here for a rousing argument. What should police policy be — to forestall drunken driving whenever possible, or to give the drunken driver enough rope to hang himself, to catch him red-handed and make his punishment a salutary example for all potential drunken drivers?—Sault Ste. Marie Star.

Seven-Pound Baby Surprise To Parents Mother Thought She Suffered From Cold

DETROIT, Jan. 5. (CP)—The Detroit News, in a front page story today, gave the following account of a births.

Mrs. Rose Bennick left her work in the Aronsson Printing Co. last Friday afternoon because she did not feel well. She went to her home where her husband, Felix, a machinist, diagnosed her trouble s a cold that had settled in her back. He recommended a hot bath and bed.

His diagnosis, however, was wrong. She gave birth to a seven-pound daughter.

The story of a wife who did not know she was to be a mother is an amazing one and one that created a furore in the neighborhood. Not only was the child a complete surprise to both parents but it was born without the assistance of a physician and without a layette or other preparations that generally greets a new-born baby.

"I had no idea I was to be a mother," said Mrs. Bennick. "I worked right up to a few hours before she was born. My husband and I have been married nine years and have never had a child. We had all but given up hope of ever having one.

"I am 39 years old and a little heavy. I weigh 145 pounds and am rather short. It was not until a few minutes before birth that I realized what was taking place. Because of my weight none of the neighbors dreamed I was to be a mother nor did my fellow employees at the printing plant."

Stock Exchange, Company In Disagreement

By FORBES RHUDE

TORONTO, Jan. 5 (CP)—Home Oil Co. Ltd., and the Toronto Stock Exchange today remained in disagreement, the company claiming it is acting in the best interests of its shareholders and the Exchange taking about the opposite view.

Meantime trading in Home's shares is suspended in Toronto, starting Tuesday, but continues for the time being at least in Montreal, Vancouver and Calgary.

The chief issue is the company's plan to give shareholders the opportunity to buy extra shares, but without giving them the privilege of selling this right to someone else if they don't wish to buy themselves.

Exchange by-laws provide in such instances for selling the "rights to buy" and ordinarily these are bought and sold like a stock issue itself.

Can Buy Extra Share

In the present instance Home is allowing each shareholder of Dec. 30 to buy one extra share for every eight shares he holds. They would get the new shares at $9, well below the current market value of Home, which is about $13 and was up to $14.25 Monday.

The Exchange also claims lack of notice, as provided for in by-laws, of the date of record, and that traders subsequent to Dec. 30 haven't known whether or not rights were included in their purchases.

Home apparently decided last Dec. 14 to stand by its plan and accept delistment if necessary.

The Exchange termed the suspension as "pending clarification of the offering," and said no indication had been received from the company as to wether or not the proposal to shareholders would be in assignable form.

Don't Provide Heat 35 Landlords Fined

NEW YORK, Jan. 5—(AP)—Some 35 New York landlords Tuesday were fined a total of $2,000 for failing to provide their tenants with heat—although one allegedly provided warm Christmas greetings.

Among those fined $150, Mrs. Rose Beebe pleaded guilty to failure to heat an apartment house.

But she denied testimony that she had posted this notice:

"For the next three days, over the holidays, there will be no heat furnished. Merry Christmas to all."

Fines ranged from $50 to $150. Almost 500 tenants appeared to testify. The Health department said it had received a total of 52,000 complaints since October.

Toronto Meteors, led by Bill Thoms, open the OHA senior "B" schedule here tonight at nine bells in Civic Arena. The powerful Meteors are pretty much the pick of Toronto senior "B" players, and include a number of former pros. They're in fine condition now. The Legionnaires, group champs a year ago, beat them 4-2 in a hot exhibition up Lindsay way recently and hope to repeat before a big home crowd. But it'll be a sizzler, no doubt. Legion lineup includes: Ross Nicholls, Johnny Godfrey, Ned Vitarelli, Doug Mortimer, Jim Conlin, Nick Humulka (Port Arthur), Ralph Hamilton (Havelock), Joe Rochetta, Bob and Toodie Greenlaw, Bill Crowley, Dootch Vitarelli, Bob Parnell, Reg Stewart (Smith Falls), Joe Merpaw (Cornwall) and Bert Hill (Port Arthur). Place ought to be packed for this one!

* * * * * *

There's a real scarcity of good hockey referees all down the line. From the NHL down through the OHA and into local and district minor loops. Plenty of good former puckists here and even chaps who still play hockey should be available, but they're not. The ability to skate well is needed, plus knowledge of rules and the courage to call plays promptly as seen. And appearance helps, too. We used to have lots around this neck of the woods but where are they now? Pat Calladine, Herb Payne, Jim Ellis, Gamey Jarvis —just to name a few. The pay is generally good and the hours short, you know.

They Traded Towns

A clipping to hand: "Three men have been indefinitely suspended from the Akron Americans' hockey club, following Sunday's disastrous defeat by Toledo. They are Earl McCrone, Arnold Dugan and Fred Mortimer. The trio went home for the Christmas holidays and failed to return in time for Sunday's game." Yeah, they missed their return train in Toronto and arrived back a day late—after getting permission to go home for Christmas, Dugan and Mortimer of course to Peterborough. Red Creighton tells us that Arn and Freddy didn't take kindly to this suspension and pulled up stakes at Akron. They're playing now for Lake Placid.

Public School League hockey schedules are in tonight, junior and senior. They open on Jan. 10, next Monday, in senior and Jan. 11 in junior. Latter is split into north and south sections as the school setup is enlarged. Seven outdoor rinks used for games from four to six p.m. Monday through Thursday. 'Tis hoped to have the playoffs in the Civic Arena the week of Feb. 14. Teachers do the coaching of these young puckists and make a fine job of it every winter. They also act as referees at games not concerning their teams. This is the youngest organized hockey league in the city.

Just A Few Errors

Chap named Gordon Campbell came down from the Toronto Star the other night for the OHA junior "B" opener in the new Civic Arena and wrote some stuff on it. Had, his facts a little mixed, though. Said "for the first time in 10 years, Peterborough's 104 hockey teams have a rink of their own" and mentioned a sellout crowd of 2,500 for the junior game. We had the Brock St. rink here up to seven years ago and there aren't 104 teams in the city. The opening crowd was less than 1,200—let alone 2,500. And he speaks of the minor local teams last year playing at Lindsay and Omemee 11 miles north. They didn't play in either place, but at Lakefield. Certainly the other places are more than 11 miles from here. Nor will our Memorial Centre cost some $750,000 and be built in about two years. A few corrections.

In the PMHA last evening, St. Peter's bantams won 9-1 from Trojans at Riverside, southend bantams blanked the northerners 10-0 at Civic Arena, where St. Peter's midgets won 6-0 from Trojans, and the juvenile Trojans took East City 6-2. Following the bantam game down south, Don Grant—coach of the northern team—lost a pair of wine-colored hockey gloves. The finder might contact us. More coaches are needed yet as there are plenty of boys waiting to play. Following games are listed for Thursday p.m. at the arena, Arnold Olmstead advises: St. Peter's bantams vs. Trojans at six, southend midgets vs. St. Peter's at seven, and St. Peter's juves vs. the Legion Trojans at eight, with northend bantams vs. Marines at seven in Riverside. The St. Peter's midget and juvenile drills tonight are cancelled.

In The Merry TVL

Norwood and Frankford went to a 4-all draw to open their Trent Valley League hockey schedule, while the Lakefield-Warkworth game was postponed. Tilts tonight are: Warkworth at Campbellford, Hastings at Lakefield, Marmora at Madoc, Stirling at Norwood, and Frankford at Tweed. At Lakefield tonight, it'll mark the opening of their new arena. Joe Blewett is playing for 'em this semester in the TVL and should be a big help to that club. The Friday eve frays are: Norwood at Warkworth, Stirling at Campbellford, Madoc at Lakefield, Tweed at Hastings, and Marmora at Frankford.

Charges Leafs Turned Off Freezing System

MONTREAL, Jan. 5.—(CP)—While Montreal sports writers were having a field day over last Saturday's rough and tough hockey battle at Toronto, with its injuries, suspensions and fines, General Manager Frank Selke of Montreal Canadiens Tuesday levelled an unheralded charge at the Leafs:

"They turned off the freezing system under part of the ice surface and left it watered for the third period."

Selke said that from the blue line to the goal at which Canadiens were shooting there was a generous sheet of water, "and it was about hopeless for use to score through it." Leafs won the game 5-3.

"It's an old trick," said Selke. "Now just as soon as Conn Smythe (Leafs' general manager) goes to Florida for a holiday they drag out that stunt.

At Toronto Doug Morris, building superintendent at the Gardens, said that the cause of the water refusing to freeze had been traced to a blast of hot air coming down and hitting the ice surface—"something that never happened before."

Canadiens Get First

The Trojan Pee Wee League opened last night at Turner Park. Canadiens played the Maple Leafs in a hard-fought battle. The boys looked promising for the first hockey game this year. The Leafs took an early lead, but Canadiens came from behind to win to 5 to 3. All the boys worked hard. Peel scored twice for Leafs and Douglas one Stewart getting the assist. Heffernan and Johnston scored twice for Canadiens and Curtis once.

Line ups:

Canadiens—Goal, Carver; defence, Forestell and Orr; centre, Heffernan; wings, Johnston and Curtis; alternates, Evans, K. Dunn, T. O'Keefe; Clarke, Griffiths, D. Dunn.

Maple Leafs—Goal, Parker; defence, Lesurf and Buyers; centre, Peel; wings, Douglas and Mill; alternates, Stewart, Daly, Buyers, Jim Johnston.

George Masters handled the game in a very satisfactory manner and only had to hand out one minor penalty.

WEATHER FORECAST

The tree toad's "call" is generally regarded as a prophecy of rain. There is some truth in this, because warm, moist air, which usually precedes rain, release the male toad's mating urge, so he "sings."

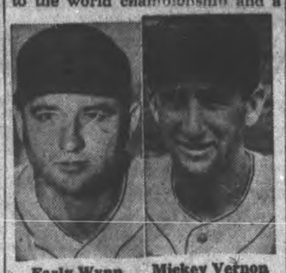
Lou Boudreau Must Repeat To Convince Owner Veeck

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

CHICAGO (NEA).—Lou Boudreau says he has had satisfactory talks and may have reached an agreement with Bill Veeck.

"I expect to be in Cleveland Jan. 18," asserts the American League's most valuable player. "I think Bill and I will discuss it further at that time."

So Owner Veeck is expected to finally get around to giving the Illinois alumnus a new contract as a reward for shortstopping, batting and managing the Tribe to the world championship and a record 2,620,627 paid admissions at home.



Early Wynn Mickey Vernon

Meanwhile, President Veeck isn't making M'sieur Boudreau's 1949 assignment any easier by predicting that the Injuns will repeat by 10 games.

Natural Assumption

Generally, it is a natural assumption that a winner will duplicate its performance.

And Veeck's activities in the trading mart have established the Indians as an overwhelming favorite next season.

First baseman Mickey Vernon, acquired from the Senators, gives the Tribe needed infield speed. He led the American League batting the Washington club into the first division in 1946 with .353.

Early Wynn, who comes with him, is a strapping right-hander who bagged 17 games with a seventh-place outfit in '47.

Both wanted to escape from Griffith Stadium, are expected to bounce back.

Risky Business

Pegging any club as a shoo-in before a game has been played is risky business, as has been proved many times in the past.

Boudreau, Joe Gordon, Ken Keltner, Jim Hegan, Dale Mitchell and Bob Lemon enjoyed the greatest season of their careers last year.

Freshmen Gene Bearden and and Larry Doby stuck out like Citation's popped osselet, yet the Redskins finished the regular season in a tie with the Red Sox.

They were in and out of first place no fewer than eight times.

With the Yankees running hard, too, the slightest nudge would have knocked them out of the jackpot.

There is no assurance that Boudreau, Gordon and Keltner, each one year older, will give the club a reorder.

Insteps and Ankles

There is always the danger of the matchless Boudreau's highly-vulnerable insteps and ankles —badly damaged playing basketball —going back on him.

Like the Cardinals' Slats Marion, this remarkable infielder is practically a permanent hospital patient. Before each game he spends 30 minutes or more wrapping yards of tape around his feet and ankles.

And what is to prevent Bearden and Doby from becoming victims of the celebrated so-called second-year jinx?

Like the horse you bet on at the track, the Indians have to run around there — through a 154-game schedule. That's why they play it.

And Lou Boudreau will pack a lot of weight all the way along the route, with Tieless Veeck still not convinced that he is a good manager.

St. Peter's Victors Against Trojan AC

St. Peter's bntams opened their PMHA season at Civic Arena last night with a 9-1 victory over the Trojans. They swept to a 5-0 lead in the first fraime on two goals by Corkery, one each by Legrow, Cupoli and Griffin, with the latter having two assists, Ferren two and Cupoli one. Pearson added two markers for them next heat, as Pagett got Trojans' lone counter. Corkery and Lefevre finished the sniping in the third, with Ferren, Legrow and Griffin each earning an assist. The winners drew six of the 10 penalties.

Teams:

St. Peter's: Goal, O'Brien; defence, Cupoli and Legrow; centre, Lefevre; wings, Griffin and Corkery; alternates, Foley, Hickey, Pearson, Cody, Ferren, Galvin and Sullivan.

Trojans: Goal, Marchen; defence, Lundy and Bloom; centre, Clark; wings, Pagett and Herbison; alternates, Stewart, Merrett, Callen, Carveth, Hunt.

Referee, T. Giardino.

All Saints Winners

All Saints juveniles of the Church Hockey League won 4-2 from Keene at King Edward rink to open their schedule. They had a slight edge toward the end of a hard-fought fray with both goalies on the jump. Don Foster, Gord Mongraw, Bob Freeman and Art Millar sparked the winners' attack. Tempers flared occasionally but the refereeing was good. Whalen and Cruikshank of Keene and Freeman of All Saints scored in the first frame, with Beggs getting two in the second and Mongraw one for All Saints. Teams:

Keene—Goal, Nelson; defence, McIven, Kemp; centre, Whalen; wings, Walton, Cruikshank; alternates, Mathers, Davidson, McInter.

All Saints: Goal, Webb; defence, Millar, Spargo; centre, Mongraw; wings, Freeman, Foster; alternates, Hurrle, O'Connor, Rye, Campbell, Beggs, Chambers.

Trojan AC Notes

The Trojan bantam puck loop is due to open tonight at eight with Rangers playing Canadiens. Coach Fred Herbison will pick the Rangers, assisted by Jerry Pagett, from the following J. Stewart, R. Herbison, G. Pagett, N. Clark, T. Krogh, J. Adamson, G. Franks, R. McIntosh and A. Smith. Canadiens, coached by L. Abraham and Bud Webb, consists of: P. Carveth, Dick Foley, K. Saunders, F. Doris, A. Cautious Batting Puts England In Clear

CAPE TOWN, Jan. 5 (Reuters) —More cautious batting today carried England to comparative safety on the fourth and last day of the third cricket test match with South Africa.

At the luncheon interval England was 165 for three in the second innings and led by 117 runs.

Len Hutton, who made 87, did most of the early scoring with Jack Crapp, out in the last over before lunch for 54, filling a defensive role. They made 134 for the second wicket.

Betting Big Business

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—(AP).—Racing attendance and betting in the United States showed another decline in 1948, but don't feel too sorry for the horse tracks and the state treasuries—it's still a billion dollar a year business.

The betting total last year was more than a billion dollars for the fifth season in a row, hitting $1,558,491,430. Only two years saw a bigger play at the mutuel windows—1946 with $1,830,387,455, and 1947 with $1,680,815,373.

Tigers Down Mercurys 5-3 Marlboros Upset Rockets

By The Canadian Press

The veteran Hamilton Tigers aren't finding things too easy this season—but they're still getting a share of the wins.

The Bengals downed Owen Sound Mercurys 5-3 in a senior A Ontario Hockey Association game Tuesday night. It was the first victory in their last four games.

Eastern Canada finalists last season when they pulled a surprising upset over the youthful Toronto Marlboros, the Tabbies just flinch when age is mentioned.

Icing such notables as Art Childs, Clare Shillington and Johnny Conick, the Tigers ran their total of wins to 14, against 12 losses and a tie.

Conick and Shillington are one-two in the individual scoring race. Johnny's one goal and two assists Tuesday night gave him 41 points, one ahead of Shillington.

In a Junior A game Tuesday night, Toronto Marlboros upset the last-place Galt Rockets 6-1. The win left Toronto in seventh place in the nine-team loop.

Take Lead

The Bengals grabbed a 2-0 lead in the first period, held a 3-1 margin at the end of the second and then split two goals in the final frame.

Loose defensive work in the early minutes cost the Mercurys two goals as Conick and Shillington scored.

Shillington accounted for two goals as did teammate Tommy Smelle. Pat McCreavy got two counters for Owen Sound. The other went to Doug Gillespie.

The Dukes overcame a 1-0 deficit at the end of the first period to score twice in the second and four in the third period. Johnny McKennell and Neil Grenke each tallied twice for Toronto. Other marksmen were Bobby Hassard and Larry Regan. Bronco Horvath got the only goal for Galt.

Three Junior A games are slated for tonight. Toronto St. Michael's College Majors meet Oshawa Generals, Barrie Flyers clash with Guelph Biltmores and Stratford Kroehlers play the Windsor Spitfires.

Montreal Echoes Boucher's Roughness Cry

By PIERRE DUBOIS
Canadian Press Staff Writer

You can't blame former coach Frank Boucher if he's laughing out loud in his upstairs office within the New York Rangers' setup at tangible signs today that maybe he had something after all when he scored roughhouse tactics in the National Hockey League.

Boucher, a gentleman in hockey if there ever was one drew little sympathy around the NHL circuit after his many protests, most of which were directed at those big bullies, the Toronto Maple Leafs. In fact all it got the Manhattan blue shirts was the nickname: "cry babies."

Undoubtedly Boucher now finds even more comfort in the fact that Montreal Canadiens, never known to harbor panty-waists themselves, have taken up his cry against Coach Hap Day's gashouse gang. In Montreal the question that has arisen is: "Whither professional hockey if roughhouse tactics aren't curbed?"

The lamentations in Montreal have been going on ever since New Year's when Les Canadiens lost 5-3 in Toronto and returned home nursing an assortment of bruises, cuts and what-have-you.

Change In Policy

Meanwhile the once-labelled "cry babies" of the NHL showed robust signs in New York last Sunday of a change in policy under their new coach, Lynn Patrick. They exchanged bump for bump with the Leafs and boosted their season penalty time by almost 30 minutes. What's more they won the game, but in the process lost the services of defenceman Ed Slowinski for two weeks. He suffered a cut foot.

Whether that display of ruggedness marks the end of gentlemanly play by New York might further be indicated tonight when the Rangers are at home to Chicago's goal-hungry Black Hawks. In the only other game of the night the Boston Bruins invade Toronto.

The combination of a Boston victory over Toronto and a win for New York would lift the Blue Shirts out of the cellar for the first time this season.

The Stanley Cup champions face the possibility of being dumped into the basement while the Bruins will be all out to climb back into a tie for first place with Detroit Red Wings.

College Captain Reports Bribe Offers

NEW YORK, Jan. 5 (AP) — Four men were arrested on a bribery charge yesterday after a college basketball player told authorities they tried to get him to "fix" a game.

District Attorney Frank S. Hogan said the arrests Tuesday night, following four months' investigation by New York City detectives, came after David Shapiro of Brooklyn, co-captain of George Washington University's cage squad, had reported the bribe offer to him.

Hogan praised Shapiro, a 25-year-old student who had won four battle stars in the war, for his courage and honesty in working with the District Attorney's office until the arrests were made.

Charged with violation of a section of the penal law covering bribery of participants in amateur sports, and with conspiracy, were:

Joseph Aronowitz, 35, a cloth cutter, of Brooklyn; Philip Klein, 34, a linotype operator, also of Brooklyn; Jack Levy, 40, of Miami; and William Rivlin, 43, of New York.

Hogan said Shapiro told him that the four men had offered him $1,000 to make certain his team lost to Manhattan College at Madison Square Garden Tuesday night by a lopsided score.

Manhattan, an early 7½-point favorite, rose to a 13-point favorite before game time. Shapiro—who, incidentally, was injured Monday while driving from Washington to New York—didn't score a point in the game and fouled out on five personals.

Immediately after the game, won by George Washington 71-63, in a surprise, Shapiro was whisked away to the District Attorney's office for the ppurpose of identifying the arrested men.

ORIGIN OF DOUKHOBOR

The name Doukhobor means "spirit fighter" and was applied to the sect by orthodox priests with the implication that they warred against the spirit of God.

Here and There in Sport

Mickey Owen, the Brooklyn Dodger catcher who was tossed out of organized baseball for signing with the Mexican League, may wind up as coach of Galt Terriers of the Senior Intercounty Amateur League, it was reported Tuesday. Owen, sitting out his five-year suspension on a farm near Springfield, Mo., is reported to be interested in the offer. The deal, however, may not be approved by the Ontario Baseball Association which has working agreement with the American Legion Junior Baseball Association not to use players suspended for playing in Jorge Pascal's American League.

Heavyweight champion Joe Louis Tuesday sued Look magazine for $500,000, alleging he was libelled in the current issue by statements about his financial condition. His counsel, Truman K. Gibson, Jr., at Chicago said Louis declared he was not interviewed by any representative of the magazine before the article was published and that no interviews were given by his manager or the treasurer of Joe Louis Enterprises.

St. Hyacinthe Flyers officially withdrew from the Junior Amateur Hockey Association Tuesday night after reporting to the league officials at Montreal they were unable to continue to a $7,000 deficit.

A roster of at least 35 players will go south for spring training with Toronto Maple Leafs of the International Baseball League, club officials said Tuesday at Toronto. Del Bissonette, Leafs' new manager, has 17 pitchers, two catchers, five outfielders and 11 infielders, including Skeeter Webb, veteran infielder, who will help on the coaching chore. The training opens at Fort Lauderdale, Fla., on March 15.

The International Baseball League will begin its 66th season April 21, with four "Northern" teams opening in the southernmost cities as usual. The official schedule released Tuesday from league headquarters in New York shows the champion Montreal Royals opening at Baltimore, Rochester at Jersey City, Toronto at Newark, and Buffalo at Syracuse.

Plans for the biggest winter carnival in Ottawa's history were completed Tuesday by Ottawa's Junior Board of Trade, its sponsors. The week-long winter event, to start February 11, will include such features as the Central Canada ski championships, Central Canada bonspiel, and the Canadian figure skating championships.

Dr. Max Euwe, former world chess champion from Holland, defeated 35 or 42 opponents in an exhibition of simultaneous chess games before a gallery of more than 300 at Montreal Tuesday night. The expert lost three games and drew four in the 5½-hour display.

General Manager Frank Selke of Montreal Canadiens announced Tuesday that he is trying to get defenceman Jim McPherson of Edmonton Flyers for Thursday night's hockey league game against Chicago Black Hawks. The necessary procedure has been set in motion to have the husky, 21-year-old Edmonton player fly East and play in three games on the lend-lease basis applicable to amateurs.

Walter Lathers of Detroit said Tuesday at Toronto the group now negotiating for permission to build a $1,000,000 race track in suburban Thornhill, are all Canadians. Previous reports said Mr. Lathers headed a United States syndicate. He declined to name his Canadian associates until after their request is considered Friday by the Ontario Municipal Board. The track will be equipped with floodlights for the harness races only, Lathers said.

Recall Ceresino On Driving Count

TORONTO, Jan. 5.—(CP).—Coach Hap Day of Toronto Maple Leafs said Tuesday he hadn't known Ray Ceresino was facing a careless driving charge when he ordered the 19-year-old Port Arthur winger to Leafs farm club, Pittsburgh Hornets.

Ceresino was sent back to American Hockey League Club by the National Hockey League coach Monday night. Tuesday he failed to appear in court on the charge and a warrant was ordered for the arrest. Bail of $100 was forfeited.

"He's down there to play hockey," said Day. "I understand it won't be necessary for him to appear.

When J. K. Bower appeared for the absent player Tuesday, he told Magistrate J. L. Prentice that Ceresino was ordered to board the 8 p.m. train for Pittsburgh "or else."

"Well, we told him to be here, or else," retorted the magistrate, refusing a request that the case be heard in absentia.

Brower said in an interview Tuesday night Ceresino was expected back soon and that the warrant would be held and served upon his entry to Canada.

"Oh, my—I gotta have a talk with my coach," said Ceresino, in a telephone interview last night from Pittsburgh. He said he had understood he wouldn't have to show up in court.

VOL. XCVIII, No. 3 — WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 5, 1949

39 Days Of Zero Weather Registered In '48 Coldest Day Was Feb. 10 With 28 Below

Comparison of the weather records for the past two years recalls that 1949 marked up 39 days below zero as against 26 under that shivery level in 1947. The snows and chills of yesteryear are soon forgotten.

The tabulation received from James Harrison of the waterworks department will refresh memories of the peaks and dips through those years.

Maximum temperature in 1948 was 96 degrees on Aug. 25-26, toward the end of summer and Exhibition time; and the minimum was 28 degrees below zero on Feb. 10. And as mentioned above there were 39 days of subzero weather last year including the 14 below on Sunday, Dec. 26. The average mean for the year was 43.24 degrees.

Snow fall last year was 53½ inches, rainfall 20.89 inches; total moisture 26.14 inches.

Turning back to 1947, the maximum temperature was 92 degrees on Aug. 12, and the coldest day was Jan. 19 with 19 below. The mercury dropped below the zero mark on 26 days. Average mean temperature was 42.8 degrees.

Snowfall in 1947 was 85¼ inches; rain 20.53, total moisture 30.05 inches.

Mr. Harrison also provides comparison of the last month of the two years.

In December 1948; the maximum temperatures was a grateful 53 degrees on the 4th; the coldest day was Dec. 26 with 14 below zero; the average mean 26.2 degrees.

Snowfall last month was 12¾ inches, rain .49 inches; total precipitation 1.765 inches.

For Dec. 1947 the corresponding figures were: Maximum temperature 44 deg. on Dec. 3; minimum 8 below zero on the 19th; average mean temperature 19.4 degrees.

Snowfall 14¼ in., rain .63 in. total precipitation 2.05 in.

Labor Council Will Fight Raiding By Steel Workers

Allied Labor Council on Tuesday night condemned action of the United Steel Workers of America (CIO-CCL) who have distributed leaflets calling on Outboard Marine workers to affiliate with them.

Letters will be sent to Pat Conroy, secretary of the CCL, and C. H. Millard, national director of the USWA, requesting that the Steelworkers cease their present move to organize at the Outboard plant.

In his motion that letters should be dispatched to Messrs. Conroy and Millard, James Southgate said they should be informed "that the policy of steel is a raiding policy, and such acts do not conform with the statements of Mr. Millard in a recent letter to the Labor Council."

This motion followed the reading of a letter from John Rowley, UE district organizer, who stated the policy of the USWA was "a most serious threat to the trade union movement in Peterborough and to the continued success of this Council."

He outlined the history of the UE's attempt to become the accredited bargaining agent at Outboard Marine and called the attention of the members to the fact that the Allied Labor Council had given its "full support" to the UE.

Despite the fact that the Ontario Labor Relations Board has recently dismissed a UE petition, the union has not abandoned its original purpose, he said.

Raiding Started

"In spite of this," said Mr. Rowley, "the Steelworkers' Union has openly commenced raiding at the Outboard plant. They have issued leaflets calling upon the company union to affiliate with their union."

He then asked that letters be sent to the Canadian Congress of Labor and the USWA "demanding an immediate withdrawal."

"Yes, but who asked steel in?" questioned Gerald Anderson.

"The company union," replied President Alfred Barber.

"Well, that's because they don't agree with the UE's politics," said Mr. Anderson. "Until we can prove that steel is organizing the Outboard plant I move that it be tabled."

"It's too serious a matter to be tabled," said Mr. Southgate.

"This is the second plant in the last few months where the USWA has raided a plant in the UE," commented C. R. Sullivan. "The steelworkers and the CCL are fully aware of the situation here."

"Steel can't come in until 10 months are up," said Mr. Rowley. "They can only disorganize the union. It can do no good, but it can do a lot of harm."

Has Not Appeared

President Barber stated that in a recent letter Mr. Millard said he would send his representative, Mr. Fenwick, to see him before organizing activities were commenced in Peterborough.

"He hasn't done this," comimented Mr. Barber.

Council then unanimously approved a motion by P. Knibbs and P. Doherty that a letter be written to the Ontario minister of labor requesting an investigation into the situation at Outboard Marine.

A letter was received from D. Drummond, president of Local 527 in reply to a request that he apologize or substantiate a recent criticism of Jack Morton.

On the night that Labor nominations for the City Council were being proposed Mr. Drummond said that he and his local would not support any slate that included the name of Mr. Morton.

Charges Conspiracy

He charged that the former president of Local 524 was one of a group that tried to dissolve the Allied Labor Council early last year and affiliate it with a CCL group that would automatically exclude AFL delegates.

This was denied by several members of Local 524 who stated that Mr. Morton was not on the executive when the resolution was passed at an executive meeting.

Mr. Drummond apologized for bringing the matter up at a Labor Council meeting but said he believed his original statement was true.

"We in 527 were told about a proposal to break up the Council and give the money to the Worker's Educational Association," said Mr. Drummond. We condemned it and voted against it but Local 524 Executive Board passed a resolution that would throw all the AFL delegates out of the Council which meant also smashing the Allied Labor Council. We in 527 didn't think this was right. We still don't think it was right and we know that the people who passed this motion were all friends of Morton. They are always together on any moves they make and whether Morton was holding office or not at the time, I say he was and still is in on every move this group makes."

"The letter was completely unsatisfactory; it was not to the point at all," said Mr. Doherty. "He's trying to get away with slanderous remarks."

"The only reason he made those remarks was to stop Morton being elected," said William Triggs.

A motion was then passed that the matter be brought up at the next meeting as a special order of business, and that Mr. Drummond should attend.

City Hall Plan Reviewed; Report Progress

Mr. John G. Hungerford, assistant general manager of the National Trust Company, executor of the will of the late W. G. Morrow, was a luncheon guest of the Council at the Empress Tuesday. With him were the members of the advisory committee designated in Mr. Morrow's last testament: Judge S. L. Smoke, James Hamilton, G. Harry Thompson and Mayor Swanston.

Also present were representatives of the Toronto architectural firm of Marani and Morris. They were Mr. F. H. Marani, J. A. Robertson and M. F. Allan.

Ald. Hugh Waddell was chairman of the discussion period, and subsequently Mr. Hungerford spent some time in conference with the advisory committee.

It was reported recently that National Trust Company has expressed its approval of the course the Council has been taking in its preliminary decision as to site of the proposed city hall which is to be built with the large bequest by the late Mr. Morrow. The amount now available is in excess of $500,000.

Mr. Ronald Winter of Hamilton was also guest of the city. The Council last year decided to obtain his advice from his long experience as head of the department of public works, of the Dominion Government, in this province. H eis now retired.

It is understood that National Trust have been quite in agreement with the Council's careful procedure, and that they are favorably impressed by the detail of engaging the services of Mr. Winter. Arrangements have been made for obtaining possession of the properties in the George, McDonnel, Water and Murray streets block by February, 1950. And possession means occupation, if the Council is then ready to move in.

The next step in the progress of the first phase of the city hall project is the commissioning of architects. The firm of Marani and Morris have been highly recommended to the Council. They have not yet been engaged, but their representatives listened to the discussion. No details have yet been proposed. Decisions have first to be made regarding the departmental content of the city hall, the accommodation it is to provide. For instance, the special committee, headed by Ald. Waddell, will enquire from the Utilities Commission whether they wish to be provided with space for their future requirements.

Ald. Arthur Burrows mentioned an earlier proposal that the funds for the city hall might be sufficient to include a public auditorium. One of the bits of approximate information was that, if the building were to be constructed of stone, the cost would be increased about 25 per cent. The Court House and several of Peterborough's churches that were erected 100 years or more ago present the appearance of permanence that tends to recommend stone.

Ald. Grant Miller remarked that if the funds are found to be sufficient for the use of stone, when the planning arrives at that stage, he preferred that material to brick.

The dinner meeting concluded with a general agreement of the approach which the Council of last year began in definite steps of progress.

FOUR AT MEETING

Four ratepayers attended the inaugural meeting of Oshawa city council. Mayor Michael Starr mentioned as projects for the year, maybe, the building of sewage disposal plant, plans of which are in the city engineer's hands; a new city hall; a paving program, and removal of the rails of the Oshawa Railway Company.

SALVATION ARMY MAJOR the Rev. Charles Watt addresses the congregation of the new United Chnrch in the south end of the city at tonight's Week of Prayer service there. The church is located on the corner of Monaghan and Arndon Sts.

IS SANDMAN

A Peterborough Bus Lines driver had difficulty climbing Reid Street hill today. The road was covered with a blanket of ice. He had to use the sand which he uses ordinary for the bus steps, to make the grade.

MEET ON THURSDAY

Peterborough Public Library Board meeting will be held in the board room at the library on Thursday evening at 7.30. The financial statement for 1948 will be the main item up for discussion.

A POWER BRIEF

Peterborough's use of electricity Tuesday was 260,000 kilowatt hours. Up at that level the Utilities Commission begin to worry about the public exceeding the Hydro quota. The metering on Monday showed 248,000 kwh, and that was with the flat-rate water heaters cut off.

SAWDUST BURNS

Firemen were called to extinguish a fire which broke out in the sawdust bin of the Peterborough Canoe Co., Monaghan Rd. on Tuesday afternoon. A spark from a nearby boiler is believed to have caused the brief blaze. No damage was reported. Shortly before 9 p.m. they went to the home of W. Murney, Dalhousie St. where a chimney fire was reported.

BANKER'S HEADACHE

A visitor to the Sales and Ad dinner before Christmas received a small tin bank as a gift. He had a note to meet at the bank Jan. 3, so stowed every quarter he had into the bank. Last Monday he walked into a downtown bank, used the key provided to open the tin bank and poured $42 worth of quarters out on the counter. With that amount he added a $10 bill covering the balance and interest. The bank clerk waded into the quarters, probably praying at the same time that other people won't adopt that method of paying their notes. What if it had been $200.

Natural Growth In City 1,128; List 503 Deaths

Peterborough's natural increase in population last year was 1,128. It was the difference between the 1,631 births and the 503 deaths.

The corresponding increase for the last three years was 3,230, the difference between 4,622 births and 1,392 deaths.

The vital statistics, including marriages, reported from City Clerk Outram's office, were:

	1946	1947	1948
Births	1404	1587	1631
Deaths	414	475	503
Marriages	500	488	447

The number of marriages in the three years was 1,434.

The totals for December were: Births 114, deaths 38, marriages 36; and for December, 1947, births 124, deaths 41, marriages 35.

The differences for those two months, separated by a year, were —10 fewer births in the month just passed, three fewer deaths, and one more marriage.

The monthly record for 1948 was as follows:

	Births	Deaths	Marriages
Jan.	132	52	21
Feb.	121	45	29
March ..	135	38	25
April ...	166	60	30
May	140	49	44
June ...	129	43	54
July	126	42	64
Aug.	145	36	27
Sept. ...	140	27	48
Oct.	133	43	43
Nov.	150	30	36
Dec.	114	38	36
	1631	503	447

July displaced June as the month of the most marriages last year, with September in third place. Probably this is largely accounted for by the effect and convenience of the new industrial holiday period beginning toward the end of July and extending beyond Civic Holiday.

April's 30 days last year headed both the vital and mortal listing with 166 births and 60 deaths. The springtime of the year brought a surge of new life, but in the same vernal season death took its largest monthly toll.

TOO YOUNG TO RETIRE

South Monaghan electors do not expect their popular ex-reeve to stay long in retirement. He is Jay Whittington, age 33, who has been in municipal politics for the past nine years. He was acclaimed a councillor for five consecutive terms, then was elected reeve by acclamation for four terms in succession. He entered township politics when he was 24, and this year refused to stand for re-election.

REV. IVAN C. MORGAN, minister of Murray St. Baptist Church, preaches this evening at St. Mark's United Church, as part of the Week of Prayer being held in Peterborough churches.

Prices Of Milk, Cream Are Up In City

Peterborough housewives paid eighteen cents, an increase of one cent for their milk and extra for cream today. The city comes under the ruling of the arbitration board which allowed an increase in price of dairy products to start today.

The increase is on quarts of milk only; pints are not affected and still sell for 10 cents. A quart of whipping cream now costs $1.30 instead of $1 and a half a pint is 35 cents instead of 30. A quart of table cream has risen 17 cents to 85 and a five cent increase puts half a pint up to 25 cents. Skimmed milk is up three cents to 13 a quart. Buttermilk, which used to cost 10 cents, is now 13 and chocolate milk is up 1 cent to 19.

Those who prefer Jersey milk have to pay 19½ cents a quart.

The boost was a direct result of a decision made by an arbitration board dealing with the price of milk to local producers. They were recently granted a basic rate of $4 per hundredweight for blended milk. The price paid previously was $3.90.

COLD NO HINDRANCE

Despite the fact that Chemong Lake is frozen over, work on the causeway is continuing at a satisfactory pace. The fill is weighty enough that it breaks the ice as it is dumped into the lake.

Billy, 14-Year-Old Buck, Dies Of Old Age Was Father Of 14 Fawns During Lifetime

It is not an uncommon thing when humans are subjected to extreme grief that they take to their beds. And it is also possible that animals experience the same emotions, for Benny, the zoo bear, crawled into his dark pile of hay yesterday afternoon for a long sleep. His pal, Billy, the 14-year-old buck deer, was dead.

For the first time in his pleasant confined life Billy got out of his hillside pen just before Christmas and strolled about the grounds and cages one night to pass the word along to his caged friends of the wilds that his days were numbered. He finished his wanderings at keeper Jim Harrison's back door about midnight, and after a feed of apples followed Jim back to his cage.

On Monday noon he came stiffly down the hill for his feed of timothy hay, and at nightfall one of the animal keepers found him lying stiff and cold in the deer shelter.

Those who know the little pen at the bottom of the hill adorned with Billy's shed antlers have studied the dated collection of horns with interest. The prongs for 1948 were nailed into their allotted place after he had shed them a few weeks ago for the last time.

In 1939, when only a few months old, Billy was made an orphan of the wilds when a hunter shot his mother. The hunter sent word to game authorities who arranged with Jim Harrison to find Billy a home at the newly-created Filtration Zoo. He was carried in a crate, given a pen and grew to adulthood, and stayed within the wire fencing for 14 years. His one and only tour on the outside was the one as a fawn.

Betty, his 12-year-old mate, showed no signs of grief at his passing. They had grown old together and raised 14 offspring, half of them bucks and the rest does. By circumstance of a wire pen he was a faithful husband and father, but ordinarily his kind fight for females of their choice in the wilds, often to death. Billy was a favorite with the keepers; he was easy to handle and friendly until two years ago when he became crochety with old age. According to the human life span his age equalled 70 years, and an old man has a right to be cranky if he feels like it.

The body was hauled away by the park grounds tractor and given a decent burial just north of the new wildbird pens. Although a wild thing by nature, he took to a confined life graciously and will be missed by his keepers and the public alike.

Unfortunately his passing will leave a large gap in zoo's propagation program, and unless some other zoo will supply a young buck and doe, not related, the deer attraction will be missing for some time to come.

Examiner Presents In Recital Agnes Logan Green Over CHEX

The Peterborough Examiner has again arranged to present Agnes Logan Green in a series of musical programs over the air. This is the fourth year this accomplished Peterborough pianist will perform to an ever-increasing audience of those interested in good music.

A new type of series for Mrs. Green, and one which is not often broadcast, is in store for her listeners. It is designed to show the development of keyboard music from the time of Bach, 1704, to the present day. In each of six of the eight programs she will interpret the work of one composer. Numbers selected are familiar compositions, also works less often performed on the air including Brahms' "Great Variations in Fugue" on a theme by Handel, and the "Symphonic Etudes" of Schumann. Each of these takes about one quarter hour to play.

Commencing Monday evening, January 10 at 9.00 o'clock weekly half-hour programs will feature Bach, Mozart, Beethoven, Brahms, Chopin and Schumann. On February 21 her music will illustrate the work of Debussy and Ravel, and the concluding broadcast on February 28 will bring the series into modern times with music of contemporary British composers.

To be heard in the first program are Bach compositions, "Italian Concerto," "Prelude in Fugue" in B flat minor, Book One, and "French Suite" in G Major, No. 5.

Community Chest Budget Set At $82,000 For 1949 Agencies Boost Demands

A tentative figure of $82,000 has been set for this year's Peterborough Red Cross and Community Fund, it was decided on Tuesday afternoon at a meeting of the board of directors. This is an increase of $12,000 over last year. Beginning Friday, Feb. 25, an intensive campaign will get under way to meet this budget. Purpose of the Red Cross and Community Fund is to make a single concerted drive to finance the various charitable institutions and other community organizations, thus eliminating individual soliciting.

In 1948, 11 organizations received $70,705 from the Community Fund to carry on their work. This year nearly all of them have asked for more money to cover increased costs and new projects.

Three new organizations have also applied for grants from the Fund: House of Providence, Anson House and United Emergency Relief Fund for Britain.

The House of Providence asked for $3,500 because it claimed that its tax agreement with the city no longer permitted it to continue without outside aid. And Anson House asked for $2,000 because it too was unable to operate on its old budget.

A special committee was formed to investigate these two applications and bring back a report at the next meeting of the board of directors.

Request Rejected

The application signed by Fred Mann on behalf of the UEFB was for $2,000 from the Fund's surplus. This was unanimously turned down by the directors on the grounds that a request for money from an organization such as the UEFB does not come within the scope of the Community Fund.

Beneficiaries of the Fund in 1948 were: St. Vincent's Orphanage, $3,500; Salvation Army, $4,625; YMCA, $12,230; YWCA, $12,230; Canadian National Institute for the Blind, $3,500; Peterborough Humane Society, $350; Victorian Order of Nurses, $4,500; Navy League of Canada, $2,000; Children's Aid Society, $7,500; Canadian Red Cross Society, $15,000, and Ontario Cancer Fund, $7,500 This made a total of $70,705.

Other expenditures, including advertising, supplies, postage, salaries, rent and sundries amounted to $2,849.02.

Two items — advertising at $812.72 and salaries at $850—came in for some criticism from the board members as being too high and the suggestion was made that these be slashed.

Another economy measure announced by the chairman, Ross Dobbin, was that there would be only one dinner this year instead of at both the beginning and the end. A special speaker has been promised for the event.

In 1948 $10,000 was taken from the reserve fund, reducing it to $15,000. This together with a bank balance of $2,978.86 leaves the audited account with a total balance of $17,978.86.

Ian McRae said he thought the present campaign figure should be high enough to cover the whole cost of the year's expenditures. He stated that the reserve was being slowly cut down and instead it should be maintained to draw upon in lean years.

Motor Traffic Slowed Up, Busses Delayed

Freezing rain started before daybreak today slowed morning traffic to a crawl on city streets and highways throughout the county. City bus lines added equipment to take care of the slowdown during the early rush-to-work hour and drivers found the going very treacherous. Fletcher Bus Lines of Keene took one-half hour to travel from Water and Charlotte Sts., to Western Ave.

City transports report some delays on incoming trips from Belleville and Toronto but none have had accidents. Most equipment rolled into the city before the storm and the only delay experienced by firms was in city pick-ups and deliveries.

Highway bus lines were subject to the longest delays. Ferguson Coach lines were 1½ hours behind schedule on their Peterborough - Lakefield route and Colonial Coach cancelled their 7.45 a.m. outbound trip to Lindsay altogether. By noon their coach from Trenton was already one hour late.

Judging from the lack of private cars on the main street, most drivers used good judgment in leaving their vehicles at home. This situation taxed bus and coach lines but prevented many accidents.

Getting Good Support

Peterborough people are giving vigorous and whole-hearted support to the Little Theatre presentation "The Taming of the Shrew". Up to noon today more than 1,200 reserved seat tickets had been picked up at the Library. Officials report the sale of tickets as brisk, and shows no falling off.

DUST OFF CREEPERS

Sleet this morning, coating surfaces with hazard, called for hunting out the creepers from their safe storage of last spring, and also a sharpening of the caulks to ensure a sound and secure grip on things underfoot. They were in a box with the almost forgotten earmuffs, an omen of what may be in January store.

French Railways Engaged On Ambitious 15-Year Plan

By EDWIN HOOKER

PARIS, Jan. 5—(Reuters).—French railways, carrying far heavier traffic than before the war, are engaged in an ambitious program of reconstruction, modernization and general improvement. Latest traffic figures available for 1947 show that the railways carried 20.5 per cent. more passengers and 6.2 per cent. more goods than in 1938—and carried them further.

Passenger miles were up by 42.3 per cent. on 1938 and ton-miles by 39.7 per cent., although there were 30 per cent. fewer cars to carry the load.

That is the measure of the task accomplished by French railwaymen, engineers and the management of the state-owned system since the liberation, when, of the 26,399 miles of France's railway network, only about 10,800 miles were usable—and those were split up into isolated sections.

System working

Practically the whole system was working again by May 1, 1946. By July 1, 1948, 2,491 bridges and viaducts had been rebuilt out of 2,603 destroyed, 67 out of 70 blocked tunnels had been cleared and tracks relaid and signalling restored.

Looting and destruction had reduced the number of steam locomotives from 17,068 in 1939 to 10,500 — only 3,000 in running order — in September, 1944. Usable freight cars totalled 172,000 compared with 478,000 before the war and passenger vehicles 7,800 compared with 37,700.

Destruction of such key installations as freight yards and repair shops was so complete that in many cases it was found easier to start at the beginning and build from new plans than to try to repair what was left.

The railways seized this opportunity to go ahead with far-reaching changes. The whole plan will take 15 years to complete; but most of it will be finished in 10 years, starting from 1945.

Win Small Skirmish

OTTAWA, Jan. 5 — (CP). — Seven provinces, opposing railway freight-rate increases Tuesday won a preliminary skirmish in advance of the main battle over a new 20 per cent rate hoist. They gained from the Board of Transport Commissioners an order compelling the Canadian Pacific Railway to furnish certain financial information for the case. The CPR opposed the move.

Italians Interested

OTTAWA, Jan. 5 — (CP). — Italy has expressed keen interest in sending more immigrants to Canada but has not yet made formal representations to have their entry facilitated, informed sources said Tuesday. In the Dominion, Italians now are admitted only under the sponsorship of relatives already here or under work contracts with industrial firms.

PECULIAR PALS—Close friends are Gus, 65-pound Boxer pup, and Joe, two-ounce delicately-hued budgerigar. For hours at a time the two play tag or romp about the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter McCullough of Hamilton. When the bird gets tired he hops on the dog's back. Here Joe teases Gus by pecking his nose, not that Gus seems to mind.

NURSES DISMISSED—Two Canadian nurses of King Edward VII Memorial Hospital, Hamilton, have been dismissed as a "matter of principle" for overstaying leave after a naval party. The two nurses, Velma Stewart, right, of Galt and Rita Sylvester, left of Penoka, Alta., have returned to Canada and now are in Galt.

Blunt Anti-Dutch Policy Makes Australians Uneasy

SYDNEY, Australia, Jan. 5—(CP).—A lot of Australians are uneasy about their government's outspoken anti-Dutch policy in the Indonesian dispute. The correspondence columns of newspapers are full of letters protesting against Col. W. R. Hodgson's "outbursts" in the United Nations Security Council against the Netherlands since the start of the Dutch 'punitive campaign' against the Indonesian republicans.

Editorial columns carry almost daily attacks on the government for its stand.

Government critics feel the policy is embittering the only white people among the billion-odd Asiatics now only a few hours flying time away from Australia.

With less than 8,000,000 people to back her "white-Australia" policy, the critics believe that if the Netherlands is forced out of Indonesia the security of Australia will be jeopardized.

See Last Outpost

With all whites driven out of Asia and its southern approaches, many Australians believe they will be manning the last outpost of the western race in the greater southeast Asian area.

The government's indecision on whether to accept an invitattion from the Indian premier, Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, for Australia to attend a proposed Pan-Asian conference on the Indonesian question has also been attacked.

(Nehru last Saturday invited Turkey, Egypt, Syria, Lebanon, Arabia, Iran, Iraq, Afghanistan, Pakistan, Ceylon, Siam, Burma and China to meet at New Delhi to discuss the problems of Indonesia. The invitation later was sent to Australia.)

"Will you walk into my parlor . . . "asks today's Sydney Morning Herald in an editorial stating the purpose of Nehru's conference is to establish a Pan-Asian diplomatic bloc in support of the Indonesian Republicans.

Police Academy Plan Introduced

LONDON, Ont., Jan. 5.—(CP).—The first step in a province-wide plan for a police academy for instruction of all police officers will be taken here this month when an Ontario Municipal Police School opens at the University of Western Ontario.

At the same time, similar schools will be opened in Kitchener, Windsor, Toronto and Fort William.

Suggestion for the schools came from the Ontario Attorney General's Department. The eventual plan is an academy where all men wishing to make law enforcement their vocation will graduate before joining any municipal police force.

London's school will open Jan. 17 with members of the local police department, magistrates, the Crown Attorney and others as instructors. Twenty-four subjects will be covered in the six-weeks course and the candidates will be given certificates of qualification.

Cost of the school will be borne by the municipal departments sending men to the school.

The school here will have a potential enrolment of about 250 officers from five counties in this Western Ontario district.

Caucus To Set Legislature Date

WINNIPEG, Jan. 5 (CP) — Manitoba's coalition cabinet turned over selection of a date for the legislature opening to a causus of government supporters today amid predictions that the new session would be short.

Cabinet memebrs conferred on Tuesday, after which it was announced that the caucus would be held Monday to select the opening date and to discuss proposed legislation. Government sources considered it likely that the session, fourth of the 22nd legislature, would start Jan. 31.

Premier Campbell said new legislation appeared to be "light" although unforeseen matters might crop up.

The coalition is made up of Liberal-Progressives and Progressive Conservatives and receives the support of two Social Credit members.

Standing in the legislature is: Liberal-Progressives 26; Progressive Conservatives 14; Social Credit 2; CCF 10; Independents 3; total 55.

Premier Campbell said it was likely a money bill to meet costs of hydro development at Pine Falls, estimated at $15,000,000 to $20,000,000, would be introduced.

Six of 1948 County Council Not Members of '49 Council

There will be four newcomers to the Peterborough County Council this year as well as two former councillors returning. Those who have not previously been on the Council are Ross Barrons, reeve of Belmont-Methuen; Glenn Nichols, reeve of Chandos; Gale Elliott, reeve of Harvey; and Richard Stewart, deputy-reeve of Otonabee.

Rork Ferguson, who on Monday defeated W. E. Packenham for the reeveship of Norwood will be one of the experienced members returning to the county body, and Harry Reid, a former deputy-reeve, now reeve of Otonabee, will be the other.

Mr. Barrons, who is from Cordova Mines, was a township councillor last year, but this year he made a successful bid for the reeveship of Belmont-Methuen by decisively defeating the veteran, WW. E. Griffiths.

New Chandos Reeve

Glen Nichols of Chandos is also a former councillor who succeeds Albert Hall, reeve of the township for the past six years. Mr. Hall did not stand for re-election this year.

The third newcomer is Gale Elliott, the new reeve of Harvey township. He edged Charles Flynn in as an exciting election battle that brought out the largest vote in many years.

Both the reeve and deputy reeve of Otonabee will be new men to their respective offices this year. While Mr. Reid has held the deputy post before he has never occupied the chair of reeve, and Mr. Stewart is about to serve his first term.

Otonabee also had a heavy vote this years as Mr. Reid and the 1948 reeve, W. W. Dawson, fought it out for the leadership in a controversial campaign.

In 1948 Reeve Dawson edged out Mr. Reid by 13 votes, but this year the table were turned and the latter won by 133 votes.

Mr. Stewart, who defeated Percy Davidson by 231 votes succeeds to the post vacated by Harry McIntyre, last year's deputy reeve, who retired due to the press of personal business.

The only reeve to successfully withstand a competing candidate this year was E. J. Leeson of Havelock. He defeated his last year's opponent, Fred Pollock, by 48 votes.

Given Acclamations

Veteran county councillors who were returned by acclamation were James Humphries, Asphodel, 1948 warden, his fifth year; James Gifford of Enismore, starting his 16th term, and Melville Johnston of North Monaghan, his 10th term.

Ross Harrison of Smith is starting his first full term as reeve after succeeding to that office after the death of Gilbert McIlmoyle in the spring of 1948. Previously he had been deputy-reeve for a year. He and Robert Tully, on his first full term deputy-reeve were returned by acclamation. The reeve of Smith will in 1949 have two vote, as there are more than 2,000 voters in the township.

Others returned by acclamation were William Darling of Dummer beginning his fifth term; James Mahoney of Douro, a former warden of the county and reeve of the township since 1941 Norman Wilson of Burleigh-Anstruther, his fifth term; and also Peter Pearson of Galway-Cavendish, a fifth term.

William C. Grant, reeve of Lakefield, will be attending his fourth statutory meeting of the council when it meets on Jan. 10. Last year he was one of the nominees for warden.

Who will succeed Mr. Humphries as warden for 1949 will not be known until the first meeting of the council.

Sets Forth Obligations

With Mrs. E. Wand, presided Tuesday afternoon at the first meeting of George St. United Church WA. Mrs. George Monroe's group was in charge of devotions and scripture and prayer was taken by Mrs. S. Wildman. The Rev. Dr. James Semple extended the right hand of fellowship to all officers as they were installed for the year. In addressing the meeting he set forth the vital obligations of WA work which should be an inspiration to all workers to strive for the most successful year yet. Annual reports were received.

Mink Coat Cost Is Cut in Half

Anyone with $4,000 or $5,000 to spare can get a fine bargain in mink coats, say mink breeders.

W. H. Schaeffer, secretary of the Ontario Fur Breeders' Association which met in Toronto this week, said that overproduction of mink pelts has cut the price of mink coats in half.

Some 3,000,000 mink pelts were produced in Canada and the United States in 1948—twice as many as in the previous year. Prices in the entire fur market also are dropping, Mr. Schaeffer said.

Swim Suits Go Exotic

INSPIRATION comes from the exotic corners of North Africa and from the sunny shores of the South Sea Islands for these two bathing suit fashions created by Paris designer Andre Ledoux. Ledoux, coutourier and ski champion, who flew a collection to New York for the first American showing, calls the two-piece suit (left) "Zouave". Made of blue and white striped silk rayon, the spectacular suit owes its name to and takes its styling cues from the billowing trousers worn by famed French Zouave troops. The blue and white print crepe suit (right) draws its style inspiration from the South Sea Islands. Above a smartly flaring skirt is an artfully draped bare-shouldered sarong.

Poised Woman Plans Schedule

NEW YORK—Wise expenditure of energy is the secret of the serene and unflustered appearance that marks the poised woman, says a beauty adviser.

A check-up on your daily routine will reveal how well you budget your energy expenditure. Do you organize work to eliminate waste motions? If you do this means that you use efficient equipment, that you gather tools for specific tasks before you start to work.

Do you balance daily housework between light and heavy tasks? If you clean in the morning, plan less strenuous work for the afternoon—sewing, mending, making out menus and marketing lists.

Do you allot time for one or two rest periods during the day? Stretch out for a few minutes in the late morning and again in the afternoon.

Leap Year Shows Decrease In Canadian Marriages

Female of the species will have to want another three years for the matrimonial opportunities afforded them in leap year 1948. Marriage statistics show that several thousand fewer Canadian couples took the fateful plunge in that year than in 1947. In Peterborough the drop was not great, just 41, or nine per cent, but the previous year showed only 2 per cent less. The total was 447 weddings with July the peak month when 64 were registered, June and September showing the next highest totals.

Even "Sadie Hawkins' Day," fast becoming traditional on this continent, failed to encourage more Canadian girls to pop the question. There have been some complaints that there aren't enough men to go around, but statistics prove the ladies wrong. According to the last census taken, Canadian girls are far outnumbered by the men. So the excuse that they cannot find any eligible males for a leap year matig will not hold at all.

The decline in leap year enthusiasm is quite noticeable since in 1944 jewellers reported many a bride was even supplying the rings for the ceremony, but no repeat performances were noted last year.

A US professor of psychology says "in nearly 95 per cent of the cases it is actually the woman who brings the unsuspecting male to the altar. But the wise woman plans the campaign to make the victim think he's the victor." It appears that Canadian girls are up to this sage reasoning and are waiting until the passing of leap year lulls the unsuspecting Canadian male into a sense of false security. Marriage statistics for 1949 should bear watching.

Girls who think things are tough today should compare their lot with that of the ladies of 1790 when parliament passed a law which said: "All women that shall impose upon, seduce or betray into matrimony, any of His Majesty's subjects by means of scents, paints, cosmetics, artificial teeth, false hair, high heeled shoes or holsted hips, shall incur the penalty of the law, and the marriage shall stand null and void."

Bavarian Maids Reverse Custom Try "Sneaking-In"

REGENSBURG, Germany — They call it "fensterln" (through the window) in colloquial Bavarian dialect and it's Cupid's Bavarianized way of courting the lady of your heart.

Bavarians describe it as a night-time "sneak-in" visit of the lover, who frequently uses a ladder to climb through the window into his maiden's chamber.

There are people in Bavaria who bitterly oppose "fensterln." They say the custom is "rude and immoral,' but the younger folk pay little attention to such talk and young Toni and his Zenzi stick to it.

Recently, three Bavarian maidens caused quite a commotion by reversing their traditional part. They assumed the role of the "sneakers-in", in an attempt to visit the man of their choice.

It happened at Michael Dorf, deep in the Bavarian forest. Three persons dressed in men's clothing were caught "fensterln", at the window of a farmer's son's bedroom and were mistaken for burglars.

Their noisy escape aroused some villagers at the local inn who spread the alarm and joined in pursuit. Run to earth and captured, the suspected burglars turned out to be the daughters of two village farmers and of the innkeeper.

They explained that all of them were in love with the farmer's son and thought they would not be bothered with calling on him in the traditional fashion. In planing the escapade, however, they did not consider that male visitors at a daughterless farm house at night would arouse immediate suspicion.

The newspapers in reporting the story speculated that the reversal of the old custom was one result of the postwar shortage of men in Germany.

Miss Thelma Lucas, corresponding secretary, read letters of thanks from recipients of Christmas gifts, Father McCarney for the gift to his new church, and Father Kay, Huntsville.

The president announced wool will be supplied for all those wishing to knit for St. Joseph's Hospital Auxiliary.

Mr. Mattucci of the Separate school board spoke briefly to members on the subject of dental health in the schools and stated the board would appreciate a donation to this worthwhile work as there are many children of needy families whose teeth are neglected. The meeting adjourned and Mrs. J. Lynch and her committee served lunch.

NO CHRISTMAS BELLS

CLAYCROSS, Derbyshire, England—(CP)—The bells of the parish church were silent this Christmas for the first time since it was built 100 years ago. Reason: the vicar ruled that the ringers should attend services, so the belfry captain resigned and the rest staged a strike.

For Quick Cough Relief, Mix This Syrup, at Home

You'll be surprised how quickly a bad winter cough can be relieved, when you try this well known recipe. It is universally used throughout Canada because it gives such gratifying results. It's no trouble at all to mix, and costs but a trifle.

Into a 16 ounce bottle, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex; then fill up with granulated sugar syrup to make 16 ounces. Syrup is easily made with 2 cups of sugar and 1 cup of water stirred a few moments until dissolved. No cooking needed. Or you can use corn syrup or liquid honey, instead of sugar syrup. This makes four times as much cough medicine for your money. Never spoils and tastes fine.

Quickly you feel its penetrating effect. It loosens the phlegm, helps to clear the air passages, and soothes the irritated membranes. This explains why it brings such quick relief.

Pinex is a special compound of proven ingredients, in concentrated form, well known for its soothing effect on throat irritations. Money refunded if it does not please you in every way.

DOROTHY DIX

Woman Plays With Fire In Attentions to Lothario

DEAR MISS DIX — I am a young married woman, the mother of three lovely little girls, and with one of the kindest and best of husbands whom I love dearly. About four years ago I met a man, who is also married, and he persists in making violent love to me every chance he gets. He also writes me ardent love letters, which I destroy immediately.

I have no love for this man at all, but I admit he fascinates me. What I would like to know is why I don't end this affair? What have you to say about it?

MRS. X.

ANSWER—You are doing as you are doing because women have a hereditary tendency, that they seem unable to resist, that makes them dally with every temptation that comes their way. Dorothy Dix and the more risky a thing is the more it allures them. They inherit their hankering after forbidden fruit from Mother Eve.

First, it is a woman's insatiable love of adventure, her morbid craving for thrills, that makes you listen to this man's lovemaking, and then it is vanity. Husbands, no matter how good and kind they are, seldom waste much time in flattering their wives, and a woman just naturally hungers and thirsts for the brand of jolly that she was used to in her girlhood days.

Female Curiosity

Also, there is curiosity. A married woman is devoured by the desire to know whether she has lost the bait with which she used to catch men. That is why married women, even those who have good husbands and who really love them, get into foolish flirtations that wreck their lives and break up their homes.

You have seen this happen to other women and you know how such affairs end, but that doesn't keep you from playing with fire and burning your fingers. But I am warning you that unless you sever all connections with your Lothario and quit listening to his glib tongue, you chance the loss of children and husband and home and the respect of all who know you for the sake of a thrill.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—I am engaged to a boy who has a perfect complex about being henpecked; therefore, he feels that he has to assert himself at every turn and ignore my every wish in order to show that he will not be bossed. I am not of the dictatorial type and I certainly wouldn't want a mouse for a husband; but, after all, I think my wishes should be considered sometimes. Don't you?

ENGAGED GIRL.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER—If you marry a man who has to be continually asserting his authority, you will get a tyrant for a master. It is only weak men and little men who are afraid of being henpecked. You never saw a big man who boasted about being the head of his house and who made his wife kowtow to him. A strong, self-reliant man doesn't consider it beneath his dignity to consult with his wife and take her advice, but a weakling always disparages his wife.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR MISS DIX—I have just completed a business course and I would appreciate very much if you would tell me just what an employer has a right to expect of a secretary.

MARTHA H.

ANSWER — Naturally every employer has a right to expect efficiency from his secretary and he generally gets it, or she gets another job. Once in a blue moon a girl makes good looks a substitute for good work, but it happens so rarely that it is not worth considering in the technique of a private secretary.

Every employer has a right to expect his secretary to have good manners and that she will be pleasant and agreeable to deal with. He expects her to park her temperament at home and not bring it with her to work. A busy employer has no time to deal with an employee who has to be handled with gloves and around whose peculiarities he has to gumshoe.

An employer has the right to expect that his secretary shall be neat and clean and well-groomed, and especially that she shall smell of soap and water and not cheap perfume. No man wants to spend his day looking at a girl who looks as if she should be run through a washing machine, or in an office that reeks with scent like a drugstore. Many a girl loses her job because she doesn't shampoo her hair often enough, or because she wears soiled clothes, or because she is a perfume addict.

Dogs Pulled Her Babies

OTTAWA, Jan. 5 — (CP) — The word "mush" never belonged in a dog driver's vocabulary, says Mrs. Elizabeth Nansen, one of the world's few women dog racers.

Mrs. Nansen gained her reputation in 1931 when the last International Dog Derby was held here. She came third in a large and experienced field.

Mrs. Nansen first became interested in dog-racing in 1927 when she lived in Poland Springs, Me.

"I got the idea while I was pushing my youngsters around in a baby-buggy," she said. "Wouldn't it be more fun for them and for me to take them out in a sled behind a team of dogs."

Finally Mrs. Nansen "picked up a few scrub dogs" and made herself a small team—"just four or five pups to pull the kids around."

Unconscious 5 Months Girl Dies In Toronto

TORONTO, Jan. 5 — (CP) — Barbara Holliday, 16-year-old schoolgirl, of San Rachel, California, who lay unconscious in a Toronto hospital for five months following a traffic accident, died Tuesday.

She was described by doctors as a "medical phenomenon."

The girl was injured near Barrie Aug. 2 in a collision in which one motorist was killed. Removed unconscious to hospital she was given only a few hours to live.

A brain specialist, Dr. G. W. Harris, was assigned to her case and diagnosed her injuries as a lacerated brain and a crushed kidney.

Dr. Smirle Lawson, provincial coroner, said it "is certainly one of the longest periods in this country that a girl fatally injured remained unconscious and alive. The girl never regained even partial consciousness, but because of her wonderful condition and health she remained unconscious for more than five months before she died."

ELIZABETH SAUER, 19, of Kessel, Germany, met Ralph Gaber, when he was a soldier. She came over intending to marry him but on arriving in the US she passed up Ralph 33, for his younger brother, Karl, 25. Troubles piled on troubles when Elizabeth's parents in Germany said it was Ralph or no one. In two years Elizabeth will be legally on her own and will need no parental permission. This romantic scene was photographed in the Gaber home in a Pittsburgh, Pa., suburb as Elizabeth and Karl pledged by vows eternal that they would wait for two years until Elizabeth's return when they would wed. Since the picture was made Miss Sauer left for her native Kessel at her parents behest.

School Board Spends $988.16

BONARLAW, Jan. 5—(ENS) —The sum of $607.31 was spent on improvements to the school and $380.95 on equipment during 1948, the treasurer reported at the annual school meeting of ratepayers and trustees of SS No. 5 Rawdon. A great deal of credit went to the teacher, Mrs. Geo. Williams, and the Board of Trustees was complimented on the improvements and new equipment.

Reports by the inspector, A. W. McGuire and Medical Board of Health Inspector, Dr. E. A. Carleton were read.

Wm. J. Barlow presided, W. E. Neal was secretary and S. G. Rombough, trustee, and a representative number of people from the community were present.

The auditors' statement signed by Messrs. L. Mumby and Frank Cosbey was presented by Mr. Mumby.

Ken Rombough was re-engoged as caretaker at a salary of $100. It was found that sufficient wood is on hand for 1949.

Ratepayers' auditor was named as Gordon T. Webb. The other auditor, secretary-treasurer and delegate to Toronto O.E.A. convention will be named at the first meeting of the school board.

Wm. E. Neal was elected trustee for the next three years W. J. Barlow, S. G. Romboug and W. E. Neal form the new board.

J. F. Baker, delegate for 1948 to the 88th annual convention of the Ontario Education Association gave his report. He stated that attendance was over six thousand.

The theme of the convention was living together. One speaked stated that there were 22,000 primary and elementary teachers in Ontario. The cost of education was tremendous, but the cost of ignorance was greater.

Excerpts from the speeches of Dr. Hall, president of the University of Western Ontario, president W. Sutherland and Premier Geo. A. Drew were read by Mr. Baker.

Would Hunt Wolves In Game Preserve

APSLEY, Jan. 5.—(ENS).—At a meeting of the Township Council of Burleigh - Anstruther on Dec. 15 a resolution was passed requesting the Department of Lands and Forests for permission to hunt wolves in the Crown Game Preserve. It was proposed that one or more persons, carrying firearms, be allowed to hunt together for the purpose of trapping, snaring and hunting of these animals. A copy of the resolution was sent to the Hon. H. R. Scott for his attention and approval.

A further resolution was passed at the same meeting to pay a wolf bounty of $5 for each wolf killed in the townships of Burleigh and Anstruther. A request to the County Council in Peterborough to increase the county bounty by $5 was discarded after lengthy discussion.

Prince Charles Has First Job

LONDON, Jan. 5 (AP)—Prince Charles took his first long automobile ride today—and between naps crowed happily over the novelty of it.

His parents, Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip, set out with him from Buckingham Palace for Sandringham, royal retreat in Norfolk, where members of the family will remain indefinitely.

A big crowd at the palace gates watched the departure, cheering as the entourage rolled into the open. Philip, hatless and in a gray business suit, was at the wheel of a big black sedan, wedding gift from the R.A.F. to the royal couple.

Princess Elizabeth, wearing a blue-gray coat and skirt rode in the back seat with nurse Helen Lightbody. Elizabeth held the baby Prince in her arms.

Princess Elizabeth, Prince Philip and the seven-weeks-old baby are expected to stay at Sandringham at least until the first of February.

Thames South Bank To Recover Gaiety

LONDON, Jan. 5 (CP)—History is repeating itself along the south bank of the River Thames.

Once as lively as any part of the Metropolis—famed for bear pits, theatres, restaurants and coaching inns—the south bank degenerated through the years into a semi-derelict stretch of factories and mudbanks. Wartime bombings added heaps of brick and rubble.

Now the south bank is to recover its ancient gaiety. Under a £2,000,000 ($8,000,000) plan just launched by the London County Council in association with the 1951 festival of Britain, the site will be reclaimed and rebuilt.

Work on construction of a new river wall fronting on a 30-acre area between Waterloo Bridge and the County Hall already has begun. On this site will be built a new concert hall, a national theatre, a large hotel, restaurants and blocks of offices.

Subsidization Plan Opens For Pilots

VANCOUVER, Jan. 5—(CP)—The new Dominion Government subsidy scheme for student pilots will get off to a flying start here today.

A mass flight of trainer aircraft will leave the airport following a special ceremony and BC Trade Minister L. H. Eyres will be the first "pupil."

Under the subsidization plan, pilots at approved schools will receive a $100 grant while the school gets $100 from each student. Another $100 subsidy will go to graduates who are willing and able to enter the RCAF permanent or auxiliary units.

Church Congregations Increase Twofold During Protestant New Year Week Of Prayer

Congregations at the city's churches taking part in a week of prayer which started on Sunday, are approximately twice as large as last year.

During the prayer week, which is observed the first week of every year, ministers of all Protestant denominations visit other churches in the city to address congregations and take part in different types of services of worship.

The week of prayer is a universal custom which originated in England 103 years ago. This week church people, not only in Peterborough, but across the American and European continents and in other lands, are learning more about the various Protestant denominations.

Woman Turns Tables Charges Detective

VANCOUVER, Jan. 5—(CP).—The Fanini padlock case took a new twist today—the hunted turned on the hunter.

Mrs. Maisie Armitage-Moore, secretary of Aladino Fanini's lawyer, filed an action in Supreme Court claiming unstated damages for "false arrest and malicious prosecution."

With her employer, Thomas Hurley, Mrs. Moore was arrested Dec. 22 for entering Fanini's premises after police had invoked an old bootlegging law and clamped a padlock on the door. The pair were held in custody for three hours. Charges of trespassing against them were dismissed.

Mrs. Moore names Detective-Sergeant L. M. Munn, the arresting officer, in the action.

TORONTO, Jan. 5 (CP)—Four Toronto men today were committed for trial charged with raping a 21-year-old English war bride after a drinking party in a beverage room here.

Committed today were: George Pasquale, 31; Louis Muccellor, 25; Jack Farrill, 25; and George Stoyanoff, 23.

The war bride told the court she left the beverage room with the four men in a panel truck and that the truck was parked in a lonely spot. She said Pasquale threatened to burn her with a lighted cigaret if she didn't keep quiet. She said all four men then raped her.

Steel Shortage To End In 1949

NEW YORK, Jan. 5 — (AP). — Estimated output of 92,000,000 tons of ingots this year plus further curtailment of exports will end, the most acute period of the United States steel shortage in 1949, said the Iron Age, metal-working trade weekly, today.

It commented, however, that "the political interest in Washington in steel capacity will mount so long as the shortage exists," and added:

"If the steel industry is right, and existing steel capacity is adequate to take care of this country's long term needs, it will be showing signs of doing so before the end of 1949. But if the government enomonists are right and there is a need for 100,000,000 tons plus of capacity for the long pull—another year of tight steel supply, if it stays tight, is about all that Congress is expected to tolerate."

The Iron Age placed world steel production in 1948 in 21 major producing countries at a record 168,000,000 tons and said it "fell far short of meeting demand."

TORONTO, Jan. 5 — (CP) — A statement regarding 23-year-old Gordon Kelley, so-called slave boy who was found last Oct. 20th scratching for food at the door of a West Toronto house, will be issued within the next two days by the Ontario Attorney-General's Department, it was announced today.

A provincial police official said investigating officers had found no direct evidence that the Kelley boy had been mistreated. He had been in the care of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Smith of suburban Summerville, his foster parents.

He has been held on a nominal charge of vagrancy since he was found, naked to the waist, his matted hair reaching almost to his shoulders, and was remanded for observation in the custody of Toronto Psychiatric Hospital.

Star System Changing To 1-Year Deals

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 5 (AP). — The star system, solid pillar of the movie industry, is undergoing a mild revolution.

The studio star stables are shrinking. More and more stars are singing "one-a-year" deals—to do one picture yearly for a studio and scrounge around for other deals the rest of the time.

This is a considerable change from the old system. Studios used to employ a long list of stars and featured players. Now the companies have few if any featured players, preferring to pick them out of the free-lance pool.

The new system appears to be favorable to the studios, the stars-in-demand and Mr. Movie Fan:

A. The studios can keep down overhead by having fewer stars on the year-around payroll. Except for flash sensations (examples: Richard Widmark, June Allyson), most stars are suitable for only one picture a year. There are just so many good stories to go around each year, and many of the top stars are difficult to cast (examples: Katharine Hepburn, Danny Kaye.)

B. Stars-in-demand often prefer the freedom of one-a-year deals. They can arrange their private lives without consulting the studio every hour. And they can make their own outside deals —particularly lush self-producing set ups—without cutting in the home studio on the take.

Some of the richer and lazier stars prefer to make one movie a year anyway.

C. Mr. Movie Fan may well profit by seeing fresher casts. With talent being freer to move, he won't have to see the same casts in picture after picture. I'm not saying the pictures will be any better, but at least he won't be served the same stereotyped faces.

ANDREW McBRIDE and his brother, George, were killed Tuesday and Alf Turgeon was injured when their car was hit and tossed into the air by the New York-Toronto passenger train on a level crossing near Hamilton. The wreckage (above) was carried about 1,200 feet and bits of the car were found almost 100 yards along the right-of-way from the point of impact. Crossing had no signal of any kind.

Company Claims Perjury Of Union Witness

TORONTO, Jan. 5.—(CP). — Company counsel contended Tuesday that a union witness committed perjury in his testimony before the Ontario Labor Relations Board.

D. L. G. Jones, counsel for the Glendale Spinning Mills of Hamilton, told the board that James Barrett, a former foreman at the plant, was lying when he testified that he had been instructed to discharge employees for union activity.

Barrett was testifying for the Textile Workers' Union of America (CIO-CCL), which accused the company of discharging men for union activity. The company claimed the men were let out because it was necessary to reduce plant overhead.

Judgment was reserved by the board after union counsel C. L. Dubin said every person who had anything to do with a meeting called to discuss union organization in the factory was dismissed a few days afterwards.

Mr. Dubin asked the board to safeguard the basic right of workers to join a union. He said that unless the board penalizes employers violating the labor laws, the regulations will be nothing but a joke and the board itself a "laughing stock."

He asked that the union be certified in the plant without a vote. He claimed that a vote now would be a "farce" because the employees "had been intimidated" by the dismissals.

Mr. Jones described the case as "frivolous" and the charges of interfering with the union as "dreamed up" to compensate the union for "failure" to successfully organize the plant.

Present Millbrook Church Helper With Four Going-Away Gifts

MILLBROOK, Jan. 5—(ENS)—After taking an active part in church and community life for 24 years, E. H. Barnes, a former Sunday school superintendent who has removed to Norwood, received farewell gifts at the annual Christmas treat for the scholars of St. Thomas' Anglican Sunday school in the parish hall on Thursday.

Dr. L. J. Stuart read an address voicing the appreciation of the Public Library Board, of which Mr. Barnes had been secretary for a period of years, and presentation was made of a pipe. H. A. Kerr, speaking as a business associate of Mr. Barnes, and for the community, read an address, and a second presentation was made of a handsome Lazy Boy chair, with accompanying hassock, upholstered in maroon velour.

The gift of the congregation of St. Thomas' church was a purse of money, presented by L. H. Winslow, people's warden, who also voiced the gratitude of the members for his services. Miss M. L. Collins, church organist, conveyed the thanks of the choir for Mr. Barnes' faithful attendance, and he received a Morocco bound hymn book, with music The rector, the Rev. C. M. MacLean, added his personal word of happiness in knowing Mr. Barnes and of the help given at various times.

A hot supper at which more than 75 sat down, was the initial feature of the treat, which was for scholars and their parents. A gally-trimmed tree was a centre of interest in the decorated hall.

Mrs. T. A. Campbell and a committee of helpers served supper and the superintendent, Lavergne Fallis, took the chair for the entertainment. Included in the program was a carol by the primary class (Miss Jean Smith, teacher); a group of carols by the girls of the Junior WA (Mrs. C. M. MacLean, superintendent), with solo by Lena-Marie Lowery and a carol sung to the music of Brahms Cradle Song, and the Bible story of the birth of Christ.

There was a dialogue by Glenna Sloan, Shirley Bredin, Marilyn Saunders and Diane MacLean, and Donald Winslow, of Ida, contributed a recitation. Presentation of prizes was made to number of scholars for attendance and general proficiency, these taking the form of Bibles, pictures, and Bible story books. All the pupils, teachers, officers, and cradle roll babies were remembered with gifts and candy from the tree. Miss Collins and Mrs. G. A. Spicer, choir leader, were remembered with special gifts.

Alcohol As Car Fuel Big Experiment In U.S.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5—(CP)—The New York Times said today in a dispatch from Memphis, Tenn., that the United States "may be on the threshold of a major development in the use of alcohol as an engine fuel."

The dispatch, quoting Dr. C. E. Hilbert, a United States government research chief, said the development "would help soak up grain and other farm supluses and extend dwindling oil reserves."

Hilbert said "significant progress" had been made in research on the injunction of alcohol into automobile engines fed with low-grade gasoline.

His bureau of Agriculture and Industrial Chemistry already has applied for a patent on an alcohol-injection device.

The principle is that alcohol injected into an engine fed with low-grade gasoline steps up the fuel to high-grade gasoline.

Justice In Hospital Sworn In As Member

MONTREAL, Jan. 5—(CP)—Roy T. Graham of Smiths Falls, and former Liberal member of parliament for Swift Current, Sask., was sworn in as a member of the Saskatchewan Court of King's Bench Tuesday in an unusual ceremony at the Montreal Neurological Institute.

Justice Graham also served as assistant clerk in the House of Commons.

The reason for the ceremony here was that Chief Justice James T. Brown of Saskatchewan has been a patient in the institute since Dec. 3.

Justice Graham was recently appointed chairman of the Income Tax Appeal Board and it is expected it will be at least a year before he assumes his duties in Saskatchewan.

Say Israel Agrees To A Truce

Fighting Continuing In Negev Area; Egypt Has Accepted

TEL AVIV, Jan. 6 (CP)—An Israeli military spokesman said tonight that Israel has agreed to a cease-fire in the Negev, but as no answer was received from the Egyptians, "fighting still continues."

The spokesman said Henri Vigier, personal representative in Haifa of Acting Mediator Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, last night telephoned the Israeli government that he had received a communication from the Egyptians.

This said that if the Jews would order a cease-fire they would enter into negotiations for implementing the Security Council's resolutions of Nov. 4 and 16.

The Israeli cabinet met Wednesday night and a usually reliable private source said the ministers, whose troops have wound up a three-day invasion strike in Egypt, decided to accept the order.

Cables Acceptance

Egypt cabled her acceptance Tuesday, subject to a like decision from Israel. Egyptian and Israeli troops have been fighting in the Negev Desert and the Southern Palestine coastal strip off and on since mid-October.

A government spokesman Wednesday night announced the Israeli thrust into Egypt. He said Jewish troops, "in hot pursuit of the fleeing enemy," recently knifed to the Egyptian military base of El Arish, on the Mediterranean coast 30 miles below the Palestine frontier. He said they killed or wounded several hundred Egyptians, captured several hundred more and seized or destroyed several planes, field guns, gasoline and other stores. El Arish air fields were reported damaged heavily.

The troops withdrew according to plan, the spokesman said, and "there was never at any time any design on the part of Israel to occupy Egyptian territory."

TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLAR SUNDERLAND FIRE, started today at 9.30 a.m. in a two-storey business block at the village's main business corner, made 15 people homeless in second-floor apartments, razed the Post Office, pool room, barber shop, grocery store and large restaurant on the corner. It was believed to have been started from a restaurant stove in the McDermott block. Top photo shows where the fire was halted at the east end of the block beside an egg-grading station. Lower photo is a longshot view looking east showing remains of restaurant, Lower Left, where fire originated; Post Office was on Right.

Red Troops Lay Barrage On Tientsin

Troops Near Suchow Under Attack; Peiping Asks For Peace

NANKING, Jan. 6 — (AP) — Communist troops, turning a deaf ear to Nationalist peace pleas, tonight were reported to have poured shot and shell into besieged Tientsin in the north and into encircled government armies southwest of Suchow.

The firing broke a two weeks lull. Peace overtures, including a message from President Chiang Kai-Shek at year's end offering to negotiate "if the Communists are sincere," had flooded the country.

The latest was made by the Peiping city council which voted to ask Communists surrounding that city for terms.

Nanking sources heard that Red troops commenced shelling Gen. Tu Li-Ming's surrounded armies southwest of Suchow from two sides after vocal barrages from loudspeakers failed to persuade the Nationalists to surrender.

The Communist radio broke its five-day silence on the peace overtures with two tough-talking broadcasts.

One threatened to attack historic Peiping at once unless it surrendered. The other said final victory was near and would mean the complete destruction of the Kuomintang reactionaries and the expulsion of the forces of American imperialist aggression from China.

Peiping Requests Peace

Neighboring Peiping's city council voted to ask the Reds for peace.

The North China commander, Gen. Fu Tso-Yi, whose armies are ringed in the two cities and the port of Tangku, 27 miles from Tientsin, gave permission for an air drop of the Peiping peace plea when it is ready.

Fu has been rumored negotiating with the Communists for a separate peace. The Communists scorned Chiang Kai-Shek's year-end peace feeler and warned of an impending attack on the North China garrisons if they did not lay down their arms.

All American consulate personnel and other foreigners, plus hundreds of Russians in Tientsin, were believed safe from the shells in the modern European sector of Tientsin, a teeming city of 2,000,000. This area, along both sides of the Hai river in downtown Tientsin, contains many modern, tall buildings built by American, Canadian, Belgian, Italian, French, British and Indian interests.

Making reports said government officials were packing for possible flights from there to the south. Many of their families are in Canton and on the island fortress of Formosa, off the coast half way between here and Canton.

Reported Prisoner

BATAVIA, Java, Jan. 6—(CP)—A Batavia newspaper quotes official sources today as saying President Soekarno of the Indonesian Republic is being held by the Netherlands government of Balikpapan, Dutch Borneo, more than 700 miles from his capital of Jogjakarta. Dutch officials have given no indication thus far of intention to comply with a United Nations order to release captured leaders of the republic.

Exports To U.S. 42 Per Cent Higher In 1948

EDMONTON, Jan. 6 (CP). — Canadians can look forward in 1949 to further relaxation of restrictions on imports from the United States if the Dominion's reserves of US dollars continues to improve, Finance Minister Abbott promised Wednesday night.

More than 450 business men heard Mr. Abbott's address at the annual dinner meeting of the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Abbott said that Canadian reserves of United States dollars and gold are nearly double the holdings when the government's austerity program was announced, November 15, 1947.

Canadian foreign trade held the key to the Dominion's improved foreign exchange position —exports to all countries was boosted from about $2,300,000,000 to $2,500,000,000 and exports to the US increased more than 42 per cent.

As a result, official holdings were $998,000,00 at December 31, compared with the low of $461,000,000 when the emergency-program cutting imports from across the line went into effect.

Preliminary Figure

This increase of reserves by $537,000,000 was a "preliminary" figure, Mr. Abbott told the Chamber in a prepared address. It included $150,000,000 which Canada raised on a long-term loan in the United States last year.

The increase in reserves was $387,000,00 "as a result of our improved trade position."

Mr. Abbott said it was "encouraging" that Canada had increased exports to dollar markets and achhieved a closer balance in trade with the US, but he added that exports to the United Kingdom and Europe had declined, though they remained at a high level.

But the minister warned that the "positive or final solutions" were not in an import-restriction program and Marshall plan spending in this country.

15 People Left Homeless As $150,000 Blaze Sweeps Centre Of Village

Neighboring Towns Send Firefighters But Arrival Delayed Hour; Restaurant Stove Blamed For Conflagration

SUNDERLAND, Jan. 6 — (By Staff Reporter). — Four families of 15 persons were made homeless in a $150,000 fire that destroyed the main business block of this village this morning. Sunderland is 18 miles west of Lindsay. George Clay, proprietor of a restaurant in the building, said he entered the ground floor of his premises before 9.30 a.m. and lit the stove. He went out on the street for "three minutes," and when he returned the restaurant was full of smoke. He fought flames from the stove until he collapse.

The fire soon raged out of control. Sunderland lacks effective fire fighting equipment. Calls were sent to neighboring towns and villages, but it was an hour before the first helping firemen arrived from Cannington.

By that time the fire was sweeping through the building which was then apparently doomed.

The big red brick block comprised: Clay's restaurant; grocery store and butcher shop of which Neil McFadden was proprietor; Clayton Henderson's barber shop and pool room; the local post office of which John Allen was postmaster; and five apartments on the second floor.

They were occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sheldon; Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Henderson; Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Gerow, and Mr. Neil McFadden, whose wife, a war bride, is visiting her parents in the Old Country.

Carried Out

Mrs. Sheldon and Mrs. Henderson had to be carried out of their apartments in their night clothes.

Shortly after 11 o'clock the east wall of the block collapsed on an adjoining egg-grading station of which Frank Doyle was manager. This building also appeared to be a total loss as the fire was completing its destruction at the noon hour.

Guards were posted at nearby schools as a strong west wind scattered sparks and burning brands in that direction. Tenants of the apartments saved some of their belongings, but Mr. Sheldon said he had not lost every-

Liberals Open Caucus In Toronto

TORONTO, Jan. 6.—(CP).—Ontario Liberals today start a two-day caucus to prepare plans for the Ontario Legislature session opening Feb. 10.

Liberal leader Farquhar Oliver has said previously that housing, highways, Hydro and health will be the principal targets for his group's criticism of the government. The Liberals hold 13 seats in the 90-seat House and can generally count on support of the lone Liberal-Labor member.

The Liberals have adopted a policy of assigning members to specialize on specific subjects of debate. John Brown, Waterloo North, will be the financial critic, William Houck, Niagara Falls, will devote his attention to Hydro; Harold Walker, Welland, will concentrate on labor while Campbell Calder, London, will study the Attorney-General's Department.

The seating arrangement of the Chamber has been completed but has not yet been officially released by the Speaker, Rev. M. C. Davies of Windsor.

It is learned that the two Labor-Progressive party members, A. A. MacLeod and J. B. Salsberg, both representing Toronto ridings, will occupy approximately the same seats they had in the last House. That, in effect, would group them with the CCF in the section immediately to the left of the Speaker.

Find Slave Boy Not Mistreated

TORONTO, Jan. 6 — (CP) — Edwin Paul Kelly, so-called slave boy found last Oct. 20 scratching at the door of a suburban home, is in reality an adult dwarf, with a defective gland condition, a report by the Attorney-General's department says.

Kelly, who weighed 65 pounds was at first believed by police to be a 14-year-old boy. He is actually 24. The report, issued Wednesday, said he had not been mistreated by his foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Smith of nearby Etobicoke. Kelly had claimed he was beaten and kept locked up.

Medical and psychiatric examination showed no signs that the youth had been assaulted or undernourished, the report said. It described him as having subnormal intelligence.

He has been committed to the Ontario Hospital School at Orillia.

Link 2 U.S. Men With Drug Ring

TORONTO, Jan. 6 — (CP) — Police say they believe two United States residents being held here for breach of immigration laws may be linked with a ring running narcotics into Toronto from New York and Mexico.

The men gave their names as Albert Brenzel, 35, of the Bronx, N.Y., and Pasquale Giganti, 33, of New York. They were arrested Wednesday in their beds in a downtown hotel.

Police also are investigating a possible connection between the men and recent Toronto gang warfare between underworld factions in the narcotics trade.

Members of the police squad assigned to running down drug traffickers claim the gang warfare resulted from attempts of rival groups to steal drugs from each other. When shipments of narcotics arrive in the city, they are cached to be picked up later. Whenever members of rival gangs discover the hiding place, they try to get there first.

In recent weeks police have been pushing an open war on drug rings.

Scandinavian Premiers Hold Secret Defence Conference

STOCKHOLM, Jan. 6—(Reuters).—The Prime Ministers of Sweden, Norway and Denmark, with the Foreign and Defence Ministers of the three countries, today met in secret at Karlstad, Swedish town near the Norwegian frontier. They are scheduled to discuss Scandinavian defence problems, reliable sources here said. The meeting, reported to have been called suddenly, followed last week's statement by Foreign Minister Halvard Lange of Norway that Norway might turn westward for her security.

The Minister's statement caused some irritation in Swedish official circles, who felt it signalled a break in Scandinavian unity. All three countries want to arrange joint military defence, but Sweden wants any Scandinavian bloc to remain outside big-power grouping.

A tug-of-war between the Swedes and Norwegians, with the Danes trying to reconcile them was expected at today's meeting.

Lange has intimated publicly that Norway will leave the Scandinavian bloc rather be prevented from seeking security with the Western Powers by accepting Sweden's neutrality policy.

If Norway joins the Western Powers, Denmark is expected to be forced to follow suit, because Sweden is not strong enough to give the Danes effective military aid.

Will Abandon Steam Plant

TORONTO, Jan. 6. — (CP).—An official of the Ontario Hydro Commission predicted today the abandonment of one 1,100,000 horse power steam plant project and the possible commencement of another $50,000,000 steam project in the Toronto-Hamilton area.

Commenting on President Truman's announcement Wednesday that he would press for immediate commencement of the St. Lawrence seaway and power project, the official said the abandoned project was to have replaced Ontario's share in an earlier plan to harness the international section of the Long Sault Rapids.

The steam project would have cost the province $90,000,000 to build and $18,000,000 a year to operate, he said.

Hydro chairman R. H. Saunders had told Prime Minister St. Laurent last Dec. 3, that unless Ontario and New York were allowed to develop the Long Sault Rapids, the province would have to build the equivalent in steam plants here.

The new project would be a $50,000,000 steam plant either here or at Hamilton, necessary to supplement the St. Lawrence output to safeguard Ontario's future power needs.

Mr. Saunders was reported saying Wednesday in Knoxville, Tenn., that the joint development of the St. Lawrence would be "the biggest boom yet experienced by Ontario."

Atlantic Pact Signed In Jan.

PARIS, Jan. 6 — (Reuters). — The Atlantic Pact, linking Canada and the United States in a military defence alliance with the five Western European Powers, will be signed by the end of January, it was learned to-night from usually reliable diplomatic sources here.

The draft pact defines the "Atlantic security zone" as including Iceland, Norway and Denmark, sources said, but it will remain for these countries to accept or reject the obligations proposed in the pact.

The Atlantic defence pact, which has been the subject of protracted negotiations in Washington, will need ratification by the Parliaments of the states concerned.

These comprise France, Britain, and the Benelux group—Belgium, The Netherlands, and Luxembourg — in addition to Canada and the United States.

American and Canadian ratification, it was pointed out in responsible circles in Paris, would go far to reassure the other participants that the mutual defence obligations they undertook by the Brussels Treaty had the practical backing of the United States.

Iraq Premier Resigns

BAGHDAD, Iraq, Jan. 6 — (Reuters)—Prime Minister Muzamin Al Pachachi resigned today. Gen. Nuri Es-Said, president of the Senate, was asked to form a new cabinet. Pachachi took office in June last year. Es-Said is one of the most distinguished Iraq's elder statesmen and was King Feisal's chief of staff in the First World War. He was prime minister from December, 1938, until February, 1940.

'Quake Prediction Drives Out Villagers

ROME, Jan. 6—(Reuters)—The Italian town of Rieti, scene of a number of minor earthquake shocks, was practically abandoned today, "danger day" for the earthquake predicted by William Wheeler, British quake forecaster.

Only 1,200 of the town's 15,000 inhabitants remained in their homes.

As citizens flocked out, refugees from the nearby village of Rivodutri, shattered in Wednesday's tremors, began straggling into the town seeking shelter.

Won't Condemn No-Strike Rule

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6 (AP)—The eleven-country Far Eastern Commission today rejected a Russian proposal to condemn Japan's new no-strike, no-bargaining law for government workers.

The action, taken at a closed-door session, was disclosed by Russian Ambassador Alexander S. Panyushkin in a statement.

Panyushkin said it is "regrettable" that a majority of the policy-making body approved "these anti-Democratic measures of General McArthur and the Japanese government."

The no-strike rule applies to several million employees of the Japanese government and government enterprises. It was put into effect last July at the behest of Gen. Douglas MacArthur as Supreme Allied Commander of occupation forces in Japan.

Soviet Army Hints Germany Withdrawal

BERLIN, Jan. 6.—(AP).— The Soviet army hinted in print today that Russia may follow the same policy in Germany as in Korea and withdraw her occupation forces earlier than the Western Allies.

A front-page editorial in Taegliche Rundschau, official Soviet military organ, asserted: "Korea is an example for Germany — at least in so far as the attitude of the Soviet Union is concerned."

It said that the last Russian troops had evacuated North Korea Dec. 25, and "complete Korean independence in a United States could be possible," but for the presence of American forces remaining in South Korea.

"The comparison between Korean developments and those in West and East Germany goes on," the editorial declared.

Believe British Troops On Way To Port of Aqaba

LONDON, Jan. 6.—(Reuters).—It is widely believed here that British troops are on their way to the Trans-Jordan port of Aqaba, at the head of the Gulf of Aqaba, and that RAF units in Trans-Jordan have been reinforced.

There has been no official confirmation of this, however.

It also is generally believed that British troops in the canal zone of Egypt have been put on the alert following the penetration of Israeli forces into Egypt last week.

Political quarters here expect that British policy in this latest Palestine crisis will be the subject of an unusually large number of questions when Parliament reassembles in 10 days.

Lack of public knowledge on British Middle-East policy, debated this week by the defence committee of the cabinet, can scarcely continue, it is felt, after the House meets.

The new issues facing Britain, if Israel threatens the frontiers of neighboring Arab states, are considered grave in view of British treaty commitments in Egypt and Trans-Jordan. The possibility that Britain may have to give military support to these two states still exists.

Opinion in London has been considerably disturbed by confirmation that Israel forces did in fact penetrate Egyptian territory after Christmas and by the news blackout imposed by the foreign office.

2 Toronto Girls Missing One Second Time In Week

TORONTO, Jan. 6 —(CP)—Josephine Hill, 11, is missing from her home for the second time in a week. And her father, John Hill, says he fears that this time the little girl is gone for good.

The girl disappeared Sunday for several hours and, when found in the back seat of a parked automobile, told a story that might have come from one of the horror-type comic books her father said she liked to read. She claimed that, while she was walking in a park after Sunday School, two men threw a blanket over her head and knocked her unconscious.

"We examined her closely and couldn't see any sign of her having been hit on the head," said the father. "There were no bumps or bruises of any kind."

She vanished again Tuesday after going to school. Her 12-year-old brother Donald said that after four o'clock he saw her jump over a fence and run up a street. Donald said he thought he saw her again Wednesday morning in the school basement but he couldn't be sure.

Mr. Hill said the fair-haired girl was "very imaginative." She also had spells of what might have been epilepsy.

When last seen, Josephine was wearing a white and black checkered skirt, a red sweater and a short black coat piped with red. She was also wearing a yellow kerchief on her head and had black stockings and high rubber boots.

A second teen-age girl has been reported missing in the Toronto area.

Fourteen-year-old Patricia Inward has not been seen since she left her home in west-end High Park district Wednesday morning on her way to school. She was described as 5 ft., 3 in. tall and of stout build, wearing a short black coat, green dress and green kerchief.

Paralyzed Girl Sees Ballet Shoes, Talks

VANCOUVER, Jan. 6 (CP) — A 13-year-old Vancouver girl has regained her memory and power of speech through the medium of a pair of ballet slippers.

Laverne Tindale was paralyzed after a brutal axe attack last March and doctors abandoned hope she would ever walk, talk or remember again.

The pretty blonde girl's eyes lit up when a pair of ballet slippers were brought into her hospital room. A speech therapist enunciated the word "shoes" and Laverne shaped her mouth and repeated "shoes."

She now walks, has partial use of her limbs and can pronounce a large number of words.

Farm Federation Discusses Margarine Sale

TORONTO, Jan. 6 — (CP). — The Ontario farmer is to have his say on the lifting of the ban on manufacture and sale of oleomargarine.

The butter substitutes issue is high on the agenda of the 12th annual convention of the Ontario Federation of Agriculture, now in its second day. By the time the convention ends to-morrow, the more than 500 delegates representing 78 farm organizations will have expresed their views on regulation of margarine sale.

The Federation already is on record as opposed to coloring in margarine and in favor of a sales tax which would bring the price of margarine closer to the 71 cents now charged for butter. Margarine is expected to go on the market with a retail price of less than 50 cents.

Other resolutions to be dealt with deal with soil conservation, income tax, farmers' compensation, and several aspects of marketing.

Opening day's activities were given over to the Federation's women's and junior farmers' sections.

Tackle Conservation

The junior farmers' session yesterday tackled the problem of conservation from several angles. It dealt with it first in panel discussion, made up of Wes Down, Northumberland; Gladys Houghton; South Simcoe; Anna Brock, Huron; Clarence Schneller, Waterloo; Donald Milburn, Peterborough, and Comrie Ward, Ontario.

It later heard addresses on conservation, abroad and in Ontario, by Dr. O. M. McConkey, Ontario Agricultural College, and Watson H. Porter, editor-in-chief, The Farmers' Advocate.

The women's group adopted a resolution urging that steps be taken to make it easier to obtain training as doctors and nurses and that more medical men be provided as general practitioners for rural areas.

It was decided that the 1949 women's executive consider possibility of integrating federation work with the program of the Women's Institutes of Ontario, an educational and cultural organization aiming at improvement of rural life.

Keep Independence

It was argued that since the W.I. was sponsored by the Ontario Agricultural Department the Federation should keep its independence," Mrs. J. R. Futcher of St. Thomas, president of the W.I. is Ontario, said although the W.I. is government-sponsored it is not government-controlled. She said overlapping of work in many cases made closer co-operation desirable.

Re-elected women representatives on the provincial directorate are: Mrs. C. A. Campbell, Pakenham; Mrs. George Ridley, Caledonia; Mrs. George Weir, Burford; Mrs. Peter Dick, Brampton; Mrs. F. M. Rutherford, Campbellford; and Mrs. J. R. Futcher, St. Thomas.

22 Hungarians Make Getaway From Reds

MUNICH, Jan. 6 (AP) — A planeload of refugees made an aerial getaway from Hungary, and said today they had fled from the Communist terror.

Twenty-two of those aboard a commandeered Hungarian National Airways liner which made a surprise landing here Tuesday night were in the escape plot. Three others said they want to go back to Hungary.

"We fled from constant Communist terror," said Capt. Janos Majoros, the pilot.

A passenger, telling of life in Hungary, said:

"Every noise at night . . . the ring of a doorbell, gave you panicky fear. You never knew if it was the police."

HOW TO RELIEVE PILE TORTURE QUICKLY AND EASILY

If you are troubled with itching piles or rectal soreness, do not delay treatment and run the risk of letting this condition become chronic. Any itching or soreness or painful passage of stool is nature's warning and proper treatment should be secured at once.

For this purpose get a package of Hem-Roid from any druggist and use as directed. This formula which is used internally is a small, easy to take tablet, will quickly relieve the sore tender spots. Hem-Roid is pleasant to use, is highly recommended and it seems the height of folly for any one to risk a painful and chronic pile condition when such a fine remedy may be had at such a small cost.

If you try Hem-Roid and are not entirely pleased with the results, your druggist will gladly return your money.

Ask Memorial Centre Committee For Loan To Put Artifical Ice In Civic Arena

Alderman Dodds, Young and Gillespie have been appointed a committee to interview the Memorial Centre Committee about financing a refrigeration plant for the Civic Arena.

One phase of the suggestion that is coming from the council is a loan from the Memorial Centre. It is proposed that the Centre Committee might buy the artificial ice plant, have it put in the Civic Arena, and eventually transfer it to the Memorial Centre when it has reached the stage of making its own ice.

The suggestion assumes that it is practical and also within the authority of the Centre Committee to use part of its funds for this purpose. It is said that Lindsay has been skating and playing hockey since the first week in November as contrasted with the local dependence on natural freezing. The Centre Committee has the funds that would buy the freezing plant and pipes for next winter, and thereby provide five months of ice instead of a scant two.

The dead girl was identified as Gertrude Rosa Gammisch, 24, who came to England as a volunteer worker in a cotton mill.

Planes Dropping Food Supplies To Storm Victims

CHICAGO, Jan. 6 (AP)—Distress signals flew over wide areas today on the United States weather map.

The worst victims of weather's elements were the Rocky Mountain and western plains states, four southern states and the rich citrus area of California and Arizona.

Flood waters spilled from rain-swollen rivers in four southern states — Mississippi, Alabama, Tennessee and Georgia—forcing thousands from their homes and isolating several communities.

More sub-freezing weather hit areas in the California-Arizona citrus belt and losses in the industry were estimated at $20,000,000.

There also was the threat of new floods in the northeastern section of the country. Heavy rains fell from the Carolinas northward along the Atlantic coast to New England.

2,200 Flee Floods

Red Cross officials said more than 2,200 persons were driven from their homes in the Columbus, Miss., area by flood waters from two rivers. Columbus was virtually isolated. Fifty thousand acres of land were flooded.

Another thousand persons were driven from their homes in Alabama and Tennessee. Rivers rose in north Georgia but no serious flood danger was forecast.

In the storm-swept west, the army and the Red Cross workers, as well as hundreds of civilians, joined in the efforts to bring relief to the thousands suffering from cold and lack of food.

The army of rescue workers battled through the huge snow drifts in the blizzard area in efforts to reach the thousands stranded by the storm which had lashed the plains for three days. Military and civilian planes flew over the snow-covered region, dropping food and clothing to hundreds in stalled automobiles and trains. There were numerous stories of heroic rescues.

Police said Hanson was taken to hospital with a fractured skull, two broken legs and abrasions to the face and arms after he was knocked down by Donohue's taxi at the west-end intersection of Queen Street and Ossington Avenue. Hospital officials said today Hanson's condition was serious.

Labor Board Reserves Judgment At Lindsay

TORONTO, Jan. 6—(CP)—The Ontario Labor Relations Board, cleaning up its business this week to make way for a new board took a look at two industries which cater to babies and corpses. The industries—Baby Tenda Co., and Evel Casket Co.

The board reserved judgment on a charge by employees at the Tenda Company at Lindsay that after they had applied for certification as a bargaining agency 18 employees were laid off, 16 of them union members.

Company Superintendent A. Meyers said a decline in sale of the Tendas, which are a modernized version of the old-fashioned high chair, had brought an increase in inventory which caused the layoff.

The board also reserved judgment on an application by employees of the Evel Casket Co., Hamilton, for certification as the factory's bargaining agency.

Report Prices Firmer In Active Trading

TORONTO, Jan. 6. —(CP). — Prices were firmer in active trading here today. Industrials moved irregularly on mixed gains and losses and golds and base metals perked ahead in mid-session to chalk up some good advances.

A wide list of industrial issues shwed narrow changes in moderate trading. Several issued moved on their own in strong action. Ford A dipped ¾ following announcement of a cut in exports to South Africa and layoff of some 80 men. Cockshutt Plow rolled ahead 1⅛ following an 11-month report that showed increased earnings. Construction issues continued Wednesday's firmness and Canadian Dredge climbed to a new high at 28½.

Golds re-awakened towards noon to continue their recent advance. Senior Producers led the upturn and a few juniors showed moderate gains in sparkling action. Wingait attracted some attention in the speculatives.

A wid elist of key base metals rolled ahead.

thing. Occupants of main street buildings climbed to their roofs to extinguish sparks.

Wall of Flame

George Shier, hotel proprietor, said that from his roof the street appeared to be a wall of flame with long tongues of fire leaping across the street. Hose was laid from the nearby Beaver River to Doyle's egg-grading station which was separated from the burning block by a three-foot alley.

Firemen succeeded in saving all the mail and important documents from the post office.

It was reported that the local fire truck broke down a few minutes after it went into action. That left the volunteer brigade armed only with fire extinguishers. Citizens chopped a hole in the ice on the river, but in the early stage of their struggle their lines were not long enough.

The whole block, built 60 years ago, seemed to burst forth in flames, and most of us didn't have a chance to save any belongings."

Clayton Henderson, barber, said he had time to run for his lodgings above his shop. Within an hour the post office and pool room were destroyed, and by noon Sunderland's main block was a smoking heap of ashes and debris. The egg-grading station was virtually a total loss.

Toll Bell

Townspeople were informed of the fire by the tolling of a church bell. The population is around 500. The building was the property of Clarence Bodley of Pefferlaw.

No one was seriously injured. Frank Doyle of the egg-grading station was overcome and blinded by smoke and almost stumbled off the roof. He was grabbed as he groped near its edge.

Mr. Shier, the hotelman, said firemen from Lindsay, Cannington, Port Perry and Uxbridge, operated on a shuttle service with their water tanks. "They rushed back and forth in a futile and pitiful attempt to check the flames. They might as well have stood by and looked on. It was just a question of the fire burning itself out, for there was no way to stop it."

Wm. Sheldon, who occupied the apartment over the post office, said: "My wife didn't have a chance to save a thing, so quickly did the flames reach and roar through our apartment. She had to grab our six-months-old baby daughter and rush from the building.

George Clay suffered superficial burns on hands and face.

Before neighboring fire brigades arrived, citizens feared the entire village was in danger. Employees of the bank across the road from the burning building were ordered out, and the bank was closed.

Telephone communication with Sunderland was interrupted early this afternoon when equipment was removed from the exchange which is housed in a building near the fire scene.

A fire July 21, 1947, caused between $135,000 and $200,000 damage to the Farmers Co-Operative buildings here which had just been completed that day. The one-storey wooden buildings which covered a quarter of an acre were a total loss. The fire was believed to have started in a "hot box" in a motor at the top of an elevator shaft.

BRIDGE REPAIR DELAYED

Delay in delivery of materials is the reason why the Cannifton bridge over Moira River, three miles north of Belleville is still closed to traffic. Repairs started after a car accident had made the bridge impassable but are being held up until a steel fabricating plant can supply the necessary materials.

Cost Of Living Shows 1st Drop

OTTAWA, Jan. 6. — (CP).— Government economists—and the little man who pays the household bills—looked to the future today for some sure indication that living costs actually are on their way down after a 23-month rise.

The Bureau of Statistics reported one encouraging sign Wednesday, a drop of seven-tenths of a point in the official cost-of-living index—but economists said the decline was not sufficient to indicate any general price trend.

The Bureau announced that the cost-of-living barometer dropped from 159.6 to 158.9 between Nov. 1 and Dec. 1 on the heels of a sharp, seasonal break in egg prices and more moderate declines in meats, fruits and vegetables. These served to counterbalance increases in other components in the index.

Economists pointed to the seasonal character of the food declines and said that the index groups, generally speaking, were holding "very firm" with no sign of a recession.

The Bureau reported that the food index fell from 204.7 at Nov. 1 to 202.0 at Dec. 1 for a decline of 2.7 for the one-month period and a drop of 3.4 points in the two months since Oct. 1.

Judge Says Cobourg Needs A Complete Re-Assessment

COBOURG, Jan. 6.—(ENS). — A need for more uniform assessments in Cobourg was apparent, said Judge W. S. Lane of Picton in his judgment of an appeal of Durland Theatres Ltd. of Cobourg against an assessment of $20,000 levied last summer on an uncompleted theatre building already reported in The Examiner. Judge Lane sustained the assessment of $20,000 with the stipulation that it applied to the theatre as a completed structure.

In referring to construction costs placed by expert witnesses, Judge Lane pointed out that the witness for the theatre company had said the completed building would cost $125,000 and the engineer called by the town estimated it at $150,000. It would be safe, therefore, to draw the conclusion that the total cost of the building would be well over $100,000, he said.

Judge Lane's report stated that "a construction value on today's prices is an inflated value, and therefore not a sound basis upon which an assessment should be made. The evidence was that the inflated value would probably bear some such relation of two to one over a normal cost of, say, 1940. I am therefore forced into the position at this stage to discard to a very great degree the figures that have been shown as the actual construction cost. I have been referred throughout the case to a number of comparables, or a number of other assessments, whether a comparable or not, covering the lands in the town of Cobourg. I have come to the conclusion that I cannot consider the hotel assessments in any light other than a ratio of about ten to one. In other words, it would appear to me that the actual value of hotel properties in Cobourg at today's inflated prices are about ten times the amount of the assessment. With regard to the other properties this ratio does not hold, although there is no doubt that there is a great discrepancy between values and assessment in so far as certain other industrial properties are concerned." The judge added that one plant was assessed for $31,000 which would have cost up to $200,000.

Inequalities Disclosed

"Apart from this example and some other rather astonishing inequalities as disclosed by the evidence, it appears to me that the ratio which the assessment bears to present-day values ranges from 35 to 40 per cent. As I said, that ratio is relating assessment to present-day values and not to normal values, and therefore it must be rationalized and brought back to a value which might be considered normal, a value which would be an actual value in 1940. I gathered that the increase in sale price from 1940 to the present time in Cobourg was somewhere about twenty-five per cent. and this would mean that the ratio of assessment to normal values would have to be altered and brought into line with 1940 values and would be somewhere in the neighborhood of fifty per cent.," he said.

Dealing specifically with the theatre in question, he said that reducing the cost to normality would bring it down to $80,000. Applying the ratio of assessments in Cobourg reduced it to $30,000, and this would seem reasonable were it not for the assessment on hotel properties and industrial plants.

"It is quite true that to rectify the situation the proper procedure would be to appeal against those other assessments and not to raise the inequalities in this appeal. It appears to me that the town of Cobourg is rather badly in need of a complete reassessment which would equalize not only the hotels, but also the industrial plants and business premises in one complete, new and fair assessment, but for the moment merely applying the equity of the situation as I see it, it would seem to me that I should not finally fix on $30,000 as the proper assessment for the completed building. It would appear to me that the proper yardstick should be to reduce the assessment of the completed building by two-thirds and on this basis it would mean that $20,000 would work out to be a reasonable figure from a mathematical standpoint. Were I to assess it as a building which was not being completed and which had been two-thirds built, the reduction might even go as low as $12,000. While the appeal covers an uncompleted building, the facts proved only cover a completed building. . . It would seem to me in equity, even bearing in mind the relative assessments in Cobourug, as well as the glaring inequalities set out, that the $200,000 should apply to the building as it is complete now," he declared.

Judge Lane said that he would be inclined to reduce the land assessment, which was set at $2,000, only there was not sufficient evidence of comparative lot sizes to make the situation clear enough to interfere.

Apple Growers Warned Of Unsteady Fruit Market

COBOURG, Jan. 8.—M. M. Robinson, secretary of the Ontario Fruit and Vegetable Association, told the Northumberland and Durham Apple Growers' Association here today that the province was now entering on a period of low prices for fruit and vegetables.

Mr. Robinson said that apples were the only commodity that had remained unchanged in price — "everything else is on the skids."

He said that apple growers should stress quality and continuity of supply to meet the demands of a public which had become conscious of quality during the war.

For ten months in 1948 the gold industry in Ontario amounted to 59 millions, but the fruit and vegetable industry was 100 millions. In spite of this, a great deal more attention was paid to gold, Mr. Robinson said. The association had encountered many problems, but he was proud of what had been accomplished. In fourteen months of operation there had been no compliants, except last summer when apple growers of Northumberland and Durham said they did not have adequate representation on the Association's directorate. This was a just complaint and would be remedied in 1949.

The structure of the association was in four units which functioned separately, apples, tender fruits, vegetables and potatoes, represented by an over all board of directors. The representatives met to deal with the business of each group and the apple section had met six times more frequently than any other.

Apples Popularized

Last February the apple growers felt sick. They saw a disastrous wind up of marketing the 1947 crop. However, an intensive advertising and publicity campaign was launched by the association and the season ended much better than expected. It was planned to develop a daily fruit and vegetables program next year dealing with market and production problems. He said he was recommending three books on apples, vegetables and tender fruits for free distribution throughout the province. Much progress had been made in publicity and it was apparent that it had been the cause to a great extent, of the success in getting apples moving last fall. Three Toronto stores had been selected, along with three outside distributing agencies, for the purpose of distributing apple recipe books. In one store alone, from two until five in one afternoon, 1,000 books had been given out.

"It showed that the housewife of today wants this sort of information and that the new generation knows nothing about apples, except that there are red aples. We want to acquaint the public with the fact that the red apple is not the only good one. That idea about red apples is the result of advertising by the British Columbia apple growers. There are many just as good and they are not red ones. The next few years will see keen competition between provinces and between this country and the United States growers. In July the restrictions will go off and the battle will begin. So it is up to us to advertise and publicize our products. We will have to go out and sell your stuff and our efforts are no good unless the growers maintain quality and keep up continuity of supply. Money spent on promotion without these two things done first of all by the producers, is just so much money thrown away," Mr. Robinson said.

Market Pretty Bad

The market was pretty bad, he continued, the only bright spot being apples. The rest was on the skids. Apples last season were fairly good in price and the price levels were maintained. However, carrots were only 60 per cent of last year's prices; beets, 50 per cent; cabbage, 75 per cent; celery, 20 per cent; and potatoes and onions were very low. A 50 lb. bag of U.S. onions was set down here for $1.25. All indications showed that the market was entering a period requiring careful handling.

"The happy days are over, but there should be another year or two of pretty fair trading even though the prices of the last five years are gone. With the exception of apples, the whole market is weak. British Columbia Mac's had tough going in southern Ontario because we had quality goods to offer and the B.C. product sold only in northern Ontario and Quebec. Before that they were taking our markets away under our noses. The public bought anything during the war but now people are quality-conscious," he said.

The 1949 County Council

Six new men will take their seats when the 1949 Peterborough County Council holds its inaugural meeting on January 18. While six out of seventeen may not be considered a major challenge, from the ratepayers it is a larger turnover than usual in this county. Of the four reeves who faced opposition at the polls only one was re-elected, and this in itself reveals that all is not well in the opinion of the voters. Their defeats may be attributed to the handling of affairs in their local municipalities, but the reeve is regarded as the spokesman at home for the County Council.

• • • •

The turnover failed to equal the big upset of 1932 when eleven of the eighteen county councillors of the 1931 council failed to be re-elected or did not choose to run. At that time the depression was at its height and municipal politics were passing through a period of deep unrest.

• • • •

Of the six new members, two have had previous experience on the County Council, but only one as reeve. He is the veteran Rork Ferguson returning to the County Council as the representative of Norwood. Mr. Ferguson has during the past 40 years set the enviable record of representing three municipalities in Peterborough County—Dummer, Asphodel and Norwood. He was warden in 1934.

• • • •

Will Mr. Ferguson duplicate the record of two former wardens, M. Sanderson, reeve of Smith, who was warden in 1880 and 1881, and John McIntosh who represented North Monaghan for many years and was warden in 1919 and 1933?

• • • •

Of the eleven members left of last year's Council four have served a term as warden and are veterans. James Gifford has represented Ennismore for 15 years, Melville Johnston has been representative of North Monaghan for nine years, James Mahoney reeve of Douro for seven years and 1948 Warden James Humphries has represented Asphodel for five years. Norman Wilson of Burleigh and Anstruther, Peter Pearson of Galway and Cavendish and William Darling of Dummer have all served five years and can be considered candidates for the wardenship, although William Grant of Lakefield, a nominee for the 1948 wardenship, may also be a contender. Of these four Peter Pearson represents a municipality which since 1880 has only had one warden. He was John Clark, who represented Galway and Cavendish for a quarter of a century and was warden in 1923.

Canadians Like Titles And Honours

There has been some editorial rejoicing over the fact that the Department of External Affairs has ruled that Canadian ambassadors and ministers abroad will be called "Mister", rather than "His Excellency". We cannot join in the glee, however, for we think the decision a mistaken one, which will do Canada no good either at home or abroad. It is customary for ambassadors to be addressed as "Your Excellency"; why should Canada seek to be exceptional in this matter?

The Ottawa Citizen favours the "Mister" business, saying that Canada has no "landed gentry", and that many of us had ancestors who were humble immigrants. That is quite true, but what has that to do with the case? Is a man who has the ability to achieve ambassadorial rank to live always under the shadow of his grandfather, who never got beyond swinging a pick for the C.P.R.? Since when has the mediocrity of a man's forebears lessened the respect which he has won with his own abilities? The Citizen should remember that not only are we who live today the inheritors of our ancestors—we are ourselves the ancestors of the coming race. Is no grandchild of a living Canadian ambassador to look back with pride upon the "Excellency" of his grandfather?

The idea that titles and distinctions are repugnant to the democratic sympathies of Canadians is sheer bunk. In how many obituaries do we list the fraternal honours won by the departed in the lodge of his choice? Do not great numbers of Canadians love to write "U.E.L." after their names? Do not our nurses insist upon being labelled "Reg.N."? Was there not the greatest eagerness during the war years for the many distinctions which were then being handed out, and did our soldiers ever neglect to decorate themselves with any ribbons to which they were entitled? No. Canadians are human, and they like honours. There is nothing disgraceful, or, essentially, undemocratic about that liking. And we may be sure that other nations will think no more of us because we primly insist that our ambassadors be called "Mister"; they may, however, think us a little silly and pervertedly pretentious, and they will be right.

Twelfth Night

This is Twelfth Night, the last of the great feasting days of the Christmas season. It is also the church festival of Epiphany—by tradition the day upon which the Three Kings found the infant Jesus and gave him gifts, thereby acknowledging him not merely as King of the Jews but as a greater king. It is a pity that so little attention is paid to Twelfth Night in our day, for it provides an opportunity for merriment, and in our dreary winter we need all the opportunities of that kind that we can get.

In the early Middle Ages is was usual to leave the Christmas decorations up until Candlemas, the second of February; but with the passing of time it became the custom to take them down on Twelfth Night, and it was obligatory to burn at least some of the greenery, or ribbon, in order to ensure good luck during the coming year. A faint echo may be found of this custom in our city ruling that Christmas trees must be collected at this time, though it is a depressing, rather than a merry sight, to see the Christmas greenery being hauled away to be burned in a municipal bonfire.

Until fairly recently it was usual for a special cake to be baked for Twelfth Night, and if the cake was for a party, a bean and a pea were concealed in it. The girl who found the pea became the Twelfth Night Queen, and the man who found the bean was her King. It is impossible to guess at the antiquity of this custom, but it is far older than Christianity, and was well known in ancient Rome.

Another custom for Twelfth Night was common in England in the orchard country; cake soaked in cider was placed in the branches of the apple trees "for the robin", as a means of assuring a good apple crop in the year to come.

Boxing Day has come into favour in Canada within the past twenty-five years. Could not Twelfth Night be revived, as a night for parties and merrymakings?

The Fashion Experts On The 1949 Look

We have been inspecting the new year's fashions through the pronouncements of Fashion's leading dictators, the dress designers. This new year should be extraordinarily interesting if our ladies wear what the experts say they will (or should), and particularly if the same lady tries to conform with all the decrees. Lilly Dache says: "Interest will be at the top, particularly in sleeves and necklines.... This spring will mark the return of the sport hat to protect the new pink and white complexion". (We are fascinated by that new pink and white complexion). Tina Leser thinks that interest will be at the bottom: "The shape of 1949 is based largely on... skirts".

Nettie Rosenstein stresses "the small-looking waistline...the idea is to make a woman look as thin as possible". However Jo Copeland of Pattullo (Pattullo is not the name of an American or Italian city) says that "Point number one is that we are not going back to tight skirts. A woman loses charm if she feels and looks confined in her clothes" This expert then becomes a whit rhapsodical: "There are plenty of slim skirts, but with concealed motion. Prints simply must have motion, and therefore fullness". Emily Wilkens remarks cryptically that "Lately, a figure has had to work for a dress. This year the opposite will be true". We suspect, however, that the wage-earning husbands will still have to work for the monetary figures that provide the dresses.

There seems to be no general agreement among the fourteen designers whose predictions, admonitions and counsel we read. We do get the general impression that women will continue to wear clothes and that they will never be allowed to let the fashionable flag fall.

Anyone Can Sing

By JANET MABIE
In The Christian Science Monitor

WE should be making greater large-scale use of group singing to distill the peace that flows like streams of living waters from people to people.

Thirty-three years ago Lorenzo Camilleri founded the People's Chorus of New York. Out of his observation of its effect on people in all stations and walks of life he asks himself why we are not doing so. He asks the same question of educators in general. Group singing is logically a blend of education and entertainment, a people's medium for expressing the joys and hopes and relieving the frictions of the day's round. Peace is not an abstraction. It grows out of harmony between people and their surroundings. "Singing," Mr. Camilleri reminds us, "is the emphasis of the speaking voice."

IT requires zeal to encourage and persuade amateurs to sing ensemble works of Bach, Handel, Elgar, Brahms. Once Mme. Olga Samaroff went to a concert of the People's Chorus. "I expected some nice little popular things," she related with astonishment, "and what do I hear? A Bach chorale! And it was better than professionals!"

Speaking relatively, three decades have shown Mr. Camilleri just the surface of what ensemble singing, by people who want to make their own music for a change, can be. But he thinks any man who organized his business as haphazardly as we have so far organized the creative use of group singing in the education structure would find himself in bankruptcy.

"SINGING is not rightly for the few with the voices of special talent," he asks us to remember. "In by-passing the majority with good but unschooled voices we have, in effect, developed a bloc of the musical disenfranchised. How?

"Well, in a school of 1,000 enrollment, say there will be a nice glee club of 150 voices. Everyone is proud of it and that's fine—for the 150. But what about the other 850? Why should they be vocally disinherited, as you might say? How can we justify the lost opportunity for building that majority, too, into a frankly different but as constructive a force for harmony?"

✧ ✧ ✧

WHEN the People's Chorus began, its select motto was "Sing to Serve." In itself serve is a word for generosity. It applies impartially to the individual and any multiplication of individuals. "Music is no fancy embroidery applied to living," Mr. Camilleri points out, "but to be woven into its texture. The urge to sing is universal. Musically organized voices singing notes and words of inspired orderliness are able to release pent-up spiritual strength. This old world never stood in more need of turning back thought from the clamor of super-mechanized civilization to eternal verities. You could say that ensemble singing is in the category of world federal government—it ought to be tried!"

✧ ✧ ✧

MR. Camilleri originally came from Corfu. He conducted concert orchestras and opera in Europe and South America. "I always loved the human voice!" he exclaims, and goes on to explain that he formed a people's chorus in Athens in which the ensemble of 700 voices was so impressive that the authorities of the Olympic Games invited him to present it in the stadium. Too, the president of Arsakion College for girls, drawing 4,000 students from all over Asia Minor, said to him, "Come, Camilleri, you will make us a chorus!" He did, and the fact had an odd coincidental result after he came to the United States.

"THE People's Chorus or its members," he explains, "neither expect nor wish to be Traubels or Carusos. They come from all walks of life and all they want to do is sing, in a place where others come to do the same thing. Anyone is welcome. The door is always open. It is immaterial whether they bring with them a knowledge of music, the ability to read notes. We have a blackboard and plenty of chalk! We develop from a point where they think they have nothing more than an urge to sing.

"In the heart of the biggest city in the world we go on with our idea. People join us, go out and tell what it means to them after the hard work of the day. Someone hears, and writes us a letter or calls on the telephone.

"'I like to sing,' they say, 'but I must tell you I don't have much voice.'

"I tell them, 'Has everyone got $1,000,000?' If you are alive, come in. If you are alive, you breathe. If you breathe, you will be able to make sound. The human voice is a mystery but the exercise of it is no mystery. Anyone can sing who is capable of opening his mouth and saying, 'Please pass the butter.' There is a way to sing la-la-la-la over and over and at last it will be just right. It is possible to write notes on the blackboard and explain them so that a person who never before read notes can understand and translate them with his voice.

✧ ✧ ✧

"GOOD articulation, good enunciation—you begin to hear the words you sing. Come to the People's Chorus and, if you are good, we will make you better. If you are uninteresting to yourself, we make you interesting, by bringing out a power you never knew you possessed. To make true music with your own voice puts you in harmony with yourself. Until you are in harmony with yourself, how can you be in harmony with your surroundings? Until you are in harmony with your surroundings, how can you release a force for peace?"

WHOM DID TRUMAN MEAN?

Current Press Opinion

Charity At Its Best

Vancouver Sun: When a well-to-do Vancouver citizen, "Rufe" Gibbs, gives $40,000 to help the boys of Vancouver's East End, he sets a magnificent example of well-doing. More than that, he has the satisfaction of watching the lads whose good he has at heart benefit from his benevolence.

Lots of people accumulate wealth without ever sharing it with others. At their death it passes to survivors who likewise keep it to themselves. Mr. Gibbs is not that sort of man.

"When a man has security and health he is well-off," says this benefactor of the younger generation. He sees no point to letting money be idle when it can be active doing good. The new recreational centre on Pender Street East, to be known as the "Rufe Gibbs Unit" of Vancouver Boys' Club, has been opened as a lasting monument to the vision of one whose well-doing is about as practical as any could be.

It is just such acts as these which establish a strong front against juvenile delinquency. Instead of roaming the streets or haunting pool halls, 400 boys will find healthy, adventurous fun in the building Mr. Gibbs bought and furnished for them. They and all Vancouver owe him a great debt of thanks. Would that there were more like him!

The First Humorist

Manchester Guardian: "Who," demanded Sir Alan Herbert at a Foyle's literary luncheon last week, "is the first humorist of the age? Who is the man who can make anybody laugh in any context at any time?" At his side were such fun-makers as Arthur Askey, Will Hay, Strube, and Nicholas Bentley, and those questioned stared expectantly at their personal choice for this honour. They should have known Sir Alan better. Without hesitation he awarded his crown for humour to Mr. Churchill. And, perhaps to assuage the feelings of his fellow-humorists, he quoted some lines of his own:

Oh it's hard to be funny for money
As you'll find if you're that way intentioned,
For most of the world isn't funny
And the rest of it mustn't be mentioned.

Sir Alan told of a party of learned men discussing the essence of humour. Some thought it was misfortune, others incongruity, but an American insisted that it was surprise, "for that is why you laugh when you see a joke in 'Punch.'" Sir Alan protested that he was wrong. The essence of humour, he said, was recognition, and that was why the British laughed when they saw a joke in the "New Yorker."

Giant Seaweed For Scottish Industry

U.K. Information Office: New discoveries made by scientists working on seaweed research in Scotland are giving a lead to the world. On their progress will depend the success of an industry now in its infancy. When developed this can earn on annual revenue of $60 million.

Scientists are aiming at acclimatizing a new kind of seaweed in the waters around the shores of Scotland. It is a giant sea kelp, a native of the Pacific, where its huge fronds measuring up to 100 yards in length trail on the surface.

Scotland requires this weed in large quantities to supply a new chemical industry. It will be more economic to gather than the plants now used, owing to the fact that it floats and so can be harvested with ease.

Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

And a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms of them that entered into the temple; who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple asked an alms....

Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk. And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up: and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength.

And he leaping up stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God. (Acts 3: 2, 3, 6-8.)

And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes, and Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem....

Then Peter, filled with the Holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel, if we this day be examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole; be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead even by him doth this man stand here before you whole. (Acts 4: 5, 6, 8-10.)

Oxford University Students Bring Heads Out Of Clouds

By NORMAN CRIBBENS

OXFORD, England, Jan. 6 (CP).—Oxford University, once the temple of dreaming spires and lost causes, has its post-war head well out of the clouds. Its 7,000 post-war students are more interested in contemporary affairs than their predecessors, in the opinion of Oxford's new vice-chancellor, Calgary-born Dr. John Lowe.

"There is, too, a greater interest in religion," said Dr. Lowe, a lean scholarly figure, formerly Dean of Divinity at Trinity College, Toronto.

Dr. Lowe said that while in the '30s the dominant sentiment among undergraduates was left-wing, "there does seem to be at present a modern swing of the pendulum to the right."

"But," he added, "no far-reaching inferences should be drawn from this. A lot of the Union society debates are chiefly play-acting, and there is a youthful tendency to express things strongly one way or another.

"There is an equal natural tendency to swing against the government."

Healthy Interest

Of the university's latest membership figures—Conservative Association, 1,500, Labor Club, 1,250 and Liberal Club—he said: "It merely proves there is a healthy interest in all parties."

Dr. Lowe's appointment as vice-chancellor in succession to the late Dr. W. T. S. Stallybrass, principal of Brasenose College, came as a surprise to many. At 49 he is one of the youngest vice-chancellors in Oxford's history and is the first dean of Christ Church to attain this position since 1914.

Son of the late Rev. H. P. Lowe, rector of St. Luke's, Calgary, he was taken to Toronto when only one year old and educated at St. Catharine's Collegiate Institute and Trinity College.

He served as a sapper with the Canadian forces during the first world war and went to Oxford as a Rhodes scholar in 1922. He took first both in greats and theology.

Successful Lecturer

Returning to Canada in 1926 he was successively lecturer, chaplain, professor and Dean of Divinity at Trinity College, Toronto. He was appointed Dean of Christ Church, Oxford, in 1939.

"The government of Oxford is thoroughly democratic," he said. "All major decisions of policy are made by the congregation, a body of about 800 resident M.A.S. or holders of higher degrees, who are teachers or administrators in the university.

"The vice-chancellor is primarily chairman of a large number of boards and committees, and in this way may exercise influence, though his direct authority is small."

Here and There in Sport

By The Canadian Press

The one-season amalgamation of two Toronto football clubs—Balmy Beach and Indians—into one known as Beaches-Indians, ended Wednesday. Balmy Beach, 24-year-old club from Toronto's east end and one of the best-known teams in eastern Canadian football, will reorganize and continue competition this year, but it means the end of the war-born Indian club, organized five years ago after the Inter-provincial Rugby Union suspended operations early in the war. John Stuart, former Indians president and president of last season's combines, said the Indians would "fold." The combined Beaches-Indians, coached by Ted Reeve, well-known Toronto sports columnist and one of Canada's greatest players, placed second in the 1948 Senior Ontario Rugby Football Union schedule.

Talk of amalgamation of Hamilton's two senior football clubs, Tigers and Wildcats, has come up again with word of the end of a one-season amalgamation between Toronto Balmy Beach and Trnt Indians. But Jack Langs, president of the Tiger football club, said Wednesday night that a local amalgamation has not even reached the preliminary stage.

A senior football team is in prospect for London, its backers were said Wednesday night to have lined up 10 former members of the University of Western Ontario Mustangs as a nucleus and may seek an entry in the Ontario Rugby Football Union Senior series this fall. Main obstacle is to obtain permission to use Little Memorial Stadium at Western for the home games of the new club—to be called the Western Alumni. A definite decision is expected in about two weeks.

Announcement Wednesday at Montreal that the Canadian figure Skating Association will not sponsor any entries at the world figure skating championships means that no Canadian figure skaters will compete in Europe this winter, Norman V. S. Gregory, CFSA president, said the world championships will be held at Paris Feb. 11-14, but that no Canadian will participate "because we have no persons who we think is of championship calibre."

This means that international competition, except for the North American and other United States meets, is out for Canadians this year. The European championships, won in 1947 and 1948 by Ottawa's Barbara Ann Scott, now are open only to European skaters.

Jeanne Matthews, 19-year-old Canadian Junior figure-skating champion, said Wednesday night at Vancouver she is "not too disappointed" that she will not be asked to represent the Dominion in the world championships in Paris Feb. 11-14.

"The offer would have been nice, even though I would not have taken it because the Canadian meet is being held in Ottawa the same month," she said.

Tommy Waldon, chunky fullback of the University of Toronto's Intercollegiate football champion team, on Wednesday was awarded the Johnny Copp trophy by vote of his teammates. The award is made annually to the player showing sportsmanship, character and playing ability to the highest degree. Waldon is one of only three senior footballers known to wear contact lenses on the field. He expects to be graduated this year.

Marine Cagers Gain Win From Cobourg

Gord McIntyre's local Marines "B" cagers opened their Lakeshore Basketball League schedule last night with a 31-27 win in Cobourg. It was a neat number all the way, with the visitors missing a lot of chances but getting plenty of opposition from the homesters. The count was 18-10 for Marines at the half but Cobourg battled back toward the finish. Dadson paced Marines' attack with 12 points, while Payne got nine, Trimm six and McLaren four. Quigley counted 10 points for Cobourg, Allender seven, Hollam three, Irwin, Bevan and Platt two each, and Galley one. The teams:

Marines: McClaren, Dadson, Trimm, Green, Payne, Griffin, Butcher, Smith, Batchelor, Gardiner.

Cobourg: Quigley, Hollam, Allender, Bevan, Platt, Guy, Hart, Wilson, Galley, Baker, Irwin.

Referee—Joe Stewart.

Professional Hockey League Is Proposed

OTTAWA, Jan. 6 (CP)—Negotiations are under way for future formation of a professional hockey league in Ontario, T. P. (Tommy) Gorman, manager of the Ottawa Forum Company, said today. He suggested the league might be lined up in time for next season.

Possible cities operating in the circuit are Toronto, Hamilton, London, Windsor, Sudbury, Sault Ste. Marie and Ottawa, Gorman said.

"There is a new rink at Sault Ste. Marie and the people there are hot for professional hockey. Sudbury is building a new arena and the Nickel Belt is looking for a league. A new rink is to be built at London and it should be ready for next season."

He said one of the prime movers was Conn Smythe, managing director of the Toronto Maple Leaf Gardens.

"The Hamilton people are interested," he continued, "and Windsor may come back into pro hockey. A second professional team is proposed for Toronto and it would play at Maple Leaf Gardens. The Toronto Leafs would, of course, continue to play in the N.H.L.

"I think they intend to call the new outfit the Ontario Professional Hockey Association."

Comes a bid to attend the conference of Canadian national sports governing bodies in Ottawa this week-end. It's being called by the National Council on Physical Fitness. This government council was established in 1943 and one clause is: "It shall be the duty of the Council to promote the physical fitness of the people of Canada and in the performance of such duty it may . . . encourage, develop and correlate all activities relating to physical development through sports, athletics and other similar pursuits." The object of the meeting is not to have the government take over the running of sports but to encourage athletics and assist in any way possible. A real emphasis is placed on sport in developing physical fitness.

Sports governing bodies in this country take in about every game played. Such as: Golf, boxing, yachting, gym, intercollegiate games, softball, track and field, weightlifting, wrestling, skating, basketball, hockey, skiing, swimming, paddling, badminton, bowling, lacrosse, lawn bowling and tennis, rugby, secondary schools' contests, target shooting, cycling, curling, soccer, baseball, fencing, many girls' games, and so forth. The convention will decide on continuing or otherwise international competition, coaching in smaller centres, commercial sponsorship of sports, public aid, protection from pro raids and a number of other pertinent points.

Cagers Ready Again

After the holidays, the local basketeers go into action again this week-end. Tomorrow eve at 8.15 in the YW, Lockeys and Normals wind up the first half of the girls' schedule, followed at 9.15 by the exhibition tilt. Saturday p.m. at seven in the Collegiate, Oshawa and Marines "B" team start the Lakeshore Loop schedule, followed at 8.15 by an exhibition betwixt Toronto "Eddie Black's" and Marines "A" squad. Two touring USA men's teams seek games, the House of David and the New York Black Barons. We have the addresses if anyone here is interested.

Petes will be at home to Legionnaires tomorrow night at 8.30 in Civic Arena. This is not a social note but notice of an OHA senior "B" game, first clash of the season by these local enemies. We use the word advisedly as there is no love lost at all on the ice between these clubs. Legion defeated Petes in a sizzling series last spring for group honors and Emily Post went out the window. It'll be a real test between the men o' McGillis and the Legion chaps and they'll play for keeps. Give them good ice and they'll really turn it on, and the tussle rates a packed house if the weather is okay. Both teams hope to be at full strength for the important scrap.

Legion Did Okay

Legionnaires like fast ice but they didn't do too badly in sticky going last eve at the Civic Arena. Beat Toronto Meteors 8-2 and always looked better. But we'd like to see both squads on fast footing as it would be a real ball game. A good-sized crowd on deck for such a miserable night and the fans seemed to like it. Ice held okay for a period but got pretty bad the last half due to the mild weather and the crowd in there. Legion looked as "hungry" as last year—meaning they were full of fight and hustle every minute. Crowded the Toronto puckists plenty and weren't a bit afraid to tangle with 'em at anytime.

* * * * * *

They looked pretty strong to us, despite the shinny which marked much of the melee. A good goalie, a solid and heady defence, plus speedy forwards who fight up and down their lanes. The first line of Rochetta, Bob Greenlaw and Crowley sparked the attack, but both other lines looked real promising. And the four newcomers to the club showed a lot. In fact, Bert Hill was in on three goals, while Reg. Stewart and Al Merpaw were battling every time they got out there, and hefty Nick Humulka has played a lot of defence before. As Markham beat Toronto Bells, folks will get a pretty fair idea of the relative senior "B" strengths after the Friday fray between Petes and Legion.

Action In District

In the Trent Valley Hockey League last night, Campbellford walloped Warkworth 10-1 in the Hydro Town, Norwood yanked out a 3-1 decision o'er Madoc on the former's ice, and Lakefield gained a 6-all draw at home with Hastings. Joe Blewett blossomed out as a defenceman to help open the new Lakefield arena, and he scored the tying goal for his side late in the final frame. Ice everywhere was sticky but good crowds on deck, we hear. Games billed for Friday night are: Norwood at Warkworth, Stirling at Campbellford, Madoc at Lakefield, Tweed at Hastings, and Marmora at Frankford. With five more tilts listed for Monday around the district.

Campbellford Get A 10-1 Win

CAMPBELLFORD, Jan. 6 — (ENS)—Coach Hendy's squad in a hard-fought hockey fixture took the Warkworth club to the tune of 10-1 before nearly 500 cheering fans in Davidson's Arena on Wednesday night. Despite the soft ice the contest was remarkable for its speed and close checking. The busiest man on the ice was O'Halloran, saving brilliantly time after time on close-in shots.

The teams:

At Detroit 'Spiel

DETROIT, Jan. 6 — (CP). — Toronto will lead the Canadian rinks in the 63rd international bonspiel of the Detroit Curling Club on Friday with eight quartettes, the largest number of entries from a city competing in the three-day event. Two of last year's trophy winners, Dr. J. C. Malcolmson of the Toronto Curling Club, whose rink won the Nate Cornwall Trophy, and Justice D. P. J. Kelly who skipped his Toronto Granite Curling Club rink to victory in the Erwin Palmer Trophy event, are sure starters.

STILL ATOP—Joe Rochetta, leading Legion sniper last puck season, is still in front, getting four scoring points last night here as Legion defeated Toronto Meteors by an 8-2 count.

Legion Beats Meteors, 8-2 In Lively Fray On Wet Ice

Legionnaires opened their OHA Senior "B" schedule at Civic Arena last night with a smashing 8-2 victory over Toronto Meteors. A good-sized crowd for wet weather saw a lively struggle on ice which was poor the last half of the game. The hockey served up under the circumstances wasn't the best, but it was fast and often exciting. Legion had a 3-0 edge the first frame and built it to a 6-1 margin going into the third. They drew eight of the 15 penalties handed out in a fairly clean game, marked with one fist fight.

Joe Rochetta sparked the Legion attack with four scoring points, while Bob Greenlaw and Bert Hill were in on three each, and Bill Crowley two. All the forwards showed a lot of hustle and fight in front of a strong defence and fine goalie. Coach Ned Vitarelli and Johnny Godfrey again proved a tough defence to beat, and Ross Nicholls was as cool and efficient as ever. Tom Campbell and Bus Sadler were best defensively for Toronto, with Bill Thoms, Joe Marsoluk and Baz Bell most consistent on the attack for them. Don Crowe turned out with the Meteors.

Stepped Fast

Before the ice got too sticky, the rivals stepped fast with a Hill-Stewart rush coming close. Bert Hill then battled hard and got the puck off an opponent, stepped out and slapped an angle drive by Cleary for Legion. Bob Greenlaw made it 2-0 right after an in-close passout from Rochetta. Bob was gated then for interference, followed by Crowley for high-sticking, but both got back in time to see Marsoluk waved for boarding. Sadler then got it for interference and but one was back when Bob Greenlaw got a neat goal, back-handed from Rochetta inside defence. Thoms was thefted by Nicholls and D. Vitarelli pulled a neat play at the end.

Thoms Scored

Ned Vitarelli was penalized early in the second but Legion staved off a hot Meteor attack till his return. Then Thoms' slapshot from a faceoff near the Legion goal netted the disc for their first one. Vallure was thumbed away for tripping and Stewart cashed in on that fast and neatly with Hill's pass to make the count 4-1. Meteors drove hard again but Legion added one when Crowley flipped one in on a rebound off a defenceman on a play built up by Bob Greenlaw and Rochetta. Thoms drew a misconduct penalty for arguing too strenuously that a local player had held the puck with his hand Legion scored one but the player was in the crease. Near the finish, Crowley raced in to bang home Godfrey's pass and it was 6-1.

Quite Sticky

The ice was quite sticky in the third and players tired fast. The puck was harder to carry and passes went astray, but there were plenty of lively plays. Campbell and Rochetta mixed it with fists and drew majors. Then Parks and Crowley tangled to draw minor roughing penalties, putting those four and Thoms in the box at once. It was fairly fast shinny and both goalies in turn had to jump. Ned Vitarelli was gated for elbowing but finally they were all back when Hill scored in a speedy dash with Mortimer. Campbell was chased for hooking and Crowley followed for interference. Then Massoluk counted on a neat combination rush at close range with Bell. It was quite scrambly near the finish, with Crowley over again for interference, when Ned Vitarelli bashed home Rochetta's passout, tricking the goalie nicely, to wind it up.

The teams:

Meteors — Goal, Cleary; defence, Campbell and Sadler; centre, Thoms; wings, Vallure and Carter; alternates, Crowe, Veigel, DeLaat, Parks, Marsoluk, Robertson and Bell.

Legion — Goal, Nicholls; defence, Godfrey and N. Vitarelli; centre, Rochetta; wings, Crowley and R. Greenlaw; alternates, Parneh, D. Vitarelli, T. Greenlaw, Hill, Merpaw, Stewart, Mortimer and Humulka.

Referee, L. Heffering; linesman, P. Calladine.

Leafs Blank Boston 4-0 Rangers Clip Hawks 3-1

By BERT ALLEN
Canadian Press Staff Writer.

Two players deserve the most credit for starting the upsurging New York Rangers on the victory trail: Allan Stanley and Buddy O'Connor.

Since Stanley, the $70,000 beauty, moved up to strengthen the Blueshirts defence corps, and O'Connor, the mighty mite, returned to action after a pre-season injury, the men of Manhattan have set the hottest pace of any club in the National League.

Wednesday night O'Connor spun and pivoted neatly away from body checks in old-time style to rap home two goals as Rangers clipped Chicago Black Hawks 3-1 at New York. In the other game on the Wednesday night bill, Turk Broda turned in his fourth shutout of the season as the Maple Leafs blanked the Boston Bruins 4-0.

In Fifth Place

The victory moved New York into a fifth-place tie with the idle Montreal Canadiens. Rangers had been languishing all alone in the league basement since November 25. Toronto's impressive triumph boosted Happy Day's revived crew up to sole possession of fourth spot.

Sharing the limelight in the Ranger victory with O'Connor was a 20-year-old rookie winger up from the American League New Haven Ramblers, Jack Gordon, who garnered assists on both of Buddy's payoff shots.

Little Tony Leswick tipped in Edgar Laprade's 45-foot drive from a sharp angle for the other Ranger counter, while Chicago's lone goal went to veteran Doug Bentley. The marker moved Bentley back into a tie for the loop scoring leadership with teammate Roy Conacher.

Thomson Star

Defenceman Jim Thomson was the big man in Toronto's victory over Boston, scoring the first two goals in the initial period to give the Leafs a lead they protected all the way. Ted Kennedy and Harry Taylor added a goal apiece to clinch the verdict.

To-night the Bruins move on to Detroit for a clash with the league-leading Red Wings, while Montreal entertains Chicago in the only other game on tap.

The crippled Habitants will show two new players in defenceman Bud McPherson of Edmonton Flyers of the Western Canada Senior League and winger Gerry Plamondon of the Quebec Senior League Montreal Royals. Each will play three games under the pro-amateur lend-lease agreement.

Car Bonspiel Gets Good Start

WINNIPEG, Jan. 6.—(CP). — Are automobile bonspiels here to stay?

Many ardent followers of the ancient game say they are—but probably as many more old-time curlers believe such competitions are a trend of the free-spending times.

When the Nipawin, Sask., Curling Club first announced in 1946 it was planning a bonspiel with prizes totalling $12,000, including four automobiles, shouts of "commercialization" were heard in curling circles.

But Nipawin continued to boost the event and 101 rinks paid the $100 entry fee.

Nipawin officials, headed by President Cliff McDonald, said:

"Our main objective in staging this 'spiel is to raise money for our new rink. Secondly, we want to show curlers in our country some of the finest masters of the game in the world."

And the town of approximately 2,400 people did just that. Last year Nipawin boosted its prize list to $23,000 and the event now in progress is worth about the same amount.

Knockout Verdict Brings Free-for-All

JERSEY CITY, N.J., Jan 6 — (AP)— Fighters, seconds, managers and spectators milled in a free-for-all Wednesday night at Jersey City Garden when Mike de Cosmo, Elizabeth, N.J., spored a seventh-round technical knockout over Tony Riccio of Bayonne, N.J.

The official verdict in the scheduled nine-round bout touched off the melee.

Riccio, 148, lunged from his corner to swing at De Cosco, 144½ Seconds and managers jumped into the ring. A score of spectators joined them.

Fights broke out at the ringside.

A dozen policemen restored order. No one was injured.

Riccio told reporters later that De Cosmo had butted him with his head in the fifth round.

Dutchmen Paste Stratford 14-0; Gens Win 5-3

By The Canadian Press

If it's any consolation, the humble Stratford Indians picked up an extra $100 last night for the 14-0 defeat Kitchener-Waterloo Flying Dutchmen plastered on them.

Languishing in the doldrums of the Senior A Ontario Hockey Association loop, the Indians won't get fat over it—but at least they'll survive until the next season blossoms.

But for the financial aid of three other clubs of the five-team loop, Stratford officials said they would be forced to withdraw from the league. Three days ago the clubs—the Dutchmen, Hamilton Tigers and Owen Sound Mercurys—agreed to give the Indians $100 towards travelling expenses every time they played in their respective cities.

While Stratford was plunged deeper into the league cellar, three Junior A teams saw action. Barrie Flyers beat Guelph Biltmores 2-1, Windsor Spitfires downed Stratford Kroehlers 7-3 and Oshawa Generals defeated Toronto St. Michael's College Majors 5-3.

All But One Score

Every player on the Kitchener squad, with the exception of netminder Marcel Pelletier, figured in the scoring.

The Dutchmen took a 1-0 lead in the first period, lengthened it to 8-0 at the end of the second and then fired home six goals in the last period.

Don Bauer led the scoring parade with four goals. Sparky Weiler and Bill Flick got three apiece and Jack Shewchuck and Harry Hurst got two each.

The Generals came from behind a 2-0 count in the first period, were deadlocked 3-3 at the end of the second and then outscored the Irish 2-0 in the last period.

Bill Robinson and Archie Richardson led Oshawa with two goals apiece. The other went to Dusty Blair. Gord Hannigan got two for Toronto while Joe Decourcy got one.

Windsor caught fire in the third period with a four-fgoal splurge. The win left the Spitfires in second place, with 39 points. They forged from behind a 2-1 score in the first period to tie the game up in the second at 3-3.

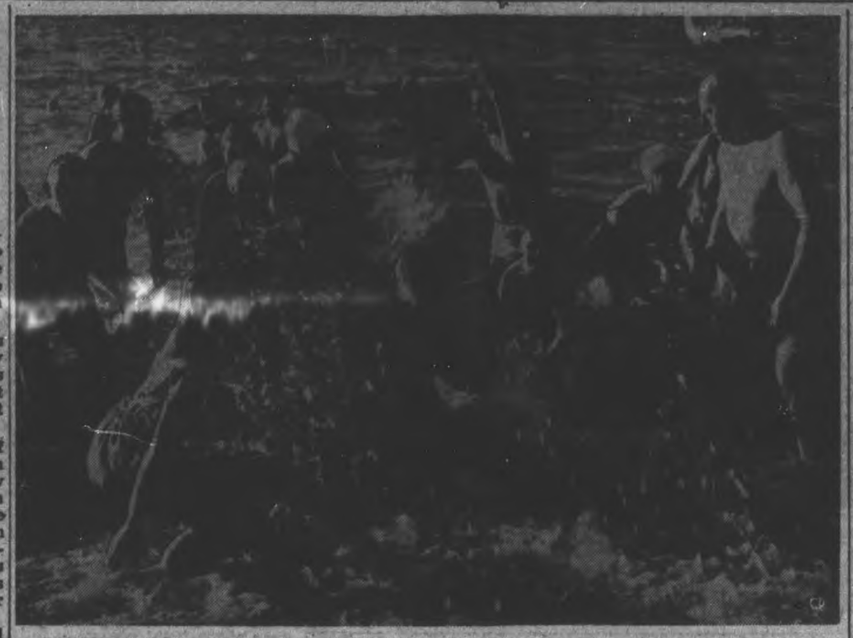
John Wilson tallied twice for Windsor. Larry Wilson, Bert and Bruce Giesebrecht, Francis O'Grady and Doug McKay got singletons. Bob Armstrong, Bibber O'Hern and Pierre Cadieux scored for the losers.

The Flyers remained in first place in the league as they garnered one goal in the first period and one in the second. Biltmores counted their lone tally in the final stanza. The loss left Guelph in sixth place.

Gord Pennell and Sid McNabney counted for Barrie. Frank Bathgate got Guelph's marker.

Watch Those Points

MOOSE JAW, Sask. — (CP)— A bit of the Olde English Pub atmosphere has crept into Moose Jaw in the form of a 46-man darts league. Most of the players are veterans who got acquainted with darts overseas.



BRRRRRR!—Thirty-seven members of Vancouver's Polar Bears Club shouted "c'mon in—the water's fine" to 5,000 spectators at English Bay as they started the New Year with a swim. Temperature of the water was 39.4 degrees, considerably warmer than the freezing air. Two of the more hardy members stayed in for 25 minutes.

Norwood Takes TVL Tilt Against Madoc

NORWOOD, Jan. 6 (ENS) — Norwood opened their home Trent Valley League hockey schedule here last night with a 3-1 victory over Madoc. It was a good, speedy struggle on sugary ice, pretty clean throughout. Madoc took a 1-0 lead in the first heat but Norwood replied in the second with three goals by Pattersen, Goodfellow and Simpson, as Payne assisted on two. The latter drew a match penalty this period for arguing with the referee, instead of getting the usual 10-minute misconduct penalty. A fair-sized crowd saw the tilt. Teams:

Madoc: Goal, Laverne; defence, Bigeley and Dannon centre, Keller; wings, Smith and Kelly; alternates, Naylor, Baker, Nickle, Reynolds, Burr, Chute, McCoy, Snyder and F. Smith.

Norwood: Goal, Morrison; defence, Simpson and G. Brown; centre, Webb; wings, Rogers and J. Brown; alternates, Goodfellow, Fennell, B. Payne, G. Bdown, Pattersen and Elliott.

Referee, D. White; linesman, W. Leggitt.

Summary:

First Period

Madoc—Reynolds (Baker). 13.00
Penalties—Nickle, G. Brown.

Second Period

Norwood—Pettersen 2.00
Norwood—Goodfellow (Payne) 14.25
Norwood—Simpson (Payne) 16.45
Penalties—Simpson, Payne.

Third Period

Name Boudreau Athlete Of Year

NEW YORK, Jan. 6 (AP)—Lou Boudreau, player-manager of the world baseball champions, Cleveland Indians, today was named male athlete-of-the-year for 1948 in the annual Associated Press year-end poll.

The personable Cleveland shortstop barely edged out Bob Mathias of Tulare, Calif., the Olympic decathlon champion, in a point tabulation. Actually Mathias had 34 first-place votes to 33 for Boudreau but the Indians' skipper slid home first on seconds and thirds to win 156-149.

The votes of the 99 participating sports writers were tabulated on the customary basis of three points for a first-place ballot, two for second and one for a third.

Mathias was named the winner of the Sullivan Memorial award. The trophy goes annually to the year's outstanding amateur athlete as determined in a poll conducted by the Amateur Athletic Union.

Boudreau's 1948 successes were topped by the world series success of his team against the Braves. His two homers in the title playoff game with Boston Red Sox boosted the Tribe into the series. In addition to leading the Indians to their first pennant since 1920, Lou played the most shortstop of anybody in the league. He hit .355, second only to Ted Williams, and perfected the pick-off play that created such a stir in the series.

Tee to Hack

The second round of the Tankard trial games and the first round of the District Cup trial games were played last evening. Just who won, we don't know, as we had to leave a little early. While we were there we saw some real fine curling and the boys were sure putting on the pressure.

The curling was good and was enjoyed by the spectators. The comments of "No. 8," both upstairs and downstairs, was good, too. Some of it would look well in print and some would not look so well. However, it all adds up and there would be no curling if we did not have No. 8.

This is how the rinks were doing as we came away: F. Green was leading R. Downey; C. Giroux was leading R. Best; Dr. R. Clark was leading S. Lowe; V. Selkirk was leading T. Doughty.

Below is the draw for the Neill Trophy, Friday night:

7.00 p.m.—C. Lawrence vs. J. Lowes; F. Green vs. S. Lowe; G. Putnam vs. J. Welsh; Dr. R. Clark vs. B. Dench; I. Moore vs. G. Dunford; C. Mowry vs. F. Wannamaker; C. Crowe vs. Dr. C. McKee.

9.00 p.m. — K. Bissett vs. H. Green; E. Brown vs. M. Cruthers; L. Ackford vs. C. Blewett; E. Williams vs. B. Scott; T. Holyman vs. O. Steer; J. Hall vs. V. Selkirk; G. Stenner vs. R. Downey.

Lakefield Gets A 6-6 Tie With Hastings

LAKEFIELD, Jan. 6.—(ENS).—Joe Blewett's goal late in the third period here last night gave Lakefield a 6-6 tie with Hastings to open the TVL in the new village arena. It was about two-thirds filled, despite inclement weather, a larger crowd than could have jammed the old rink. In spite of sticky ice, the pace was fast and the hockey clean. Hastings ran up a 4-0 lead as they dominated play the first period, but the homesters fought back to finally earn the draw in a good hockey match.

The teams:

Hastings—Goal, McKenty; defence, L. Petticrew and Tucker; centre, S. Petticrew; wings, Herrington and Morrow; alternates, R. West, Oliver, Mueller, Laloval, D. West, Brooks, Fairmen and Laton.

TURNER PLAYGROUND IN SOUTH END was officially opened on Wednesday evening by Mayor M. Swanston, his first public function since assuming office. The project started about one year ago by the Peterborough B'nai B'rith Lodge provides skating and hockey for hundreds of youngsters in Brown Town and, when completed, playground and softball facilities in summer. Shown above in front row, left to right, Armar Butcher, superintendent of city Parks Department, former Mayor W. G. Ovens, B'nai B'rith president H. Yudin, Mayor Swanston, chairman of Parks Committee Dr. H. G. Young, Alderman Hurell Dodds, background, and Recreational Director Jack Dane.

New Playground Opened By B'nai B'rith Members

Regardless of falling rain, slush and water-covered rinks, a large crowd of city officials and South-End people attended the official opening of Turner Park playground on Wednesday evening. There was to have been a demonstration of fancy skating by the Peterborough Figure Skating Club and an exhibition hockey game between two teams of the Trojan Athletic Association; these were postponed due to weather conditions.

His Worship Mayor M. Swanston cut the ribbon at the front door, his first public function since assuming office on Jan. 3. President H. Yudin of B'nai B'rith presented the shears to His Worship as several city officials looked on. There was a good attendance of Lodge members present as well as a great many neighborhood children and their parents.

Following the ribbon-cutting ceremony, President Yudin made a short speech in the main waiting room of the building. The remarks were largely to introduce people by whose past efforts had made the project possible. Mayor Swanston replied and wished the Park every success. Former Mayor W. G. Ovens, during whose term the playground was formed, said a few words. Much credit was given to Parks Superintendent Armar Butcher for his assistance and also to the first building committeemen: Meyer Cherney, Harry Silver and present members, Irving Moldaver and Harry Swartz. Recreational Director Jack Dane was praised for his unflagging interest in the playground since its conception.

Turner playground is situated on the corner of Chamberlain and High Sts., a plot 240 feet square that, previously, had been nothing more than a weed-grown eyesore in the community. B'nai B'rith Lodge, in an endeavor to participate in community work, decided on the scheme of building a playground for South-End children about a year ago.

Cement Block Building

To date, a large concrete block building containing a large waiting room, two dressing rooms and toilet facilities, has been completed. In addition, a regulation hockey rink and a large skating rink have been in use since the cold weather set in. There is no doubt of its popularity and neighborhood need judging from the large attendance. Officials say it is by far the most popular gathering spot in the South-End.

City parks department spent a good deal of time during the fall to complete the building before winter and set up the rink frames. In early summer, or as soon as the grounds have dried, they plan to fill the lot to an even depth of six inches and seed it. There will be a softball diamond in one section and playground equipment erected in another. The main building facing High St. will have the frontage enhanced by sodding and landscaping.

Lloyd Long, founder of the Trojan Athletic Association, is particularly happy about the whole thing for the Trojan athletes are making it their base of operations for various fields of sport. They were at the opening ceremony in full force on Wednesday evening. For the very fact that there was no skating at the moment, they gathered around the heater in a Hot Stove League huddle and cheered various speakers' remarks with great enthusiasm. That was the finest tribute the B'nai B'rith could hope for since it was their primary objective to make children happy.

SportsmenReady To Back Minor Professionals

SAULT STE. MARIE, aJn. 6—(CP).— If anything comes of discussions concerning a professional hockey league of minor calibre in Ontario, sportsmen here stand ready to support it.

First word of the plan came on Wednesday from T. P. (Tommy) Gorman of Ottawa, manager of the Ottawa Forum Company, who said such a league mighe be ready to operate next season with teams from Toronto, Hamilton, London, Windsor, Ottawa, Sudbury, and Sault Ste. Marie. He said one of the prime movers was Conny Smythe, managing director of the Toronto Maple Leaf Gardens currently vaactioning in Florida.

Hockey men in Hamilton, London, Windsor and Toronto Wednesday night showed little interest in the plan. Some of them had not heard of it.

But here in the North, where several of to-day's top stars in bigtime hockey got their start on backyard hockey cushions and open-air rinks, the idea caught on with promoters.

James Crosby, president of the Sault Hockey Association, said he would like to see such a pro loop come. He thought teams could fly to save time in travelling from Northern Ontario cities to Southern points.

Both he and Herb Cliffe, local representative on the Northern Ontario Hockey Association, said the league's chances here would be good. This city, with its $750,000 community building and arena nearing completion, would be in a favorable position to play host to he proposed league. Said Cliffe:

"If such men as Gorman and Conn Smythe are interested, then there definitely is something to it, for they have th money to back up what they are saying."

Lindsay Votes 14 to 1 For Bus Service

LINDSAY, Jan. 6 — Lindsay's proposed bus service was welcomed by the electors in Monday's polling. Asked to answer "yes" or "no" to the question: "Are you in favour of a bus service for Lindsay?" the people voted "yes" 2,615, and "no" only 242 times.

As was pointed out by Town Solicitor A. M. Fulton, the vote was taken purely on that question and it is necessary, in his opinion, to hold another vote when all details of the plan are available.

Council decided to ask for the people's reaction to a bus service for Lindsay when they were confronted with a petition signed by a large number of residents last year.

Mayor-elect R. I. Moore says council has no alternative now but to prepare for taking a final vote. Before the vote, Col. Moore, as mayoralty candidate, said he was in favor of private enterprise operation of a bus service if the question was approved by the people. He was also of the opinion that a further vote would be necessary before the bus service could be put in operation.

There is no indication now as to how long it will be before the final vote on the question can be arranged nor how long it would be after that before Lindsayites can hop a bus to wherever they're bound for.

CRIME DROPS IN '48

LONDON, Eng.—Publicity given to London's recent "crime wave" was countered when figures published by Scotland Yard showed that crime incidence had dropped slightly in 1948. Despite the fact that the London police are 5,000 below the required strength of 20,000, reported crimes in 1948 numbered 93 less than in 1947.

Never Too Late To Get Break In Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS.

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 6 (AP).—Broderick Crawford's career is proof of the adage that it's never too late to get a break in Hollywood.

Except for a period in the Army, Crawford has been in pictures since 1938. Only recently did he get his biggest break — starring role in the film from the Pulitzer Prize novel, "All the King's Men."

Now he goes to a leading part in "Anna Lucasta" with Paulette Goddard. It's full speed ahead for Brod.

The actor tells me that his mother, the fine comedienne, Helen Broderick, is enjoying her semi-retirement. But she might be induced back to the cameras with a role in Clark Gable's next film. She is waiting to see the script.

Bits and Stuff

Robert Mitchum starts his new picture, "The Big Steal," this week even though he comes up for trial on marijuana charges next Monday. The set will be closed to the press, since loquacious Bob will not be allowed to talk until after the trial....

Shirley Temple, a brave and resolute girl, faced the Hollywood Women's Press Club en masse to refute its claim she is unco-operative. What do you want to bet she came out the winner?....

Susan Hayward is back to playing a witch in "East Side Story," and just as happy. "I find vixens more relaxing to play," she remarks. "They are more honest. They say the things that everybody thinks, but doesn't say....

Olivia DeHavilland was left off my list of the five best performances of 1948 due to a typewriter gremlin. Her work in "The Snake Pit" certainly deserves a place on anybody's five-best list.

Ottawa Dodges Building New Sewage Plant

While Peterborough is planning to enlarge and complete its sewage disposal plant, apparently Ottawa lacks entirely that civic refinement.

The following paragraph from the inaugural address of Mayor Bourque may be of some local interest as to official attitude toward necessary and desirable projects of improvement.

"There are many major works which I could suggest for the betterment of civic services, but the time is not opportune. These include the construction of a civic centre to house the police station and police court, a central garage to look after the maintenance and repairs of civic trucks and cars and equipment of all kinds, a sewage disposal plant to serve the Greater Ottawa, and the building of a city hall. Construction costs, however, are such as to prohibit any thought of going ahead with any of these works, for the present at least."

Union Leaders May Form International

By R. D. BROWN.

LONDON, Jan. 6 (Reuters). — Talks between British and United States trade union leaders beginning here the next two weeks may prove the first step towards forming a new trade union international in competition with the World Federation of Trades Unions.

Only representatives of the British Trades Union Congress and the American Congress of Industrial Organizations will attend the first meetings. Their purpose is described as an exchange of views on the future of the WFTU preparatory to the next meeting of the Federation executive January 17.

The TUC must decide before the end of the month whether to implement its resolve to leave the WFTU if the latter refuses to suspend its activities. It is generally believed here that a decision to cut adrift will be followed quickly by a move to establish a new, rival organization.

One of the two great United States organizations, the American Federation of Labor, has been pressing for a new international for a long time and the TUC has before it at the moment a new request from the AFL for discussions.

It is taken for granted here that any new organization would embrace the British, Commonwealth, American, and Western European trade union movements, leaving the Eastern European countries to maintain the WFTU in name, though it would lose its international character.

300,000 Ukrainians Preparing To Celebrate Christmas Friday

WINNIPEG, Jan. 6.—(CP).—Canada's 300,000 Ukrainians—80,000 of them living in Manitoba—prepared today to celebrate Christmas.

This is in keeping with a centuries-old tradition whereby Ukrainians observe religious holidays by the Julian calendar, which runs 14 days behind that of the Gregorian calendar now in general use.

Thus, tomorrow is Christmas Day, Saturday will be observed as Holy Family Day, and Sunday is St. Stephen's Day. Ukrainians honor St. Stephen as the first martyr in the name of Christ.

The Yule holidays gets its start tonight after the appearance of the north star in the heavens when Ukrainian families will gather for Christmas dinner, consisting usually of 12 meatless dishes. Kutia, boiled wheat seasoned with honey and poppy seeds, is the main dish. Members of the family regard it as a form of communion.

The 12 dishes symbolize the 12 disciples of Christ. Prayers are offered by the head of the family before the dishes are served. Where a family has suffered a loss by death, a plate is still set at the table for the departed member of the family. It remains there through the night.

Candles remain lighted all night as a beacon of welcome to the home.

Ukrainians refer to Christmas Eve as the holy night and regard it as the most sacred period of the three-day celebration. Midnight masses are to be celebrated at a number of Ukrainian Catholic churches in Winnipeg, one of the main Ukrainian centres in Canada with 25,000 members of that racial origin.

Miss Canada Pageant To Be Held In August

HAMILTON, Jan. 6 — (CP) — The Miss Canada pageant for 1949 will again be held in this city and will be a three-night affair on August 17, 18 and 19, it was announced by S. R. Weaver, who holds the franchise.

"This year, the Miss Canada board of directors is going to offer the sponsoring of the pageant to a certain local organization if they care to have it," Mr. Weaver said. "If they do not want it, six or eight local business men will be added to the board of directors to run the affairs of the pageant. If this is done, any profits from the pageant will be turned over to the Community Chest or any other charitable organization the directors may choose."

Horrified At Thought Britain 49th State

SLOUGH, Bucks., England Jan. 6.—(AP)— Should Britain become the 49th state of the United States?

It would be "quite horrifying," Ben Levy, Labor Member of Parliament, said Wednesday night.

Levy, playwright-husband of American-born film actress Constance Cummings, gave this answer when asked at a labor meeting if Britain could solve her economic problems by joining the United States:

"The possibility of being ruled by the U.S. Congress, the possibility of finding ourselves dominated by their vastly inferior constitution, and the possibility of finding ourselves submerged in a country which is at least 25 or 30 years behind ourselves are quite horrifying."

Wall Of County Building Buckles With Age Retaining Wall And Tie Rods Used As Aids

Repirs are now being made to prevent further buckling of the west wall on the County Building's north wing.

Last week a 50-foot retaining wall was placed along the weakened section which has dropped and buckled a few inches due to the crumbling of the foundations. Now three steel tie-rods are being laid between the first and second floor with 12-inch circular metal plates on the outside surface preventing further buckling.

First signs that the wall was sagging were noticed about 20 years ago and subsequently the west wall has pulled away from the upstairs partitions a distance of several inches in some places.

On Monday, County workmen pulled up three lengths of flooring, running the width of the wing, in the county council chamber and the barristers' chamber. Holes for the tie rods were pierced through the limestone walls, three on the west wall of the wing and three on the east.

When the long rods, spaced eight feet apart, are secured to the metal plate on the outside walls, it is expected that there will be no further bulging.

A turnbuckle will be inserted in the middle one so that the clamps holding the wall can be tightened if necessary.

Work on the building is expected to finish this week although court sessions will delay it for a couple of days.

The south wing is also said to be sagging slightly but this is not expected to be corrected until another year.

Local Treasurer Sends $1,316 For Food Gifts

Hunger and low standards of living are things that need prompt assistance, delay only aggravates the adverse conditions that might accrue from neglect, so anything that can be done with despatch under such circumstances, should be doubly welcome.

Commencing just three weeks ago today, the local ranch of the UEFB, a continuation of the wartime Peterborough and District British War Victims Fund, met Wednesday to consider plans for the further successful operation of this fund, to supply much needed food to the people of the British Isles, now subsisting on a below standard of good health rations.

One of their first acts was a decision to transmit to headquarters, the total sum that had been raised up to and including the last day of the year just ended.

This amounted to the sum of $1,316.25, which is being forwarded today by J. L. Thompson, treasurer to the UEFB headquarters in Toronto, headed by Christie A. McDonald, who also was in charge of the British Flood Relief campaign sponsored some time ago by the Ontario Provincial Government.

Donations Total $1,354

In the first three days of this week, further monies received bring the total donations to $1,354.25. Since the last report gifts have been made by the Card and Paper Works Ltd., Miss Sara Taylor, the Peterborough St. David's Welsh Society, through Mrs. W. Flowers, their secretary, The Pilon Marine, and two people to be known as friends, in sums ranging from $1 to $50.

These to the writer were all easily recognizable as contributors to the wartime fund, some of them on a very regular basis. Reminiscence of one who in those days was known as "Just Grandma" and whose identity was never divulged, even in confidence, was recalled when an elderly lady handed her contribution to the chairman of the Fund, on the street, and would neither state who she was, or take a receipt. Her act was one of pure kindness for others in trouble, supplying a heart warming feature to the work, that gives inspiration to those responsible for carrying on this work to help others.

The work of the Fund proceeds, and all interested are asked to leave their contributions at any of the Banks, or send it to the chairman of the fund, at 199 London Street, City.

TAKES A REST

Town clock is trying to follow in the old footsteps of the Post Office clock. Lately the Post Office clock has been ticking right along without an error. The market hall clock has one arm off and the four faces vary in time from one to three minutes. To top it all off the town clock stopped at a quarter to four on Wednesday afternoon. Things were righted this morning at nine o'clock.

A SATISFIED CUSTOMER, Carlos Sharpe, 350th since Monday morning, received his new 1949 licence plates from Mrs. E. R. Norrad, clerk at the Chamber of Commerce office on Wednesday. Markers for '49 are royal blue on white. Together with new plates and driving licence renewals, a steady lineup of applicants keeps the Chamber staff very busy.

Plan Mammoth Fox Hunt Will Use Walkie-Talkies

A mammoth fox hunt, organized with military precision, will be held under the auspices of the Peterborough Fish and Game Protective Association on Saturday, Jan. 15. Exact location of the hunting area is known to only one man, and those taking part will be notified at the rendezvous, CNR freight sheds, Aylmer St., at seven a.m. the day of the hunt.

Previously members have complained that mass hunts have not been properly organized so officials of the club enlisted the aid of Capt. Phil Sargent, A and T officer of the 50th HAA Regiment to plan the exercise as a military scheme. Because several members of the regiment also wish to take part, Lt.-Col. M. E. Clarke, OC, has given permission to use some military vehicles and communication equipment. It is hoped that two walkie-talkies can be obtained, and also a Very Pistol to start the hunters.

The area to be covered is about 1¾ miles wide and three-quarters of a mile in depth. Beaters with or without dogs will start from the south, and marksmen will cover the flanks and the top of the boxed area. No rifles above .22 calibre will be allowed, and it is hoped that most of the hunters will use shotguns.

Seek Wolves Too

It is known that a pack of five wolves have been operating in the area, so hunters will be requested to shoot only wolves and foxes, and to pass up the rabbits. In so much as the drive is intended to reduce the predators and thus give more protection to the small game and the farmers' flocks, there is no point in shooting the small game in the drive.

Obviously the hunters on the flanks and at the top of the pocket will have the best shooting, so because of this all bounty money for both wolves and foxes is to be pooled and divided evenly among those taking part.

Each hunter is requested to wear high boots and some bright-colored clothing, and to carry sandwiches and a tin cup with him. Hot coffee will be supplied at the close of the event. Unless a heavy snowfall occurs before that time travelling in the bush should not be too difficult, as the mild weather of the past few days has packed the 12 inches of snow from the New Year's storm.

Transportation will be by private car, the members bringing their own, but it is confidently hoped there will be ample accommodation. More than 150 men are expected to take part, and captains to handle the start, flanks, top, transportation and coffee-making will be named next week.

All who can attend are asked to telephone Norman Bradley or Campbell Rowatt.

Ontario Farmers Meet At Toronto

Rural Ontario packed the big convention room of King Edward Hotel, Toronto, Wednesday night, for the conclusion of the first day of the annual meeting of the provincial Federation of Agriculture which continues until Friday.

Separate panels for women and junior farmers featured the first day's sessions and 40 of the juniors were from Peterborough. Members of the senior Federation from this district increased the representation to fifty or more. Most of the juniors returned on the late C.P.R. train. Other members of the Federation left this morning for the main program today, ending with the convention dinner this evening.

John Hargrave of Oxford county won the junior competition in public speaking. His subject was citizenship.

The estimated attendance Wednesday night was 600. The district winners in the amateur entertainment program provided an excellent program. It was not competitive. The local group was composed of Miss Bernice Greenan, pianist; Kevin Leahy, violinist, John Lewis vocal soloist, and Don Milburn, directing their part in the program as soloists and ensemble entertainers.

"It was really a fine program throughout," said Mr. Milburn today, "and our members gave a good account of themselves in all that talent."

Says Margarine Not In Sight

Canada Packers officials say they do not know when margarine will be on sale in Peterborough. Reports from Lindsay indicate that it is expected to appear in stores there today or tomorrow.

Commenting on this Lionel Browne, of Canada Packers, said: "If it's selling in Lindsay by Friday it won't be our product."

Asked whether the margarine would be colored or not when it did appear on the market, he replied that it was a matter for the Pure Food Division of the Dominion Government.

At the moment there is nothing to prevent manufacturers coloring the product said Mr. Browne.

MAIN ST. TOPICS

FIRE INSPECTOR HERE

Inspector Ray Simmons from the Fire Marshal's Dept. is in he city investigating the recent fire at the fox farm of Earl Mills, Chemong Rd., which did an estimated $15,000 damage. The wooden watchtower and storehouse containing about 400 fox pelts were destroyed.

MORE CONVENIENT

At least one uptown ticket office for OHA games at Civic Arena will be opened next week for the benefit of hockey fans not living in the southend of the city. For Friday's game this week, reserved seat tickets will have to be picked up at the arena this evening or till 10 tomorrow morning. After that, they go on general sale if the subscribers have not called.

DISCUSS MUTUAL PROBLEMS

Tourist operators in the Peterborough district have been invited to attend a meeting of the Peterborough Fish and Game Protective Association on Wednesday, January 12, at the Chamber of Commerce. They will discuss relative problems affecting the fish and game in the district and will review the existing legislation.

SLIGHTLY WEAK

If the way God Save the King was played on Wednesday night at the Civic Arena is any indication on the illness of King George, he must really be in a bad condition. All the other records played were quite loud but a youngster with a piece of tissue paper and a comb could have made the National Anthem louder than it was played. It is doubted that record was even finished.

OFFICIAL OPENING

The official opening of the new Civic Arena will be held tomorrow night just previous to the OHA Senior "B" game between the two local teams, the Legionnaires and the Petes. The program calls for the Legion Pipe Band to be on the ice from 8:00 to 8:15 p.m., and then Mayor Max Swanston will give a five-minute address. Players will practise from 8:20 to 8:30 when the Mayor will faceoff the puck to start the game. The working committee of the arena will be present in a body.

Carried Revolver Penalty Severe

In magistrate's court today Menzies McLaren, Antrim St., was convicted of carrying a revolver without a permit and fined a total of $52.50 with the option of 45 days in jail. He pleaded not guilty to to the offence.

Police were called to the Paris Cafe where McLaren was said to be causing a disturbance. Later he went to Louis Billiards where he was arrested by police with a revolver in his possession.

Judge Adjourns Gas Bylaw Case To January 21st

A decision on the appeal of John Russelle against the city gas bylaw may be given Jan. 21. Hearing of evidence concluded before County Judge Sheldon L. Smoke on Wednesday. Written arguments are being submitted to His Honor.

City Clerk E. A. Outram, first witness for the city's case, was on the stand for more than three hours Wednesday. He reviewed in detail the steps leading to the passage of Bylaw 4701 under which Russelle and other garage operators in the city have been charged, for selling gasoline after the hours permitted.

Alderman Pat Anglesey was the only witness called by counsel for the appellant, W. J. Arthur Fair. Ald. Anglesey recalled that when the question had first been presented to council there "had been some doubt in the minds of some of the councillors that all the gas operators had been listed in a report of the clerk prepared by the Police Department following receipt of petitions asking for the by-law. It was at that first meeting that the bylaw had been defeated on second reading in the committee of the whole.

Continuing his recollections of the progress of the bylaw, the witness told of the next meeting of council when a Toronto lawyer had told the council that it had no course except to pass the bylaw or face prosecution. This same advice had been given previously by the city solicitor, said Ald. Anglesey.

At a subsequent meeting with garage operators in favor of the bylaw, he said that only those favoring the bylaw had been permitted to speak. Mayor Ovens at that meeting had pointed out that council had not wished to hear those opposing the bylaw at that time, John Russelle had been present, and had been asked not to speak at that time, said the witness.

Tells How List Made

Judge Smoke commented during the evidence of the council member that testimony that one member had not been satisfied with the list of operators would not appear sufficient to invalidate it. Mr. Fair, who termed the bylaw "vicious legislation" during his argument on the point, said that "a recent case" had held that a minority of the council unsatisfied was sufficient.

Called by Special Prosecutor Alex Elliott in reply to Mr. Anglesey's evidence was Det. Sgt. John Stevenson of the city police department, who gave evidence of the manner of drawing up the list. He said that it had been prepared from "his own knowledge of the city" and from directory listings. He admitted to Mr. Fair that there had been no check with "official" records, such as licences

Other witnesses heard were Chief Constable John Thompson, who had delegated the work of preparing the list to Sgt. Stevenson. He testified that no permits to operate 24 hours a day, as provided by the bylaw, had been issued and that the accused Russelle did not have a permit to remain open the evening of July 24—the date of the test charge being heard.

PC John Morrow gave evidence of sales the specific evening of July 24 at Russelle's place of business at 904 Water St., North. He read from notes which indicated sales of gasoline at 8.55 p.m., 9 p.m. and 9.10 p.m., with amounts of gas, price, name of customer and the attendant in each case.

Note To Farmers

Members of the Peterborough Fish and Game Association who hope to do considerable fox hunting this month are assuming that farmers will welcome them in the various townships. If there are any farmers who will not allow hunters on their farms, especially in Douro township, they are requested to telephone Campbell Rowatt on Dublin St. Every member has been given strict instructions not to damage fences, crops or trees or property, and as most of them are veteran hunters, little trouble is expected.

TWO SKIING MISHAPS

Over last week-end there were only two accidents at Bethany due to skiing. Jim Fallon was brought in by the Ski Patrol with a dislocated thumb. Another person with a sprained knee. There were a great many taking advantage of the holiday snowfall.

REV. M. J. AIKEN, minister of St. Andrew's United Church, will preach tonight at the Salvation Army Temple at a Week of Prayer Service.

Denies Steelmen Out To Raid Local Unions

M. J. Fenwick, Oshawa and District Representative of the United Steelworkers of America, today emphatically denied his union is involved in raiding U.E. organized plants. He was replying to charges voiced in Tuesday's Allied Labor Council meeting that his Union was "raiding" when recently it invited the Independent Outboard, Marine and Manufacturing Union to affiliate with his organization.

"The word 'raiding' can apply only to plants with which the U.E. has contractual relations," Fenwick explained. "How can we be accused of raiding when the U.E. has no relations with the Outboard, Marine and Manufacturing Company? Further, we understand the majority of the employees don't want the U.E. but are willing to consider our invitation to join the United Steelworkers of America."

"We refrained from any contact with the employees when the U.E. was trying to win their support," he continued. "However, after the U.E. application was rejected by the Ontario Labor Relations Board we considered the field open to any other union to try and enlist the employees in its ranks. Consequently, we issued an invitation to the Independent Union urging that it affiliate with us."

"Any suggestion that we are doing anything improper is an unwarranted slur on a great union," he protested. "I am prepared to justify our action before the Allied Labor Council at any time it is ready to hear me. It is well known that the Council is dominated by the U.E. and as such, voices its opinions."

Mr. Fenwick said his Union intends to organize employees in Western Clock and De Laval plants.

"We assume the U.E. will object to that too, but we expect that from them," he concluded.

Storekeeper Sick Shop Is Robbed

While the owner was ill in hospital in Peterborough, the grocery store of Gar Emery on No. 7 Highway at the 6th line was broken into sometime Tuesday night. From inspection of the store, there was little taken.

"Not more than three dollars cash, maybe a couple of packages of cigarettes and the odd jar of marmalade or something," police were told.

Mrs. Emery, who was looking after the store, was away from it during the night of the break-in. A passing trucker on the highway noticed the door open and reported it to the telephone operator at Keene, who advised provincial police. Constables Joseph Hanson and Keith O'Shaughnessy are investigating.

Entrance was made by breaking a front window. Presumably, the thief left by the front door.

TO ELECT OFFICERS

Nomination of officers for the Allied Labor Council will be at the first February meeting, and the election will be at the following one. A constitution committee will be appointed at the next meeting of the Council.

Total Construction Value Exceeds $2,356,000; 193 Houses Built Privately

Peterborough began in 1948 the building of 419 houses, 193 of them as private investment and 226 in agreement with Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation. Total value of new construction here last year was $2,356,097 as compared with $3,511,771 in 1947. New houses for private ownership indicate a wider expansion than was probably realized.

The figures in that phase of the new work were — 193 houses valued at $1,077,900 in 1948 as against 123 houses whose estimated value was $614,750 in 1947. Private builders and the people providing homes for themselves increased by 70 houses and the number for which permits in that group of the building statistics were issued last year.

This building by citizens was easily the big feature of Peterborough's construction records for 1948. Emphasis was largely directed during the year to the 226 houses which are in progress of building for families who have to keep an eye on the monthly rent bill. In the meantime citizens investing for their own immediate needs and several others, as for instance Donald Ephgrave and Arnold Steel building two groups of houses, totalling 26, struck out for themselves on a larger scale than for years.

Industrial expansion accounted for the bulk of the new construction in 1947 amounting to $3,511.771 After that big year there was little expectation of equalling it in 1948, but the substantial investment of the private builders made up largely for the drop last year in continued industrial building.

The summary of the permits issued last year from the office of City Engineer Chalmers was:

142 Garages	$ 43,643
193 Houses	$1,077,900
746 Miscellaneous	$1,234,354
Total 1,081 Permits for	$2,356,097

The comparative figures for the previous year, 1947, were:

93 Garages	$ 32,637
123 Houses	$ 614,750
61 1Miscellaneous	$2,864,484
Total 827 Permits for	$3,511,771

The building statistics for December were:

Four garages, $975; Three dwellings, $19,500; 30 miscellaneous, $23,520; total, 37 permits—$43,995.

And for December, 1947: Two garages, $400; one house, $4,000; eight miscellaneous, $5,925; total, 11 permits, for $10,325.

Buys Bread Routes

The Wonder Bakeries have taken over the retail delivery establishment formerly operated in the city by the George Weston Bread and Cakes Ltd. The transfer involves about eight delivery units. James Dutton, Jr., manager of Wonder Bakeries, said that some of the routes may be absorbed by the present setup, but that probably a number would be retained. Weston Bakeries is retaining its wholesale business in the city and district.

REVISE FIRE ESTIMATE

Estimate of fire damage at the Windsor Hotel has been reduced from $40,000 to $11,000. The new figure was arrived at after a thorough investigation by Fire Chief George Smith and Thomas Ephgrave, appraiser and insurance adjuster.

Citizens Band Reviews Year, Names Officers

Peterborough Citizens Band elected officers Tuesday night as follows:

Hon. presidents, Mayor Swanston and Ald. H. Dodds; president, E. G. Myles; vice president, K. Mills; secretary-treasurer, S. Rowe; trustees, F. Smith, H. Parnell and V. Smith; executive members, W. Watt and R. Viney; librarian, K. Mills; bandmaster, Capt. W. H. Peryer; assistant bandmaster, W. Parnell; band manager, J. Kokesh.

This was the first annual meeting of the band. It has more than 40 members, and will continue to welcome any good men who would like to join. Twenty engagements were filled from the first week in June to the laying of the corner stone of Civic Hospital Nov. 25. They included six concerts in city parks, and concerts at Fenelon Falls, Lindsay, Havelock.

Two half-hour programs were played over CHEX July 4 and Aug. 28.

Train Clips Car Driver Unhurt

His car smashed in a collision with a freight train, Albert Reid of 573 Bolivar St., escaped injury Wednesday evening. There was about $600 damage to Reid's car.

The accident was at the Bethune and King crossing of double CNR tracks about seven o'clock. One freight had just crossed the first track and Mr. Reid told police he did not notice a second row of cars being pushed north on the second track. The car was swung sharply about by the impact and the right side received most of the damage.

NO DIFFERENCE

Patrons to the Legion-Meteor hockey game on Wednesday night remembered quite vividly hockey nights at the old Brock Arena. They had to stand in the cold drizzle outside the arena until 8.25. All the people wanted for their money was to see the hockey game not to have a shower thrown in too.

Fort Erie $105,000 Arena Memorial To Veterans

FORT ERIE, Jan. 6.—Opening of the new $105,000 municipal arena shortly is expected to bring a big revival of hockey in Fort Erie.

Equipped with its own ice-making plant, the arena was built as a memorial to the men and women from this area who participated in the Second World War.

In addition to the industrial fairs and other events that will make the arena a year-round project, is a special floor which will permit roller skating.

Business firms and citizens of Fort Erie contributed $30,000 toward the cost of the arena, with the town financing the balance. Capacity of the arena is 2,200, with additional space if needed.

The arena is erected on the site of the former Peace Bridge Arena, home of the Buffalo Bisons on the International Hockey League (now the American Hockey Association), which collapsed in a record snowstorm on St. Patrick's Day, 1937.

When a volunteer committee, plagued by shortages, turned over the job of completing the arena to the Fort Erie Council, Mayor Louis Ziff named a new committee to finish the job.

After a final inspection, A. M. Irvine, chairman oft the committee, and Zig Smith, manager of the arena, turned on the motor which began operation of the brine making machinery for the ice surface.

Formal opening was originally scheduled for today but due to a heavy drop in temperature and formation of mists around the arena, refrigeration engineers have not yet been able to form ice.

When it does come, however, opening night will feature a hockey game between Fort Erie All-Stars and a Buffalo team. Civic officials from surrounding communities will be present.

CBC Asks Rates On Copyright Be Redistributed

By D'ARCY O'DONNELL

OTTAWA, Jan. 6. (CP)— The Copyright Appeal Board Wednesday heard annual requests for reductions and changes in the rates charged by the Composers, Authors and Publishers Association of Canada for use of its copyright works.

The board, headed by Mr. Justice J. T. Thorson, took the arguments under advisement without giving any indication as to when a decision will be reached.

The CBC through its counsel, John Jennings of Toronto, asked for a redistribution of the CAPAC charges against radio stations.

The CAPAC is an organization made up of Canadian authors, composers and publishers. Its main purpose is to protect the rights of works produced by its members and to act as agents in the collection of Royalties an other fees.

Under the fees set by the Association this year, private stations would pay a total of $136,081. The CBC would py an equal amount. Each paid $126,547 last year, but the number of receiving sets have increased since that time. The fees are fixed on the basis of 14 cents for each licensed set in Canada and the total is equally divided between the CBC and the private stations.

Mr. Jennings suggested the 14 CBC stations should pay five cents of the 14-cents-a-set charge, with the 116 private stations paying the balance. Mr. Justice Thorson said the board did not plan to change the basic 14-cent charge and suggested Mr. Jennings study the possibility of reaching an agreement with the Canadian Association of Broadcasters on a redistribution of the amount.

5 Men To Hear Craft Appeal

TORONTO, Jan. 6 —(CP)—A five-man court on Jan. 12 will hear the appeal of Austin Craft, sentenced to be hanged Jan. 24 for the murder of Kingston Penitentiary messenger John D. Kennedy.

Craft, 47-year-old Brantford convict, is in the death cell of the Frontenac county jail at Kingston. Kennedy was killed during the short-lived escape from penitentiary April 26 of Craft and Howard Urquhart, 21, of Toronto.

During his trial, in which he conducted his own defence, Craft did not deny firing the shots which killed Kennedy but insisted he was not guilty of murder.

Rev. C. W. Kay, Free Methodist minister who is Craft's spiritual adviser, said Craft felt that if he didn't use his chance to appeal "He would consider himself next to a suicide."

His opinion on rare books was consulted by authorities in the United States. He had dealings with Bibliophiles across the continent. Some of his discoveries were sold to such institutions as Yale University and the Smithsonian Institute.

Dutch Queen Hopeful Indonesia Settled

THE HAGUE, Jan. 6 (AP)—Queen Juliana expressed hope today that an Indonesian Federal Government will be established within a few weeks as a step toward formation of a sovereign United States of Indonesia.

Free elections were pledged "as soon as circumstances permit."

The Queen told Netherlanders in a broadcast the newly-concluded military action in Indonesian Republican territory "was in no way to go back on the pledges which have been solemnly given by my mother (former Queen Wilhelmina) and by the Netherlands people as a whole."

FREE OF TIES

A bachelor citizen who attended the inaugural of the council cast a cynic eye on the surrealist designs of men's bright and new ties that were wished on them in the name of sentiment during the recent Yule. He suspects that the wearing of these unconventional creations of present day haberdashery is heroic evidence of appreciation, particularly if they are distaff gifts. And from that tender and cloying bondage this gentleman about town is, unfortunately, still free, although not a flaw appears in his eligibility as a potential husband.—H.T.

Many Pay Tribute To E. A. Thompson

Funeral service for the late E. Arthur Thompson, 75, of 183 Aylmer St., was held on Wednesday at the Kaye Funeral Home. The Rev. Dr. Bruce Gordon of Trinity United Church, assisted by the Rev. F. W. Craik of St. James' United Church, officiated. Pallbearers were four sons, Kenneth E., George H., Arthur R., and Frank G. Thompson, and two nephews, Hector and Elias Thompson. Burial was at Little Lake Cemetery.

Mr. Thompson died on Monday and was born in the city, son of the late Elias Thompson and Esther Parnall, and lived a lifetime here. He was engaged in the retail fuel business and had been interested for a long time in lumbering. He was associated with his father who was a prominent lumberman several years ago.

He was one of the last survivors of the Peterborough Baseball Club in the days when Dan McCabe was pitcher and Chris G. Graham was catcher. He kept standard bred and racing horses for many years and latterly retained, as a hobby, a wide knowledge of pedigrees.

Plant Workers Drive Out Men

DUESSELDORF, Jan. 6 (AP)—Workers in the Bouchumer Verein Steel Works drove out a group of Germans sent by British authorities today to begin dismantling the plant.

"Traitors," they cried. "Shame."

The plant is in Bochum, 30 miles northeast of Duesseldorf.

The manager, Franz - Josef Mueuser, said there were no casualties in the brief scuffle. Early this week a group of workers formed a human wall around a machine and turned back two British officers and some Germans who sought to start the dismantling process.

The Germans once believed the plant would be cut off the dismantling list. However, it was left on a by a special United States committee which advised on what plants should be kept going in Germany to help speed European recovery.

Japanese Admiral Gets 10-Yr. Sentence

TOKYO, Jan. 6 —(AP)—Rear Admiral Tasuku Nakazawa, former chief of operations for Japan's Imperial Navy, was sentenced today to 10 years at hard labor for conspiring to kill survivors of torpedoed Allied ships.

A United States army military commission convicted Nakazawa, the fifth admiral adjudged guilty of the conspiracy charge. The others, including a grandson of the Emperor Meiji, were sentenced last month to terms ranging from eight to 20 years imprisonment.

The prosecution said the conspiracy led to the robbing, beating, torturing and killing of hundreds of survivors from at least 11 torepdoed ships in the South Pacific and Indian ocean during the war.

Truck Smashed In Dense Fog

CLARKSON, Jan. 6.—(CP).—A Canadian Pacific Railway train today crashed into a truck stuck on a private railway crossing here despite the driver's attempt to flag it down.

H. A. Lemon, of Clarkson, said he approached the tracks which cross a private lane leading to his house. Knowing that the Buffalo-Toronto train was due he stopped the truck and got out to look but could see nothing in the dense fog. Thinking the train had already passed he started to drive across when the wheels of the truck bumped on the planking and his running board jammed on the steel track. Unable to go forward or backward he put old coats under the spinning rear wheels. When this failed to give traction he tried unsuccessfully to jack up the running board.

He said he saw the lights of the approaching train which was running some 25 minutes late and ran down the track waving a coat. When the train, travelling at about 70 miles an hour, failed to stop, Lemon jumped down an embankment and the locomotive smashed into the truck.

Conductor J. Brooks and Engineer George Simmons, both of Toronto, said they were unable to see the truck before they crashed into it. The train stopped within 500 yards with the truck chassis sitting on the cowcatcher.

Canadian Labor Interested In World Group

OTTAWA, Jan. 6. (CP)—Canadian labor probably would leap into a non-Communist global labor organization now taking shape in Great Britain and the United States in opposition to the Red-dominated World Federation of Trade Unions.

Labor leaders in the dominion are watching closely British-US attempts to form a new group in competition with the WFTU, though at this stage they are taking a wait-and-see attitude.

While not taking any direct part in formation of the projected new organization, they are keeping well-posted on London moves in this direction.

In the next fortnight, London meetings are to bring together representatives of the British Trades Union Congress and the Congress of Industrial Organizations of the United States. The American Federation of Labor also is anxious to form a rival federation, but is not taking part in the coming London meetings.

In Canada, the two major labor congresses are split in their attitude towards the WFTU. The Canadian Congress of Labor is a member; the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada is not.

CCL informants say, though, that if the CIO should decide to go along with the British group and form a competitor organization to the Red-weighted WFTU, there is little doubt that the CCL would follow suit.

Despite the domination of the WFTU from behind the iron curtain, the strongly-anti-Red CCL has been hanging on to its membership in the organization up to now for two major reasons:

1. It wants to keep an eye on what Communists are doing in the ranks of labor.

2. It has felt that, as the WRTU is the only world organization of its kind, the CCL should work through it to attain trade-union objectives on a global basis.

Turkey Breeders Warned On Price

LONDON, Ont., Jan. 6.—(CP).—The Ontario Turkey Breeders' Association was warned here Wednesday night by W. A. Brown of the Dominion Agriculture Department to heed "powerful price resistance" by consumers.

However, the year was one of the most successful in the history of the industry in the province.

Mr. Brown, who is chief of the poultry and marketing and production services of the department, addressed the banquet of the annual one-day meeting.

Ken Small of Wardsville was elected president, succeeding Roy Patterson of Camlachie.

Mr. Brown said that 1948 saw the greatest volume of poultry export in Canada, some 43,000,000 pounds, and he was optimistic for 1949.

He urged the industry to make turkeys "a year-round proposition," rather than just a delicacy to be enjoyed "at Christmas and Thanksgiving."

Scots Turning Up Noses At Canadian Curling Broom

By WILLIAM STEWART

QUEBEC, Jan. 6—(CP).—That old kitchen broom, as important to Canadian curlers, as a steady right arm, is getting a real talking-about since the visit here of the touring Scots.

The tweedy, pipe-smoking Scots, on a month's tour of North American curling centres and already well ahead of the Canadian opponents they've played, say politely they wouldn't touch a Canadian broom with one of their five-foot brushes.

The result is something of a controversy among members of the mild-mannered curling brotherhood.

The Scots declared their tidy brushes "polish the ice nicely in front of a stone" and are specially made for curling.

Sir James Denby Roberts, mustached young president of the Royal Caledonia Curling Club and head of the touring group says the brushes have always been used in Scotland.

Winning Combination

These statements have to be thoroughly considered because Scotland and the Royal Caledonia Club have practically owners' rights on curling. You have to remember too, that the Scots and their brushes are a winning combination.

Against that, there's the fact that brooms by the thousand, on hundreds of rinks and for dozens of years have given satisfaction in Canada. The odd Quebec curler mentions too, the matter of the "vacuum" a smartly-handled broom creates in front of a stone to help it along. You can't build up any kind of "vacuum" with a brush.

Anyhow, it's unlikely that any change will be made.

This old city, whose curlers are duly respectful of Scotland and all it stands for in the game, has a club 17 years older than Royal Caledonia, its "parent."

But despite their own traditions, Quebec curlers still regard Royal Caledonia as Mecca, and they think the Scots, tweeds, brushes, good humors and all, are rare curlers.

Say Labor Party Has Red Tinge

LONDON, Jan. 6.—(CP).—Ivor Thomas, former junior minister in the Labor government who turned Conservative, today summarized for the Canadian Press the reasons for his political change.

"I used to believe there was profound difference between Communism and Socialism," he said. "Today the difference amounts only to a difference of method and time."

The most publicized political figure of the hour, Thomas quit the Labor party in October after writing to Prime Minister Attlee that he was troubled by the growing concentration of powers in the hands of the state and the "surrender of the government to its more extreme members and supporters."

Thomas was looked on as a man with a future in the Labor party. He was civil aviation parliamentary secretary and later colonial undersecretary and one of the delegates representing the government at the United Nations' sessions in New York.

"The Labor government is so deeply affected with Marxism it can ever be an effective defence against it," he said.

Keep Students Canada's Aim

OTTAWA, Jan. 6 (CP)—Canada, shooting for high exports in most of her products, is trying to put the brakes on one commodity. That's the "export of brains" to the United States.

Alarmed by claims that the Dominion's cleverest young men and women are moving to the lusher pastures of the U.S., the government for some time has been trying to entice them back to Canada.

It is working through the executive and professional branch of National Employment Service to get at—chiefly—Canadian students taking courses in U.S. universities.

Among these students, there has been a tendency to slip into employment in the U.S. The government feels that this is not necessarily because they have any great desire to stay in the U.S., but largely because of the fact that they were in that country when they emerged from university.

Now the E. and P. branch has launched a campaign of letters to Canadian students below the line, telling them of the opportunities here and letting them know of this organization specially equipped to help them find suitable employment.

Gold Shares Weaken Again

By SYDNEY CAMPBELL

LONDON, Jan. 6 (Reuters)—Gold shares have shown renewed weakness in the new year.

Reuters index of South African golds on London stock exchange fell Wednesday to a low of 76.7. That compares with the high of 118.7 last February in the "devaluation scare" and a 1947 low of 92.6.

Gold shares were among the biggest losers of 1948. Only plastic shares and rubber shares fared worse.

As a sign that there is a limit to the taxation which even Britons can stand, the normally favored brewery shares fared only slightly better last year, though again they had the advantage over gold in not having a 12-year bear market behind them.

Since gold mining has still to get either the devaluations which would raise its selling price, or the world deflation which would reduce its costs, its bear market has also still to end. What has caused the recent disappointing behavior is that South Africa's balance-of-payments crisis has been aded to the crisis in the profitability of gold mining.

It is possible that the trend may already have turned, with the deflation of some North American costs and certain other developments. If so, the effect is still to be registered at the point of stock-exchange prices. Nevertheless gold may have a better year in 1949—it could hardly have a worse one than 1948.

Dairymen Want Better Cheese

TORONTO, Jan. 6.—(CP). —C. E. Lackner, director of darying for Ontario, said Wednesday there is too much low quality cheese being sold in Canada as a high quality product.

"Canada exports good cheeses and we expect our people to eat poor cheese," he told the 16th annual meeting of the Ontario Cheese Producers' Association. "Low quality cheese should be sold as such."

The right kind of cheese, attractively packaged, should result in doubling consumption in Canada, he said.

Action of the Supreme Court in declaring the manufacture and sale of margarine legal would have the effect of increasing cheese production, John I. Ballantyne of Atwood, president of the Association, told the meeting.

Much of the milk which went into butter production last year would be used to make cheese, he said. There would likely be enough cheese to fill the British contract.

Important Reports

LONDON, Jan. 6—(CP).—The Conservative Daily Telegraph says today that two "important" reports on the possibility of expanding British exports to Canada are expected about the end of January. They will be accompanied by a publicity drive to induce British exporters to concentrate on Canadian markets, the Daily Telegraph comments.

LORD WOOLTON, Britain's wartime food controller and now chairman of the Conservative party, signs autographs after giving a lecture on "The Problem of Feeding the Nation" in London. Talk was one of a series sponsored by the United Nations Association's Council for Education in World Citizenship. Apparently his popularity is still high, probably enhanced by the "austerity" of the peace years during which Britain has had less food than in war time.

See Strange Missile

Labor Government's Publicity Estimated To Cost $57 Millions

By WILLIAM BOSS
Canadian Press Staff Writer.

LONDON, Jan. 6 — (CP). — Attempts to counter the cold war abroad and to explain her domestic problems at home are costing Britain an officially-estimated £14,250,000 ($57,000,000) annually.

Opposition critics place the figure as high as £20,000,000.

Object of the campaign is to sell "the British way" at home and overseas. More than 6,300 full-time publicists and several hundred free-lance "specialists" are employed in the task.

The cost is nearly twice the amount approved by Congress for expenditure by United States agencies.

"It all depends on me"— the Archbishop of Canterbury"s wartime slogan which the Information Ministry plastered on hoardings throughout Britain to spur the individual Briton's war effort —has given way domestically to the contemporary "Work more, produce more, earn more."

At home the aim is to convince Britons of the need to co-operate in a socialized community, to explain new social services and obtain increased industrial production.

Abroad it is to persuade other countries of the reality of those difficulties, of the pacific and benevolent intent of Britain's foreign policies and to popularize British culture—another means of achieving the second purpose.

Foreign Publicity

The official breakdown of expenditures shows the emphasis on foreign publicity. Approximately £10,500,000 was spent on placing the British position before the foreigner to £4,000,000 on home persuasion. Again opposition estimates are higher.

By far the largest recipient is the BBC's foreign service, which receives £4,500,000. This is apart from its other state grants and licensing revenues, which support programs for the home listener. The Foreign Office and the British Council each receive £3,000,000, while an assortment of other media are said to account for an additional £2,000,000.

At home no less than £4,000,000 is spent on persuading the taxpayer to save more through national savings, to spend more travelling on British railways, to save currency by spending holidays at home and to devote spare time to the country's cause by joining the reserve forces. Other moneys pay for government-produced films, exhibitions, displays, lectures, and for sponsored tours by official visitors.

The Central Office of Information, successor to the MOI, spends an estimated £3,240,000 annually, the Ministry of Food and the National Savings Office each £500,000. But critics say the figures do not include publicity for government departments and nationalized industries which have their own press services are said to account for an additional £4,000,000.

Abbott Takes Dig At Nova Scotia Voters

KENTVILLE, N.S., Jan. 6 (CP) —Finance Minister Abbott has done something a politician never does—taken a little dig at the voter.

Last month the Nova Scotia Fruit Growers' Association thanked the Federal government for financial assistance to the Annapolis Valley apple industry.

The association got a reply Wednesday from Mr. Abbott. The minister said in a letter he was glad at the expression of appreciation but regretted the appreciation had not "taken the form of a larger vote for the government in the recent by-election."

In the Dec. 13 Digby-Annapolis-Kings by-election Progressive Conservative George Nowlan was the victor over Liberal candidate J. D. McKenzie.

A committee composed of Mrs. Don Hendren, Mrs. Roy Jackman, Mrs. W. Todd and Mrs. L. Bailey was named to organize presentation of the films.

The next meeting will be a dinner meeting to which members will take gifts of food for Britain.

Ambassador Explains Canadians Not Displaced British Citizens

By GEORGE RONALD
Canadisin Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6—(AP)—Hume Wrong, Canadian ambassador to the United States, confessed recently:

"I always find it easier to say what the Commonwealth is not than what it is."

He told a Statesville, N.C., service club there are two "rather contradictory" misconceptions about Canadians—that they are "Britishers living in Canada, displaced citizens of the British Isles"; and that they are "displaced Americans who have somehow stayed north of the international boundary."

The first is hardest to deal with, Wrong said, "because it involves a consideration of the British Commonwealth."

"It is no wonder that the nature of the Commonwealth is misunderstood. It is nowhere exactly defined. It certainly has no constitution. It evolves from year to year. . . .

Sovereign State

"Canada, indeed, is independent in as full a sense as the other countries of this very inter-dependent world. . . . One could say that its final stage . . . was secured not by fighting against the British, but by fighting with them and oher allies in the two greatest wars in history."

As for the second mistaken idea, he said, "Canadians are Canadians, not Americans living somewhere up north.

"Although there is no one in Canada who does not desire the most cordial relations with the United States, few would approve political union between the two countries."

One country is far more populous, wealthy and powerful than the other, but whatever their differences in ways of life, their people share the same fundamental aims.

"If their relationship to each other could be extended to all the nations of the world, armies and navies could be disbanded and atomic bombs forgotten."

Immigration Men Keep Eye On Labor Leaders

WINDSOR, Jan. 6 (CP)—Canadian immigration officials are keeping an eye on American labor leaders.

Wednesday, Walter Reuther, international president of the United Automobile Workers (CIO) and two UAW vice presidents were momentarily detained by immigration officers enroute to Windsor for a regional staff meeting.

The union officials were ordered to the immigration office where their credentials were checked.

Smiling over the incident, Mr. Reuther and his associates said the delay was brief and not annoying.

SUGAR PRODUCTION

The world production of sugar is enough to fill a box the size of a football field and six miles high.

Not So Dangerous

MONTREAL—(CP)—Dr. Hamilton Baxter, Montreal plastic surgeon, says operations for cleft palates and lips are not dangerous and fatalities from such surgery are rare. One case occurs in every 800 births and has no connection with frights and falls or "bad blood."

Britain Devises System To Restore Older People

By JAMES McCOOK.

LONDON, Jan. 6 — (CP). — Geriatrics look like the answer to the social planner's prayer.

Geriatrics is a newly-developed system of keeping the old young by occupational therapy, massage, heat treatment, diet, injections, cheerful surroundings, atmosphere, and above all, exercises.

Its progress is watched with a passionate interest by Parliament. Both the Labor Government and its opponents in politics take pride in the social security program developed in the United Kingdom. They proclaim the average Briton is better protected against the blows of illness, unemployment, and old-age than the people of any other country.

Population Older

The weakness in the social security structure is that Britain's population is growing older. The birth-rate decline means younger people have to carry, by their contributions to social security schemes and taxation, a larger and larger proportion of non-productive elders.

In 100 only one person in 17 was of pensionable age. Last year the proportion had risen to one in seven. In 1970 it will be one in five.

The cost of old-age pensions now is £320,000,000 ($1,280,000,000) annually. In 1970 it will be at least £400,000,000.

Retirement Dangerous

Studies have indicated there is a degree of danger in an elderly person retiring suddenly from an active life.

"Women live longer because they never retire from their house work," is one tentative suggestion from scientists.

Meantime, a London conference of the National Old Peoples' Welfare Committee was told of work done by Dr. Marjory Warren, head of the geriatric unit, West Middlesex Hospital, who got 500 out of 700 practically bedridden old people on their feet in a matter of months.

She had devised exercises allowing paralyzed limbs to be used again. United States doctors were said to be "absolutely crazy" about the work she had done.

Dr. L. Cosin, medical superintendent of Orsett Lodge Hospital, Essex, did similar work and had given hundreds of old people the power to care for themselves again.

Reuther Outlines Union Policies

WINDSOR, Jan. 6 (CP)—Walter Reuther, fiery international United Automobile Workers (C.I.O.) president held a two-hour conference of Canadian regional staff members Wednesday to outline the broad union policies and to urge solidification within the ranks.

Immediately following the meeting, Mr. Reuther said discussion centred around the "implementation of C.I.O. policies and the tightening of the ranks."

Observers at the meeting said Mr. Reuther's hour-long opening address was almost identical to his address to the U.A.W. convention a year ago.

The conference was slated as "discussion of internal matters."

Attending the conference were regional staff members from Ottawa, Toronto, St. Catharines, Oshawa, Brantford, Chatham, Hamilton, Sarnia and Windsor.

Dickson reported on the work of the inspection committee. M. J. Corrigan spoke about achievements of the publicity committee and F. Everard reported on the health and investigation committee. The monthly statement of the Trustee Relief Funds was presented by the chairman.

Relatives attending the funeral included Dr. and Mrs. M. J. Kennedy, Peterbrough; Mr. and Mrs. Everett McGrath, Mrs. T. J. Byrnes and Mr. and Mrs. James McGrath, Oshawa; Mrs. M. Callery Read, Miss Teresa McGrath of Hamilton and Mrs. E. Keating, Toronto.

Club Raises Funds For Charitable Work

CAVAN, Jan. 6 (ENS)—Mrs. Ada Armstrong and Mrs. Gerald Armstrong were hostesses to the seventh and eighth lines Community Club on Tuesday at a pot luck dinner. Plans were discussed for the raising of money during the winter months to be used for charitable purposes. During the afternoon patches were made for a quilt for the Red Cross Society. There were sixteen ladies present and proceeds amounted to $5.25.

New Executive Of Baby Band Takes Office

Trinity Baby Band Mother's Auxiliary held their January meeting in the ladies' parlor of the church Wednesday evening. Despite unfavorable weather attendance was good. Mrs. W. R. Philp, president, was in the chair to conduct business. All details of the past year were cleared up and annual reports given. Mrs. W. Taylor read the treasurer's report in absence of Mrs. R. Phillips, and as last year's secretary, Mrs. O. Jamieson, was unable to attend her report was read by Mrs. G. Hill.

Installation of officers was conducted by Mrs. A. Legon. In an impressive ceremony the new executive came before the meeting in a body and pledged their support and services for 1949. Members are: honorary presidents, Mrs. D. B. Gordon, Mrs. S. D. Carver; past president, Mrs. N. Elliott; president, Mrs. W. R. Philp; first vice-president, Mrs. E. Edmondson; second vice-president, Mrs. Mel Elliott; recording secretary, Mrs. R. Kemp; treasurer, Mrs. W. Taylor; corresponding secretary, Mrs. E. Wellman.

Conveners: social, Mrs. H. Falls; layettes, Mrs. J. Davern; wool, Mrs. H. Wilson; gowns, Mrs. L. W. Thompson; diapers, Mrs. G. Harrison; telephone, Mrs. D. Delaney; program, Mrs. C. Huffman; librarian, Mrs. G. Porter; mite boxes, Mrs. R. Seabrook; pianist, Mrs. K. Kemp.

The Auxiliary was favored with a delightful solo by Mrs. A. Parker, accompanied by Mrs. D. B. Gordon at the piano. A rather novel item introduced was a skit written by Mrs. C. Huffman in which girls taking part explained to other members what the Baby Band Mother's Auxiliary really is, its purpose and place among sister United Church associations. Those taking part were Mesdames C. Huffman, K. Kemp and R. Kemp.

Tea was served at the close with the entire executive acting as hostesses.

Wife Deputizes When Senator Husband Is Dead

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4—(AP)—Senator Vera Bushfield, Republican from South Dakota, says she is more interested in her six grandchildren than in political oratory

"I guess I'm not as grateful as I should be about the honor of being a United States senator for even a brief period," she told a reporter with a laugh. "I do not have any personal political ambitions. A lot of women have written me saying I should make more of it."

The only woman senator at present, she was appointed in October to serve out the remaining months of the term of her late husband, Harlam J. Bushfield. She never expects actually to sit in a senate session or make a speech. She is grateful for that and explains: "I'm not very good at talking on my feet before a crowd."

Another woman Republican, Margaret Chase Smith of Maine, will sit in the next senate after election to a full six-year term.

Governor George T. Mickleson of South Dakota, who appointed Mrs. Bushfield, was attorney-general when her husband was governor of that state. She is 59 years old.

"I had never worked in this office before," she said, "but I took the appointment because the files and office personnel were here and I thought I could carry on for a few months as well or better than a stranger."

CANADIAN FASHIONS—At left is Chinese inspired gown with full skirt sweeping from unpressed pleat at waist where it is cinched tight with wide belt and huge rounded buckle. Halter-neck is high throated in front and cut daringly low in back with two wide straps for emphasis. Centre, Empire silhouette is reflected in two-piece frock with detachable tiered capelet poised over slender high-bosomed dress, skirt bunded in taffeta that ties in tiny bows in back and scoped neckline edged in pleated taffeta. At right, a muted and modern Bruck print is used in model. Of soft crepe, it has roll collar and plunging neckline, is belted snugly at waist with wide crepe belt. It comes in background shades of taupe, blue, grey and green with yellow motif running throughout.

DOROTHY DIX

Selfish Mother Attempts To Stop Son From Marrying

DEAR MISS DIX: I have been going with a girl for the past six years and plan to marry her soon, but I have a problem which I am unable to solve. It is this: I am well-to-do, own my own house.

Dorothy Dix

My mother, who is 64, lives with me. I am her means of support. She objects to my marrying, and I know that my future wife would not get along with her if they lived together.

Now what should I do? Marry the woman I love and live a happy life, or stay single and live in misery?

WORRIED

ANSWER: If you were a desperately poor man who earned barely enough to support yourself and you had a sick old mother to care for, it might be your duty to give up all thoughts of love and marriage and having children. But such is not the case. You are amply able to support a family. Your mother is no helpless invalid. She isn't even old, judged by modern standards.

Of course, it is perfectly understandable why your mother doesn't want you to marry. She doesn't want her baby boy to cut the apron strings by which she has held him so long. Also she wants to be at the head of his house and have the prestige that that gives her. And no doubt she bursts into tears every time you go to see that patient girl who has been waiting for six years for you to give her a wedding ring. And why she has done it, goodness only knows. She should have called time on you long ago and made you either put up or shut up.

Problem Is Simple

So your problem narrows itself down to this: Are you going to let a selfish old woman ruin you life for you? Of course, your mother and your wife would fight if you put them together. So don't try it. Establish mother in a nice boarding house or a cute little apartment, where she can have her own treasures and every comfort; and if she chooses to gripe over it, let her gripe.

No merit accrues to a man for sacrificing, needlessly, himself and the woman he loves to a possessive mother. Consider the girl a little.

◆ ◆ ◆

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: Can a man stay in love with a girl very long if her father sits around all the time and listens to every word that is said? We are never trusted to be alone, even for a moment, or to go out to any place of amusement without some of the family accompanying us. I can truly say that I have proved that I am a gentleman as well as a decent chap, with no evil intentions toward the girl I love.

It is hard on me and hard on my girl, for she cries all the time. What would you advise me to do, for I can't stand sitting any longer, especially with no future changes in store for me?

DISGUSTED ED

ANSWER: Well, Ed, I certainly don't wonder that you are disgusted with having the whole family chaperone you when you go to see your girl. No man can put the proper technique into a kiss if the girl's mouth is across the room from him. Evidently your girl's father does not want his daughters to marry, for he is taking the surest way of raising up a crop of old maids if he never allows his girls to have dates, or step out even to the movies unless the family are along to protect them.

Parents who do their duty by their daughters hang the welcome sign on the door and do all they can to help their girls get good husbands, instead of scaring them off.

◆ ◆ ◆

DEAR MISS DIX: Recently my mother, who is over 30 years older than I am, has started copying everything I have and do. My cosmetics, clothes, perfume, stationery, even phrases I use, and this annoys me very much indeed. Have you any solution for such a problem?

MISS E.

ANSWER: An old proverb says that imitation is the sincerest flattery, but I can well believe that it would get on the nerves of any girl to have Mama understudy her. It would also be disillusioning to see Mama dressed up in a replica of one's best frock, for the gown that looks wonderful on one person is a caricature on another person of different age and type.

One of the wisest sayings in the world is "be your age." And look it and dress it. An old woman can be beautiful if she wears the clothes that belong to her age. But put her in a decollete gown that shows her bones or emphasizes her fat; let her be coquetish instead of dignified, and she becomes a figure of fun. Old sheep never yet looked like spring lamb.

Directions

We sometimes use this frizzled wafer thin bacon to serve with waffles, but it is ideal for "slimmers". Have the butcher slice smoked or peameal back bacon as thin as his machine will slice. Drop them into the hot pan and stir them about until they curl and are cooked, over high heat. Sliced so thin they seem to go a long way.

The pineapple salad is nice if two rings are put on bed of lettuce; fill centre with ball of cream cheese dipped in chopped nuts. No dressing is needed.

Veal Chop Suey is made from leftover veal in our house, but fresh or freshly cooked veal for the purpose may be used.

Cut 2 cups leftover veal in strips and cook them with ½ cup green pepper cut in strips, 2 sliced peeled onions in 4 tablespoons melted fat or oil for about 10 minutes, stirring frequently. Add 2 teaspoons salt, ⅛ teaspoon pepper, 2 cups outer celery stalks cut in strips, and 2 cups meat stock or boiling water or clear canned soup, and cover and simmer 5 minutes. Stir in 2 tablespoons flour which have been stirred into a paste with 3 tablespoons cold water, and stir until smooth. Cover and simmer 5 minutes longer. Just before serving, add either 2 cups thinly sliced radishes or 1 cup sliced brazil nuts or 2 cups bean sprouts or 1 cup bean sprouts and 1 cup bamboo shoots, heat through. Serve on or with

Chinese Rice which is long rice —1½ cups (to serve 6) washed and put in pan with 2¼ cups boiling water and 1¼ teaspoon salt, stirred well until it boils, covered, heat turned nearly off, and boiled without being uncovered once, until all water has been absorbed.

To serve three people you need ¼ lb. shredded, dried or chipped beef rinsed once in boiling water. Saute it covered. In 1½ tablespoons butter for 3 miutes. Add 1½ cups medium white sauce, unsalted. Heat through and serve on toast or if you have an oven on or in baked potatoes, or on unsweetened waffles. Delicious with sauteed mushrooms—but what isn't?

Venetian Vegetable Soup

By MARY MOORE

Two interesting people who have lived for seven years in Venezuela visited us today.

The charming petite lady looks and speaks French (and English), but is Italian by birth; her husband "(my hosban", Valter") is Austrian, but speaks only German and French! She interprets for him. He is a food broker in Venezuela, but formerly was proprietor of a canning factory in Southern France. She is a concert pianist.

All this variety of interests intrigued me, but I was almost an hour getting them around to talking about the food in Venezuela.

It seems that their products (in order of their intrinsic value) are: Oil, coffee, cocoa,—with a very small supply of oranges, pineapples and lemons. Nothing else. Everything is imported and most of that from the United States. Although Canada is high in their opinions, on the list of dependable supplies.

So when Erica told me (with dainty gestures) how to make Venetian Vegetable Soup and Spanish Spaghetti you may be sure I wrote fast.

Venetian Vegetable Soup

Two tablespoons salad oil, 1 chopped onion, 2 cups tomatoes, 1 cup cooked rice, 1 cup meat stock or canned soup, ½ cup cooked or canned limas, ½ cup diced cooked carrots, ½ cup finely chopped cooked cabbage, salt and pepper, finely grated old cheese—preferably Parmesan. Saute onion until slightly brown in oil, then add tomatoes, rice and stock. Simmer covered 25 minutes. Add beans carrots, cabbage, season to taste with salt and pepper. Sprinkle cheese (old Cheddar is very good for that is what I used, to try this) over soup at table. This is a rich, satisfying soup for lunch or supper.

Spanish Spaghetti

Heat ¼ cup olive oil (salad oil is good) in frying pan and add 1 chopped onion and saute it lightly. Add 1 tablespoon chili powder, ½ teaspoon salt, ⅛ teaspoon pepper and mix well. Add 3 cups stewed tomatoes (or if in season use fresh peeled tomatoes) and simmer 20 minutes, stirring often. In buttered baking dish put alternate layers of grated cheese and boiled spaghetti or noodles (or macaroni)—about 3 or 4 cups —, seasoning each layer with salt and pepper. Spread over top ¼ cup chopped or sliced olives, and pour the prepared tomato sauce over all. Top with generous layer of grated old cheese. Bake at 350 deg. Fahr. until heated through and slightly browned.

Pizza

You will wonder what I am going on about but for some unfathomable reason three readers have asked for a recipe for something called pizza. This is an Italian bread with tomato paste and spices spread on top before baking. I think some Italian restaurant must be featuring it, for me to be receiving so many enquiries about something I have never heard of before.

However, my singing friend Martinelli (not the Martinelli—he's dead—but a distant relative he says)—gave me the following instructions for making pizza. Make plain bread dough with yeast and very little sugar. Allow it to rise once, then punch it down and roll it out ¼ inch thick. Spread in greased flat pan. Spread top with tomato paste, bought in cans from Italian grocery store with which you have mixed to taste salt, pepper, paprika, hot cayenne if you wish and ever so thin slices garlic, let rise. The garlic could be mashed to a pulp and stirred into the tomato paste, or powdered garlic could be used. Bake in very hot oven until dough is crustry and golden brown. My informant did not say this but I think this would handle more easily if pressed into 2-inch squares with back of knife after it rises before putting in oven.

Women Leaving Island Biggest Problem

By JOHN MYERS

DUBLIN, Jan. 6 — (Reuters). — If anyone wants a peaceful home in crisis-torn Europe he can take his choice between the Aran group of islands off the west coast of Eire, and Skye, one of the Inner Hebrides group off northwest Scotland.

There is plenty of room, but even there there are problems.

In the Aran isles it is a matrimonial crisis. The island girls are leaving in ever-increasng numbers. They complain there is no social life. The only dancing allowed is folk-dancing.

The "king" of Aran, which covers 26 square miles, is 65-year-old Pat Mullen, father of British actress Barbara Mullen. He estimates there will be no one left in his bleak "kingdom" in 50 years unless new blood is introduced. He recommends the import of Spanish women.

The Aran bachelors are putting their heads together to think up a publicity campaign to attract women to the islands. That is their only hope of marrying, unless hey themselves leave.

Home Of Clansmen

Mountinous Skye, once the stronghold of Clans Macleod and Macdonald, has seen its population drop from 24,000 in 1831 to 8,000 in 1948. Since 1900 the population is said to have decreased by three a week.

As in Aran, the greatest drain on population is among the young people who feel they have no prospects if they stay in the remote, 643-square-mile island of their birth.

The problems of Skye have just been discussed at a conference held in Portree, is island's capital, under the auspices of the Scottish Council of Social Service. The registrar-general for Scotland, J. G. Kyd, presided.

He said Skye has helped more than any other part of Britain to build up the commonwealth of nations. Recalling the number of empire-builders who had gone forth from Skye, he described the islands as "the blood donor not only for the British Commonwealth of Nations, but also for the world."

Island delegates criticized the lack of roads and air transport, expensive sea transport and poor sanitation.

Deserts Life in Caribbean For Peterborough's Skiing Mrs. G. Sunde Visiting Here

MRS. GERNER SUNDE

Oh to stretch out on a sunny deck and cruise across the Caribbean southward through the Panma Canal to the warm Pacific and pay a visit to South America! Sounds like a bit of heaven to Peterborough gals who are slipping, sliding or wading downtown to huddle over typewriters in draughty offices these days. But come a bright frosty holiday, they'll be out skimming over slopes in Jackson Park and there they may meet a girl who has been cruising in the tropics for six months. She is Mrs. Gerner Sunde, a winter guest at 636 Donegal St. with her mother, Mrs. Phoebe Blodgett, endeavoring to become expert on skis against the day when she and her husband take up residence in his native Norway. Meanwhile, her husband, Captain Sunde, is enduring "bad weather"—the rainy and very hot season—on his "banana boat," the Norwegian freighter "Mosdale," bringing the fruit from Guayaquil and Esmeraldes, Ecuador, to Mobile in Alabama, and up the Mississippi to New Oreleans in Louisiana. His ship has resumed the service for which it was built since the war, when it carried Canadian meat to Britain.

Mrs. Sunde is quite accustomed to the Canadian climate, having spent most of her life in Toronto, and she has seen more rough weather and faced more danger than most women on many trips across the north Atlantic in war time as the first female commercial radio operator and the first woman on board this same ship. The grand weather in the region between the Americas has been an unusual and much appreciated change for the couple in the last three years. Only New Orleans was too hot and suffocating for them. Although the captain still had responsibility and duties to perform, his wife was no longer one of the ship's 30 crew members. She did not even have to prepare meals, for the ship's cook looked after that, and sailors kept the captain's private quarters in order, as well as cleaning and polishing deck and cabins of their natty ship that is painted a gleaming white.

Guayaquil, largest city and chief port of Ecuador, has been full of color and interest on each of her visits. The Sundes, living on their anchored ship, would go ashore in boats somewhat larger than a rowboat because of the strong ocean currents, to attend theatres showing films produced in Hollywood, Britain and South America, and dine at the large outdoor restaurants, many of which are German-operated. Here they would be besieged by dirty beggars and filthier urchins that cling to their clothing until they get something. The beggars are everywhere she says, and lie in front of churches exposing the sores on their bodies. Visitors soon become aware of the fact that there are just two classes in South America—those on top who are wealthy by our standards, and "natives" living in various stages of poverty.

The upper class which forms a society typically South American culture is of predominantly Spanish blood, and very pleasing to meet she states. "Official language and tongue in general use is Spanish and the Roman Catholic faith is generally professed. Senoritas do not appear without chaperones in the evening, even to attend a show". Captain and Mrs. Sunde were among the 300 guests at a wedding uniting prominent Spanish and Swedish families of Guayaquil. This third ceremony of the day, held in the church, completed the marriage and the bride's long veil was then removed from her face. "Homes of these people are charming and comfortable, built of a sort of cement tinted in pastel shades. Contrast is direct for the humble bamboo pole huts of the poor may be right next door. The Spanish maidens are daintily proportioned and have remarkably small feet. They have clear white skin and very black hair done up in thick glossy coils and are most particular about their appearance and dress at all hours of the day. Their clothing comes from the smart shops on the city's long main street and is manufactured in the United States.

"The bottom class, referred to as 'the natives', are mostly pure Indians, simple and ignorant, who perform all the manual labor and bear a customary apathetic submission to domination." While loading the "Mosdale" with bananas Mrs. Sunde found them a bit repulsive in their dirty rags. They run up the steep gangplanks with their load and swarm into the ship if possible. It is then that things not under lock and key disappear.

Panama hats, made from the young leaf of the palm, are exclusively manufactured in Ecuador and constitute the only manufacturing industry. Natives use alligator skins to make suitcases, handbags and belt for the tourist trade but these are not always desirable because of the poor finishing, she says.

Highly polish lamp bases, bowls and dishes moulded from a very hard two-tone wood are souvenirs usually purchased from peddlers allowed on the ship by a native customs official specially brought on board to keep them off. He looks the other way when coins slip into his pocket.

Few Canadians can tolerate cruelty to animals and Mrs. Sunde is indigeant about some things she saw in Ecuador. Horses were doped for the races and would stand trembling and wide-eyed, truly pitiful sights. In one race she witnessed, an animal with a wounded leg being forced to run and then beaten when it did not win. Passing their ship one day, she saw a loaded boat with poles extending on each side to which the horns and tails of cattle were tied and she found that a long journey was to made in this manner with the live animals.

On the eight-day trip to New Orleans, Captain Sunde allows one full day for going through the Canal where the stairway of Miraflores and Miguel locks takes the ship up to 85 feet above sea level into artificial Gatun Lake and down again by the three Gatun locks. After several years sailing in the south, he is coming to Peterborough this spring to join his wife and visit here. Later they will go to see his father and brother and sister at Farsund, Norway. Mrs. Sunde is looking forward to this for her father-in-law's farm is very beautifully situated overlooking a fiord close to the ship-owner's town of about 2,000 people. When there without her husband a year ago, she learned quite a bit of the Norwegian tongue. It is somewhat similar to German, she says, but the grammar is simpler, and it is spoken in a soft musical tone that is pleasant to the ear.

Since Mrs. Sunde's marriage and during her absence from this country, Canadians have received their citizenship. She says it made her feel like a foreigner in her own land, when she had to apply for permission to come home, and obtain a visa, though everything was in order and the red tape gone through speedily. Her mother and sister, Miss Jean Blodgett of Peterborough, met her in New York and there the trio spent a week's holiday at the Christmas season.

Jury Acquits Woman In Honor Slaying

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 6—(AP)—A jury deliberated only a little more than an hour Wednesday night before finding Mrs. Dorothy Elizabeth Reeves innocent in the "honor" slaying of her sailor husband, Leslie, last Sept. 5.

The State had sought to convict the woman on a charge of shooting her 29-year-old husband after he stayed out all night with her 18-year-old sister, Peggy Miles. Mrs. Reeves testified she feared her husband had "dishonored" her sister.

Still sitting in the box, the jurors also returned a verdict of innocent on a second indictment of involuntary manslaughter.

New Testament Thief

DAWSON CREEK, Alta.—(CP)—Perhaps this thief has decided to reform. A New Testament, owned by Henry Langerud of Dawson Creek, was stolen recently while Mr. Langerud was attending a church service.

Control Lifted

LONDON—(CP)—Farmers will be able to grow buckwheat (birdseed), millet and canary seed in 1949 without getting luxury crop permits, the agricultural ministry ruled. But the order will be restored if too much acreage is devoted to them.

A rat poison so powerful that one pound will kill 300,000 rats is now in use.

Inventing Clubs Hobby For Seattle Man

By O. H. P. KING

SEATTLE, Jan. 6—(AP)—The founder of more organizations than even the F.B.I. knows about is operating here.

He is Jack Jarvis, creator of "The Society for Suppression of Societies for Suppression", and hundreds of other groups contradicting the purpose of that one. One or two new ones spring into existence every week.

It's a simple operation. Jarvis founded his clubs, societies, leagues, associations and the like merely by printing and circulating membership cards. About 500 persons in all parts of the United States and Europe become charter members. There are no meetings, no duties, no dues.

The founder's purpose is to spread a few smiles. It's his hobby and he is meeting with more than fair success.

Almost every day Jarvis hears from someone who has seen one of his cards in San Francisco, Boston, Montreal, Chicago, New York, London, Paris, Shanghai, and points north, east, south and west.

Some of the most popular cards are:

The Everybody Makes Mistakes But Me Association; Foot-in-Mouth Club; Society for the Return of the "Old Look" to Women's Clothes; Society for the Suppression of Wearing False Bosoms; The Pointing with Pride and Viewing with Alarm Association; Society of the Dented Halo (Part-Time Sinner) and Society of Frustrated Newspaper Men.

Jarvis is a newspaper man. When he was 13 his parents realized they had a problem if they didn't want a problem child on their hands. His boundless energy needed an outlet. So they bought him a printing press.

No Time To Eat

Then the problem became one of getting him out of the basement long enough to eat. That was in 1926. Today his wife and daughter have the same problem.

About a year and a half ago, reporting the activities of some of Seattle's many civic groups, he reflected that lots of people missed the fun of belonging to something, of having a billfold jammed with membership cards.

His first card was the "Society for the Suppression of City Editors." Only recently he created the "Assistant City Editors Protective Association."

Other newspaper men, army and navy officers, politicians, businessmen, clubmen and travel agency representatives are on his mailing list. The list fluctuates in length with the tides of Jarvis' fortunes.

He explains: "It was flattering to have someone ask to be put on the list, but I discovered after awhile it was darned expensive too. So I pruned it way down, but it grew again. It has been cut and added to. Once I put out a bulletin there wouldn't be any more cards by mail. That brought a flood of mail—and stamps."

Jarvis says about 500 naval officers, including at least a dozen admirals, belong to his "I've met a lot of admirals and I'm not impressed Associated." Jarvis concluded the "Not Impressed" series with one for this personal friends. It reads: "I've met Jack Jarvis" etc.

FIREMEN POUR TONS OF WATER into a burning building in this photo, taken minutes after a second alarm brought firemen from several stations to the scene. The blaze caused heavy damage to two manufacturing concerns and brought injuries to one man. Firemen had to battle dense smoke to bring the Montreal blaze under control.

Six Die In Blaze

PHOENIXVILLE, Pa., Jan. 6—(AP)—Six persons were burned to death early today in a flash fire that raged through a two-storey frame home near this eastern Pennsylvania town. Six other persons escaped. Among them was a two-year-old child who was tossed from a second floor window. Another was a widow whose legs had been amputated above the knees.

Sent To Washington

OTTAWA, Jan. 6—(CP)—Lt.-Col. E. S. Tate, former Guelph newspaper man, has been appointed to the Canadian Army Staff in Washington, Defence Headquarters said. An artillery officer, he has been an instructor at the Army Staff College in Kingston, Ont., for some years.

Asks State Help For Marriage Guidance Work

LONDON, Jan. 6 — (CP) — Voluntary marriage menders should be state subsidized, states a report of the Home Office Committee on the development of marriage guidance.

The committee recommended £5,000 ($20,000) a year and a share in training schemes with a £10,000 budget.

But Dr. Ethel Dukes, practising psychiatrist and a founder of the Marriage Guidance Council, says £5,000 is not enough to maintain its 120 centres. The council, also, she says, fears that government or local authority control may interfere with its work.

In the 10 years since its inception the council has treated 8,000 broken marriages and most have been re-established.

The war brought the council much work. The case of one wife and her three children, evacuated to the country while her husband was in the forces, is typical. The husband had an affair with a friend of his wife's before going overseas, but on his return his wife forgave him and their fourth child became due.

Could Not Forget

"But," says Dr. Dukes, "the wife who had forgiven could not forget. She nagged her husband about his infidelity and brought it up again and again. When she came to see me at the council offices the marriage was breaking up.

"The husband was living away from home and suggested a divorce. Now that marriage is happy. We got the wife to see that she must forget the whole affair and we got the husband to take more interest in his children."

Dr. Dukes said that although the report says little about the prevention of unhappy marriages "we are keen to develop the educational side of our work."

"If young people," she concludes, "were taught about marriage, many unhappy unions would be avoided."

Marriage guidance work attracted Dr. Dukes when she found that many backward or maladjusted children came from the homes of broken marriages.

Hospital Planned For Ontario Town

UXBRIDGE, Ont., Jan. 6 (CP) —If the efforts of 1,700 persons prevail this Ontario County community 45 miles north of Toronto will have its first hospital within two years.

Since the town began 150 years ago its doctors have driven 45 miles to the province's capital whenever their patients needed hospital care. By wagon and cutter and now by automobile many medicos before present-day Dr. St. John have made the trip three and four times a week.

Some lives have been lost in the delay because of the often-arduous trip.

Now, however, the whole community is behind a campaign to raise $147,000 required for a 21-bed hospital.

The Dominion and Provincial governments will contribute grants of $1,000 for each bed. Every man, woman and child is pledged to add one cent a day to the hospital fund's coffers.

A farmer contributed three acres of land. School children are collecting and selling scrap paper. The IODE chapter has contracted to raise another $1,000.

The Kinsmen Club promised $5,000 to provide necessary X-ray equipment. Everywhere bazaars, variety shows and raffles are contributing to the enterprise.

Building Permits

EDMONTON—(CP) — Building permits issued up to December in Edmonton amounted to $26,956,390. Permits for the first half of December were valued at more than $1,000,000.

Missionaries To Decide Work In China

TORONTO, Jan. 6 — (CP) — United church missionaries must decide for themselves whether they will continue to work in areas of China occupied by Communists, the church announced Wednesday.

A resolution, adopted by the executive board of the Overseas Missions of the United Church of Canada pledged the Board to support the missionaries whatever their decisions. The resolution also commended the spirit of missionaries who continue to work in Communist-occupied areas.

The Board suggested that "mothers and children of our mission staff and those whose physical condition would be inadequate to meet the rigors of the times, should consider evacuation."

"The Gospel is for the whole world," the resolution states, and it is the policy of the United church that "irrespective of the local political coloring to enter and in obedience to our Lord's command 'go preach.'"

Rev. Dr. J. H. Arnup, secretary of the Board, said: "During recent months the situation in reference to Communist opinion and action has shown distinct improvement."

Mao Tse Tung, head of the communist party in China, had expressed the communists' "willingness to entertain Christian workers on their own terms, and declared for freedom of religion. Taking that at is face value, it is a welcome announcement."

"It is also open to the interpretation," Mr. Arnup said, "that communists, coming closer to their national objective, desire to cultivate the goodwill of the Western World, and to utilize the services of missionaries who have done so much in a social and humanitarian direction for the good of China."

Tree-Top Rabbits

LLANRHYSTYD, Cardiganshire, Wales — (CP) — Rabbits climbed trees here when the River Wyre overflowed. They sat on branches, like owls, for hours.

TO THE ELECTORS OF SOUTH MONAGHAN AND DISTRICT:

I wish to thank all who supported and assisted me in any way in the recent election, and to extend to each the compliments of the New Year.

CHARLES BARNARD.

"IT IS MY DESIRE to cultivate and develop relations with all other Christian churches," His Holiness Athenagoros I, Ecumenical Patriarch of Greek Orthodox Churches throughout the world, said in a brief interview in Montreal just before his departure from Canada on his way to his native Turkey where he will take up the duties of his newly assumed office.

FALSE TEETH

That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wabbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH the alkaline (no-acid) powder, on your plates. Holds false teeth more firmly so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug store.

JEWS--ARABS CALL OFF PALESTINE WAR

Gen. Marshall Resigns; Call Acheson

Secretary's Health Forces Retirement; Robert Lovett Leaves

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7 (AP)—State Secretary George Marshall and Under-secretary Robert Lovett today resigned. President Truman immediately named Dean Acheson to head the State Department.

Truman announced the action at a press conference. He said he is appointing budget director James E. Webb as Undersecretary of State.

The changes are effective Jan. 20 when Truman will be inaugurated as President for his new term.

The President, when announcing Marshall's resignation and his acceptance, betrayed in his voice the affection he has always maintained for the Second World War Chief of Staff.

"I think General Marshall is the outstanding man of that war period," he said.

Truman emphasized that considerations of General Marshall's health prompted him to accept the resignation, and that he did so "reluctantly and with deep regret."

Recovery Slow

Marshall underwent a kidney operation last month and is now at his home in Pinehurst, NC, recuperating. His recovery has gone slowly and the announcement that the 68-year-old General would retire from the cabinet's No. 1 post was not unexpected.

Lovett, whom General Marshall brought into the State Department, said in a letter to Truman that he submitted his resignation "for personal reasons with which you are familiar."

Acheson, who will take over from Marshall, is former undersecretary of state to whom President Truman became devoted during their frequent White House conferences.

Presently practising law in New York and Washington, Acheson has a background of more than six years experience in the state department. He is 55.

Throughout the second world war he served as assistant secretary of state under Cordell Hull. He became undersecretary Aug. 27, 1945 and held this post until his resignation was accepted with "great regret" by President Truman effective July 1, 1947.

Red Cross Aids Sunderland Folk

SUNDERLAND, Jan. 7—(CP)—Plans are proceeding to provide help for the four families homeless as a result of a $100,000 fire Thursday which wiped out four businesses in this town 50 miles northeast of Toronto.

Mrs. J. H. Wilson, secretary of the Brock Township Red Cross branch, said today that the branch has some funds and is planning various projects to help raise additional money to help the destitute families.

The Canadian Legion branch here will stage a benefit dance and the Women's Institute of Brock Township is planning projects. A shipment of supplies from the Red Cross in Toronto is expected to arrive today. The families spent the night with friends and it is hoped other accommodation can be arranged today.

Wants School Boys Taught How To Cook

KITCHENER, Jan. 7—(CP)—Carl Pequegnat of the Kitchener public school board wants to teach boys how to cook.

He told the board last night that interested boys, as well as the fair sex, should be provided with full training in the culinary art. He also said that Canada was not noted, as are some European countries, for its food preparation, and that getting such classes under way would contribute to culinary culture not only locally but throughout the entire country.

Two Children Burned In Quebec Blaze

Two Others Suffer Severe Injuries When Cottage Destroyed

GRANBY, Que., Jan. 7.—(CP).— Two young children were burned to death and two others suffered severe burns today when fire destroyed a cottage at nearby West Shefford.

Rita Roy, four months, and her three-year-old brother Roland died in the fire. Another brother, Robert, four, and 15-year-old Ita Martel, who was looking after the children in the absence of their parents, were brought to hospital here to be treated for burns.

Thrown Into Snow

Another Roy child, Rene, escaped from the burning round floor unharmed. On the second floor, Mrs. Armand Brunelle, saved herself and her five children by tossing them into a snowbank from her bedroom window and jumping after them.

The parents of the two dead children, Mr. and Mrs. George Roy, took a fifth child, Normand, two, with them when they went to Magog, Que., Thursday night. They left the Martel girl in charge of the other children.

Firemen were unable to enter the burning building because of the heat.

Butter Floor Prices To Be Demanded

OTTAWA, Jan. 7.—(CP).— If the margarine ban stays off, the Canadian Federation of Agriculture probably will call for long-term butter floor prices, H. H. Hannan, C.F.A. president, indicated today.

Mr. Hannan said another feature of the Federation's program likely would be a call for regulations "to make certain that margarine is not sold to the public in such forms as to imitate butter."

The C.F.A. president did not indicate on what terms floor prices would be sought, but he said they would have to be "satisfactory" and would have to be "projected several years into the future."

He said the Federation hanot yet decided whether it would appeal the Supreme Court of Canada decision which ruled the Dominion government did not have power to bar the manufacture and sale of the butter substitute in Canada.

He added the Federation feels it is the duty of the Dominion government to carry an appeal to the Privy Council, since the court judgment was not unanimous.

If the Federation did not appeal, it would advocate a program of "adequate safeguards" for the dairy industry.

Canada Joins Naval Workout

LONDON, Jan. 7 (Reuters). — The America and West Indies Squadron of the Royal Navy will carry out a 14-day convoy protection exercise with units of the Royal Canadian Navy at the end of March, the Admiralty announced Thursday.

The squadron now is dispersing on its winter cruise and will rendezvous off Trinidad for the exercise. Canada, said the Admiralty, is sending the cruiser Ontario, two destroyers and one frigate from Esquimault, BC, and the 17,700-ton aircraft carrier Magnificent and one destroyer from Halifax.

"Intensive exercises which will include those for the protection of convoys at sea against air and submarine attack will be carried out," said the Admiralty.

The British cruiser Glasgow, flagship of the squadron's Commander-in-Chief, Admiral Sir William Tennant, has left Bermuda for a cruise taking in the Falkland Islands and will visit Rio de Janeiro and Buenos Aires before returning for the joint manoeuvres.

Truman Denies Softening In Policy Toward Russia

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7—(AP).—President Truman denied today, emphatically and in detail, a published story that he is engaged in a fight within his Cabinet to soften United States policy toward Russia.

At his press conference the President asserted that there is no change in United States foreign policy.

He said the article, by Jay Franklin in Life magazine, is without foundation in fact in nearly every instance and paragraph.

Truman said further that he never had a private conference or interview with Franklin in his life.

He said the writer had been in to see him about a job a couple of times and that was all he knew.

Franklin never saw a top secret document, the president said.

The president spoke out on the issue after some top administration officials had indicated belief that he would have to clarify his personal attitude toward Russia soon.

These officials held that an expression from the president was needed to end speculation here and abroad on the future of American policy.

Diplomatic authorities are beginning to fear that European countries allied with the United States in the cold war may entertain grave doubts about the future unless give reassurance.

Some things that Truman has said and some things that have been written about him have given rise to concern among many of his own clore advisers that his position may be obscured or misunderstood, and therefore need redefinition.

Franklin said that the president now is making a fight in his own cabinet to modify the "tough" American foreign policy toward Russia and adopt a softer approach. Franklin implied that on the other side of the fight are State Undersecretary Lovett and Defence Secretary Forrestal, whom Franklin linked to oil and munitions interests. These interests, he said, have a "vested interest" in continuing the cold war.

Have Daylight Time Extra Two Months

TORONTO, Jan. 7 — (CP) — Toronto will have two extra months of daylight saving this year because of the Hydro power shortage, Mayor Hiram McCallum announced today. The Toronto Hydro-Electric Commission will ask city council to extend the deadline from the last Sunday in September to the last Saturday in November.

"After a study covering the last six years, S. M. Ashworth, Toronto Hydro manager, has come to the conclusion that daylight saving time will mean some saving," the mayor said.

UAW To Fight New Labor Law

TORONTO, Jan. 7.—(CP). — The United Auto Workers (CIO-CCL), with 50,000 member in Canada, have launched a campaign for the repeal of Ontario's new labor law, it was learned in labor circles here today.

Labor officials said the announcement was made jointly by Walter Reuther, international president of the United Auto Workers and George Burt, Canadian director of the union, following a conference in Windsor.

Mr. Burt branded the Ontario legislation, adopted in its entirety from the Federal labor code, as containing seeds for future strike. Although the Federal code is recognized by labor as workable in the limited field under Federal jurisdiction, most unions affiliated withe CCL have opposed the legislation provincially as weighted against unions.

Both Mr. Reuther and Mr. Burt declared only repeal of the law would be satisfactory. They held the legislation can never provide the framework for a "proper law." Mr. Burt said as a substitute the CCL has prepared a "model' labor bill for guidance of the Ontario Legislature at its next session.

Policeman Crazy Kills 2 Officers

KINGSTON, Jamaica, Jan. 7—(CP). — A police constable who suddenly went berserk shot and killed two of his superior officers and critically wounded three others Thursday in a seven-minute gun battle in the police station at nearby Spanish Town.

The 24-year-old constable was shot in the stomach by another policeman and then turned the gun on himself. He was taken to hospital and is expected to recover.

Constable Morgrage was sitting in the guard room of the police station, apparently brooding over a series of departmental charges against him.

He suddenly produced a revolver and started shooting.

The first shots killed Sub-Inspector Malarbe. Sergt.-Major McKoy was hit in the shoulder and then grappled with Morgrage. The constable broke free. McKoy rushed into a back room and the constable followed, pumping six shots into him. McKoy died on the floor of the police station.

Morgrage shot and wounded two other constables and then rushed into the backyard where he saw another policeman. He shot and wounded him. He then was hit in the stomach.

Labor Minister Very Rude Two Dancing DP's Charge

MONTREAL, Jan. 7 —(CP)— Two bewildered Latvian girls were back at their jobs making up beds in a Montreal mental hospital today after having been refused permission by Deputy Labor Minister MacNamara to trade in their starched aprons for dancing slippers.

The girls, Displaced Persons, charged here Thursday night that the minister was "rude" to them after they had made a special trip to Ottawa in an effort to gain his permission to work as dancing teachers in a studio here.

Both 24-years-old, pretty Argilas Berutas and Ligata Vesma told newspaper men that the minister gave them an emphatic "no" to their proposal.

At Ottawa, Labor Minister Mitchell commended the girls for accepting the advice of Mr. MacNamara and returning to their $50-a-month jobs.

Thursday night Mr. MacNamara denied the rudeness charge, saying that the girls mistook "emphasis for rudeness."

He said that he was emphatic about the "no."

The dancing DPs were brought to Canada nine months ago for work in the mental hospital here.

Tired of the 10-hour day at the hospital, the girls applied to the dance studio after reading newspaper want ads for dancing teachers. As dancers, the studio director said they were "extremely good dancers and well educated."

But a quick glance at their contracts reminded the girls that they still had three more months to complete their one-year agreement at the hospital.

After applying for the jobs, J. M. Liff, studio manager, promised them $40 a week if they could obtain their release from their employer.

Peace Talks To Begin January 12

Bunche Lauds Egypt For Initiating Armistice Proposal

TEL AVIV—(CP)—Fighting still was going on in the Rafah area near the Egyptian border three hours after today's cease-fire deadline in Palestine, it was announced tonight.

TEL AVIV, Jan. 7 — (CP).— The rumble of the guns ceased on the South Palestine battlefield at noon to-day under the cease-fire agreed between Jews and Egyptians.

Meanwhile moves for armistice talks brought a glimmer of real peace.

The cease-fire, to be broadened into an armistice, came almost exactly two weeks after Israel had "felt constrained to resume freedom of action" in the Negev.

It leaves the Jews apparently successful in the aim of their operation which, they said, was "the removal of Egyptian threat to Israeli territory." They also appeared to have achieved their desire to sit down at the peace table with the Egyptians.

The cease-fire came 24 hours later than originally planned because of communication difficulties between the opposing sides.

Conference January 12

Ralph Bunche, acting United Nations mediator, to-day proposed that armistice talks between Israel and Egypt begin January 11 or 12 on the Island of Rhodes.

Bunche made his proposal after reporting to the Security Council's seven-member Palestine Committee that Egypt and Israel had agreed on a cease-fire to be followed by direct negotiations on an armistice.

"I have every reason to believe," Bunche said, "that cease-fire is now in effect."

Bunche said the Egyptian Government should be commended for taking the initiative in proposing the armistice talks.

Arthur Lourie, representative of Israel, said he hoped the new developments mean a "new and happier chapter in the Middle East."

"Israel has no designs on the territory of any state," Lourie said.

The Israeli general staff's cease-fire order called on troops to remain in their positions and return fire only if attacked.

Keene Native, 104 Dies At London Home

LONDON, Ont., Jan. 7—(CP)—Mrs. James H. (Euphemia Ayr Ebbington) Campbell, believed to be London's oldest woman, died today of a heart attack at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas (Agnes) Brady. She was 104.

Her old age was spent in excellent health and only last March her birthday wish for an old fashioned cutter-ride was gratified as she handled the reins through London's snowy streets.

Of Scots parentage, Mrs. Campbell was born in Keene and spent much of her earlier life in Peterborough, where her husband, James H. Campbell, operated a soft drinks factory.

Her husband died in 1904. She came to London four years ago.

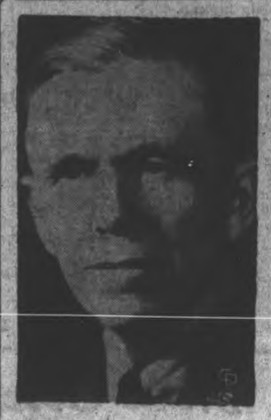
Highest Soviet Rank For Man In Germany

BERLIN, Jan. 7—(AP)—Russia's highest diplomatic rank was bestowed today on the top Soviet political expert in Germany.

V. S. Semionov, political adviser to the Soviet military administration, was named "extraordinary ambassador plenipotentiary." The appointment was announced in the Soviet press.

American authorities interpreted the move as meaning early establishment of a separate East German state in the Russian occupation zone.

The Russians and their German Communist followers are known to have preparations well advanced for such a move. Anti-Communist German newspapers recently said it was planned for April.



STATE SECRETARY GEORGE MARSHALL resigned his position today. He will be succeeded by Dean Acheson, President Truman announced. Gen. Marshall was forced to give up because of poor health.

Plan To Issue A Second Peace Statement

NANKING, Jan. 7 (AP)—The Nanking Evening News reported today the Chinese government will issue a second "peace statement" in an effort to clear up the stalemate produced by Chiang Kai-Shek's New Year's message.

Government spokesman Shen Chang-Huan said he knew of no such plans, but other sources said they considered it "quite probable" some official utterance will follow the apparent Communist rejection of Chiang's offer to discuss terms for peace.

As the peace issue flared all over Nationalist China with business men clamoring for cease-fire orders, informed sources in Nanking said a force of 150,000 government troops surrounded southwest of Suchow, was melting away under Red attacks.

The forces of Gen. Tu Li-Ming were reported dwindling so rapidly that surrender of the entire group of Chen Yi's Red troops was expected by the week-end. Chen began attacks Thursday.

An unconfirmed report generally circulated in Nanking tonight said that Tu had been flown to Nanking from a small airstrip within the Red ringed area, where his troops bogged down four weeks ago.

The Evening News said the expected peace statement would indicate whether Chiang would ask of United Nations support or U.N. or Big-Four mediation, or whether a peace emissary will be sent to the Communist capital in Yenan.

The Chinese government says it at last has killed Russian-trained Liu Po-Cheng, one-eyed Communist commander in Central China whose skilled generalship heaped disasted on Nationalist armies.

If so, the Communist armies have lost one of their most able tacticians at a time when they urgently need him. The formidable Yangtze must be crossed now for the Red conquest of Nanking.

LINDSAY, Jan. 7 — (CP) — Some 200 boys of St. Dominic's Separate school, Lindsay, made a hurried exit today when a Christmas tree ignited from a hot bulb. Principal Sister Stanislaus, directed the removal of the tree and extinguished the blaze.

Truman Pledges World More Economic Aid; Big Employment Increase

Wants European Recovery Program Continued Full Restoration And Extension Of Trade Agreements Act For Three Years

By GEORGE RONALD

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7—(CP).—President Truman today submitted to Congress a report which says the United States must "positively support" the world's struggle for better living standards and economic progress. Unless it gives that backing, the United States "cannot maintain its world position of moral prestige and political leadership," a joint session of the Senate and the House of Representatives was told.

Truman said the United States is enjoying "unparalleled prosperity" and pledged his administration to "anti-depression" policies. But he warned that good times can be lost "if we leave the future to chance."

He repeated some of the legislative recommendations he made Wednesday in his state-of-the-union message: $4,000,000,000 in additional tax revenue; stand-by price and wage control authority; health, housing and social welfare measures.

He noted that new efforts are being made to prepare an international wheat agreement. In a rare reference to oleomargarine, he said federal excise taxes on butter substitute should be repealed.

Truman said the European recovery program "must be continued" and that its success would help a return to "reasonable freedom of world trade." The 54-country international trade organization had paved the way for that return. He urged restoration of the trade agreements act to full effectiveness and extension of it for three years.

Fixes Goals

Truman fixed these national goals for the year: Another million-man increase in employment, to a nearly average of 60,000,000 civilians at work; and another three-to-four-per-cent boost in production.

The president's report showed that personal income in 1948 was $211,000,000,000. He said consumer income rose about in proportion to the climb in consumer prices.

But he declared that profits are swollen to "excess" and that "dangerous inflationary forces" still imperil the economy. Backing up his eight-point request for control legislaton, he told the Democratic Congress:

"We need to have available a range of governmental measures which can be applied as a brake or as accelerator according to the need."

The report was notably more conciliatory toward business than the state-of-the-union which, 48 hours earlier, stressed the inflationary hazard and failed even to mention the price declines of recent months.

Shout Socialism

Republicans shouted "Socialism" at the first outlines of his new program when he submitted it to Congress in the State-of-the-Union message Wednesday. Business is expected to battle anew every major proposal for taxes and more economic controls.

The economic report headed to Capitol Hill as Democratic leaders there strove to complete the

Volcano Erupts In Hawaii, May Cut Road

HILO, Hawaii, Jan. 7.—(AP).—Lava tumbling down erupting Mauna Loa's steep banks was accelerating today. The big volcano erupted violently late Thursday.

The fiery flow, pouring from the snow-capped mountain, was moving in three streams estmated to be 12 to 15 miles long down the western slope.

If it maintains its present pace and direction, it will reach the big island of Hawaii's western coast slightly north of the town of Keokea sometime during the day.

Unless the flow is blocked or slowed, the highway along the coast will be cut. Keokea is about 20 miles west of Mauna Loa's summit crater.

Pilots said the molten lava was bubbling from 50 to 200 feet into the air. Steam and smoke pillared up from the cater and mushroomed into a flat cloud about 2,000 feet above the summit. The ruddy light from the crater reflected brightly from the white underside of this cloud down upon the white snow cap on the crater slopes.

"The place was lit up like a flashlight picture," said one airman. "You could see 20 to 30 miles."

Volcanologist Ray H. Finch said there was little danger to life and property at present. The crater summit is 32 miles from Kona, resort and fishing town on west coast.

Pair Survive Blizzard Four Others Perish

GREELEY, Colo., Jan. 7—(AP)—"The good Lord put dad and me through," Frank Horton, survivor of a blizzard ordeal in which a family of four died, said Thursday night.

From his hospital bed where he was treated for frozen feet, hands and face, the 20-year-old farm youth told how he and his father, Dave, escaped from the howling blizzard which took the lives of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Roman and their children, Tony and Peggy.

Mrs. Roman was kneeling as if in prayer over the frozen body of her daughter when the bodies were found Thursday. Apparently delirious the father had torn off his coat. It was found about 50 feet from the spot where his body lay over that of his son.

The Hortons had gone to the aid of the Romans. The father and son managed to walk the mile from the Romans' stalled truck on their way back when they fell before the blizzard.

Federal Labor Code Given Year-Trial

TORONTO, Jan. 7 — (CP). — The new Federal Labor Code, adopted as provincial legislation by the Ontario Government, will be given a one-year trial in Ontario before any amendments are introduced in the Legislature, Labor Minister Daley said today. He was commenting on a statement by the United Auto Workers (CIO) that the legislation contains "seeds" of strike, and that the union will launch a campaign for repeal of the law in Ontario.

Fear Many Britons Without Hospital Accommodation

LONDON, Jan. 7—(Reuters).—Apprehensive British doctors fear that large numbers of their patients urgently requiring hospital treatments this year will be unable to get it.

Shortage of hospital accommodation, which has been a serious problem since the war ended, threatens to become acute within the next few months.

"Though the winter has hardly begun, it is already difficult to secure a bed for anyone who is likely to occupy it for a long time," the medical journal, The Lancet, reports. "The fact that the patient cannot be satisfactorily nursed at home makes little difference to the prospect of admission."

In London an emergency bed service helps doctors urgently requiring a bed for a patient. The doctor makes contact with the service, which then approaches as many hospitals as may be necessary in order to find a vacant place.

Applications to the emergency bed service now are three times as numerous as at the same time last year. Many have to be refused as beds cannot be found.

About 22,000 hospital beds are normally kept available for emergency cases in England and Wales. The latest total of beds available is 533,000, compared with 466,000 before the war.

About 60,000 of the total cannot be used because of shortage of nurses and trained staff—this despite the 51,000 nursing students now in training compared with 43,000 in 1938.

UN Surprised By Egypt's Truce Shift

Other Arab Lands Likely To Follow Lead From Cairo

LAKE SUCCESS, Jan. 7 (AP). —Egypt's sudden agreement on Thursday to enter armistic talks with Israel caught United Nations officials by surprise. It sent hopes for a permanent peace in the Holy Land soaring.

The Security Council's seven-member Palestine Committee was called into a 10:30 a.m (EST) session to-day to consider the latest Palestine developments.

To-day's meeting was the first held since the Security Council wound up its Paris meeting the last week in December. There was a possibility, however, that Britain might bring up charges that Israeli troops are holding a small fortified position inside Egyptian teritory. The charges already have been made by a British Foreign Office spokesman.

Hopeful Development

UN officials expressed the belief that the shift in Egypt's position on armistice negotiations was one of the most hopeful developments in Palestine since the first cease-fire in Palestine last May 29.

Other Arab countries were expected to follow Egypt's lead.

Up to Thursday Egypt had maintained she would never enter into direct negotiations with the Israeli Government on anything, despite the Security Council's orders that the Jews and Arabs try to settle their differences.

Dr. Ralph Bunche, acting UN mediator, had this comment on the agreement by Egypt and Israel to begin armistice talks:

"I am greatly encouraged by this development and earnestly hope that the negotiations contemplated will lead to permanent peace in the area."

Golds, Base Metals Show Strong Rise

TORONTO, Jan. 7 — (CP) — Golds, base metals rose strongly in brisk trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange today. Industrials moved narrowly on a slightly firmer note and western oils were steady.

The gold list opened on a continuation of Thursday's strong upward swing that pulled prices into mid-May levels, sagged under pressure of mild-profit taking towards noon and then moved slowly ahead. Senior producers led the way and juniors traded heavily for gains ranging up to 15 cents.

Base metals followed the golds, opening strongly and then tapering off slightly. Volume tended to decrease as prices dipped from their high opening levels in both groups. Smelters, Hudson Bay and International Nickel were strong fractionally while Normetal and Falconbridge added pennies.

Industrials moved irregularly on mixed gains and losses. Papers were ahead and Canadian Locomotive led a strong steels list with a new high. Goodyear dipped a point to a new low and Canadian Vickers Pfd. dipped $3.

Vancouver Facing First Peace Dim-Out

VANCOUVER, Jan. 7.—(CP).—Vancouver may be facing its first "dim-out" since the war.

A combination of unfavorable weather conditions and enlarged industrial demand has taxed power production almost to the breaking point, and power officials fear they may have to impose restrictions on consumption inn the near future.

Thomas Ingledow, vice-president of the British Columbia Electric Company, B.C.'s vast dynamo system, has already asked industrial plants on the lower B.C. mainland to reduce consumption during the peak-load period between 4.30 and 6.30 p.m. The prime need is for rain—and lots of it.

Short 19 Million Pounds Of Bacon

OTTAWA, Jan 7 — (CP). — Bacon-hungry Britons went short 19,000,000 pounds of the initial 1948 bacon contract Canada had with the United Kingdom, a Government spokesman said on Thursday night.

The contract — part of the Anglo-Canadian food agreements —was short 39,000,000 pounds of the stepped-up agreement entered into by Canada in mid-year 1948 when Britain cancelled her beef contract and asked for more bacon instead.

The spokesman said that despite earlier reports that the initial 1948 contract might yet be completed "within the next few weeks," there would be no further shipments under the 1948 contract.

Total shipments up to Dec. 31 were 176,000,000 pounds, compared with the 195,000,000 pounds Canada agreed to ship and the 220,000,000 pounds the UK asked for later in the year.

The Government now considers the 1948 contract closed, the spokesman said. Current shipments will be under the 1949 contract which calls for 160,000,000 pounds.

Gordon Hopcroft reviewed the equipment situation for the Boys' Town project at a meeting of Optimist Club governors on Thursday, and reported that already two radios, a chesterfield, some card tables, chairs and three shop motors had been contributed by members. He listed some essential equipment badly needed, such as boys' sporting quipment, tables and chairs, rugs, a piano and an assortment of bench and craft tools.

Club meeting of Jan. 20 will take the form of an out-of-town visit with several members to attend a dinner as guests of the Toronto club where President Milton Morris of Optimist International will be guest speaker. It is anticipated that 25 members will be able to attend. The first meeting of the new year will be on Monday.

In reviewing the success of the Christmas radio hamper show, it was agreed to make this an annual feature. I twas also decided at the meeting to support the city's emergency relief fund for Great Britain in any manner suggested by Chairman Fred Mann.

Peace Talks

The order was in keeping with United Nations' directions for a halt in the weeks of active hostilities between Israel and Egypt.

An Israeli army spokesman announced Thursday night Israel has agreed to cease firing as a prelude to armistice negotiations with the Egyptians. Egypt previously agreed, subject to similar action by Israel.

Order Cease Fire

The cease-fire, ordered by the Security Council Dec. 29, was to have become effective Thursday, but fighting persisted. Communications difficulties appeared to be a factor.

Of all the Arab states at war with Israel, Egypt is the first to agree to direct armistice negotiations.

One of the others, Iraq, had a brief cabinet crisis Thursday. Premier Muzahim Amin Al Pachachi resigned after student demonstrations in Baghdad for full-scale resumption of the Arab war against Israel. Gen. Nuri Pasha Es Saaid, veteran military and political leader, formed a new cabinet a few hours later.

Egyptian and Israeli troops have engaged in a series of battles since Oct. 14, while other fronts remained relatively quiet under the U.N. truce. They fought in the Negev desert, in the southern Palestine coastal strip and, as Egyptian forces fell back, at least once in Egyptian territory during the El Arish raid.

Network of Red Agents Working Among Refugees

FRANKFURT, Jan. 7.—(Reuters).—A network of Communist agents is operating among the refugees and the expelees in western Germany by playing upon their dissatisfaction with present living condtiions in an effort to convert them to Russian sympathies.

The extent of the operation of the propaganda net was emphasized recently by the seizure of two trucks in Hesse carrying a total of 16 tons of illegally-printed Communist pamphlets and books.

United States military government investigators, investigating the ring's activities, disclosed that circular letters and leaflets had been printed illegally and distributed by agents to refugees in camps and individual expelees known for their left-wing sympathies.

Headquarters of organization is in Bavaria, where the refugee influx is still on a large scale and where there now is a distinct restlessness among the camp populations.

Dachau and Allach have been mentioned as centres of dissatisfaction.

The letters and pamphlets conscientiously avoid use of the word "Communism". But they lash out verbally at the "bourgeois" and "capitalistic" governments in the western German states which are unwilling to alleviate the miserable lot of the refugees."

Refugees are told that if they show readiness to do away with "Nazism" and "Facism" and display a willingness to co-operate in a "truly democratic and progressive spirit" with other countries, the Soviet Union, "safeguarding the interests of the oppressed, might help to do something about the miserable life which refugees lead at present in western Germany."

8 Foxes Killed Bounty $24 Paid

It was fox-bounty day on Thursday at the County Treasurer's office and a total of $24 was paid to successful marksmen.

Sampson Taylor and E. Labelle, both of Peterborough, bagged three each and turned in the pelts for $3 apiece. Bordon Muirhead of Smith was paid for two.

The bounty was placed on foxes effective Jan. 1, when it was reported that they were more numerous this year and were becoming a menace, particularly to poultry. Adjoining counties had given a bounty and the County Council at its December session decided to follow suit.

Mr. Taylor shot his three foxes in Douro, near the Canal; Mr. Muirhead bagged his two on Jan. 4 in Kelly's Woods near Bridgenorth; and the third successful huntsman, Mr. Labelle, shot his three on the Kawartha Golf Course—a new par for the course in January, as one wag observed.

All foxes brought in must be skinned and the hides dried. They will then be marked by the County Treasurer and the bearer will be given a cheque for the appropriate amount. He will be allowed to dispose of the pelt as he wishes.

Unlike wolf pelts which may be brought in at any time, those of the fox will only be accepted on Thursdays.

There is a $25 bounty on wolves—$15 paid by the County and $10 by the Department of Lands and Forests. The hides must be marked by the treasurer and then sent to Toronto where they will be properly identified by Department officials and then returned to the Treasurer who will make payment.

The Treasurer said today that no wolf bounty had been paid since before Christmas.

Some hunters have expressed doubt whether or not the $3 price for foxes was sufficient to make it worth while for them to hunt, skin, and then dry the hide. But if this week's figures are any indication the bounty money this year will run into a tidy sum for the County Council to pay out.

About 150 hunters are expected to comb a district where foxes and wolves abound on Jan. 15. The outing has been arranged through the auspices of the Peterborough Fish and Game Association at a place not yet made public.

If the hunt is as successful as hoped the County should be paying a heavy bounty on the following week.

Farm Federation Wants Curb On Margarine

TORONTO, Jan. 7 (CP)—Income tax problems as applied to rural populations will be discussed today by 400 delegates to the Ontario Federation of Agriculture as they go into the last day of the 12th annual meeting here.

Among resolutions passed was one unanimously disapproving the manufacture and importation of margarine in Ontario. Delegates were unaware that the first pounds of the yellow artificially-colored butter substitute went on sale in Toronto about the time they passed the resolution.

If the ban on margarine wasn't possible, the federation wanted certain conditions attached to its sale and manufacture. The butter substitute should be of a standard color "distinctively different from the color of butter," it said. Import tariffs, excise and sales taxes should be imposed upon the product and its ingredients and the United States market be opened to all dairy products.

Suggest Giving Funds

Another resolution requested the Dominion to make Canadian funds available to the United Kingdom for purchase of Canadian goods.

The benefits of such agreements was urged by H. H. Hannam of Ottawa, president of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture. He called for world-wide co-operation in international commodity agreements to stabilize economies and combat hunger.

"If the nations cannot adopt and apply co-operative principles of trade in wheat, it is unlikely that real progress can be made in the development of a co-ordinated world food program," he said.

At a dinner meeting delegates were told that soon the value of a piece of farming land would be determined by its mineral content rather than the number of bushels an acre it would yield. Ollie E. Fink of Columbus, Ohio, executive-secretary of the Friends of the Land, said national health was being jeopardized when minerals were taken out of the soil and not replaced.

WITH JAPAN'S RICE PRODUCTION drastically cut down during the war, because of a manpower shortage, American occupation forces are helping the Japanese to revive their once-great industry. A quota system was introduced, and this has served to boost rice production over prewar figures. Above, some of the bumper crop is shown being dried on racks at Niigata. Trees, latticed with straw rope, hold the grain. The rice must be thoroughly dry before it is turned in at the collection point. Below, Sgt. Charles W. Callahan, of Buckley, W. Va., and the civilian chief inspector at the Yamagata rice collection point examine the rice. If any is green, it will be turned back to the farmer for further drying.

Competition For Spot News Stories Keen Examiner First With Pictures, Story Of Fire

Every big news story has a story behind it—the story of the race among competing newspapers to get the story and pictures to their readers first. On big "spot news breaks," the pressure of the deadline is joined with the pressure of that competition.

Coverage of the big fire at Sunderland on Thursday was an example. First complete story and first pictures of the fire were on the front page of The Examiner, the covering daily furthest from the scene. Toronto papers — two of them—flew their men down by plane to cover the story.

Important start to any story is the tip-off of the break to the news room. In a matter of minutes after the news first came through, a reporter-photographer team was on its way by taxi in a 42-mile dash which gave little consideration to the Highway Traffic Act.

After the fight to be first on the scene comes the battle for news "angles" and pictures. Photographers milled around atop buildings across the street, leaning out of windows, over balconies, pushing close for good shots. Reporters try to draw witnesses aside—perferably alone—to get little sidelights of the story which (the reporter fervently hopes) haven't been discovered by the other papers. As soon as pictures were taken, Examiner photographer was on his way back to Peterborough, where a taxi-radio message ahead had the newspaper's darkroom ready for rapid processing. A fast job at the engravers from wet prints ends the race for first pictures as metal cuts are slapped on the front page form.

Back at the fire, after the story has been safely collected by the reporters, the next problem to be met is: How to get it to the paper? One Toronto newspaper on Thursday, blanketing the village with men, had every telephone line out of Sunderland tied up, with a man sitting beside the phone. As far as other papers were concerned, the village was dead to the outside world. And time—nearly deadline—was going fast.

Nearest open telephone line was at Manilla, six miles away. With the line blackout created by the big Toronto competitor, the only other course had to be taken. The Examiner reporter had a car take him over the course in double-quick time. In the village of Manilla, at the small switchboard, after anxious minutes pushing through contacts by long distance to Peterborough, the call finally hit the newsroom. The story got through. Ten minutes later, after a fast rewrite from notes taken over the telephone, linotype operators were setting the story. That afternoon, the story was on the streets and in the homes.

Fair Weather Speeds Relief

CHICAGO, Jan. 7. — (AP). — Fair weather and rising temperatures today helped speed relief work in the storm-harrassed areas of the Western United States and in the flooded regions of four southern states.

There wasn't much inclement weather across the entire country, forecasters said. Some snow fell near Lakes Ontario and Huron and there was rain along the Washington coast. The only sub-zero mark reported was at Green River, Utah.

But the damage from the blizzard in the western states and the earlier freezing weather in California took a heavy toll, both in lives and crops. Flood waters in Mississippi, Alabama, Tennessee and Georgia left more than 3,000 temporarily homeless.

As the job of rescuing thousands stranded in the western blizzard belt continued, the death toll mounted to 17. Nine persons lost their lives in Wyoming, including a family of four, six in Colorado and two in Western Nebraska.

Council Considers Re-assessment

COBOURG, Jan. 7—(ENS)—Judge W. Lane's comment this week that Cobourg was badly in need of a re-assessment, came at a time when the mayor and 1949 council were preparing to tackle that very question. Judge Lane's remarks were in a judgment handed down in connection with the appeal of the new theatre against its assessment, and the judge said that the assessment structure in Cobourg needed to be equalized as it was much out of line.

Mayor Joe Smith says that re-assesment was at the top of the agenda of important matters to be discussed when the 1949 council holds its inaugural meeting next Monday night.

"We spent quite a lot of time on assessments last year and had experts down to advise us," said the mayor. "It has been quite evident for some time that the assessment situation in Cobourg has to be brought up to date and an equitable re-adjustment made."

Soldiers' Pay

The people in service uniform are now receiving the highest pay ever given Canada's armed forces. The recent increases bring an unmarried Private's pay to $122 a month—$1,464 a year. The allowances for wife and children are substantial, and the pay for higher ranks is correspondingly good. In 1939 a private's pay was $72 a month.

* * *

The better pay now being given members of the armed forces—for naval and air force pay is on the same scale—reflects partly the increased cost and standard of living, partly the desire of the Department of National Defence to attract recruits. The active armed forces were at a strength of 38,285 by last November, a net increase of more than 5,000 during the year. However, more men are still wanted, even beyond the total of 42,150 authorized by the last parliament. It may comfort us to know that already the active forces are six times as large as they were on the average during the years 1930 to 1939.

* * *

However, even though there is no present need to make Canada an armed camp, the international situation and our increased commitments require more men under arms, well-trained and of a type to form a nucleus to staff very large forces should war come again. Therefore a country-wide recruiting campaign was begun last autumn, and the effort to attract men to the colours is being intensified by publicity, radio appeals, and even a half-hour program at a good time on Sunday evenings on the C.B.C. Trans-Canada network. One of the attractions of the forces is the good pay.

* * *

There are others. Food and barrack-life have been so greatly improved that old soldiers of the last war would hardly recognize the army as it is today: white sheets, bed-lights, real beds, a measure of privacy, lounges, married quarters, and children, wives, schools, shops and cinemas within camp limits. About 8,000 married quarters have been set up in the last two years. Opportunities for advancement and education (even to university) are great. The armed forces do offer now an attractive career and a good life to young men of energy, ability and adequate secondary school education. There is the additional satisfaction that a man in uniform is serving his country.

* * *

Britain and the United States, with whom our defence policy and strategy are closely related, have compulsory service. Canada is still relying on volunteers. It may be able to continue this policy in peace-time, for the rewards of service life are so attractive that a vigorous recruiting campaign could result in securing all the men needed, according to present plans.

Should A Child Perform A Marriage?

Most newspaper readers have by this time read something about the marriage which was performed recently by Master Marjoe Gortner, of Long Beach, California. The bride and groom were twenty-one and twenty-three respectively, and Master Gortner is five. He is an ordained minister of the Old Time Faith, Inc., a religious body of which we know nothing except its name.

Is a marriage performed by a child a true marriage? Two judges say that it is not, for a marriage is a contract, and a minor may not act in a matter involving a contract. There will be many people, also, who will consider such a marriage farcical on grounds of reason; a marriage establishes a relationship between a man and a women which a boy of five is incapable of comprehending; it would be as sensible to put a child of five on the bench and let him dispense death sentences, or to give him a commission in the army. And we shall be surprised if no theological objection is made to this procedure, in Leviticus xxi it is clearly stated that no blemished man may be a priest, and in virtually all denominations this prohibition is still honoured; a child is not blemished—Master Gortner's pictures show him to be a well-grown little boy—but neither is he physically perfect, for he has neither the growth, strength or attributes of a man; how, then, can he perform a ceremony which is also a sacrament?

Religion is, to a great degree, a reflection of those who profess it. Simple minds delight in simple and often crude beliefs, and even when such beliefs appear to be outrageous their validity cannot be questioned unless they are contrary to law. There is no likelihood that a fashion of being married by little boys will spring up, and the matter does not demand prolonged or serious discussion. We comment upon it merely as one of the limitless vagaries of the human spirit.

The State-Owned Pub

There is a good deal of discussion, misunderstanding and misrepresentation at present about the state-owned public houses which are to be built in some sections of Britain. So far as we can discover, the truth of the matter is this: in certain newly populated areas in Britain the government wants to establish and run pubs in order to ensure that there will be sufficient of these places, that they will be in the right locations, and that they will be properly managed. This seems innocent enough; there are already several state-operated pubs in England—all those in the city and district of Carlisle, for instance—and they appear to give satisfaction. But there are people who fear that state pubs will be less jolly and friendly than the privately operated kind, and that State beer will not be so good as private beer. As most of the pubs in England at present are "tied houses"—that is, owned or partly owned by breweries, and bound to sell only the beer made by their owners—the argument about private pubs is not too firmly grounded.

Socialist interference with the pubs is bound to create some resentment, for socialists are always eager to "do good", and all too often doing good means interfering with other people's long established habits, and imposing upon the masses the way of life which seems good to a puritanical and joyless minority. But we cannot see any concealed uplifting motive in the present socialist proposal. The way to create a good pub is to give a good landlord a free hand, and one of the best pubs we ever visited was licensed in the name of the Society of St. John the Evangelist (the Cowley Fathers) and the bartenders were all priests of the Church of England. If the clergy can run a good pub we don't see why the government should not do so, if it bears in mind what a pub is, and what the public has a right to expect from it.

A Nation Of Hypochondriacs

Britain's national health service, so far as we can judge at present, is working well. Nevertheless, the run on the services of doctors and dentists is intense, and has caused some concern in the breast of the Minister of Health, Aneurin Bevan. "Don't let us become a nation of hypochondriacs", he said in a recent speech; "I ask the public to use their doctors wisely and only when they really need them".

That is all very well, but we should have expected a man of Mr. Bevan's experience to know that virtually all civilized nations are nations of hypochondriacs. Everyone worries about his health to some extent, and to put a doctor at his mercy, free of charge, is to invite the average citizen to indulge his talent for hypochondria. All doctors are worried in some measure by people who have little or nothing the matter with them, but who fear the worst; when such people can consult their doctors without paying a fee they are bound to set out upon a great and glorious binge of imaginary illness. As W. S. Gilbert wrote:

It's human natur, p'raps—if so
Oh, isn't human natur low!

If Britain—and Canada and the U.S.A.—are not nations of hypochondriacs, how are we to account for the millions which are spent every year on patent medicines—medicines to relieve every known symptom, with special concentration on headaches, indigestion and constipation. On this continent constipation alone is a greater hobby than horse-racing or baseball and people who have apparently lost faith in the power of gravity dose themselves with greater regularity than they show in saying their prayers. What would happen if the medical profession were put at the mercy of these worried, unhappy people? Exactly what has happened in Britain.

We think that the British national health scheme has many things to recommend it. But one of its faults is that it fails to protect doctors against hypochondriacs.

Notes And Queries

By ALPHA

Questions are solicited for this column, particularly those relating to local lore and tradition.

ALPHA: When the City Council had its inaugural meeting on Monday, Bishop Berry gave the prayer. Is a bishop always the intercessor between God and the city fathers at the first council meeting of each year?

ANSWER: No, partly because bishops are in short supply in Peterborough. We have but one, the Roman Catholic bishop, and it was most fitting that Bishop Berry, who has shown a lively interest in municipal affairs, should have been asked to give the prayer. Once in every three or four years, a cleric of the Roman faith is called on for such occasions. More than one-fifth of the population of Peterborough is of the Roman Catholic persuasion. One member of the Council is a Roman Catholic.

QUESTION: What are the "Seven Deadly Sins"?

ANSWER: As personified in medieval literature ("Piers Plowman"; Chaucer's "Parson's Tale", and later in Spenser's "Fairie Queene"), they are: Pride, Lechery, Envy, Anger, Covetousness, Gluttony, Sloth. To me, the most interesting inclusion, and one to which modern North American man might pay more need if he does not want to go to hell, is gluttony. As I let out my own belt I am painfully conscious that we on this continent eat too much. We eat so much that we are physically incapacitated, should occasion demand, to go out and stalk or grab the food with which savages had the natural right to glut themselves. If we lived among cannibals, it would be the fleet cannibals who would be the gluttons; we would be martyrs to our own obesity.

SIR: I see by the paper that "The Taming of the Shrew" by Shakespeare is being presented in the Collegiate this month, by the Peterborough Little Theatre. What is a shrew?

ANSWER: Are you trying to put in a plug for the play? May I remind you of the rooster's slogan that It Pays To Advertise and also that this newspaper has advertising space for rent? However, since it is a good play and should be a good performance, and the question has interest apart from the play, I shall let it pass, if the editor does. Shakespeare tells you what a shrew is. His wif Anne Hatnaway was, from some reports, a bit of a shrew herself.

The word comes from the Old English for "shrew-mouse" and from a Middle English word meaning a bad malicious person, a scoundrel. In Shakespeare's and our own day it means a nagging scolding woman; a virago, a termagant. It also means the shrew-mouse, which is a small mouse-like insectivorous mammal, genus 'Sorex', with long pointed snout, shortish tail, and brownish silky fur. Its bite was supposed to be poisonous to animals, even male ones. I am reminded of Ogden Nash's rhyme:

Strange as it seems, the smallest mammal
Is the shrew, and not the camel.
And that is all I ever knew,
Or wish to know, about the shrew.

The word, as applied to women, has rather fallen out of fashion, but the type persists, even in Peterborough.

DEAR ALPHA: What is "mulled claret"?

ANSWER: Claret (from the French for clear and bright) is a clarified light wine, especially the red wine of Bordeaux. To "mull" is to heat and spice wine or beer. Mulled claret is considered by many to be very good medicine on wintry evenings. Here is the way it is made: (a) For boys: Warm—but do not boil—the wine, with nutmeg, cinnamon, cloves, sugar and lemon rind. (b) For Men: Ditto, adding dry port one part to six of claret. (c) For HEROES: The same as for boys, adding one part port to three parts claret and as much old brandy as you think the company deserves or can stand.

SIR: People talk about a scientist called "Froid" who had something to do with dreams. I have looked him up in books and can't find even his name. Who is he?

ANSWER: He was a German Jew, Dr. Sigmund Freud (pronounced "Froid" because the 'eu' in German sounds like 'oi'). He was born in 1856 and died in 1939. He is celebrated as being the inventor of psycho-analysis. His study of neurotic ailments led him to various conclusions about the normal mind e.g. that subconscious elements exist which influence consciousness, that sex is an important factor in mental development, that dreams can be subconscious revelations of matters which the conscious mind represses.

DEAR ALPHA: In your column a week before Christmas you wrote about "The People's Chimes" in St. John's Church, and told how you had them rung. You said then that there were nine bells. Why is that? The tablet in the porch of the church commemorating the installation of the bells says that there are thirteen. What happened to the other four?

ANSWER: There is no mystery. All thirteen are still there, still sounding. The mistake is mine. I was probably so winded and wall-eyed with wonderment when I had climbed up into the bell-chamber that I lost all ability to count—or perhaps the pealing music drove figures from my head. By the way, there is a good mystery about bells and bell-ringing: a book called "The Nine Tailors" by Dorothy L. Sayers, which I recommend to detective-story readers and admirers of Lord Peter Wimsey. Miss Sayers has, incidentally, loosely modelled Lord Peter on a contemporary of hers at Oxford, who was a Fellow of Balliol College and editor of The New Temple Shakespeare: M. R. Ridley. He is now a film director.

FOR THE RECORD: On January 3rd Peterborough's hundredth City Council was sworn in. The doyen is our new Mayor, Mr. M. J. Swanston. If you doubt that it is the 100th council because Peterborough does not celebrate the centenary of its incorporation until January 1st, 1950, then fuddle your head over some arithmetic—as I did mine.

OH! DOCTOR!

Letters To The Editor

AGAIN ADVOCATES WARD SYSTEM

Sir: Your article "Ward System for Council twice rejected in City, Was in force 59 years", gives a very thorough review of when it was, and was not in vogue, but you do not however give any history as to things that took place during the years of either system.

I am not making any accusations, but there have been times when it may have been as well if the Ward system had been in force. I will enumerate very few now of what took place and what is taking place at the present time. I will later on, furnish others.

The original cost of the Hunter Street Bridge was if my memory serves me correctly to be much lower than what we paid for the one we have. The drawing of the bridge that was to be and tendered for was a high level, much wider, and more straight than what we got. We have, so as to benefit the Quaker Oats Co. a crooked, narrow hunchback affair. The cost was not enough to satisfy some people and the last thing that was done was to chip the concrete, and the only good reasons for this was to raise the price, and catch dust so people would not climb up on the top and get their clothing dirty. Where did the extra cost of this bridge over the cost of the original bridge go? Why the tender juggling? The old iron bridge was to have been rebuilt at London Street where we do require a bridge for vehicles. The material of the old bridge lay on the river bank and was taken piece by piece until there was none left to be moved to London Street. We have a footbridge there instead, at the cost under high prices, borne by the citizens.

It has appeared contracts are let outside our city and to those who never spent a cent here.

One instance I recall is when the bus business was under a system of competition.

Edward Cooney was serving us with buses and our not Ward System Council thought there should be only one bus transportation. Ed. with others made his offer. He must have known he could carry out his offer but our Council with more love for strangers than they had for an energetic citizen, pushed Ed. aside and invited the Mitchell outfit to come in. I am not perhaps quite posted on all the transactions as I was not a member of our Council. However they secured a franchise and were to pay our city a price per seat of what seats were in the buses and our pleasure for riding in a seat was to be the figure agreed upon. They have had two increases on tickets by permission of our City Council.

Now this is the rub? Would it cost them more to furnish buses with more seats? I would say it would. Do they pay anything to our city for those packed in like sardines with the motorman hollering "More room at the back"?

We have this under the General System.

Are the men we elected to our Council the ones who are suffering by waiting anywhere up to twenty-five minutes for a bus that should give a ten minutes' service?

Do they think of the women with children and packages being jostled around, standing and in danger of getting their feet trod on? Do they think of the men with dinner buckets having to stand or perhaps waiting for a bus that will leave them waiting for one that may have at least standing room? Get some of these sufferers in our Council under a Ward System is my idea of fair play. A young lady waited 30 minutes this morning for a bus, buses passed leaving her standing. Of course the size of these and the service is in keeping with our general village way of management. Why continue to wear the swaddling cloth? As you state, one other change in election practice conceived in Peterborough and long in effect was the restrictive amendment requiring aldermanic ballots to be marked for at least four candidates. The ballot validating rule became: You must vote for four and you may vote for five. But that is another story.

May I ask you, Mr. Editor, what is the story behind this? Is it one that is suppermost in the people's mind as being the reason or two reasons usually linked with this?

This is one very good reason why the Ward System must eventually come into use.

Is it democratic to lose our franchise if we do not vote for the fourth because we know nothing about him, in some cases, or know too much about him to want him for alderman.

MAURICE E. KETCHESON.

COMPLAINS OF TOWN CLOCK BELL

Sir: The acrobat who removed the small hand from town clock misdirected his efforts, he should have removed the clapper. The bell is the most toneless one in America and has been keeping many people awake in the downtown hotels and others way from them for many years. Who in hell wants to know all the AM's from midnight until seven o'clock. There is a new device which stills the bell for those unearthy hours.

Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples. Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately; and that night they caught nothing. But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore: but the disciples knew not that it was Jesus.

Then Jesus saith unto them, Children, have ye any meat? They answered him, No. And he said unto them, Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes. . . .

As soon as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread. . . Jesus saith unto them, Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord. (John 21: 2-6, 9, 12.)

Safety In The Air

In 1948 the domestic air passenger carriers (of the U.S.) have set a safety mark of 1.2 fatal accidents for each 100,000,000 passenger-miles. This compares with 3.2 deaths, measured by the same yardstick, last year, and is only fractionally below the 1.2 mark set in 1939 and 1946, despite a much larger number of passenger-miles flown.

In the international service American flag airlines reduced 1947's fatality rate from 1.1 deaths in each 100,000,000 passenger-miles to 1.0 in 1948.

It should be remembered that this good record has been made in the face of larger units and larger passenger loads per airplane, which unavoidably mean larger casualty lists when the rare accidents do occur.—New York Times.

Three-Township Ranch

To us the McIntyre Ranch has always epitomized the best in Albert cattle ranching.

When William H. McIntyre, Senior, came to South Alberta in the early nineties and, after three or four years' scouting, chose three townships south of Magrath on the Milk River Ridge as the basis of his ranching operations in a new country, he made no mistake.

His son, William H. McIntyre, Junior, carried on the tradition till his untimely death a year ago. Now it is given to a fellow townsman, Ralph A. Thrall, 30 years a resident of South Alberta, most of which time he has been connected with the McIntyre Ranching Company, to take over the reins as owner of the ranch.—Lethbridge Herald.

Legion play the Petes at 8.30 tonight in Civic Arena, a scheduled OHA senior "B" fixture. And, lo, a great throng will attend. This is the one local fans have been waiting for—not just this season but for several years. Waiting to see the two bitter city rivals tangling on Peterborough ice. It'll also be the official opening of the arena, but more on that a bit later. Enmity has been building up several years between the Petes and Legionnaires, reaching a peak last spring in a sizzling playoff series. And now they're back at each other's throats again for the first time in the 1949 puck campaign.

* * * * * * *

Leadership of the group is at stake this eve, too, as each team has one win and no losses. Petes won 3-1 in Stouffville last Monday while Legion whipped Toronto Meteors 8-2 here Wednesday. As Toronto Bells lost to Markham, the winner here tonight will be the only undefeated senior "B" squad in the setup. Both clubs have some newcomers to the lineup and both teams will really be playing for keeps. Two ace goalies, and two hard-hitting defences, plus a lot of hustling and heady forwards. It's a perfect puck dish for the Peterborough fans who have waited so long for such an offering on home ice. A capacity crowd is expected to see this battle on a good sheet of ice this evening.

Mayor Will Faceoff

Mayor Max Swanston will faceoff the puck, following a short speech, at 8.30 to officially open the arena — a previous ceremony having been performed to start the junior "B" season. Legion Pipe Band will be on the ice from 8.00 to 8.15, players will drill from 8.20 till game time, and the working committee of the arena will attend in a body. The place is expected to pack in 2,500 and if the weather is okay—it was at this writing—it'll be filled. Lot of puck fans haven't yet visited the rink and this is an ideal time, a Friday night senior "B" game between the local entries. Next week, 'tis hoped to have an uptown agency or two to help handle reserve seat ducats for fans not living in the south end.

Lakefield and District Hockey Association has organized a district minor loop setup in midget and bantam. Also, a "Haywire League" of older chaps with teams in from Apsley, Crowe's Landing, Young's point, Lakehurst and Lakefield. There should be some rousing struggles among these good fellows during the cold nights ahead. And Lakefield fans will see some fine hockey what with the minors, these haywires, the Grove games and the TVL-ers. Their new arena will prove a popular place from here on in.

PMHA-ers In Action

Four tussles run off in the Peterborough Minor Hockey Association last evening, one over east and three at Civic Arena. Marines proved powerful bantams to take the northend "Kids" by an 18-0 count with Frizzelle, Corbett and McGrath main snipers. St. Peter's bantams blanked Trojans 3-0 as Cupoli, Griffin and Corkery did the scoring. A midget melee went to St. Peter's 5-2 over the southend Jaycees with Carravaggie and Richardson leading the marksmen. And the Legion Trojans took St. Peter's juves by an 8-3 count as B. Robinson led their attack. Games again next Tuesday and the schedule may be drawn up over the weekend.

Pins took a beating again last e'en when the City Bowling League whooped it up. Three shutouts this time, by Shockey's, Riley's and Russelle's. Five rolled over the 3,500 mark, Ostranders leading with a mighty 3,732 whack. McCannan's topped in singletons with a healthy 1,293. Plenty of fine individual scores hung up, too, with Chuck Dorrington showing the way in threesomes as he hit 880, and Bert McCarrell clouting 357 to head the single counts. Shockey's are in front of the parade at present with 76 points, just two ahead of Riley's, and others moving right up on them. A real hard-hitting bowling loop.

On The Cage Stage

No girls' basketball tonight, the games being postponed. But all lasses in the league are invited to an open workout this p.m. in the YWCA gym. The schedule next week will go as listed. Men's hoop play is on tap tomorrow eve in the Collegiate gym with a twin bill. Oshawa opens the Lakeshore League schedule here against Marines "B" cagers at seven bells. The league includes these teams along with Port Hope, Cobourg and Lindsay. Gord McIntyre's men won their first away the other night in Cobourg. Second tilt Saturday is betwixt Toronto "Eddie Black's" bunch and Marines "A" squad at 8.15 on the dot. Black's band won the Ontario Intermediate "B" title a year ago and have stepped up to the "A" classification.

Ask Youth, 17 To Throw Fight

LONDON, Ont., Jan. 7.—(CP). —Frankie Anderson, 17-year-old negro fighter from London, said he had been offered $30 to throw a bantamweight bout on an amateur boxing card here Thursday night.

Anderson said he was called from his classroom in school Thursday morning to take a phone call and a man made the offer of cash "if I would lay down."

The incident was reported to Bill Chadwick, western Ontario representative of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada and of the Ontario Boxing Commission. Chadwick said a complete report would be sent to the Commission.

Anderson lost the bout to Pay Kelly of Brantford, by a technical knockout in the third round after Kelly opened a deep gash over his left eye. The Commission doctor ordered the fight stopped. It took five stitches to close the cut.

Four Contests Staged In The PMHA

Four PMHA tilts were staged last night, with the Legion Trojans defeating St. Peter's juveniles 8-3, St. Peter's midgets winning 5-3 from the south-enders, St. Peter's bantams blanking Trojans 3-0, and Marines tantams walloping the north-enders 18-0. Jerry Frizzelle racked up five goals in this latter game as Jack Corbett got three goals and three assists, and Jim McGrath notched a pair and aided on two more.

The other bantam game saw Cupoli score two and Corkery one for the Saints, as Griffin assisted on two in a neat number with both sides hustling throughout. The teams:

St. Peter's—Goal, O'Brien; defence, Cupoli, Legrow; centre, Pearson; wings, Griffin, Corkery; alternates, Foley, Ferren, Sullivan, Galvin, Hickey, Ryan, Lefevre.

Trojans— Goal, Marchen; defence, Holbrook, Herbison; centre, Clark; wings, Mullen, Pagett; alternates, Drury, Carvath, Bloom, Carleton, Cullen, Roberts.

Good Game

St. Peter's had a little edge on the southend midgets but it was a good game all the way before finishing 5-2. Armstrong, Richardson, Carravaggie, Killen and Gooley got the winners' markers with an assist each going to O'Reilly, Farley, Richardson and Carravaggie. Daniels and Hope scored for the losers. The teams:

Southenders — Goal, Tyndall; defence, Stewart, Bryan; centre, Floyd; wings, Daniels, Hope; alternates, Kimball, Parry, Seabrook, Scriver, Wood, Strickland, White, Batley, Allan.

The Legion-sponsored Trojans triumphed over St. Peter's in another lively fray. B. Robinson sparked their attack with three goals as G. Robinson got one, while Jones and Armstrong each tallied twice. The Saints' goals were snared by Sheehan, Connelly and Alberico. The teams:

St. Peter's—Goal, Hickson; defence, Bacon, Jones; centre, Alberico; wings, Basciano, Connelly; alternates, Cuffe, Lagano, Sheehan, L. Collins, R. Collins, Conroy, Searle, Pearson, Chambers, Buchan, Levasseur, Beebee, Crough.

These teams meet again on Monday at 9 p.m. at King Edward. The teams:

St. John's — Goal, Forbes; defence, Ferguson, Hore; centre, Searles; wings, Hutton, Parrott; alternates, Roberts, Biddle, Rusk.

Boston Dumps Wings 3-2 As Canadiens Whip Hawks

By PIERRE DUBOIS
Canadian Press Staff Writer

Boston's unpredictable Bruins are not only back in a first-place tie with Detroit for the National Hockey League lead today but also appear to have earned an iron-clad claim to being the circuit's mystery team of the season.

Just when they show signs of coming apart at the seams, the Beantowners surprise by bouncing back from a humiliating defeat at the hands of a bottom-placed team to knock off one in the top flight.

The Bruins did it again Thursday night in Detroit, dumping the Red Wings 3-2 after having absorbed a crushing 4-0 lacing from the Maple Leafs in Toronto on Wednesday. It was just one of many such comebacks staged by the Bruins all season long.

Meanwhile, in Thursday night's only other game, Montreal Canadiens moved back into sole possession of fourth place by walloping Chicago's fading Black Hawks 7-2. Les Habitants looked anything but a crew of poor patched up cripples in chalking up the victory which brought them within a point of the Hawks with three games in hand.

Came From Behind

At Detroit the Bruins came from behind with two goals in the middle frame to notch their first triumph on the road in nine starts.

Rookie Ed Sandford potted the game-winning marker. Other Bruin counters were fired home by right-winger John Peirson and veteran Woody Dumart. Finnish-born Jim Enio and Abel got the Detroit goals.

In Montreal, the Canadiens waltzed away to a 3-0 lead before the travel-weary Hawks managed to hit pay dirt. Little Billy Reay, led the Montrealers with a pair of goals. His linemate, Normie Dussault, potted one, and the others went to Tod Campeau, Bob Fillion, Leo Gravelle and Gerry Plamondon.

Jim Conacher, high in the list of NHL scorers, put the Hawks back in the hunt momentarily with his first period goal. The score then was 3-1. But they didn't score again until the third period when Bill Mosienko rapped in Roy Conacher's passout from a mad scramble in front of Montreal goalie Bill Durnan.

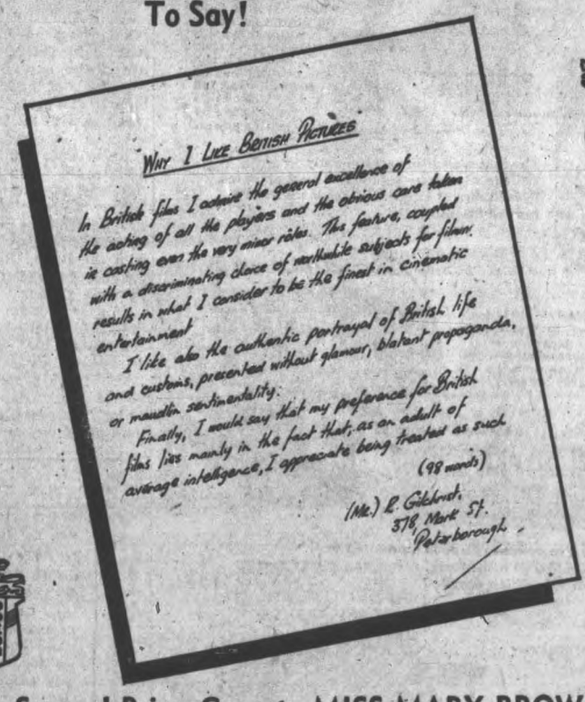
"Why I Like British Pictures"
Read What The Winner Of The Contest Has To Say!



Why I Like British Pictures
In British films I admire the general excellence of the acting of all the players and the obvious care taken in casting even the very minor roles. The feature, coupled with a discriminating choice of worthwhile subjects for film, results in what I consider to be the finest in cinematic entertainment.
I like also the authentic portrayal of British life and customs, presented without glamour, blatant propaganda, or maudlin sentimentality.
Finally, I would say that my preference for British films lies mainly in the fact that, as an adult of average intelligence, I appreciate being treated as such.

Welfare Group Discusses Residence Laws

WINNIPEG, Jan. 7—(CP)—Is a depression around the corner?

Canada's top welfare workers hope not, naturally enough, but they set out nevertheless today to blueprint a program for helping the needy in the event a recession occurs.

Possibility of a Canada-wide depression was considered at the opening session of a three-day conference of the public welfare division of the Canadian Welfare Council. A plan for proper organization and financing of relief needs was to be discussed at today's sessions.

The discussion was launched through a report of the public assistance committee presented by E. W. Griffith, Deputy Minister of Public Welfare for British Columbia. Delegates to the conference are here from all parts of Canada and Newfoundland.

A heavy agenda has been drawn up for each day. In addition to the relief problem, major discussions will include problems of the aged and residence laws which determine whether a person has lived long enough in a given community to be eligible for public assistance.

Condemn Mercy Deaths

NEW YORK, Jan. 7—(AP)—A petition by 379 Protestant and Jewish clergy to allow voluntary mercy killings in New York State was condemned Thursday by the head of the largest synod of the Lutheran synodical conference. The New York office of the church's Missouri synod released a statement by synod president of Dr. John N. Benken. He said the proposal "violates all principles of scripture."

Forms New Cabinet

BAGHDAD, Iraq, Jan. 7—(CP)—Gen. Nuri Pasha Es Said, onetime premier, formed a new Iraqi cabiet Thursday. It replaced the government of Muzahim Amin Al Pachachi, who resigned earlier in the day.

Just a Racket

BRIGHTON, England, Jan. 7—(AP)—Sir Thomas Beecham, the firebrand of British music, complained Wednesday that a "hapless set of ignoramuses and nitwits" are making a "racket" of the Covent Garden national opera in London. He asked the Incorporated Society of Musicians to demand an inquiry into the opera.

Attlee Visits King

LONDON, Jan. 7 — (CP) — Prime Minister Attlee Thursday night visited the King shortly after attending a conference with Northern Ireland ministers. It is understood that Attlee informed the King of the questions raised at the conference. Attlee had assured the Northern Ireland ministers, including Prime Minister Sir Basil Brooke, that Northern Ireland will remain in the United Kingdom despite Eire's recent withdrawal from the commonwealth.

Here and There in Sport

By The Canadian Press

Mrs. Fanny Blankers-Koen, comely Netherlands housewife who won three individual Olympic titles in an unprecedented performance, Thursday at New York was named woman athlete-of-the-year for 1948 in the annual Associated Press poll.

Canada's Barbara Ann Scott, the Olympic, World and European figure-skating queen who recently turned professional, was a close fourth in the polling.

Barbara Ann followed Mildred (Babe) Didrikson Zaharias and Mrs. Vicki Draves, Dethroned by Mrs. Blankers-Koen, Mrs. Zaharias held the title for the last three years and in 1932. Mrs. Draves of Pasadena, Calif., double Olympic champion, was third in the voting.

Barbara Ann Scott, told Thursday at New York she had placed fourth in the annual Associated Press poll to select the woman athlete-of-the-year, said she was "completely thrilled." "I think it's wonderful that they even considered putting me on their list," she said. "I feel very honored and I thank them very much for their kindness."

A Maine boxing manager and a fighter accused of boxing in Montreal under another boxer's name were given suspensions Thursday by the Maine Boxing Commission.

Manager Paul Junior of Lewiston, former New England lightweight boxing champion, was suspended for six months. Leo Muccucci, Portland welterweight, was suspended for three months.

John Stuart, former president of the Beaches-Indians football team, said Thursday that he had joined the executive of Toronto Argonauts of the Big Four league. Stuart, who recently severed connections with the Beaches-Indians after a one-year partnership, said he didn't know what his part would be in the Argo club, "but any capacity will suit me."

The one-year alliance of the two Toronto teams, Beaches and Indians, was dissolved this week, with the Balmy Beach team continuing in the Ontario Rugby Football Union.

"As far as I am concerned, the Indian football club is no more," Stuart said.

The touring Scottish curlers visited four Montreal district rinks Thursday and amassed a total of 14 victories against seven defeats in the 21 abbreviated matches played.

Most of the matches were of six ends, with the same Scottish quartet continuing against changed opposition to round out 12 ends.

In the two days' play since their arrival Wednesday the Scots have scored 22 victories against 12 defeats.

New York Yankees of the American League still are a championship baseball club that needs only the right conditioning to regain its 1947 form. That's the opinion of George Weiss, general manager of the team.

"I wouldn't trade the Yanks, man for man, with either of the two contenders," said Weiss at New York Thursday. He meant Boston Red Sox and the world championship Cleveland Indians.

"The plight of the Yanks has been over estimated," said Weiss. "If we had won two or three key games along the way, we would have won the pennant. Then you would hear folks talking about the aging Cleveland Indians infield instead of our needs."

Fifty-eight Canadian-bred three-year-olds are eligible for the 90th running of the King's Plate at the Ontario Jockey Club's spring meet at Woodbine Park, O.J.S. secretary Palmer Wright announced Thusday night at Toronto. Owners of the contenders kept them in the hunt for the King's 50 guineas and $10,000 added money by making deposits last Dec. 1. Owners from Quebec to British Columbia are represented in the entry list for the oldest continuously-run horse race in Canada.

The Grand National Steeplechase, Britain's 4½ mile jump classic, has drawn 91 entries for the 1949 running at Aintree March 26, it was announced at London Thursday night. The 103rd running of the spectacle has a distinct innternational flavor. Three horses from the United States join horses from France and Ireland in the race which annually draws some 500,000 fans.

Thirty-six rinks are entered in next Monday's bonspiel sponsored by the Fetgus Curling Club. Entries include six local rinks. Curlers also are coming from Sarnia, Brampton, Orangeville, Markdale, Bolton, Forest, Hamilton, Harriston, Gueiph, Mount Forest, Listowel, Platisville, Grand Valley, Elora, Galt, Kitchener, Belmore, Fordwich and Palmerston.

Philadelphia Athletics Thursday cancelled a projected 10-day baseball exhibition game trip to Venezuela and Colombia. Business manager Roy Mack said the trip was called off because of political disturbances in the South American countries.

Parley Hoping To Solve Sport Doldrums

By JACK SULLIVAN

OTTAWA, Jan. 7 (CP)—Delegates from nearly every amateur sport in Canada assembled here today, for a two-day conference, to discuss ways and means of lifting the country out of it's sport doldrums.

The get-together, first in the Dominion's sports history, has before it a 10-point agenda covering many phases of amateur and professional sport. There are contentious questions posed for sports leaders but no acrimonious debate is looked for.

It is expected the delegates will cover the agenda briefly, set up committees and adjourn late Saturday without presenting concrete remedial proposals. One authoritative source said a further conference, probably later this year, would be called in an effort to iron out any problems connected with sports which are a mutual concern to many associations.

International Competition

First on the agenda, prepared by the national council on physical fitness which has called the conference, is the question of Canada's continued participation in international competition—apparently prompted by the dismal showing of Dominion athletes in the 1948 Olympic games. It reads:

"Should Canada withdraw from international competition? If not, who should promote, organize and conduct Canada's participation?

A. Sidney Dawes of Montreal, president of the Canadian Olympic Association, probably will have a lot to say about this. The COA is a committee of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada and Dawes has publicly stated his organization should have its own charter, by-laws and officers.

Delegates believe that any reorganization of the COA will be modelled along the lines adopted by the United States more than 30 years ago. The Americans then found it impractical for the AAU of US to control the country's Olympic problem and a committee, composed of representatives of all Olympic sports, was set up and has since operated separately from the Athletic Union.

Hockey's Big Seven

By The Canadian Press

Chicago marksmen Doug Bentley and Roy Conacher each collected an assist Thursday night to remain deadlocked for the top spot in the National League scoring race with 38 points. Jim Conacher and Bill Mosienko of Chicago, Boston's Grant Warwick and Sid Abel of Detroit also garnered single points to retain their positions among the leaders. Bill Reay of Montreal scored two goals and added an assist to break into the big seven again with 27 points, good enough for a sixth place tie with Mosienko.

Edmonton Rink Bests Nipawin

NIPAWIN, Sask., Jan. 7—(CP)—Ol' Man Sunshine created the biggest upset Thursday as Nipawin's third annual bonspiel with its major prize of four new automobiles moved into its second day, and as a result, majority of the draws were cancelled.

After a delay of eight hours, curlers resumed their granite-tossing on only six sheets of ice, but the brand of curling was considered good despite the handicaps. Skill was a necessity in mastering the tricky ice.

One of the best games curled to date in the 'spiel was on the late draw when Bert Robertson of Edmonton bested Lisk of Nipawin 14-13 in a thrilling, hard-fought battle in No. 1 event.

With Lisk one up coming home, Robertson drew on to the Nipawin skip's shot rock. Then Lisk missed a take-out and it was all over when the Edmonton curler drew to his own rock to lie two and win one up.

Another Nipawin rink lost a close match when Bill Child's of Regina protected the house and Witherow missed on his final rock which would have tied the game. The score was 9-8 for Childs.

The large gallery flocked to the Walter Polski of Virginia, Minn., Roy Borreson of Antler, Sask., match which saw the American skip drop his first game of the 'spiel by an 9-6 count.

TURNING THE PAGES OF "Canada Unlimited"

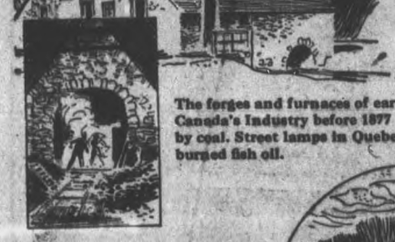
The first mill in Canada was operated by water power, built by a young lawyer—Marc Lescarbot—in 1606. Lescarbot helped establish the first town in Canada, Port Royal. Here he built his grist mill. Canadian industry was born.

While in a few places windmills were used for power, Canada's water resources were so great that by 1734, the country had 52 sawmills and 118 grist mills operating by water power.



The forges and furnaces of early Canada's Industry before 1877 were operated by coal. Street lamps in Quebec up to 1849 burned fish oil.

Operation of electric turbines by water power, first started in 1880, opened a great era of industrial progress, and, by 1900, installations were supplying 173,000 horsepower.

Last year hydro power in Canada amounted to more than 10,500,000 horsepower, furnishing energy greater than that of 100 million workers!

The future promises limitless power through atomic energy. And with this will come undreamed of opportunity in our industrial expansion. Yes, there's room to grow in Canada Unlimited.

Seven Provinces To Receive Bigger Payments

OTTAWA, Jan. 7 — (CP). — A Finance Department spokesman said Thursday night big payment increases are in store for seven provinces in the 1949-1950 fiscal year.

These are the provinces — all except Ontario and Quebec — which participate in the Dominion-Provincial agreements of 1947.

The spokesman said that while departmental estimates are still in the preliminary stages, it appeared likely that total payments to all the provinces will increase from about $78,000,000 in the 1947-1948 terms to $84,000,000 in the new fiscal year.

The government's boosted payments to the provinces result from the "escalator" clause in the taxation agreements, signed two years ago and which run for a total of five years.

The "escalator" clause calls for increased payments according to increases in the population and growth of the gross national product—sum total of Canada's annual production and similar in nature to the gross national income.

In the 1947-1948 fiscal year, the spokesman said, the gross national product topped $15,000,000,000, an increase of more than $1,000,000,00 over the previous year.

Population in all the provinces also has shown steady improvement.

The government's payments is a form of "rent" for allowing the Federal authorities to take over all rights to impose and collect income tax, succession duties and corporation taxes in the provinces participating.

Says Church Needs A Program For Youth

MILLBROOK, Jan. 7 (ENS) — "The Christian Home and Family Life," with emphasis on the need for a program of aid to keep the young people within the church, was the worship theme at the new year meeting of the Women's Association of St. Andrew's United church, on Wednesday. Mrs J. McKnight, Tupper street, was hostess and Mrs. A. R. Payne, president, took the chair. Letters of thanks from recipients of Christmas cheer were read by the secretary, Mrs. L. Winslow.

A cheque for $30 towards the work of the society was received from Mr. J. H. Coon, Toronto The treasurer, Mrs. McKnight, reported that total receipts during the year were $1,618.09, with expenditures amounting to $1,445.41, leaving a bank balance of $172.68, and bonds for $500.00. The heavy expenditure was in connection with repairs and renovation at the parsonage, and in the spring the outside will be painted. Cavan WA has agreed to contribute $300 towards this expense.

It was decided to hold an afternoon tea and baking sale on May 21, in the waiting room; a rummage sale in Peterborough on April 28, with Mrs. F. Winslow, Mrs. F. J. Smith, Miss J. Sutton and Mrs. J. Ridge as the committee in charge; a hostess tea will be the June activity, and the annual bazaar will be on November 19.

As Mrs. Payne expects to be away during February and March no activities were planned for those two months. The WA will take charge of the pot luck supper in connection with the annual congreagational meeting this month.

Dealers Say Trading Lean On London Fur Market

By WILLIAM BOSS

LONDON, Jan. 7—(CP).—Dealers say trading will be lean on the London fur market this year and that the outlook for sales of Canadian pelts is dim. Free trading has disappeared from the market by Government order—part of its exchange-conservation policy—buying is expected to diminish from Belgium and Switzerland, whose spending was heavy after the end of the war, and increased consumer resistance to prevailing high prices has been noted.

The authoritative Financial Times expects prices to hit post-war lows and both volume and range of furs traded to drop during the forthcoming season.

The newspaper's reading of the situation is that—apart from ermine, prices for which have remained stable because of small supplies — if trading is to be stimulated prices will have to fall.

Falls 40 Per Cent

Ranch mink fell 40 per cent last season and Persian lamb 30 per be plentiful next season, will that ranch mink, which will again cent. "There is little to indicate show any price recovery."

Ermine is expected to hold well and gains are expected only in ranch-bred fox, which will be rarer.

Consumer resistance to high prices continues despite the "New Look" whose longer and fuller skirt requires one-third more skins in fur coats. "The public is not prepared to pay the corresponding increase in prices," says the journal after a survey.

To improve Britain's dollar position the market this year is governed by a provision that imports from hard-currency areas must be sold only for hard currency.

Soft-currency furs may be sold in any market and, on a restricted basis, to the British home-trader.

Whereas the United States and Canada became among Britain's most important suppliers since 1945, replacing pre-war Russian, Argentine and Afghanistan sources, 1949 and 1950 imports from them are likely to be reduced in favor of soft-currency supplies.

Demand Good On All Grades Of Livestock

TORONTO, Jan. 7 — (CP). — The local Livestock Market started off on firmer footing this first week of 1949. Demand for almost all grades of cattle was good and the fair-sized run of 5,427 cattle cleared well at prices 50 cents higher.

Rail shipments were light, but truck deliveries bolstered the supply. Some good choice weighty steers were sold at $22-$23. Good light steers and heifers were $21-$22 with plain kinds selling downward to $17. Good cows were $17-$18.50, with plain cows selling low as $13.50. Canners and cutters were mostly $10-$13.

Good bulls sold at $19-$21.50, with plain lights at $15.50-$17.50. Fed yearlings were $20-$26 for medium to choice quality. No stockers of any account were offered on the market. Ordinary quality milkers and springers sold at $140-$175 apiece.

Calves totalled 1,082 head. Choice calves were steady at $29-$31 and plain to medium sold at $16.50-$26. Some Northern grassers sold for slaughter at $16-$16.50.

Only 2,220 hogs were offered. Grade A closed 50 cents higher at $32 for Grade A and $31.60 for Grade B1. Sows were steady at $25.50 dressed.

Sheep and lamb receipts were only 692 head. Good feed-lot lambs were mostly $25.50 with a few choice at $26. Plain to medium lambs sold at $15-$23. Good light sheep were $10-$12, with culls from $5-$8.

40 Canadian Seamen Stage Stay-in Strike

GLAMORGAN, Wales, Jan. 7 —(CP). — A "stay-in" strike of 40 Canadian seamen has prevented a new crew from taking over the 10,000-ton Montreal freighter Point Aconi. The new seamen have been sent back to London with one month's pay.

When the Canadians declined to be paid off outside Canada they began their "stay-in" strike and a new crew, comprising Britons, Spaniards, and Polish displaced persons, was recruited.

Despite offers by the ship's owners of passage home by air or sea, the Canadian seamen are remaining aboard without heat, light or water, relying on waterfront cafes for food.

The Communist Daily Worker said the strikers wired Health Minister Bevan to intervene so that ship amenities could be restored "to protect ourselves and the townspeople of Barry from the danger of epidemic."

Kiwanis Club Instals Officers

Officers of the Peterborough Kiwanis Club for 1949 were installed at their weekly luncheon on Thursday. T. Pridham, the immediate past president, turned the luncheon over to Albert Hinton, Toronto, lieutenant-governor of the new division, for the induction ceremony.

Mr. Hinton inducted Vincent McCabe, the new president. On doing this he said that on Mr. McCabe would be placed the heaviest responsibilities and then he pinned on the president's pin.

Mr. E. Pridham was presented with a certificate by Mr. Hinton and an immediate past president's pin by Mr. McCabe.

When John Allen, 1st vice-president and Alan Plasket, 2nd vice-president, were inducted they were told their greatest task was to learn all there is to know about Kiwanis, that they were really serving their apprenticeship to becoming future presidents of the club.

To D. Fitzgerald fell the duties of installing the treasurer, Thomas Rodger; secretary, Ernest Bartlett, and the Owen Sound treasurer, Keith Johnston, who could not be at his home club for the ceremony.

William Cockburn, Toronto, who installed the directors said: past president of the Kiwanis, "Don't talk about Communists. Say what your Kiwanis club is doing in the city and of the policy of the club. Try to make the young people realize that in Canada we have a great country.

Directors of the club are: James Collins, Gordon Hancock, Walter Howell, William Ovens, John Sinclair, George Solmes and Fred Stinson.

Guests of the club for the luncheon were Clifford Tanner, William Reucassel, J. F. Malloy, M. C. Gardiner, all from Toronto, and Kenneth Thompson, Sarnia.

Canada Falls Short On Cheese Shipments

TORONTO, Jan. 7 — (CP) — D. W. Osmond, of Burgesville, Ont., Thursday said Canada fell short by 19,000,000 pounds in her 1948 cheese shipments to Britain while nearly 50,000,000 pounds lay in storage here.

Speaking at the convention of the Ontario Cheese Producers' Association, he said cheese dealers and brokers bought heavily—before requisitioning to fill the British contract began—at a price above the British contract price of 30 cents a pound.

"They are not likely to offer it to the export board at a loss," he said. "The amount of cheese in storage is causing a dull market in manufacturing."

The association voted to ask the Dominion Government to grant export permits for shipment of cheese to other outlets.

Wants Softer Policy

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—(AP). —Jay Franklin, who helped write President Truman's campaign speeches, says in a Life magazine article that the President is waging a fight within his own cabinet to soften the country's "tough" policy toward Russia and open up a new approach to peace. The magazine says in a foreword that Truman's counsel, Clark Clifford, does not agree with Franklin's views.

Renew Pledges Of Partnership

THE HAGUE, Jan. 7 (AP). — Queen Juliana Thursday renewed pledges to Indonesians of free elections and partnership in a sovereign government.

In a broadcast address, she expressed the hope that an Indonesian Federal Government would be established in a few weeks.

Th object of military action, she said, "was in no way to go back on the pledges which have been solemnly given by my mother and by the Netherlands people as a whole."

Juliana referred to the address of Queen Wilhelmina in December, 1942, in which hope was expressed that after the war Indonesia and the Netherlands "would co-operate voluntarily in freedom and on a basis of equality."

The Netherlands plan, she explained, is to set up a federal interim government in a few weeks. As a second step, she said, free elections would be organized "as soon as circumstances permit."

The third step would be the creation of what she called "The Sovereign United States of Indonesia."

J. J. TURNER AND SONS, tent and awning company, has been sold to a group of Peterborough businessmen. The building is shown above and is located at the northeast corner of George and King Streets. The business was established in this city about the year 1887.

Group of Peterborough Men Buys J. J. Turner Company

The business of J. J. Turner and Sons, Ltd., has been purchased by a group of Peterborough men who assumed ownership and production today. Final terms of agreement of sale were completed Thursday afternoon after several months of negotiation.

The new company retains the name of J. J. Turner Company, Limited. Mr. Percy S. Dallin is president and general manager, Mr. John Lynch is vice-president, and Mr. W. J. Vanstone is secretary-treasurer.

Mr. John E. Dyble of Ottawa has been engaged as production manager. He was for 23 years with the Hugh Carson Company, in later years as plant suyerintendent.

First announcement of the new management was that no change was being made in the department heads and staff of employees. The company has acquired the property, including equipment and stock, the goodwill and, in brief, all the interests of J. J. Turner & Sons, Ltd.

"We are retaining the staff that has helped to build the business through the years," Mr. Dallin told the Examiner. "Production will continue in the manufacture of canvas goods, tents, awnings, flags, coal bags and so on, and also the signs department, tarpaulins, horse blankets, and the other lines that have been carried in the business."

"The Turner name and reputation are widely known throughout the country. The hopes and plans of our new company is to develop the business from the point at which we are taking over, to enlarge production, and to broaden our establishment as one of Peterborough's industries."

In the early stages of negotiations it was reported that out of town interests were considering purchase of the plant, but from that time the new local company gradually took shape. The Turner company was favorable to the proposals to extend Peterborough ownership in the industry which was established three-quarters of a century ago by the late J. J. Turner, senior.

Mr. Turner learned the sail-making business as a young man in England. Coming to Canada, he set up a shop for himself in Port Hope, then a busy port in the sailing vessel trade on Lake Ontario. After 21 years in production in a building on the east side of the Ganaraska river, near the lower turn to Cobourg, Mr.

PERCY S. DALLIN

Turner moved to Peterborough, locating at the northeast corner of George and King Sts. That was about the year 1887.

The canvas goods business flourished under the proprietorship of Mr. Turner, whose sons became associated with him as they came of age. They were the late John J. Turner, Jr., Mr. Reginald H. Turner, Mr. Achilles W. Turner and Mr. Webber F. Turner.

It was reported that the transfer of the business to the new Peterborough interests was conducted on a friendly and encouraging basis by the representatives of the old firm.

MAIN ST. TOPICS

NO RETIREMENTS IN '49

The Board of Education was told Thursday night that there were no teachers on its staff due for superannuation during the coming year.

INCREASE PAY SCHEDULE

Wage rate for teachers at the Vocational night school has been increased from $3 to $3.30 an hour. The increase was approved by the Board of Education Thursday night.

MORE STUDENTS

The city's student population continues to grow. With 35 admissions and 17 withdrawals in public schools in December, the increase of eight pupils gives a total in the 10 public schools of 3,819. There are 1,162 enrolled in PCVS.

RE-APPOINTED

Schools Superintendent K. S. Wightman was re-appointed member of the Public Library Board to represent the Board of Education Thursday night. The return for the further three-year term was made by the Board of Education.

EXPRESS THANKS

Appreciation for the recently granted $200 cost-of-living bonus to all city teachers was heard by the Board of Education Thursday night. Letters of thanks were received from the Public school women teachers and men teachers of the Public schools.

SUFFERS HEART ATTACK

When he suffered a heart attack on Wednesday afternoon Harold Patton, RR 11, Peterborough, a salesman for Silverwoods' Dairy, was rushed by ambulance to St. Joseph's Hospital. He was released on Thursday afternoon.

Christmas Trees Make Huge Pyre

Four trucks, each with the driver and three pick-up men, are gathering the evergreens of the recent Christmas season and carting them off to the big fire in North Monaghan.

Five trucks were working half of Wednesday. Thursday they were employed most of the day. This morning four were on the job.

"There are more trees than last year," one of the men at the city yard said. "The regular men and equipment could not handle all this extra work. They have their regular routes to take care of, so we just had to hire extra trucks and helpers."

All the evergreens are coming together briefly in the valley of Jehoshaphat. Some of the conservationists might remark that the analogy should be to Herod and the slaughter of the innocents.

At any rate, that big bonfire across the CPR from Archie Patterson's gravel pit, out in Mel Johnston's country, is the end of the trail for the sapling pines and spruces of recent garlanding at Christmas. They are probably exchanging their experiences before being tumbled into the big fire. Some were the centre of attraction in apartments, others in new bungalows, some in little roughcast houses and others in 10 and 12-roomers.

They had all been sacrificed to the same purpose of bringing into some thousands of homes the green color and piny aroma of the woods. All the needles set up a great chorus of crackling as the flames reach them, a last protest against the untimeliness of their taking off.

Board of Education Surplus $22,466, Sets New Record

Largest surplus in the history of the Peterborough Board of Education is indicated in preliminary figures given the Board Thursday night. John E. Huggins, retiring secretary-treasurer, presented rough estimates of the statements for 1948. The audit of the books will be completed this week.

The surplus will be about $22,466, Mr. Huggins said. Representing about three per cent. of the total budget, he said that it did not indicate faulty estimating.

Increase in actual receipts over those estimated will total about $13,303. Grants are up $8,955, fees from outside counties and townships and non-resident pupils are $2,890 higher than expected and the unestimated miscellaneous receipts total $1,558.

Disbursements were $9,063 less than estimated, he said. The gains were broken down in the rough figures as: Teachers' salaries, $2,809; other salaries, $2,260; supplies, $1,965; maintenance and operation, $955, and administration, $1,074.

Board members asked if the surplus reflected work which had been planned for but not carried out. Superintendent K. S. Wightman replied that only a few minor projected jobs had not been completed. To offset this further, he mentioned there had been a number of unexpected expenses.

Water Heaters Cut Off 1 Hour

Peterborough is keeping within the Hydro power quota, although the average this week will be somewhat higher than for the last month.

Daily power use for the last three days has been 260,000 kwh and 248,000 on Monday. The permitted maximum is 277,000 kwh.

Meanwhile, Utilities Commission has been extending the flat rate hot water service. Suspensions this week have been only one to two hours, instead of five hours and up to seven hours in recent weeks. Monday the cut off was only an hour, and also on Thurusday; Wednesday was an hour and a half, and Tuesday one hour, 45 mins. Improving conditions have enabled the commission to pass this advantage on to the customers.

Bird House Contest To Be Held Again

An executive meeting of the Peterborough Fish and Game was held earlier this week and arrangements were made to hold the birdhouse competition again this year, president Campbell Rowatt reports. Fred Goodfellow was named chairman of that committee.

Eight men were named honorary members. Hon. Harold R. Scott, MPP is honorary president and the honorary members are Gordon K. Fraser, MP, Fred Goodfellow, Pete McGillen, Warden James Humphries, Alex Kay, Mayor Max Swahston and Dr. W. J. H. Harkness, chief of the fish and wildlife division, Dept. of Lands and Forest.

It was mentioned that the name of Jim Rogers had been missed in publishing the members of the executive.

Chamber Members Elect 15 Directors

Fifteen new directors of the Chamber of Commerce were elected on Thursday night in a close balloting that saw 75 per cent of the membership vote.

Those elected were J. Blake Bell, E. C. Braund, W. M. Gemmell, J. E. Girven, Dave Kerr, Ken Kingston, Dr. H. J. Long, Herb Mason, Gordon S. Matthews, Robert Pierson, Harold Rehill, P. D. Scollard, W. Ross Thompson, Hugh F. Waddell and J. E. Weir.

Each of the approximately 200 members of the Chamber received a blank ballot by mail and he was asked to fill in his choice for the 15 directors. The ballots were counted on Thursday night.

This year the Chamber made a special attempt to have as diverse a group of local business and professional men as possible, and they feel they have succeeded in this objective.

At the first monthly meeting of the new year, Jan. 11, the directors will elect a president, vice-president, and treasurer for the coming year. Standing committees will also be elected.

BLOWN BY WINDS

Old Christmas trees were blown about the streets last night by a strong west wind. These trees were put out for the special collection. One tree has come to rest in Confederation Park. The little wooden stand is still on it if the owner wants it.

Centre Officials Reject Proposal

Representatives of the Peterborough Memorial Centre committee decided Thursday that they were unable to accede to the proposal from the city council to provide funds for an artificial ice-making plant to be installed at the new Civic Arena.

The meeting was attended by J. A. Jebson, Ian F. McRae, Clarence B. Neal, Herbert I. Bradburn ad Ed Riley of the Centre committee and Aldermen Dodds, Young, Gillespie and City Clerk Outram.

The council had recently contemplated the prospect of obtaining from the Centre committee sufficient money to pay for an ice-making plant. Dependence on the weather, it was said, reduced the season of Civic Arena to little more than two months, as in the likelihood of its present first winter of operation. With artificial ice the use of the new rink could be extended from November until the end of March, and if necessary, into April.

City Clerk Outram explained the council's suggestion that application be made to the Ontario Legislature for authority, by private bill, to authorized the Memorial Centre committee to use some of the money which was collected by their enterprise. The private bill would provide for the eventual repayment of the money to the Centre committee. Surplus earnings from the Arena could be paid to the Centre committee. Eventually, when the new Community Centre was built and was ready to install an ice plant the council, by guarantee, would repay any outstanding balance.

In the meantime the community would have the advantage of artificial ice with its long season of skating and hockey, carnivals and so on.

The presentation of the council was that the Centre committee was assured of receiving any money which they would now provide for the improvement of the Arena. Opinion was expressed by the council that the Legislature would look favorably on the council's plan.

The position of the Centre committee was that they had obtained the money for the specific purpose of a Community Memorial Centre, that their authority was circumscribed by private bill, and as trustees they could not agree to diversion of the funds in their charge.

It was reported also that the Centre representatives looked upon the Arena as possibly a delaying factor in the building of the Memorial Centre.

A report of the meeting is to be prepared for an early meeting of the council.

Community Centre funds are approximately $225,000, most of that sum invested in Dominion government Victtory Bonds.

Cancer Society Names Committee

A nominating committee was appointed on Thursday night at an executive meeting of the Peterborough Unit of the Ontario Division, Canadian Cancer Society. About a dozen members attended.

There was a twofold purpose in holding the meeting: to set up the nominating committee and to arrange a date for the annual meeting of the Cancer Society.

On the committee are Dr. E. P. Ray, Mrs. Maurice Holt, Mrs. H. G. Digweed, Fred Overend and President Douglas Anderson, ex-officio.

Date for the annual meeting of the Society has been left with a small committee, it was stated that some time early in February would be preferable.

At the annual meeting the public is invited to hear a report on the work the Society is doing in the Peterborough district.

Mass Chest X-Ray Expected To Commence Early In May

The Peterborough County Tuberculosis Association executive Thursday night decided to proceed with the 1949 program of a mass chest X-ray of the citizens of Peterborough and surrounding rural arear. This was decided in spite of the fact that only $6,416 has so far been received of their objective of $12,000. Donations are still coming in.

The members have faith in their work, and believe that sufficient funds will ultimately be received. The mass chest X-ray is new to Peterborough. They believe that a better understanding will result when the survey gets under way in the city.

When citizens see their neighbors line up and be X-rayed, at the rate of 100 per hour; when employers in stores, offices and other establishments see all their employees X-rayed; and large industries see the portable X-ray machine brought right into their plant and every employee X-rayed on the spot; then will the mass survey be understood.

The survey is expected to be started in May. Organization of committees to handle the mass survey will be proceeded with immediately.

3,500 Children To Be Given TB Skin Test

A voluntary TB skin test for approximately 3,500 children in public school and grade nine in the PCVS will begin soon. Dr. L. E. Mylks, school doctor, will be in charge.

Permission slips will be circulated among the pupils so the parents can indicate whether or not they wish their children given the test.

School authorities wish to make two things clear to parents:

One, that this is not an immunization similar to vaccination an inoculation, but merely a test to determine if the subject registers positive or negative when given the TB test.

Two, that even if the child does show positive to the test, it is not a definite sign of TB and should not give cause for alarm.

"Among a large number of positives a few might have TB," said K. S. Wightman, superintendent of schools. "Although the child may get a red mark on his arm it is no reason for the parents to start worrying."

Purpose of the test is mainly educational. Authorities state that there is no indication of any unusual incidence of the disease among the school children. By checking up, however, they hope to teach the boys and girls something about TB and at the same time catch the odd incipient case.

It is hoped to start this week and finish all the schools in three weeks time.

"We hope the parents will co-operate with us on this project," said Mr. Wightman.

Supreme Court Upholds Law Banning Closed Shop

By GEORGE RONALD

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7—(CP).—The first shots of a new labor-law battle were fired this week. The Supreme Court upheld state laws which ban the closed shop, under which a worker must join a union to get or keep a job. President Truman urged the new 81st Congress to repeal the Taft-Hartley law, which contains the closed-shop prohibition. It was passed last year—over his veto—by the Republican-controlled 80th Congress.

The Supreme Court ruling apparently took a big part of organized labor by surprise and a new round of lobbying has been started on Capitol Hill to try to sell senators and representatives on labor's attitude.

"Dangerous Blow"

It was the American Federation of Labor, bitter opponent of the Taft-Hartley legislation, which took the State cases to the country's top tribunal. The Congress of Industrial Organizations also joined the protest, charging that the so-called "right-to-work" laws of Arizona, North Carolina and Nebraska "strike a dangerous blow" at a fundamental trade union principle.

The court held, however, that the three State laws do not violate the constitutional rights of union members. In effect it also upheld similar anti-closed-shop laws in 13 other States.

Picture Changed

Coupled with Truman's election, the surprising swing to Democratic control in both the Senate and the House of Representatives seemed to boost Labor's hopes. Truman came through on his promise, but the court decision cast a new light on the picture.

With the State laws held constitutional, many Congressmen presumably will conclude that the Court would take the same stand on a Federal close-shop ban.

Most of the Republican minority in both houses probably will support any holdover clause that may be written into a draft substitute for the Taft-Hartley measure. And it would take a comparatively small number of Democratic votes — by Congressmen with the Supreme Court ruling in mind — to tip the scales in favor of retention of the closed-shop ban.

TORONTO, Jan. 7.—(CP). — The Ontario Appeal Court Thursday upheld the action of a trade union in refusing to supply men to work on a job where non-union men were employed. The court dismissed with costs an appeal by William Newell, a non-union plumbing and heating contractor, from dismissal of an action he brought against two officials of the United Association of Journeymen Plumbers and Steamfitters.

Authorize Increases

OTTAWA, Jan. 7.—(CP). — Freight-rate increases on certain Canadian hauls have been authorized as the result of a United States rate boost, it was learned Thursday. The higher rates—generally about six per cent up—will affect freight moving between Canada and the U.S. and some Canadian export-import traffic through Canadian and U. S. ports.

Woman's Novel To Feature Manitoba Indian

WINNIPEG, Jan. 7—(CP)—Mme. Maria Huldschinsky, Viennese-born writer, describes life in a Sudanese harem as a "dream of Oriental beauty — a peace which Western civilization will never know."

She is here gathering information about Manitoba Indians, and intends to write a novel about them. Mme. Huldschinsky has been in Canada for about a year after living in north and west Africa for some 15 years.

In 1933 she left Vienna with her husband, Dr. Kurt Huldschinsky, and after his death eight years ago decided to remain in Africa, as she was unable to return to her native Austria.

"I'm going to call the hero of my book Manitoba, after the great Indian spirit Manitou," she says. She is interested in writing about the remnants of the western Canadian Indian tribes.

Last March she displayed about 100 paintings and statuettes at an exhibition at McGill University. The paintings were a visual account of a trip she undertook on commission for the Sudan Government Railways up the Nile, through Egypt, Sudan, Uganda, Kenya, Tanganyika and back over the Red Sea hills to Port Sudan.

Not As Pictured

The harem is not as most westerners would picture it, says Mme. Huldschinsky. She was house director for the harem of Sir Sayed Abel Rahman Pasha in the Anglo-Egyptian Sudan.

"Despite Hollywood, the harem is not a hodge-podge of beautiful dancing girls, lusty male slaves, intrigue and murder. . I found it aesthetic, peaceful and most moral," she said.

Sayed wields immeasurable spiritual power over thousands of Mohammedan followers Mme. Huldschinsky said. He is the son of the famous old mahdi whose whirling dervishes gave General Gordon of Khartoum so much trouble in the closing years of the 19th century.

Sayed has no more than four wives permitted by Mohammedan law but the members of his harem include his aged mother, his daughters-in-law, his marriageable daughters and granddaughters, other female relatives and hundreds of maidservants.

Isolated from the turmoils of the western world behind high walls and grilled gates, these women live an almost idyllic life in "nobleness and peaceful harmony," Mme. Huldschinsky said.

Examine Caterers Find No Infection

TORONTO, Jan. 7 — (CP) — Health Department officials said today all food-handlers who had served the wedding party here last week from which 18 persons were admitted to hospital with food poisoning, were examined and the cause of the infection still remains a mystery.

"Everyone has had an examination," Assistant Health Officer Robert Ruggles said, "and we haven't discovered the source. We may never find it. The germ might, for example, be in a man's nose one day and not be there the next."

Greer Garson Sells Story To Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS.

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 7 (AP)—Now look who has sold her life story to films—Greer Garson.

The red-headed beauty told me her latest, ironclad contract ("It Could Last Forever") gives MGM the rights to her biography.

"And now," she added with a glint in her eye, "I can live—and live dangerously. If Rita Hayworth can do it, so can I. I can always figure that any excitement I get into is merely to make my biography a more engrossing picture."

Whether there is a Texas millionaire in her future is still a question. She has said she refuses to have proposing done by Hollywood columnists and any announcements must come from the man himself, Buddy Fogelson.

As for excitement, Greer can now expect it: She is acting with Errol Flynn in "The Forsyte Saga." (Note: She also did a film with Robert Mitchum.) There were a number of bets on the set about whether the erratic Flynn would show up the first day. He did, but guess who reported to the picture with a black eye — none other than Mr. Miniver himself.

"Pidgeon claimed he hit himself with a tennis racquet," reported Greer. "A likely story."

Find Singapore Over War Years

SINGAPORE, Jan. 7—(CP)—The goods of the world once more are flowing across Singapore's docks, the crossroads of the South Pacific, as fast as they did before the war.

After three years of rebuilding and rehabilitation, Singapore's harbor board reports its equipment is back to pre-war standard. It is handling as much cargo—250,000 tons a month—as it did in the average mid-1930 year. More than 20 ocean-going ships usually are tied up in its 24 berths.

Out in the vast Singapore roads, one of the world's largest anchorages, the picture is not as bright. About 85,000 tons a month are handled there, unloaded into barges and taken either to small coastal ships or to private sheds for storage. Pre-war statistics aren't available, but today's traffic is estimated at one-third of it.

The drop is believed due mainly to unsettled conditions in neighboring countries in Southeast Asia, especially Indonesia, where political or military strife has reduced trade.

But the Singapore harbor area itself is bustling. Its managers have blueprints for two major improvements, a new dry dock and new berthing space for 14 more ships, which will cost an estimated $18,000,000.

Wants To Send MacArthur To Save China From Reds

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7—(AP)—William C. Bullitt reported to Congress today that Nationalist China's forces will require "American direction and control, exercised by a fighting general" to defeat the Communists.

He said, "It is very late," but "not yet too late" to save China from the Communists.

Bullitt, a former diplomat, made his report to the joint Senate-House of Representatives Committee on Foreign Economic Cooperation. The group sent him to the Far East as a special representative last November.

After reporting to the committee at a closed session, Bullitt told reporters he thought an American general with a staff of 600 officers should be sent to China. He said: "I believe General MacArthur could do the job in less time than any other general."

Bullitt said the Chinese have no single government general with the military training and technical skill to meet the attack of a Communist army of more than 2,000,000 men.

Bullitt said that Chinese soldiers and junior officers are good, but "many of the officers from the rank of major upward are both incompetent and dishonest—especially the generals."

He said that if the dike of the Yangtze River—which he said now prevents the Communist flood from sweeping southward to the Indian Ocean—falls, "we shall let in upon ourselves a sea of troubles in comparison with which our present problems in the Far East will seem a mere unpleasant puddle."

It is considered highly unlikely that Bullitt's advice will be heeded by the Administration or Congress. For one thing, some officials have expressed doubt that aid would be effective.

Will Take No Action

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., Jan. 7—(AP)—Secretary-General Trygve Lie has decided to take no action in the Chinese war, the United Nations announced Thursday night. "It is his view that his authority to take any action is doubtful and that in any event it does not appear that any action on his part could be helpful in the present situation," the UN said.

School Teacher Recalls Wedding

MILLBROOK, Jan. 7.—(ENS).—Mr. and Mrs. Bruce B. Dawson celebrated the 25th anniversary of their wedding on December 29, when a surprise party of relatives and intimate friends presented gifts of a silver water pitcher, several pieces of silver from their family, personal gifts, and Mr. Dawson gave his wife American Beauty roses. Mrs. T. A. Campbell, who had received a gift of a silver spoon from Dawson City on her silver wedding anniversary, presented it to Mr. and Mrs. Dawson.

Owing to the death of Mrs. William Larmer, Mrs. Dawson's aunt, the party was smaller than had been first planned.

The lace-covered hostess table was centered with a three-tired wedding cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Dawson were married by the late Rev. Canon W. Cartwright Allen in tS. Thomas' Anglican church. The bridesmaid was Mrs. Fred Godfrey, of Toronto, and the groomsman, Orville Kidd, of Peterborough. The bride's father, the late J. J. Clarke, gave her in marriage, and there was a reception at their home in the Waverly Building.

Mr. Dawson is a veteran of World War II and since his discharge, has been teaching at Weston, where the family will move as soon as a house can be secured. Before his enlistment, he was principal of the public school at Millbrook. His elder daughter, Mary, and son, Brenton, were both in the armed forces during the war.

Owing to the weather conditions, neither the bridesmaid nor groomsman were able to attend the party, but Mr. and Mrs. Dawson's nine children were at home for the anniversary.

Guests at the Dawson home at the New Year included: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Godfrey, of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Phillips of Winnipeg, Man.; Mrs. Walter Clarke, of Minnedosa, Man.; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Larmer and childrenu, of Toronto.

Miss Mary Dawson, of Peterborough, and Mrs. G. McKnight, of Millbrook, planned the party.

65 New Citizens Celebrate At YWCA Epiphany Party

Feast of the Epiphany, Little Christmas or Twelfth Night, depending on who is observing it, and where, is January 6th. This very old festival has origin in the eastern church and is wrapped up in tradition and customs.

This was the basis for the party held for new citizens who have come from Europe in the YWCA Thursday evening. It was really the Christmas party originally planned for December but delayed because of Polish Catholic objection. About 65 girls and boys were able to come and enjoy talking together, dancing and refreshments though some of the men on farms were unable to get in because of road conditions.

Miss Nellie Schell who came from Holland to live in Peterborough is responsible for extending the invitation from the YWCA, as she is able to act as interpreter. Considerable help with planning has been given her by a girl from Lithuania who is a dentist. As well as speaking several languages, not including English, she has considerable knowledge of the eastern European customs. Difficulty in organizing a social club where all could take part has been that Displaced Persons come from so many countries and they do not understand each other in many cases, nor do they like the same games and forms of entertainment.

All are keen on dancing and singing and programs for their fortnightly meetings of this year will give them this type of fun. Boys and girls of the YWCA 20 Plus Club were invited to attend and mix with the new Canadians, and Mrs. R. R. Baker and Mrs. W. Bowen, brought their husbands who enjoyed the party too.

Everyone wore a name tag and Paul Jones dances, with Mrs. Baker playing, mixing the company well. Miss Schell acted as master of ceremonies. At lunch time the leaders were assisted by Miss Leta Brownscombe, Mrs. Don Loucks, Miss Lenore Edwards and Miss Gladys Costello.

It has been hoped to have accordion music played by a famous Czecho-Slovakian musician for the dancing but all efforts failed to procure an instrument in time. Though no one in Peterborough has heard this man play as yet, it is known that he is considered accomplished, and that during war service in Italy he entertained and was closely associated with famous Italian singers.

An accordion would bring new life and hope to one whose heart is torn with the memory of a young wife that he has not seen or heard of since leaving his country and a daughter about seven years old who may be somewhere in the world. If anything can be done to provide an instrument he will repay the expense with music that will be new and pleasing to Canadian listeners.

Busy Month Ahead For Women Of St. James' WA

WA of St. James' United Church held their first monthly meeting of the year with a good attendance, President Mrs. G. Harris in charge. Devotional period was taken by Mrs. M. Stokes and the address given by Mrs. F. W. Craik, taking the timely topic for the beginning of a New Year "Advance."

Plans for the coming year were dealt with. Monthly business is to serve lunch at the annual church meeting, entertain those doing painting in Wesley Hall and Sunday School rooms, and to finish laying the carpet in the church.

The installation of the following 1949 officers was taken by Mrs. Craig: Past president, Mrs. M. Stokes; president, Mrs. G. Harris; vice-president, Mrs. R. Ritchie; treasurer, Mrs. W. Prest; secretary, Mrs. H. Turner; financial secretray, Mrs. C. Murduff; recording secretary, Mrs. J. A. Brumwell; telephone, Mrs. E. Rutherford; convener sick, Mrs. W. Study Fur Values Before Selection

Women who have been waiting for the January sales to pick out a new fur coat will do well to heed the remarks of a noted breed of mink and silver fox. During sessions of the Ontario Fur Breeders' Association meeting in Toronto this week Mr. Percy Noble said "If women knew furs as well as they know cloth, the entire fur industry would benefit."

"A woman will pick up a piece of cloth, examine its texture, look at its drape and pick out the flaws," he explained "And if she doesn't like it, no amount of soft soap on the part of the sales clerk will make her buy.

It's a different story in the fur line, however. First among the do's and don'ts he hands the ladies on the matter of selection is "Don't be in a hurry. Take time to compare values and furs. Investigate the fur for its durability and weight and try o choose a style which is not too extreme. Always try fur coat on over a suit to be sure of an easy fit."

Speaking of the long period of service you get from fur coats which warrants their price, he explained that sea otter has 100 per cent durability and is the rule stick among furs, mink scores 65 which is very good. but silver fox is only 35.

Final words of wisdom were "Buy a coat which is made in a long-lasting design. A well-styled coat should not require re-making.

DOROTHY DIX

No Appreciation Irks Wives Want More Love Making

DEAR MISS DIX: I am about to be married. As I would like to be a good husband, will you please list a few of the faults and shortcomings in which husbands ordinarily fall, in order that I may avoid them?

ANXIOUS TO PLEASE

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: Of course, practically every man who gets married is in love with the woman he marries, else he would not burden himself with the expense of a family. Also, practically every man goes into matrimony with the desire to make the woman he marries happy, and when he fails he is amazed and bewildered and doesn't know how come. He has fed her and clothed her and she has the felicity of being married to him. What more could any sane woman desire?

Dorothy Dix

So if you would avoid the mistakes of these dumb brothers, make it an ironbound rule to tell your wife every day that you love her more and more. Don't cut out the love-making just because you are married. Give her a kiss that has some real feeling in it instead of its being the cold and insulting peck of duty.

Then, do something active to make your wife happy and give her variety and change. Buy her as many pretty clothes as you can afford. Take her out stepping. Give her something new to think about. So many husbands feel that their wives need no other amusement except cooking and baby-tending, and then they wonder why their wives become naggers and whiners.

Jolly Wife Along

Show your wife some appreciation. Very few men ever give their wives a compliment on their thrift, their cooking, or their management of the home. That is why so many wives ask themselves what the use, and go along doing their duty in marriage just because it is their duty and without getting any joy out of it. So if you want to keep your wife thinking that marriage is worth while, jolly her along.

Finally, don't make the mistake of excluding your wife from your business. Let her have her part in helping with your plans and ambitions. And give your wife a square deal about money. Don't humiliate her by making her come to you like a beggar for the money she has earned by her own labor.

These are a few rules for being a good husband. Follow them and your wife will thank Heaven for having bestowed you upon her.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR MISS DIX: Why is it that you do not like long engagements?

MARY T.

ANSWER: A short engagement is probably the happiest time of a woman's life. It is full of circling wings and romance and thrills. A long engagement wears all of this out and gets to be a strain on the nerves and the emotions. It is filled with baffled desire with heartbreaking waiting and hoping and planning that comes to nothing. It is filled with jealousies and suspicions, because it enforces and unnatural relationship between a man and woman because they have indefinite claims and rights upon each other.

Many a long-engaged couple have really lost their taste for each other before the wedding day arrives. Many a man outgrows a girl during a long engagement and only marries her as a matter of honor. And many a woman only marries a man she has been engaged to for years because she has let all other chances go by for her. So that is why I think it is far better to wait until you are in a position to marry and then make your choice.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: Can you think of any way by which a lazy, sleepy wife can be made to get up and get her husband a decent breakfast? Every morning I start off to work hungry and mad. I have talked and begged without any results. Is there any invention that will get her out of bed?

A DISGUSTED HUSBAND

ANSWER: There seems to be no mechanical aid for making a woman a good wife. If your wife will not get up and get your breakfast, about the only thing for you to do is to quit bringing home anything to eat. Perhaps when she gets really hungry she will see that it is only a fair division of labor for the husband to provide the bacon and the wife to cook it.

Favorite for dinner and dancing, not to mention theatre-going is the evening suit of very scooped-out or strapless dress and jacket. Below-ankle is the skirt length for a handsome suit of dark green velvet, the snug jacket outlined with narrow mink bands, worn over the very scooped-out bodice with short puffed sleeves. Wide skirt is shirred at the waistline.

✧ ✧ ✧

There's a change in the slip silhouette. Coming into the market now are high-waisted slips to wear with Directoire or Empire style frocks. Pink crepe de chine, with panels of black silk embroidered butterflies, is used for a very high-waisted slip, the brief bodice dart-fited.

✧ ✧ ✧

The feminine note sounds in many of the mid-season hat showings, with fragile prettiness stressed more often than just smartness. Pink felt is used for a hat with high, tapering crown and tiny sailor brim. The felt is draped in sky blue hair mesh and trimmed with a cluster of large pink velvet roses and blue velvet forget-me-notes with green velvet leaves.

✧ ✧ ✧

What's the big idea in color, come Spring? The answer is blue, every shade from palest sky to deep navy. Blue on blue prints are registering with resorters, as are blue nets, lace and satin for evening wear. The light blue blouse and dark blue skirt is a duo to look for very soon.

✧ ✧ ✧

No matter the type of dress, there is a belt for it. Black satin is used for an afternoon dress belt, and its is trimmed with clusters of rhinestones on the velvet-covered buckle.

✧ ✧ ✧

Coming back, especially for late afternoon and evening, is the flower and flower-trimmed little hat. A charming pillbox of pink satin is enlarged and softened by an arregular border of pink silk roses, foliage and tiny wired butterflies in iridescent velvet.

✧ ✧ ✧

Coming up in the hat world is the little hat, a cap of pastel ostrich in pastel shades, sprouting tiny plumes here and there, the whole thing veiled in misty toned maline.

✧ ✧ ✧

Rich fabrics score for resort wear, simply styled whether for day or evening use. White silk demask is used for a daytime shirtwaist frock. Soft tucks mark either side of the buttoned closing. Collar and revers on classical lines, soft shoulders, short sleeves and slit pockets on the moderately full skirt are other features of a well-bred dress.

Many Birds Winter Here People Asked To Feed Them

Up to last Friday weather conditions for the birds were just about perfect. There were only a few cold days and the amount of snow was negligible. Birds didn't have much difficulty in securing food. But with the arrival of that heavy snowfall the chances for the birds feeding regularly were greatly reduced. Their only hope for food is in the crevices of the bark of trees and what they find on top of the snow. Their shelter is also cut to a minimum.

"People can do much to help the birds which stay with us during the winter months, by building bird houses. Birds do not like brightly colored houses. They nest in places similar to their natural habits. If building a bird house, use wood with the bark still on it like cedar or birch. Stain with dark stain if paint is needed," said Alex Kay, conservation officer.

According to Mr. Kay, farmers are first in protecting the birds. Next in line are the women. Farmers kept hunters from entering their property to kill birds. Some farmers even spread a little grain around to help the birds through the winter. Peterborough women are about the greatest protectors of the birds in Mr. Kay's opinion. They leave crumbs, fat, grizzle, seeds and suet. Mr. Kay leaves suet in the crevices of the bark of the tree in front of his home and the nuthatches thrive on it. One lady in the northend of the city has a special tray on which she leaves the food for the birds. Numerous ladies have developed quite a following outside their homes by shaking the table cloth with the crumbs on it. The birds soon appear at the same time each day expecting the crumbs as part of their daily diet.

Besides the food given to them by people the birds dig into the bark of trees for the eggs of insects. These eggs if allowed to stay in the trees would develop into wood borers. They would multiply many times in a year and eventually the tree would die.

Many kinds of birds stay here during the winter. Starlings, sparrows and evening grosbeaks are the most common of those. A bird which is quite scarce around this district is the northern shrike. It is light grey on the back with a white breast, and is a fast flying bird. A predator, it feeds on starlings. They fly so fast they can down a starling on the wing easily. In the last four or five years the population of the birds of that kind has been increasing. The pine siskin which routs insects and seeds out of the pines, stays all winter. This bird is often called the winter canary. Its song is similar to the goldfinch, reaching its peak at the top of its swoop. A bird mostly in the woods is the pilated woodpecker, sometimes called the cock of the woods. It is becoming quite scarce. Mr. Kay says there are eight kinds of woodpeckers in this district, all beneficial.

Many calls have been made to Mr. Kay about seeing scarlet birds this winter. He said these cardinals are from a family six miles from Peterborough. He started the family with only two birds some time ago. Boys have shot a great many of them. Mr. Kay says if one puts sunflower seeds out for the birds there is a good chance a cardinal will come as they like the seeds from that flower.

Bald eagles stay up here for the winter. There are a number in the district despite the fact they only lay two eggs a year, one male and one female. Bald eagles are not bald until they are three years old. The young female stays at the nest until a male takes her away. The young male bird leaves the nest to find a mate.

This year there are about a half a dozen robins in the vicinity. Some people in the city have them in large cages. They are allowed to do this by obtaining a permit, which is free. Mr. Kay remarked there were more labino robins seen last summer than any other summer to date.

Mr. Kay claims that suet and crushed nuts are best for the birds as they get warmth from this type of food. He suggested a bone roasted or boiled with meat is good wild bird food. A delicious meal to a bird is a boiled potato. Mr. Kay says the birds are always hungry in the morning. Their feeding time in the afternoon is usually just before dark.

Hydro Truck Skids

HASTINGS, Jan. 7—(ENS).—A Hydro truck driven by Robert Archer, 122 Adelaide Street, Lindsay, skidded on an icy road on Wednesday and ran into a telephone pole at Westwood. Considerable damage was done to the front of the truck.

SPEAKING of family pictures, here's one that is not taken every day. It shows 98-year-old Mrs. Fanny Herscovitch, formerly of Montreal, seated, with her great-great-grandchild, 11-months-old Ellen-Marcia Leinwand, of New York, in her lap. Standing behind her is one of her sons, 75-year-old Samuel Herscovitch, of Montreal. On his left is one of his daughters, Mrs. Morris Abrams, also of Montreal, while on his right is one of Mrs. Abrams' daughters, Mrs. Jacob Leinwand, of New York, mother of Mrs. Herscovitch's great-great-grandchild. The photograph was taken at a family re-union earlier this year. Among her offspring, Mrs. Herscovitch counts four children, 37 grandchildren and 32 great-grandchildren.

Claim Facilities At School Inadequate, Bad For Health

Facilities in the King George School, the Board of Education was advised Thursday night, are "inadequate and detrimental to health." A letter from the Home and School Association of that Ashburnham school outlined complaints of that body and said that the increasing population in that area, with existing conditions in the school, will present "an intolerable situation by next fall unless action is taken at once to provide additional accommodation."

The Board referred the Association's letter to the property committee, which will investigate the complaints in detail and make provisions in the new budget for any changes they feel necessary.

The letter said that there are two rooms not in use as conventional classrooms. One of them is the music and lantern room, which the Association felt could not be dispensed with. The second of these rooms is in the basement, used now as an art room. The Association asked that the Grade One class, now in the kitchen, be moved to that room.

Reasons Given

The reasons given for the requested change were: "This room is so impossible to ventilate satisfactorily that it is actually impairing the health of the children. The lighting is deplorable. The four small windows are set high and are well screened by shrubbery. There are no cloakroom facilities whatever and the blackboard space is negligible...We do not feel that a kindergarten should be in the basement. The present room could well be used to augment the practically non-existent indoor play space for the girls. This lack causes a problem in inclement weather."

(Superintendent K. S. Wightman advised the board that the transfer of the primary class from the basement to the upstairs floor had been effected since the letter had been written.)

Lighting fixtures in the school, said the Association, are outdated "...and what little illumination they do provide is dulled by the drab and dingy condition of the rooms. This is not to be wondered at, since they have not been decorated for 10 years or more."

The letter said:

"Our section of the city, Ashburnham, is expanding rapidly. The school has already absorbed the children from Burnham's Point. We understand that in the near future Queen Alexandra School will be diverting some 40 children to King George. On top of this there will be children from the 46 new homes almost completed in the Cadverly subdivision, not to mention the surprising number of other new homes springing up throughout the district."

Dr. Ralph Honey of the Board commented that "it is fortunate that the Home and School is such an active group there."

Film Director V. Fleming Dies

COTTONWOOD, Ariz., Jan 7—(AP)—Victor Fleming, 60, veteran director of "Gone With The Wind" and mentor of many of Hollywood's best known players, is dead following a heart attack.

He was stricken Thursday night in his cottage at the nearby Beaver Creek guest ranch, where he was vacationing with his family and died in a car en route to the hospital.

Relatives said that although he was exhausted from almost two years' work on his last film, "Joan of Arc," he had not been in ill health.

Fleming piloted some of Hollywood's greatest extravaganzas — and money makers to the screen. "Gone With The Wind," his most famous effort, won him an academy award as the top director of 1939, and took most of the other honors that year as well.

Boy 8 On Sleigh Badly Hurt By Taxi

TIMMINS, Jan. 7 — (CP). — Eight-year-old Ronald Leduc of Timmins is lying close to death in hospital here suffering serious skull fractures and severe shock incurred when his sleigh ran into the path of a taxi on a Timmins street Thursday.

He was rushed to hospital and admitted to surgery where doctors operated immediately in an effort to save his life

Hospital authorities this morning gave the lad slight chance of recovery.

Police, who investigated the accident, have exonerated the taxi driver because of poor visibility at the intersection and slippery road conditions where the accident occurred. The lad, a separate school pupil, was enjoying the Epiphany holiday sleigh-riding with a number of his friends.

Mr. Duffin will speak on the High School Area.

20 Party Lists Filed For Vote

TEL AVIV, Jan. 7 — (AP). — Twenty party lists, ranging from Nationalists to Communists, have been filed for the Jan. 25 election of an Israeli constituent assembly

Each list contains 120 names. They were submitted to the government's central elections committee Thursday night.

List No. 1, for the Mapai Labor Party, is headed by Premier David Ben-Gurion, Foreign Minister Moshe Shertok and Finance Minister Eliezer Kaplan. The party is somewhat left to centre.

Menachem Beigin heads the list of the Extreme Nationalist "Freedom Movement" Party, Cheruth. Cheruth was born of Beigin's former Irgun Zvai Leumi organization, dissolved by government order last fall.

The Lochmei Wechayalim (fighters and soldiers) list presented the names of several leaders of the outlawed Stern Gang.

Separate Arab lists were presented for Nazareth, Haifa and Acre. Several Jewish lists contain Arab names.

The election will be Israel's first. The Assembly is to draw up and adopt a constitution, meanwhile replacing the present provisional state council at the government.

Remain Neutral In Seaway Plan

CLEVELAND, Jan. 7—(AP).—The Lake Carriers' Association has assured a neutral attitude towards the proposed St. Lawrence seaway project.

Following a meeting of the association's board of directors, President John T. Hutchinson declared:

"...For many years the association has actively opposed construction of the St. Lawrence project and many of our member companies are still in opposition.

"However, within recent weeks other member companies have expressed themselves in favor of it. Accordingly, we are adopting a position neither opposing nor favoring the St. Lawrence seaway and power project with respect to its broad economic aspects..."

The association, with 26 fleets in its membership, represents 95 per cent. of the carriers of United States registry engaged in transportation of dry bulk cargo on the Great Lakes.

Irish Fighting Mad Won't Accept Ulster

DUBLIN, Jan. 7—(AP).—Reports that Northern Ireland may adopt Ulster as its legal name made Irishmen here fighting mad today.

"To give effect to this audacious proposal would be to perpetrate a fraud on history and geography," the Irish Independent declared in an editorial.

Northern Ireland's Prime Minister, Sir Basil Brooke, conferred Thursday in London with Prime Minister Attlee. Unconfirmed reports circulated that Sir Basil had proposed changing the constitutional name of Northern Ireland to Ulster to avoid confusion with Eire, which last month passed the "Republic of Ireland Act" and withdrew from the Commonwealth. The Act would change the name of Eire back to Ireland.

WMS Completes Plan For Memorial Service

FAIRMOUNT, Jan 7 (ENS).—WMS of Fairmount met at the home of Mrs. Reddick for the January meeting. In the absence of the president through illness, Mrs. R. F. McIndoo, first vice-president, had charge of the meeting. Arrangements were completed for a memorial service at the Presbyterial which Fairmount was asked to sponsor. Two delegates, Mrs. Downes and Mrs. Roy Hooton, were appointed to the Presbyterial to be held on January 25 at Trinity United Church, Peterborough. The worship service was led by Mrs. Wndrim. Mrs. Reddick reviewed the third chapter of the study book. The program opened with a skit, "The Story of Dr. Yang," which was followed by a survey of the medical missions in West China and stories of the different phases of medical work. The WMS agreed to provide 12 copies of "World Friends"" for the Mission Band.

Library Reports Increased Interest

At the meeting of the Public Library Board on Thursday night W. Graff's monthly report disclosed that there was an increase of 14,649 in the circulation of books for the year. Most of the increase was in the adult department, where 14,234 books were taken out last year. The increase in the children's department was 415 for the year. For the month of December there were 409 more books taken out by the children than in December, 1947, and there was an increase in the adults' circulation of books over December last year of 1,193.

Financial statement up to the end of December was given. In this the amazing sum of $1,086.98 were collected for fines and subscriptions. Total expenditure for the new branch library on Park St. was $1,01.61 for 1948. The total expenditures of the Public Library to the end of December were $34,432.83 against a total income of $34,432.68 to date.

After the meeting the Board was invited to the home of the chairman, John C. Rutherford, for a social get-together.

Mayor Swanston attended the meeting for the first time since he has been in office.

Lily Pons Refuses To Work With German

NEW YORK, Jan. 7—(AP).—Lily Pons and her conductor-husband, Andre Kostelanetz, said they had told the Chicago Symphony Orchestra they would not appear with the ensemble if it persisted in engaging Wilhelm Furtwaengler as principal conductor.

Miss Pons, Metropolitan Opera soprano, said their objections were based on Furtwaengler's record in the Second World War, during which he remained in Germany and conducted leading musical organizations there. Some of the performances were attended by Adolf Hitler and his aides.

Police Terror Grips Hungary

MUNICH, Jan. 7. — (AP).—Twenty Hungaroans who pirated an airliner to fleet 'from Communism' tell a story of police terror and political persecutions in their homeland.

"The Hungarian people live in constant fear," Laszlo Nagy, textile wholesale dealer from Budapest, who fled with his pretty bride, said Thursday in an interview.

"Everybody is afraid of everybody else," Nagy said. "Even a son fears his father and the father fears his son."

The fugitives said many of them had abandoned their jobs, fortunes and families to escape.

The group boarded a Hungarian-Soviet Airlines plane, ostensibly for a routine journey from Pecs in Southern Hungary to Budapest. Once aloft they seized the plane at gun point, they said, and flew it to American-occupied Germany.

Denying Drug Cure Found For Cancer

CHICAGO, Jan. 7.—(AP).—No drug cure for cancer has yet been found, the Council on Pharmacy and Chemistry of the American Medical Association said today.

It added that useless or doubtful remedies are being offered, some of which are "outright frauds."

In a report in the AMA Journal, the Council said surgery, X-rays and radium are the only established treatment.

The Council said it issued its report "in condemnation of the numerous fraudulent remedies for the disease and the early publicity of unestablished remedies."

Barber Lashes Steel Union; Resents Attack

In a slashing attack on M. J. Fenwick, district representative of the USWA, Alfred Barber, president of the Allied Labor Council, today denied the statement made on Thursday that "the Council is dominated by the UE."

"That charge is absolutely untrue," he said, "and clearly indicates that Mr. Fenwick wants to attack not only the UE but also the Allied Labor Council which is a unity labor council, composed of AFL, TLC, CCL, CIO and other bona fide unions."

"The UE has played a constructive part in the formation and maintenance of the ALC, but I repeat, the Council is dominated by no particular union or group. And as long as I am president it will maintain its democratic structure."

Mr. Barber referred to the motion which passed on Tuesday night at the ALC and repeated the request that the Steelworkers withdraw from the Outboard Marine situation.

"The only solution to this problem lies with the Steel Union itself," he said. "As president of the Council I call upon it to immediately withdraw and cease its collaboration with the company union and leave the UE to finish the fight for union organization at the plant."

He quoted a letter which was received by the Council and signed by C. H. Millard, national director of the USWA, dated Dec. 2nd: "On behalf of the Steelworkers I should like to say that we expect to establish an organization in Peterborough in the near future, and that we would appreciate the goodwill and co-operation of your Council. I have asked our representative, M. J. Fenwick to contact you when he is in Peterborough."

Mr. Barber who is president of Local 293, UPWA, said that there had been no attempt on the part of Mr. Fenwick to contact him.

"On the contrary," the Allied Labor Council president continued, "Mr. Fenwick has chosen to make a statement charging that our Council is 'dominated by the UE.' In place of the co-operation and good will mentioned in Mr. Millard's letter the Steelworkers' representative has attacked not only a member local but also the whole Allied Labor Council and its member locals."

Say Drug Ring Now In Quebec

TORONTO, Jan. 7 — (CP)— With six of Toronto's leaders in the illicit drug traffic in Kingston penitentiary and scores more addicts and peddlers from here serving reformatory sentences, police believe the "nerve centre" of the narcotic traffic in Eastern Canada now is in Montreal.

Statistics released today by Toronto's morality department show 121 narcotic arrests in Toronto in 1948 and 160 arrests in 1947.

Termed as ringleaders by Norman L. Mathews, special prosecutor for the federal justice department in narcotics cases were six "big shots" given prison terms.

They were: Max Beaver, sentenced to four years and a $1,000 fine; Louis Beaver, five years and $1,000; Albert Dorland, four years and $1,000; Edward Gulider, two years and $200; Manny Britstone, 21 months and Louis Wall 2½ years.

Alberta Hurricane Destroys 4 Houses

EDMONTON, Jan. 7 — (CP)— Word reach Edmonton today that hurricane winds destroyed four houses and did thousands of dollars of other damages Thursday in four Coal Branch towns. The Coal Branch is about 150 airmiles west of Edmonton.

The houses were destroyed at Cadomin where the wind maintained a steady velocity of 50 miles an hour for 12 hours with short gusts reaching 90 miles an hour at three and four-minute intervals.

Several persons suffered scratches but none was seriously injured.

Says Tax Policy Reflection On Farm People

TORONTO, Jan. 7—R. A. Stewart of Almonte, president of the Ontario Federation of Agriculture, attacked the federal government policy of requiring farmers not eligible for income tax to send in returns.

Opening the federation's 12th annual meeting Mr. Stewart told more than 400 delegates "the forcing of hundreds of thousands of farmers who are not taxable to make returns, just to justify the prejudiced thinking of some in other groups, seems to me to be a denial of freedom . . . and a reflection on the honesty of farm people."

He said farmers believed those who were properly liable should pay income tax. But, he said, the majority of farmers with taxable incomes already were paying and Ottawa's stepped-up drive had only resulted in annoying thousands of farmers and making additional administrative burden for a staff which was already years behind in making assessments.

"Our money," he charged, "is paying for this folly."

Farmers had supported the government's program in the past year, he said, only in order to establish the position "that the majority of taxable individuals are making returns."

Mr. Stewart called on the Income Tax Department to leave farmers alone, "except in cases where definite evidence shows someone is trying to beat the government." Instead, he suggested, it might make its assessors available to the farmer "on request" during the first four months of the year.

Slated to come before the convention tomorrow are three resolutions dealing with income tax. One calls for allowance of five per cent depreciation per year in computing returns and a second recommends exemption increases to a minimum of $1,000 for single and $2,000 for married persons.

Frozen On Trail

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask., Jan. 7.—(CP).— Northwoodsman Melvin McCabe owes his life to the keen sense of a dog team. Employed as a trail blazer for the Saskatchewan Fish Board, McCabe was found frozen unconscious on a northland trail after being nosed out by a passing dog team. He was flown to hospital at Stony Rapids, 40 miles north of here, where he is receiving treatment for frostbite.

Believe Patient Takes Own Life Near Lake

ST. THOMAS, Jan. 7.—(CP).—A woman's footprints on a beach at nearby Port Stanley have led police to the belief that Mrs. Yvonne Mann, 34, a patient at the mental hospital here, took her own life a few feet from the spot where police said she drowned her baby in 1947.

The woman had been missing since last Saturday, when she slipped away from her husband at a theatre in London, Ont.

Mrs. Mann was committed to the mental hospital after she took her baby from London to Port Stanley and then returned home alone and dazed. The baby's body was found in the water.

Investigate Attack

VANCOUVER, Jan. 7.—(CP).—British Columbia police Thursday launched an investigation into charges by a 20-year-old youth that he was immorally attacked in Oakalla prison Christmas Day by five male prisoners. The investigation, ordered by the Attorney-General's Department, will cover circumstances connected with the outbreak of eight youths on New Year's Day and three women last Tuesday night. Two youths and one woman are still at large.

China Asks Big Three Mediate War

May Launch Appeal To United Nations; Part Of Tientsin Falls

NANKING, Jan. 8.—(AP).—A usually reliable source said today the Chinese government had asked the British, United States and French governments to attempt to mediate the civil war.

Ambassadors for the three powers here were asked to relay the request to their governments, this source said.

The three ambassadors were called to the foreign office by Foreign Minister Wu Te-Chen late today. None of the three nor foreign office officials would comment on the subject.

Reliable sources, however, said they were asked to present to their governments a request that "the Big Three" attempt to mediate and obtain a negotiated peace with the Communists.

It was apparent from the actions of various officials that the question either of mediation or an appeal to the United Nations was under consideration.

Raises Speculation

Failure to include the Soviet member of the "Big Four" in the summons raised considerable speculation here. It was understood that the Russian ambassador has been shying away from any possible participation in either mediation or discussion of negotiations, apparently on orders from Moscow.

This latest development coincided with reports from Tientsin that a heavy Communist attack on that besieged city had ended abruptly at noon today after the Communists had occupied sections of the old "Chinese city."

These reports said the garrison commander ordered mid-day curfew in Tientsin, forbidding Tientsin residents to leave their homes. The streets were empty except for national troops.

Can't Determine Cause Of Fire

BELLEVILLE, Jan. 8 (CP) — Whether a lighted match, said to have been thrown into a pool of varsol cleaning fluid, was responsible for the fire which caused $150,000 damage at the Trudeau Motor Sales last Dec. 20, was undecided in magistrate's court here Friday.

Thomas Reynolds, 26, of Cannington, former mechanic at Trudeau's is charged with causing the fire through negligence. Two witnesses called by the crown, Douglas Thompson, 17 ,and Harve Lamonthe testified they saw the accused toss the lighted match into the varsol, the blaze spreading so fast that it could not be extinguished.

In a statement given the police the accused admitted dropping the match into the varsol to determine whether it was inflammable. However, when called to the stand in his own defence Reynolds denied he had thrown a lighted match into the patch of varsol. Defence Counsel J. D. O'Flynn claimed his client had been induced to give the statement to police by the officer showing the accused a statement obtained from one of the crown witnesses.

Extend Big Welcome To New Zealand Head

OTTAWA, Jan. 8. — (CP).—Two prime ministers, both wearing black homburgs, met in Ottawa's union station Friday night. Prime Minister St. Laurent extended his hand and said "Welcome to Canada."

Prime Minister Peter Fraser of New Zealand replied "Thank you very much."

Mr. Fraser, who celebrates nine years as prime minister next Easter, had met Mr. St. Laurent before—but that was when Mackenzie King was government leader.

Today he will hold a press conference, dine with the Governor-General, visit former Prime Minister Mackenzie King and then dine with Mr. St. Laurent.

Beaverbrook Drops Out Of Conservatives

LONDON, Jan. 8—(CP)—Lord Beaverbrook, for many years one of the most colorful figures in British politics, has decided to retire from the Conservative party.

The Canadian-born peer, one of the world's leading publishers, has dropped out of the party, it was reported Friday night.

The report was published in one of of Lord Beaverbrook's own papers, the London Evening Standard. It is said he had informed the Conservative agent for the area in which he lives that he is no longer a member of the party, and would not renew the party donation which he has made for many years.

Speculation was that Lord Beaverbrook dropped out because of his opposition to the Conservatives' support of dependence on United States economic air.

The publisher-peer, who came to Britain from Canada while a young man, has long been an ardent imperialist.

Born Max Aitken at Maple, Ont., in 1879, he spent his childhood in New Brunswick. Later he lived in Montreal where he amassed a fortune, then went to England in 1910. Almost immediately he became a Conservative member of parliament. He was knighted the same year and became a baron in 1917.

His long association with the Conservative party was climaxed in 1940 when he was called into Winston Churchill's wartime coalition cabinet as minister of aircraft production.

New York Central officials in Buffalo said the eastbound passenger track was expected to be cleared by 9 a.m.

Canada's Month To Shine McNaughton Heading UN

By NORMAN ALTSTEDTER

LAKE SUCCESS, Jan. 8—(CP).—This is Canada's month to shine in the United Nations Security Council with the Dominion's Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton as president of the 11-member body. But even before the 62-year-old McNaughton gave the gavel blow Friday opening the council meeting, it was evident he would have a busy month with such problems as Indonesia, Berlin, Palestine and Kashmir.

The first session of the new year brought sharp condemnation of Netherland's "police action" against the Indonesian Republic and a call from Australia, the Philippines and India that Netherlands forces withdraw from areas they took over since Dec. 18.

The council's 'good office' committee, which has worked in Indonesia towards a settlement for more than a year, reported on the Netherlands action and suggested that it be dissolved since it could do nothing about the conflict. The committee accused the Netherlands of hampering the operations of the group by permitting no military observers into the field.

Egypt joined the three Pacific countries in condemning the Netherlands action. But the Council made no decision on the question, adjourning until next Tuesday, when the same problem would be discussed.

Three new non-permanent members—Egypt, Cuba and Norway—took their seats at the Council table for the first time Friday. There was speculation that with the change in membership a strong resolution might be passed.

While it appeared likely that the Indonesian case would take up many of the Council's meetings this month, hopes were high for an early settlement of the Palestine and Kashmir problems.

$150,000 Fire

EDMONTON, Jan. 8 —(CP)—Fire Friday destroyed three buildings and various equipment at the RCAF station in Churchill, Man. Preliminary estimate of damage was set at $150,000.

Villagers Flee Volcano Area

HILO, Hawaii, Jan. 8—(AP)—Frightened villagers in the path of Mauna Loa's lava flow left their homes today despite assurances they were in no immediate danger of being engulfed.

The coast villages of Honaunau and Keokea were virtually abandoned, although Police Lieut. Anthony Cambra of the Kona sector insisted the lava would not endanger them.

Guy H. Finch, Hawaii National Park volcanologist, predicted the lava would not go far beyond the 7,000-foot level. It was almost there Friday night. Mauna Loa's crater is 13,680 feet above the sea.

Schools were dismissed at Hookena and Alae, as well as the two other villages evacuated.

Four persons may have died as an indirect result of the eruption, first since 1942. A red Stinson plant, one of many flying around the spectacular outburst, was seen heading into a cloud about three-quarters of the way up the mountain at 8:30 a.m. Friday. There was no trace of it after that.

The private plane was piloted by Frank Lee of Honolulu, and had Jamed Redmon, Honolulu, and possibly two other passengers aboard.

Ontario Corporations Will Save Millions

OTTAWA, Jan. 8—(CP). — A Government source said Friday night Ontario and Quebec corporations will save "several million dollars" each year in Federal taxes as a result of a "special Order-in-Council passed recently.

Under the Order-in-Council, corporations will be allowed to deduct from Federal taxable income "special" corporation taxes paid to the provinces. These "special" taxes include such items as tax on paid-up capital and tax on business locations.

The tax concession to corporations in the two central provinces will not apply to similar organizations in other provinces because of the Dominion-Provincial taxation agreements of 1947.

Under these agreements seven provinces—except Ontario and Quebec—gave up rights to the Federal Government in the fields of corporation taxes, income tax and succession duties.

NEW YORK, Jan. 8 —(AP)—Billy Rose, Broadway producer and columnist, and his wife, swimming queen Eleanor Holm, left by plane Friday on a four-month, round-the-world tour. Rose said he had planned the trip 10 years.

Canada Refuses To Admit Leader of British Settlers

BEXLEY, Kent, England, Jan. 8 (CP)—Thomas A. Blake, British nurseryman who formed what he called the British Settlers Association and planned to lead 100 families to a new settlement in Northern Ontario this year, has been told he will not be allowed to enter Canada.

It was disclosed here that he was deported from Canada in 1927 and since then has had a police record in England.

G. C. Congdon, in charge of the Canadian government emigration office in London, said, however, that Ontario House was willing to assist the 100 families of the association if they still wish to emigrate. It is not yet known if they still plan to go to Canada.

"This is a terrible blow to me," said Blake. "I am a man with a bad record, perhaps, but this was my big chance to go straight at the age of 49.

"I went to Canada in 1922. In 1925 I ran into trouble in Winnipeg in a bootlegging racket....I was sentenced to two years, which I served in Winnipeg. I was deported when I came out and came back to England. Then I was framed on a blackmail charge in 1929 and sentenced to three years."

Scotland Yard officials said they were investigating Blake's activities and make-up of the Settlers Association. Blake said he had not received any money from any of the applicants.

The 100 families, all from Kent, had planned to cross the Atlantic later this year to set up a self-supporting community on 100,000 acres of uncultivated land near Timmins. They planned to name it Kent and split it up into 350-acre farms for wheat-growing and pig-raising.

Belleville Constable Lays Charge

8 Men In Provincials Involved In Inquiry; First Case On Record

TORONTO, Jan. 8 — (CP). — A Royal Commission will investigate an Ontario Provincial Constable's claims that his superior officers sought to discredit him and that a Crown Attorney interfered in every case the constable prepared for court presentation. The constable, J. E. Keays of Belleville, also charged fraud, perjury, and maladministration of justice. In his accusations he named Crown Attorney B. C. Donnan of Belleville, Commissioner W. H. Stringer of the Provincial Police, District Inspectors T. W. Cousins and A. W. Page of Perth and Belleville, respectively, Sergt. J. A. Stringer and Constables Sam Ervine, H. Purdy, and J. B. Driscoll.

Attorney-General Leslie Blackwell, announcing Friday night that Mr. Justice J. Keiller Mackay, would conduct a public inquiry into the charges, said Constable Keays, who has been on the force eight or nine years, had sought to resign but his resignation had been held up pending the report of the commissioner.

As Mr. Justice Mackay will be presiding at Ontario Supreme Court sessions in Windsor and Hamilton this month, it is considered unlikely that the inquiry will get under way until early in February.

No Whitewashing

Mr. Blackwell said that for him to dispose of the charges himself would possibly lead to a suggestion he was "whitewashing" a matter concerning his department. The only other course was to conduct an investigation under the Public Inquiries Act.

The attorney-general said Constable Keays had gone to certain members of the public and persuaded them there had been a miscarriage of justice. The constable then decided to press the charges.

One case in which Constable Keays charged maladministration of justice was the 1940 shooting of Provincial Constable Harold H. Dent at Novan, near Ottawa. Dent's slayer, a transient named John Miki, was killed in a gun duel with Sgt Stringer.

A second case concerned Dr. Ernest M. Carefoot of Belleville, acquitted by a jury on a false pretences charge and discharged by a magistrate on a charge of illegal possession of drugs. Keays accus-Crown Attorney Donnan of being implicated in a fraud on the public in connection with the Carefoot case.

The other charges involved cases against LeRoy Woods and G. Holdenbeck. Woods was acquitted of dangerous driving. Holdenbeck is awaiting disposition of a charge arising from a fatal traffic accident.

Keays accused the crown attorney of withholding relevant and important evidence in the Woods case, of improperly withdrawing a dangerous driving charge against Holdenbeck and of inter-

$200,000 Fire Destroys Church

OTTAWA, Jan. 8 — (CP). — St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church, the 60-year-old edifice in Ottawa's west-end, was completely destroyed early to-day in a spectacular two-alarm blaze which caused damage estimated between $150,000 and $200,000.

Actual cause of the blaze has not been determined, but it is believed to have been touched off from an explosion in the hot air furnace.

Despite the efforts of firemen, the old brick structure was burned to the ground in less than an hour and all that remained of the building was a heap of steaming and smoking rubble.

The blaze, the most damaging in the Capital this winter, had far-reaching effects. As the flames spread upwards from the blazing building, electric cables carrying light and heat to adjacent homes were burned through. Telephone service was also disrupted.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN recently named Dean Acheson to replace the ailing State Secretary George Marshall but emphasized that this top cabinet shake-up will not alter the United States cold-war strategy. Truman announced Marshall is resigning effective Jan. 20, for reasons of health, and will be succeeded by Acheson, who served as under-secretary with Cordell Hull.

Ask Margarine Be Outlawed

TORONTO, Jan. 8 (CP)— The new president of the Ontario Federation of Agriculture says he wants Oleomargarine outlawed in Canada.

Dairyman R. W. Morrison of Toronto told closing sessions Friday of the Federation's 12th annual convention that action should be taken by the provinces to stop the manufacture and sale of butter substitutes, legalized by a supreme court ruling last month. Margerine went on sale in Toronto Friday.

Mr. Morrison, secretary-manager of the Ontario Cream Producers Association, said sale of margarine was of "serious concern" to every farmer, not just dairymen.

Ontario farmers voted unanimously for the marketing of Prairie Provinces coarse grain through the Canadian Wheat Board. They said the marketing board should be an agent for the producers, based on free supply and demand.

Jewish Troops Shoot Down Five RAF Planes; One Pilot Taken Prisoner

London Announces British Troops Sent To Guard Port Of Aqaba; Backs Up Warning Against More Violations

LONDON, Jan. 8 — (AP). — Britain said today five RAF planes were shot down Friday by Israeli aircraft while on reconnaissance patrols over Egyptian territory near the Palestine border. The Air Ministry's announcement came after a Jewish spokesman in Tel Aviv said two of the five aircraft shot down by the Jews over Rafa were known to be British planes and two others were presumed to be. Rafa is on the border.

Meanwhile, the Foreign Office anncunced that Britain, acting on a request of Trans-Jordan, has sent troops to guard the Red Sea port of Aqaba.

Foreign Secretary Bevin decided to remain in London during the week-end to keep in close touch with all developments. This underlined the gravity with which the Foreign Office viewed Britain's present relations with Israel.

Strict Orders

A British communique said the RAF fighters had strict orders not to cross the frontier into Palestine. Since the attacks, it added, British airmen have been instructed "to regard as hostile any Jewish aircraft encountered over Egyptian territory."

The Air Ministry said there were two attacks. The first was made against a reconnaissance patrol sent out "to ascertain the depth and scale of the Jewish incursion into Egyptian territory," the Ministry said. The second was made against a force dispatched to determine the fate of the missing planes in the first group.

Four Spitfires were missing from the first attack, and a Tempest was lost in the second, the Ministry said.

British authorities charged on Friday that Israeli ground forces had made a fresh incursion into Egypt and had 150 vehicles at a camp three miles south of the town.

Before Cease-Fire

The air battle took place before the cease-fire between Israel and Egypt went into effect Friday. Observance of the cease-fire appeared complete in Palestine today.

Man, Daughter Both Dead Before Bed Fire

MOUNT FOREST, Jan. 8—(CP)—A Provincial pathologist found in an autopsy that neither George White nor his mentally-ill daughter, Florence, whose bodies were removed from their burned home Friday, had died in the fire.

Dr. Walter Armstrong Friday night determined that the 42-year-old woman had been dead for two months and that her 72-year-old father had died of bronchial pneumonia 48 hours before the fire. An intensive investigation by the Ontario Provincial Police investigation bureau is under way in this town, 40 miles south of Owen Sound.

Strong suspicion is held by police that there were two separate fires in the house, relatively undamaged due to quick action by volunteer firemen. Of three rooms on the second floor, only the two occupied by the victims were afire and little more than their mattresses were burned. The rooms were separated by a hallway which was not even scorched.

Two Escape

Percy, 36-year-old son of White, and his 65-year-old mother, other occupants of the tiny rough-cast house, escaped. Percy said they were downstairs when the fire broke and he made an effort to extinguish the blaze with a pail of water but was driven back by smoke.

Firemen were unaware of the daughter's presence in the house and didn't know of the fire in her bedroom until they had extinguished the one in White's bedroom. It was not until they began clearing bedclothing from the room that Fire Chief D. S. McDonald found the decomposed body in what he thought was a pile of sodden, charred quilts.

Neighbors, who believed the daughter was still in a mental institution, were shocked to hear of her being in the house. At first it was believed that ashes from her father's pipe started the fire.

Report Six Men Killed In Swampland Crash

WARRINGTON, Lancashire, England, Jan. 8 — (AP). — Six men were killed when a United States air-lift plane crashed on Friday in Lancashire swampland.

The plane, a cargo-carrying C-54 Skymaster, was en route from Frankfurt to the Burtonwood Air Base for inspection. It dropped out of sight after establishing radio contact with the base and asking for clearance to land.

A rescue team reached the crash scene early to-day from the Burtonwood Base, near Warrington.

Bomber From Trenton Crashes At Malton

TORONTO, Jan. 8 — (CP). — A twin-engine medium bomber of the RCAF crash-landed at nearby Malton Airport Friday without injury to its three occupants. The pilot, Flt.-Lt. Jack Hall, said the wheels became locked as the plane came in for the landing. The plane was landed on its belly with little damage. Hall, co-Pilot Flt.-Lt. George Bennett, and Flt.-Sgt. A. Milan were bringing the plane from Trenton.

DOROTHY DIX

Too Many Wives Suspect Office Girl, Home Wrecker

DEAR MISS DIX Do you consider the fact that every business house is filled with young and attractive women, who work side by side with married men, the greatest menace that the home has ever had, and that every wife's most dangerous rival is her husband's secretary?

A group of us were discussing this matter and we would like to have your opinion on it.

SIX MARRIED WOMEN

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER. No. Certainly not. I know that many women are inordinately jealous of the girls with whom their husbands work and that they look with suspicious eyes upon any stenographer who is not 70 years old. Also, that the average wife pictures her husband, who has a good-looking secretary, as spending his time telling her how beautiful and wonderful she is, and how she is the only one who ever understands him.

But this is all nonsense. In reality, the man who holds his own in business in these days of fierce competition has neither time nor inclination for love-making during office hours. He is chasing dollars, not skirts, and he looks upon his female employees as he does his male employees, simply as cogs in his machine. They are means to an end.

Natural Fear

Of course, it is natural for wives to imagine that their husbands are so fascinating that no girl could resist them, and that every young woman is trying to steal their husband from them, but in this they are all wrong. Nine times out of ten, to the young girl her boss is nothing but a fat, bald-headed man, who is fussy and critical and has no more allure for her than an office desk, and she thanks God she isn't married to him and that she doesn't have to stand him except during office hours.

However, sometimes a man does fall in love with the girl in his office and sometimes the girl is a home-wrecker. But sentimental affairs between a married man and a girl happen out of the office as well as in it. At any rate, it behooves every wife to put on her good looks and keep on her good behavior so that her husband shall not institute an invidious comparison between a sloppy, nagging wife and the snappy, young business woman with whom he works.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: My wife is a fine woman in every way, except for her disposition, which is terrible. She spends most of her time finding fault with everything under the sun. She is sarcastic and criticizes everything I do or say. I have tried to please her in every way, but so far have failed.

I love her very much, but it hurts me for her to act the way she does. Do you think she doesn't care for me, or is it mental trouble? She is 50 years old.

A WORRIED HUSBAND

ANSWER: I suppose a mean disposition is more less due to a warped mind, but mostly it is just selfishness and cruelty and a desire to have one's own way. People give in to those who have mean dispositions because it is easier than it is to fight them. But that is always a mistake because it encourages them to go farther.

If you could make your wife believe that you are going to leave her unless she treats you better, you might make her watch her tongue. I don't think she cares anything about you, but she wouldn't want to lose her comfortable home and her good living.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR MISS DIX: I have been dating a boy for some time, and while I do not enjoy his company particularly, I feel that he is better than no company at all. He doesn't talk much, but he takes me to movies and dances. It is better to entertain a boy who bores you, or to have no dates at all until you find someone you like?

A GIRL

ANSWER: You know the old adage that says that nothing succeeds like success. That is true with men as much as it is with business or anything else. If you want to have beaux, you have to have a beau to act as a decoy and draw his fellows in. Men are funny. Where a woman is concerned they are like sheep that follow their leader.

So hang on to your young man, no matter how much he bores you, until something better comes along. All women have to go through that. They have to listen to the tiresome repeaters, and endure the egotists, and put up with boors on the chance that somewhere in the herd they will find the one man they are looking for. They know they would never have a chance to find him if they sat up, solitary and alone, waiting for him, because no man wants the girl that no other man wants.

CANON CITY, Colo. — "Quit choking me, I'm supposed to be gassed," Robert S. Battalino wisecracked seconds before he was executed at Colorado State prison. Chewing gum vigorously, the 37-year-old one-time pugilist went to his death with a frivolous display. He was convicted of shooting Michael Randolph, Denver restaurant owner, in a mountain ravine.

TORONTO— Police arrested a man and his wife as they slept in bed on stolen fur coats, part of a $25,000 loot. Arrested and charged with theft and receiving stolen goods were John Hale and his wife Jean. Besides $20,000 worth of coats police said they found stolen jewelry and fine china, valued at $5,000.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. —Basil Keighley, 44, was sentenced to three to five years imprisonment for extorting $50 a month over a period of eight years from a $71-a-month hospital charwoman —under threats he would tell of "an indiscretion in a parked car" years ago. District Attorney Stephen Moynahan said the woman's alleged "indiscretion" actually amounted to "no more than a hug and a kiss."

ST. CATHARINES—Dr. D. P. Peterson will be the guest speaker when the Niagara Peninsula Fruit Growers' Association holds its annual two-day convention here next Monday. WINNIPEG—A student's letter to a high school paper criticizing teaching methods raised a furore revolving about alleged suppression of the letter by a school principal. A spokesman for the paper said many copies of the publication in which the letter appeared, had been ordered destroyed by G. J. Reeve, the principal.

MONTREAL— An RCMP official said he would be "very surprised" if Montreal had become the "nerve centre" of illicit drug traffic in Eastern Canada. He was commenting on a Toronto report that headquarters of narcotic traffic in the east would move here following the recent arrest of six Toronto ring leaders.

ST. THOMAS—After having been considered reeves of South Dorchester for the last four days, J. Carlton Dance of Kingsmill announced he will hand the office to his opponent, Ronald McNeil of Springfield, without seeking a recount. In the election Monday, Mr. Dance won over Mr. McNeil by one vote. But a recheck of returns gave Mr. McNeil a majority of five votes.

TORONTO— Inspectors of the Toronto Humane Society had their busiest year in the seven-year-old history of the society during 1948. They handled nearly 250,000 animals and birds. The society placed 2,207 dogs and 1,239 cats in Toronto homes.

ST. CATHARINES — Ontario Minister of Education, Hon. Dana Porter, will officially open the new $300,000 two-wing addition to the Collegiate here Feb. 1, it was announced. Included in the addition, in use since autumn, is a machine shop, welding room, two cooking rooms and cafeteria and kitchen.

FORT ERIE — Crystal Beach firemen want to blow their siren every day—whether there's a fire or not. The firemen told a council meeting daily use would give them more practice at operating the siren. Application is being considered.

SALINA, Kas.—Twelve United States air force officers and men escaped severe injury when a B-29 crash-landed after an engine exploded 200 feet in the air while the plane was taking off from an air force base here.

Child Drops Christmas Card With $5 Bill Envelope Found; Gift Delivered A Bit Late

The faith of Mrs. Irwin E. King, 623 George Street, in humanity was reinforced Friday by the return to her of a five-dollar bill which had been sent on its way before Christmas. She had bought a greeting card showing a Biblical scene and enclosed with it the bill. It was "To Mother," and was signed "Bee, Irwin and the Kids." Her daughter was to deliver it in person, but somehow the little girl dropped it on the street.

Frank C. Paterson, agricultural representative, found it near his office on Hunter Street and was wondering what to do with it. He casually mentioned it to an Examiner representative, and a main street item soon located the owner.

Mrs. King said her husband had remarked: "I guess we can say good-bye to it," but her comment was: "Possibly some honest person found it, and we may hear about it yet."

"I had looked in the Lost and Found column, but there was no mention of it," Mr. King said. "Then I noticed the little item in the Examiner last night."

She described the card and signature and the denomination of the bill, and Mr. Paterson was as happy as she was in handing it to her. So, the Christmas gift was delivered, although behind schedule.

ceased at 7 p.m., five hours after the cease-fire deadline, and all was quiet in the central sector.

The spokesman said two British planes were downed during the morning Friday and two during the afternoon. He said the fifth plane destroyed was Egyptian. At least two and perhaps three were shot down by Israeli fighters and the others by anti-aircraft fire, the spokesman said.

(In London, the Air Ministry said today all five planes were British).

Forwarded To UN

The Government said this version is being forwarded to the United Nations. The captured Briton is being held for Red Cross identification. The Israeli spokesman said he is Flying Officer Timothy John McElhaw of an RAF reconnaissance squadron. It is presumed he will be set free.

The spokesman said McElhaw's plan and one other were destroyed by Jewish fighters who found them over the Rafa battle zone where "enemy planes" had been strafing Jewish ground forces all morning.

The spokesman quoted the captured Briton as telling this story:

He was assigned to the 208th Squadron based on Fayid, Egypt, in the Suez Canal zone. He and Flying Officers Cooper, Cook and Close were briefed for an armed aerial reconnaissance mission to photograph Israeli and Egyptian positions in the Mediterranean coastal area.

They took off with a camera in the lead plane and all guns loaded, the account went on. McElhaw said he did not fire his guns. He told Jewish questioners he saw Cooper's plane shot down and that he, McElhaw, bailed out when his plane was hit by Israeli fighter gunfire.

The announcement regarding Aqaba officially confirmed reports circulating for several days that Britain is moving troops into Trans-Jordan to back up her mutual defence treaty with King Abdullah.

A foreign office spokesman told correspondents the British troop movements to Aqaba had been ordered "in response to a request from Trans-Jordan" under its treaty of alliance with Britain. He declined to disclose the number of soldiers involved.

No War Materials

Britain has delivered no war materials to the Arab states, he said. The United Nations Security Council ordered a Middle East arms embargo last spring.

The foreign office spokesman said: "The British government continues to regard the situation (in Palestine) with grave concern."

The British government hopes the cease-fire will lead to improvements, he said but will be more convinced of this when there is evidence that security council orders "are put in practice."

The reported British-Israel air clash followed authoritative information from Cyprus that Britain has taken positive military steps this week to safeguard what she considers her vital interests in the Middle East.

A dispatch by John Roderick, Associated Press correspondent until recently assigned to the Arab side in the Palestine war, said the RAF was flying fighter reconnaissance patrols over Trans-Jordan within view of the Negev battle area.

One British government source in London said the RAF activity in Trans-Jordan was not designed as a military threat against Israel, but as evidence of Britain's intent to back up warnings against Jewish violations of the borders of allied countries.

was that a work week for farmers should be considered as 48 hours, with time and a half for overtime. Snickers were heard until it was explained the work week would be applied to determine productions costs and value of farm produce.

On the suggestion of women delegates, the Federation urged increased training of nurses in small hospitals scattered throughout the pprovince. It was felt that if rural nurses were trained there was more possibility they would remain in rural points after graduation.

Adequate federal marketing legislation, increased minimum exemptions in income tax and increased compensation for cattle herds which have contracted tuberculosis were all discussed and favored.

Approve Taxation

The Federation approved the federal government's policy of high taxation and budgeting in times of high employment and reduced taxes in a depression, but it went on record as favoring increases in exemptions in income tax. A minimum exemption of $1,000 for single persons and $2,000 for married men was suggested.

"We don't want any more officials," was the expressed attitude of many delegates when it was suggested that the income tax department send out an expert for each county to help farmers make up forms during the first four months of the year. The motion was defeated.

Delegates attacked the Ontario government system of issuing licences to truckers under the Public Commercial Vehicle Act which often limits points to which the trucker may travel.

"Farmers should be able to mharket anywhere in the province and keep free competition in transportation of livestock and milk," commented H. L. Craise of St. Catharines.

Mr. Morrison in criticizing the lifting of the ban against the manufacture and sale of margarine, said a pressure campaign should be launched against the sale of margarine.

"Some provinces are sticking out their chests about their rights," he said. "They can prohibit beer. They can prohibit margarine and certainly they can prohibit yellow margarine."

While farmers were trying to raise the standard of butter "should we stand idly by and have our feet swept from under us?" he asked.

"Margarine lends itself beautifully to bootlegging," Mr. Morrison claimed. "At 20 cents a package profit, who wouldn't take it out of the box and slip it into a butter container?"

Failed To Act

The constable accused Commissioner Stringer of failing to take action against Constable Ervine and Purdy in respect to the Woods case, of instructing the district inspector at Perth to have Keays subdue evidence given at the Dent inquest, and of making false reports to the attorney-general.

Keays charged Ervine wih perjury in the Woods case and with inducing Purdy to falsify reports in the same prosecution. District inspector Page is charged with neglect of duty in failing to take disciplinary action against Ervine and Purdy and with working with Crown Attorney Donnan to discredit Keays.

The complaint against Purdy is of false reporting, against Driscoll of falsely accusing Keays in a certain liquor prosecution which Keays claims resulted in the crown attorney withdrawing criminal charges against Holdenbeck.

The constable accused District Inspector Cousins of suppressing evidence in the Dent shooting. Keays alleged that Sgt. Stringer made false statements in connection with the investigation of the shooting.

An official who has been at provincial police headquarters for more than 20 years said he could not recall any similar occasion when a Royal Commission was called upon to investigate charges of this nature.

Say Insurance Too Costly For Farmers

NORWOOD, —an. 8.—(ENS). —The Trent River West Farm Forum met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Barrie. Eighteen were present.

The broadcast dealt with the losses to farmers due to disasters, such as wind, hail, floods, drought, frost, plant and animal diseases, and how such risks should be met.

Members thought that, while farmers may suffer heavy losses, at one time or other from the above, insurance was not practical, premiums being too high and company payments too small. Most farmers find that fire, accident, car and hospitalization insurance were as much as they could carry. It was decided that prices of farm produce should be high enough to cover such losses. In regard to animal diseases, Peterborough county needs tubercular tests for cattle, they suggested.

Comment was made on recent objections by the daily press and radio, to better prices for milk. It was thought these were unfair to the farmers.

During the recreation period, progressive lost heir was played, followed by lunch served by the hostess.

British Government Sells Taxpayer Planned Economy

By WILLIAM BOSS

LONDON, Jan. 8—(CP).—By poster, newspaper and magazine advertisements, by radio and motion picture, the British taxpayer is subject to what his government claims is the world's most streamlined public relations system.

"There is no other country," says Britain's Central Office of Information, "in which the government so widely employs advertising to assist administrative action, and some fresh ground perhaps been broken in bringing its powers and talents to bear upon the solution of national problems."

It is just part of the domestic and foreign propaganda policy upon which Britain spends at least £14,250,000 ($57,000,000) annually and employs a minimum of 6,300 highly-paid publicists.

Conversion from war to peace, from a capitalist to a socialist economy and from dreams of peacetime plenty to the inconvenient realities of post-war "austerity" have, says the government, created the need for the COI and similar organizations.

At the COI's command are film production, planning and distributing units, a book-publishing unit and a book-selling organization. There are an overseas news service, a social-survey organization, a reference and research unit, a lectures service, a news and feature photographic agency, a tourist agency, an exhibitions organization and a press and poster advertising section.

The COI's budget is an estimated £3,242,287 and it employs 1,700 full-time "intellectuals" and newspaper men and several hundred free-lance, part-time specialists.

Twofold aims of the last year have been to "bring home to the nation as a whole the salient facts in the Economic Survey for 1947," the basis of the government's economic policy; and "the preparation of popular explanatory material about the social security and health legislation that came into force in July, 1948."

Economy Explained

All aspects of a planned economy require public explanation and "a catalogue of needs in this field would be a very long one," a COI report states.

Posters alone accounted for £1,690,000, 44 per cent of its budget, and 32 commercial advertising agencies helped. The medium is considered ultra-successful, one example offered being a £40,000 press and poster campaign on diphtheria immunisation.

"Deaths from diphtheria now are one-tenth of the total in 1941 and the number of cases barely one-fifth. It is estimated that annual saving in the cost of treating diphtheria is of the order of £1,500,000."

In film propaganda the government claims to be "the largest non-theatrical film distributor and exhibitor in the world, with an audience in Great Britain of more than 10,000,000 people in 1947-48."

It produced 145 one-reel films in the last yea rfor showing at home, abroad and in the colonies and with its own 145 mobile projection units gave 150 shows daily.

More than 40 exhibitions were organized and "Meet Canada," one of several which went on tour, drew 502,000 visitors. Lectures, 50 a day, atracted 2,000,000 listeners.

Find Firebugs, Insects Biggest Menace

By FORBES RHUDE
Canadian Press Business Editor.

The productivity of the Canadian forests, provided they are properly utilized, can be maintained for all time, says a study by the Canadian Pulp and Paper Association.

But—"the critical point in the utilization of the Canadian forests is approaching. Sooner or later the annual consumption will equal the re-growth. Except for one thing this would not be a particularly hazardous state of affairs.

"That one thing is bugs; firebugs and insects. They now account for 25.9 per cent of our annual forest depletion.

"The Canadian public has every reason to worry about its forests because their future is definitely endangered by the spruce budworm plague, which has reached epidemic proportions. Some 23,000 square miles of forests have been utterly devastated and destroyed. It now is present in roughly one-third of the accessible productive forests of the nation.

60 Per Cent Burned

"With fire, no less than 60 per cent of the original forest has been burned—only 13 per cent has been cut for use. . . .

"A basic need in the Canadian forest situation is a compila n of the facts so that, when and where required, consumption can definitely be limited to annual re-growth."

The Pulp and Paper Association review is a 16-page book called "The Pulpwood Harvest," which marshals its information in easily-understood form and presents it in imaginative writing. It is a dramatic story of the forest, what it is and what it means to Canada, and how it is harvested.

The forests fall into two categories, the unproductive, mostly along the northern edge of vegetation, covering 477,850 square miles; and the productive, covering 813,110 square miles.

The productive forests fall into another two groups: The accessible, covering 435,000 square miles, and the inaccessible, 378,110 square miles.

Columnist Wants Fans To Take More Interest

By BOB THOMAS.

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 8 (AP).—Hello, out there! Anybody want to read my memoirs?

I had hoped that someone would write in and ask, "Do you get tired interviewing movie stars?" I would answer yes, I do. Any work, even wine-sipping, can get tiresome. Interview "angles" can get scarce and stars can get dull. But the movies are a fascinating business, and something always turns up.

If anybody asked me, I could tell them that interviewing Bing Crosby is like pulling teeth and interviewing June Allyson is like two weeks' vacation with pay.

I could also regale whoever might listen with tales of my experiences. How I got bawled out by George Jessel for calling him and Eddie Cantor "hams." How Director Eddie Buzzell tossed me out of an MGM pool just as Esther Williams was giving me a swimming lesson.

How I got the brush-off from Hedy Lamarr who told me through a funky that she was too tired to talk any more. How I got whipped 6-0, 6-0 in a tennis match with Jinx Falkenburg. How I did a story on a champagne tour of the night clubs with Maria Montez. And kissed June Haver just to report what it was like.

Wouldn't you suppose that somebody would be interested in the fact that I discovered Robert Mitchum when he did a bit in "30 Seconds Over Tokyo"? (Look at him now!) Or that I knew Peter Lawford when he rode a motor scooter instead of a cadillac?

You would think that some constant reader would have written in to ask if I think Hollywood is an especially wicked place. (I don't.) Or if I think movies are going to get any better. (I do.) Or if I am happy in my work. (I am.)

All this information could have been yours for the asking.

Parliament Hill Gets Face Washed Before Session

By GEORGE KITCHEN

OTTAWA, Jan. 8—(CP).—There's a bustle of activity in the House on the Hill and you can tell they're expecting visitors, important ones too. The great, grey-stoned structure, known popularly as the Parliament Buildings of Canada, is being scrubbed, polished, swept, vacuumed and general re-furnished, with plenty of emphasis on the elbow grease.

The visitors are important. They are the 245-odd members of parliament, who come in mid-winter and stay until summer to debate, discuss and finally pass on Canada's laws.

In preparation for their coming —Parliament resumes Wednesday, January 26—a small corps of charwomen and charmen are spending long days dusting and otherwise cleaning the scores of rooms which serve as offices for the legislators.

Out on the marble-floored corridors workmen manipulate the hefty sanding machines to grind off grime, leaving a bright polished surface to lighten the parliamentary footsteps.

Some members already have arrived and are getting ready for their sessional chores. While their own offices are being made ready, they are occupying temporary accommodation until the January 26 meeting date.

The Price Of Margarine

Margarine is slipping around the corner into Peterborough. It is already on sale in Toronto shops in limited quantities. It has been on sale in British Columbia. The most remarkable thing about it is the price. It has been selling in the west at prices as high as fifty cents a pound. A Toronto price is 45 cents. In New York State an average price is 36 cents a pound. We were reading the advertisements in the Cleveland Press this morning and noted that two stores which advertised butter at 71 and 73 cents were both listing margarine at 27 cents a pound. Why should margarine sell at 27 cents in a city 150 miles from Toronto, and in Toronto at 45 cents?

* * *

Some of the ingredients for Canadian margarine have to be imported, apologists for the high Canadian price might say. That is true, but Newfoundland which manufactures margarine also imports ingredients. In Newfoundland first grade margarine sells wholesale at 37 cents and retails at 39 cents. Second grade margarine sells wholesale at 34¾ cents and retails at 37 cents a pound. Those are the prices in a country where the costs of most basic foods are very much higher than they are in Canada. Incidentally, the prices of margarine in Newfoundland are state controlled.

* * *

If Canadian producers of margarine, and the shops selling it, do not want government control of prices, and if they expect people to buy margarine as a supplement to costly butter, they had better bring their prices into line with those in the U.S.A. and Newfoundland. The heavy public support for legalizing margarine in this country was not given so that margarine producers and retailers could lard their profits.

Will Israel End Jewry?

"Exiled from the land of Israel, the Jewish people remained faithful to it in all the countries of their dispersion, never ceasing to pray and hope for their return and the restoration of their national freedom".

This is a paragraph from the Proclamation of Independence of the new State of Israel, issued on May 14th last. Now that Jewry has a National Home in Palestine, it is logical to suppose that the prayers will no longer be repeated. The hope has been fulfilled. Therefore, much that bound scattered Jews together racially has disappeared. They can no longer refer to themselves as living in exile, unless they mean a self-imposed exile which has nothing to do with religion or tradition.

Arthur Koestler, the celebrated Jewish writer who has been a Zionist for twenty-five years, has been examining the problems of Israel in a series of articles appearing in the Manchester Guardian Weekly. He argues that the existence of the Hebrew State—that is, a State whose language and culture are Hebrew, not Yiddish, Polish or American—"puts every Jew outside Israel before a dilemma which will become increasingly acute. It is the choice between becoming a citizen of the Hebrew nation and renouncing any conscious or implicit claim to separate nationhood".

Before the existence of a separate Hebrew State Jews who held strictly to their faith and all its teaching could not really be English Jews or Polish Jews or American Jews: they were Jews who lived in England, Poland or the U.S.A. The reason for this was that the Jewish religion is not merely a system of faith and worship; Jews belonged to the Chosen Race, which suffered exiles but would return home some day. The day has come when they can return "home". If they do not, and remain in countries other than Israel and maintain communities separate from their fellow-citizens of their country of residence, they are living out an untenable anachronism, supported only by a theory of racial superiority and racial heredity which they themselves condemned in the Nazis and which history invalidates.

Mr. Koestler notes that Orthodox Jewry is a vanishing minority. He concludes, too, that within a generation or two Israel will have become an entirely "non-Jewish" country. He questions whether the majority of Jews throughout the world who are honest sentimentalists about their faith have now the right or justification to maintain their separatist prejudices, if they do not go to live in Israel. "If a Judaic religion is to continue without imposing the traditional stigma, the curse of separateness, on its followers, it must be a system of faith and cosmopolitan ethics freed from all racial presumption and national exclusivity". He concludes his series of essays with this paragraph:

"Now that Israel is firmly established it remains for them (the Jews outside Israel) to wish it good luck and to go their own way—with now and then a friendly glance back and a helpful gesture. But, nevertheless, to go their own way with the nations whose life and culture they share, without reservations or split loyalties. Now that their mission is completed they must discard the knapsack from their shoulders and stop being accomplices in their own massacre. If not for their own sake, then for that of their children and their children's children. Buchenwald was the last station; there must be an end of every calvary".

The existence of a State of Israel may not cause Jewry to disappear, but it does give Jewry itself an opportunity to put an end to the twenty-century old story of Jewish exclusiveness and of anti-Semitism.

Employment Of The Tuberculous

The Department of Veterans Affairs has lately distributed to employers across Canada a pamphlet on the employment of the tuberculous. It is concerned that not only the 8,000 ex-service men and women who have been under treatment for tubercular conditions, but also the 40,000 Canadian sanitorium patients with healed tuberculosis, should have employment.

An application for a job who has been under treatment and whose tuberculosis has healed is as fully qualified for most types of work as any other applicant. A veteran who has spent post-war years in sanitoriums and recuperative centres misses now, of course, the wave of gratitude which gave jobs to other veterans returning from the wars three years ago. He is nevertheless as able to work as other veterans. There are only four types of jobs which a healed tubercular patient cannot safely perform: where he is exposed to inorganic dust; where very heavy physical labour is required; where the worker is subject to recurrent sudden changes in temperature or to excessive humidity; where shift work would interfere with regular hours. Employers need not fear that a man who has been discharged from a sanitorium after treatment for tuberculosis is a public hazard. He is not. He is safer—from the point of view of public health—than a man hired off the street, for unless a firm makes a practice of X-raying all new employees, the man off the street may be one of the thousands who have unsuspected or incipient tuberculosis.

Much of the good work being done in the sanitoriums for veterans and other tubercular people is socially meaningless if the discharged patients cannot get jobs and be self-supporting.

St. Lawrence Seaway?

Last month President Truman refused to approve a joint New York State-Ontario hydro power development on the St. Lawrence. He reasoned, we think properly, that the project should be truly international, between the two federal governments and not between two provinces. In his message to Congress on Wednesday, President Truman again recommended that Congress approve the full development of the St. Lawrence as a deep-seaway and power supplier.

Like President Roosevelt, President Truman has consistently approved the St. Lawrence Seaway project. Power-hungry Ontario, and to an almost equal extent, New York State are now hopeful that his most recent recommendation will result in action. The new 81st Congress, whose majority is Democratic, is likely to co-operate with the President. His 1949 recommendation, particularly in view of the need for power, may therefore carry. There are opponents of the plan both in Canada and the United States. The chief antagonism comes from states and provinces which would not benefit and which might lose shipping business. The ports of Quebec and Montreal are, for instance, not at all anxious to risk having their business go farther inland. However, most people now recognize that the St. Lawrence Seaway would be primarily a hydro-power development, secondarily a sea route. If it is developed, Ontario may get as much as 1,000,000 additional horse-power and be secure for generations from power shortages which now hamper this province.

A health hint says it is refreshing to stand on one's head. Eases the feet, anyway.

Diary Of Mild Invalidism

By SAMUEL MARCHBANKS

SUNDAY: To a tea-party this afternoon where everyone appeared to be suffering from a violent attack of phoney retirement, and the conversation went from bad to worse. At last it turned upon the Royal Infant, and a lady whose name was Mrs. MacSomething said that it was an inspiration of the highest order to christen the child Charles, as he would, all his life, bask in the reflected glory of Bonnie Prince Charlie. It was at this point that a Blunt Man, who had arrived late and who seemed to have had something stronger than tea (he smelled like a Christmas pudding) spoke up: "That won't do him any good", said he; "so far as I can make out this Bonnie Prince Charlie was just a drunken bum. If he'd been any good he would have won that revolution. But it was Drambuie and women that got him. Once knew a good salesman went to pieces just the same way"....At this point the party divided like the Red Sea, and all the non-Scottish guests talked about other things while Mrs. MacSomething (armed with legend) and the Blunt Man (armed with history and obtuseness) went at it, hammer and tongs.

MONDAY: Pawing over the few coins in my purse after the festive season I discovered that some rogue had given my an Italian twenty centime piece for a Canadian nickel. On one side it has a head of Victor Emmanuel, looking as noble as possible, and on the other side a head of a young woman who resembles the late Elissa Landi, looking even nobler. Any collector who wants this piece may have it for a dollar, plus postage and insurance....A woman who had watched me smoking asked how often I removed the dotterel from my pipe. "I have never had a dotterel in my pipe", said I, merrily, and explained that a dotterel is a foolish bird, and that she meant dottle. She did not seem to think this very funny, and was cross with me because she was in the wrong. Sometimes I think it is better to let people wallow in their ignorance; to know better than someone is a sure way to offend....Note for the New Year: Never Know Best.

TUESDAY: A friend played me a gramophone record of a song called "Little Sir William", which is about a small boy who was murdered by his school-teacher. When his mother calls piteously for him outside the school he replies:

How can I pity your weep, Mother
And I so sore in pain?
For the little pen-knife
It sticks in my heart
And the school-wife hath me slain.

This song is obviously a relic of the good old days when teachers were not forbidden to inflict corporal punishment on troublesome pupils. If we had the school-wife's side of the story we should no doubt find that Little Sir William had been throwing spit-balls, or pinning signs saying "Kick Me" on the seat of the school-wife's gown. Many a teacher has fingered her knife reflectively under such circumstances.

WEDNESDAY: Took to my bed at mid-day for my bones ached and my tripes felt as though I had swallowed a porcupine. Treated this malady by drinking countless glasses of lukewarm water. I wish it were the fashion to groan when one is ill. I like groaning, and I believe it helps me to bear suffering; what is more, groaning helps to pass the time. But modern sickroom practice is all against groaning. In Victorian times it was different; everybody groaned when they were ill; it was considered the right thing to do. Their roars were an inspiration to their doctors and nurses, urging them on to greater flights of bleeding, purging, leeching and poulticing. Furthermore, groaning has curative powers. A Hindu, when he is ill, repeats the mystic syllable "Om" as loudly and as resonantly as he can until he is well; it is his belief that the resonance provides a gentle and beneficial massage for his suffering insides. And what is "Om", I ask you, but a stylized groan? There is more to groaning than Western medical science has yet recognized.

THURSDAY: I am a little better today and am able to take a little food, so long as I do not pay too much attention to it. There is a stage of convalescence at which one can managed to eat an egg if one is careful not to notice the rich goozly yellowness of the yoke and the rubbery blobbiness of the white. It is suggested that I have been suffering from something picturesquely named Twenty-Four Hour 'Flu. I have now had every sort of 'flu, including the dreaded Spanish variety, and should qualify as an expert.

✧ ✧ ✧

FRIDAY: Received a letter from the U.S. this morning, bearing a stamp with the heads of three women who had been prominent in the fight for Women's Rights engraved on it. As I lay in bed I reflected upon the uncompromising plainness of all three. Does an enthusiasm for Women's Rights kill beauty, or are none but plain women interested in the acquisition of Rights? Surely the engraver could have done something for these worthy but wooden-visaged females? The Italian coin which I received on Monday makes even poor Victor Emmanuel look regal—a staggering feat of artistic mendacity. But these crusaders in the cause of Women's Rights make the familiar picture of Laura Secord look like something spicy from La Vie Parisienne.

✧ ✧ ✧

SATURDAY: A child who received a plastic version of a tin whistle appealed to me today for a lesson in how to play it. This was a sop to my vanity which I could not resist, for I fancy myself as a performer on all tootling instruments. But when I took the thing to demonstrate it slobbered half a pint of spittle on my waistcoat, and depressed me deeply. That is the trouble with all blown instruments; they drool. Brass instruments have special valves to collect this deposit, and one of the less pleasing sights in an orchestra is the frantic shakings of the trumpeters as they void their ptyalism upon the floor, and at almost any Wagner opera the conductor enters and leaves the orchestra pit in his rubbers. Nor is it nice to take over a wind instrument which someone else has been playing—particularly when one's pupil has been hitting the humbugs hard all afternoon.

Letters To The Editor

CITY SHOULD TAKE EXHIBITION GROUND

Sir: The Exhibition Board has not published a statement of the amounts paid it by the Dominion Government or paid the Morrow Trust, nor how much was received when the Board was renting the property for warehousing purposes. The Board is still renting it and for years it was not used for agricultural exhibitions and is still used for warehousing.

The hideous board fence is still standing on the east side and this thirty acres of weeds and emptiness is still delaying the building up of an important and choice section of the City.

A legal opinion from a lawyer of standing is to the effect that the Fair Board has forfeited its rights and that the grounds should go to the City for park purposes. Legislative authority should immediately be applied for and this property used for a really useful civic purpose; trees planted there, possibly a rink built and swimming and wading pools built.

The ratepayers' money should not be wasted expropriating a strip of land to extend George Street, but the whole thirty acres should be taken by the City and a wide street with boulevards and shade trees should be established for the benefit of the people to the south of the Fair grounds.

We shall soon see lawyers, expert valuators and an arbitrator in an expensive and costly proceeding to the ratepayers to decide how much the City is to pay the Exhibition Board or the Trustees of the Morrow Trust, or both.

We had better get way from this shadow-boxing, have a private bill introduced in the Legislature, and take over the property.

The Council did not have any difficulty this spring in giving Frank C. Mitchell a ten-year extension of the bus franchise without a vote of the people as required by the Municipal Franchise Act. The Alderman who introduced this scheme nearly lost his seat in the last election, active and industrious as he is. If there had not been a very large field dividing the vote, he would have been defeated.

Last year's Council has been active but it did not decide some matters it could have decided. The ratepayers expect the 1949 Council to do some deciding. I am sure the Council, after studying the problems and using its best judgement, will find the ratepayers will support any reasonable decision.

However, we do not wish another car barn deal like the one with Frank Mitchell. That performance was so stupid that the City deserves to take a loss. To the credit of Max Swanston and Floyd Curtis, they tried to protect the City's interest against the "handover everything policy" of Mr. Mitchell's friends in the Council.

Yours truly,
G. N. GORDON.

PROTESTS HOCKEY GAME PRICES

Sir: This letter, like most of its kind, is one of complaint; the complaint being the extortionate prices that somebody has foisted on the hockey public of Peterborough.

Why is it that everything started by the public, for the public, winds up as something against the public? If whoever set those prices had stopped to consider that for the first time in years many fathers in Peterborough now have the opportunity to take their young lads to a hockey game once or twice a week, they would possibly have kept the prices down and thus insure a large crowd at every game. But for a man with two or three boys, this isn't possible. In fact he'll be lucky to see one game in two weeks, if he plans to take the boys.

Furthermore, the hockey he will see isn't worth the price. For 75c and $1.00, you can see Junior A hockey in Oshawa, and on artificial ice. Lindsay has artificial ice, but their prices are lower. Even when the Peterborough teams used Omemee as home ice, the prices were only 50c and 75c, but now that the travelling expenses have been slashed by having home ice in Peterborough, it is necessary to increase the prices it seems.

I am quite sure that many of the canvassers like myself would not have been so willing to give their time in the evenings for two weeks, going from door to door, collecting subscriptions for the Civic Arena, had they known that their efforts would result in the present "squeeze".

What I would like to know, is who set the prices? The hockey clubs, some say. Others maintain the Arena Committee and still others think that a joint meeting of the hockey clubs and the Arena Committee both, were in on the decision. Perhaps some member of either the Arena Committee or the Hockey Clubs (Petes, Legionnaires and I.O.O.F. Juniors) would publicly clarify this point.

There may be a good reason, but I for one cannot see it and it looks very much like somebody is out to make sure that there will be a nice fat melon to be split in the spring, regardless of the hockey, or the suffering fan who has followed the teams even out of town for the last seven years. Hoping that you may have space for this letter in your paper, I remain,

Yours gripingly,
DISGRUNTLED CANVASSER.

Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

And Elijah the Tishbite, who was of the inhabitants of Gilead, said unto Ahab, As the Lord God of Israel liveth, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these years, but according to my word. And the word of the Lord came unto him, saying, Get thee hence, and turn thee eastward, and hide thyself by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan. And it shal ibe, that thou shalt drink of the brook; and I have commanded the ravens to feed thee there.

So he went and did according unto the word of the Lord: for he went and dwelt by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan. And the ravens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening; and he drank of the brook. (I Kings 17: 1-6.)

✧ ✧ ✧

And Jesus being full of the Holy Ghost returned from Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness, being forty days tempted of the devil. And in those days he did eat nothing: and when they were ended, he afterward hungered. And the devil said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, command this stone that it be made bread.

And Jesus answered him, saying, It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God. (Luke 4: 1-4.)

✧ ✧ ✧

And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent. (John 17: 3.)

500 Boys Taught To Play Lacrosse In Move To Popularize National Game

By DON GRANT

Five years ago the Peterborough Minor Lacrosse Association was only two makeshift teams of boys who were anxious to learn Canada's National sport, lacrosse. The teams were just called the Northend and the Southend, their games being played in King Edward Park. For goals a steel tube rectangle was constructed with a steel back-piece holding it up. Potato bags were slung over the bar for netting. The ball was faced off and the game went on. Seldom was there any passing the ball for it was either batted along the ground or carried until dropped. Gradually the game was picked up by the players.

Not until the senior squad had their own bowl did the minor setup begin to operate more efficiently. In 1947 a small minor league struggled through the season. Whenever the senior players weren't practising they would help the younger players. But the senior team were destined to be a championship team. They had to practice to maintain their name as a fighting team, never losing without a battle. They won their league title, and a provincial championship. The game by this time had become to hundreds of boys, a game to learn. The Peterborough Lacrosse Club decided that 1948 was to be a year for them to teach the youth of Peterborough, lacrosse.

Early in June the Peterborough Minor Lacrosse Association began to work in earnest. Four juvenile teams four midget teams and five bantam teams commenced to practise. Under such lacrosse players as Dootch Vitarelli and Ira Dundas the boys had their rough edges in the game quickly smoothed. Fihally the league got under way. Through the hot summer months the teams stuck together playing every game. In late August the playoffs were held. In the juvenile division the team backed by the Queen's Hotel won out, Kiwanis midgets took the honors in their division. American Hotelers won the championship in the bantam section.

Juvenile city champions were recently treated by Pete King to a National Hockey League game in Toronto. The midgets were given crests and attended Kiwanis luncheon. For winning the honors in their division the bantams were entertained at a show and dinner.

Besides these playoffs all star teams were chosen to represent Peterborough in the Ontario Lacrosse Association playdowns. The Juveniles were coached by Dootch Vitarelli and managed by Walter Murphy. Although they defeated Orillia juveniles, they lost in the next round to a bigger and more experienced team St. John's Training School. The midgets coached by two senior players Mick Magee and Rowan Chute, both well-known lacrosse players in Ontario and manager by Ben Keller were successful against Orillia but were defeated by the midgets from St. John's Training School. In a sudden death game in St. Catharines, after having defeated Orillia in the first round, the "Red" Creighton coached bantams along with manager John Legrow lost to a very strong bantam team of that city.

While the leagues were playing the younger boys were not idle. The parents club had looked ahead into the future and had acquired the services of Jack Foote. A former senior "A" lacrosse player, spent the summer teaching the minors the hows and whys of the game.

For the first few days close attention was paid to the number of boys taking advantage of the opportunity offered them. It became apparent that organized lacrosse games could not be carried on during the day due to the summer employment. However, two tadpole teams were organized the first week. These teams took in the boys ten years and under. For boys 12 and under four Peewee teams were organized. For the remainder of the season games were held as in other leagues. In the afternoon instructional classes were held. Mr. Foote tried to teach the youngsters stick handling, passing, catching the ball, shooting, checking the ball carrier.

Usually in the mornings there were two games played. This Little Soul Searching Good Thing For New Year

By FRANCIS HENRY LOVE

Now is the time for all good men to turn over a new leaf. We are now at that period of the year when New Year resolutions are in order.

If at first you can't see much room for improvement try wrestling with your conscience for a spell and see what turns up. If nothing better suggests itself perhaps you could stop beating your wife or kicking the dog or as a last resort you could try standing up in the bus this year.

A little soul searching never did anyone any harm. In looking back over the past year you can honestly say that you have been treating the little woman will all the respect and consideration to which she was entitled?

How did you act about that barber pole necktie that she gave you for Christmas or perhaps it was a Joseph's coat dressing gown, when what you wanted was a shooting jacket? Did you act like a boor and swear that you wouldn't wear them to a dog fight or did you put on that fatuous look and state emphatically that they were what you had always wanted?

How much discernment did you show in your choice of a present for her? Did you buy her some silly and impractical gewgaw like a fur coat that she will have to swelter in all winter? Is it any wonder that so many women die of pneumonia?

Of all the things that men inflict on their women-folk the fur coat probably tops them all as a form of torture. Any man could see that they abhor them. For instance look at their legs—and who doesn't—isn't it plain that they don't know the difference between hot and cold?

If they did, isn't it logical that they would wear deerskin leggings in the winter time instead of the gossamer things that they do wear? So don't go around preening yourself because you bought her a fur coat this year.

Actually you bought it to satisfy your own selfish instincts. Any good psychiatrist can tell you that it was just a reflection of the hunting instinct that lies either dormant or active in all men. They like to chase anything with fur on it.

And the fact that she seemed to like it is no criterion. Women are slaves of fashion. If they think that men like them in fur coats they will endure them if it kills them. Don't think that because she seemed to be jumping with joy that you hit the nail right on the head. You probably hit her thumb.

Women are born flatterers. Even if cut to the quick by a persian lamb coat she would never let on. Remember the old saw. The light that lies in a woman's eyes, it lies and lies and lies.

The really thoughtful man doesn't worry too much about Christmas angles but tries to get something that will bring joy throughout the year and ease her burden through this vale of dishrags and mops. What could be more expressive of a man's undying devotion and thoughtfulness throughout the year than a mop pail with an electric wringer on it.

Or take the young man whose heart bled every time he saw his mother's work roughened hands. For Christmas he bought her a pair of leather mitts for sifting the ashes with. It is a thing like that that leads one to believe that there is still hope for the human race.

And so I say, now is the time to pull in your chest, do a little soul searching, get rid of your better self and knuckle under. Let us start the New Year with a clean shirt like Jim has done.

Jim had something on his mind since way before Christmas. At first he thought he was smart, that it was just good clean fun. But as time went on and he began to think about it the more he realized that he was being unfair. He began to feel like a heel.

Eventually it got so bad that every time he met a policeman he crossed to the other side of the street. He developed a furtive look. Then, worst of all, he became sure that his wife suspected him. that she was getting wise.

It all started a week or two before Christmas. He was in a store buying his wife a present. He gave the clerk a five dollar bill and in the excitement of making a sale she gave him change for a ten.

At first it didn't bother him much. But as time went on he became a prey to his conscience. Then came the bright New Year with all its shining resolutions. Jim decided to do the right thing and now everything is hunky dory. His conscience is as clear as a field of new-fallen snow.

He went to his wife, made a clean breast of everything and split with her.

So think it over, perhaps with a little soul searching you too can find some way to make yourself right with the wife.

A MAMMOTH FOX HUNT has been arranged for next Saturday, Jan. 15, in an area which is secret. The area is 1½ miles wide and almost a mile in depth. In this same area there is known to be a pack of five wolves, or at least the wolves have been seen in the section. All hunters wishing to take part will rendezvous at the CNR freight sheds at 7 a.m. and proceed by car to the hunting area. Previously when rabbit hunts were arranged, some members complained the affair was not well organized. This time any criticism along that line is not expected because the fox hunt has been timed to the second and planned by Capt. Phil Sargent, A and T officer of the 50th Heavy A.A. Regiment. He alone knows where the hunting area is, and next week about ten captains will be chosen as key men, and these will be given special instructions. Because several members of the regiment wish to take part in the hunt, the orders have been drawn up in military style and here is a sample of the way the data is presented.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

INFORMATION—The enemy (foxes and wolves) have gathered in some strength in the area shown and is expected to launch an attack north and south towards farms located in that area. The raid is expected to be local in character and confined to a harassing raid and destruction of livestock and sporting animals. No enemy air support is expected. OWN TROOPS—Group A is holding a line from certain points along a railway line and is composed of the various sub groups. 60 men along start line, 25 men along left flank, 25 men along right flank, 35 S.S. troops along top of area. The groups will be supported on the flanks by special groups from 50th H.A. A Regt. RCA for communications and local protection. Rabbits are friendly and dog assistance is strictly not required. INTENTION—To sweep the area clear of the enemy. METHOD—The groups will be deployed and will sweep their areas on foot. Great care will be exercised for the protection and mutual support of all sub-groups. Commanders will ensure that all ranks are potified that the enemy will be wearing distinctive uniforms unlike those of our troops and that care in firing at the right target is to be of the highest priority.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

IN THE INTERESTS of conservation of ammunition and human life, fire will only be brought to bear on the enemy when he is clearly defined and there is every indication that the shot will bring it down. The force has under command for support—All rabbits in area, Signals detachment, Control personnel, and Transport section all from 50th H.A.A. Regt. INTERCOMMUNICATION—Sub-groups will communicate by voice from one to another, with priority from left to right. Main group control will be by wireless and mobile WS sets. ADMINISTRATION—All ranks will assemble at the CNR station at 0700 hours fully equipped. Bright clothing prefered. Coffee will be served at a rendezvous to be notified, at a nominal cost. Rations will be the responsibility of each member of the group to bring his own. All ranks will provide their own arms and ammunition. SPECIAL NOTE—No rifles of calibre larger than .22 will be permitted. Use of shotguns is preferred.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

THERE IT IS, and boiled down it means 150 men armed with shotguns are wanted for the hunt. They will wear high boots, and preferable some bright clothing, carry some sandwiches and a tin cup, and be at the CNR sheds at 7 o'clock. After the hunt coffee will be served. No rabbits are to be shot because the object of the hunt is to reduce the predators that are killing off the rabbits and the farmers' fowl. It should be a lively do if the boys turn out. Because men on the flanks and at the top of the box area will have the best shooting, all bounties for foxes and wolves will be pooled and divided equally between all taking part. When the flankers are in position and the sharpshooters are at the top of the box, the beaters will start from the railroad track. A man at either end of the starting line will be equipped with a walkie-talkie and a flare will be the starting signal. Dogs won't be needed because the beaters will make enough noise to scare any fox out of its hide. Now if the farmers just take kindly to the program everything is shipshape. Campbell Rowatt, president of the Fish and Game Club, with Norm Bradley, is directing the hunt.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

WHAT'S YOUR BEEF? That's the question being asked on a radio program and by reporters making surveys. What a question. Why everyone has a beef and most people welcome the opportunity to talk about it. The world needs a good night's sleep or perhaps a liver pill or two, and people are the same all over. But why should I get critical, I have a beef too. My beef is that retirement at 65 is the bunk. Now here is the way I want it. Retire at 40. Yes, sir, retire for two years at 40 and make the government provide a subsistence allowance for the family during that period. At 40, most men have had their noses to the grindstone for 20 years. They have gone through a depression, and two wars. At least the generation now 40 have had that rough passage. Most of them are weary in mind and body, are on the verge of a nervous breakdown, and in many cases the family sawbones can detect the odd flutter around the ticker. So why not retire for a two-year period, to rebuild the tattered physical system, and to acquire more knowledge and training through travel, thus making the person a more valuable employee.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

SOUNDS STUPID, you say. OK, so you retire at 65. Then you can take the trip with your children and do all the things you never had time to do. Here's what happens. In the first place, your children are all grown up and have families and responsibilities of their own, so you make the trip alone—if you are not too tired. You find your interest in doing many things has chilled, and moreover, that sudden change in your pattern of living at 65 is likely to shock you into a period of melancholy brooding that finishes you off. Of course if you have a good hobby, it's not so bad. Most of your pals have slipped over the Great Divide when you reach 65 as well. In short, retiring at 65 is the nuts. A man should have his holidays while he can enjoy them, then die in harness, where he is the happiest. At 40 a man is still eager for knowledge, he can enjoy new places, new people, he has energy, and his mind is retentive. His children are still young enough to take a trip with him, not being encumbered with responsibilities. Oh, yes, I forgot to mention a vital point. The man's job must be kept open for him during the 2-year vacation period.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

WHILE I'M BEEFING I might as well toss another barrage and it is directed at those characters who are continually grousing about their jobs. They are unhappy, browned off, their work is drudgery. Obviously there are two courses open. First, quit the job—which they won't do. So the alternative is get into some form of service work that will become their main interest. Start helping the boys in the neighborhood, take an interest in civic affairs, join a service club and get something done. If this plan were followed the squawkers would find so much pleasure in this secondary effort, their job and it's manifold worries would fade into the background. After all, these people with martyr's complexes could cure themselves in a minute if they took the time to realize that they live and strive for sympathy instead of admiration. Tsk, tsk, listen to me rave, but there is a reason for it, so let's hope the right people read it. It is the beginning of a new year, a grand time to turn over that new leaf.

Peterborough's Population 2,000 In 1850 Largely Tradesmen and Businessmen

BL HARRY THEOBALD

The population of Peterborough was 2,000 in 1850, the year of its incorporation as a town and of the election of its first municipal council.

Cobourg and Belleville could each boast of 4,000 people, Port Hope had a mere 2 500, as compared with its neighbor to the east, Lindsay 550, and Ottawa, then known as Bytown, was an ordinary town of 3,000.

These facts are quoted from the Canada Directory edited by Robert W. S. Mackay, as compiled in 1850 and published in November 1851. It listed all the cities, towns and primary villages in Canada, with statistics of national trade, revenue, exports and imports, public works, and a wide variety of other information it its 888 pages.

The bulk of its advertising relates to articles of manufacture in the United States, particularly in the border cities of Buffalo and Rochester, and farther south to Boston and New York.

Little & Brown, one of the oldest firms in the book publishing business, with headquarters in Boston, took two pages for their advertisement. Sloan's ointment of Buffalo was another trade name of long survival.

Parker and White of Boston made farm implements, seed sowers, corn planters, horse power threshing machines and so on. Pianos, harps and melodeons suggested the cultural side of life a century ago.

Furnaces and stoves were included in the advertising section in those days before Sir John A. Macdonald's national policy raised protective barriers for the infant industries of this country. The heating and ventilation of buildings appear to have been a comparatively new engineering development. Pictures of stoves look like nothing known to the present generation or its immediate predecessors. A folding door parlor stove suggests the manner of heating homes. A medicine offered a specific cure of consumption, and a whole page was taken by a phrenologist, whose dubious knowledge antedated the charlatans of Hollywood by almost a century.

Reflections of the way of life on both side of the border are of special interest in the advertising pages, including the gentilities of hotel accommodation. French's Hotel at Frankfort St. and City Hall Square, New York, completed in 1849, contained more rooms than any other hotel on the continent, save one. It's rooms were warmed gratis, quoting the advertisement of the subscriber, Mr. R. French. They were all fitted with marble top wash stands which were supplied with Croton water through silver plated cocks. "There is but one bed in a room; the halls and water closets on every floor will be lit with gas during the night. There is a barber shop and an extensive range of bathrooms connected therewith . . . Meals may be ordered in the spacious and splendid refectory . . . Porters will be up during the night to receive guests. In no case will servants be permitted to exact or receive perquisites."

Through the mirror of Mr. French's advertisment you get glimpses of the provision for his guests in the second largest hotel on this continent with eleguance of the time which he offered to the travelling public.

But, getting home again to Peterborough with its 2,000 people and its brand new town council, the Canada Directory's brief notation was "situated on the Otonabee River, in the township of Monaghan; distant from Cobourg 30 miles; usual fare by stage and steamboat, in summer, five shillings; stage fare in winter 5s; tant from Port Hope 30 miles."

Stage and boat fare to Port Hope was also 5s. Peterborough's industries were situated on the banks of the river and along Jackson Park creek. Electricity was only a toy. The power of flowing water was conveyed directly to the factories using it.

The directory representative evidently did not reach Peterborough until 1851, when Charles Hudson was mayor. Other public officers were:

Thomas Shortt, Keene, Warden of the county; G. B. Hall, county Judge; James Hall, M. P. P.; W. S. Conger, sheriff; W. H. Wrighton, clerk of the peace; Charles Rubidge, county registrar; Thomas Fortys, clerk of the county court.

Walter Crawford, crown lands agent; Thomas Millburn, revenue inspector; S. J. Carver, postmaster; W. H. J. Vizard, town clerk; Frederick Ferguson, county treasurer; J. J. Hall, clerk of the division court; Walter Sheridan, clerk of the county council. John Reed, county engineer; Robert Nicholls, town treasurer; and Henry Norton was jailor.

Robert Nicholls, town treasurer, is recognized, as theagent of the Bank of Montreal, and proprietor of a general store at the corner of Water and Simcoe St. It was his money which endowed Nicholls Hospital, eventually leaving nearly $350,000 for the finding of Peterborough's new Civic Hospital.

The list of professional and traesmen was evpanded with incidental "plugs" by the Directory's agent. Some of them were:

John F. Albro, George St., general store.

Alexander Bethune, George St., general store (groceries, crockery, glass and country produce).

Thomas Bradburr, George St. (grandfather of Mr Herbert I. Bradburn) retailer of dry goods, groceries etc. (The Bradburn name has been prominent on George St. for a longer period than Peterborough's incorporation).

Elias Burnham, George St., barrister. Rev. John Butler, priest at St. Peter's Church. not then a cathedral.

William Coulter, druggist, George St., paints, oils, stationery, perfumery, "on moderate terms".

William Creswell, Victoria Inn, Hunter St., "good accommodations and moderate charges; yard and stabling attached to the premises".

Robert Dennistoun, barrister, market square.

Wm. Eastland, George St., general store; Henry Edmison, general smith and steam engineer,—steam engines manufactured and repaired.

Thos. J. Fisher, Albert House, hotel and stage house, steamboat office, livery stables, George St.

James Hall, tannery, Hunter St.; George Haslehurst, publisher of the Weekly Despatch, George St.—Dr. Egerton Perry, M. D., George St.

Charles Perry, George and Hunter St., general merchant and lumber dealer.—Wm. Snyder, George St., general store; Tyre, Greene and Co., dealers in dry goods, liquors, groceries, hardware.

W. H. J. Vizard, (town clerk) attorney at law, George St.—Thomas White, George St. boots an dshoes (a good stock of boots and shoes constantly on hand or made to order.—Richard Winch, butcher, Simcoe St.

The following were hotel and innkeepers: Wm. Baxter, George St., Thomas Beatty, George St., Thomas Chambers, Hunters and Water St., Michael Hogan, George St., R. D. Palmer, George St., William Lundy was a distiller and grocer, George St.

Wings Tackling Jinx Canadiens, Ready For Worst

By PIERRE DUBOIS
Canadian Press Staff Writer

Detroit Red Wings, whose jinx team this season in the National Hockey League has been Dick Irvin's Canadiens, have another go at the heartened Habitants in the Montreal Forum tonight while Chicago's leg-weary Black Hawks invade the den of stranger-than-fiction doings, Toronto Maple Leaf Gardens.

The Canadiens, who in six previous meetings with the Motor City gang have built up a 3-2 edge in games won and lost, scored all four of their shutouts against the Red Wings. The best Jack Adams' boys have been able to do on Forum ice is a scoreless draw in the first game of the season.

Won't Be Fooled

You can be sure, too, that the Detroiters, now sharing the league lead with Boston Bruins, won't be fooled into thinking things might be different this time because of Irvin's patched up crew. It will be the same lineup that was good enough to do a 7-2 romp-away over the faltering Hawks Thursday.

Irvin announced he would stand pat on reinforcements called up to plug gaps in his lineup due to a long list of injuries. Among them are Leo Gravelle and Tod Campeau, up from the minors, and Gerry Plamondon of the Montreal Royals in the Quebec Senior Hockey League. Each scored a goal Thursday.

Big Bud MacPherson, another amateur drafted from Edmonton Flyers of the Western Canada League, also will be in action for Les Habitants. He turned in a creditable performance Thursday, paired on defence with Ken Reardon. MacPherson is up on a three-game lend-lease basis.

In Toronto, the Black Hawks will be trying to snap a three-game losing streak, no doubt remembering some of the publicity the Gardens received after that New Year's brawl between Canadiens and Leafs.

Two men's basketball games listed for tonight at the Collegiate gym, starting at seven bells (un-nautical time). First fray sees Oshawa pitted against the Marines "B" bunch, and the latter will be striving for their second straight Lakeshore League victory in as many starts. Don't know how good the Motor Citizens are yet, but tonight will tell the tale. The second struggle is an 8.15 exhibition between the "Eddie Black's" of Toronto—last year provincial intermediate "B" champs who have stepped up now to "A" — and Al Clark's classy Marines "A" hoopsters. Cage fans can figure on plenty of action and keen competition in both these clashes at the school gym tonight.

It's time, we think, that some action was taken on awarding the Charlie Kearns Memorial Trophy. It was put up in the autumn of 1941, a month or two after the popular Chuck Kearns was drowned. Dr. D. W. Clark, Ken Graham, the late Fred Craig and possibly one or two more, were named a committee to award this trophy annually to the outstanding athlete of the city. A few names were suggested at the end of that year but the young fellows had either moved from here or were away in the armed forces. So the trophy remained dormant in Jim Dorrell's office at the Chamber of Commerce, where it is today. We feel that this fine trophy should be put to use in memory of likeable Chuck, former star outfielder and gridder here.

Ghosts Have Hopes

Word comes that Cobourg's Galloping Ghosts want to graduate to ORFU senior company next fall. Perennial intermediate champs, they think they'd hold their own in the higher company. Indians have dropped out so the Ghosts might be accepted. However, we'd advise 'em to bolster plenty. Our good intermediate Orfuns of prewar days, who used to beat Cobourg regularly—and the Ghosts were powerful then, too, with Meikle, et al—imported a number of senior stars and made the jump. But, apart from one sparkling win over the champ Sarnia Imperials, they made but a slight splash in the senior ORFU puddle. It's quite a jump, you know, and a highly expensive one.

A Canadian Press dispatch says nearly a score of Ontario communities this winter have new arenas. A dozen with artificial ice and the others depending on the vagaries of the weather. Some huge auditoriums and some small spots in little villages. Several around this district. It adds: "Peterborough will open a $42,500 natural ice rink in a ceremony this week-end but the city isn't content with it. A $400,000 artificial ice Memorial Centre will be built within the next few years and the natural ice rink will be used for junior hockey enthusiasts."

Toronto And Petes

Toronto Meteors clash with the Petes at nine of the clock in Civic Arena on Monday night. First meeting of these teams in their OHA senior "B" schedule and it should be a right interesting affair. The Meteors were plenty peeved at the setback they received earlier in the week here at the hands of Legionnaires. For this reason, they will not likely spare the horses when they tangle with the men o' McGillis. The latter figure they can duplicate the Legion trick of knocking off the cocky Toronto team. If the ice is fast, it should be a fine fixture and no doubt will draw another hefty crowd of puck followers.

* * * * * *

Last night's Legion-Petes' game here was postponed, and will be staged at 8.30 tonight at Civic Arena — weather permitting, of course. At this writing we don't know but club officials hope to hold it this evening. We didn't know till 6.30 last p.m. that it had been held over, as officials kept hoping that the ice would be okay. However, it was pretty wet and they felt it would not be keeping faith with the fans to stage a shinny match on soft ice. Too bad for the folks who turned up at the rink, but you can't beat the weather. Unless you put in artificial ice, and it's really rather ridiculous that we can't have it and a decent hockey and skating season here, eh?

"Chum" Fryia out?

This from the Toronto Star: "John Fryia of the Peterborough Triple Links, a junior 'B' club in the OHA, was suspended indefinitely today for hitting a player over the head in a game against North Toronto Lions Wednesday night. 'Players must realize a hockey stick is not a weapon and suspensions will increase,' said assistant-secretary George Panter. According to the referee's report, Fryia was struck accidentally by a North Toronto player who was knocked off balance by a check. Fryia is reported to have come from behind, swung his stick and broke the blade in two places over the player's head. The player, although not cut, was assisted off the ice and did not return to the game."

Caps Rout Lions 8-2

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8 (AP)—Indianapolis Capitals scored five times in the final period Friday night to complete an 8-2 rout of Washington Lions in an American Hockey League game. Harry Frost saved the Lions from a shutout with two goals in the last period, while Don Morrison registered twice and Rod Morrison, Calum MacKay and Cliff Simpson once each for the Caps. Pat Lundy notched the Caps' first three goals.

1,000 Angry Fans Look In Vain For Hockey Team

LAKEFIELD, Jan. 7 (Staff)—More than a thousand hockey fans cooled their heels in the new Lakefield Arena on Friday evening waiting for the arrival of the Madoc Hockey team for a scheduled game, one of the Trent Valley League series. The Lakefield team was ready and champing to go waiting for the Madoc boys to arrive.

A phone call to Art Duncan, president of TVL, at Batawa at the late hour of 9.30 p.m., revealed that Madoc had gone to play the Campbellford boys at Campbellford, instead. Lakefield's hockey president, Tommy Staves, down to the smallest fan were stunned by this crossing up of plans. They had spent a good deal of money on newspaper, billboard and radio advertising and had succeeded in drawing a capacity crowd. The ice, in Mr. Stave's estimation, was in good shape, enough to carry through three fast periods before slowing the players up. The rest of the evening was spent in refunding tickets to the disgruntled crowd.

Duncan's excuse for the unnotified change of plans had something to do with the Stirling team dropping out of the League and Madoc breaching the schedule gap with Campbellford at Campbellford. An executive meeting of the League is to be held on Sunday to determine the fine points of the schedule default and to prevent a reoccurence.

City Carpetball

Results during the past week show very little change in the league standings, with the Fighting Parsons consolidating their position on top of the league. The Thistles went after King Billie and his orange squeezers and squashed them in the first tilt by the score of 24-6, and made a draw of the second 11-11. King Billie was then entertained at the Fire Hall by the Money Bags, getting a loan in the first of two points by the score of 11-9, but had to pay it back with interest when those money lenders chalked up a 20-6 win in the second frame. The Thistles tried out the same tactics but in reverse as old Money Bags came out on the better end of the 15-9 total in the first, but giving a slight margin in the return as they lost 7-8.

Apparently the Worsted Boys are using a better grade of wool as it did not get in their eyes so badly in the last game they played when they drew with the Bouncers 12-12 in the first encounter and bounced the Bouncers for 11-9 in the last.

The Bell Ringers really put on the music when they took the Spark Plugs for two games, 13-12 and 16-3; apparenty the Motor Gang need a little more power.

In their fight to hold on to the lead of the league those Fighting Parsons applied knockout punches to both the Woollens and the Spark Plugs taking the first nambed for 19-9 and 11-9, the last game being won in the last frame, breaking a 9-9 tie; and the Plugs going down (a real change), trailing all the way in both games to lose 10-5 and 10-4.

The president is surely giving a bad lead to the rest of the gang as we note that he has most games to play and that average is sure not according to his general run of play. Villemain Lasts For 10 Rounds

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—(CP). — Somebody said "a hungry fighter is a good fighter," explaining the good showing made by some European boxers here.

Robert Villemain, French middleweight, must have been hungry Friday night. Although badly mangled and bleeding freely from deep cuts on both eyes, he stuck it out for 10 bloody rounds with belting Steve Belloise of New York.

The decision went to the Bronx battler, who weighed 157½ to Villemain's 159¾. Belloise threw dynamite with both hands but Villemain kept crowding inside, chopping viciously to the head and body with taccato lefts and rights.

Both fighters were covered with the Frenchman's blood from the fifth round on. It was in the fifth that Belloise, who had a height-and-reach advantage of several inches, opened a deep gash under Villemain's right eye and in succeeding rounds drew blood from above the left eye and from both ears.

Canadian Rinks Sweep Bonspiel

DETROIT, Jan. 8 (CP)—Canadian rinks swept 12 of 16 first-round matches in the 63rd International Curling Bonspiel but upsets had both of last year's finalists on the sidelines today.

Peter Gilbert's Chatham rink, the 1948 winner, lost to Pat McLean of St. Paul 10-7, and Ken Miles' Toronto quartet, last year's runner-up, fell to Percy Power of Detroit, both in first-round surprises yesterday.

Only two others of the 16 United States rinks survived the opening round of the three-day event at Detroit Curling Club, but all the losers moved ahead in consolation brackets.

So many consolation events are on the program that a rink can lose its first three matches, and still remain in the running for a trophy.

The Bonspiel ends Sunday afternoon.

Highest of the early scores was recorded by W. E. White's rink of Oshawa, which beat George Landon's Wausau, Wis., quartet 15-3.

Hockey Rules Disgust OHA President

TORONTO, Jan. 8.—(CP). — The president of the Ontario Hockey Association isn't happy about modern hockey rules. He says he thinks they "stink."

The president, J. J. McFayden of Galt, is even more unhappy because he doesn't think there's anything amateur hockey can do about them.

"The rules were made by the NHL to suit the American public which doesn't know the first thing about hockey and we have to suffer. We can't do anything about it and have to put up with the rules.

"People are getting sick and tired of the way things are going today, the charging, the boarding, the high-sticking and the mad scramble for the puck."

McFayden made the complaints at a special meeting of the OHA coaches and referee.

He told referees, and the coaches agreed with him, that tighter enforcement of rules was necessary.

"The players must realize we aren't going to stand for any nonsense," he said. "We mean to clean the game up."

The meeting agreed that interference and high-sticking were the two biggest bug-bears.

This is what a couple of them said:

Coach Ken Holmeshaw of Guelph Junior Biltmores: "Let's get drastic. Throw them off the ice."

Joe Primeau, former NHL star and coach of Toronto Senior Marlboros: "Interference . . starts everything. If we called all the interference penalties, however, there wouldn't be a player left on the ice."

MAY ENTER COMPETITION

Ontario may be represented in the Dominion Curling Association's schoolboys event opening in Edmonton Feb. 25, Bob Sutherland, Ontario Association committee chairman said Friday night at Guelph.

He said that by increasing the levy on each O.C.A. member from 35 cents to 50 cents—the extra 15 cents to be set aside for the school—enough money could be raised to fly the squad to Edmonton. Otherwise, Sutherland said, he was confident the sponsors of the Ontario schoolboys' bonspiel will help finance the trip.

He added he hoped that the winning rink of the Ontario schoolboys' bonspiel, to be held Feb. 3-4, would be sent.

Personal Testimony Way Of Sharing Spiritual Blessing

By REV. R. E. JAMES

The Samaritan woman saith unto Jesus: Sir, give me this water to drink that I thirst not.—St. John 4: 15.

A patriotic Jew, born in Galilee, was attracted by the Teacher from Nazareth, joined himself to the band of disciples, learners, that they might discover His secret. The Master, knowing what ning they were entering a Sa- "the son of thunder." One eve- was in man, give him the name of maritan village. They refused to give Him hospitality. With flaming indignation He besought His Master to call down fire from heaven and consume them. Being with Jesus brought a change of character to this young man who later writes this beautiful story of the Lord's dealing with Samaritan woman, who was not of high social standing but an outcast.

It is important to understand the religious backgrounds of this incident. The Jew of that day believed himself to be of superior blood to the Gentile and to hate the Gentile. The Samaritan claimed to be on an equality with the Jew. The Jew hated him still more bitterly. So you see how wide the barrier was between the Jew and the Samaritan.

The Master sat on Jacob's well, tired, weary and thirsty. He was a real man. The Samaritan woman arrived to draw water. He desires to break down the prejudice in the mind of this woman. He is thirsty. He asks her to give Him water to drink. She is amazed that a respectable Jew should ask her. He replies: "If thou knewest the gift of God and Who it is that saith unto thee, give Me to drink. Thou wouldest have asked of Him and He would have given thee living water." Can you see the woman's mental quickness: "Art thou greater than our Father Jacob?" The Master's reply is for our instruction in righteousness. "The water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up unto everlasting life." Instantly the request follows: "Sir, give me to drink that I thirst not." The wise Physician answers: "Go, call thy husband." She wants the water for herself. She must share it. She looks into the eyes of the pure One and knows she cannot lie. "I have no husband" is the clear confession.

She must share the blessing — a lesson for you and me. Every blessing of spiritual life given to us through Jesus Christ is for us to pass on to others. How often Christian people say: "I do not believe in missions."

The Good Shepherd reveals Himself to her as He did not to others. "I that speak unto thee am the Messiah — The Christ." His own disciples must discover His secret. She is one of His little sheep, a little lamb and He treats her with gentle sympathy and wisdom. What a lesson for the missionary who works among simple people of this world.

Full of enthusiam she leaves her water pot and returns to the city to tell others. "Come and see a Man who told me all things that ever I did. Is not this the Christ?" The Samaritans come and invite Him to stay with them. "He abode with them two days."

The homely lesson. Hearken to the testimony of the Samaritans. They said unto the woman: "Now we believe, not because of thy saying, for we have seen Him ourselves and know that this is indeed the Christ, Saviour of the world." You have received your faith from your parents or teachers. This is good. But you must go a step further. It is for you to say: "I have heard Him myself and know that He is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world."

I WILL GIVE UNTO HIM THAT IS ATHIRST OF THE FOUNTAIN OF THE WATER OF LIFE FREELY. I WILL BE HIS GOD AND HE SHALL BE MY SON.

THANKS BE UNTO THEE, O LORD.

How Can I Be Condemned? Asks Youngest Parson

BY ROBERT MEYER
NEA Special Correspondent

LONG BEACH, Cal.—(NEA)—Four-year-old Marjoe Gortner, portside prodigy of the pulpit, glanced at his wrist-watch, yawned and said to his mother:

"Let me get some sleep now, Mummie, so I can give the devil two black eyes tonight."

It was naptime for the youngest ordained minister in the world, who touched off a storm of controversy in clerical and legal circles here by performing the marriage ceremony for 23-year-old sailor Raymond Miller of U.S.S. St. Paul and 21-year-old Alma Brown of Long Beach.

After reading the nuptials in a dramatic voice, the baby Billy Sunday stepped to the desk, flexed the muscles of his arm and signed the marriage certificate in a large legible handwriting.

From that moment, red-haired, freckle-faced Marjoe, who has been pitching southpaw slants at Satan since he was three and a half, has been a target of clergy's criticism and press attention. He takes both with no great loss of dignity, saying:

"How can those ministers condemn me when Jesus set a little child in the midst of the Pharisees to teach them?"

To a Catholic monsignor's remark that he is "as incapable of witnessing a marriage contract as Charlie McCarthy" Marjoe asked, "Who is Charlie McCarthy, Mummy?"

Mummy, Mrs. Marge Gortner, after whom Marjoe is named, said, "Marjoe is extremely left-handed in everything he does, but we don't try to change him because we don't want to make him different from other children."

Marjoe greeted newsmen in his Long Beach home dressed in a black velvet suit with short pants, looking like Little Lord Fauntleroy with his curly red bushy hair.

"God bless you," he said. "Jesus laid his hand on my head. Take their hats, Mama."

Mrs. Gortner said Marjoe reads music, both treble and bass, excellently, plays sax, bass, accordion, tambourine, drums, and is a "baton artist."

"Dum dum dee dum, I better, I better get ready for my Saviour —That's a song I wrote," Marjoe said. "Now, maybe you'd like to take my picture preaching. My real work is saving children from crime—you forget to put a new bulb in." The photographer blushed and replaced his used flashbulb.

The boy's mother said Marjoe was unable to take many music lessons because he is so often travelling as an evangelist on extensive tours fighting juvenile delinquency.

"He works to get the kids in Sunday School and the parents in church. He helps Dr. Locy Binkley West, founder of famous Girls Town and founder of Old Time Faith, Incorporated," she said.

According to his mother, Marjoe, who will be five on January 14th, talked plainly at nine months, carried on adult conversation at two years, learned to read before he was three, has been signing thousands of autographs for parishioners "who love him."

"The sailor's wedding was Marjoe's first such service. We never thought there would be all this publicity. Perhaps other ministers are jealous because Marjoe draws larger crowds. He goes everywhere preaching in all churches — he's non-denominational—urging people to go to church, any church, packs them in, and usually many are turned away."

Marjoe does not have normal childhood interests, but is wholly devout. Whenever he hears someone's sick, he falls on his knees to pray for them. "He has worked many miracles," his mother said. "He spends much time in prayer, and always begs me to read him the Bible. He can read it but says I go faster."

Marjoe never reads sermons, but adlibs them until he has now about 40 standard ones which his family has recorded. "They run from 15 to 30 minutes, depending on his inspiration," his mother said.

Marjoe is a faith generation preacher on his father's side, third on his mother's. His great-grandfather, John Gortner, died in Liberia as Methodist missionary. His father, Dr. Vernon Gortner, minister for 20 years, is head of Watson Products, Long Beach. His mother has been preaching 15 years and was one of the two "Canadian sisters," famous circuit preachers from Winnipeg.

"Marjoe lay beside me on the pulpit when he was only six weeks old," Mrs. Gortner said. "One day, when he was three and a half, in Long Beach, he stepped up to the altar before my scheduled sermon and said, 'I am a preacher, too,' and he delivered a beautiful sermon."

Marjoe's family upholds his claim to being the world's youngest preacher. His mother says a Charles Jaynes, Jr., of Long Beach, preached in 1937 when he was eight. The family are also friends of Renee Martz, now nine, who started preaching at seven and is now believed to be preaching in Florida.

Marjoe introduced his two-year-old brother, Vernoe, to newsmen. "You want to read the Bible with me while these men take my picture, Vernoe?" he asked.

"Naw," said Vernoe.

76 New Homes Get Underway In City Suburbs

The rapidly growing area north of the city in Smith Township spurted during 1948, building records show. New homes were built during the year at the rate of better than one a week. Permits were issued for 59 dwellings. Total building in the township for 1948 is valued at $464,900.

The 1947 figure was $590,850. However, of that figure, more than $400,000 was for homes in the Sands and Bateman new Brookdale subdivision. Thus, the amount for individual homes and buildings was about $190,000.

Largest single construction contract was the new Separate School, just north of the city limits. Next came the Drive-In Theatre on No. 7 Highway.

In addition, building permits issued by William Telford, building inspector, included 29 summer cottages, 12 cabins, two stores, two workshops and two boathouses.

17 in Douro

Building in Douro Township was a little higher in 1948 than in the preceding year, it was reported by W. F. Bell, building inspector for the township. Total value of permits issued was $102,450.

Of that amount, much was for 17 housing units. Seven of these have been completed and 10 are still under construction. Most of them are being built under VLA assistance by veterans.

There were 11 summer cottages built in the township, three residences had major alterations done. Seven permits for work under $500 were issued.

Car Fender Hits Man

Shortly before midnight Richard Doherty, 571 Romaine St. walked in to the middle of Charlotte St. A car, driven by Lionel Monk, 280 King George St., was proceeding west along the street and although the driver attempted to stop the car, he was unable to do so because the roads were icy. Doherty was knocked down by the fender of the car. After receiving medical treatment he was taken home.

EXPERIENCES IN THE FAR NORTH were re-lived on Friday when Dr. Donald Whyte and Mrs. Whyte, 548 Weller St., entertained their old friend, Archdeacon of the Arctic, the Venerable Rev. Donald B. Marsh of All Saints Cathedral, Aklavik, NWT, right. He has been in, Toronto since September handling business affairs, as Archdeacon, of the Right Rev. Archibald L. Fleming, Bishop of the Arctic, who is not well.

Tells of 22 Years Among Arctic Tribes

Anglican Missionary Now Stationed At Aklavik Cathedral

By NICK NICKELS

Known to more than 500 Eskimo parishioners in the Eastern Arctic as "The Little One Who Peers", the Archdeacon of the Arctic is visiting in the city today. The Venerable Archdeacon Donald B. Marsh of All Saints Cathedral, Aklavik, NWT, in an interview, told of his present work in the Far North and a great deal about past experiences in the Hudson Bay country.

By coincidence this interview might be considered a continuation of a Christmas feature story published in The Examiner entitled "The First Canadian Carol". It told of the carol's origin and of the painting inspired by it which now hangs above the altar of All Saints Cathedral, Aklavik, NWT.

The interview was doubly pleasant for we had met and visited with the Archdeacon seven years ago last summer under very different circumstances.

We were working on the west coast of Hudson Bay on an air freighting job and stationed at Eskimo Point, NWT, for some of the time. Our host, W. Browne, Hudson's Bay Company manager, suggested one night that we visit the rector of the St. Francis Anglican mission, who at that time, had been there for the past 15 years. He assured us we would find a very interesting man to talk with and one who took superb photos.

It must have been after nine-o'clock when we rapped on the rectory door to be welcomed into a classroom filled with Eskimo hunters and their squaws sweating away over their studies. Sweating is the precise word to use here, for the men wore their sealskin atiggis and short polar bear pants and the women were enveloped in bulky plaid shawls, and it was a very warm evening.

Mr. Marsh asked us to wait in his living room while the class finished its sums. The rest of the evening, and we are afraid well into the early morning, we were most royally entertained by Archdeacon and Mrs. Marsh and son David.

Our air operation moved north next morning to Chesterfield Inlet and Baker Lake and on the return flight we called for gas at Eskimo Point again. It was only take aboard Mrs. Marsh and David, who were going south of Churchill. As the seaplane drummed along the water of the Sound and took off, we could see the tiny figure of Mr. Marsh far below, waving us on our way. That was the last time we saw him until Friday evening.

A man who has spent 22 years in the Anglican Missions of both Eastern and Western Arctics, he radiates great vitality. His long winter trips, some of 3,000 miles, have left no traces of physical strain. His travels, experiences in the mission field and his excellent photos have made him an authority on the Arctic. He told of a letter he had received recently from the well-known Arctic explorer, Vilhjalmur Stefansson, a few days ago. He wanted to know the meaning of word "Aklavik", the Archdeacon's present parish. He was able to advise him without any trouble that it meant "The Place of the Brown Bear."

Built Own House

The desire to enter the clergy in the Canadian Mission field came to Mr. Marsh about 1920 while living in Enfield, near London. He came to Canada two years later and spent the next four at Emannuel College in Saskatoon. After his ordination he received orders to establish a mission at Eskimo Point in the Eastern Arctic.

He travelled on the Hudson Bay Railway as far as Kettle Rapids, went by boat down the Nelson River to the Hayes and on into York Factory. A small motor boat took him along the coast to Churchill where he spent the next two weeks tearing down an old RCMP building to provide lumber for his new mission.

Motor Ship Fort York picked up lumber, supplies and coal and landed him at his destination. It was August and winter on the coast was only eight weeks away but in six weeks time with the aid of a native, he erected a three-room dwelling. He was ready and snug for winter just two weeks before roaring winds drove across the tundra. There was a Roman Catholic mission nearby and the Hudson's Bay Company post and no other dwellings or white men within hundreds of miles in any direction.

His first winter was a lovely one, but busy, during which time he studied Eskimo dialect. When nomadic bands of Padermuits and Ahiamuits reached the coast with their winter spoils of Arctic fox pelts, he was on speaking terms with them.

Travelled by Sled

Between getting acquainted with the summering natives and building the mission church of St. Francis, he was possibly the busiest man on the coast. The church took three years to finish as lumber came in by boat each summer. In the meantime he held services in his dwelling.

Winter trips by hired native komatik, at a monthly rate—with the driver's family to feed as well—were the seasons of easiest travel. He went from native camp to camp, across the flat wind-packed barrens, on journeys that often took three months to complete and chalked up a staggering 3,000 miles each.

Religious teaching were carried out in native igloos by the light of sealoil lamps and after about ten years of travelling in winter and teaching and preaching at St. Francis Church in summer, Mr. Marsh was able to feel that he was making much progress in that he knew the natives were ready for baptism, the marriage ceremony and the confirmation service.

There were two furloughs to England during the 17-year term at Eskimo Point, one in 1929-30 and the other in 1934-35. During the latter he married Winnifred Petchey, a teacher of fine arts in Enfield. She accompanied him back to Eskimo Point and spent the following eight years on the bleak coast with Mr. Marsh who, in 1939, was made Archdeacon of Baffin Land. They raised their three children at the "Point"—David, 11, Rosemary, 8, and Valerie, 6. The children were born on the Outside.

With the appointment of Archdeacon of the Arctic, Mr. Marsh and his family went to Aklavik in 1944 where he took charge of

Wants Council To Close At 11

Closing at 11 p.m. was proposed to Oshawa council this week by Ald. Evelyn Bateman. City Clerk F. E. Hare said there was a bylaw to that effect in the records. Peterborough council rarely has to extend its council meetings beyond 11 o'clock. Once upon a time midnight meetings were common, usually followed by a restaurant lunch.

Late sessions were heavily frowned on by the late Roland Denne when he was mayor. His policy was to discuss matters thoroughly in committee, preferably reaching agreement and decision at that stage. Subsequent councils have followed that practice. Only occasionally are committee reports amended, and the contents of bylaws are understood and approved before they are introduced in council. Mrs. Bateman's objection was that late work is not done well.

Solve Break-in

A break-in and theft of money from Hutchinson's service station at Bridgenorth has been cleaned up by Provincial Constables Elmer Crough and Archie Grayling. As a result of their investigation a juvenile will face charges. The police were able to recover the money.

Jebson Says Committee Has Waited 2 Years For City Council To Pick Site For Centre

"We have been asking the city council for the last two years to settle the site question, and let us get on with the building of the Memorial Community Centre," Mr. J. A. Jebson, chairman of its committee commented to The Examiner yesterday.

"I don't think there is anybody more willing to do what they can to help things along in Peterborough than are the members of our committee. We hear one suggestion of putting in an artificial ice plant at the Civic Arena and then taking it up and place in the Centre. There must be nearly two miles of piping laid in the floor, and set in concrete, for the cooling system. Just imagine what that would involve if there was any taking up after it had been in use.

Once our committee attempted to depart from the responsibility that was placed on them, where would be draw the line? What would there be to stop a baseball club or the soccer lads, or tennis from asking us for a loan from our funds for some athletic purposes of theirs?

Our committee feels that we are prevented by the manner of our institution from diverting funds from the one and only purpose of building a memorial centre, as soon as we get the site from the council."

250 Girls, Boys Attend First Ski School

This morning, 250 boys and girls from city schools—9 to 16 years of age—piled on buses and headed for the ski trails at Kemp's Hill, Warsaw Rd. This is the second year that the ski school has been operated for the children of the city by the Peterborough Ski Club. Arrangements were made, as last year, in co-operation with the Peterborough Recreation Commission and the school system.

The number registering for the course this year—250—is smaller than the 1947 number. This is because the age limit had been set at nine this year. In the first year, children of 7 and 8 were accepted, but it was felt that those age groups were too young.

The school will be operated each Saturday for five weeks, to Feb. 5. Following the training course, a competition for winners in each group will be held.

Heading the group of instructors from the Ski Club is Hal Barker.

Registration through schools was carried on with the co-operation of Superintendent K. S. Wightman, said Jack Dane, Recreation Director. Prince of Wales School led the list, with 59 boys and 14 girls registered. Queen Mary was next, with 51 boys and 20 girls. There are 180 boys and 70 girls taking the course this year.

Largest registration by age groups is 10 years for boys and girls. There are 56 ten-year-olds and 54 11-year-olds.

Requiem Mass Sung

MARMORA, Jan. 8 (ENS) — Funeral of Michael O'Connor was held on Saturday from his home on Forsyth Street, to Sacred Heart Church, where Requiem Mass was celebrated by the Rev. H. J. Farrell. TROJAN ATHLETIC CLUB, the only one of its kind in the city, is doing valuable work among the boys of the southwest portion of the city. Right is Frank Lundy, president of the club; Left, the late Arthur Pagett, Sr., whose interest, energy and driving power helped bring the club into existence. He died last year.

Late Art Pagett's Efforts For Boys' Club Bears Fruit

To prevent juvenile delinquency, to help overcome inferiority complexes and to provide hockey for boys not skilled enough for the Minor Hockey Association teams, are the aims of Peterborough's only operating athletic group, the Trojan Athletic Club. There are two other city clubs formed but not operating due to lack of backing.

Through the summer of 1945 two softball teams in the St. Mary's to Chamberlain Streets area fought every game they played. The teams were called the Rangers and the Cardinals. L. Long, T. Millar, John Creighton and Mr. Crowe were the leaders of the former and the late Arthur Pagett, Sr., Art Paagett, Jr., and George Masters, the latter. Finally after considerable bickering between the squads they decided to call it quits and joined together to form under a neutral name, the Trojan Athletic Club. The first officials of the new club were George Masters, president; Lloyd Long, secretary; Thomas Miller, treasurer, and the late Arthur Pagett, Sr., vice-president.

In the winter of 45 and '46 the club purchased $85 worth of equipment for the hockey season. A CGE's team's second-hand sweaters were purchased for $25. By holding a turkey raffle and a minstrel show they were able to make ends meet. The club entered two teams in the PMHA, a juvenile and a midget. For the younger boys four teams were formed to produce a peewee league. During the following summer four softball teams were formed for boys 14 and under. Some soccer was played under the direction of the late Art Pagett, Sr.

Juvenile and midget teams were entered in the PMHA the next winter. They played their games in Lakefield. The juveniles went through to the semi-finals, only to be defeated by Barrie by forms out of bags dyed brown. midgets in the first round of the playoffs. That winter they had four bantam and four peewee for the kiddies. They financed themselves by another turkey draw and minstrel show. In the summer a little softball was played.

In the third year of the club's operations a bantam team was entered in the PMHA along with the juvenile and midget teams. The juveniles were the only ones who succeded in dominating the city league. They lost out to Bowmanville's Red Raiders in the second round. Again four peewee and four bantam teams were formed. A senior league was attempted but faded out after the second game. A tadpole team was formed also.

At the Salvation Army Temple on Chamberlain St. in the spring of 1948 a meeting was held at which the boys were asked what they wanted to do that summer. There was a split between lacrosse, baseball and softball, with the result that there weren't enough to play anything. A bantam team under Al Menzies was entered in the City League. Mrs. G. Cunningham made the uniforms out of bags ddyed brown. The team was put out in the second round of the provincial playoffs. The team financed itself by running a raffle.

Follow Regulations

This year the club is abiding by the regulations of the OMHA in its own league as far as age is concerned. They are having two peewee teams for boys 12 and under, two bantam teams for boys 14 and under, and four teams for boys under 16. They also have three teams in the PMHA, juvenile, midget and bantam. There is a tadpole team for boys under 10.

Officers elected in the fall for the club are Frank Lundy, president, John Wilson, vice-president, Fred Jennings, secretary and Thomas Church, treasurer. The executive is Fred Herbison, Art Pagett, Charles Foster, Henry Dunn, Lloyd Long, Edward Panter, Don Pagett, Gerry Pagett, Al Menzies, Percy Killingbeck and George Masters.

Two trophies are presented for the champion teams in the bantam and peewee leagues. They are the Hugh Waddell trophy and the Harold Rehill trophy.

This year the boys were asked to elect a boys' council. They chose Edward Dunn, Lionel Bloom, Glen Pagett, James Stewart and Henry Clark.

Many things have been done to secure funds to run the club from year to year. The last two

1948 Recorded As Eventful Year for Women of Peterborough

By MARGARET LANCASTER

Women of Peterborough have set a high standard of activity and accomplishment this past year. Their social calendar has been filled with a record number of formal dances, teas, garden parties and fashion shows. But for all this fun they have balanced the ledger with their welfare work at home and abroad.

In the same year they have entertained the first lady of the Dominion, Her Excellency Lady Alexander, Viscountess of Tunis, and her counter-part in Ontario, Mrs. Ray Lawson, wife of the Lieutenant Governor. Functions they gave on these occasions were carried out with a charm and graciousness of which they can be justly proud.

Four Big Conferences

Four large conferences were held during 1948, hostessed by local women's organizations. Professional and executive business women belonging to Soroptimist Clubs of the Eastern Canada Region met for their 16th Conference in April, and at the end of May the semi-annual meeting of Provincial Council of Women took place. Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire semi-annual meeting of Provincial Chapter came in October and 350 women were in attendance. First Ontario-Quebec meeting of teen age YW members was held here in Easter holiday, 125 girls present.

The Red Cross Society, Peterborough Branch, has continued its blood donor service, keeping records and donor's books right up to date, and for this it has been highly commended by the National organization. During the early part of '48 it sponsored a course in Red Cross First Aid and 20 senior nurses received graduation certificates and pins. In the fall a series of lectures on home nursing by experienced registered nurses was started and is providing much help, especially for young mothers. Twelve local skiers completed a course in "Winter First Aid" and organized a Ski Patrol Club before the first snowfall under Red Cross sponsorship and instruction. In additions the Branch maintains a loan cupboard equipped with all accessories for the sick room that is available to anyone.

Swimmers Gain Title

Fame and international recognition came to Peterborough April 3rd when Jean Millard and Iris Forbes-Reilly, members of the Peterborough Ornamental Swimming Club, brought the title "Junior Women's indoor synchronized swimming champions" to Canada for the first time. Their duo performance was a victory over 42 crack entries from cities in United States. The girls were feted by the City Council, organizations and service clubs and have since been in wide demand for exhibitions. Late in August, members and officials of the club chartered a railway coach for their trip and four-day stay in Des Moines, Iowa, where the girls competed for senior honors. Injuries tagged them and the result was fourth place, but they came home with a sportsmanship cup award because judges admired their spirit and ability and recognized the strain of their trip, longest made by any entrant.

Home and School organization made great strides during the year, when Separate Schools of the city formed associations and affiliated with the Council. A regional conference held in October gave added inspiration through out-of-town speakers. Delegates from outlying towns also attended.

Groundwork for a Nursing Services Registry was laid during the year. This promises invaluable help for citizens in obtaining the exact type of nursing care they require with a minimum of effort.

Victorian Order of Nurses continues to do grand work, chiefly helping new mothers, and by health education through home visits. Children whose own parents, for various reasons, are not giving proper care, receive attention and kindness from the Children's Aid Society. A conscientious supervisor and staff is making this organization one of the best in the Province.

Increase Welfare Work

Aid to Britain and Europe through parcels of food and clothing continued increasingly throughout the year. IODE chapters made several drives for good used clothing, brought to the meetings by members. They, like a number of other groups, have standing arrangements for sending food regularly. Realizing the need, the Women's Art Association decided to make a collection at each meeting for this purpose and donations have been generous. And there have been all sorts of benefit events, money-making affairs staged by the women that have had outstanding success. Items suitable for the food parcels admitted guests to a tea held by St. John's Anglican Women's Association, and the Women's Progressive Conservative Association gave a tea specially to raise money for this purpose, hostessed by the Provincial member's wife at her home.

Co-operation and help was given in all effort of all civic groups by Mrs. Wm. Ovens, wife of the mayor. Setting aside her home life, she lent her patronage to their public events and officiated generously whenever called upon.

Three new churches in the South end district formed women's groups and proceeded to take part in mission and welfare work.

A number of newcomers offered their services in women's church and service organizations at election times and new leaders took the reins in many cases.

Change of leadership constitutes progress no matter how efficient the previous one, and has a broadening effect on the membership. Delegates were sent to points in and out of Ontario to attend conventions and gain new and useful ideas for further advancement.

Travel Far

Three thousand miles went one club delegate, Miss Myrtle Sargent of the Soroptimist Club of Peterborough, to attend the international convention at Harrowgate, England, in August. Seven graduate nurses of the Civic Hospital staff went to Sackville, NB, for the biennial meeting of the Canadian Nurses' Association in June. Second annual conference of the YWCA in Canada was help at Camp Brereton, Manitoba, with Miss Kay Hales in attendance, and Miss Helen Arnold went to Grand Rapids, Michigan, for a World Christian Youth conference during August.

Withstand Fashion Crisis

In early months of the year our style-conscious women took part in the raging "Battle of the Hemline." As controversy went on, local merchants predicted the Peterborough damsels would not accept the 12" length, but they proved wrong. Though never hastening to don extreme fashions, the women of this city present an extremely well-groomed and well-dressed front and when the "New Look" won they calmly accepted the fact and proceeded to wear it in a somewhat modified way. This brought out something new in fashion shows — comparison with the Gay Nineties showing that it was really an "old look" after all. Costumes 100 years old, and up to the "Gibson Girl" era, then into that short and vulgar stage of the 1920's were modelled and convinced all, except the men whose pocketbooks were affected, that the longer skirts and frills and flounces of 1948 spring styles were becoming.

Another crisis in the Fall, the Hydro shortage. Again the women were appealed to and they co-operated magnificently. By turning off all unnecessary lights and cutting down on their consumption of electricity in the household, they help city officials keep things under control without resorting to "blackouts."

Many Weddings

There were, as always, weddings galore and very lovely ones too. More brides chose the glamour of candlelight ceremonies. The number of bridal attendants varied up to five with two making the rule in the church weddings. A total of 488 was recorded in the city in 1948. July was the peak month with June and September following.

Yes, it was indeed a good year for the women of Peterborough and a year of interest too. Just have a look-see at what went on.

Dutch Teen Life Interesting

Life of the teen-age boys and girls in Holland during German occupation was most interesting to Friday Night Supper Club members when told by their guest speaker Miss N. Schell in the YW last evening. "We were not allowed to have radios "so we hid them in the ceiling of cupboards she said. "Every Saturday night I would listen to the BBC and would relay what I heard to those whom I was sure were on the Allied side." An amusing fact she noticed was that the Germans were often heard whistling tunes that had been in such broadcasts. Miss Amy Curtis introduced Miss Schell, formerly of Holland, and she was thanked by Miss Betty Scollard. Next week's meeting will be a box lunch supper. The club plans to hold a dance on February 4.

Soroptimist Club and Golden Mile Club unite for Christmas party at home of Dr. Agnes K. Moffatt.

Former Europeans assist YWCA club members in annual "Hanging of the Greens".

Kawartha Police Association holds dance at Club Aragon with about 200 attending.

Firemen assist board and staff members of the Children's Aid Society in bringing Christmas to children at Shelter and in foster homes. Children of St. Vincent's Orphanage are also guests when Santa Claus arrives.

Staff parties, celebrating the Christmas season, are the order of the day in all stores, factories, clubs and organizations. Santa Claus appearances are arranged for children of employees. Christmas vacation extend from Friday afternoon till Monday morning. Many families have turkeys sent inas gifts from employer-management.

City is full of college students home for the vacation. Many homes are filled with party goers prior to the PCVS "At Home", most anticipated formal event of the year, as young hostesses entertain at coffee parties on 28th, and again on 30th, night of the Friday Night Supper Club's "Holly Hop".

Patrons of annual Firemen's Ball at Club Aragon report it the most enjoyable ever held, with crowd limited to 700 giving plenty of room for dancing.

Big doings eveywhere New Year's eve. Extensive preparations at the Armouries for officers and friends to enjoy a cabaret style setting and wonderful food. This and all dancing floors in the city have good crowds to greet 1949 in spite of heavy snow that made driving hazardous. A good many house party celebrations kept others up till morning, and the theatres were offering splendid entertainment at their midnight shows.

And now another year has started—one week gone by in which the women have been taking stock and making plans for a busy season.

Can they top a year like this?

30 Student Nurses Capped Each Given Gideon Bible

A story suitable to the occasion of the "capping" of preliminary students at the Civic Hospital School of Nursing, held a large audience spellbound Friday evening in the YWCA Green Room. Mrs. C. S. Thompson unwound the delightful experiences of a little boy who came to realize the difference between being busy and hurried. Thoughts flew to the comparison of full schedule completed by nurses each day, and yet they have time for social activities and arranging public events.

Capping ceremonies are not the rule in hospitals and have only been held by Civic Hospital for the past five years. It is felt it adds a certain dignity to first milestone of a long training period and gives the nurse something to remember. Caps were "pinned on" by Miss A. L. Thomson, principal of the School of Nursing, assisted by Miss E. Fenwick, science instructor, and Miss M. Pickens, nursing arts instructor.

Thirty girls are enrolled in the class and an unusually large number come from Peterborough homes. They are: Misses Betty May Allen, Barbara Helen Carter, Mary Jane Collins, Anita Marie Davis, Barbara Marie Deyell, Wilma June Deyell, Shirley Evelyn Gordon, Norma Mae Northey, Beverley Jeanne Pringle, Margaret Joan Smith, Margaret Mary Smith.

Students from out-of-town are: Misses Mary Ann Ashmore, Lindsay; Betty Maxine Barr, Warsaw; Esther Carol Borland, Indian River; Jean Alice Bulmer, Beryl Lorraine Christy, both of Wellington; Lillian Jean Coones, Lakehurst; Marigold Robena Elmhirst, Indian River; Dorothy Elizabeth Jackson, Bailieboro; June Luffman, Bowmanville; Marie Pauline Pengelley, Bailieboro; Betty Joan Ranson, Mimico; Norma Evelyn Robinson, Madoc; Bernice Lorraine Scott, Norwood; Joan Shier, Lindsay; Betty Louise Strebe, Trenton; Evelyn Grace Taylor, Enniskillen; Mary Eleanor Trumpour, Picton; Patricia Margaret Weston, Frankford; Stella Irene Wilkinson, Oakwood.

Greetings to the students were extended by Mr. John Hornal, superintendent of the hospital, who was a splendid chairman for the occasion. A welcome to the Students' Council was given by Miss V. Fallis, president.

Gideon Society, represented by Mrs. G. Reader, president, and Mrs. H. C. Pulleyblank, vice-president, made presentations of small white testaments to each student receiving her cap. Each is inscribed with the nurse's name and the year and contains the Florence Nightingale pledge, beautifully printed on the front pages. These handsomely bound books will be treasured by the girls, particularly since they are in the first class to receive the gift.

Mrs. Alicia Perry, social director for the students, contributed a solo with piano accompaniment by Mrs. A. F. Clark. She also directed group singing by the Clas of 1951 which included the very amusing class song of their own composition.

Miss Stella Wilkinson, leading student of the class, gave a splendid valedictory address in which she told what the training of the next three years will mean to the students, and gave a brief resume of what has happened for class members since enrolment several months ago.

Platform guests present included Dr. S. Y. Walsh, vice-chairman of the medical staff, Mrs. Ross Williamson, president of the Women's Auxiliary, and Mrs. M. Pringle, president of Civic Hospital Alumnae Association.

Archdeacon Marsh, Aklavik Fears for Eskimo Charges

Concern for the future of 8,000 Eskimos scattered over one and a half million square miles of Canada's northland was expressed Friday by Venerable Archdeacon D. B. Marsh, of All Saints Cathedral, Aklavik, N.W.T. He spoke to an exceptionally large crowd of Women's Art Association members and friends in the YWCA Green Room. His description of the Arctic and its inhabitants was illustrated with immensely enlightening colored projections of many of his famous picture shots.

A deep love for the Eskimo was evident in Archdeacon Marsh's remarks. It is the push of civilization into that territory which he fears for them. "Part of it's effect on them has already been shown," he said. "When I went to Aklavik I left the area of a primitive group of Eskimo who continually lied and stole. In my new surroundings I found people who had been taught by missionaries and had believed every word they heard."

"You could leave your tools or any object anywhere. It would remain just where it was untouched for it was yours." That was the effect of Christianity on these people. Archdeacon Marsh was careful to show the difference between Christianity and Civilization. "Surge of the white man into North West Territory and defence preparations is making great changes for the Eskimo. Lying and stealing are again becoming his habit and soon you will have to lock doors."

At Aklavik there were about 200 white residents the Archdeacon said, augmented by approximately 600 Eskimo and 400 Indians in the spring. The radio station was owned by the people and used by them whenever needed as a sort of telephone exchange. The streets were lighted from the power plant where Hydro shortages are not experienced and there are board sidewalks in the village. Movies, juke boxes and such marks of civilization are in use.

Twenty-two years in the North has given Archdeacon Marsh a thorough knowledge of the Eskimo. "I wish we could live as he does," he said. "They go through life happily, not looking for what they will get out of it, but getting pleasure from ability to give to others. Everything is done as a group. When one man catches a seal, he divides it up and sends a piece to each family in the village, keeping the smallest piece for himself, for he has the honor of giving." The speaker refuted a popular belief that Eskimo kill off their old people. "It is a heroic gesture and the basis of Eskimo living that the young shall be preserved," he said. When catches of fish are very poor and famine continues, the old people go off by themselves to die and this is considered the thing to do.

Food is the determining factor in the Arctic as to where a man lives and accounts for the varied distances between settlements. The Eskimo fights for his living day by day, standing over a hole in the ice for days sometimes without making a catch. Yet he happily returns to his igloo each night, facing no supper. Their one industry is catching muskrats and with the high prices they have been getting, they have had quite a supply of money. They are now receiving the Family Allowance which has raised their scale of living, since it amounts to three times what an Eskimo could earn. He is now rapidly losing his ability to hunt and the Archdeacon worries about what will happen if it again becomes necessary for him to live by this means.

"God is a reality to these people of the North, just as life is a reality," the speaker explained. They take a keen interest in the church and read their Bible regularly each day. Two Sunday services are broadcast to them from Aklavik Cathedral, one in English, the other in Eskimo. The Archdeacon was assisted by a competent Eskimo layman.

Pictures showed the truly magnificent sunsets of the northland, the vast expanses of ice and flat country that appears as one except during the very short summer. The hospital at Aklavik has been built to accommodate 36 patients but is constantly housing and caring for 58. The endeavour to stamp out tuberculosis among the Eskimo is requring an average of 1,000 X-ray pictures a year. A residential school for the children is full of happy well-cared for young people, willing to learn. In the church there is an active Women's Association and their time is spent making articles from cariboo skins, warmest and most durable material in existence.

Mrs. N. D. Seaton, president, expressed the appreciation of members who exhibited much keenness and interest in the Arctic and the Eskimo.

Clark Spalding, brewer and distiller, probably opposite Canada Packers. A tall chimney of stone was the last relic of that industry. It is altogether likely that Spalding's Bay, on the south side of Townsend St., near George St., took its name from this maker of beer and whiskey. Most of it was filled years ago with ashes and factory waste and sawdust, leaving only the creek course into Little Lake.

Probably it will be understood that the needs of the public were supplied mainly by manual work, as indicated by the many tailors, boot and shoemakers, harness and saddlery shops, machinists and blacksmiths and so on.

UZHGOROD, Transcarpathia, Jan. 8 — (Reuters) — Seven Ukrainians, recently returned from Canada, are reported by Tass, official Russian news agency, to have advised friends still in Canada to "return home." 500 Boys Taught meant that about sixty players used the lacrosse box. In the afternoon the attendance varied with the weather. Four evenings a week there were three games a night.

At the end of the season when Ontario playdowns were close an all star team was chosen from the Peewee teams. This team was coached by Don Smith and managed by Walter Murphy. In the first round of the playoffs the boys defeated the Fergus team, but lost a close one to the St. Catharines Peewees.

Money to run the Minor Lacross League was received from four sources. The Recreational Committee gave a donation. The hotels, stores and service clubs backed the league. A good percentage of the necessary funds was obtained from a bingo held by the Lions Club for the development of lacrosse in the city. The largest amount came from the senior club which gave five per cent of its gate receipts.

Lacrosse once a game believed dead has been revived in the city to the point where Peterborough is on the map again as the lacrosse centre which it was years ago.

"Our aim is to not only make lacrosse players of the 500 youngsters but to make them better citizens," said President Ken Kingston, Peterborough Minor Lacrosse Association.

Already plans for next year are under way. The committee in charge are Walter Murphy, John Cooper and Ken Kingston.

Three problems exist for the next year's executive, the lack of sponsors, loans or grants from civic sports bodies and a service club to assist them in holding a bingo as last year.

Much of the credit for the highly successful year the Association had last year is due to Walter Murphy, Vert Reynolds, John Cooper and Ken Kingston.

Remember When—

Syl Apps drew attention of big-league hockey scouts when he scored nine points—three goals and three assists—as Hamilton Tigers downed Oakville 10-2 in a senior hockey game at Toronto 12 years ago today. He turned pro with Toronto Maple Leafs the following season, and won the Calder Trophy as the outstanding rookie. He retired last year.

LOS ANGELES—George Randolph Hearst, 43, eldest son of Publisher William Randolph Hearst, sued for divorce or annulment of his third marriage, to Mrs. Sally Alvarez Kirkham Hearst, 38. Hearst's complaint charges cruelty.

NICOSIA, CYPRUS—A finely wrought idol believed to represent Baal, god of the ancient Syro-Phenician nations, has been unearthed at Engomi, near Famagusta. French and Cyprus archeologists found it in the ruins of a building, perhaps a temple, built 3,200 or more years ago.

Here And There In Sports . . .

By The Canadian Press

Left winger Sid Smith of Pittsburgh Hornets will be brought up to the parent Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey League for one game tthis week-end, coach Hap Day announced Friday night at Toronto.

Day said Smith will be used Sunday night against Detroit Red Wings and will return to Pittsburgh after the game.

Trial at Detroit of Grant Warwick, Boston Bruin hockey player on charges assaulting a fan, Friday was adjourned until Feb. 21. That is the next date at which the National Hockey League team will be in Detroit.

Recorder's Judge Paul E. Krause granted the delay after both sides expressed hope that "a peaceful settlement can be worked out in a short time."

Norman Kalley of Detroit, claimed that Warwick poked him with a hockey stick as he razzed the player during a game here with Detroit Red Wings.

Plans are well under way for the second annual Canadian National Sportsmen's Show to be held in Toronto March 18-26, F. H. Kortright, president of the sponsoring Toronto Anglers' and Hunters' Association, said Friday. Exhibition features will be a boat show, a sportsmen's international competition and exhibition of outdoor photography, a fashion revue, three one-day dog shows, obedience trials, a cat show and a conservation show.

Harold Bailey, secretary of the Ontario Rugby Football Union, said Friday he had received no application from the Intermediate Cobourg Galloping Ghosts for entry into the ORFU senior series.

Club officials earlier Friday said they felt the Ghosts—perennial ORFU intermediate champions and twice winners of the Dominion intermediate crown—should be considered as a possible entry into the ORFU senior series.

Michael J. (Mike) Costello, 64, one of the best known sports figures in Boston for the last 20 years, died at his home Friday. He was employed in the public relations department of Boston Bruins of the National Hockey League, Boston Braves Baseball Club, Suffolk Downs horse race track, the Boston Football Yanks and Harvard College.

Pitcher Floyd (Bill) Bevens, loser of a one-hitter in the 1947 world series, was sold conditionally Friday to Chicago White Sox by New York Yankees. The Sox have until opening day to make up their minds on Bevens. Bevens, 31, was troubled with a sore shoulder during the 1948 season and pitched only eight innings after he was optioned to Newark of the International League in mid-season.

Warsaw Clips Westwood 3-1

NORWOOD, Jan. 8.—(ENS).—Warsaw on Friday night handed Westwood a 3-1 defeat in their second game of the Rural League played in Norwood Arena.

The Norwood team won their victory the hard way by conceding a goal to Westwood in the first period and then in the final period scoring three goals themselves within 11 minutes.

Bill Thompson fired the only Westwood marker at the 10-minute mark in the first period after taking a pass from Starke.

Don Sharpe was the sparkplug for the Warsaw team, scoring a goal and getting an assist. His goal was a bullet drive that was fired from centre ice and completely fooled Renwick guarding the Westwood net.

Line-up:

Warsaw —Goal, Petterson; defence, S. McQuaig and L. Shortt; centre, G. Payne; wings, D. Evans and E. Darling; alternates, D. Sharpe, Joe Watts, I. Watts, R. Payne, B. Judge, W. Tedford and V. Clement.

Teepees Drop St. Mike's 6-1 As Dutchmen Whip Marlies

By The Canadian Press

The Ontario Hockey Association Junior A race is shaping up to a touch-and-go battle.

Barrie Flyers and Windsor Spitfires, who swept aside everything in early season play, now are threatened by at least three other squads.

Friday night St. Catharines Teepees boosted their total to 37 points by defeating Toronto St. Michael's College 6-1 in a four-point tilt. The Teepees are three points behind the leading Flyers.

In other Junior games, Guelph Biltmores downed the Spitfires 7-5 and Toronto Marlboros beat Stratford Kroehlers 7-5 in overtime play. The fifth-place Kroehlers have 31 points, while the idle Oshawa Generals remained in fourth place with 35.

In the Senior A circuit last night, Kitchener-Waterloo Flying Dutchmen defeated Toronto Marlboros 6-1 and Hamilton Tigers bested the last-place Stratford Indians 4-0.

The Teepees battled to a 1-1 deadlock in the first period, took a 3-1 edge at the end of the second and then outscored the Irish 3-0 in the last period. The loss left Toronto in eighth place of the nine-team loop.

Marcel Clements scored twice for St. Catharines while single markers were earned by Fred Hildebrand, Jack McIntyre, Bud Evans and Bill Buschlen. Gord Hannagan scored for St. Michael's.

4th Victory

Paced by George Armstrong with three goals, the Dukes chalked up their fourth straight victory as they split two goals in each of the three periods and then counted two in overtime play.

Don Windley, Bob Hassard, Moe Galand and John McKennell were other Toronto scorers. Stratford marksmen were Doug French with two and Dinny Flanagan, Joe Bragagnolo and Danny Lewicki with one each.

Icing only 10 players, Stratford appeared to have the Indian sign on Hamilton in the first and third periods but fell back in the second and when the Tigers scored all their goals. Stratford netminder Bruce Dale was a standout as he stopped a barrage of shots.

Carl Smelle, Hal Cooper, Robinson and Liscombe accounted for Hamilton goals.

Wants Young Students Stopped Leaving School To Play Hockey

By JACK SULLIVAN

OTTAWA, Jan. 8.—(CP.)—The question "what is wrong with Canadian amateur sport and what to do about it?" was down for last-minute consideration today as delegates from Canada's sports-governing associations started on the last lap of their two-day talk-fest. Submission of reports and "new business" fills out the agenda.

Some delegates favor a meeting at least once a year.

"We should meet at least once a year to discuss our common problems," A. Sidney Dawes of Montreal, president of the Canadian Olympic Association, said in an interview. Others held the same view.

The meeting so far has been mild, punctuated only by two short verbal outbursts and deletion of two points on the 10-point agenda prepared by the Fitness Council. One, asking if there should be a Canadian definition of an amateur, was thrown out after Roy Ashworth of Montreal, president of the Canadian Amateur Swimming Association, declared it was "contentious."

This point was the most feud-provoking on the agenda and its deletion took a lot of the sting out of the conference.

Friday's meeting started off with a noise when Ashworth moved that the whole agenda be wiped out and submitted by one he had prepared. It was the biggest surprise of the day and an amendment asking that the agenda be adopted with any necessary revision was hurriedly introduced and passed.

Discuss Transportation

Points discussed included special transportation rates for athletes, Canada's position in future international competition, provision of qualified coaches and officials for the training of youngsters and subsidizing amateur sports from public funds.

The last drew opposition from many delegates, who feared government grants to sports-governing bodies would result in the government taking over. They favored, however, grants to provide recreation facilities for athletes.

One problem, dealing with the question of school students dropping their studies to join teams outside interscholastic leagues, was referred to four organizations for study—the National Hockey League, Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, Canadian Secondary Schools Association and the Canadian Education Committee.

The question, with particular reference to students giving up studies to play professional hockey of Junior "A" in the Ontario Hockey Association, was brought up by J. L. Murray, principal of Kingston Collegiate.

119 Play Hockey

He said a survey of 50 Ontario schools, taken since 1947, showed that 119 boys of 16, 17 and 18 years of age had gone from schools to play hockey. "I think this is an evil which has grown without the governing bodies realizing the result."

He called "for drastic and immediate action." Clarence Campbell of Montreal, president of the NHL, said he would be "happy" to discuss the "whole problem if sound statistical information is available."

Campbell said there was a "frightful scarcity of hockey players the last two or three years. Some boys who had gone to professional leagues would not ordinarily be called up."

In his remarks, Murray said youngsters have been "taken away from home to another centre and away from parental control for try-out periods with NHL or OHA teams. These are held in October and if the youngsters don't make the grade, they return to school late in the term and their studies are retarded."

Late Art Pagett

years grants have been received from the Recreation Commission. The Legion has sponsored the juvenile club ever since it started in the PMHA. Raffles and minstrel shows have been held.

Peewee and bantam league games used to be played on the old Lundy's Lane rink until last year when Turner Park rink was opened. The Salvation Army Temple has been used as a hall for meetings and shows. Now that Turner Park is officially opened the hut there will probably be used as club headquarters.

Besides the financing of the club by the ways mentioned before each member pays a fee to belong to the club. At the beginning of the club the fee was 25 cents a month but now it is only a dollar a year.

Three men, the late Art Pagett, Frank Lundy and George Masters are mainly responsible for the success of the club. Mr. Pagett was a great man to get things for the boys. He got the club to take boys to the YMCA for gym and a swim. He was a topnotch organizer and manager. Mr. Pagett always wanted a winning, sportsman-like team but was a good loser. He not only encouraged his own players when the chips were down but tried to show others there were people with worse troubles than they had themselves. Mr. Lundy is a firm believer in clean sports. He likes hockey and baseball. Last winter he was chairman of the hockey committees and this year is president of the club. Mr. Masters was president of the club for the first three years it was formed. This year he is on the executive of the Trojan club.

Results of the club's efforts to make good hockey players can be seen in the roster of the IOOF Junior "B" hockey club. The one line of Collins, Pagett and Floyd consists of Trojan club graduates. Byers, Anderson, O'Heron and many others have benefitted from the help given by the Trojan Athletic Club.

1,000 Parishioners

He thinks Aklavik is not too bad a place to work in if it does not get more crowded. His parishioners on the Mackenzie Delta number about 1,000, of which 200 are whites, 200 Louchaux Indians and the rest Eskimos. Since September, Mr. Marsh and his family have been living in Ontario where he is busy handling the affairs as Archdeacon of Bishop Archibald Fleming, Bishop of the Arctic, who is ill.

We must not fail to mention the splendid water colors that Mrs. Marsh has done of the Arctic. A year ago hundreds of Peterborough people enjoyed a large display at the Public Library. They are possibly among the finest Arctic records in water colors. Mr. Marsh's photos of Eskimo life are world famous. They have been published in many of the better class magazines in Canada and the United States as well as on Church of England literature.

We were reluctant to bid farewell to "The Little One Who Peers," for so the natives have named him. We inquired whether his curiosity among them prompted them to give him such a name but it was not so. The Churchill Eskimos gave the late Bishop Lofthouse this title when they first saw him peering closely at some writing as someone passed by his study window. Mr. Marsh, being his successor, fell heir to the title automatically. It is an odd name to be sure but much easier to pronounce than the Eskimo derivative, Ikshagayooutnak. It takes the Archdeacon to pronounce that one.

The Thrill That Comes Once in a Lifetime —By H. T. Webster

Britain Regrets Resignation Of Gen. Marshall

LONDON, Jan. 8. —(AP). — Western European leaders Friday expressed regret at the retirement of State Secretary Marshall of the United States and promised co-operation with his successor, Dean Acheson.

Foreign Secretary Bevin of Britain said Marshall "may be assured we shall not rest" until the European recovery program —known as the Marshall plan—is "brought to complete fruition."

Bevin added in an official statement that Acheson "is no stranger to use and he, too, may be assured of our continued co-operation." Of Marshall, Bevin said "This great American, who did as much as any one man to win the war, has since devoted his whole efforts to restoring the wrecked economy of Europe and to establishing firm foundations for world peace."

He referred to Marshall as "one of the great United States Secretaries of State."

High British government officials privately said Acheson was considered a "friend of Britain."

Western Europe generally received the news of United States State Department changes with the hope that there would be no fundamental shift in American foreign policy.

French officials said they regretted Marshall's illness. They expressed surprise that W. Averell Harriman, roving ambassador for the E.R.P. or Chief Justice Fred Vinson of the United States Supreme Court had not been appointed to succeed him.

Italian Premier Alcide de Gasperi said Marshall's resignation will have no effect on the carrying out of present policies. De Gasperi said he remembered well the "friendliness and good will toward Italy" shown by Acheson in the past.

The Soviet-sponsored radio Berlin had "no comment" on the changes, but there was regret in western Germany at the departure of Marshall.

REGINA, Jan. 8—(CP) — The Saskatchewan government Friday night announced a settlement in the Estevan-Bienfait coal strike and the setting up of a Royal Commission to investigate the provincial coal industry. Pasture Demonstration Lot Located Near Brighton

PASTURE DEMONSTRATION

Demonstration pasture lots near the roadside on the farms of Gordon McGee, Brighton, and A. T. Sirett, Cobourg, are easily accessible to Northumberland farmers for their observation of growth progress next year.

Ralph Banbury, Brighton, agricultural representative, writes that Ontario had very little grass when first settled. None of the farm pasture crops of today were native. Swamp and beaver meadow grasses are not palatable and are of little use in a farm program.

In the early days, blue grasses were imported, and spread rapidly until they became known as natural pastures. They were Kentucky blue or June grass, and Canadian blue or wire grass. Both grow well in the spring, but serve dairy needs for too short a period.

"About 10 years ago OAC and commercial organizations of European experience began distribution of mixtures. Test fields were seeded in many townships with satisfactory results. Probably half the farms today have some long term pasture mixture seeded. The seed can be sowed in the ordinary way with a nurse crop of oats, preferably seeded at a bushel an acre, but if immediate pasture is desired it can be obtained by the use of perennial rye grass which grows rapidly, and may make fair pasturage six weeks after seeding.

In choice of mixtures alfalfa is recommended because of its deep root system and excellent growth in dry periods. White Dutch clover has been known for years as it frequently volunteers in old pastures, but the improved Ladino was known by most farmers until its introduction in a general way five or six years ago.

Timothy is a cheap insurance crop and a few pounds are always put in the mixture. Orchard grass is a much better second growth grass. Brome does well on high dry land. Meadow fescue is a good general grass recommended for this mixture. Up to 26 pounds per acre is recommended for this mixture. Up to 26 pounds per acre is recommended for these long-term pastures, but half the amount has been used satisfactorily where the farmer made a special effort to prepare a fine seed bed and get the mixture distributed evenly on top.

It is recommended that livestock be rotated by having the field in three parts, and that coarser material left by the stock be mowed off so that it cannot come in head. Barn yard manure in the fall and commercial fertilizer in the spring give excellent results with this crop.

Many farmers have been amazed at the carrying capacity when they find more feed on one acre than on ten of the old pastures. It is usually necessary to drill the seed mixture through the grain box, set at between three and four pecks of wheat, but the extra trip over the field does not amount to much effort when the seeding lasts five to ten years.

The next move in progress is to get more grass from our hay fields during the dry summer months. Hay is nearly all made on the well managed farm by the middle of July, and the aftermath it the best answer to the need of the dry month of August.

Fewer people seem interested in farming as a way of life and it only by increased production by the food farmer that the world can be fed. Pasture will play a part in the picture."

FARMERS AND THE PRESS

Prices of milk and other farm products are often given headlines in the daily press which at the same time virtually ignores the prices of other commodities.

This was a grievance of various groups of farmers in their reported summaries of discussions of the Radio Forum subject, "I See By The Paper."

"The daily paper can serve us better by not enlarging more on the price of butter and milk than on the price of men's overalls," was the considered comment of De Cew Falls forum in Welland County.

Trent River forum, Peterborough: "From the farmer's viewpoint, news in the daily is biased; the paper uses propaganda to try to persuade farmers to produce high quality goods at low prices. It seems to be influenced by advertisers when it seldom refers to high prices or poor quality of most manufactured goods the farmers buy. It isn't fair to the farmer when it writes so much about the high price of milk, for example, but seldom mentions the high cause—high wages and short hours of labor, or unnecessary overlapping of milk routes."

Westfield forum in Huron and Beaconsfield in Oxford, quoting a Toronto daily, objected that too much newspaper reference to farm costs and prices was misinformed. The Toronto press suggestion was: "Farmers should take less for their milk in the summer because the feeding costs of cows in the summer are nil."

Forums ask: "Why can't reporters be surer of the facts?" This complaint was repeated in forum summaries.

Musical Drama On Lucretia Well Received

By PAT USSHER.

NEW YORK, Jan. 8 — (CP).— A profoundly moving experience awaits theatregoers who see "The Rape of Lucretia," a musical drama set to the music of Benjamin Britten, brilliant young English composer.

There is a sombre dignity to this production at the Ziegfeld Theatre, beautifully staged by Agnes de Mille. The book, a story of human passion and human weakness, is by poet Ronald Duncan and the sets and costumes, which fit the mood of the opera admirably, are by painter John Piper. Both of them are Britons.

The setting is Rome in 509 BC. And the story that of the rape of the chaste Roman matron Lucretia by the impulsive Etruscan Prince Tarquinius. A male chorus and a female chorus help to interpret the action to the audience and at times reflect the thoughts of the characers hemselves.

Excellenly Sung

Kitty Carlisle brings dignity, poise and a fine voice to the role of Lucretia, whose suicide is the climactic moment of the drama. Donald Clarke is excellent as the male chorus and Patricia Neway handles the female chorus well. Adelaide Bishop, who has sung in opera in Toronto, is commendably flightly as Lucretia's maid. The singing throughout is of a high standard.

Kate Takes 5em

"Miss Me, Kate" already has been reviewed elsewhere. Suffic it to say that it is the best musical comedy to hit the town in several years. The book by Bella and Samuel Spewack is adroitly woven around the plot of Shakespeare's "The Taming of the Shrew" and Cole Porter's songs are lively and tuneful.

Sound Effects

A new technique for sound effects in films was demonstrated here this week by Norman McLaren, young Canadian film director. He has been experimenting with production of synthetic sound by inscribing patterns directly on the sound track of motion picture film and by photographing combidations of these patterns for repeated use. At a program of music and films presented by the League of Composers at the Museum of Modern Art, McLaren illustrated his method with a series of National Film Board of Canada productions which he directed. The program also included the National Film Board's documentary of China, "The People Between," with a poignant score by Lou Applebaum, young Canadian composer.

Dr. Joseph Holdcroft Dies Served Havelock 50 Years

HAVELOCK, Jan. 10—(ENS).—After fifty years' service to Havelock and district as physician and surgeon, Dr. Joseph Holdcroft, 82, died on Sunday in the Civic Hospital, Peterborough, following an emergency operation.

The part of his medical career for which Dr. Holdcroft won fame, was the pioneer work he did in appendectomies. At the time of the century, when the world knew little about appendicitus, Dr. Holdcroft was performing this type of operation, successfully and unassisted, in the homes of the patients. Before coming to Havelock in 1898 he had successfully performed 125 of the operations and continued to carry on the pioneer work in this district even before it was being done in Peterborough city.

He began his medical career at the Royal Medical School, Kingston, and later at Queen's University. He held four degrees from Queen's University, Trinity College, Toronto; Ontario Medical College, and Quebec Medical Council. His first practice was in Inverness, Quebec, where he met his wife, formerly Beatrice Rowe, daughter of an Anglican clergyman. From there he moved to Merrickville, and came to Havelock on February 18, 1898.

The doctor had had a hankering for surgery long before he reached manhood. As soon as he had qualified he practised at Inverness, Quebec, and then bought a practice 12 miles east of Smiths Falls at Merrickville. Here, he felt, was the place for a young surgeon to prove his ambitions in a country practice. Medical "bigwigs" were located in Ottawa, Brockville and Montreal and he proved his theories of country surgery by performing his first 125 apendectomies successfully. He spent over six years furthering his skill until he decided to move to Havelock and settle down.

Here he has served five generations as family physician, surgeon and friend, often enduring

Call Meeting Without Consent

TORONTO, Jan. 10 (CP) — The six-man board of deacons of Jarvis Street Baptist church may call a congregational meeting without the consent of its pastor, Dr. T. T. Shields, to discuss his recent criticisms of Toronto Baptist Seminary.

This was made known by one of the deacons who said: "Normally the congregational meetings are called by the Board of Deacons with the pastor's consent. But Dr. Shields has not consented to a meeting in the last two years."

The development followed a sermon Sunday in which Dr. Shields said that "anyone who disagrees with my conduct or the conduct of this church is free to worship elsewhere."

Last month Dr. Shields engaged in a dispute with Rev. W. Gordon Brown, Dean of the Seminary, and as a result 87 students for the ministry followed Dean Brown who established a new Seminary free from control by Dr. Shields and Jarvis Street church. The deacon said the meeting would not be called until after Dr. Shields issues a report, due Wednesday, on the Seminary dispute.

Gen. Simonds To Command Two Colleges

Will Return Home During Summer By Way Of Far East

OTTAWA, Jan. 10.—(CP). — Lt.-Gen. G. G. Simmonds will return from Britain this summer and take over command of the Army's Staff College and the National Defence College, both at Kingston, the Defence Department said today.

He has been chief instructor at the Imperial Defence College in Britain for the past two years after a war record which included commands of units from the regiments to an army and which caused many observers to consider him the most brilliant soldier the country produced.

He has long been considered a logical candidate for the post of Army Chief of Staff.

At Kingston, he will succeed British Maj.-Gen. J. F. M. Whiteley who came here two years ago under a two-man shuffle.

Invaluable Training

In London recently, Gen. Simonds said he planned to return via the Far East this summer and said his two years in post-war England had been "invaluable."

Because the 44-year-old General commanded the 2nd Corps and substituted for an ailing Gen. Crerar as Army Commander for some time in the Second World War, his future has always been one of the more controversial problems for Canada's smal post-war army.

At one time he was reported slated for transfer to the British army to get more room for his talents. However, this never came to pass and his return to Canada now may put him in a position for an eventual jump to the post of Chief of Staff.

That job has been held for several years by Lt.-Gen. Charles Foulkes, himself a Corps Commander in the recent war.

Clay's Report Warns Danger In Strasser Party Revival

BERLIN, Jan. 10.—(AP).—Gen. Lucius D. Clay said today the failure of Russian tactics in trying to swing the population of Berlin to Communism "must be apparent even to the Soviet Government."

The United States military governor assessed the results of last month's Berlin elections in his monthly report on occupation affairs.

The report recorded two other setbacks for Communism in western Germany—in British occupation zone elections and in trade union affairs.

But it contained two cautioning notes: That German Nationalism is developing anew in western Germany and that German authorities in the United States occupation zone are making unwarranted complaints about costs of the occupation.

Clay warned that "Nationalistic groups, which had been driven underground in Germany since the overthrow of National Socialism, are again beginning to lift their heads."

Two such groups held meetings recently in the United States zone. Clay said: "Although these groups are as yet small, democratic German leaders recall with uneasiness that, until 1929, National Socialism itself was a negligible movement."

The report named the groups as Otto Strasser's "infamous Black Front" an dthe National Democratic party.

"Otto Strasser, now living in Canada, is reported planning to return to Germany in March," the report said, adding that his followers met at Freidberg, in the American zone, state of Hesse.

The report said Strasser's group was being rebuilt under "the seemingly inocuous name of League for German Revival."

The report added Strasser was a Nazi leader expelled from the party in 1930 because he took its "socialistic plans too seriously," he then formed the Black Front. He went into exile after 1933.

LT.-GEN. GUY SIMONDS has been appointed to take command of the army's staff college and the National Defence College, both at Kingston. He will return from Britain in the summer.

Red Troops Say Suchow Army Now Wiped Out

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 10 — (AP).—The Chinese Communist radio today said that all government troops encircled south of Suchow "were completely wiped out by 10 o'clock this morning."

Last reports from Nationalist sources estimated the troops under Gen. Tu Li-Ming at between 150,000 and 250,000 men. Red estimates a few hours ago cut the size of the force down to 130,000 troops.

The broadcast was heard by The Associated Press in San Francisco.

Join Peace Debate

NANKING, Jan. 10 — (AP). — Chinese legislators still in the capital today joined the peace debate at an informal meeting in which several Kuomintang (Government) party members demanded immediate end of the Chinese civil war.

The meeting was held as unofficial but unusually reliable sources reported the Nationalists had asked for big-four mediation of the war.

Liu Pu-Tung, whose proposals for an end to the civil war more than a month ago won him the title of "peacemonger," demanded that members of the Legislature go to Yenan and Manchuria to talk directly to the Communists.

Meanwhile the Foreign Office remained silent on its reported request to the Big Four for their help in ending the war.

There is every indication here, however, that none of the Big Four is interested in a one-sided invitation to mediate, and one diplomat predicted a negative answer would be heard from all four capitals concerned.

Unofficial but usually correct sources say that Britain, the United States, France and Russia have been asked to seek a settlement of the three-year-old war, which the Nationalists have been losing to the Communists.

Some sort of diplomatic move was in the wind, observers said. Ambassadors from the Big Four powers were called to the foreign office late Saturday afternoon. The Russian ambassador, who is ill, was reached later, these sources said.

Spencer Moosa, Associated Press correspondent in Peiping, writing through a wall of military censorship, predicted both Peiping and Tientsin would be in the hands of the Communists within a week or less. He intimated a deal was in the making between the Nationalists and Communists in those two cities.

Will Divert Highway To By-Pass Belleville

TORONTO, Jan. 10 (CP)—Requested by a Belleville district delegation, a diversion of No. Two highway so that heavy traffic may by-pass the city is included in plans of the Ontario Highway Department for the new four-lane highway to the Quebec boundary, Highways Minister Doucett announced today.

The minister said, however, completion of the highway is "something in the far future." He said the Belleville situation will be met by a diversion at Trenton Junction when the new road will angle in a northeasterly direction to Glen Miller, Then easterly in a straight line. It will pass north of Belleville.

Jet Squadron May Be Sent Guard Border

US Wants London To Forget Regrettable Incident

LONDON, Jan. 10 (AP)—Key British cabinet members and defence chiefs today heard Foreign Secretary Bevin give a detailed report on Mideast crisis stemming from Israel's action in shooting down five RAF planes.

The session was called by Prime Minister Attlee, presumably to consider Britain's next move and perhaps determine how far she will go in strengthening land, sea and air bases in that part of the world.

Britain appeared to be massing strength behind her Arab allies as she concentrated warships and troops in the tense Mediterranean area.

The move came on the heels of Britain's "strong protest" to Israel against the shooting down of five RAF planes Friday.

Some London newspapers speculated that the R.A.F. may order at least one squadron of jet fighters to strengthen Britain's air patrol of the Egyptian border.

The Liberal News Chronicle, which did not carry such speculation, says expert observers just returned to Britain estimate that the Jews have greater air strength than the R.A.F. in the Middle East.

Britain's protest was contained in a brief memorandum handed to a representative of the Israeli foreign office at Haifa by Cyril Marriott, British Consul-General.

The protest stated that Britain reserves all her rights "both with regards to claims for compensation and to all possible subsequent action."

Reject Protest

A Tel Aviv dispatch said the Israeli representative refused to accept the British protest because it was addressed to "Jewish authorities in Tel Aviv" and not to the provisional government of Israel.

It was the second such Israeli refusal in two days. The first was by the Israeli delegation to the UN Security Council in New York for the same reason. Britain does not recognize the State of Israel.

If the British government wants the protest to reach Tel Aviv it now may be required to transmit it through a third power—such as the United States or Russia—which has diplomatic relations with both Britain and Israel.

Call In U.N.

Government sources said it is probable Britain's next step will be a strong demand that the U.N. Security Council insist that Jewish troops keep within Israel's boundaries and that Israel pay for the loss of planes and pilots.

If she fails to get effective Security Council action Britain was reported by one government source as ready to take definite measures of her own to bulwark the Arab states against possible territorial encroachment by Israel.

Manufacturing Biggest Industry

OTTAWA, Jan. 10 — (CP) — Trade Minister Howe says in an article that in the space of 20 years manufacturing has grabbed the lead from agriculture and now is rolling ahead as Canada's most important industry.

Mr. Howe adds:

"...Further industrialization of the Canadian economy is one of the important factors contributing to a continuing high level of employment and income, with which a rising standard of living of the Canadian people is intimately associated."

As an example of Canadian industrial strides, the trade minister says in 1919 agriculture contributed 44 per cent of the total net value of commodity production, compared with 33 per cent for manufacturing.

By 1945, manufacturing had increased its lead to 52 per cent against 21 per cent for agriculture —and the trend was continuing.

OTTAWA, Jan. 10—(CP).—George Drew, National leader of the Progressive Conservative Party, today was sworn in as a member of the Commons and officially took over his duties as leader of the Opposition. At a press conference, Mr. Drew said that a caucus of party members will be held Jan. 24, two days before the opening of the session. The party's plans for the session will be discussed by the caucus.

CCL Threatens To Suspend Jackson's UEW

TORONTO, —an. 10 — (CP) — The United Electrical Workers (CIO) is scheduled to discuss with officials of the Canadian Congress of Labor today the question of the union's withdrawal from a Hamilton pottery plant. The union has been given until Tuesday to withdraw.

Workers at the plant who were members of an AFL union decided to switch to a CCL union. They applied to the United Steelworkers of America (CIO) for affiliation with the steel union which referred the workers to the CCL. But the CCL refused to step in until the AFL contract expired.

At that stage, the UEW signed up the pottery plant workers and applied to the Ontario Labor Relations Board for certification. The Labor Board has not yet handed down its decision.

If the 25,000-member UEW refuses to obey the CCL order to get out of the pottery plant, it may be suspended from the CCL.

By cutting its ties with the Congress the UE would leave itself open to raiding by other unions, and this may be a factor in the UE decision which will be given to the Congress executive today.

The Congress withdrawal order, never made public, was handed to the UE 30 days ago and the union was given until tomorrow to obey or face the penalty.

The UE is considered as giving the lead to other unions which follow the Communist line on political issues and its decision in this case will have added significance.

Jackson, Canadian president of the United Electrical Workers, (C.I.O.) and other officials of the union are today meeting in Ottawa with the Council of the Canadian Congress of Labor over the question of the union's withdrawal.

$41 Billion Record Budget Submitted By Truman; Half For National Defence

President Asks Four Billion Increase In Tax Revenue From US; Spending Program Up $1,678,000,000

By GEORGE RONALD

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10—(CP).—President Truman today submitted to Congress a record peacetime budget of $41,858,000,000. Slightly more than half is earmarked for national defence and foreign affairs. The President urged continued full-scale economic aid to the free countries of western Europe, asked money to keep the United States armed forces at unprecedented peacetime strength and repeated his request for legislation providing an extra $4,000,000,000 in tax revenue.

Without that additional income, he said, the Government will spend more than it takes in during the fiscal year starting next July 1. That would mean a deficit of $873,000,000.

These important disclosures were made on highest authority following issuance of the budget message:

1. The President figures on July 1 being the effective date for the $4,000,000,000-a-year tax increase he wants on corporation, estates, and "middle and upper" bracket income. He thinks it may yield only $2,000,000,000 in fiscal 1950, however, because of a time lag in collections.

2. The President expects to finance his proposed national health insurance program with a ½-of-one-per-cent. total tax on payrolls, beginning next July 1. Employees and employers each would pay ¼ of one per cent.

3. An estimate that individual income tax collections in 1950 will yield $19,135,000,000 reckons that individual incomes will remain at the recent record-high annual rate of $215,000,000,000 and the Federal income tax alone will drain off nearly 1-10th of that.

Ask More Later

The president said he is going to ask for more money later on to provide arms for western Europe and "certain other countries" where such help is important to the security of the United States.

The $21,000,000,000 he believes the government will need for defence and its foreign commitments does not include any military-aid allocation.

The defence estimate is $14,300,000,000 compared with the $11,800,000,000 estimate for the current year. It is is line with the recommendations of the President's three-man council of economic advisers. They warned late last year—amid reports that the armed forces wanted as much as $25,000,000,000 for derfence—that $15,000,000,000 was the outside figure in the national economy was to remain healthy.

Mr. Truman recommended that $8,000,000 be set aside for the St. Lawrence seaway and power project and $56,000,000 for a proposed international wheat agreement.

Estimated international expenditures amount to $6,700,000,000, a slight drop from the 7,200,000,-

Truman Urges 8 Million Spent On Seaway

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10—(CP). — President Truman, renewing his request for action on the St. Lawrence seaway and power project, urged today an initial outlay of $8,000,000.

That figure, his estimate of what the United States should spend in the fiscal year starting next July 1, is new.

But it was the third time in five days that he has asked Congress to approve the huge Canadian-American scheme. He made the same recommendation in his "state of the union" message last Wednesday and in his economic message two days later.

Total cost of the project, which calls for a 2,200,000-horse power Hydro development near Cornwall is estimated at $960,000,000.

Representative Clarence Kilburn (Rep., NY) already has introduced a bill to authorize the project this year.

"The navigational aspects of this project," Truman said today, "have recently assumed an increased importance as a result of the prospects for developing high-grade iron-ore deposits in Labrador.

"As our domestic deposits become depleted, the proposed seaway will become an important link between our steel industry and this new potential source of ore. Furthermore, this dual-purpose project is needed as a source of low-cost power."

66 Teen Agers Battle At Cafe

TORONTO, Jan. 10—(CP)—A teen-age gang battle involving about 60 youths and girls was fought Sunday night at suburban Long Branch.

It took police half an hour to break up the fracas and arrest four Toronto youths for questioning. About 12 boys and girls were reported injured.

Police said that about 30 young persons believed members of the west-end "Junction Gang" drove in trucks and automobiles to an all-night restaurant at Long Branch. Wielding soft drink bottles and throwing pepper, they attacked 10 or 12 Long Branch youths. After the battle, they carried off their wounded in the trucks and cars.
